51 "He[n] is the tower of salvation to His king,
And shows mercy to His [o]anointed,
To David and [p]his descendants
forevermore."

David's Last Words

23 Now these are the last words of David.

Thus says David the son of Jesse;
Thus says [a]the man raised up on high,
[b]The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel:

2 "The[c] Spirit of the LORD spoke by me,
And His word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said,
[d]The Rock of Israel spoke to me:
'He who rules over men must be just,
Ruling [e]in the fear of God.
4 And [f]he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
A morning without clouds,
Like the tender grass springing out of
the earth,
By clear shining after rain.'

5 "Although my house is not so with
God,
[g]Yet He has made with me an everlasting covenant,
Ordered in all things and secure.
For this is all my salvation and all my desire;
Will He not make it increase?
6 But the sons of rebellion shall all be as thorns thrust away,
Because they cannot be taken with hands.
7 But the man who touches them Must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear,
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place."

David's Mighty Men

8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-Basshebeth* the Tachmonite, chief among the captains.* He was called Adino the Eznite, because he had killed eight hundred men at one time. 9 And after him was [h]Eleazar the son of Dodo,* the Ahohite, one of the 22:47 The LORD lives. This shout of exaltation is the heart cry of every follower of God. The difference between the Living God and the dead idols that entrapped so many in the countries around him stood out very strongly to David.

22:51 His anointed. David was anointed by God to be king of Israel. He was set aside for a certain job. Jesus is the ultimate Anointed One, which is the meaning of the Hebrew name Messiah and the Greek name Christ.

23:1 sweet psalmist of Israel. Of the 150 psalms in the Book of Psalms, 73 are attributed to David by the text. No person in Scriptures is more closely associated with music in the worship of the Lord than King David. He left behind a beautiful record of his heartfelt love of the Lord, his struggles, and his victories.

23:3–4 Fear of God—For centuries certain dynasties of rulers in Europe claimed the divine right to rule. Certainly the Bible teaches that government is ordained of God (Rom. 13). But it also teaches that rulers have a deep stewardship responsibility. They are to rule men in the fear of God. Over and over again it is shown that God sets rulers in place, and also deposes those who consistently rebel against Him.

23:5 everlasting covenant. David celebrates his everlasting covenant (7:12–16) here and in Psalm 89.

23:6–7 the sons of rebellion. The worthless, rebellious, or literally "the sons of Belial." This is a term of contempt and scorn, the word that Shimei hurled at David when David was fleeing from the rebellion of his son Absalom (16:7). The word was also used to describe Sheba, the scoundrel from the tribe of Benjamin (20:1). David anticipated God's judgment on the ungodly, who are likened to thorns fit only to be burned.

23:8 mighty men. The term "mighty men" suggests that these were the elite of David's troops, possibly his personal bodyguards. These men were heroes in the full sense of the word. Their listing must have inspired others to attain such accomplishments.

three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Israel had retreated. 10He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand was [i]weary, and his hand stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to [j]plunder. 11And after him was [k]Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. [l]The Philistines had gathered together into a troop where there was a piece of ground full of lentils. So the people fled from the Philistines. 12But he stationed himself in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

13Then [m]three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to David at [n]the cave of Adullam. And the troop of Philistines encamped in [o]the Valley of Rephaim. 14David was then in [p]the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 15And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" 16So the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless he would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD. 17And he said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is this not [q]the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it.

These things were done by the three mighty men.

18Now [r]Abishai the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of another three.* He lifted his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three. 19Was he not the most honored of three? Therefore he became their captain. However, he did not attain to the first three.

20Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from [s]Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. [t]He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day. 21And he killed an Egyptian, a spectacular man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; so he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. 22These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men. 23He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him [u]over his guard.

24[v]Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, 25[w]Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, 26Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, 27Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, 28Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, 29Heleb the son of Baanah (the Netophathite), Ittai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, 30Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the brooks of [x]Gaash, 31Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, 32Eliahba the Shaalbonite (of the sons of Jashen), Jonathan, 33[y]Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite, 34Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of [z]Ahithophel the Gilonite, 35Hezrai* the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, 36Igal the son of Nathan of [a]Zobah, Bani the Gadite, 37Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite (armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah), 38[b]Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, 39*and* [c]Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

David's Census of Israel and Judah

24 Again [a]the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, [b]"Go, number Israel and Judah."

2So the king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Now go throughout all the tribes of Israel, [c]from Dan to Beersheba, and count the people, that [d]I may know the number of the people."

* 23:18 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Vulgate; some Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac read thirty; Targum reads the mighty men.

23:13–14 Valley of Rephaim. This valley was a route to Jerusalem. Bethlehem. David's hometown (1 Sam. 16:1–3) was about six miles south of Jerusalem.

23:15 give me drink of the water from the well of Bethlehem. Anyone who has grown up with an especially good well for drinking water can identify with David's craving. The taste of the water from the well at "home" seems more thirst-quenching, more heartening, than any other.

23:16 poured it out to the LORD. David was deeply moved by this act of loyalty. He could have let it make him feel important, but instead he dedicated the water to the Lord, knowing that no man's craving should be satisfied at the risk of another man's life.

3And Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God [e]add to the people a hundred times more than there are, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it.
But why does my lord the king desire this thing?" 4Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab and against the captains of the army. Therefore Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel.

5And they crossed over the Jordan and camped in [f]Aroer, on the right side of the town which is in the midst of the ravine of Gad, and toward [g]Jazer. 6Then they came to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim Hod-shi; they came to [h]Dan Jaan and around to [i]Sidon; 7and they came to the stronghold of [j]Tyre and to all the cities of the [k]Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to South Judah as far as Beersheba. 8So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king. [l]And there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

The Judgment on David's Sin

10And [m]David's heart condemned him after he had numbered the people. So [n]David said to the LORD, [o]"I have sinned greatly in what I have done; but now, I pray, O LORD, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have [p]done very foolishly."

11Now when David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet [q]Gad, David's [r]seer, saying, 12"Go and tell David, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you."'" 13So Gad came to David and told him; and he said to him, "Shall [s]seven* years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' plague in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should take back to Him who sent me."

14And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let us fall into the hand of the LORD, [t]for His mercies are great; but [u]do not let me fall into the hand of man."

15So [v]the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning till the appointed time. From Dan to Beersheba seventy thousand men of the people died. 16[w]And when the angel* stretched out His hand over Jerusalem to destroy it, [x]the LORD relented from the destruction, and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "It is enough; now restrain your hand." And the angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah* the Jebusite.

17Then David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking the people, and said, "Surely [y]I have sinned, and I have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father's house."

The Altar on the Threshing Floor

18And Gad came that day to David and said to him, [z]"Go up, erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." 19So David, according to the word of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded. 20Now Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming toward him. So Araunah went out and bowed before the king with his face to the ground.

21Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

[a]And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that [b]the plague may be withdrawn from the people."

22Now Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up whatever seems good to him. [c]Look, here are oxen for burnt sacrifice, and threshing

24:3 why does my lord the king desire this thing. God was angry with Israel, and the numbering and resulting pestilence were a part of His plan to deal with Israel in such a way that they did not become complacent. This incident is not well explained in Scripture. Joab knew that David was acting presumptuously, but at this point David could not see it. Perhaps the census showed a lack of trust in the Lord, and a sense that the might of the nation rested in its armed men.

24:9 men who drew the sword. The numbers given refer only to men of military age. It is impressive that the division of Israel and Judah was so well established. This division would in the end result in a divided kingdom.

24:10 David's heart condemned him. The text does not state precisely what David's sin was. His heart was always sensitive to God's will, and he quickly confessed his sin and sought restoration with the Lord.

implements and the yokes of the oxen for wood. 23All these, O king, Araunah has given to the king."

And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God [d]accept you."

24Then the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price; nor will I offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God with that which costs me nothing." So [e]David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. 25And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. [f]So the LORD heeded the prayers for the land, and [g]the plague was withdrawn from Israel.

24:24 threshing floor. The threshing floor was located on Mount Moriah, where Abraham had bound Isaac (Gen. 22:2). Later, Solomon would build the temple at this site (1 Kin. 6:1; 1 Chr. 21:27—22:1; 2 Chr. 3:1). fifty shekels of silver. The fifty shekels of silver paid only for the threshing floor, the oxen, and the implements. The land that surrounded the threshing floor would cost considerably more—six hundred shekels, or 15 pounds of gold (1 Chr. 21:25).

24:25 burnt offerings and peace offerings. The burnt offering was the principal atoning sacrifice for unintentional sins (Lev. 1:1–17; 6:8–13). It was completely consumed on the altar, except for the hide, which was given to the officiating priest. The peace offering was an optional sacrifice, which did not form any part of the regular offerings required in the tabernacle or temple. It was a voluntary expression of thanksgiving or worship (Lev. 3:1–17; 7:11–34).

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE KINGS

▶ AUTHOR: Both 1 and 2 Kings emphasize God's righteous judgment on idolatry and immorality. The style of these books is similar to that found in Jeremiah. The author of 1 Kings is unknown, but evidence supports the Talmudic tradition that Kings was written by Jeremiah. Clearly, the author was a prophet/historian as evidenced in the prophetic exposé of apostasy.

▶ TIME: c. 971–851 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 Kin. 9:4–5

▶ THEME: First Kings continues the saga of the kings of Israel after David. Solomon's reign and the details of the building of the temple take up a major portion of 1 Kings. After Solomon, the kingdom divides, and we have parallel narratives of the northern kingdom, Israel, and the southern kingdom, Judah. The book covers a span of about 120 years. During these years, idolatry becomes the norm, and God is largely forgotten. After Solomon, the main character of the book is Elijah the prophet.

Adonijah Presumes to Be King

1 Now King David was [a]old, advanced in years; and they put covers on him, but he could not get warm. 2Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young woman, a virgin, be sought for our lord the king, and let her stand before the king, and let her care for him; and let her lie in your bosom, that our lord the king may be warm." 3So they sought for a lovely young woman throughout all the territory of Israel, and found [b]Abishag the [c]Shunammite, and brought her to the king. 4The young woman was very lovely; and she cared for the king, and served him; but the king did not know her.

5Then [d]Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; and [e]he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. 6(And his father had not rebuked him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" He was also very good-looking. [f]His mother had borne him after Absalom.) 7Then he conferred with [g]Joab the son of Zeruiah and with [h]Abiathar the priest, and [i]they followed and helped Adonijah. 8But [j]Zadok the priest, [k]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, [l]Nathan the prophet, [m]Shimei, Rei, and [n]the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah.

9And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and oxen and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by [o]En Rogel; he also invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants. 10But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or [p]Solomon his brother.

11So Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of [q]Haggith has become king, and David our lord does not know it? 12Come, please, let me now give you advice, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1:1 King David was old. David was about seventy years old at the time of his death (2 Sam. 5:4; 1 Chr. 29:26–28), and the long years of warfare had doubtlessly taken their physical toll.

1:5 Adonijah. The name Adonijah means "the LORD is my Lord." Amnon and Absalom both experienced violent deaths (2 Sam. 13:28–29; 18:14). Chiliab, his second son, apparently died at an early age. Adonijah was David's oldest surviving son.

1:6 had not rebuked him. While David had been a most capable leader and a man of deep spiritual sensitivity, he had not exercised proper parental discipline of his children (2 Sam. 13:21–39; 14:18–24).

1:11 Nathan. It is a mark of David's integrity that Nathan, who had confronted him with his terrible sin with Bathsheba, was still welcome in the royal household (2 Sam. 12:1–15).

1:11–14 Wisdom—In Old Testament times, messages from God were often given through personal prophecy. Today, believers do not often receive messages through prophecy. God has given the higher privilege of direct access to His wisdom through the ministry of the indwelling Holy Spirit in all who

13 Go immediately to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my lord, O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, [r]"Assuredly your son Solomon shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?' 14 Then, while you are still talking there with the king,
I also will come in after you and confirm your words."

15 So Bathsheba went into the chamber to the king. (Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king.) 16 And Bathsheba bowed and did homage to the king. Then the king said,
"What is your wish?"

17 Then she said to him, "My lord, [s]you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' 18 So now, look! Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know about it. 19 [t]He has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab
the commander of the army; but Solomon your servant he has not invited. 20 And as for you, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, that you should tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwise it will happen, when my lord the king [u]rests with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted as offenders."

22 And just then, while she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. 23 So they told the king, saying, "Here is Nathan the prophet." And when he came in before the king, he bowed down before the king with his face to the ground. 24 And Nathan said, "My lord, O king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'?
25 [v]For he has gone down today, and has sacrificed oxen and fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, and the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest; and look! They are eating and drinking before him; and they say, [w]'Long live King Adonijah!' 26 But he has not invited me—me your servant—nor Zadok the priest, nor Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, nor your servant Solomon. 27 Has this thing been done by my lord the king, and you have not told your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

David Proclaims Solomon King

28 Then King David answered and said,
"Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the king's presence and stood before the king. 29 And the king took an oath and said, [x]"As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from every distress, 30 [y]just as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying,
'Assuredly Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' so I certainly will do this day."

31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and paid homage to the king, and said, [z]"Let my lord King David live
forever!"

32 And King David said, "Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." So they came before the king. 33 The king also said to them, [a]"Take with you the servants of your lord, and have Solomon my son ride on my own [b]mule, and take him down to [c]Gihon.
34 There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [d]anoint him king over Israel;
and [e]blow the horn, and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' 35 Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall be king in my place.
For I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

36 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, [f]"Amen! May the LORD God of my lord the king say so too. 37 [g]As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may He be with Solomon, and [h]make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, [i]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the [j]Cherethites, and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and took him to Gihon. 39 Then Zadok the priest took a horn of [k]oil from the tabernacle and [l]anointed Solomon. And they blew the horn, [m]and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!" 40 And all the people went believe. Today believers have access to God's wisdom through His Word, His indwelling Spirit, and counsel from mature Christians.

1:29 who has redeemed my life. In these words of praise, David celebrated the innumerable times that the Lord had acted on his behalf, to deliver him from his enemies and from his own sins. Some of David's psalms were written in connection with those times of God's deliverance (Ps. 40; 142).

1:38 the Cherethites, and the Pelethites. These two groups were part of David's bodyguard (2 Sam. 8:18; 15:18; 20:7). Their association with David stretched back to his days among the Philistines, with whom the Cherethites are usually identified (1 Sam. 30:13–14; Ezek. 25:16; Zeph. 2:5).

1:39 Zadok . . . anointed Solomon. Every priestly anointing would recall the words of Psalm 2, in accordance with the words of the Davidic covenant of 2 Samuel 7. The anointing announced that the anointed one was now the adopted son of the living God.

up after him; and the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth seemed to split with their sound.

41Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the horn, he said, "Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?" 42While he was still speaking, there came [n]Jonathan, the son of Abiathar the priest. And Adonijah said to him, "Come in, for [o]you are a prominent man, and bring good news."

43Then Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "No! Our lord King David has made Solomon king. 44The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites, and the Pelethites; and they have made him ride on the king's mule. 45So Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you have heard. 46Also Solomon [p]sits on the throne of the kingdom. 47And moreover the king's servants have gone to bless our lord King David, saying, [q]'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne.' [r]Then the king bowed himself on the bed. 48Also the king said thus, 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has [s]given one to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see [t]it!'"

49So all the guests who were with Adonijah were afraid, and arose, and each one went his way.

50Now Adonijah was afraid of Solomon; so he arose, and went and [u]took hold of the horns of the altar. 51And it was told Solomon, saying, "Indeed Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; for look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'"

52Then Solomon said, "If he proves himself a worthy man, [v]not one hair of him shall fall to the earth; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die." 53So King Solomon sent them to bring him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

David's Instructions to Solomon

2 Now [a]the days of David drew near that he should die, and he charged Solomon his son, saying: 2[b]"I go the way of all the earth; [c]be strong, therefore, and prove yourself a man. 3And keep the charge of the LORD your God: to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may [d]prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn; 4that the LORD may [e]fulfill His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, [f]'If your sons take heed to their way, to [g]walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' He said, [h]'you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

5"Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah [i]did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to [j]Abner the son of Ner and [k]Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed. And he shed the blood of war in peacetime, and put the blood of war on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet. 6Therefore do [l]according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray hair go down to the grave in peace.

7"But show kindness to the sons of [m]Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who [n]eat at your table, for so [o]they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

8"And see, you have with you [p]Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a malicious

1:50 took hold of the horns of the altar. This action was in keeping with the traditional function of the altar as a haven of refuge for those who had committed unintentional crimes (Ex. 21:12–14).

1:53 Forgiveness—Solomon chose to forgive Adonijah for his attempted usurpation of the throne, realizing that Adonijah had legitimate reason to think that he should be the next king. Wiser than his years, young Solomon overlooked the offense of his brother rather than bring any reproach on his reign at this early stage. Sadly, Adonijah proved himself unworthy of his pardon, making another attempt to take the throne after his father David was dead.

2:4 shall not lack a man on the throne. God had made an unconditional covenant with David (2 Sam. 7:12–16; 1 Chr. 17:11–14; Ps. 89), granting him a continual posterity and a royal dynasty. Although the Davidic covenant was an everlasting sacred promise, individual kings through their evil behavior could fail to receive the benefits of the covenant. The line of promise would be preserved, but the time would come when the promised Ruler would not be on an earthly throne (Hos. 3:4). God's prophets predict that the heir to the throne of David will yet reign over a repentant, regathered, and restored Israel (Jer. 33:19–26; Ezek. 34:22–31) in fulfillment of the promises of the covenants (Ezek. 37:21–28; Mic. 7:18–20). The New Testament reveals that all this will be realized in Jesus Christ, the Savior King (Acts 3:25–26; 15:16–17; Gal. 3:26–29; Rev. 3:21), who is David's Heir in the ultimate sense (Acts 2:22–36).

2:5–8 Joab . . . Shimei. David knew that these two men would cause trouble for Solomon if they were not dealt with. Joab had murdered two generals (2 Sam.

curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But [q]he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and [r]I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.' 9Now therefore, [s]do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man and know what you ought to do to him; but [t]bring his gray hair down to the grave with blood."

Death of David

10So [u]David rested with his fathers, and was buried in [v]the City of David. 11The period that David [w]reigned over Israel was forty years; seven years he reigned in Hebron, and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years. 12[x]Then Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was [y]firmly established.

Solomon Executes Adonijah

13Now Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. So she said, [z]"Do you come peaceably?"

And he said, "Peaceably." 14Moreover he said, "I have something to say to you."

And she said, "Say it."

15Then he said, "You know that the kingdom was [a]mine, and all Israel had set their expectations on me, that I should reign. However, the kingdom has been turned over, and has become my brother's; for [b]it was his from the LORD. 16Now I ask one petition of you; do not deny me."

And she said to him, "Say it."

17Then he said, "Please speak to King Solomon, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me [c]Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

18So Bathsheba said, "Very well, I will speak for you to the king."

19Bathsheba therefore went to King Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her and [d]bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother; [e]so she sat at his right hand. 20Then she said, "I desire one small petition of you; do not refuse me."

And the king said to her, "Ask it, my mother, for I will not refuse you."

21So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

22And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also—for he is my [f]older brother—for him, and for [g]Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah." 23Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, [h]"May God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life! 24Now therefore, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has established a house* for me, as He [i]promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today!"

25So King Solomon sent by the hand of [j]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he struck him down, and he died.

Abiathar Exiled, Joab Executed

26And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to [k]Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are deserving of death; but I will not put you to death at this time, [l]because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you were afflicted every time my father was afflicted." 27So Solomon removed Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might [m]fulfill the word of the LORD which He spoke concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

28Then news came to Joab, for Joab [n]had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. So Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD, and [o]took hold of the horns of the altar. 29And King Solomon was told, "Joab has fled to the tabernacle of the LORD; there he is, by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, [p]strike him down." 30So Benaiah went to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, [q]'Come out!'"

And he said, "No, but I will die here." And Benaiah brought back word to the king, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

31Then the king said to him, [r]"Do as he has said, and strike him down and bury him, [s]that you may take away from me and from the house of my father the innocent

3:27; 20:10), killed David's son Absalom (2 Sam. 18:14), and joined Adonijah's conspiracy (1:7,19). Shimei had cursed the king and treated him shamefully as he was fleeing from Absalom (2 Sam. 16:5–13; 19:16–23).

2:27 Abiathar. This act fulfilled God's word to Eli, removing the last of his descendants from serving before the Lord (1 Sam. 2:30–33). When Abiathar was removed from office, his influence was greatly restricted. Solomon spared his life in recognition of his past service to God and David (2 Sam. 15:24,29; 1 Chr. 15:11–15).

2:28 horns of the altar. Because Joab was a murderer (2 Sam. 3:27; 18:14; 20:10), he could not claim the protective sanctity of the horns of the altar, and could not escape execution.

blood which Joab shed. 32So the LORD [t]will return his blood on his head, because he struck down two men more righteous [u]and better than he, and killed them with the sword—[v]Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and [w]Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah—though my father David did not know it. 33Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab and [x]upon the head of his descendants forever. [y]But upon David and his descendants, upon his house and his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD."

34So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. 35The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and the king put [z]Zadok the priest in the place of [a]Abiathar.

Shimei Executed

36Then the king sent and called for [b]Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere. 37For it shall be, on the day you go out and cross [c]the Brook Kidron, know for certain you shall surely die; [d]your blood shall be on your own head."

38And Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so your servant will do." So Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39Now it happened at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shimei ran away to [e]Achish the son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your slaves are in Gath!" 40So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Achish at Gath to seek his slaves. And Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath. 41And Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had come back. 42Then the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go out and travel anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.' 43Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?" 44The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know, as your heart acknowledges, [f]all the wickedness that you did to my father David; therefore the LORD will [g]return your wickedness on your own head. 45But King Solomon shall be blessed, and [h]the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever."

46So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. Thus the [i]kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

3 Now [a]Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and married Pharaoh's daughter; then he brought her [b]to the City of David until he had finished building his [c]own house, and [d]the house of the LORD, and [e]the wall all around Jerusalem. 2[f]Meanwhile the people sacrificed at the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days. 3And Solomon [g]loved the LORD, [h]walking in the statutes of his father David, except that he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

4Now [i]the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, [j]for that was the great high place: Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. 5[k]At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon [l]in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

6[m]And Solomon said: "You have shown great mercy to Your servant David my father, because he [n]walked before You in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You; You have continued this great kindness for him, and You [o]have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. 7Now, O LORD my God, You have made Your servant king instead of my father David, but I am a [p]little child; I do not know how [q]to go out or come in. 8And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You [r]have chosen, a great people, too [s]numerous to be numbered or counted. 9[t]Therefore give to Your servant an understanding heart [u]to judge Your people, that I may [v]discern between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

2:35 Zadok. Zadok was a descendant of Eleazar, the son of Aaron (1 Chr. 6:4–8).

3:1 made a treaty. In the ancient Middle East, political alliances were often ratified by the marriage of the son of one king to the daughter of another. Except in unusual circumstances, the pharaohs of Egypt did not observe this custom. Therefore, the giving of Pharaoh's daughter to Solomon attested to the Israelite king's growing prestige and importance to the Egyptians.

3:7 but I am a little child. The term "child" often refers to a servant or to an inexperienced person still in training for a profession. With proper humility, Solomon stressed his relative youth and inexperience.

10 The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. 11 Then God said to him: "Because you have asked this thing, and have [w]not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice, 12 [x]behold, I have done according to your words; [y]see, I have given you a wise and understanding heart, so that there has not been anyone like you before you, nor shall any like you arise after you. 13 And I have also [z]given you what you have not asked: both [a]riches and honor, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the kings all your days. 14 So [b]if you walk in My ways, to keep My statutes and My commandments, [c]as your father David walked, then I will [d]lengthen your days."

15 Then Solomon [e]awoke; and indeed it had been a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and [f]made a feast for all his servants.

Solomon's Wise Judgment

16 Now two women who were harlots came to the king, and [g]stood before him. 17 And one woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I dwell in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house. 18 Then it happened, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together; no one was with us in the house, except the two of us in the house. 19 And this woman's son died in the night, because she lay on him. 20 So she arose in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your maidservant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. 21 And when I rose in the morning to nurse my son, there he was, dead. But when I had examined him in the morning, indeed, he was not my son whom I had borne."

22 Then the other woman said, "No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son."

And the first woman said, "No! But the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son."

Thus they spoke before the king.

23 And the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one'; and the other says, 'No! But your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'" 24 Then the king said, "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king. 25 And the king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other."

26 Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for [h]she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!"

But the other said, "Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him."

27 So the king answered and said, "Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother."

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had rendered; and they feared the king, for they saw that the [i]wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

Solomon's Administration

4 So King Solomon was king over all Israel. 2 And these were his officials: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest; 3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; [a]Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; 4 [b]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, over the army; Zadok and [c]Abiathar, the priests; 5 Azariah the son of Nathan, over [d]the officers; Zabud the son of Nathan, [e]a priest and [f]the king's friend; 6 Ahishar, over the household; and [g]Adoniram the son of Abda, over the labor force.

3:14 Obedience—Because he loved God above all at this time of his life (v. 3), and chose wisdom and discernment for his office, Solomon received even more—riches and honor and distinction. Obedient in many ways, he was accordingly blessed by God. When commands are given by a loving, caring person, obedience must result in blessing. God repeatedly stated this principle (Deut. 5:29—6:24). Saul, David, and Solomon all lost blessing because of disobedience. This was not because of narrowness or rigidity on God's part. He does not give us commands to make our lives harder, or to be harsh and demanding. His commands have blessings built in—He is showing us the best way to live.

3:15 ark of the covenant. Although David had brought the ark of the covenant to Jerusalem (2 Sam. 6) the tabernacle and its furnishings remained in Gibeon, which served as an important worship center (v. 4; 2 Chr. 1:3–5). After its capture by the Philistines (1 Sam. 5–6), the ark never returned to the tabernacle. The ark was not in the Most Holy Place again until it was placed in Solomon's temple.

3:28 wisdom . . . justice. These important qualities which marked Solomon's reign would characterize the rule of Israel's Messiah in a far greater way (Is. 11:1–5). David's final words to Solomon were, "do according to your wisdom" (2:6). Wisdom does not dwell as a recluse among books in the study. Rather, wisdom stands with confidence at the crossroads of life. Solomon's wisdom was decisive. Through God he was able to observe the actions of others and in this way have a revelation of the truth.

7And Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each one made provision for one month of the year.
8These are their names: Ben-Hur,* in the mountains of Ephraim; 9Ben-Deker,* in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan; 10Ben-Hesed,* in Arub-both; to him belonged Sochoh and all the land of Hepher; 11Ben-Abinadab,* in all the regions of Dor; he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife; 12Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth Shean, which is beside Zaretan below Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as the other side of Jok-neam; 13Ben-Geber,* in Ramoth Gilead; to him belonged [h]the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, in Gilead; to him also belonged
[i]the region of Argob in Bashan—sixty large cities with walls and bronze gate-bars; 14Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Ma-hanaim; 15[j]Ahimaaz, in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife; 16Baanah the son of [k]Hushai, in Asher and Aloth; 17Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; 18[l]Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin; 19Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, in [m]the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan. He was the only governor who was in the land.

Prosperity and Wisdom of Solomon's Reign

20Judah and Israel were as numerous [n]as the sand by the sea in multitude, [o]eating and drinking and rejoicing. 21So [p]Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from [q]the River* to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. [r]They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22[s]Now Solomon's provision for one day was thirty kors of fine flour, sixty kors of meal, 23ten fatted oxen, twenty oxen from the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.

24For he had dominion over all the region on this side of the River* from Tiphsah even to Gaza, namely over [t]all the kings on this side of the River; and [u]he had peace on every side all around him. 25And Judah and Israel [v]dwelt safely, [w]each man under his vine and his fig tree, [x]from Dan as far as Beersheba, all the days of Solomon.

26[y]Solomon had forty* thousand stalls of [z]horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. 27And [a]these governors, each man in his month, provided food for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table. There was no lack in their supply. 28They also brought barley and straw to the proper place, for the horses and steeds, each man according to his charge.

29And [b]God gave Solomon wisdom and exceedingly great understanding, and largeness of heart like the sand on the seashore. 30Thus Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the men [c]of the East and all [d]the wisdom of Egypt. 31For he was [e]wiser than all men—[f]than Ethan the Ezrahite, [g]and Heman, Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the surrounding nations. 32[h]He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his [i]songs were one thousand and five. 33Also he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall;
he spoke also of animals, of birds, of creeping things, and of fish. 34And men of all nations, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, [j]came to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

4:7–19 twelve governors. These men were responsible for handling lesser administrative tasks and raising revenue for the crown. The districts did not follow tribal boundaries.

4:18 Shimei. This is not the same Shimei who cursed David (2 Sam. 16:5–13), but probably the man mentioned in 1:8 as a supporter of Solomon.

4:20 numerous as the sand. God fulfilled His promise to make Abraham's descendants numerous (Gen. 15:5,18). Solomon's empire extended far beyond the traditional boundaries of Israel. Through this greatly expanded empire, Hebrew people not only traveled to far-flung regions, but they took with them their knowledge of the living God.

4:21 from the River. This refers to the Euphrates.

4:22 kors. A kor was the same size as a homer (Ezek. 45:14); at between six and seven bushels, it was the normal load for a donkey.

4:29 wisdom. The three terms used in this verse underscore Solomon's depth of understanding. He was not merely intelligent, able to understand facts and logic; he was also given the ability to apply his intelligence to problems which defy logic, possessing a rare understanding of human beings with all their emotional and spiritual complexities.

4:32–34 proverbs . . . songs. Solomon was the author of a large part of the Book of Proverbs. He is also traditionally assigned the authorship of the Song of Solomon, Psalms 72 and 127, and Ecclesiastes.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

5 Now [a]Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, because he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, [b]for Hiram had always loved David. 2 Then [c]Solomon sent to Hiram, saying:

3 [d]You know how my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God [e]because of the wars which were fought against him on every side, until the LORD put *his foes under the soles of his feet.
4 But now the LORD my God has given me [f]rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor evil occurrence.
5 [g]And behold, I propose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, [h]as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, "Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for My name."
6 Now therefore, command that they cut down [i]cedars for me from Lebanon; and my servants will be with your servants, and I will pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who has skill to cut timber like the Sidonians.

7 So it was, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly and said,

Blessed be the LORD this day, for He has given David a wise son over this great people!

8 Then Hiram sent to Solomon, saying:

I have considered the message which you sent me, and I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.
9 My servants shall bring them down [j]from Lebanon to the sea; I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you indicate to me, and will have them broken apart there; then you can take them away. And you shall fulfill my desire [k]by giving food for my household.

10 Then Hiram gave Solomon cedar and cypress logs according to all his desire. 11 [l]And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty* kors of pressed oil. Thus Solomon gave to Hiram year by year.
12 So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, [m]as He had promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty together.
13 Then King Solomon raised up a labor force out of all Israel; and the labor force was thirty thousand men. 14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts: they were one month in Lebanon and two months at home; [n]Adoniram was in charge of the labor force. 15 [o]Solomon had seventy thousand who carried burdens, and eighty thousand who quarried stone in the mountains, 16 besides three thousand three hundred* from the [p]chiefs of Solomon's deputies, who supervised the people who labored in the work. 17 And the king commanded them to quarry large stones, costly stones, and [q]hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the temple.* 18 So Solomon's builders, Hiram's builders, and the Gebalites quarried them; and they prepared timber and stones to build the temple.

Solomon Builds the Temple

6 And [a]it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth* year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, [b]that he began to build the house of the LORD. 2 Now [c]the house which King Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, its width twenty, and its height thirty cubits. 3 The vestibule in front

5:1 Hiram. This Phoenician king ruled over Tyre for 34 years (978–944 B.C.).
5:7 Blessed be the LORD. Acknowledging the deities of another people is well known in the Bible (Dan. 3:28) and other ancient Middle Eastern literature. It does not necessarily imply that Hiram was expressing faith in God.
5:13 raised up a labor force . . . thirty thousand men. Solomon's long and extensive use of this type of social conscription to accomplish his vast building projects became a source of considerable difficulty for his successor, Rehoboam (12:4).
6:1 four hundred and eightieth year. Many scholars take this date as the key date for establishing the time of the Exodus. The division of the kingdom at the death of Solomon can be dated at 930 B.C. (11:41–43). Allowing forty years for Solomon's rule (11:42), the fourth year of his reign would be 966 B.C. If the Exodus took place 480 years before 966 B.C., its date was 1446 B.C.
6:2 house . . . for the LORD. Solomon followed the floor plan of the tabernacle, but doubled its dimensions. Solomon's temple was constructed on Mount Moriah, the mountain where Abraham was told to offer Isaac as a sacrifice (Gen. 22:2; 2 Chr. 3:1), on the site of the threshing floor of Araunah where God had spoken to David (2 Sam. 24:24). cubits. The standard cubit was about 18 inches.

of the sanctuary* of the house was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the width of the vestibule extended* ten cubits from the front of the house. 4And he made for the house [d]windows with beveled frames.

5Against the wall of the temple he built [e]chambers all around, against the walls of the temple, all around the sanctuary [f]and the inner sanctuary.* Thus he made side chambers all around it. 6The lowest chamber was five cubits wide, the middle was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the temple, so that the support beams would not be fastened into the walls of the temple. 7And [g]the temple, when it was being built, was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the temple while it was being built. 8The doorway for the middle story* was on the right side of the temple. They went up by stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third.

9[h]So he built the temple and finished it, and he paneled the temple with beams and boards of cedar. 10And he built side chambers against the entire temple, each five cubits high; they were attached to the temple with cedar beams.

11Then the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying: 12"Concerning this temple which you are building, [i]if you walk in My statutes, execute My judgments, keep all My commandments, and walk in them, then I will perform My word with you, [j]which I spoke to your father David. 13And [k]I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not [l]forsake My people Israel."

23Inside the inner sanctuary [o]he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. 24One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing of the cherub five cubits: ten cubits from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other. 25And the other cherub was ten cubits; both cherubim were of the same size and shape. 26The height of one cherub was ten cubits, and so was the other cherub. 27Then he set the cherubim inside the inner room;* and [p]they stretched out the wings of the cherubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room. 28Also he overlaid the cherubim with gold.

31For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were one-fifth of the wall.

6:11 word of the LORD. This message to Solomon might have come by means of a prophet. On other occasions, Solomon had more personal encounters with the Lord (3:5; 9:2; 11:11).

6:19 ark of the covenant. The ark of the covenant (Deut. 10:8) was so named because it housed the two stone tablets of the covenant—the Ten Commandments (Deut. 10:1–5). The ark symbolized the presence of the sovereign God in the midst of His people (8:10–11; Josh. 3:13).

6:20 inner sanctuary. The Most Holy Place was a cube of thirty feet. gold. The amount of gold used in this room was about 21 tons or 600 talents (2 Chr. 3:8).

6:23 cherubim. Cherubim are mighty angelic beings, they were often depicted in the furnishings of the tabernacle and temple. Not a great deal is known about their nature. Cherubim were set to guard the entrance to the garden of Eden (Gen. 3:24). The only extensive description of their appearance is in the Book of Ezekiel (Ezek. 1:5–14; 10:1).

6:31 doors of olive wood. A veil or curtain was hung here as well (Ex. 26:31–36; 2 Chr. 3:14).

32 The two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees. 33 So for the door of the sanctuary he also made doorposts of olive wood, one-fourth of the wall. 34 And the two doors were of cypress wood; [r]two panels comprised one folding door, and two panels comprised the other folding door. 35 Then he carved cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers on them, and overlaid them with gold applied evenly on the carved work.

36 And he built the [s]inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.

37 [t]In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv. 38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its details and according to all its plans. So he was [u]seven years in building it.

Solomon's Other Buildings

7 But Solomon took [a]thirteen years to build his own house; so he finished all his house.

2 He also built the [b]House of the Forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, with four rows of cedar pillars, and cedar beams on the pillars. 3 And it was paneled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five pillars, fifteen to a row. 4 There were windows with beveled frames in three rows, and window was opposite window in three tiers. 5 And all the doorways and doorposts had rectangular frames; and window was opposite window in three tiers.

6 He also made the Hall of Pillars: its length was fifty cubits, and its width thirty cubits; and in front of them was a portico with pillars, and a canopy was in front of them.

7 Then he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Judgment, where he might judge;
and it was paneled with cedar from floor to ceiling.*

8 And the house where he dwelt had another court inside the hall, of like workmanship. Solomon also made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, [c]whom he had taken as wife.

9 All these were of costly stones cut to size, trimmed with saws, inside and out, from the foundation to the eaves, and also on the outside to the great court. 10 The foundation was of costly stones, large stones, some ten cubits and some eight cubits. 11 And above were costly stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood. 12 The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the [d]inner court of the house of the LORD [e]and the vestibule of the temple.

Hiram the Craftsman

13 Now King Solomon sent and brought Huram* from Tyre. 14 [f]He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and [g]his father was a man of Tyre, a bronze worker; [h]he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The Bronze Pillars for the Temple

15 And he cast [i]two pillars of bronze, each one eighteen cubits high, and a line of twelve cubits measured the circumfer-ence of each. 16 Then he made two capitals of cast bronze, to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. 17 He made a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the pillars:
seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital. 18 So he made the pillars, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top; and thus he did for the other capital.

19 The capitals which were on top of the pillars in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four cubits. 20 The capitals on the two pillars also had pomegranates above, by

* 7:7 Literally floor, that is, of the upper level
* 7:13 Hebrew Hiram (compare 2 Chronicles 2:13, 14)

6:38 Worship—in the midst of Solomon's building project he received a prophetic revelation from the Lord (vv. 11–14) in which a promise and a condition were prominent: the Lord would fulfill His promise to David if Solomon obeyed His laws. The temple was the external sign that the Lord would keep His covenant of grace and dwell among the people. Worship can never be divorced from obedience to God's laws in everyday life.

7:1–2 House of the Forest of Lebanon. This building was also apparently used as an armory (10:16–17; Is. 22:8).

7:13–14 Huram. Huram (also called Hiram) was of mixed parentage. His father was a Phoenician artisan who had married a widow from the tribe of Naphtali (2 Chr. 2:14). Like his father, Huram had become a master craftsman; his contributions to the work on the temple were extensive.

7:16 five cubits. Jeremiah 52:22 agrees with this measurement, but 2 Kings 25:17 records the height as three cubits. This apparent discrepancy may just be a difference in whether the capitals of the pillars were included in the measurement height.

6:34 [r] Ezek. 41:23–25 6:36 [s] 1 Kin. 7:12 6:37 [t] 1 Kin. 6:1 6:38 [u] 1 Kin. 5:5; 6:1; 8:19 7:1 [a] 2 Chr. 8:1 7:2 [b] 2 Chr. 9:16 7:8 [c] 2 Chr. 8:11 7:12 [d] 1 Kin. 6:36 [e] John 10:23 7:14 [f] 2 Chr. 2:14 [g] 2 Chr. 4:16 [h] Ex. 31:3; 36:1 7:15 [i] Jer. 52:21

the convex surface which was next to the network; and there were [i]two hundred such pomegranates in rows on each of the capitals all around.

21[k]Then he set up the pillars by the vestibule of the temple; he set up the pillar on the right and called its name Jachin, and he set up the pillar on the left and called its name Boaz. 22The tops of the pillars were in the shape of lilies. So the work of the pillars was finished.

The Sea and the Oxen

23And he made [l]the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference.

24Below its brim were ornamental buds encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, [m]all the way around the Sea. The ornamental buds were cast in two rows when it was cast. 25It stood on [n]twelve oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward. 26It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained two thousand* baths.

The Carts and the Lavers

27He also made ten carts of bronze; four cubits was the length of each cart, four cubits its width, and three cubits its height. 28And this was the design of the carts: They had panels, and the panels were between frames; 29on the panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and cherubim. And on the frames was a pedestal on top. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of plaited work. 30Every cart had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the laver were supports of cast bronze beside each wreath. 31Its opening inside the crown at the top was one cubit in diameter; and the opening was round, shaped like a pedestal, one and a half cubits in outside diameter; and also on the opening were engravings, but the panels were square, not round. 32Under the panels were the four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the cart. The height of a wheel was one and a half cubits. 33The workmanship of the wheels was like the workmanship of a chariot wheel; their axle pins, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all of cast bronze. 34And there were four supports at the four corners of each cart; its supports were part of the cart itself. 35On the top of the cart, at the height of half a cubit, it was perfectly round. And on the top of the cart, its flanges and its panels were of the same casting. 36On the plates of its flanges and on its panels he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was a clear space on each, with wreaths all around. 37Thus he made the ten carts. All of them were of the same mold, one measure, and one shape.

38Then [o]he made ten lavers of bronze; each laver contained forty baths, and each laver was four cubits. On each of the ten carts was a laver. 39And he put five carts on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the Sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.

Furnishings of the Temple

40[p]Huram* made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing all the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of the LORD: 41the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two [q]networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars; 42[r]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars); 43the ten carts, and ten lavers on the carts; 44one Sea, and twelve oxen under the Sea; 45[s]the pots, the shovels, and the bowls.

All these articles which Huram* made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze. 46[t]In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between [u]Succoth and [v]Zaretan. 47And Solomon did not weigh all the articles, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not [w]determined.

7:21 Jachin . . . Boaz. Jachin means "He will establish." Boaz may mean "in Him is strength." Another possible meaning is "He is quick." These two pillars were placed near the porch in front of the temple (2 Chr. 3:17).

7:40–47 Service—When talents and skills are used in God's service, no work is insignificant. All is deserving of our best because it is done for God (Matt. 10:42). For this task Huram was filled with wisdom, understanding, and skill (v. 14). This description is similar to the description of Bezalel's work on the tabernacle (Ex. 31:2–6). The Holy Spirit is the source of natural gifts as well as the supernatural gifts used in the service of the Lord.

48 Thus Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of the LORD: [x]the altar of gold, and [y]the table of gold on which was [z]the showbread; 49 the lampstands of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left in front of the inner sanctuary, with the flowers and the lamps and the wicktrimmers of gold; 50 the basins, the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner room (the Most Holy Place) and for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

51 So all the work that King Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things [a]which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and the furnishings. He put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

8 Now [a]Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes,
the chief fathers of the children of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem, [b]that they might bring [c]up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion. 2 Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with King Solomon at the [d]feast in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month. 3 So all the elders of Israel came, [e]and the priests took up the ark. 4 Then they brought up the ark of the LORD, [f]the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up. 5 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him, were with him before the ark, [g]sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude.
6 Then the priests [h]brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to [i]its place, into the inner sanctuary of the temple, to the Most Holy Place, [j]under the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim spread their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles. 8 The poles [k]extended so that the ends of the poles could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary;
but they could not be seen from outside.
And they are there to this day. 9 [l]Nothing was in the ark [m]except the two tablets of stone which Moses [n]put there at Horeb, [o]when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests came out of the holy place, that the cloud [p]filled the house of the LORD, 11 so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; for the [q]glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 [r]Then Solomon spoke:

"The LORD said He would dwell [s]in the dark cloud.
13 [t]I have surely built You an exalted house,
[u]And a place for You to dwell in
forever."

Solomon's Speech at Completion of the Work

14 Then the king turned around and [v]blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing. 15 And he said: [w]"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who [x]spoke with His mouth to my father David, and with His hand has fulfilled it, saying, 16 'Since the day that I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that [y]My name might be there; but I chose [z]David to be over My people Israel.' 17 Now [a]it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple* for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 18 [b]But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build

7:48 furnishings. The furnishings of the temple were designed to correspond with similar furnishings in the tabernacle (Ex. 25; 30). Although Solomon made ten tables and lampstands instead of one, their functions remained the same, all ten being considered one unit (2 Chr. 29:18).

7:51 David. David's personal example of giving (1 Chr. 29:1–9) provided a high model of godly concern in leadership.

8:1 ark of the covenant. The ark had been in Jerusalem for some time (2 Sam. 6), and now it was finally in its proper setting. With the erection of the temple and the placement of the ark, the division of spiritual activities between Gibeon, the location of the tabernacle, and Jerusalem, where the ark had resided in a temporary shelter, was now at an end. The pattern of central worship set up in the wilderness could once again be observed (Deut. 12:1–4).

8:9 two tablets of stone. The two tablets upon which the Ten Commandments were inscribed were known as the "tablets of the covenant" (Deut. 9:9) and were kept in the ark (Deut. 10:1–5,8) along with the jar of manna (Ex. 16:33–34) and Aaron's rod that budded (Num. 17:10).

8:10–11 the cloud. This visible presence of God's dwelling with His people—sometimes called the "shekinah glory"—had also covered the tabernacle when it was inaugurated (Ex. 40:34–35).

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

22Then Solomon stood before [f]the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and [g]spread out his hands toward heaven; 23and he said: "LORD God of Israel, [h]there is no God in heaven above or on earth below like You, [i]who keep Your covenant and mercy with Your servants who [j]walk before You with all their hearts. 24You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. 25Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, [k]'You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me.' 26[l]And now I pray, O God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David my father.

27"But [m]will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the [n]heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this temple which I have built! 28Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today: 29that Your eyes may be open toward this temple night and day, toward the place of which You said, [o]'My name shall be [p]there,' that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes [q]toward this place. 30[r]And may You hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place; and when You hear, forgive.

31"When anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take [s]an oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, 32then hear in heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, [t]condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

33[u]"When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and [v]when they turn back to You and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this temple, 34then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their [w]fathers.

35[x]"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them, 36then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that

8:20 the LORD has fulfilled. Israel's God is a keeper of promises. His promise to give Abraham's descendants a land (Gen. 15:13–14,18–21; Josh. 14:12–15) had been provisionally realized (Josh. 21:43–45). Solomon also appropriated God's promise to David (2 Sam. 7:12–18). Subsequent kings in the Davidic line could likewise by faith enjoy the blessings of God promised in the Davidic covenant (Ps. 89:3–4,19–24,27–37).

8:27 God. God is infinite; no mere building, no matter how wonderful, can contain Him. God rules from heaven in a realm far superior to anything that man can imagine. Unlike the pagan gods who were thought to actually live in the temples built for them, He is not limited by time or space (Acts 7:48; 17:24). Yet God has committed Himself to fellowship with men, walking among them on the earth and being their God. Incredibly, He has chosen to dwell in the hearts of human beings. The true believer is the temple that God desires (1 Cor. 3:16–19).

8:29–30 The Temple in the Life of Israel—Once Solomon built the temple, it became the primary location for the ceremonial worship of Israel. But it was also to be a house of prayer (Is. 56:7), a special place where God's people could rightly maintain their individual relationships with God. The temple was a place for repentance and forgiveness (Luke 18:10–14). It was a place for petitions to be brought to God. The temple was the central point of worship and life for Israel. Even today in many European towns, beautiful church buildings stand in the town square as a testament to the centrality that the church once had in the life of the community.

Too often we fall into a practice that makes ceremony itself the central thing or in some cases the only thing. Here, we can see what mattered most was not the ritualistic practices but communication with God. This passage and others like it give clarity to many of the claims of the prophets mentioned later in Scripture. If the people had been praying and listening to God as a part of the act of worship, surely they would have been more obedient to His commands, especially in view of the fact that prophets continually rebuked them.

them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is;

is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows the plague of his own heart, and spreads out his hands act, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, [j]saying, 'We have sinned and done wrong, we have committed wickedness'; 48and when they [k]return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and [l]pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name: 49then hear in heaven Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause, 50and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You;

and [m]grant them compassion before those who took them captive, that they may have compassion on them 51(for [n]they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Egypt, [o]out of the iron furnace), 52[p]that Your eyes may be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they call to You. 53For You separated them from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, [q]as You spoke by Your servant Moses, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord
GOD."

Solomon Blesses the Assembly

54[r]And so it was, when Solomon had finished praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, that he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. 55Then he stood [s]and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying: 56"Blessed be the LORD, who has given [t]rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. [u]There has not failed one word of all His good promise, which He promised through His servant Moses.
57May the LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. [v]May He not leave us nor forsake us, 58that He may [w]incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, which He commanded our fathers. 59And may these

8:41 foreigner. Unlike God's people or resident aliens within the commonwealth of Israel (Deut. 10:18–19), foreigners had no particular claim on the ear of God. But the Israelites expected foreigners to be drawn to God by the way His people worshiped Him.

8:54 arose . . . from kneeling. Chronicles adds that Solomon's prayer and blessing were accompanied by heavenly fire that consumed the sacrifice on the altar (2 Chr. 7:1–3).

8:58 Regeneration—Solomon prayed for an ability given by God that would allow the people to live according to the covenant which had been given at the time of Moses. Solomon was aware that the nation's history was full of examples of the people turning away from God and from His written revelation. Ultimately, the promise of God to the nation of Israel was that there would be a new covenant given to them which would be internalized and which would be brought about by the Holy Spirit (Jer. 31)—the new covenant which was ratified in Jesus' blood (1 Cor. 11:25). Believers today have a power which enables us to live according to God's word—the Holy Spirit who is the agent of our regeneration.

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

62Then [a]the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD. 63And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. 64On [b]the same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the [c]bronze altar that was before the LORD was too small to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65At that time Solomon held [d]a feast, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from [e]the entrance of Hamath to [f]the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [g]seven days and seven more days—fourteen days. 66[h]On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the good that the LORD had done for His servant David, and for Israel His people.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

9 And [a]it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD [b]and the king's house, and [c]all Solomon's desire which he wanted to do, 2that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, [d]as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. 3And the LORD said to him: [e]"I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built [f]to put My name there forever, and [g]My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. 4Now if you [h]walk before Me [i]as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you [j]keep My statutes and My judgments, 5then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, [k]as I promised David your father, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.' 6[l]But if you or your sons at all turn from following Me, and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, 7[m]then I will cut off Israel from the land which I have given them; and this house which I have consecrated [n]for My name I will cast out of My sight. [o]Israel will be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. 8And as for [p]this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be astonished and will hiss, and say, [q]'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?' 9Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought all this [r]calamity on them.'"

Solomon and Hiram Exchange Gifts

10Now [s]it happened at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house 11[t](Hiram the king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired), that King Solomon then gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. 12Then Hiram went from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, but they did not please him. 13So he said, "What kind of cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" [u]And he called them the land of Cabul,* as they are to this day. 14Then Hiram sent the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

8:60 all the peoples of the earth. This verse does not limit God to the Jews but includes the Gentiles as well.

9:2 second time. God had appeared previously to Solomon in Gibeon (3:4–15). The Lord's warning was a necessary reminder for Solomon, who eventually did compromise the conditions required for enjoying God's blessing (11:1–11).

9:12 they did not please him. Hiram's displeasure with Solomon's gift would later result in Solomon's redeeming the towns by repaying the debt in another manner (2 Chr. 8:1–2).

9:14 one hundred and twenty talents. A talent was said to be the full load one man could easily carry. It was equal to three thousand shekels, or about 70 pounds.

Solomon's Additional Achievements

15 And this is the reason for [v]the labor force which King Solomon raised: to build the house of the LORD, his own house, the [w]Millo,* the wall of Jerusalem, [x]Hazor, [y]Megiddo, and [z]Gezer. 16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it with fire, [a]had killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife.) 17 And Solomon built Gezer, Lower [b]Beth Horon, 18 [c]Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land of Judah, 19 all the storage cities that Solomon had, cities for [d]his chariots and cities for his [e]cavalry, and whatever Solomon [f]desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 [g]All the people who were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel— 21 that is, their descendants [h]who were left in the land after them, [i]whom the children of Israel had not been able to destroy completely—[j]from these Solomon raised [k]forced labor, as it is to this day. 22 But of the children of Israel Solomon [l]made no forced laborers, because they were men of war and his servants: his officers, his captains, commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.

23 Others were chiefs of the officials who were over Solomon's work: [m]five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.

24 But [n]Pharaoh's daughter came up from the City of David to [o]her house which *Solomon had built for her. [p]Then he built the Millo.

25 [q]Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for the LORD, and he burned incense with them on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the temple.

26 [r]King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at [s]Ezion Geber, which is near Elath* on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. 27 [t]Then Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Solomon. 28 And they went to [u]Ophir, and acquired four hundred and twenty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

10 Now when the [a]queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came [b]to test him with hard questions. 2 She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart. 3 So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for the king that he could not explain it to her. 4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, 5 the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his cupbearers, [c]and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her. 6 Then she said to the king:
"It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom. 7 However I did not believe the words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half was not told me. Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame of which I heard. 8 [d]Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom! 9 [e]Blessed be the LORD your God, who [f]delighted in you, setting you on the throne of Israel! Because the LORD has loved Israel forever, therefore He made you king, [g]to do justice and righteousness."

9:16 Gezer. Gezer had been a strong Canaanite city, a part of Ephraim's territorial assignment. Ephraim had never taken Gezer; however, Egypt had conquered the city. Its key location on the edge of the lowlands west of Jerusalem made it a splendid gift for Pharaoh to give on the occasion of his daughter's marriage to Solomon.

9:26 Ezion Geber. Ezion Geber was at the head of the modern Gulf of Aqaba. Its key location as an outlet to the Red Sea and the regions beyond made it commercially important to Solomon and to Hiram, his Phoenician trading partner (2 Chr. 8:17–18).

9:28 Ophir. The exact location of Ophir is a mystery. Some have speculated that it may have been in Africa, since it was reached by sea (1 Kin. 22:48). It was certainly a celebrated gold area, the source of much of the wealth David and Solomon used to pay for their vast building projects (1 Chr. 29:4).

10:1 Sheba. Located in southwestern Arabia (present-day Yemen), Sheba was the homeland of the Sabeans, a people whose far-flung commercial enterprises stretched from Syria to east Africa to distant India. The Sabeans dealt in such precious commodities as gold, gemstones, perfumes, and rare spices.

10 Then she [h]gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great quantity, and precious stones. There never again came such abundance of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
11 [i]Also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought great quantities of almug* wood and precious stones from Ophir. 12 [j]And the king made steps of the almug wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers. There never again came such [k]almug wood, nor has the like been seen to this day.
13 Now King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what Solomon had given her according to the royal generosity. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

14 The weight of gold that came to Solomon yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 15 besides that from the [l]traveling merchants, from the income of traders, [m]from all the kings of Arabia, and from the governors of the country.
16 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of gold went into each shield.
17 He also made [n]three hundred shields of hammered gold; three minas of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the [o]House of the Forest of Lebanon.
18 [p]Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests. 20 Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.
21 [q]All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold.
Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. 22 For the king had [r]merchant ships* at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the merchant [s]ships came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.* 23 So [t]King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.
24 Now all the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. 25 Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.
26 [u]And Solomon [v]gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed* in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.
27 [w]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland.
28 [x]Also Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price. 29 Now a chariot that was imported from Egypt cost six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty;
[y]and thus, through their agents,* they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon's Heart Turns from the LORD

11 But [a]King Solomon loved [b]many foreign women, as well as the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, covenant faithfulness towards Israel does not necessarily mean that she made a commitment of personal faith in the Lord. She may simply have been expressing respect for Solomon's God (see 5:7).

10:26 one thousand four hundred chariots. Shalmaneser III of Assyria reported that at the battle of Qarqar (853 B.C.) he faced a combined enemy chariot force of 3,900, some two thousand of which were supplied by Israel.

10:27 silver . . . cedar trees. Under Solomon, Israel enjoyed its greatest period of prosperity. This time of prosperity and peace also must have allowed for the growth of scholarship and for arts and music.

11:1 many foreign women. Taking foreign wives violated the Lord's prohibitions against marrying Canaanite women (v. 2; Ex. 34:12–17; Deut. 7:1–3); taking many wives violated the standard of monogamy established at the beginning (Gen. 2:24–25), and resulted in rampant polygamy, something God had also forbidden to Israel's future kings (Deut. 17:17).

11:1–2 Materialism—Even before Israel crossed over the Jordan and entered the Promised Land, God had given special instructions for the nation's future kings, warning them against materialism: they were not to collect horses, women, or gold for themselves (Deut. 17:16–17). However, King Solomon did all three, resulting in his downfall. He owned many horses (4:26); he gathered hundreds of wives and concubines (v. 3); and he possessed much gold and silver (10:14–27). The gathering of material wealth, when gained honestly, is not prohibited in the Bible. Improper love of possessions, however, is idolatry. We can own things, but things must not own us.

Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites— 2from the nations of whom the LORD had said to the children of Israel, [c]"You shall not intermarry with them, nor they with you. Surely they will turn away your hearts after their gods." Solomon clung to these in love. 3And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. 4For it was so, when Solomon was old, [d]that his wives turned his heart after other gods; and his [e]heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, [f]as was the heart of his father David. 5For Solomon went after [g]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after [h]Milcom the abomination of the [i]Ammonites. 6Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and did not fully follow the LORD, as did his father David. 7[j]Then Solomon built a high place for [k]Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on [l]the hill that is east of Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the people of Ammon. 8And he did likewise for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9So the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the LORD God of Israel, [m]who had appeared to him twice, 10and [n]had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods; but he did not keep what the LORD had commanded. 11Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because you have done this, and have not kept My covenant and My statutes, which I have commanded you, [o]I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your [p]servant. 12Nevertheless I will not do it in your days, for the sake of your father David; I will tear it out of the hand of your son. 13[q]However I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give [r]one tribe to your son [s]for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem [t]which I have chosen."

Adversaries of Solomon

14Now the LORD [u]raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was a descendant of the king in Edom. 15[v]For it happened, when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, [w]after he had killed every male in Edom 16(because for six months Joab remained there with all Israel, until he had cut down every male in Edom), 17that Hadad fled to go to Egypt, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him. Hadad was still a little child. 18Then they arose from Midian and came to Paran; and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, apportioned food for him, and gave him land. 19And Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, that is, the sister of Queen Tahpenes. 20Then the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.

21[x]So when Hadad heard in Egypt that David rested with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

22Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that suddenly you seek to go to your own country?"

So he answered, "Nothing, but do let me go anyway."

23And God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliadah, who had fled from his lord, [y]Hadadezer king of Zobah. 24So he gathered men to him and became captain over a band of raiders, [z]when David killed those of Zobah. And they went to Damascus and dwelt there, and reigned in Damascus. 25He was an 11:1–4 Unfaithfulness—Solomon was affected by the contemporary practices of the surrounding culture. Entering into a political marriage was a means to consolidate a relationship with a neighboring monarch, and Solomon followed this custom at the expense of obedience to God. Unfaithfulness creeps into our lives when our hearts are more closely attuned to contemporary culture and peer pressure than to the voice of God. The heinousness of Solomon's unfaithfulness stands in contrast with the abundance of God's favor and the plainness of His commands (vv. 9–10).

11:3 seven hundred . . . three hundred. If the reference to 60 queens and 80 concubines in Song of Solomon 6:8 is to Solomon's wives, it represents a much earlier period in Solomon's reign.

11:4 not loyal. Although it is true that David did not always live up to God's standards, he was loyal to God and trusted Him implicitly, even when he was rebuked for his sins (2 Sam. 12:13; Ps. 32:1–5; 53:1–5).

11:7 high place. The use of high places in association with the worship of foreign gods shows the terrible danger that the high places presented to Israel (3:2–4; 14:23; Mic. 1:3). Molech. The worship of Molech was associated with Baal worship and with human sacrifice (Jer. 7:31–32; 19:5–6; 32:35).

11:13 one tribe. The one tribe left to the house of David was Judah, the principal tribe of the southern kingdom. By this time, Simeon had assimilated with Judah (12:17–21).

11:14 Hadad the Edomite. Hadad was one of the survivors who had escaped when David defeated the Edomite army (2 Sam. 8:13–14). Pharaoh's ready reception and favorable treatment of Hadad probably had political ramifications, the pharaoh seeing him as a potential future ally on Israel's border.

adversary of Israel all the days of Solomon (besides the trouble that Hadad caused); and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

26Then Solomon's servant, [a]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite from Zereda, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, [b]also [c]rebelled against the king.

27And this is what caused him to rebel against the king: [d]Solomon had built the Millo and repaired the damages to the City of David his father. 28The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon, seeing that the young man was [e]industrious, made him the officer over all the labor force of the house of Joseph.

29Now it happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet [f]Ahijah the Shilonite met him on the way; and he had clothed himself with a new garment, and the two were alone in the field. 30Then Ahijah took hold of the new garment that was on him, and [g]tore it into twelve pieces. 31And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for [h]thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you 32(but he shall have one tribe for the sake of My servant David, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel), 33[i]because they have* forsaken Me, and worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the people of Ammon, and have not walked in My ways to do what is right in My eyes and keep My statutes and My judgments, as did his father David. 34However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose because he kept My commandments and My statutes. 35But [j]I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and give it to you—ten tribes. 36And to his son I will give one tribe, that [k]My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Myself, to put My name there. 37So I will take you, and you shall reign over all your heart desires, and you shall be king over Israel. 38Then it shall be, if you heed all that I command you, walk in My ways, and do what is right in My sight, to keep My statutes and My commandments, as My servant David did, then [l]I will be with you and [m]build for you an enduring house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. 39And I will afflict the descendants of David because of this, but not forever.'"

40Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. But Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to [n]Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

Death of Solomon

41Now [o]the rest of the acts of Solomon, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? 42[p]And the period that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. 43[q]Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his [r]place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

12 And [a]Rehoboam went to [b]Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. 2So it happened, when [c]Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was still in [d]Egypt, for he had fled from 11:26 Jeroboam. At first a trusted official for Solomon (v. 28), Jeroboam came under his wrath and fled to Egypt. Eventually, Jeroboam was instrumental in bringing about the prophesied schism of the country (12:2–19). He became the first king of the northern kingdom (12:20).

11:31–32 ten tribes . . . one tribe. The twelfth tribe might be Simeon, which was absorbed by Judah; it is also possible that Benjamin existed for some time as a "buffer state" between Israel and Judah, linked at times with the southern kingdom (2 Chr. 11:3).

11:36 a lamp. This is an image of one of the divinely intended functions of the kings of ancient Israel. In the midst of the darkness of a pagan world, the Davidic kings were to be a lamp to the nations, in anticipation of the coming Messiah who would be the Light of the World (John 1:1–9; 2 Sam. 21:17; 2 Kin. 8:19; 2 Chr. 21:7).

11:40 Shishak. Shishak (or Sheshonq I, 945–924 B.C.) was the first pharaoh of Egypt's strong twenty-second dynasty. Ironically, this future destroyer of Israel appears here as a protector of one of its future kings.

11:41 the book of the acts of Solomon. This book is mentioned only here; compare the references to the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel (14:19) and the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah (14:29). It is likely that the author of the books of Kings drew on these sources.

12:1 Shechem. Shechem was an important center of Israelite activity. It was the first place mentioned in Canaan with reference to Abraham (Gen. 12:6). It was also one of the Levitical cities of refuge (Num. 35:6). By going for his coronation to a place with ancient ties to the history of his people, and which was situated in the presence of King Solomon and had been dwelling in Egypt), 3that they sent and called him. Then Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4"Your father made our [e]yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

5So he said to them, "Depart for three days, then come back to me." And the people departed.

6Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, and he said, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"

7And they spoke to him, saying, [f]"If you will be a servant to these people today, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

8But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

10Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist! 11And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke;
my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!'"*

12So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day." 13Then the king answered the people roughly, and rejected the advice which the elders had given him; 14and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"*
15So the king did not listen to the people;
for [g]the turn of events was from the LORD, that He might fulfill His word, which the LORD had [h]spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered
the king, saying:

[i]"What share have we in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
To your tents, O Israel!
Now, see to your own house, O David!"

So Israel departed to their tents. 17But Rehoboam reigned over [j]the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18Then King Rehoboam [k]sent Adoram, who was in charge of the revenue; but all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died.
Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem. 19So [l]Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

20Now it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all [m]Israel.
There was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah [n]only.

21And when [o]Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah with the tribe of [p]Benjamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to the region of the northern tribes, Rehoboam doubtless believed that he was making a strategic move.

12:15 from the LORD. Even at this crucial time of national schism, God was sovereignly working through human events to accomplish His will, which had been made known through earlier prophecy (11:29–39). might fulfill His word. All things derive their origin and destiny from God. They are determined, controlled, and directed from beginning to end by His wise and sovereign counsel. His plan encompasses everything that comes to pass, including all ends and all the ways and means to those ends. His plan also incorporates the folly of men in their deliberations, advice, and decisions, without compelling them to it by external constraint. In fact, God's Word reveals the solemn truth that His plan encompasses even the sin, ungodliness, and evil of men in their motivations and aspirations, their thoughts, words, and deeds, without eliminating their full responsibility for it (Acts 2:22–23; 4:27–28).

12:16 What share have we in David? The ancient rivalry felt by the northern tribes now came to a peak in resentment against the tribe of Judah and the house of David

12:17 cities of Judah. The southern section of the land also included the tribal allotment of Simeon. But Simeon by this time had been absorbed by Judah, their allotment was "within the inheritance of the children of Judah" (Josh. 19:1).

12:20 made him king. The coronation of Jeroboam had been prophesied by Ahijah the prophet of the Lord (11:29–31). Nonetheless, the actual coronation apparently was done apart from priest or prophet of the Lord; there was no divine anointing, no true religious ceremony. Only the kings of the southern kingdom would have the sanction of the Davidic covenant (2 Sam. 7).

Rehoboam the son of Solomon. 22But [q]the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 23"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, 24'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel. Let every man return to his house, [r]for this thing is from Me."'" Therefore they obeyed the word of the LORD, and turned back, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Gold Calves

25Then Jeroboam [s]built Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and dwelt there. Also he went out from there and built [t]Penuel. 26And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom may return to the house of David: 27If these people [u]go up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn back to their lord, Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and go back to Rehoboam king of Judah."

28Therefore the king asked advice, [v]made two calves of gold, and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. [w]Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!" 29And he set up one in [x]Bethel, and the other he put in [y]Dan. 30Now this thing became [z]a sin, for the people went to worship before the one as far as Dan. 31He made shrines* on the high places, [a]and made priests from every class of people, who were not of the sons of Levi.

32Jeroboam ordained a feast on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like [b]the feast that was in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. So he did at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made. [c]And at Bethel he installed the priests of the high places which he had made. 33So he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had [d]devised in his own heart. And he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and offered sacrifices on the altar and [e]burned incense.

The Message of the Man of God

13 And behold, [a]a man of God went from Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD, [b]and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. 2Then he cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, a child, [c]Josiah by name, shall be born to the house of David; and on you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones shall be [d]burned on you.'" 3And he gave [e]a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Surely the altar shall split apart, and the ashes on it shall be poured out."

4So it came to pass when King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, who cried out against the altar in Bethel, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" Then his hand, which he stretched out toward him, withered, so that he could not pull it back to himself. 5The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

12:28 two calves of gold. Not only would they strike a familiar chord from Israel's history, but the two calves would arouse the interest of the remaining Canaanites in the northern kingdom. The result of Jeroboam's action was religious confusion and apostasy; this was the first time that a deliberate attempt had been made to establish a heterodox doctrine, an unauthorized variation of the true religion. It appears that Jeroboam was doing the same thing that Aaron did, presenting the calves as representations of God, and thus luring people away from true worship.

12:29 Bethel. Bethel was north of Jerusalem in Benjamite territory, it had enjoyed a prominent place in Israelite history throughout the earlier patriarchal period (Gen. 28:10–21). Dan was in the north; before its capture by the Danites it had a reputation as a center for pagan worship (Judg. 18:30). Jeroboam's choice of these two sites was a brilliant move. He had one site in the northernmost part of his kingdom and another in the southernmost part; both had long ties to Israel's past, and eliminated the need for long, tedious treks to Jerusalem.

12:31 not of the sons of Levi. Jeroboam's new religious institutions included starting a new religious order that did not include the Levites; setting up shrines at high places (3:2–3); and replacing the Feast of Tabernacles with a fall festival of the eighth month. His various attempts at religious innovation would quickly incur God's wrath and earn him a reputation that would live in infamy (13:33–34; 22:52).

13:4–5 Arrest him. The life and character of Jeroboam stands in stark contrast to that of King David. When David was told that he would become king, he never forgot that it was God who gave him the position, and God who would maintain it. Jeroboam, however, seemed to think that he would only stay in office by his own efforts. When David was confronted with his sin by Nathan the prophet, he humbly confessed (2 Sam. 12:13). The wicked Jeroboam sought to arrest his accuser.

6 Then the king answered and said to the man of God, "Please [f]entreat the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me."

So the man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him,
and became as before. 7 Then the king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and [g]I will give you a reward."

8 But the man of God said to the king,
[h]"If you were to give me half your house,
I would not go in with you; nor would I eat bread nor drink water in this place. 9 For so it was commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, [i]'You shall not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.'" 10 So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Bethel.

Death of the Man of God

11 Now an [j]old prophet dwelt in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; they also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.
12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" For his sons had seen* which way the man of God went who came from Judah. 13 Then he said to his sons,
"Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it, 14 and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. Then he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

And he said, "I am."

15 Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

16 And he said, [k]"I cannot return with you nor go in with you; neither can I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. 17 For I have been told [l]by the word of the LORD, 'You shall not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.'"

18 He said to him, "I too am a prophet as you are, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (He was lying to him.)

19 So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

20 Now it happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back; 21 and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have disobeyed the word of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, 22 but you came back, ate bread, and drank water in the [m]place of which the LORD said to you, "Eat no bread and drink no water," your corpse shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.'"

23 So it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 When he was gone, [n]a lion met him on the road and killed him. And his corpse was thrown on the road, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the corpse. 25 And there, men passed by and saw the corpse thrown on the road, and the lion standing by the corpse. Then they went and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him." 27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it. 28 Then he went and found his corpse thrown on the road, and the donkey and the lion standing by the corpse. The lion had not eaten

13:6 the LORD your God. This language may be simply deferential to the prophet, but here it may indicate recognition by Jeroboam that he was no longer really serving the living God.

13:7–8 reward. The prophet was not just being ungracious, he was following a direct command from God. In biblical times, sharing a meal was more than just a social custom. It implied an intimate fellowship. Great religious ceremonies from the Passover to the Lord's Table center on people eating together. The prophet did not want his act of mercy to suggest that God accepted Jeroboam's deviant worship, or leave the impression that a touch from God could be bought and paid for. Giving a gift can be an easy way to avoid the really important matter of changing lives and lifestyles. If a person is convinced that by his giving he is rewarding a church or a pastor, then it becomes impossible for that church or pastor to have any kind of prophetic ministry to that individual. Instead, they become his debtor.

13:11 an old prophet. This prophet was clearly an apostate. He had not spoken against Jeroboam; instead, he boldly lied to the Lord's true prophet.

13:19 went back with him. The man of God had withstood Jeroboam's persuasions; he probably came expecting just such pressure. Sadly, he made the mistake of letting down his guard when he had passed the test he was expecting. There is never any excuse for violating God's clear instructions, and he paid a terrible price for his disobedience.

13:24 a lion. The way the lion stood by both the man of God and his donkey shows that the lion did not kill for food but was God's executioner (vv. 25–26,28).

13:6 f [James 5:16] 13:7 g 1 Sam. 9:7 13:8 h Num. 22:18; 24:13 13:9 i [1 Cor. 5:11] 13:11 j 1 Kin. 13:25 13:16 k 1 Kin. 13:8, 9 13:17 l 1 Kin. 20:35 13:22 m 1 Kin. 13:9 13:24 n 1 Kin. 20:36

the corpse nor torn the donkey. 29And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. So the old prophet came to the city to mourn, and to bury him. 30Then he laid the corpse in his own tomb; and they mourned over him, saying, [o]"Alas, my brother!" 31So it was, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, "When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; [p]lay my bones beside his bones. 32[q]For the saying which he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the shrines* on the high places which are in the cities of [r]Samaria, will surely come to pass."

33[s]After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from every class of people for the high places; whoever wished, he consecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places. 34[t]And this thing was the sin of the house of Jeroboam, so as [u]to exterminate and destroy it from the face of the earth.

Judgment on the House of Jeroboam

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick. 2And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please arise, and disguise yourself, that they may not recognize you as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. Indeed, Ahijah the prophet is there, who told me that [a]I would be king over this people. 3[b]Also take with you ten loaves, some cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will become of the child." 4And Jeroboam's wife did so; she arose [c]and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes were glazed by reason of his age.

5Now the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Here is the wife of Jeroboam, coming to ask you something about her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall say to her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman."

6And so it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you pretend to be another person? For I have been sent to you with bad news. 7Go, tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [d]"Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Israel, 8and [e]tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it to you; and yet you have not been as My servant David, [f]who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes; 9but you have done more evil than all who were before you, [g]for you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molded images to provoke Me to anger, and [h]have cast Me behind your back— 10therefore behold! [i]I will bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam, and [j]will cut off from Jeroboam every male in Israel, [k]bond and free; I will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as one takes away refuse until it is all gone. 11The dogs shall eat [l]whoever belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field; for the LORD has spoken!"' 12Arise therefore, go to your own house. [m]When your feet enter the city, the child shall die. 13And all Israel shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Jeroboam who shall come to the grave, because in him [n]there is found something good toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14[o]"Moreover the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam; this is the day. What? Even now! 15For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water. He will [p]uproot Israel from this [q]good land which He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them [r]beyond the River,* [s]because they have made their wooden images,* 13:32 cities of Samaria. The city of Samaria did not, in fact, come into being for nearly half a century (16:24), but the author mentions it here from his own later perspective.

13:33 evil way. Rather than learning from the report of this incident, Jeroboam was even more set in his evil ways. His apostasy would earn for him his reputation as the one who "made Israel to sin" (16:26).

14:4 Shiloh. Located about twenty miles north of Jerusalem, Shiloh had been the religious center for the nation during the time of the judges and was the location of the tabernacle (Josh. 18:1; 1 Sam. 1:3). The city was destroyed by the Philistines after the loss of the ark (1 Sam. 4:1–11; Jer. 7:12–15). could not see. Although he was blind, Ahijah could "see" by means of the revelation of the living God.

14:11 dogs. Dogs were scavengers, and in the Middle East they came to symbolize the dregs of society (2 Kin. 8:13).

14:14 cut off the house. As prophesied here, the end of Jeroboam's reign would soon be accomplished (15:27—16:7).

14:15 wooden images. This refers to the wooden poles or images associated with the worship of the goddess Asherah (Judg. 3:7; 2 Kin. 23:4). Her worship would become one of the sins that would bring about the downfall of the northern kingdom (2 Kin. 17:9–11).

17Then Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to [u]Tirzah. [v]When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. 18And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, [w]according to the word of the LORD which He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

Death of Jeroboam

19Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he [x]made war and how he reigned, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 20The period that Jeroboam reigned was twenty-two years. So he rested with his fathers. [y]Then Nadab his son reigned in his place.

Rehoboam Reigns in Judah

21And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. [z]Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king. He reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city [a]which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. [b]His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. 22[c]Now Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they [d]provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done. 23For they also built for themselves [e]high places, [f]sacred pillars, and [g]wooden images on every high hill and [h]under every green tree. 24[i]And there were also perverted persons* in the land. They did according to all the [j]abominations of the nations which the LORD had cast out before the children of [k]Israel.

25[l]It happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. 26[m]And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took away everything. He also took away all the gold shields [n]which Solomon had made. 27Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king's house. 28And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards carried them, then brought them back into the guardroom.

29[o]Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 30And there was [p]war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. 31[q]So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. [r]His mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. Then [s]Abijam* his son reigned in his place.

Abijam Reigns in Judah

15 [a]In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah. 2He reigned three years in Jerusalem. [b]His mother's name was [c]Maachah the granddaughter of [d]Abishalom. 3And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; [e]his heart was not loyal to the LORD his God, as was the heart of his father David. 4Nevertheless [f]for David's sake

14:17 Tirzah. Famed for its beauty (Song 6:4), Tirzah was a royal retreat and the capital of the northern kingdom's first two dynasties (15:33).

14:19 the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. This book is mentioned 15 times in Kings. Apparently it was an official record of events in the southern kingdom down to the days of Jehoiakim. This work should not be confused with the biblical books of Chronicles, which were written much later, after the exile.

14:23 high places. The high places were a problem throughout the history of Judah and Israel (Mic. 1:3). At times, the worship offered on them may have been done sincerely, in true worship of God (3:2–4; 2 Kin. 12:3). But these were also the places in which Canaanite worship rites were practiced, and images set up to honor Baal and Asherah. Even when the worship on the high places was not mixed with pagan rituals, it was not in accord with the law of Moses (see 2 Chr. 1:3).

14:26 treasures of the house of the LORD. The sacking of the temple is particularly shocking when we think of the long and detailed description of Solomon's building and furnishing of the house of the Lord.

15:2 Maachah. Elsewhere she is described as "the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah" (2 Chr. 13:2), and "the daughter of Absalom" (2 Chr. 11:21). It is thought that she was the granddaughter of Absalom; the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah and Absalom's daughter Tamar (2 Sam. 14:27). She was the favorite of Rehoboam's many wives. the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his son after him and by establishing Jerusalem; 5because David [g]did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, [h]except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. 6[i]And there was war between Rehoboam* and Jeroboam all the days of his life. 7[j]Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8[k]So Abijam rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa Reigns in Judah

9In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah. 10And he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother's name was Maachah the granddaughter of Abishalom. 11[l]Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did his father David. 12[m]And he banished the perverted persons* from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. 13Also he removed [n]Maachah his grandmother from being queen mother, because she had made an obscene image of Asherah.* And Asa cut down her obscene image and [o]burned it by the Brook Kidron. 14[p]But the high places were not removed. Nevertheless Asa's [q]heart was loyal to the LORD all his days. 15He also brought into the house of the LORD the things which his father [r]had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils.

16Now there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 17And [s]Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built [t]Ramah, [u]that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 18Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasuries of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants. And King Asa sent them to [v]Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt in [w]Damascus, saying, 19"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

connection with both her son Abijam and her grandson Asa (vv. 10,12) makes it appear that she was an important figure, probably wielding a good deal of influence.

15:4 for David's sake. That is, because of God's love for David and the promise He had made to him (2 Sam. 7). lamp. This is one of the lovely images of God's intended blessing on the Davidic house.

15:5 Perseverance—The lamp of God was still shining in Jerusalem during the reign of Abijam, even though he was not wholly devoted to the Lord, nor was his father who reigned before him. In spite of the sins of Abijam and his father, God continued to let His light shine in Jerusalem for the sake of David, whose heart was all for the Lord. In a similar way, our actions will affect the generations which follow us. If we are committed to God's ways, and willing to stand for what is right, our children will benefit; if we selfishly follow our own pleasures, our children often are left picking up the pieces.

15:10 His grandmother's name was Maachah. Literally "mother's." It is apparent from verse 2 that Maachah was Asa's grandmother. It is important to remember that many times the Hebrews used the terms "father, mother, son, daughter" loosely, to indicate ancestry rather than exact generation (v. 3).

15:13 he removed. Asa's many spiritual activities (2 Chr. 14:2–5; 15:1–18) are telescoped into a few statements here. Although the reforms mentioned took place early in Asa's reign (2 Chr. 14:2–5), the chronicler indicates that the deposing of Maachah took place in the fifteenth year of his rule (895 B.C.). Maachah's removal came as a result of a time of covenant renewal (2 Chr. 15:1–16) and a consequent reaction against her vile idolatry.

15:14 high places. In some instances, the high places were places where the Lord was worshiped (1 Sam. 9:12); in other cases they were used for pagan purposes (2 Chr. 14:2–3).

15:17 Ramah. Ramah was about five and a half miles north of Jerusalem on the main north-south commercial route through the land, and it was therefore of great importance to both kingdoms. It gave east-west access to both the foothills of Ephraim and the Mediterranean coast, so it was of strategic military importance as well. Baasha was striking a blow for control of the center of the land.

15:18–19 Unfaithfulness—Asa's life was a mixture of good and evil, faithfulness and faithlessness. He took a stand against the rampant idolatry, removing male cult prostitutes and idolatrous worship, and even demoting his own grandmother to reduce her evil influence (v. 13). Yet later in his life, he signally failed to trust God for either safety or health. When Baasha, king of Israel, attacked him, he sought help from the Syrians (vv. 17–18) rather than from God, and resented and rejected the prophetic rebuke he received (2 Chr. 16:7–10). Near the end of his life, Asa suffered a crippling disease in his feet; yet even in this "he did not seek the LORD, but the physicians" (2 Chr. 16:12).

20 So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and [x]sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. He attacked [y]Ijon, [z]Dan, [a]Abel Beth Maachah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. 21 Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in [b]Tirzah.
22 [c]Then King Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was exempted. And they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them King Asa built [d]Geba of Benjamin, and [e]Mizpah.
23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, all his might, all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But [f]in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. 24 So Asa rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. [g]Then [h]Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab Reigns in Israel

25 Now [i]Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. 26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in [j]his sin by which he had made Israel sin.
27 [k]Then Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him. And Baasha killed him at [l]Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. 28 Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. 29 And it was so, when he became king, that he killed all the house of Jeroboam. He did not leave to Jeroboam anyone that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to [m]the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servant Ahi-jah the Shilonite, 30 [n]because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he had sinned and by which he had made Israel sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.
31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 32 [o]And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

Baasha Reigns in Israel

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and reigned twenty-four years. 34 He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in [p]the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin.
16 Then the word of the LORD came to [a]Jehu the son of [b]Hanani, against [c]Baasha, saying: 2 [d]"Inasmuch as I lifted you out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, and [e]you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made My people Israel sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins, 3 surely I will [f]take away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house, and I will make your house like [g]the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 4 The dogs shall eat [h]whoever belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the fields."
5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did, and his might, [i]are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 6 So Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in [j]Tirzah. Then Elah his son reigned in his place.
7 And also the word of the LORD came by the prophet [k]Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because [l]he killed them.

Elah Reigns in Israel

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel, and reigned two years in Tirzah. 9 [m]Now his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, [n]steward of his house in Tirzah. 10 And Zimri went in and struck him and killed him in 16:1–7 Jehu. This Jehu is not to be confused with Jehu the king of Israel (2 Kin. 9:2). Jehu the prophet came from the southern kingdom; his long prophetic ministry lasted into the days of Jehoshaphat. Like his father before him, he confronted sin fearlessly, even in the royal house (2 Chr. 16:7–10).

16:10 Zimri. Zimri's treacherous act was the prophesied judgment on Baasha and Elah for their wickedness.

the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.

11 Then it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he killed all the household of Baasha; he [o]did not leave him one male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends. 12 Thus Zimri destroyed all the household of Baasha, [p]according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, 13 for all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Israel sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger [q]with their idols.

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Zimri Reigns in Israel

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri had reigned in Tirzah seven days. And the people were encamped [r]against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. 16 Now the people who were encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and also has killed the king." So all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. 17 Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirzah. 18 And it happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house down upon himself with fire, and died, 19 because of the sins which he had committed in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, [s]in walking in the [t]way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he had committed to make Israel sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the treason he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Omri Reigns in Israel

21 Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king, and half followed Omri. 22 But the people who followed Omri prevailed over the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri reigned. 23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and reigned twelve years. Six years he reigned in [u]Tirzah. 24 And he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver; then he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, [v]Samaria, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill. 25 [w]Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all who were before him. 26 For he [x]walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Israel sin, provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their [y]idols.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. Then Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. 30 Now Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more than all who were before him. 31 And it came to pass, as though it had been a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, [z]that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the [a]Sidonians; [b]and he went and served Baal and worshiped him. 32 Then he set up an altar for Baal in [c]the temple of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. 33 [d]And Ahab made a wooden image.* Ahab [e]did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. 34 In his days Hiel of Bethel built Jericho. He laid its foundation with Abiram his firstborn, and with his youngest son Segub he set up its gates, [f]according to the word of 16:23 Omri. Omri's exploits are commemorated in the Moabite Stone and the Assyrian annals. Indeed, he was so important to the Assyrians that they called Israel "the House of Omri" long after his death. Yet the author of Kings describes little of Omri's achievements, because he did evil in the eyes of the Lord.

16:30 Ahab. In Ahab we come to the very lowest point in the degeneration of the spiritual life of the kings of Israel. Each of the kings of the northern kingdom had been guilty of walking in the steps of Jeroboam, but Ahab's sins made Jeroboam's look trivial. His greatest crime was his promotion of Baal worship as the state religion.

16:31 Jezebel. Ahab's marriage to Jezebel was politically important and demonstrated the rising prominence of Israel's third dynasty. Her father was both king and priest of Baal in Sidon; similarly, Jezebel was princess and priestess of Baal. Her Phoenician name was Abizebel, meaning "my father [Baal] is noble." The Hebrew scribes purposely dropped a letter from her name, calling her Jezebel, "lacking honor." went and served Baal and worshiped him. Ahab completely abandoned even a skewed worship of God, and became a full-fledged worshiper of Baal.

16:34 built Jericho. Jericho had been semi-occupied at various times (Judg. 3:13), but not as a permanently

Elijah Proclaims a Drought

17 And Elijah the Tishbite, of the [a]inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, [b]"As the LORD God of Israel lives, [c]before whom I stand, [d]there shall not be dew nor rain [e]these years, except at my word."

2 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 3 "Get away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan. 4 And it will be that you shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the [f]ravens to feed you there."

5 So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and stayed by the Brook Cherith, which flows into the Jordan. 6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening; and he drank from the brook. 7 And it happened after a while that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

Elijah and the Widow

8 Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 9 "Arise, go to [g]Zarephath, which belongs to [h]Sidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to provide for you." 10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, indeed a widow was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, "Please bring me a little water in a cup, that I may drink." 11 And as she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

12 So she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar; and see, I am gathering a couple of sticks that I may go in and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it, and [i]die."

13 And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring it to me; and afterward make some for yourself and your son. 14 For thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor shall the jar of oil run dry, until the day the LORD sends rain on the earth.'"

15 So she went away and did according to the word of Elijah; and she and he and her household ate for many days. 16 The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by Elijah.

Elijah Revives the Widow's Son

17 Now it happened after these things that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick. And his sickness was so serious that there was no breath left in him. 18 So she said to Elijah, [j]"What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me to bring my sin to remembrance, and to kill my son?"

19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." So he took him out of her arms and carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. 20 Then he cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought tragedy on the widow with whom I lodge, by killing her son?" 21 [k]And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, I pray, let this child's soul come back to him." 22 Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came back to him, and he [l]revived.

23 And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives!"

24 Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now by this [m]I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is the truth."

occupied fortified city. Either Hiel offered his sons as foundation sacrifices, or they died in some mishap. However it happened, Joshua's curse was carried out.

17:1 Elijah. No prophet had arisen since Moses who was like Elijah. His name means "the LORD is God," a statement which was the core of his message to the unbelieving nation. dew nor rain. Elijah's pronouncement was an immediate challenge: Baal was supposed to govern the weather, but Elijah was declaring him powerless before the living God.

17:6 ravens. It is interesting to note that ravens were considered unclean birds (Lev. 11:15).

17:9 Zarephath. Zarephath was in Phoenician territory, seven miles south of Sidon, the stronghold of Baal. The Lord's sustaining Elijah first by a raven and then by a widow provided the prophet with a dramatic test of faith at the outset of his ministry. The widow, too, would be taught the value of trusting in God alone.

17:14 shall not be used up. While an apostate Israelite nation suffered because of the drought, God supplied the daily necessities to a non-Israelite who willingly took Him at His word. Both the prophet and the widow were reminded of the value of personal trust in Him who alone is sufficient to meet every need (Phil. 4:19).

17:17–23 Resurrection—Resurrection from the dead was not a miracle ordinary people expected to see, even from a prophet of God. This widow, however, would have had reason to hope for God's help. She had opened her home to Elijah, and she had seen firsthand His power and the results of complete trust in Him. Yet it was not until she had seen the miracle of her son brought back to life that she expressed faith in God.

Elijah's Message to Ahab

18 And it came to pass after [a]many days that the word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab, and [b]I will send rain on the earth."

2So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab; and there was a severe famine in Samaria. 3And Ahab had called Obadiah, who was in charge of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly. 4For so it was, while Jezebel massacred the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah had taken one hundred prophets and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.) 5And Ahab had said to Obadiah, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the brooks; perhaps we may find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, so that we will not have to kill any livestock." 6So they divided the land between them to explore it; Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7Now as Obadiah was on his way, suddenly Elijah met him; and he [c]recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

8And he answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.'"

9So he said, "How have I sinned, that you are delivering your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? 10As* the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to hunt for you; and when they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath from the kingdom or nation that they could not find you. 11And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here"'! 12And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from you, that [d]the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know; so when I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. But I your servant have feared the LORD from my youth. 13Was it not reported to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water? 14And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Elijah is here."' He will kill me!"

15Then Elijah said, "As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely present myself to him today."

16So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17Then it happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, [e]"Is that you, O [f]troubler of Israel?"

18And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house have, [g]in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and have followed the Baals. 19Now therefore, send and gather all Israel to me on [h]Mount Carmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal, [i]and the four hundred prophets of Asherah,* who eat at Jezebel's table."

Elijah's Mount Carmel Victory

20So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and [j]gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel. 21And Elijah came to all the people, and said, [k]"How long will you falter between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if Baal, [l]follow him." But the people answered him not a word. 22Then Elijah said to the people, [m]"I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; [n]but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men. 23Therefore let them give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it; and I will prepare the other bull, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire under it. 24Then you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD; and the God who [o]answers by fire, He is God."

So all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

25Now Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

26So they took the bull which was given them, and they prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even till noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!" But there

18:3 Obadiah. Although tradition has sometimes identified them, this Obadiah is probably not the author of the prophetic book of that name. It is clear that this Obadiah was a man of great faith, whose heroic actions give us a more balanced picture of the situation people of faith endured in Israel at this time.
18:18 Baals. The wording indicates that Ahab had a practice of attending services at various local shrines where this deity was worshiped.
18:19 Baal . . . Asherah. The worship of Baal and Asherah held a constant fascination for Israel from earliest times (Ex. 34:13; Num. 25; Judg. 2:13) and eventually caused Israel's demise (2 Kin. 17:16–18).
18:21 two opinions. We are confronted today with a choice no less momentous than the Israelites' choice between the Lord and Baal. Here is a broad road that leads down to destruction; there, a way narrow and difficult that leads upward to life (Matt. 7:13–14). God doesn't share devotion with anything or anyone. We have to make the choice to be on God's side—we cannot serve two masters. We will either gratify self, conforming to the corrupt pattern of this present age, or glorify Him who alone is worthy of worship.

was [p]no voice; no one answered. Then they leaped about the altar which they had made.

27And so it was, at noon, that Elijah mocked them and said, "Cry aloud, for he is a god; either he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is sleeping and must be awakened." 28So they cried aloud, and [q]cut themselves, as was their custom, with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them. 29And when midday was past, [r]they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was [s]no voice; no one answered, no one paid attention.

30Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." So all the people came near to him. [t]And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. 31And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, [u]"Israel shall be your name."* 32Then with the stones he built an altar [v]in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two seahs of seed. 33And he [w]put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four waterpots with water, and [x]pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood." 34Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time; and he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time. 35So the water ran all around the altar; and he also filled [y]the trench with water.

36And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, "LORD [z]God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, [a]let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and I am Your servant, and that [b]I have done all these things at Your word. 37Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that You are the LORD God, and that You have turned their hearts back to You again."

38Then [c]the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench. 39Now when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces; and they said, [d]"The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!"

40And Elijah said to them, [e]"Seize the prophets of Baal! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Brook [f]Kishon and [g]executed them there.

The Drought Ends

41Then Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain." 42So Ahab went up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; [h]then he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees, 43and said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea."

So he went up and looked, and said, "There is nothing." And seven times he said, "Go again."

44Then it came to pass the seventh time, that he said, "There is a cloud, as small as a man's hand, rising out of the sea!" So he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Prepare your chariot, and go down before the rain stops you.'"

45Now it happened in the meantime that the sky became black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. So Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel. 46Then the [i]hand of the LORD came upon Elijah; and he [j]girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah Escapes from Jezebel

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, also how he had [a]executed all the prophets with the sword. 2Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, [b]"So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time." 3And when he saw that, he arose and ran for his life, and went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

* 18:31 Genesis 32:28

18:27 busy, or he is on a journey. "On a journey" is a euphemism with the same meaning as our euphemism "on a comfort break." Elijah was piling on the sarcasm—a god is not supposed to have embarrassing bodily functions.

18:30 repaired the altar. This was an earlier altar that had been used by the true people of God. Elijah avoided all contact with the altar that was associated with Baal.

18:36 LORD God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. This phrase, so characteristic of worship in the early period (Gen. 50:24; Ex. 3:6), reminded Elijah's hearers that the God who had made the covenant with Abraham was still the God of the northern kingdom, and the nation's only hope of life, protection, and blessing (Deut. 30:20).

18:46 girded up his loins. Elijah tucked his garment into his sash, enabling him to run freely the 13 miles to Jezreel.

19:3 ran for his life. One may ask why a man who had seen God's mighty power should give way to fear, but we must realize that God did not criticize Elijah for his reaction. Elijah was not a superhero but a man with a nature like ours (James 5:17). He had seen a great

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree. And he [c]prayed that he might die, and said, "It is enough! Now, LORD, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!"
5 Then as he lay and slept under a broom tree, suddenly an angel* touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat." 6 Then he looked, and there by his head was a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again. 7 And the angel* of the LORD came back the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you." 8 So he arose, and ate and drank; and he went in the strength of that food forty days and [d]forty nights as far as [e]Horeb, the mountain of God.
9 And there he went into a cave, and spent the night in that place; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"
10 So he said, [f]"I have been very [g]zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and [h]killed Your prophets with the sword. [i]I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

God's Revelation to Elijah

11 Then He said, "Go out, and stand [j]on the mountain before the LORD." And behold, the LORD [k]passed by, and [l]a great and strong wind tore into the mountains and broke the rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; 12 and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a still small voice.
13 So it was, when Elijah heard it, that he [m]wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood in the entrance of the cave.
[n]Suddenly a voice came to him, and said,
"What are you doing here, Elijah?" 14 [o]And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed
Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life." 15 Then the LORD said to him: "Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Damascus; [p]and when you arrive, anoint Hazael as king over Syria. 16 Also you shall anoint [q]Jehu the son of Nimshi as king over Israel.
And [r]Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Me-holah you shall anoint as prophet in your place. 17 [s]It shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will [t]kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, [u]Elisha will kill. 18 [v]Yet I have reserved seven thousand in Israel, all whose knees have not bowed to Baal, [w]and every mouth that has not kissed him."

Elisha Follows Elijah

19 So he departed from there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. Then Elijah passed by him and threw his [x]mantle on him. 20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, and said, [y]"Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you."
And he said to him, "Go back again, for what have I done to you?"
21 So Elisha turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and [z]boiled their flesh, using the oxen's equipment, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose and followed Elijah, and became his servant.

victory on Mount Carmel, but he also knew that Jezebel was still in power, the faith of the people was still weak, at best, and his life truly was in danger. To run for his life did not necessarily indicate lack of trust; running is sometimes just the act of prudence.

19:5 Arise and eat. God's response to Elijah's fear and discouragement was to give him the very tangible, physical encouragement of food and rest.

19:7 the angel of the LORD. This term sometimes refers to God Himself (Ex. 3:2–6), and other times it seems to refer simply to a heavenly messenger (2 Kin. 1:3; 19:35).

19:8 Horeb. The name Horeb refers to Mount Sinai itself, "the mountain of God" (Ex. 3:1).

19:11 the LORD was not in the earthquake. Although each of the things mentioned in these verses could signal God's presence (Ex. 40:38; Zech. 14:4–5; Acts 2:2–3), Elijah learned that God is not just the God of the spectacular.

19:12 still small voice. Elijah had called for fire and national revival. What Elijah did not see was that God was already quietly at work in the lives of many people (v. 18).

19:18 have not bowed. In times of widespread drift and deliberate deviation from biblical standards of doctrine and ethics, it is easy to suffer from an "Elijah complex." We think that we alone have been on fire for God when everyone else has rejected His covenant, profaned His altars, and persecuted His prophets. Whenever we are tempted to imagine that we are the only ones left to represent the cause of the gospel, we are also open to the dangers of self-pity and self-righteousness. But we are not alone when we belong to the family of God. In every age, God has preserved faithful people who rejoice in Him and are on fire for the truth.

Ahab Defeats the Syrians

20 Now [a]Ben-Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his forces together; thirty-two kings were with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged [b]Samaria, and made war against it. 2Then he sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad: 3'Your silver and your gold are mine; your loveliest wives and children are mine.'"

4And the king of Israel answered and said, "My lord, O king, just as you say, I and all that I have are yours."

5Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Hadad, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, "You shall deliver to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children"; 6but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they will put it in their hands and take it.'"

7So the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Notice, please, and see how this man seeks trouble, for he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold; and I did not deny him."

8And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen or consent."

9Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I will do, but this thing I cannot do.'"

And the messengers departed and brought back word to him.

10Then Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, [c]"The gods do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Samaria for a handful for each of the people who follow me."

11So the king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him, 'Let not the one who puts on his armor [d]boast like the one who takes it off.'"

12And it happened when Ben-Hadad heard this message, as he and the kings were [e]drinking at the command post, that he said to his servants, "Get ready." And they got ready to attack the city.

13Suddenly a prophet approached Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, [f]I will deliver it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

14So Ahab said, "By whom?"

And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'By the young leaders of the provinces.'"

Then he said, "Who will set the battle in order?"

And he answered, "You."

15Then he mustered the young leaders of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Israel—seven thousand.

16So they went out at noon. Meanwhile Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings helping him were [g]getting drunk at the command post. 17The young leaders of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Hadad sent out a patrol, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria!" 18So he said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; and if they have come out for war, take them alive."

19Then these young leaders of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them. 20And each one killed his man; so the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the cavalry. 21Then the king of Israel went out and attacked the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22And the prophet came to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself; take note, and see what you should do, [h]for in the spring of the year the king of Syria will come up against you."

The Syrians Again Defeated

23Then the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. Therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them in the plain, surely we will be stronger than they. 24So do this thing: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put captains in their places; 25and you shall muster an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we will fight against them in the plain; surely we will be stronger than they."

And he listened to their voice and did so.

26So it was, in the spring of the year, that Ben-Hadad mustered the Syrians and went up to [i]Aphek to fight against Israel. 27And the children of Israel were mustered and given provisions, and they went against 20:1 Ben-Hadad. Ben-Hadad II (860–842 B.C.) was king of Aram, the ancient name for the area which is Syria today.

20:2 Ahab. When he is associated with his wicked wife Jezebel, Ahab appears as thoroughly evil. But in this chapter he appears as a capable leader in a time of international turmoil, and as a person who had some sense of the power and presence of God (vv. 13–14).

20:13 a prophet. This prophet was not named, but his true message reminds us that there were still many prophets who were faithful to the Lord (18:13; 20:35).

20:23 gods of the hills. The Aramean advisors reflected traditional ancient Middle Eastern theological concepts. Their gods were limited to certain geographical locations.

20:26 Aphek. This is not the Philistine city where the ark was lost (1 Sam. 4:1), but another location just east them. Now the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the [j]countryside.

28 Then a [k]man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys," therefore [l]I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'" 29 And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. So it was that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Syrians in one day. 30 But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; then a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left.

And Ben-Hadad fled and went into the city, into an inner chamber.

Ahab's Treaty with Ben-Hadad

31 Then his servants said to him, "Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please, let us [m]put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life." 32 So they wore sackcloth around their waists and put ropes around their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

33 Now the men were watching closely to see whether any sign of mercy would come from him; and they quickly grasped at this word and said, "Your brother Ben-Hadad."

So he said, "Go, bring him." Then Ben-Hadad came out to him; and he had him come up into the chariot.

34 So Ben-Hadad said to him, [n]"The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you may set up marketplaces for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria."

Then Ahab said, "I will send you away with this treaty." So he made a treaty with him and sent him away.

Ahab Condemned

35 Now a certain man of [o]the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor [p]by the word of the LORD, "Strike me, please." And the man refused to strike him. 36 Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, surely, as soon as you depart from me, a lion shall kill you." And as soon as he left him, [q]a lion found him and killed him.

37 And he found another man, and said, "Strike me, please." So the man struck him, inflicting a wound. 38 Then the prophet departed and waited for the king by the road, and disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes. 39 Now [r]as the king passed by, he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and there, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man; if by any means he is missing, [s]your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.' 40 While your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

Then the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you yourself have decided it."

41 And he hastened to take the bandage away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. 42 Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: [t]'Because you have let slip out of y*our* hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

43 So the king of Israel [u]went to his house sullen and displeased, and came to Samaria.

Naboth Is Murdered for His Vineyard

21 And it came to pass after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard which was in [a]Jezreel, next to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. 2 So Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your [b]vineyard, that I may have it for a vegetable garden, because it is near, next to my house; and for it I will give you a vineyard of the Jordan in northern Gilead. They were launching their second campaign in the Jordan valley, but they would learn that the power of the living God is not limited to the mountains as they had hoped.

20:28 not God of the valleys. The God of Israel is Lord of the universe, and there is no limit to His power and authority. Not only are we responsible to Him as individuals, but so are the social, economic, and political institutions of the world. Just as it was presumption for the Arameans to think that God was bound by geography, it is also presumption to think that if we follow the laws of morality in our private lives, we can violate them in our social, economic, and political relationships. Separation of church and state should not mean separation of God and state. The nation that violates the moral laws of God will eventually suffer defeat.

20:43 sullen and displeased. Rather than repenting of his sin, Ahab felt ill used by God and resented his punishment, adamantly refusing to change his ways.

21:1 Samaria. Samaria was Ahab's capital city; sometimes its name is used to represent all Israel (2 Kin. 1:3; 2 Chr. 24:23; Jon. 3:6).

21:2 Give me your vineyard. All the land was the Lord's, who granted it to each Israelite tribe and family, and provisions were made so that the land could better than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

3But Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid [c]that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"
4So Ahab went into his house sullen and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no food. 5But [d]Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you eat no food?"
6He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' And he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"
7Then Jezebel his wife said to him, "You now exercise authority over Israel! Arise, eat food, and let your heart be cheerful; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."
8And she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in the city with Naboth. 9She wrote in the letters, saying,

> Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth with high honor among the people; 10and seat two men, scoundrels, before him to bear witness against him, saying, "You have [e]blasphemed God and the king." Then take him out, and [f]stone him, that he may die.

11So the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. 12[g]They proclaimed a fast, and seated Naboth with high honor among the people. 13And two men, scoundrels, came in and sat before him; and the scoundrels [h]witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed God and the king!" [i]Then they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, so that he died. 14Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."
15And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead." 16So it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab got up and went down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

The LORD Condemns Ahab

17[j]Then the word of the LORD came to [k]Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, [l]who lives in Samaria. There he is, in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Have you murdered and also taken possession?"' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: [m]"In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs shall lick your blood, even yours."'"
20So Ahab said to Elijah, [n]"Have you found me, O my enemy?"
And he answered, "I have found you, because [o]you have sold yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD: 21'Behold, [p]I will bring calamity on you. I will take away your [q]posterity, and will cut off from Ahab [r]every male in Israel, both [s]bond and free. 22I will make your house like the house of [t]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of [u]Baasha the son of Ahijah, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and made Israel sin.' 23And [v]concerning Jezebel the LORD also spoke, saying, 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall* of Jezreel.' 24The dogs shall eat [w]whoever belongs to Ahab and dies in the city, and the birds of the air shall eat whoever dies in the field."

not be permanently sold out of the family to whom it had been given (Lev. 25:23–28; Num. 36:2–9). In this sense, the vineyard was not Naboth's to dispose of. It belonged to his descendants as much as it did to him.
21:13 outside the city. God's law was followed in the manner and place of his death (Lev. 24:14–16,23), although his execution was an outrage, based on false testimony, lies, greed, and refusal to honor the laws concerning the land.
21:19 Have you murdered. In Genesis 9:6 the principle was established that those who shed human blood must have their blood shed by other humans. Ahab had previously allowed his wicked wife Jezebel to plot the murder of an innocent landowner in order to obtain his vineyard. As a result, God determined that both Ahab and Jezebel would die bloody deaths, and this is exactly what happened (22:34–38; 2 Kin. 9:30–37). How tragic that these two brilliant, capable, and talented members of royalty, whose lives could have brought so much blessing to Israel, would instead bring about their own downfall by choosing the path of wickedness rather than the path of life.

25But [x]there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do wickedness in the sight of the LORD, [y]because Jezebel his wife stirred him up. 26And he behaved very abominably in following idols, according to all [z]that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

27So it was, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes and [a]put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about mourning.

28And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 29"See how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he [b]has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the calamity in his days. [c]In the days of his son I will bring the calamity on his house."

Micaiah Warns Ahab

22 Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel. 2Then it came to pass, in the third year, that [a]Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel.

3And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that [b]Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?" 4So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel,
[c]"I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." 5Also
Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel,
[d]"Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

6Then the king of Israel [e]gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to fight, or shall I refrain?"

So they said, "Go up, for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king."

7And [f]Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of Him?"*

8So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil."

And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

9Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!"

10The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.
11Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made [g]horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall [h]gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.'" 12And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

13Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

14And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, [i]whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

15Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall we refrain?"

And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand
of the king!"

16So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

17Then he said, "I saw all Israel [j]scattered

21:27 when Ahab heard those words. The vacillating nature of Ahab's conduct is seen clearly in verses 25–29. He did great evil, under the influence of his evil wife. Nevertheless, he could at times display real courage (22:34–35) and even real humility before God (v. 29). His life is a sad picture of what happens when we are ruled by our own passions rather than by God.

22:4 Jehoshaphat. Jehoshaphat was the fourth king of the southern kingdom. He was related to Ahab through the marriage of his son Jehoram to Ahab's daughter Athaliah (2 Kin. 8:18–27).

22:9 Micaiah. The prophet Micaiah is not known except in connection with this incident (2 Chr. 18:8–27).

22:14 whatever the LORD says to me, that I will speak. Unless a prophecy is truly directed by God, it is valueless. Micaiah's response was what one would expect from a godly man, but his first statement to Ahab (v. 15) is a little puzzling. It seems that Micaiah was playing with Ahab a little, pointing out to him the futility of asking for favorable prophecy rather than true prophecy. It seems obvious that Micaiah (or God through Micaiah), was in no way deceiving Ahab, since Ahab was instantly aware that he had not been given a real prophecy.

22:16–17 truth. All of us wish to hear good news, not bad. We want to hear the favorable, the acceptable, the words that bring us happiness and do not condemn. It can be tempting to speak only what will

18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

19 Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: [k]I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, [l]and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. 20 And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. 21 Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' 22 The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, [m]'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.' 23 [n]Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

24 Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and [o]struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, [p]"Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

25 And Micaiah said, "Indeed, you shall see on that day when you go into an [q]inner chamber to hide!"

26 So the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son; 27 and say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this fellow in [r]prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction, until I come in peace."'"

28 But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, [s]the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel [t]disguised himself and went into battle.

31 Now the [u]king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two [v]captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel." 32 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat [w]cried out. 33 And it happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. 34 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

35 The battle increased that day; and the king was propped up in his chariot, facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot. 36 Then, as the sun was going down, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!"

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria. And they buried the king in Samaria. 38 Then someone washed the chariot at a pool in Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood while the harlots bathed,* according [x]to the word of the LORD which He had spoken.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, [y]the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 40 So Ahab rested with his fathers. Then [z]Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

41 [a]Jehoshaphat the son of Asa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 43 And [b]he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless [c]the high places were not taken away, for the people offered sacrifices and burned incense on be well-received even if it is not true, but neither God nor man is served by untruth. While the truth should always be spoken in love (Eph. 4:15), it must be the sole content of what we say. The prophet had to speak only the truth, or he would no longer have been a prophet—his words were the words of the Lord spoken in His name. Our words should be true because, if we are His people, we speak in His name.

22:38 the dogs licked up his blood. Elijah's grisly prophecy concerning the house of Ahab came to pass here (21:19–24).

22:39 ivory house. Archaeological excavations at Samaria have illustrated the nature of Ahab's palace, a house with luxurious decorations made of ivory.

50And [n]Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Israel

51[o]Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel. 52He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and [p]walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; 53for [q]he served Baal and worshiped him, and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, [r]according to all that his father had done.

22:46 perverted persons. Apparently male prostitution was a part of the debased religious practices of Baal worship (14:24).

22:53 Conclusion—The story does not end here but is continued in 2 Kings. The division of the Book of Kings is not original, but was done for convenience when the Bible was translated into Greek in the second century B.C.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE KINGS

▶ AUTHOR: This book, thought to originally be part of 1 Kings, is similar to the Book of Jeremiah. It has been observed that the omission of Jeremiah's ministry in the account of King Josiah and his successors may indicate that Jeremiah himself was the recorder of the events. The last two chapters were evidently added to the book after the Babylonian captivity and written by someone other than Jeremiah.

▶ TIME: 853–560 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: 2 Kin. 17:22–23

▶ THEME: Both Elijah in 1 Kings and Elisha in 2 Kings are prime examples of how prophets functioned in Israel. They fearlessly confronted kings. They were involved in miracles. Both seemed to always be involved in the middle of some political controversy. Most importantly, they called on God and got results. In 2 Kings, Israel's story begins with the reign of Ahab's son, Ahaziah, continues with the capture and deportation of Israel to Assyria in 722 B.C., and ends with Judah's fall in 587 B.C., when Nebuchadnezzar burns the temple and palace in Jerusalem and deports many people back to Babylon.

God Judges Ahaziah

1 Moab [d]rebelled against Israel [b]after the death of Ahab.

2Now [c]Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria, and was injured; so he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of [d]Baal-Zebub, the god of [e]Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury." 3But the angel* of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?' 4Now therefore, thus says the LORD: 'You shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'" So Elijah departed.

5And when the messengers returned to him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?"

6So they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'"'"

7Then he said to them, "What kind of man was it who came up to meet you and told you these words?"

8So they answered him, [f]"A hairy man wearing a leather belt around his waist."

And he said, [g]"It is Elijah the Tishbite."

9Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!'"

10So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then [h]let fire come down from heaven and

* 1:3 Or Angel

1:2 Ahaziah. The account of his brief, wicked reign begins in 1 Kings 22:51. The division of the Book of Kings into two parts was for the convenience of the translators, as is indicated by the fact that Ahaziah's reign carries over from one book to the other without a break.

1:6 Unbelief—Just as in the days of Ahaziah, men and women today often will turn to everything but the one genuine source of truth. But because there is no help or life or power in man's gods, man's ideas and philosophies, belief in them will end only in wasted, ineffective lives, and eventually in eternal death. True joy and meaning in life can only be found through trust in God.

1:8 A hairy man. This may refer to Elijah's garments, but the usual translation of "hairy man" is supported by the ancient versions.

1:10 fire . . . from heaven. Heavenly fire could signal divine judgment (Gen. 19:24). Elijah had already called down such fire in his contest with the prophets of Baal (1 Kin. 18:36–38). If this fire was lightning, the episode would have been a particularly significant slap in the face of their religion, showing that Baal consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty. 11 Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men.

And he answered and said to him: "Man of God, thus has the king said, 'Come down quickly!'"

12 So Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

13 Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours [i]be precious in your sight. 14 Look, fire has come down from heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight."

15 And the angel* of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king. 16 Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed to which you have gone up, but you shall surely die.'"

17 So Ahaziah died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Because he had no son, [j]Jehoram* became king in his place, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Elijah Ascends to Heaven

2 And it came to pass, when the LORD was about to [a]take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with [b]Elisha from Gilgal. 2 Then Elijah said to Elisha, [c]"Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Bethel."

But Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and [d]as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they went down to Bethel.

3 Now [e]the sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?"

And he said, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

4 Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to Jericho."

But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So they came to Jericho.

5 Now the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?"

So he answered, "Yes, I know; keep silent!"

6 Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, please, for the LORD has sent me on to the Jordan."

But he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you!" So the two of them went on. 7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Jordan. 8 Now Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water; and [f]it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them crossed over on dry [g]ground.

9 And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?"

Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

10 So he said, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so." 11 Then it happened, as they continued on and talked, that suddenly [h]a chariot of fire appeared with horses of fire, and separated the two of them; and Elijah [i]went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried out,

* 1:15 Or Angel * 1:17 The son of Ahab king of Israel (compare 3:1)

was not the god of the storm he was reputed to be. The God of Israel was—and is—the Lord of creation.

2:3 take away. The same Hebrew word is used for Enoch's entrance to heaven (Gen. 5:24). The work that God was about to do had been divinely revealed to many of God's servants (vv. 3,5). This widespread knowledge of God's purpose would protect against later denials by cynical persons that the event had ever taken place.

2:9 double portion. In material things, the principal heir received a double portion of his father's goods. Elisha wanted the principle of primary inheritance to apply to spiritual things. Far from being a selfish request, Elisha's petition reflects his humble acknowledgment that if Elijah's ministry were to continue through him, it would take special God-given spiritual power.

2:11 heaven. The Bible does not give very much information about exactly what happens to the believer after death. Elijah is described as being "caught up to heaven," and it is assumed that he went to the same place to which Enoch had been taken up (Heb. 11:5).

And he took hold of his own clothes and tore them into two pieces. 13He also took up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14Then he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" And when he also had struck the water, [k]it was divided this way and that; and Elisha crossed over.

15Now when the sons of the prophets who were [l]from Jericho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him. 16Then they said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, [m]lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley."

And he said, "You shall not send anyone."

17But when they urged him till he was [n]ashamed, he said, "Send them!" Therefore they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him. 18And when they came back to him, for he had stayed in Jericho, he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

Elisha Performs Miracles

19Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Please notice, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the ground barren."

20And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. 21Then he went out to the source of the water, and [o]cast in the salt there, and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'I have healed this water; from it there shall be no more death or barrenness.'" 22So the water remains [p]healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

23Then he went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up the road, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!"

24So he turned around and looked at them, and [q]pronounced a curse on them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the youths.

25Then he went from there to [r]Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Moab Rebels Against Israel

3 Now [a]Jehoram the son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. 2And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother; for he put away the sacred pillar of Baal [b]that his father had made. 3Nevertheless he persisted in [c]the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin; he did not depart from them.

4Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheepbreeder, and he [d]regularly paid the king of Israel one hundred thousand [e]lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams. 5But it happened, when [f]Ahab died, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6So King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel. 7Then he went and sent to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to fight against Moab?"

Jesus assured the thief on the cross that he would be in "paradise" with Him (Luke 23:43), a place of which Paul also had a brief glimpse (2 Cor. 12:1–4). While we do not have a clear picture of what it is like, we know that God will provide a place of beauty and rest for all His children.

2:15 The spirit of Elijah. The prophets witnessed both the miracle of Elijah (v. 8) and the similar miracle of Elisha. In this way there would be common agreement that Elisha was the successor of Elijah. They bowed, not in worship, but in respect and submission to the will of God.

2:17 he was ashamed. Although these words may indicate Elisha's sense of shame on behalf of his disciples for their disbelief, the use of the phrase elsewhere indicates that it means Elisha was worn out, no longer willing to resist (8:11). He came to the point where he gave in to their request.

2:23 Go up, you baldhead. The words of these youths indicate their disbelief of Elijah's "going up" into heaven and their disrespect for God's prophet. God did not tolerate blasphemy against Himself by the demeaning of Elijah's departure, or the abuse of His prophet, whom He had called for an important task at a critical period in Israel's history.

3:2 sacred pillar of Baal. Probably this was a stone pillar or statue erected by Ahab and bearing an inscription and image of the god Baal. Although it was put away temporarily, it apparently was not destroyed, because it later became one of the objects of Jehu's purge (10:26–27).

3:4 Mesha king of Moab. The existence of this Moabite king is confirmed by an inscription on a pillar known as the Moabite Stone. The inscription indicates that Omri had conquered the plains of Moab north of the Arnon River, and that the area remained under Israelite control throughout Ahab's reign. Thus the events of this chapter probably took place after Jehoram's accession and shortly before Jehoshaphat's death in 847 B.C. sheepbreeder. This Hebrew word is used only of Mesha and of Amos, the prophet (Amos 1:1).

3:7 Will you go with me. Because Jehoshaphat

And he said, "I will go up; [g]I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." 8Then he said, "Which way shall we go up?"

And he answered, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."

9So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they marched on that roundabout route seven days; and there was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them. 10And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

11But [h]Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?"

So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who [i]poured water on the hands of Elijah."

12And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom [j]went down to him.

13Then Elisha said to the king of Israel, [k]"What have I to do with you? [l]Go to [m]the prophets of your father and the [n]prophets of your mother."

But the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

14And Elisha said, [o]"As the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, I would not look at you, nor see you. 15But now bring me [p]a musician."

Then it happened, when the musician [q]played, that [r]the hand of the LORD came upon him. 16And he said, "Thus says the LORD: [s]'Make this valley full of ditches.' 17For thus says the LORD: 'You shall not see wind, nor shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink.' 18And this is a simple matter in the sight of the LORD; He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. 19Also you shall attack every fortified city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every spring of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

20Now it happened in the morning, when [t]the grain offering was offered, that suddenly water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21And when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered; and they stood at the border. 22Then they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water; and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood. 23And they said, "This is blood; the kings have surely struck swords and have killed one another; now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

24So when they came to the camp of Israel, Israel rose up and attacked the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they entered their land, killing the Moabites. 25Then they destroyed the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it; and they stopped up all the springs of water and cut down all the good trees. But they left the stones of [u]Kir Haraseth intact. However the slingers surrounded and attacked it.

26And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not. 27Then [v]he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great indignation against Israel. [w]So they departed from him and returned to their own land.

Elisha and the Widow's Oil

4 A certain woman of the wives of [a]the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD. And the creditor is coming [b]to take my two sons to be his slaves."

2So Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house but a jar of oil."

3Then he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbors—empty vessels; [c]do not gather just a few.

was related to the throne of the northern kingdom through the marriage of his son Jehoram to Ahab's daughter Athaliah, it could be presumed that he would be available as an ally.

3:14 I would not look at you. As a devotee of Baal, Jehoram had no claim on the favor of God. Nevertheless, he would enjoy the benefits of God's grace toward Jehoshaphat.

3:20 filled with water. The dry stream beds can easily overflow their banks in downpours of rain. Even distant areas can be flooded by water from faraway mountain streams swelled by heavy rains.

4:1 A certain woman. The fate of widows was perilous in the ancient Middle East. A practical test of biblical piety was to observe how those in power treated widows and orphans (Job 24:21; Ps. 146:9).

5So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured it out. 6Now it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel."

And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." So the oil ceased. 7Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest."

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

8Now it happened one day that Elisha went to [d]Shunem, where there was a notable woman, and she persuaded him to eat some food. So it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn in there to eat some food. 9And she said to her husband, "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly. 10Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."

11And it happened one day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there. 12Then he said to [e]Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him. 13And he said to him, "Say now to her, 'Look, you have been concerned for us with all this care. What can I do for you? Do you want me to speak on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?'"

She answered, "I dwell among my own people."

14So he said, "What then is to be done for her?"

And Gehazi answered, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."

15So he said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the doorway. 16Then he said, "About this time next year you shall embrace a son."

And she said, "No, my lord. Man of God, [f]do not lie to your maidservant!"

17But the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had told her.

18And the child grew. Now it happened one day that he went out to his father, to the reapers. 19And he said to his father, "My head, my head!"

So he said to a servant, "Carry him to his mother." 20When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died. 21And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door upon him, and went out. 22Then she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and come back."

23So he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the [g]New Moon nor the Sabbath."

And she said, "It is well." 24Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, "Drive, and go forward; do not slacken the pace for me unless I tell you." 25And so she departed, and went to the man of God [h]at Mount Carmel.

So it was, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to his servant Gehazi, "Look, the Shunammite woman! 26Please run now to meet her, and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?'"

And she answered, "It is well." 27Now when she came to the man of God at the hill, she caught him by the feet, but Gehazi came near to push her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone; for her soul is in deep distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me."

28So she said, "Did I ask a son of my lord? [i]Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?"

29Then he said to Gehazi, [j]"Get yourself ready, and take my staff in your hand, and be on your way. If you meet anyone, [k]do not greet him; and if anyone greets you, do not answer him; but [l]lay my staff on the face of the child."

30And the mother of the child said, [m]"As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, [n]I will not leave you." So he arose and followed her. 31Now Gehazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor

4:10 small upper room. The flat roofs of houses in this time were used as extra living space, and often a small room would be built on the roof which could be reached from outside. This accommodated a guest while providing privacy. Recognizing Elisha as one of God's chosen servants, the Shunammite woman was especially concerned that the normal measures of hospitality be applied even more fully.

4:12–13 Thankfulness—Both Elijah and the Shunammite woman illustrate the vitally important teaching of Scripture: Be thankful; be ready both to receive and to give; express your thankfulness always with words and deeds. Too many blessings, kind words, and thoughtful actions go thankless until it is too late. The kindness and love expressed to Elijah registered in his heart and mind. His loving question should be our question in response to kindness: "What can I do for you?"

4:23 New Moon . . . Sabbath. There was no work on these days, so they would be more suitable for going to see the prophet (Ex. 20:9–12; Amos 8:5).

4:27 the LORD has hidden it. The prophets did not know everything, but only what God made known to them (5:26).

hearing. Therefore he went back to meet him, and told him, saying, "The child has [o]not awakened."

32When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed. 33He [p]went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, [q]and prayed to the LORD. 34And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and [r]he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm. 35He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up [s]and stretched himself out on him; then [t]the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. 36And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her. And when she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son." 37So she went in, fell at his feet, and bowed to the ground; then she [u]picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies the Pot of Stew

38And Elisha returned to [v]Gilgal, and there was a [w]famine in the land. Now the sons of the prophets were [x]sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets." 39So one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it a lapful of wild gourds, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were. 40Then they served it to the men to eat. Now it happened, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, "Man of God, there is [y]death in the pot!" And they could not eat it.

41So he said, "Then bring some flour." And [z]he put it into the pot, and said, "Serve it to the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the pot.

Elisha Feeds One Hundred Men

42Then a man came from [a]Baal Shalisha, [b]and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, "Give it to the people, that they may eat."

43But his servant said, [c]"What? Shall I set this before one hundred men?"

He said again, "Give it to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: [d]'They shall eat and have some left over.'" 44So he set it before them; and they ate [e]and had some left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman's Leprosy Healed

5 Now [a]Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Syria, was [b]a great and honorable man in the eyes of his master, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria. He was also a mighty man of valor, but a leper. 2And the Syrians had gone out [c]on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Israel. She waited on Naaman's wife. 3Then she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! For he would heal him of his leprosy." 4And Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus said the girl who is from the land of Israel."

5Then the king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel."

So he departed and [d]took with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing. 6Then he brought the letter to the king of Israel, which said,

> Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy.

7And it happened, when the king of Israel read the letter, that he tore his clothes and said, "Am I [e]God, to kill and make alive, that this man sends a man to me to heal him of his leprosy? Therefore please consider, and see how he seeks a quarrel with me."

4:33 prayed to the LORD. Elisha's actions demonstrate that his faith was in the person and power of God alone, and not in the staff that symbolized his prophetic office. The restoration of the boy's life is a demonstration that life itself is in the hands of God.

4:36 Resurrection—When the writer of Hebrews tells us about those "women [who] received their dead raised to life again" (Heb. 11:35), he is probably referring to the two women about whom we read in 1 Kings 17:8–24 and 2 Kings 4:8–37. Many similarities can be seen between these two resurrection miracles, but it is clear that neither prophet followed a "resurrection formula." God is not bound to follow certain procedures or respond to incantations. Instead, He heals whom He will, in what way He wills.

4:41 flour. The meal or flour had no magical properties. Elisha's faith in the living God effected the miraculous cure.

5:1 king of Syria. The king of Aram (or Syria) was Ben-Hadad II (860–842 B.C.). He was a constant threat against the northern kingdom and would lead an invasion against it later (6:24—7:20).

5:3 the prophet who is in Samaria. Although Elisha traveled frequently and may sometimes have lived at Mount Carmel (4:25), he apparently maintained a residence in the capital city of Samaria (2:25; 6:9—7:20).

5:7 tore his clothes. While such letters of introduction were common in the ancient Middle East, Ben-Hadad's frequent forays against Israel made the king suspicious that the Arameans were seeking a pretext for another attack. Tearing one's robes was a sign of grief or agitation.

8So it was, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Please let him come to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

9Then Naaman went with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the door of Elisha's house. 10And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and [f]wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored to you, and you shall be clean." 11But Naaman became furious, and went away and said, "Indeed, I said to myself, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leprosy.' 12*Are* not the Abanah* and the Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage. 13And his [g]servants came near and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something great, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean'?" 14So he went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his [h]flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and [i]he was clean.

15And he returned to the man of God, he and all his aides, and came and stood before him; and he said, "Indeed, now I know that there is [j]no God in all the earth, except in Israel; now therefore, please take [k]a gift from your servant."

16But he said, [l]"As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, [m]I will receive nothing." And he urged him to take it, but he refused.

17So Naaman said, "Then, if not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth; for your servant will no longer offer either burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. 18Yet in this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there, and [n]he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon—when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon, may the LORD please pardon your servant in this thing."

19Then he said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

Gehazi's Greed

20But [o]Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared Naaman this Syrian, while not receiving from his hands what he brought; but as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him." 21So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

22And he said, "All is [p]well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Indeed, just now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the mountains of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of garments.'"

23So Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants; and they carried them on ahead of him. 24When he came to the citadel, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house; then he let the men go, and they departed. 25Now he went in and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gehazi?"

And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

26Then he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it [q]time to receive money and to receive clothing, olive groves and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants? 27Therefore the leprosy of Naaman [r]shall cling to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from his presence [s]leprous, as white as snow.

* 5:12 Following Kethib, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Qere, Syriac, and Targum read Amanah.

5:10 wash in the Jordan. Elisha's instructions illustrate the fact that simple obedience to God's will, even if it is not what we imagined, is the only road to receiving God's blessings.

5:15 no God . . . except in Israel. Naaman is an unusual example of a foreigner who came to faith in God.

5:17 earth. Naaman's unusual request may refer back to God's instructions to the Israelites in the desert (Ex. 20:24). Altars built for the worship of the Lord were to be made of earth or undressed stones, perhaps to avoid the possibility of the altar itself becoming an object of veneration.

5:23 talents. A talent was an enormous amount of silver—equal to 3,000 shekels, or about 75 pounds.

5:26 my heart go with you. The use of the term heart suggests not only Elisha's knowledge but also his strong feelings for Gehazi.

5:26–27 Worldliness—Naaman, in gratitude, urged Elisha to receive a gift, but Elisha steadfastly refused. The prophet wanted the new convert to understand clearly that the God of Israel cannot be bribed. His gifts are bestowed because of His gracious heart. Gehazi's sin was serious—it involved covetousness, lying, misrepresentation of the prophet and, more importantly, brought disgrace on the name of the God of Israel. Gehazi was acting in his own self-interest rather than for the cause of God. When we choose according to the values of unregenerate men, we are worldly and damage the interests of God's kingdom.

The Floating Ax Head

6 And [a]the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us. 2Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let every man take a beam from there, and let us make there a place where we may dwell."

So he answered, "Go."

3Then one said, [b]"Please consent to go with your servants."

And he answered, "I will go." 4So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they cut down trees. 5But as one was cutting down a tree, the iron ax head fell into the water; and he cried out and said,
"Alas, master! For it was [c]borrowed."

6So the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. So [d]he cut off a stick, and threw it in there; and he made the iron float. 7Therefore he said,
"Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Syrians Captured

8Now the [e]king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place." 9And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there." 10Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice.

11Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them,
"Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

12And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13So he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him."

And it was told him, saying, "Surely he is in [f]Dothan."

14Therefore he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city. 15And when the servant of the man of God arose early and went out, there was an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots.
And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

16So he answered, [g]"Do not fear, for [h]those who are with us are more than those who are with them." 17And Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, I pray, open his eyes that he may see." Then the LORD [i]opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw. And behold, the mountain was full of [j]horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. 18So when the Syrians came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Strike this people, I pray, with blindness." And [k]He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19Now Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

20So it was, when they had come to Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw;
and there they were, inside Samaria!

21Now when the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My [l]father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

22But he answered, "You shall not kill them. Would you kill those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? [m]Set food and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master." 23Then he prepared a great feast for them; and after they ate and drank, he sent them away and they went to their

6:6 made the iron float. At a time when most tools were still made of bronze, an iron blade was valuable.

6:13 Dothan. Dothan was in the central highlands of Israel. It is mentioned only here and in Genesis 37:17, when Joseph was sold to the Midianites.

6:15 servant of the man of God. Since Gehazi had become a leper (5:27), this is probably another servant. However, Gehazi is mentioned again in 8:4 as one who was still faithfully representing the miracles done through Elisha.

6:16–17 Understanding the Big Picture—Spiritually, we don't often make the personal progress we should. We fall back into old patterns of behavior too easily. We feel like God has left us out there alone to fight with our internal weaknesses as well as external forces that often seem to overpower us.

We're like Elisha's servant who couldn't see the full reality. We don't have a big enough vision to see what God is doing around us and in us. We're too wrapped up in our own physical and emotional reality. We're so full of ourselves that there's no room for God and the new vision He can bring to our lives.

Curiously, this story doesn't contain any record of the servant's response to what he saw. Did that new vision dramatically change his life? Did he forever understand the extent of God's protective care? Maybe that happened, or maybe like most of us, he was only able to catch a glimpse. We must live by faith that the full reality is represented by those brief and beautiful glimpses of the bigger picture.

6:19 I will bring you. Elisha's words are technically true, although he was undoubtedly misleading and deceiving the Arameans. The fact that he did not use his unfair advantage to kill Israel's enemies is worthy of notice.

master. So [n]the bands of Syrian raiders came no more into the land of Israel.

Syria Besieges Samaria in Famine

24 And it happened after this that [o]Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria. 25 And there was a great [p]famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove droppings for five shekels of silver.

26 Then, as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

27 And he said, "If the LORD does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?" 28 Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?"

And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' 29 So [q]we boiled my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; but she has hidden her son."

30 Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he [r]tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body. 31 Then he said, [s]"God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!"

32 But Elisha was sitting in his house, and [t]the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, [u]"Do you see how this son of [v]a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?" 33 And while he was still talking with them, there was the messenger, coming down to him; and then the king said, "Surely this calamity is from the LORD; [w]why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: [a]"Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.'"

2 [b]So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, "Look, [c]if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?"

And he said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it."

The Syrians Flee

3 Now there were four leprous men [d]at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die? 4 If we say, 'We will enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the [e]army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die." 5 And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there. 6 For the Lord had caused the army of the Syrians [f]to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses—the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, "Look, the king of Israel has hired against us [g]the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!" 7 Therefore they [h]arose and fled at twilight, and left the camp intact—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—and they fled for their lives. 8 And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king's household." 10 So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We went to the Syrian camp, and surprisingly no one was there, not a human sound—only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact."

6:25 donkey's head. Donkeys were unclean for food (Lev. 11:3). dove droppings. It is not known whether this term is meant to refer to the actual manure of doves or pigeons, or whether it is a slang term for some kind of bean or seed (some translations say "seed pods" or "locust beans").

6:28 eat him. Israel had been warned that national disobedience could reduce the people to such a loathsome deed (Lev. 26:29; Deut. 28:53–57).

7:3 leprous men. Because lepers were excluded from the city (Lev. 13:4–6; Num. 5:2–3), and avoided by all, they probably were ignored by the invaders and had been left to their fate. If the ordinary people of the city were suffering from hunger, these men must have been in even worse plight. They concluded that they had nothing to lose by going to the other side.

7:9 good news. Good news and good fortune had to be shared (Prov. 15:27; 21:17), and the men feared that failure to do so might merit divine punishment.

11 And the gatekeepers called out, and they told it to the king's household inside.
12 So the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me now tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are [i]hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.'"
13 And one of his servants answered and said, "Please, let several men take five of the remaining horses which are left in the city. Look, they may either become like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; or indeed, I say, they may become like all the multitude of Israel left from those who are consumed; so let us send them and see." 14 Therefore they took two chariots with horses; and the king sent them in the direction of the Syrian army, saying, "Go and see." 15 And they went after them to the Jordan; and indeed all the road was full of garments and weapons which the Syrians had thrown away in their haste. So the messengers returned and told the king. 16 Then the people went out and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a seah of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, [j]according to the word of the LORD.
17 Now the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just [k]as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. 18 So it happened just as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, [l]"Two seahs of barley for a shekel,
and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, shall be sold tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria."
19 Then that officer had answered the man of God, and said, "Now look, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, could such a thing be?"
And he had said, "In fact, you shall see it with your eyes, but you shall not eat of it." 20 And so it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

The King Restores the Shunammite's Land

8 Then Elisha spoke to the woman
[a]whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and stay wherever you can; for the LORD [b]has called for a [c]famine, and furthermore, it will come upon the land for seven years."
2 So the woman arose and did according to the saying of the man of God, and she went with her household and dwelt in the land of the Philistines seven years.
3 It came to pass, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went to make an appeal to the king for her house and for her land. 4 Then the king talked with [d]Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me, please, all the great things Elisha has done." 5 Now it happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored the dead to life, that there was the woman whose son he had [e]restored to life, appealing to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life." 6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him.
So the king appointed a certain officer for her, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

Death of Ben-Hadad

7 Then Elisha went to Damascus, and [f]Ben-Hadad king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here." 8 And the king said to [g]Hazael, [h]"Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and [i]inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'" 9 So [j]Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, of every good thing of Damascus, forty camel-loads; and he came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Shall I recover from this disease?'" 10 And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to 8:1 Kindness—Performing an act of kindness can be compared to throwing sand in the wind. You can be sure some of it will come back to you. The woman mentioned here could give glowing testimony to this. She had been led to feed and house the prophet Elisha (4:8–10), and this act of kindness produced good fruit. Through Elisha's prayers, her child was born and restored (ch. 4), and now Elisha warned her of the coming famine. God always remembers our acts of kindness (Mal. 3:16). In fact, the only thing God "forgets" about us is our confessed sins (Jer. 31:34).

8:3 she went to make an appeal. The Shunammite woman had not renounced or sold her property, but merely had left during the previous famine. Moreover, she had returned within seven years (Deut. 15:1–6; Ruth 4:3–4). Since the property was still legally hers, she pressed her claim to the king himself.

8:4 Gehazi. At this point, Gehazi was still faithful to the ministry of Elisha.

8:6 Restore all. We get a complex picture of King Jehoram. At times he was so angry with Elisha that he wished him dead (6:31), yet even then he was in mourning for his people. In this section, his righteous judgment should be contrasted with the wretched behavior of the wicked Ahab (1 Kin. 21:1–16).

8:10 You shall certainly recover. Elisha was answering Ben-Hadad's exact question: his illness was not deadly, in the natural course of things he would have him, 'You shall certainly recover.' However the LORD has shown me that [k]he will really die." 11Then he set his countenance in a stare until he was ashamed; and the man of God [l]wept. 12And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?"

He answered, "Because I know [m]the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: Their strongholds you will set on fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword; and you [n]will dash their children, and rip open their women with child."

13So Hazael said, "But what [o]is your servant—a dog, that he should do this gross thing?"

And Elisha answered, [p]"The LORD has shown me that you will become king over Syria."

14Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He told me you would surely recover." 15But it happened on the next day that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

16Now [q]in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat having been king of Judah, [r]Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat began to reign as king of Judah. 17He was [s]thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 18And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for [t]the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. 19Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, [u]as He promised him to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

20In his days [v]Edom revolted against Judah's authority, [w]and made a king over themselves. 21So Joram* went to Zair, and all his chariots with him. Then he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots; and the troops fled to their tents. 22Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. [x]And Libnah revolted at that time.

23Now the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 24So Joram rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then [y]Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

25In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, began to reign. 26Ahaziah was [z]twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri, king of Israel. 27[a]And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

28Now he went [b]with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at [c]Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. 29Then [d]King Joram went back to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. [e]And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of [a]the sons of the prophets, and said to him, [b]"Get yourself ready, take this flask of oil in your hand, [c]and go to Ramoth Gilead. 2Now when you arrive at that place, look there for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, recovered. However, Elisha also knew that Ben-Hadad's life would be taken by his servant Hazael.

8:11 ashamed. Elisha had reached the end of his ability to resist his emotions and wept over the suffering that Hazael would bring.

8:13 dog. In the ancient Middle East, dogs were despised as scavengers and unclean animals. Shalmaneser III of Assyria noted Hazael's accession to the throne with the words: "Hazael, son of nobody, seizes the throne."

8:16 Joram . . . Jehoram. These are variant spellings of the same name; the two kings were brothers-in-law since Jehoram of Judah had married the sister of Joram of Israel.

8:16–19 Apostasy—The complete picture of Jehoram's shameful apostasy is presented by the chronicler (2 Chr. 21:2–26). There were two powerful influences in Jehoram's life, one good and one evil; sadly, the evil influence prevailed. His father, Jehoshaphat, was one of the few godly kings of Judah, but Jehoram's wife was Athaliah, daughter of Jezebel, who influenced him to worship Baal (v. 18). Jehoram's life of unfaithfulness earned God's judgment, and he died a lonely and miserable death. Nevertheless, the Lord remained committed to His covenant promise (v. 19). Human unfaithfulness cannot destroy God's purpose of salvation.

8:27 the way of the house of Ahab. The lowest point of Israel's religious apostasy was reached in the reign of Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel (1 Kin. 16:31).

9:2 Jehu. The name Jehu means "the Lord is He."

the son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among [d]his associates, and take him to an inner room. 3Then [e]take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel."' Then open the door and flee, and do not delay."

4So the young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. 5And when he arrived, there were the captains of the army sitting; and he said, "I have a message for you, Commander."

Jehu said, "For which one of us?"

And he said, "For you, Commander." 6Then he arose and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, [f]"Thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. 7You shall strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may [g]avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [h]at the hand of Jezebel. 8For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and [i]I will cut off from Ahab all [j]the males in Israel, both [k]bond and free. 9So I will make the house of Ahab like the house of [l]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of [m]Baasha the son of Ahijah. 10[n]The dogs shall eat Jezebel on the plot of ground at Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" And he opened the door and fled.

11Then Jehu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did [o]this madman come to you?"

And he said to them, "You know the man and his babble."

12And they said, "A lie! Tell us now."

So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you king over Israel."'"

13Then each man hastened [p]to take his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps; and they blew trumpets, saying, "Jehu is king!"

Joram of Israel Killed

14So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against [q]Joram. (Now Joram had been defending Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, against Hazael king of Syria. 15But [r]King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted on him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, "If you are so minded, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and tell it in Jezreel." 16So Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was laid up there; [s]and Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

17Now a watchman stood on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men."

And Joram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

18So the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'"

And Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

So the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."

19Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'"

And Jehu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

20So the watchman reported, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously!"

21Then Joram said, "Make ready." And his chariot was made ready. Then [t]Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him [u]on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. 22Now it happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

So he answered, "What peace, as long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft are so many?"

23Then Joram turned around and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!" 24Now Jehu drew his bow with full strength and shot Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow came out at his heart,

9:6 poured the oil. The last part of the Lord's threefold command to Elijah had been carried out (1 Kin. 19:15–21; 2 Kin. 8:7–13). In the Old Testament, anointing was customarily reserved for a king (2 Sam. 2:4) or the high priest (Ex. 40:13).

9:13 garment. This action was a mark of homage fit for a king (Matt. 21:8). This scene is reminiscent of the anointing of King Solomon (1 Kin. 1:34).

9:21 the property of Naboth. Ahab's dynasty ended on the very stolen property that occasioned the divine sentence of judgment (1 Kin. 21:17–24). Ahab's unlawful seizure of the land of Naboth was regarded as one of his most heinous crimes.

9:22 harlotries of . . . Jezebel. Jezebel's spiritual adultery had brought vile demonic practices into the kingdom and sealed its doom (1 Kin. 21:25–26). As God had said, such activities would surely bring about the nation's demise (Deut. 28:25–26). Jehu justified his actions as a judgment on Jezebel's sins.

9:23 Treachery. In reality, Joram and Ahaziah were the true traitors, the ones who had led the people in and he sank down in his chariot. 25Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him into the tract of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, when you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, that [v]the LORD laid this [w]burden upon him: 26'Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD, [x]'and I will repay you in this plot,' says the LORD. Now therefore, take and throw him on the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

27But when Ahaziah king of Judah saw this, he fled by the road to Beth Haggan.* So Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him also in the chariot." And they shot him at the Ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. Then he fled to [y]Megiddo, and died there. 28And his servants carried him in the chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David. 29In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

Jezebel's Violent Death

30Now when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; [z]and she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window. 31Then, as Jehu entered at the gate, she said, [a]"Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of your master?"

32And he looked up at the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" So two or three eunuchs looked out at him. 33Then he said, "Throw her down." So they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses; and he trampled her underfoot. 34And when he had gone in, he ate and drank. Then he said, "Go now, see to this accursed woman, and bury her, for [b]she was a king's daughter." 35So they went to bury her, but they found no more of her than the skull and the feet and the palms of her hands. 36Therefore they came back and told him. And he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, [c]'On the plot of ground at Jezreel dogs shall eat the flesh of Jezebel;* 37and the corpse of Jezebel shall be [d]as refuse on the surface of the field, in the plot at Jezreel, so that they shall not say, "Here lies Jezebel."'"

Ahab's Seventy Sons Killed

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote and sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel,* to the elders, and to those who reared Ahab's sons, saying:

2 Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and weapons, 3choose the best qualified of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Look, [a]two kings could not stand up to him; how then can we stand?" 5And he who was in charge of the house, and he who was in charge of the city, the elders also, and those who reared the sons, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, we will do all you tell us; but we will not make anyone king. Do what is good in your sight." 6Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying:

> If you are for me and will obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow.

Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who were rearing them. 7So it was, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons and [b]slaughtered seventy persons, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.

8Then a messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons."

And he said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

9So it was, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, rebellion against God and sealed their own doom by their disobedience.

10:1 seventy sons. Ahab's "seventy sons" probably included the children of his concubines, as well as grandchildren.

10:9 Righteousness—Jehu declared Ahab's "great men" (v. 6) innocent of the death of Ahab's seventy sons. The Hebrew word translates literally as "just" or "righteous." They were righteous in the same sense that Jehu himself was (v. 30), in that God had ordered the death of Ahab's family and they were actually carrying out God's orders. However, this did not mean that these men could be considered righteous in any other sense. They had already thrown in their lot with Ahab and his wicked ways, they were his "great men," and as such, they had to meet the same fate as the rest of his family (v. 11). They had almost accidentally been obedient to God's will, but their hearts were still for the enemy.

Ahaziah's Forty-two Brothers Killed

12And he arose and departed and went to Samaria. On the way, at Beth Eked* of the Shepherds, 13[f]Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?"

So they answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah; we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

14And he said, "Take them alive!" So they took them alive, and [g]killed them at the well of Beth Eked, forty-two men; and he left none of them.

The Rest of Ahab's Family Killed

15Now when he departed from there, he met [h]Jehonadab the son of [i]Rechab, coming to meet him; and he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is toward your heart?"

And Jehonadab answered, "It is."

Jehu said, "If it is, [j]give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot. 16Then he said, "Come with me, and see my [k]zeal for the LORD." So they had him ride in his chariot. 17And when he came to Samaria, [l]he killed all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD [m]which He spoke to Elijah.

Worshipers of Baal Killed

18Then Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, [n]"Ahab served Baal a little, Jehu will serve him much. 19Now therefore, call to me all the [o]prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal. Whoever is missing shall not live." But Jehu acted deceptively, with the intent of destroying the worshipers of Baal. 20And Jehu said, "Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it. 21Then Jehu sent throughout all Israel; and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. So they came into the temple* of Baal, and the [p]temple of Baal was full from one end to the other. 22And he said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them. 23Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and see that no servants of the LORD are here with you, but only the worshipers of Baal." 24So they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, "If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escapes, whoever lets him escape, it shall be [q]his life for the life of the other."

25Now it happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in and kill them; let no one come out!" And they killed them with the edge of the sword; then the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the temple of Baal. 26And they brought the [r]sacred pillars out of the temple of Baal and burned them. 27Then they broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the temple of Baal and [s]made it a refuse dump to this day. 28Thus Jehu destroyed Baal from Israel.

29However Jehu did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin, that is, from [t]the golden calves that were at Bethel and Dan.

10:10 the LORD has done what He spoke. Evaluating Jehu is difficult. His praise for the ministry of the prophets of God and his stated respect for the word of God commend him to us, but later he did not exhibit faithfulness to the Lord (10:31).

10:15 Jehonadab. The name Jehonadab means "the LORD is noble." He was an ascetic, nomadic Rechabite. These people were known for their faithfulness to God and to the austere regulations laid down by Jehonadab (Jer. 35:1–16).

10:21 temple of Baal. This was the temple constructed by Ahab (1 Kin. 16:32).

10:21–24 Worship—At times Israel imported pagan ideas and practices into their worship and attempted to mix them with the worship of the Lord. The extremity of this apostasy was reached when Ahab erected an altar for Baal, the fertility god of the Canaanites, in a temple built for Baal in Samaria (1 Kin. 16:32). The participants in Baal worship engaged not only in immoral sexual orgies but in the detestable practice of child sacrifice (Num. 25:1–8; Jer. 19:5). God could not tolerate such behavior and Jehu's purge was the punishment that He had promised for disobedience.

10:29 the golden calves. Jehu's destruction of Baal worship was a political act. His continuing of the state have done well in doing what is right in My sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, [v]your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth gen- eration." 31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; for he did not depart from [w]the sins of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin.

Death of Jehu

32 In those days the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel; and [x]Hazael conquered them in all the territory of Israel 33 from the Jordan eastward: all the land of Gilead—Gad, Reuben, and Manasseh—from [y]Aro-er, which is by the River Arnon, including [z]Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 35 So Jehu rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria.
Then [a]Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. 36 And the period that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

11 When [a]Athaliah [b]the mother of Aha-ziah saw that her son was [c]dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs.
2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Jo-ram, sister of [d]Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed. 3 So he was hidden with her in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

4 In [e]the seventh year Jehoiada sent and brought the captains of hundreds—of the bodyguards and the escorts—and brought them into the house of the LORD to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. 5 Then he commanded them, saying,
"This is what you shall do: One-third of you who come on duty [f]on the Sabbath shall be keeping watch over the king's house, 6 one-third shall be at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the escorts. You shall keep the watch of the house, lest it be broken down. 7 The two contingents of you who go off duty on the Sabbath shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king. 8 But you shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes within range, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king as he goes out and as he comes in."

9 [g]So the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each of them took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. 10 And the priest gave the captains of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to King David, [h]that were in the temple of the LORD. 11 Then the escorts stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, all around the king, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, by the altar and the house. 12 And he brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, and gave him the [i]Testimony;* they made him king and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, [j]"Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

13 [k]Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the escorts and the people, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD.

* 11:12 That is, the Law (compare Exodus 25:16, 21 and Deuteronomy 31:9)

worship policies established by Jeroboam clearly shows his disregard for true spiritual revival in Israel.

10:32 the LORD began to cut off parts of Israel. The attacks of Hazael were part of God's judgment on Israel.

11:1 Athaliah. This name means "the LORD is exalted." Sadly, she did not live up to her name, and instead exalted herself.

11:2 Jehosheba. Josephus says that Jehosheba was Ahaziah's half sister. As the wife of the high priest Jehoiada, her marriage and her relation to the royal house made it possible for her to rescue and hide her nephew Joash.

11:3 hidden . . . in the house of the LORD. Joash was to inherit the promises of the Davidic covenant. His righteous reign may be attributed in part to his early years spent in the house of the Lord and to the godly instruction and protection of his aunt Jehosheba and her husband.

11:9 did according to all . . . the priest commanded. The remarkably willing obedience of the royal guard would seem to indicate that even her own followers were disgusted by Athaliah's wickedness.

11:12 gave him the Testimony. Deuteronomy prescribed the duties of the king with regard to the preservation of God's law (Deut. 17:18). By putting a copy of the Law in Joash's hand and the crown on his head, Jehoiada presented him as the rightful heir to the throne. The term "Testimony" recalls the covenant, emphasizing that Joash's coronation was given both its scriptural warrant and its rightful connection to the Davidic covenant.

14 When she looked, there was the king standing by [l]a pillar according to custom;
and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. So Atha-liah tore her clothes and cried out, "Treason! Treason!"
15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not let her be killed in the house of the LORD." 16 So they seized her; and she went by way of the horses' entrance into the king's house, and there she was killed.
17 [m]Then Jehoiada [n]made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people, that they should be the LORD's people, and also [o]between the king and the people. 18 And all the people of the land went to the [p]temple of Baal, and tore it down.
They thoroughly [q]broke in pieces its altars and images, and [r]killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And [s]the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. 19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, the bodyguards, the escorts, and all the people of the land; and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD, and went by way of the gate of the escorts to the king's house. Then he sat on the throne of the kings. 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword in the king's house. 21 Jehoash was [t]seven years old when he became king.

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, [a]Jehoash* became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. 2 Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD
all the days in which [b]Jehoiada the priest instructed him. 3 But [c]the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
4 And Jehoash said to the priests, [d]"All the money of the dedicated gifts that are brought into the house of the LORD—each man's [e]census money, each man's [f]assessment money*—and all the money that a man [g]purposes in his heart to bring into the house of the LORD, 5 let the priests take it themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damages of the temple, wherever any dilapidation is found."
6 Now it was so, by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, [h]that the priests had not repaired the damages of the temple. 7 [i]So King Jehoash called Jehoiada the priest and the other priests, and said to them,
"Why have you not repaired the damages of the temple? Now therefore, do not take more money from your constituency, but deliver it for repairing the damages of the temple." 8 And the priests agreed that they would neither receive more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the temple.
9 Then Jehoiada the priest took [j]a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the door put [k]there all the money brought into the house of the LORD. 10 So it was, whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's [l]scribe and the high priest came up and put it in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. 11 Then they gave the money, which had been apportioned, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the house of the LORD, 12 and to masons and stonecutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone, to [m]repair the damage of the house of the LORD, and for all that was paid out to repair the temple. 13 However [n]there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, trimmers, sprinklingbowls, trumpets, any articles of gold or articles of silver, from the money brought into the house of the LORD. 14 But they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it. 15 Moreover [o]they did not require an account from the men

11:17 covenant. Covenant renewal was particularly necessary after the usurpation by the wicked Athaliah.

11:20 rejoiced . . . quiet. The joy of the people and the peacefulness of the land were marks of God's blessing to the restored Davidic dynasty.

11:21 Jehoash. This variant spelling is used interchangeably with Joash.

12:2 all the days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. Sadly, after Jehoiada's death Joash's reign took a different turn; nonetheless, he was one of the few kings of Judah who showed some signs of righteousness.

12:3 high places. Although the high places seem to have been used at times for the worship of the true God, they were also strongly associated with Canaanite religious rites (1 Kin. 3:2–4; 14:23). Apostasy would become a besetting sin later in Joash's reign (2 Chr. 24:17–19,24).

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

17[r]Hazael king of Syria went up and fought against Gath, and took it; then [s]Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. 18And Jehoash king of Judah [t]took all the sacred things that his fathers, Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own sacred things, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent them to Hazael king of Syria. Then he went away from Jerusalem.

Death of Joash

19Now the rest of the acts of Joash,* and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20And [u]his servants arose and formed a conspiracy, and killed Joash in the house of the Millo,* which goes down to Silla. 21For Jozachar* the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer,* his servants, struck him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then [v]Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz Reigns in Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of [a]Joash* the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, [b]Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years. 2And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the [c]sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. He did not depart from them.

3Then [d]the anger of the LORD was aroused against Israel, and He delivered them into the hand of [e]Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of [f]Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all their days. 4So Jehoahaz [g]pleaded with the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for [h]He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them. 5[i]Then the LORD gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before. 6Nevertheless they did not depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who had made Israel sin, but walked in them; [j]and the wooden image* also remained in Samaria. 7For He left of the army of Jehoahaz only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had destroyed them [k]and made them [l]like the dust at threshing.

8Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 9So Jehoahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Then Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash Reigns in Israel

10In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash* the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years. 11And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, but walked in them.

12:17 Hazael king of Syria. The Aramean invasion recorded here took place late in Joash's reign. The king fell into apostasy and this invasion came as a judgment of his wickedness.

12:20 killed Joash. Joash had been severely wounded in Hazael's invasion (2 Chr. 24:24–25), and then fell victim to dissent and unpopularity that culminated in his assassination. Because of Joash's apostasy and murder of Zechariah, Jehoiada's son (2 Chr. 24:17–22), the king was not laid to rest in the royal tombs (2 Chr. 24:25).

13:2 evil . . . the sins of Jeroboam. After the end of the house of Omri in Jehu's purge, the kings of Israel reverted to the level of syncretism that had been established by Jeroboam I, indulging in a skewed religion in which worship of the Lord was mixed with idolatry.

13:4 pleaded with the LORD. Although Jehoahaz did not follow the Lord exclusively, God graciously heard his genuine plea for help. In His longsuffering mercy, God often deals patiently with people and blesses them in spite of their failures (1 Kin. 21:25–29; 2 Pet. 3:9).

13:6 Unbelief—No one is bound to continue following a path of sin. We always have the option of turning to God. However, the tendency to maintain things as they are and have been, to resist change no matter how urgently needed or how right it may be, or how much good it promises, is powerful. We cling to the known, the familiar, no matter how unsatisfying and ineffective it may be or how unhappy it may make us. Changing direction is not easy or painless, but the good news is that it really can be done. God is loving fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 13So Joash [p]rested with his fathers. Then Jeroboam sat on his throne. And Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Death of Elisha

14Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. Then Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, [q]the chariots of Israel and their horsemen!"

15And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." So he took himself a bow and some arrows. 16Then he said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow." So he put his hand on it, and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands. 17And he said, "Open the east window"; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot"; and he shot. And he said, "The arrow of the LORD's deliverance and the arrow of deliverance from Syria; for you must strike the Syrians at [r]Aphek till you have destroyed them." 18Then he said, "Take the arrows"; so he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground"; so he struck three times, and stopped. 19And the man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria till you had destroyed it! [s]But now you will strike Syria only three times."

20Then Elisha died, and they buried him. And the [t]raiding bands from Moab invaded the land in the spring of the year. 21So it was, as they were burying a man, that suddenly they spied a band of raiders; and they put the man in the tomb of Elisha; and when the man was let down and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and stood on his feet.

Israel Recaptures Cities from Syria

22And [u]Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. 23But the LORD was [v]gracious to them, had compassion on them, and [w]regarded them, [x]because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them or cast them from His presence.

24Now Hazael king of Syria died. Then Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his place. 25And Jehoash* the son of Jehoahaz recaptured from the hand of Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. [y]Three times Joash defeated him and recaptured the cities of Israel.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

14 In [a]the second year of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, [b]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king. 2He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. 3And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like his father David; he did everything [c]as his father Joash had done. 4[d]However the high places were not taken away, and the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.

5Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he executed his servants [e]who had murdered his father the king. 6But the children of the murderers he did not execute, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, saying, [f]"Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall be put to death for his own sin."*

7[g]He killed ten thousand Edomites in [h]the Valley of Salt, and took Sela by war, [i]and called its name Joktheel to this day.

8[j]Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash* the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us face one and forgiving, and when we repent of sin, He gives us the power to overcome it.

13:14 O my father. The grief of Jehoash at the impending death of Elisha shows that, like his father Jehoahaz, this Israelite king possessed some genuine spirituality. The line of Jehu had its good moments and received some reward from the Lord (10:30). However, none of this line or any other of the kings of Israel served God with all their hearts.

13:18 he struck three times, and stopped. Jehoash's half-hearted compliance with Elisha's instructions exposed his weak faith and illustrated God's unfavorable evaluation of his character (v. 11).

13:21 he revived. There was no magic in Elisha's bones; this was a demonstration of the power of God associated with His servant.

13:23 had compassion on them. This glimpse of the wonderful mercy of the living God is like a drink of fresh water in the midst of the sad tale of the northern kingdom.

14:1 Amaziah. The name Amaziah means "the LORD is mighty." He was one of the few godly kings in the kingdom of Judah.

14:4 high places. Like his father Joash before him (12:3), Amaziah allowed worship at the high places to continue. This practice blossomed into open idolatry in the reigns of subsequent kings (16:4; 21:3).

Glory in that, and stay at home; for why should you meddle with trouble so that you fall—you and Judah with you?"

11But Amaziah would not heed. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went out; so he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at [n]Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. 12And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent. 13Then Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh; and he went to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from [o]the Gate of Ephraim to [p]the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits. 14And he took all [q]the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Then Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

17[s]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel. 18Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 19And [t]they formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to [u]Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. 20Then they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

21And all the people of Judah took [v]Azariah,* who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. 22He built [w]Elath and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.

Jeroboam II Reigns in Israel

23In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria, and reigned forty-one years. 24And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from all the [x]sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. 25He [y]restored the territory of Israel [z]from the entrance of Hamath to [a]the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He had spoken through His servant [b]Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from [c]Gath Hepher. 26For the LORD [d]saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and whether bond or free, [e]there was no helper for Israel. 27[f]And the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven; but He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did—his might, how he made war, and how he recaptured for Israel, from [g]Damascus and Hamath, [h]what had belonged to Judah—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 29So Jeroboam rested with his fathers, the kings of Israel. Then [i]Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

* 14:21 Called Uzziah in 2 Chronicles 26:1ff, Isaiah 6:1, and elsewhere

14:9–10 Pride—Amaziah's conquest of the formidable city of Sela atop the seemingly unapproachable cliffs of the Wadi Musa was a monumental accomplishment. Rather than recognize God's hand in this feat, Amaziah became proud and fell into spiritual compromise (2 Chr. 25:5–16). A little success can sometimes be a dangerous thing. Failure to acknowledge God's power leads to personal pride, and such pride leads inevitably to downfall. God will not share His glory.

14:11 Beth Shemesh. The name of the city means "house of the sun," indicating that there had once been a temple to the sun god there in Canaanite times. Beth Shemesh was in the Valley of Sorek, about 15 miles west of Jerusalem. This was the town where the holy ark was taken after its "wanderings" among the Philistines.

14:17 fifteen years. The notice of fifteen years of life for Amaziah suggests he was released after the death of Jehoash for an additional period (782–767 B.C.). If so, he reigned alongside his son Azariah (or Uzziah), whose 52-year reign began in 792 B.C. (15:2).

14:23 forty-one years. Jeroboam II had a very long reign. His 41 years included 10 years as coregent with his father Jehoash (792–782 B.C.).

14:25 Jonah. Once again a prophet of God gave direction to a king. The reference to Jonah here provides the historical setting for the famous prophet (Jon. 1:1)

14:28 his might. The Scriptures emphasize Jeroboam's military prowess. Yet Jeroboam's might may have also been economic. The well-known Samaritan Ostraca, which may date from this period, record the delivery to Samaria of fine oil and barley produced on the royal estates.

14:29 Zechariah. The brief reign of Zechariah is noted in 15:8–12. He was the fourth in the line of Jehu to reign in Israel, in fulfillment of God's gracious promise to Jehu (10:30).

Azariah Reigns in Judah

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, [a]Azariah the son of Amaziah, king of Judah, [b]became king. 2He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. 3And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done, 4[c]except that the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. 5Then the LORD [d]struck the king, so that he was a leper until the day of his [e]death; so he [f]dwelt in an isolated house. And Jotham the king's son was over the royal house, judging the people of the land.

6Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 7So Azariah rested with his fathers, and [g]they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah Reigns in Israel

8In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, [h]Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. 9And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, [i]as his fathers had done; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. 10Then Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and [j]struck and killed him in front of the people; and he reigned in his place.

11Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, saying, [k]"Your sons shall sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."* And so it was.

Shallum Reigns in Israel

13Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah* king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria. 14For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from [l]Tirzah, came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him; and he reigned in his place.

15Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he led, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. 16Then from Tirzah, Menahem attacked [m]Tiphsah, all who were there, and its territory. Because they did not surrender, therefore he attacked it. All [n]the women there who were with child he ripped open.

Menahem Reigns in Israel

17In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria. 18And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. 19[o]Pul* king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to [p]strengthen the kingdom under his control. 20And Menahem [q]exacted the money from Israel, from all the very wealthy, from each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

21Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 22So Menahem rested with his 15:1 Azariah. Also called Uzziah (2 Chr. 26:1), this king is credited with 52 years of reign. This figure includes 10 years during which his father Amaziah was held captive (792–782 B.C.). The latter part of Azariah's reign was tainted by his intrusion into the priestly office (2 Chr. 26:16–19), an act that resulted in his being stricken with leprosy (v. 5). This condition put his son Jotham on the throne to rule with him and handle public matters relative to the royal office. The nature of Jotham's duties (v. 5), the assigning of a full 52 years of reign to Azariah, and Isaiah's dating of his call to the year of Azariah's (or Uzziah's) death (Is. 6:1) may indicate that Azariah retained the power of the throne until the end.

15:5 leper. The events that brought about this affliction are described in 2 Chr. 26:16–21.

15:12 fourth generation. Jehu had been promised a continuing posterity into the fourth generation as a reward for carrying out his divine commission (10:30), but after the death of Zechariah in 752 B.C., Israel plunged into a period of degeneracy, bloody conspiracies and international intrigue that would bring about its demise in 722 B.C.

15:17 Menahem. This wicked king came into power by assassination and established his authority by brutal acts against humanity. Ironically, his name means "comforter."

15:19 Pul. Pul is a second Babylonian name for the Assyrian king Tiglath-Pileser III (745–727 B.C.; 1 Chr. 5:26). Although he came to the throne as a usurper from the ranks of the military, he would prove a competent king. Under Tiglath-Pileser III and his successors, Assyria became the dominant power in the Middle East for well over a century (747–612 B.C.).

Pekahiah Reigns in Israel

23In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years. 24And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. 25Then Pekah the son of Remaliah, an officer of his, conspired against him and killed him in Samaria, in the [r]citadel of the king's house, along with Argob and Arieh; and with him were fifty men of Gilead. He killed him and reigned in his place.

26Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Pekah Reigns in Israel

27In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, [s]Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years. 28And he did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had made Israel sin. 29In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria [t]came and took [u]Ijon, Abel Beth Maachah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he [v]carried them captive to Assyria. 30Then Hoshea the son of Elah led a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck and killed him; so he [w]reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, indeed they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

32In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, [x]Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, began to reign. 33He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha* the daughter of Zadok. 34And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD; he did [y]according to all that his father Uzziah had done. 35[z]However the high places were not removed; the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. [a]He built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD.

36Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 37In those days the LORD began to send [b]Rezin king of Syria and [c]Pekah the son of Remaliah against Judah. 38So Jotham rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of Judah, began to reign. 2Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God, as his father David had done. 3But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel; indeed [a]he made his son pass through the 15:23 Pekahiah. Pekahiah means "the Lord has opened the eyes." After an evil reign of two years, a usurper "closed his eyes" for him.

15:25 Murder—Sometimes a corrupt leader needs to be taken out of power, but when this is done by coup and murder, the new leader ends up being just as bad as the old one. He lives in fear that someone will do the same thing to him; in an attempt to keep his position, he will exercise the same control and perpetrate the same kind of abuses as the leader he deposed. A vicious cycle is begun, as we can see from the succession of murders and new kings in Israel. Anytime leadership changes through conniving and coup, even if actual murder is not part of the picture, problems in trust and confidence will result.

15:27 Pekah. Because Hoshea's nine-year reign (17:1) began in 732 B.C., Pekah's twenty years must have included a time of kingship in his own district during the unsettled days of Shallum, Menahem, and Pekahiah (752–740 B.C.). Apparently Pekah rode the crest of anti-Assyrian sentiment.

15:30 Hoshea . . . led a conspiracy. The annals of Tiglath-Pileser III record Hoshea's heavy tribute and the Assyrian king's claim that he himself set the new Israelite king in office.

15:32 Jotham. Jotham's reign was partly righteous. After the purge of Ahaziah and Athaliah (9:27–29; 11:13–16), the kings of Judah who reigned in relative righteousness were Joash (12:2–3), Amaziah (14:3–4), and Azariah (15:3–4). A positive righteousness would be modeled by Hezekiah (18:3–6) and again by Josiah (22:2).

16:1 Ahaz . . . began to reign. The seventeenth year of Pekah was 736–735 B.C. Ahaz's 16-year reign apparently ended in 720 B.C. If so, like Jotham before him, Ahaz must have lived on another four years after giving up his rule. Hezekiah's first year of independent rule began in 715 B.C., 14 years before Sennacherib's invasion of Judah and his siege of Jerusalem in 701 B.C.

16:3 made his son pass through the fire. According to the author of Chronicles, this rite was connected with the Baal worship practiced in the valley of the fire, according to the [b]abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel. 4And he sacrificed and burned incense on the [c]high places, [d]on the hills, and under every green tree.

5[e]Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they besieged Ahaz but could not overcome him. 6At that time Rezin king of Syria [f]captured Elath for Syria, and drove the men of Judah from Elath. Then the Edomites* went to Elath, and dwell there to this day.

7So Ahaz sent messengers to [g]Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me." 8And Ahaz [h]took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasuries of the king's house, and sent it as a present to the king of Assyria. 9So the king of Assyria heeded him; for the king of Assyria went up against [i]Damascus and [j]took it, carried its people captive to [k]Kir, and killed Rezin.

10Now King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the design of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship. 11Then [l]Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. So Urijah the priest made it before King Ahaz came back from Damascus. 12And when the king came back from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and [m]the king approached the altar and made offerings on it. 13So he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering; and he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar. 14He also brought [n]the bronze altar which was before the LORD, from the front of the temple—from between the new altar and the house of the LORD—and put it on the north side of the new altar. 15Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great new altar burn [o]the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt sacrifice, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by." 16Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that King Ahaz commanded.

17[p]And King Ahaz cut off [q]the panels of the carts, and removed the lavers from them; and he took down [r]the Sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones. 18Also he removed the Sabbath pavilion which they had built in the temple, and he removed the king's outer entrance from the house of the LORD, on account of the king of Assyria.

19Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 20So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and [s]was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hoshea Reigns in Israel

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, [a]Hoshea the son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. 2And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel who were before him. 3[b]Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him; and Hoshea [c]became his vassal, and paid him tribute money. 4And the king of Assyria uncovered a conspiracy by Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So, king of Egypt, and brought no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year. Therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

son of Hinnom (2 Chr. 28:2–3). Ahaz was an apostate who personally led his people in the religious worship practices of Canaan.

16:7 sent messengers . . . king of Assyria. Tiglath-Pileser's records list the tribute of both Hoshea and Ahaz.

16:10–16 Vanity—The king of Israel was commanded to pattern his reign according to God's Word, but Ahaz apparently thought his own ideas were better. Once the Word of God has been set aside, there is no stopping point for presumptuous spirituality and immoral activities. Such practices may be aesthetically and humanly pleasing, but Jesus designated them as vain worship because they are based upon precepts and traditions of men, rather than on God's holy and sufficient Word (Matt. 15:7–9).

16:18 the king of Assyria. Ahaz was more interested in imitating the foreign king than in following God. His use of the altar to make sacrifices to God and his many other religious innovations underscored Ahaz's essential paganism (2 Chr. 28:2–4,22–25). He went so far in his apostasy as to shut the doors of the temple (2 Chr. 28:24).

17:1 twelfth year. Hoshea became king in 732 B.C., so the twelve years of Ahaz indicate a period of coregency with his father Jotham.

17:3 Shalmaneser. Shalmaneser V succeeded Tiglath-Pileser III as king of Assyria in 727 B.C.

Israel Carried Captive to Assyria

5 Now [d]the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria and besieged it for three years. 6 [e]In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria and [f]carried Israel away to Assyria, [g]and placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For [h]so it was that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and they had [i]feared other gods, 8 and [j]had walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD had cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made. 9 Also the children of Israel secretly did against the LORD their God things that were not right, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, [k]from watchtower to fortified city. 10 [l]They set up for themselves sacred pillars and [m]wooden images* [n]on every high hill and under every green tree. 11 There they burned incense on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD had carried away before them; and they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger, 12 for they served idols, [o]of which the LORD had said to them, [p]"You shall not do this thing."

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel and against Judah, by all of His [q]prophets, [r]every seer, saying, [s]"Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets." 14 Nevertheless they would not hear, but [t]stiffened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who [u]did not believe in the LORD their God. 15 And they [v]rejected His statutes [w]and His covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies which He had testified against them; they followed [x]idols, [y]became idolaters, and went after the nations who were all around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them that they should [z]not do like them. 16 So they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, [a]made for themselves a molded image and two calves, [b]made a wooden image and worshiped all the [c]host of heaven, [d]and served Baal. 17 [e]And they caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, [f]practiced witchcraft and soothsaying, and [g]sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. 18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them from His sight; there was none left [h]but the tribe of Judah alone.

19 Also [i]Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. 20 And the LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them, and [j]delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them from His [k]sight. 21 For [l]He tore Israel from the house of David, and [m]they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them commit a great sin. 22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart from them, 23 until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, [n]as He had said by all His servants the prophets. [o]So Israel was carried

17:7 Israel had sinned. The reason for the fall of Samaria and the end of the northern kingdom was clearly its spiritual failure; they had turned away from the living God.

17:14–18 Israel's Disobedience—These verses are a good summary of the spiritual departure from God that led to Israel's eventual downfall. The people of Israel didn't listen and three specific results are recorded:

1. The Israelites refused to believe. All the fulfilled promises, all the history of God's saving acts were simply ignored. It didn't matter what God had done. They had ears to hear and eyes to see, yet failed to do so.
2. They rejected God's laws and covenant. They willfully turned their backs on the way of living that God had directed them toward.
3. They worshiped idols. They actually worshiped anything and everything but what they were instructed to worship. In spite of God's clear mandate to them to have no other gods before Him, the Israelites were easily influenced by any culture they came in contact with.

The common denominator here is the will. This was willful rebellion. We are no different. Every day each of us, by an act of our own will, does something disobedient. We worry unnecessarily, we have fears for aspects of our lives that we know God has promised to protect and care for. Sometimes we simply don't care what God has said. We'd rather do what we want because it feels good or because His way is too difficult. We are truly sinners in need of a forgiving God.

17:21 Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD. Jeroboam had initiated the false worship that set the standard for all of Israel's idolatrous activities. The worship of the calves at Dan and Bethel, and Israel's fascination with Baal worship (1 Kin. 12:28–29; 16:32–33), are repeatedly cited as the chief causes of Israel's spiritual defeat and political collapse.

away from their own land to Assyria, as it is to this day.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

24 [p]Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, [q]Ava, Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they took possession of Samaria and dwelt in its cities. 25 And it was so, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not fear the LORD; therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. 26 So they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Samaria do not know the rituals of the God of the land; therefore He has sent lions among them, and indeed, they are killing them because they do not know the rituals of the God of the land." 27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Send there one of the priests whom you brought from there; let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the rituals of the God of the land." 28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 However every nation continued to make gods of its own, and put them [r]in the shrines on the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt. 30 The men of [s]Babylon made Succoth Benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 [t]and the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites [u]burned their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. 32 So they feared the LORD, [v]and from every class they appointed for themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the shrines of the high places. 33 [w]They feared the LORD, yet served their own gods—according to the rituals of the nations from among whom they were carried away.

34 To this day they continue practicing the former rituals; they do not fear the LORD, nor do they follow their statutes or their ordinances, or the law and commandment which the LORD had commanded the children of Jacob, [x]whom He named Israel, 35 with whom the LORD had made a covenant and charged them, saying: [y]"You shall not fear other gods, nor [z]bow down to them nor serve them nor sacrifice to them; 36 but the LORD, who [a]brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and [b]an outstretched arm, [c]Him you shall fear, Him you shall worship, and to Him you shall offer sacrifice. 37 And the statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment which He wrote for you, [d]you shall be careful to observe forever; you shall not fear other gods. 38 And the covenant that I have made with you, [e]you shall not forget, nor shall you fear other gods. 39 But the LORD your God you shall fear; and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies." 40 However they did not obey, but they followed their former rituals. 41 [f]So these nations feared the LORD, yet served their carved images; also their children and their children's children have continued doing as their fathers did, even to this day.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

18 Now it came to pass in the third year of [a]Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that [b]Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign. 2 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [c]Abi* the daughter of Zechariah. 3 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

4 [d]He removed the high places and broke the sacred pillars, cut down the wooden image* and broke in pieces the [e]bronze

17:24 king of Assyria. This was probably Sargon II (722–705 B.C.), although the practice described here was continued by later kings as well. Such a mixing of populations was designed to break down ethnic distinctions and weaken the loyalties that the people had. It would also help create a sense of empire.
Samaria. This was the whole region where the repopulation took place; eventually the inhabitants would be called Samaritans.

17:33 feared the LORD, yet served their own gods. This is the classic example of syncretism, the attempt to mix the worship of the true God with other religious traditions and beliefs. The apostate religion of the people of Samaria caused them to be rejected by the faithful Jews who returned from the exile (Ezra 4:1–5), and by the time of the New Testament, hostility was very strong between the two groups (John 4:9; 8:48).

18:1 the third year of Hoshea. The 29 years of Hezekiah's reign thus included a period of coregency with his father Ahaz before he ruled independently (715–699 B.C.). The name Hezekiah means "the LORD has strengthened."

18:3 he did what was right in the sight of the LORD. Hezekiah was the first king since David who served the Lord with all his heart.

18:4 high places. Consistently, the kings who preceded Hezekiah are criticized by the author for not destroying the high places (15:34–35). While there serpent that Moses had made; for until those days the children of Israel burned incense to it, and called it Nehushtan.* 5He [f]trusted in the LORD God of Israel, [g]so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor who were before him. 6For he [h]held fast to the LORD; he did not depart from following Him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD had commanded Moses. 7The LORD [i]was with him; he [j]prospered wherever he went. And he [k]rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. 8[l]He subdued the Philistines, as far as Gaza and its territory, [m]from watchtower to fortified city.

9Now [n]it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it. 10And at the end of three years they took it. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, [o]the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. 11[p]Then the king of Assyria carried Israel away captive to Assyria, and put them [q]in Halah and by the Habor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, 12because they [r]did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they would neither hear nor do them.

13And [s]in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. 14Then Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria at Lachish, saying, "I have done wrong; turn away from me; whatever you impose on me I will pay." And the king of Assyria assessed Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. 15So Hezekiah [t]gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house. 16At that time Hezekiah stripped the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

17Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan,* the Rabsaris,* and the Rabshakeh* from Lachish, with a great army against Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they went and stood by the [u]aqueduct from the upper pool, [v]which was on the highway to the Fuller's Field. 18And when they had called to the king, [w]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them. 19Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: [x]"What confidence is this in which you trust? 20You speak of having plans and power for war; but they are mere words. And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me? 21[y]Now look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. 22But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He [z]whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this were traditions of worship of the true God at these locations, far too often they became sites for the licentious worship of Baal and Asherah. Hezekiah's reforms included not only the destruction of the pagan cult objects introduced in the days of his apostate father Ahaz, but the bronze serpent that had been preserved since the days of Moses (2 Chr. 29–31). Symbols all too easily can be made into objects of veneration.

18:5 none like him. Hezekiah's faith was unparalleled by any other king who had preceded him after the time of David; Josiah's adherence to the law would be extolled in a similar manner (23:25).

18:6 Obedience—The obedience of Hezekiah provides a powerful lesson for all of God's people. He "clung" to the Lord, staying true to God and His commandments. He must have faced strong opposition as he eliminated practices which had been going on for generations, and destroyed objects which had long been considered sacred, but he knew that God's approval was more important than human approbation. In the same way, we must be willing to serve God before we please those around us.

18:13 fourteenth year. Hezekiah's fourteenth year of sole rule was 701 B.C. The details of the generally rebellious situation that provoked Sennacherib to invade the western portion of his empire are recounted in his annals, where Hezekiah is particularly mentioned for his involvement in the whole affair.

18:17 Tartan . . . Rabsaris . . . Rabshakeh. These titles suggest persons of high station in Assyria.

18:20 in whom do you trust. Perhaps Hezekiah's reputation for trusting in God was already widely known (v. 5). Trusting became the focal point of the Assyrian's psychological warfare (vv. 19–22,24–30).

18:21 broken reed. Actually, Sennacherib's warning against confidence in Egypt was well taken, the point having been made previously by Isaiah (Is. 30:3–5; 31:1–3).

The LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"

26[a]Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in [b]Aramaic, for we understand it; and do not speak to us in Hebrew* in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

27But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat and drink their own waste with you?"

28Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria! 29Thus says the king: [c]'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you from his hand; 30nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria."' 31Do not listen to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me by a present and come out to me; and every one of you eat from his own [d]vine and every one from his own fig tree, and every one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; 32until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, [e]a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive groves and honey, that you may live and not die. But do not listen to Hezekiah, lest he persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." 33[f]Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria? 34Where are the gods of [g]Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim and Hena and [h]Ivah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand? 35Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their countries from my hand, [i]that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?'"

36But the people held their peace and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him." 37Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah [j]with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Assures Deliverance

19 And [a]so it was, when King Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with [b]sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. 2Then he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. 3And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'This day is a day of trouble, and rebuke, and blasphemy; for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring them forth. 4[c]It may be that the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to [d]reproach the living God, and will [e]rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

5So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6[f]And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be [g]afraid of the words which you have heard, with which

18:25 The LORD said to me. The Assyrians may have been aware of prophecies concerning the judgment of Judah and Jerusalem and Assyria's own role as God's avengers (Is. 10:5–11). The remark was intended to introduce stark terror into the hearts of the people of Jerusalem (2 Chr. 32:18) by pointing out that now even their God was against them.

18:25 Self-Righteousness—The Assyrians were God's instrument for punishing Israel (Is. 10:5–10), but this fact was not due to any righteousness or virtue on Assyria's part. Rather, their attitude was blasphemous and proud (19:22). The lesson for the powerful king of Assyria is the lesson for kings, nations, and all individuals: no one may boast before the Lord (1 Cor. 1:29).

18:33 the gods of the nations. Rabshakeh's assertion that none of the gods of the nations who had opposed Assyria had withstood the Assyrian king is another aspect of the continued psychological warfare and evidence of the Rabshakeh's awareness of Isaiah's prophetic words (Is. 10:7–11).

19:2 Isaiah. The ministry of the great prophet Isaiah had begun in the year that Uzziah (or Azariah) died (Is. 6:1), nearly four decades earlier (740 B.C.). Once Isaiah had sought out Judah's godless King Ahaz to minister to him (Is. 7:3); now the prophet was being sought by the godly Hezekiah (the details of 18:13—20:19 are also recorded in Is. 36–39).

19:4 hear . . . reproach. The first verb does not suggest that God is unaware of the words of Rabshakeh. Rather, the words describe God as determining to redress the wrong.

19:6 Do not be afraid. Isaiah's prophecy was one of comfort. Not only would Sennacherib fail to conquer Jerusalem, but he would face a violent death upon his return home. Both points of this prophetic message would come true, although Sennacherib was

Sennacherib's Threat and Hezekiah's Prayer

8Then the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he heard that he had departed [j]from Lachish. 9And [k]the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "Look, he has come out to make war with you." So he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10"Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: 'Do not let your God [l]in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 11Look! You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them; and shall you be delivered? 12[m]Have the gods of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Haran and Rezeph, and the people of [n]Eden who were in Telassar? 13[o]Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?'"

14[p]And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. 15Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said: "O LORD God of Israel, the One [q]who dwells between the cherubim, [r]You are God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. 16[s]Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear; [t]open Your eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, [u]which he has sent to reproach the living God. 17Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, 18and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were [v]not gods, but [w]the work of men's hands—wood and stone. Therefore they destroyed them. 19Now therefore, O LORD our God, I pray, save us from his hand, [x]that all the kingdoms of the earth may [y]know that You are the LORD God, You alone."

The Word of the LORD Concerning Sennacherib

20Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: [z]'Because you have prayed to Me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, [a]I have heard.' 21This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him:

'The virgin, [b]the daughter of Zion,
Has despised you, laughed you to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem
[c]Has shaken her head behind your back!

22 'Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice,
And lifted up your eyes on high?
Against [d]the Holy One of Israel.
23 [e]By your messengers you have reproached the Lord,
And said: [f]"By the multitude of my chariots
I have come up to the height of the mountains,
To the limits of Lebanon;
I will cut down its tall cedars
And its choice cypress trees;
I will enter the extremity of its borders,
To its fruitful forest.
24 I have dug and drunk strange water,
And with the soles of my feet I have [g]dried up
All the brooks of defense."

not assassinated until 20 years later (c. 681 B.C.). In his annals Sennacherib boasts of five more campaigns; however, he makes no mention of any other invasions of Judah.

19:9 Tirhakah king of Ethiopia. Since Tirhakah did not become king until 690 B.C., there is an apparent problem with the chronology of this verse. However, it is possible that the biblical author merely calls Tirhakah by the title he was best known by at the time of writing.

19:12 Eden. This is not the Eden of Genesis, but an area known today as Bit-Adini, south of Haran (Ezek. 27:23; Amos 1:5).

19:15 You have made heaven and earth. The conflict mentioned in this chapter involves far more than the kings of Egypt, Assyria, or Judah. The warfare is one in which the gods of the pagan world would dishonor the true and living God of Israel. Hezekiah's prayer was addressed to the God who alone is sovereign over all the kingdoms of the world. His sovereignty is related to the fact of creation; He is the God who made heaven and earth. The heathen gods are born in corrupted human imaginations, and backed by a rebellious angel (Satan), but God is the one who owns and controls the universe.

19:21 daughter of Zion. As elsewhere in the Old Testament (Zeph. 3:14), this phrase should be written "daughter Zion," without the "of." Zion (Jerusalem) is like a daughter to God, whom He will protect and guard as only a father would.

19:22 Holy One of Israel. This title is characteristic of Isaiah's own manner of referring to God. He uses the

Nor come before it with shield,
Nor build a siege mound against it.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

35 And [u]it came to pass on a certain night that the angel* of the LORD went out, and killed in the camp of the Assyrians one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when people arose early in the morning, there were the corpses—all dead. 36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and went away, returned home, and remained at [v]Nineveh. 37 Now it came to pass, as he was worshiping in the temple of Nisroch his god, that his sons [w]Adrammelech and Sharezer [x]struck him down with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Then [y]Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

20 In [a]those days Hezekiah was sick and near death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, went to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live.'"

2 Then he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, 3b "Remember now, O LORD, I pray, how I have walked before You in truth and with a loyal heart, and have done what was good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

4 And it happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 5 "Return and tell Hezekiah [c]the leader of My people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: [d]"I have heard your prayer, I have seen [e]your tears; surely I will heal you. 19:30 remnant . . . Shall again take root. The promises in these verses were both for the immediate situation and ultimately for the final regathering of the Jewish people into their land in the time of the coming Messiah.

19:32 not come into this city. While Sennacherib later boasted of taking some 46 Judean cities, with reference to Jerusalem he could only report that he made Hezekiah "prisoner in Jerusalem, his royal residence, like a bird in a cage." God's defense and deliverance of Jerusalem demonstrated His faithfulness to the Davidic covenant.

19:37 struck him down with the sword. The events depicted here took place 20 years after God's deliverance of Jerusalem. When his father was assassinated, Esarhaddon took the throne and ruled from 681 to 668 B.C.

20:3 I have walked before You. Hezekiah's prayer recognized that although all of life is in God's hands, God is also a rewarder of those who faithfully serve Him (Deut. 5:30–33; 30:15–16).

7Then [g]Isaiah said, "Take a lump of figs." So they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [h]"What is the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"

9Then Isaiah said, [i]"This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?"

10And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees."

11So Isaiah the prophet cried out to the LORD, and [j]He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

The Babylonian Envoys

12[k]At that time Berodach-Baladan* the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. 13And [l]Hezekiah was attentive to them, and showed them all the house of his treasures—the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all* his armory—all that was found among his treasures. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

14Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?"

So Hezekiah said, "They came from a far country, from Babylon."

15And he said, "What have they seen in your house?"

So Hezekiah answered, [m]"They have seen all that is in my house; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

16Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: 17'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have accumulated until this day, [n]shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left,' says the LORD. 18'And [o]they shall take away some of your sons who will descend from you, whom you will beget; [p]and they shall be [q]eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

19So Hezekiah said to Isaiah, [r]"The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good!" For he said, "Will there not be peace and truth at least in my days?"

Death of Hezekiah

20[s]Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah—all his might, and how he [t]made a [u]pool and a tunnel and [v]brought water into the city—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 21So [w]Hezekiah rested with his fathers. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

21 Manasseh [a]was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. 2And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, [b]according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had 20:7 lump of figs. The practice of applying figs to an ulcerated sore is well attested in the records of the ancient Middle East, being mentioned as early as 2000 B.C.

20:12 Berodach-Baladan. This was a Chaldean king who twice ruled in Babylon (721–710, 703 B.C.). A perennial enemy of Assyria, he was twice defeated by them and cast out from Babylon. His search for allies in his resistance to Assyria may have occasioned the embassy to Hezekiah, especially because he had heard of Hezekiah's miraculous deliverance from the Assyrian army (2 Chr. 32:31).

20:13 showed them all the house of his treasures. One of the remarkable features of the Bible is the fact that it does not gloss over the faults of its best heroes and heroines. This account of the foolishness of Hezekiah follows immediately on the narrative of his great trust in the Lord (vv. 1–11).

20:16–18 Vanity—How much better for Israel's welfare if Hezekiah had been interested in introducing the Babylonian envoys to his God rather than to the treasures of the nation. The prophet's rebuke confirms that Hezekiah's action arose from a vain desire to impress the Babylonians with the externals of his kingdom. Human pride, and the vain hope that deliverance will come from man, must be forsaken if God's blessing is to be experienced.

20:19 The word of the LORD . . . is good. Hezekiah's response seems a little heartless. He did verbally acknowledge God's right to decide, but it does not appear that he had any real sense of the trouble his folly would bring on the people.

20:20 a pool and a tunnel. Hezekiah dug a tunnel between the spring of Gihon and the Pool of Siloam to bring a ready supply of water within the eastern wall of Jerusalem. This tunnel is still in existence, a crooked shaft 1,750 feet long.

21:1 Manasseh. This wicked king's fifty-five year reign was the longest of any of the kings of the divided kingdom. Externally, the period was one of cast out before the children of Israel. 3For

he rebuilt the high places [c]which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he raised up altars for Baal, and made a wooden image,* [d]as Ahab king of Israel had done; and he [e]worshiped all the host of heaven* and served them. 4[f]He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, [g]"In Jerusalem I will put My name." 5And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the [h]two courts of the house of the LORD. 6[i]Also he made his son pass through the fire, practiced [j]soothsaying, used witchcraft, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. 7He even set a carved image of Asherah* that he had made, in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon his son, [k]"In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever; 8[l]and I will not make the feet of Israel wander anymore from the land which I gave their fathers—only if they are careful to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them." 9But they paid no attention, and Manasseh [m]seduced them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10And the LORD spoke [n]by His servants
the prophets, saying, 11[o]"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations ([p]he has acted more wickedly than all the [q]Amorites who were before him, and [r]has also made Judah sin with his idols), 12therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: 'Behold, I am bringing such calamity upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both [s]his ears will tingle. 13And
I will stretch over Jerusalem [t]the measuring line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab; [u]I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. 14So I will forsake the [v]remnant of My inheritance and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become victims of plunder to all their enemies, 15because they have done evil in My sight, and have provoked Me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day.'"

16[w]Moreover Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, besides his sin by which he made Judah sin, in doing evil in the sight of the LORD.

17Now [x]the rest of the acts of [y]Manasseh—all that he did, and the sin that he committed—are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 18So [z]Manasseh rested with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

19[a]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. 20And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, [b]as his father Manasseh had done. 21So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked; and he served the idols that his father had served, and worshiped them. 22He [c]forsook the LORD God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD.

23[d]Then the servants of Amon [e]conspired against him, and killed the king in his own house. 24But the people of the land [f]executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

25Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 26And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. Then Josiah his son reigned in his place.

political stability. It is known as the Assyrian Peace, an era in which the kings Esarhaddon (681–668 B.C.) and Ashurbanipal (668–626 B.C.) reigned and brought the Assyrian Empire to its zenith. However, the length of Manasseh's reign does not indicate a good rule, but rather God's persevering mercy and faithfulness to the Davidic covenant (2 Chr. 33:10–13).

21:3 host of heaven. Worship of heavenly bodies was strictly forbidden (Deut. 4:19; 17:2–7) and was condemned strongly by Israel's prophets (Is. 47:13; Amos 5:26). Yet Manasseh paid no attention to either the law or the prophets (2 Chr. 33:2–10).

21:4 altars in the house of the LORD. All that had been accomplished by the godly kings of Judah was undone by this reprobate. But wicked as Manasseh was, God heard his prayer when he repented (2 Chr. 33:12–16).

21:15 since the day. The story of the Old Testament is not a record of God's anger, but of His mercy and the delay of His just wrath.

21:23 conspired against him. No reason is assigned for the conspiracy that brought about Amon's assassination. While it may have had some connection with the international crisis that precipitated Ashurbanipal's renewed attention to the west, Amon's own wickedness may have provided sufficient cause.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

22 Josiah [a]was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of [b]Bozkath. 2And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in all the ways of his father David; he [c]did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

3[d]Now it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the scribe, the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, to the house of the LORD, saying: 4"Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may count the money which has been [e]brought into the house of the LORD, which [f]the doorkeepers have gathered from the people. 5And let them [g]deliver it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the house of the LORD; let them give it to those who are in the house of the LORD doing the work, to repair the damages of the house— 6to carpenters and builders and masons—and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house. 7However [h]there need be no accounting made with them of the money delivered into their hand, because they deal faithfully."

8Then Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, [i]"I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. 9So Shaphan the scribe went to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "Your servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the house of the LORD." 10Then Shaphan the scribe showed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

11Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, that he tore his clothes. 12Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, [j]Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Achbor* the son of Michaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king, saying, 13"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is [k]the wrath of the LORD that is aroused against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

14So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of [l]Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke with her. 15Then she said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me, 16"Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, [m]I will bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read— 17[n]because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath shall be aroused against this place and shall not be quenched.'"' 18But as for [o]the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard— 19because your [p]heart was tender, and you [q]humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become [r]a desolation and [s]a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you," says the 22:1 Josiah. The name Josiah means "the Lord supports." Like the name of Cyrus (Is. 44:28; 45:1) and of the city of Bethlehem (Mic. 5:2), the name Josiah was announced by a prophet long before the time of his birth (1 Kin. 13:1–2).

22:2 did not turn aside. Not many rulers can rival Josiah's thirty-eight years of perseverance in righteousness. Some begin with high ideals and a commitment to do what is right in the sight of the Lord, but they soon learn that compromise is the art of politics. Compromise can be right and good. We ought to think more highly of others than ourselves and be willing to let go of our own preferences and opinions for the good of others. However, good can never result from compromising God's revealed ethics, morality, and justice. We must learn to live like Josiah, putting obedience to God before comfort and popular acceptance.

22:4 Hilkiah the high priest. This man was a major figure in the revival of true religion that young Josiah accomplished. The work of restoring the temple was under his direction.

22:8 the Book of the Law. This may mean either parts or all of the Pentateuch. Although it was placed by the side of the ark of the covenant (Deut. 31:26), it may have been lost, set aside, or hidden during the wicked reigns of Manasseh and Amon.

22:14 Huldah the prophetess. Huldah is one of only a few women mentioned in Scripture as a prophetess. She served at the same time as other godly prophets, such as Jeremiah and Zephaniah, and some have suggested that her husband Shallum was a relative of Jeremiah (Jer. 32:7–12).

Josiah Restores True Worship

23 Now [a]the king sent them to gather all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him. 2The king went up to the house of the LORD with all the men of Judah, and with him all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the prophets and all the people, both small and great. And he [b]read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant [c]which had been found in the house of the LORD.

3Then the king [d]stood by a pillar and made a [e]covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes, with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people took a stand for the covenant. 4And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the [f]priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring [g]out of the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for Baal, for Asherah,* and for all the host of heaven;* and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. 5Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places all around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to [h]all the host of heaven. 6And he brought out the [i]wooden image* from the house of the LORD, to the Brook Kidron outside Jerusalem, burned it at the Brook Kidron and ground it to [j]ashes, and threw its ashes on [k]the graves of the common people. 7Then he tore down the ritual booths [l]of the perverted persons* that were in the house of the LORD, [m]where the [n]women wove hangings for the wooden image. 8And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from [o]Geba to Beersheba; also he broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were to the left of the city gate. 9[p]Nevertheless the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, [q]but they ate unleavened bread among their brethren.

10And he defiled [r]Topheth, which is in [s]the Valley of the Son* of Hinnom, [t]that no man might make his son or his daughter [u]pass through the fire to Molech. 11Then he removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance to the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-Melech, the officer who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. 12The altars that were [v]on the roof, the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which [w]Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king broke down and pulverized there, and threw their dust into the Brook Kidron. 13Then the king defiled the high places that were east of Jerusalem, which were on the south of the Mount of Corruption, which [x]Solomon king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the people of Ammon. 14And he [y]broke

23:2 he read . . . the words of the Book. Like Moses (Ex. 24:3–8) and Joshua (Josh. 8:34–35) before him, Josiah followed the ancient standard for godly leadership (Deut. 17:18–20; 31:9–13) and assembled the people to renew the covenant.

23:3 Knowing the Will of God—Christians often act as if learning the will of God is some mysterious process fraught with the danger of making all kinds of mistakes. This passage points to the fact that most of what we need to know about the will of God is contained in the Scriptures. The best place to learn the will of God is from reading the Bible. The only way to do the will of God is to obey the teaching of the Bible. God may have more specific plans for each of us, but His basic plan for all of us is to do what He says as revealed in His written word.

23:5 idolatrous priests. This term is also used by Zephaniah to describe the priests who led the rites associated with Baal and with star worship of various kinds (Zeph. 1:4). These priests had been appointed by Judah's past kings but functioned outside the divinely established priesthood.

23:6 wooden image. Although they had been destroyed by Hezekiah, these wooden images had been reintroduced by Manasseh (21:7) and also by Amon (21:21).

23:10 Topheth. This appears to have been a place in the valley of Hinnom where human sacrifices were made to Molech (Jer. 7:31–32; 32:35). pass through the fire to Molech. Some think that Molech was a god of the Ammonites (1 Kin. 11:5), or that Molech was the name of a type of child sacrifice associated with Baal worship (Jer. 19:5–6). Evidence of such child sacrifice has been found in the excavations at the Phoenician city of Carthage.

in pieces the sacred pillars and cut down the wooden images, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place [z]which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and burned the wooden image. 16As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the [a]word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. 17Then he said, "What gravestone is this that I see?"

So the men of the city told him, "It is [b]the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel."

18And he said, "Let him alone; let no one move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of [c]the prophet who came from Samaria.

19Now Josiah also took away all the shrines of the high places that were [d]in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD* to anger; and he did to them according to all the deeds he had done in Bethel. 20[e]He [f]executed all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and [g]burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

21Then the king commanded all the people, saying, [h]"Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, [i]as it is written in this Book of the Covenant." 22[j]Such a Passover surely had never been held since the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah. 23But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was held before the LORD in Jerusalem. 24Moreover Josiah put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, the household gods and idols, all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might perform the words of [k]the law which were written in the book [l]that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. 25[m]Now before him there was no king like him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses; nor after him did any arise like him.

Impending Judgment on Judah

26Nevertheless the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, with which His anger was aroused against Judah, [n]because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. 27And the LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from My sight, as [o]I have removed Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, [p]'My name shall be there.'"*

28Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 29[q]In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went to the aid of the king of Assyria, to the River Euphrates; and King Josiah went against him. And Pharaoh Necho

23:18 the prophet . . . from Samaria. The prophet from Samaria was the old prophet of Bethel (1 Kin. 13:11). Samaria is the name for an entire area, not just the city that was later the capital of the northern kingdom (1 Kin. 13:32; 16:23–24). After the death of the man of God who had denounced Jeroboam's altar at Bethel, the aged prophet of Bethel requested that at his death he should be buried in Bethel beside that prophet of Judah.

23:22 Such a Passover. The restoration of religious places was part of the revival of spiritual worship. Although Hezekiah had held a Passover (2 Chr. 30), he had done so with some modification of the law (2 Chr. 30:13–20). Accordingly, Josiah's meeting of the strict requirements of the law (2 Chr. 35:1–19) was truly unparalleled since the days of the judges.

23:25 no king like him. Like his grandfather Hezekiah, who was famed for being without equal in his trust of the Lord (18:5), Josiah was truly a righteous king. Because of their outstanding examples of godliness, the authors of Kings and Chronicles devote considerable space to their reigns.

23:26–27 Unfaithfulness—The revival under Josiah, recorded in chapters 22 and 23, was like a stay of execution. It gave Judah some additional time but it was too little, too late. The die had been cast in Manasseh's reign as God threatened to wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes a dish (21:13) because Manasseh did more evil than the other nations whom the Lord had destroyed. In the light of Jeremiah 18:7–8 we must assume that Josiah's people responded only externally to God's principles and not from the heart. Unfaithfulness was deeply rooted, and professions of religion could not change them from the inside.

23:29 Pharaoh Necho. During the long years of Josiah's reign (640–609 B.C.), Assyrian power had steadily crumbled until, as Nahum had predicted, Nineveh itself had fallen (612 B.C.). The surviving Assyrian forces had regrouped at Haran. Because Egypt was a long-standing ally of Assyria, Necho journeyed northward to help the beleaguered Assyrians. Josiah's deployment of his forces to the valley of Megiddo was an attempt to prevent the Egyptians killed him at [r]Megiddo when he [s]confronted him. 30[t]Then his servants moved his body in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. And [u]the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in his father's place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

31[v]Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [w]Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 32And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. 33Now Pharaoh Necho put him in prison [x]at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 34Then [y]Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and [z]changed his name to [a]Jehoiakim. And Pharaoh took Jehoahaz [b]and went to Egypt, and he* died there.

Jehoiakim Reigns in Judah

35So Jehoiakim gave [c]the silver and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give money according to the command of Pharaoh; he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho. 36[d]Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. 37And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Judah Overrun by Enemies

24 In [a]his days Nebuchadnezzar king of [b]Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him. 2[c]And the LORD sent against him raiding bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of the people of Ammon; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, [d]according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by His servants the prophets. 3Surely at the commandment of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from His sight [e]because of the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, 4[f]and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, which the LORD would not pardon.

5Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? 6[g]So Jehoiakim rested with his fathers. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

7And [h]the king of Egypt did not come out of his land anymore, for [i]the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

8[j]Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. 9And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10[k]At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. 11And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, as his servants were besieging it. 12[l]Then Jehoiachin king of from aiding the Assyrian forces at Haran. Although Pharaoh Necho was delayed sufficiently so that Haran was lost to the Assyrians, Josiah's action ultimately cost him his life (2 Chr. 35:20–25).

23:31 Jehoahaz. Jehoahaz, also called Shallum (Jer. 22:11), was Josiah's third son (24:18; 1 Chr. 3:15).

23:34 went to Egypt, and he died there. The curse for Judah's disobedience was beginning to fall (Deut. 28:64–68).

23:37 he did evil. Jehoiakim's short reign was noted for its extreme wickedness (2 Chr. 36:5–8). Jeremiah depicts him as a despicable monster who took advantage of his people (Jer. 22:13–14,17), filled the land with every sort of vice and violence (Jer. 18:18–20), and opposed all that was holy (Jer. 25:1–7). Unlike his father Josiah, who led the nation in reformation at the hearing of the Word of God (22:11; 23:1–25), Jehoiakim went so far as to cut up and burn a scroll of Scripture (Jer. 36:21–24) and to kill Urijah, a true prophet of God (Jer. 26:20–23).

24:2 Chaldeans. This name originally applied to certain inhabitants of southern Mesopotamia, but by this time the term had come to be identified with the Babylonians, and Babylonia was called Chaldea. After the fall of the Babylonian Empire, the term Chaldean came to mean "soothsayer" (Dan. 2:2).

24:8 Jehoiachin. Because the scriptural description of Jehoiachin seems to represent him as a mature young man (Jer. 22:24–30; Ezek. 19:6), Jehoiachin's age at accession was probably eighteen rather than eight, as given elsewhere in some manuscripts (compare 2 Chr. 36:9).

Judah, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his officers went out to the king of Babylon; and the king of Babylon, [m]in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

The Captivity of Jerusalem

13 [n]And he carried out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and he [o]cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, [p]as the LORD had said. 14 Also [q]he carried into captivity all Jerusalem: all the captains and all the mighty men of valor, [r]ten thousand captives, and [s]all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except [t]the poorest people of the land. 15 And [u]he carried Jehoiachin captive to Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his officers, and the mighty of the land he carried into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16 [v]All the valiant men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for war, these the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

17 Then [w]the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, [x]Jehoiachin's* uncle, king in his place, and [y]changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 [z]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [a]Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. 19 [b]He also did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 20 For because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah, that He finally cast them out from His presence. [c]Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall and Captivity of Judah

25 Now it came to pass [a]in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and encamped against it; and they built a siege wall against it all around. 2 So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. 3 By the ninth day of the [b]fourth month the famine had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4 Then [c]the city wall was broken through, and all the men of war fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the king's garden, even though the Chaldeans were still encamped all around against the city. And [d]the king went by way of the plain. 5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king, and they overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him. 6 So they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon [e]at Riblah, and they pronounced judgment on him. 7 Then they killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, [f]put out the eyes of Zedekiah, bound him with bronze fetters, and took him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, [g]on the seventh day of the month (which was [h]the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), [i]Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 9 [j]He burned the house of the LORD [k]and the king's house; all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, [l]he burned with fire. 10 And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard [m]broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.

11 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive [n]the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon, with the rest of the multitude. 12 But the captain of the guard [o]left some

24:12 Jehoiachin. Jehoiakim apparently had died before Nebuchadnezzar arrived at Jerusalem, because it was Jehoiachin who was carried off captive with other leaders of Judah (such as Ezekiel; Ezek. 1:1). Jeremiah called him "Jeconiah" and "Coniah" (Jer. 22:24–28).
24:14–16 carried. The people of Israel lost their freedom and independence because of their own perpetually iniquitous ways. To be exiled is to be torn away from everything familiar, from everything traditional, from all identifiable scenery, and forced to live in a place where one has no identity and no roots. The people's whole sense of national identity was bound to their land, the place God had given them, and to be torn from that land was the ultimate evidence that God had rejected them.
24:15 carried Jehoiachin captive. Jehoiachin's captivity was prophesied in Jeremiah 22:24–27. Jehoiachin's eventual release is recorded in 25:27–30 and Jeremiah 52:31–34.
24:17 Mattaniah. This was Josiah's youngest son (1 Chr. 3:15). He reigned until the fall of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.
25:7 put out the eyes. The last thing Zedekiah saw was the reward of his sinful folly—the horrible spectacle of his own loved ones being put to death. He would carry this picture with him until his own death in a Babylonian prison (Jer. 52:11).
25:10 broke down the walls. These walls would lie in ruins for a century and a half (Neh. 2:11—6:16).

of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers. 13[p]The bronze [q]pillars that were in the house of the LORD, and [r]the carts and [s]the bronze Sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and [t]carried their bronze to Babylon. 14They also took away [u]the pots, the shovels, the trimmers, the spoons, and all the bronze utensils with which the priests ministered. 15The firepans and the basins, the things of solid gold and solid silver, the captain of the guard took away. 16The two pillars, one Sea, and the carts, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, [v]the bronze of all these articles was beyond measure. 17[w]The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital on it was of bronze. The height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of bronze. The second pillar was the same, with a network.

18[x]And the captain of the guard took [y]Seraiah the chief priest, [z]Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. 19He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war, [a]five men of the king's close associates who were found in the city, the chief recruiting officer of the army, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city. 20So Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, took these and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 21Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. [b]Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land.

Gedaliah Made Governor of Judah

22Then he made Gedaliah the son of [c]Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor over [d]the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left. 23Now when all the [e]captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Careah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah* the son of a Maachathite, they and their men. 24And Gedaliah took an oath before them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

25But [f]it happened in the seventh month that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal family, came with ten men and struck and killed Gedaliah, the Jews, as well as the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. 26And all the people, small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose [g]and went to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

27[h]Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, that Evil-Merodach* king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, [i]released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. 28He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a more prominent seat than those of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 29So Jehoiachin changed from his prison garments, and he [j]ate bread regularly before the king all the days of his life. 30And as for his provisions, there was a regular ration given him by the king, a portion for each day, all the days of his life.

* 25:23 Spelled Jezaniah in Jeremiah 40:8
* 25:27 Literally Man of Marduk

25:17 three cubits. This may be the height of the capitals not including the ornamental work; 1 Kings 7:16 and Jeremiah 52:22 say five cubits.

25:18 Seraiah. Although Seraiah was executed (v. 21), his son Jehozadak was deported (1 Chr. 6:15). Through Jehozadak's line would come Ezra, the priest and great reformer, who one day would return to Jerusalem and take up Seraiah's work (Ezra 7:1).

25:22 Gedaliah. Gedaliah's father Ahikam had supported Jeremiah in his struggles with the apostate officials of Judah (Jer. 26:24). The prophet Jeremiah was allowed to stay and assist Gedaliah in the process of reconstruction (Jer. 39:11–14; 40:1–6).

25:27 Evil-Merodach. This king succeeded Nebuchadnezzar and reigned a short time (561–560 B.C.). Tablets from the reign of Nabonidus (555–539 B.C.) record the daily rations of Jehoiachin who is called "Yaukin, king of the land of Yahud (Judah)."

25:28 spoke kindly. Evil-Merodach's kindness toward Jehoiachin brings the books of Kings to an end on a ray of hope. Exile was neither the end of Israel nor of the Davidic line.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

▶ AUTHOR: Tradition in the Jewish Talmud supports Ezra the priest as the author of 1 Chronicles. The content points to priestly authorship because of the emphasis on the temple, the priesthood, and the theocratic line of David in the southern kingdom of Judah. Ezra was an educated scribe (Ezra 7:6), and according to the apocryphal book of 2 Maccabees 2:13–15, Nehemiah collected an extensive library which was available to Ezra for his use in compiling Chronicles.

▶ TIME: c. 1004–971 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: 1 Chr. 7:11–14

▶ THEME: First Chronicles is largely a retelling of the texts of 1 and 2 Samuel with administrative details and the roles that the various tribes and alliances played in the events of the nation. We don't see the family conflict with Michal when the ark is brought to Jerusalem or the affair with Bathsheba and its fallout. When it comes to succession, all we are told is that David chose Solomon to succeed him. This is a primary document of the history of Israel.

1:1 Adam, Seth, Enosh. Including the names of these pre-flood people along with the rest of the genealogical record indicates that the chronicler had no question of their historical identity.
1:18 Eber. Eber was the ancestor of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The name Hebrew, a derivative of Eber's name, was applied to the Israelites.
1:19 the earth was divided. This refers to the division of the earth's population by the scattering of the human race following the judgment of God on the tower of Babel.

The Family of Keturah

32Now [s]the sons born to Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan. 33The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

38[x]The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. 39And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam; Lotan's sister was Timna. 40The sons of Shobal were Alian,* Manahath, Ebal, Shephi,* and Onam. The Kings of Edom 43Now these were the [z]kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dinhabah. 44And when Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. 45When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. 46And when Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who attacked Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Avith. 47When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. 48[a]And when Samlah died, Saul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place. 49When Saul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. 50And when Baal-Hanan died, Hadad* reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai.* His wife's name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. 51Hadad died also. And the chiefs of Edom were Chief Timnah, Chief Aliah,* Chief Jetheth, 52Chief Aholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, 53Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, 54Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

The Family of Israel

2 These were the [a]sons of Israel: [b]Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, 2Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

From Judah to David

3The sons of [c]Judah were Er, Onan, and Shelah. These three were born to him by the daughter of [d]Shua, the Canaanitess. [e]Er, the firstborn of Judah, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; so He killed him. 4And [f]Tamar, his daughter-in-law, [g]bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five.

5The sons of [h]Perez were Hezron and Hamul. 6The sons of Zerah were Zimri, [i]Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara—five of them in all.

7The son of [j]Carmi was Achar,* the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the [k]accursed thing.

8The son of Ethan was Azariah.

9Also the sons of Hezron who were

1:36 Timna. Timna was Eliphaz's concubine (Gen. 36:12). Her son Amalek was the founder of the Amalekites, a people that became one of Israel's most persistent enemies (Ex. 17:8–16; Deut. 25:17–19; 1 Sam. 15:1–3).

1:38 Seir. Seir was the patriarchal name of the pre-Edomite population in the region east and south of the Dead Sea (Gen. 36:20–30). Lotan. Lotan was Timna's brother, and Timna was the concubine of Esau's son. This is how the people of Seir and the descendants of Esau were related, and together these two people groups became the kingdom of Edom.

1:43 the kings . . . of Edom. Although the kings of Edom ruled in succession, they were not part of a dynasty. Apparently Edom did not have a capital, and its kings ruled from their own cities.

1:51 chiefs. The word "chiefs" usually referred to military leaders (Gen. 36:40–43).

2:1–55 Family—The Hebrew nation, descended through Abraham, kept one of the most carefully preserved family records of all time. To be associated with the family of Israel was to be identified with the God of Israel, and the history of this people is closely associated with the things that God taught each of these ancestors.

16Now their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. [p]And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel—three. 17Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.*

The Family of Hezron

18Caleb the son of Hezron had children by Azubah, his wife, and by Jerioth. Now these were her sons: Jesher, Shobab, and Ardon. 19When Azubah died, Caleb took [q]Ephrath* as his wife, who bore him Hur. 20And Hur begot Uri, and Uri begot [r]Bezalel.

21Now afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of [s]Machir the father of Gilead, whom he married when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub. 22Segub begot [t]Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. 23[u](Geshur and Syria took from them the towns of Jair, with Kenath and its towns—sixty towns.) All these belonged to the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. 24After Hezron died in Caleb Ephrathah, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him [v]Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

The Family of Jerahmeel

25The sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron, were Ram, the firstborn, and Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. 26Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam. 27The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker. 28The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

29And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid. 30The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim; Seled died without children. 31The son of Appaim was Ishi, the son of Ishi was Sheshan, and [w]Sheshan's son was Ahlai. 32The sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai, were Jether and Jonathan; Jether died without children. 33The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

34Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha. 35Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai. 36Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan begot [x]Zabad; 37Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot [y]Obed; 38Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu begot Azariah; 39Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Eleasah; 40Eleasah begot Sismai, and Sismai begot Shallum; 41Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

The Family of Caleb

42The descendants of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha, his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. 43The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. 44Shema begot Raham the father of Jorkoam, and Rekem begot Shammai. 45And the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

46Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran begot Gazez. 47And the sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

48Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. 49She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibea. And the daughter of Caleb was [z]Achsah.

50These were the descendants of Caleb: The sons of [a]Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, were Shobal the father of [b]Kirjath Jearim, 51Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

52And Shobal the father of Kirjath Jearim had descendants: Haroeh, and half

2:10 Nahshon. This genealogy is selective, focusing on the members important to the lineage of David. Nahshon was head of the tribe of Judah at the time of the wilderness march from Sinai to Kadesh Barnea (Num. 1:7; 2:3; 7:12). He was more than five generations removed from Judah.

2:16 sisters. Sisters are not usually mentioned in ancient genealogies. However this genealogy pays particular attention to the family of David, and as his sister's sons were important members of his military units, the sisters are listed.

2:18 Caleb. This Caleb is not the famous companion of Joshua (Num. 13:6; Josh. 14:6–7), who lived several centuries later during the conquest of Canaan.

2:51 father of Bethlehem. The chronicler recorded Caleb's genealogy because of the significance of Bethlehem, the birthplace of King David. One of Caleb's descendants, Salma, was the founder of Bethlehem.

The Family of David

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: The firstborn was [a]Amnon, by [b]Ahinoam the [c]Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel,* by [d]Abigail the Carmelitess; 2the third, [e]Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; the fourth, [f]Adonijah the son of Haggith; 3the fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; the sixth, Ithream, by his wife [g]Eglah.

4*These* six were born to him in Hebron. [h]There he reigned seven years and six months, and [i]in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years. 5[j]And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea,* Shobab, Nathan, and [k]Solomon—four by Bathshua* the daughter of Ammiel.* 6Also there were Ibhar, Elishama,* Eliphelet,* 7Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 8Elishama, Eliada,* and Eliphelet—[l]nine in all. 9*These were* all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and [m]Tamar their sister.

The Family of Solomon

10Solomon's son was [n]Rehoboam; Abijah* was his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, 11Joram* his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash* his son, 12Amaziah his son, Azariah* his son, Jotham his son, 13Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, 14Amon his son, and Josiah his son. 15The sons of Josiah were Johanan the firstborn, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, and the fourth Shallum.* 16The sons of [o]Jehoiakim were Jeconiah his son and Zedekiah* his son.

The sons of Shemaiah were [q]Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all. 23The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hezekiah, and Azrikam—three in all. 24The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani—seven in all.

The Family of Judah

4 The sons of Judah were [a]Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal. 2And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath, and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites. 3These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazelelponi; 4and Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah.

3:1–5 sons of David. The fact that David had six sons by six wives in Hebron does not condone polygamy. David had apparently followed the custom of marrying the daughters of neighboring kings to create allies, in spite of the warning Moses gave for the kings to avoid accumulating many wives (Deut. 17:17). Jesus refers back to creation when He addresses the concept of single partners for life (Matt. 19:1–12), so it is clear that even though some polygamy was practiced, it has never been God's plan for marriage.

3:19 Pedaiah. Zerubbabel here is designated as a son of Pedaiah, but elsewhere (Ezra 3:2,8; 5:2; Neh. 12:1; Hag. 1:12,14; 2:2,23) as a son of Pedaiah's brother Salathiel (v. 17). It is likely that Salathiel had died while Zerubbabel was young, and that the youth was raised by his uncle Pedaiah. This relationship may explain Luke's statement that Zerubbabel was "the son of Salathiel" (Luke 3:27), who was a descendant of David through his son Nathan.

4:1 sons of Judah. The chronicler here refers to other persons and events relative to Judah's genealogy (2:3–17). In the list in this verse Perez is Judah's son, Hezron is his grandson, Carmi his nephew, Hur the grandson of Hezron, and Shobal the grandson of Hur.

4:4 Ephrathah. Ephrathah is the wife of the early Caleb (2:19) and the mother of Hur, whose son Salma was the "father of Bethlehem." The names of These were the sons of [b]Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah the father of Bethlehem.

5And [c]Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. 6Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. 7The sons of Helah were Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan; 8and Koz begot Anub, Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.
9Now Jabez was [d]more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez,* saying, "Because I bore him in pain." 10And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.
11Chelub the brother of [e]Shuhah begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. 12And Eshton begot Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Rechah.
13The sons of Kenaz were [f]Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath,* 14and Meonothai who begot Ophrah. Seraiah begot Joab the father of [g]Ge Harashim,* for they were craftsmen. 15The sons of [h]Caleb the son of Jephunneh were Iru, Elah, and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz. 16The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. 17The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon. And Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. 18(His wife Jehudijah bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Sochoh, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) And these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.
21The sons of [j]Shelah [k]the son of Judah were Er the father of Lecah, Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of the linen workers of the house of Ashbea; 22also Jokim, the men of Chozeba, and Joash; Saraph, who ruled in Moab, and Jashubi-Lehem. Now the records are ancient. 23These were the potters and those who dwell at Netaim* and Gederah;* there they dwelt with the king for his work.

The Family of Simeon

24The [l]sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib,* Zerah,* and Shaul, 25Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son. 26And the sons of Mishma were Hamuel his son, Zacchur his son, and Shimei his son. 27Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers did not have many children, [m]nor did any of their families multiply as much as the children of Judah.
28They dwelt at Beersheba, Moladah, Hazar Shual, 29Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, 30Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, 31Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David. 32And their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five cities— 33and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal.* These were their dwelling places, and they maintained their genealogy: 34Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah; 35Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel; 36Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, and Benaiah; 37Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah— 38these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their father's house increased greatly.
39So they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. 40And they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad,

Bethlehem and Ephrath are closely connected (Gen. 35:19; Ruth 4:11), and the birthplace of the anticipated Messiah is called Bethlehem Ephrathah (Mic. 5:2).
4:9–10 Providence—This passage does not say why or how Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. At the least, he recognized that God is the source of all blessings, and Jabez asked God to bless him. James said that we have not because we ask not (James 4:2–3), and then goes on to address the issue of selfish motives in prayer. Paul encourages believers not to be anxious, but to make our requests to God, with prayer and thanksgiving (Phil. 4:6). It is clear that it is right to ask God for the things that we believe are good, to thank Him for them, and to keep in mind that we can trust Him to meet all of our needs.
4:15 Caleb. This is the Caleb who was the friend and colleague of Joshua (Josh. 14:6–7).
4:21 Er. The fact the Shelah named his son "Er" indicates that he followed the levirate custom of raising up a child in the name of a deceased brother (Gen. 38:6–11).
4:24 Simeon. The tribe of Simeon had no land allotted to them (Josh. 19:1–9) because they were a small tribe. They settled in the territory of Judah.

quiet, and peaceful; for some Hamites formerly lived there.

41 These recorded by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and they [n]attacked their tents and the Meunites who were found there, and [o]utterly destroyed them, as it is to this day. So they dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there. 42 Now some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir, having as their captains Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. 43 And they defeated [p]the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. They have dwelt there to this day.

The Family of Reuben

5 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—[q]he was indeed the firstborn, but because he [b]defiled his father's bed,
[c]his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright;
2 yet [d]Judah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a [e]ruler, although the birthright was Joseph's— 3 the sons of [f]Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

4 The sons of Joel were Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, 5 Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, 6 and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser*
king of Assyria [g]carried into captivity.
He was leader of the Reubenites. 7 And his brethren by their families, [h]when the genealogy of their generations was registered:
the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, 8 and Bela
the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in [i]Aroer, as far as Nebo and Baal Meon. 9 Eastward they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness this side of the River Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied [j]in the land of Gilead.

10 Now in the days of Saul they made war
[k]with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the entire area east of Gilead.

The Family of Gad

11 And the [l]children of Gad dwelt next to them in the land of [m]Bashan as far as [n]Salcah: 12 Joel was the chief, Shapham the next, then Jaanai and Shaphat in Bashan, 13 and their brethren of their father's house:
Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jachan, Zia, and Eber—seven in all. 14 These were the children of Abihail the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jah-do, the son of Buz; 15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief of their father's house. 16 And the Gadites dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the common-lands of [o]Sharon within their borders. 17 All these were registered by genealogies in the days of [p]Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of [q]Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 The sons of Reuben, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty valiant men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skillful in war, who went to war. 19 They made war with the Hagrites, [r]Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.
20 And [s]they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them, for they [t]cried out to God in the battle. He heeded their prayer, because they [u]put their trust in Him. 21 Then they took away their livestock—fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys—also one hundred thousand of their men; 22 for many fell dead, because the war [v]was God's. And they dwelt in their place until [w]the captivity.

The Family of Manasseh (East)

23 So the children of the half-tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land. Their numbers increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon, that is, to [x]Senir, or Mount Hermon. 24 These were the heads of their fathers' houses:
Epher, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel. They were mighty men of valor, famous men, and heads of their fathers' houses.

25 And they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and [y]played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. 26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of [z]Pul
king of Assyria, that is, [a]Tiglath-Pileser*

5:25 Unbelief—In marriage, adultery is the ultimate breach of trust, breaking a solemn promise of faithfulness and commitment. These tribes of Israel acted just like adulterers when they chose idols instead of the living God. Like a prostitute who has chosen crudity, vulgarity, and cheap finery instead of the steady faithful love and fine clothing from her husband, so Israel had believed a lie and abandoned their covenant with the living God.

The Family of Levi

6 The sons of Levi were [a]Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. 2The sons of Kohath were Amram, [b]Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 3The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron were [c]Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 4Eleazar begot Phinehas, and Phinehas begot Abishua; 5Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki begot Uzzi; 6Uzzi begot Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begot Meraioth; 7Meraioth begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub; 8[d]Ahitub begot [e]Zadok, and Zadok begot Ahimaaz; 9Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan; 10Johanan begot Azariah (it was he [f]who ministered as priest in the [g]temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem); 11[h]Azariah begot [i]Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahitub; 12Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot Shallum; 13Shallum begot Hilkiah, and Hilkiah begot Azariah; 14Azariah begot [j]Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jehozadak. 15Jehozadak went into captivity [k]when the LORD carried Judah and Jerusalem into captivity by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

16The sons of Levi were [l]Gershon,* Kohath, and Merari. 17These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei. 18The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. 19The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers: 20Of Gershon were Libni his son, Jahath his son, [m]Zimmah his son, 21Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, and Jeatherai his son. 22The sons of Kohath were Amminadab his son, [n]Korah his son, Assir his son, 23Elkanah his son, Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son, 24Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Shaul his son. 25The sons of Elkanah were [o]Amasai and Ahimoth. 26*As for* Elkanah,* the sons of Elkanah were Zophai* his son, Nahath* his son, 27Eliab* his son, Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son. 28The sons of Samuel were Joel the firstborn, and Abijah the second. 29The sons of Merari were Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, 30Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

6:1–60 Family—Families are usually marked by certain traits or characteristics. Because the Levites were the designated priests, they had a special responsibility to have a reputation for uprightness and faithfulness, but all Israelites were a representation of God to the nations around them. If we are a part of the family of God, we should ask ourselves if we look like God. When people see us, do they see His characteristics?

6:1 Levi. All religious personnel involved in tabernacle or temple ministry had to be members of the tribe of Levi. Aaron himself was a Levite, and from the beginning of the priesthood his descendants were designated as the only ones who could serve as high priests (6:16–25; Ex. 28:1).

6:2–4 Kohath. This son of Levi was the one to whom the office of priest became exclusively connected. Every priest had to be a Levite, but not every Levite could become a priest. The high priests were descended from Aaron, Kohath's grandson. Eleazar. Beginning with Eleazar, the genealogy traces the line of high priests through Jehozadak, the priest who went into Babylonian exile with his people (v. 15). Ithamar. Another line of high priests began with Ithamar, including such persons as Eli, Ahimelech, and Abiathar. In the days of David the priestly service was divided between the Eleazar and the Ithamar priests. Solomon rejected the Ithamar priesthood, and accepted only the priests descended from Eleazar (1 Kin. 2:26–27). From Eleazar to Jehozadak, there were at least 22 high priests in unbroken succession.

6:8 Zadok. This priest, not the same person as the Zadok of verse 12, was the one selected by David to serve along with Ahimelech the son of Abiathar as high priest (2 Sam. 8:17).

6:14 Jehozadak. The last priest in the list was carried into Babylon (v. 15). He was the father of Joshua, the priest who returned from Babylon with Zerubbabel to rebuild the temple and reestablish the Jewish community (Hag. 1:12,14).

6:17 Gershon. The purpose of this genealogy is to list the principal offspring of the sons of Levi who were not priests, but servants in the temple.

6:22 Amminadab. Amminadab is another name for Ishar (v. 18) who otherwise appears as the father of Korah (6:37–38; Ex. 6:21; Num. 16:1).

6:28 Samuel. Samuel's ancestors were described as Ephraimites (1 Sam. 1:1). Although Samuel was an Ephraimite because he lived in a city in the tribal territory of Ephraim, this genealogy makes it clear that he was a Levite. Levites lived in their own cities among all the tribes, because they did not receive a land inheritance. As a Levite, he could be trained under Eli (1 Sam. 2:11), and later officiate at public services that included sacrifices (1 Sam. 9:13; 10:8).

meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they served in their office according to their order.

33 And these are the ones who ministered with their sons: Of the sons of the [r]Kohathites were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, 34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel,* the son of Toah,* 35 the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, 36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, 37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of [s]Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. 39 And his brother [t]Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berachiah, the son of Shimea, 40 the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, 41 the son of [u]Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, 42 the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, 43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi.

44 Their brethren, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, 45 the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, 46 the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shamer, 47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

48 And their brethren, the Levites, were appointed to every [v]kind of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Family of Aaron

49 [w]But Aaron and his sons offered sacrifices [x]on the altar of burnt offering and [y]on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Holy Place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. 50 Now these are the [z]sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, 51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, 52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

Dwelling Places of the Levites

54 [a]Now these are their dwelling places throughout their settlements in their territory, for they were given by lot to the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites: 55 [b]They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, with its surrounding commonlands. 56 [c]But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. 57 And [d]to the sons of Aaron they gave one of the cities of refuge, Hebron; also Libnah with its common-lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its common-lands, 58 Hilen* with its common-lands, Debir with its common-lands, 59 Ashan* with its commonlands, and Beth Shemesh with its commonlands. 60 And from the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its common-lands, Alemeth* with its common-lands, and Anathoth with its common-lands. All their cities among their families were thirteen.

61 [e]To the rest of the family of the tribe of the Kohathites they gave [f]by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Manasseh. 62 And to the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, they gave thirteen cities from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. 63 To the sons of Merari, throughout their families, they gave [g]twelve cities from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun. 64 So the children of Israel gave these cities with their common-lands to the Levites. 65 And they gave by lot from the tribe of the children of Judah, from the tribe of the children of Simeon, and from the tribe of the children of Benjamin these cities which are called by their names.

66 Now [h]some of the families of the sons of Kohath were given cities as their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. 67 [i]And they gave them one of the cities of refuge, Shechem with its common-lands, in the mountains of Ephraim, also Gezer with its commonlands, 68 [j]Jokmeam with its common-lands, Beth Horon with its common-lands, 69 Aijalon with its common-lands, and Gath Rimmon with its common-lands. 70 And from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its common-lands and Bileam with its

6:57 Hebron. The law specified that if a person killed another unintentionally he could find sanctuary in one of six specified cities, and there wait in safety for the trial (Num. 35:6–27). No one could take revenge as long as he was in the city of refuge. These six cities were included among the 48 Levitical cities, and Hebron, located in Judah, was one of them.

6:61—7:27 Family—In any family record, some of the names have strong memories associated with them. The reputations may be good or bad, but they are all a part of the family reputation. It is comforting to know that the family that produced Saul, the unfaithful king, is the same line that produced Saul, who became the faithful apostle Paul.

6:67 Shechem. Shechem was both a Levitical city and a city of refuge. Shechem was especially significant in Israel. It was the site of Abraham's first altar in Canaan (Gen. 12:6–7), the place where Jacob bought a piece of land (Gen. 33:19), and the location of the first capital of the northern kingdom (1 Kin. 12:25).

common-lands, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath.

71From the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh the sons of Gershon were given Golan in Bashan with its common-lands and Ashtaroth with its common-lands. 72And from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its common-lands, Daberath with its common-lands, 73Ramoth with its common-lands, and Anem with its common-lands. 74And from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its common-lands, Abdon with its common-lands, 75Hukok with its common-lands, and Rehob with its common-lands. 76And from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its common-lands, Hammon with its common-lands, and Kirjathaim with its common-lands.

77From the tribe of Zebulun the rest of the children of Merari were given Rimmon* with its common-lands and Tabor with its common-lands. 78And on the other side of the Jordan, across from Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, they were given from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness with its common-lands, Jahzah with its common-lands, 79Kedemoth with its common-lands, and Mephaath with its common-lands. 80And from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its common-lands, Mahanaim with its common-lands, 81Heshbon with its common-lands, and Jazer with its common-lands.

The Family of Issachar

7 The sons of Issachar were [a]Tola, Puah,* Jashub, and Shimron—four in all. 2The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations; [b]their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred. 3The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah. All five of them were chief men. 4And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were thirty-six thousand troops ready for war; for they had many wives and sons.

5Now their brethren among all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valor, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

The Family of Benjamin

6*The sons* of [c]Benjamin were Bela, Becher, and Jediael—three in all. 7The sons of Bela were Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri—five in all. They were heads of their fathers' houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty men of valor.

8The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jerimoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Becher. 9And they were recorded by genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty men of valor. 10The son of Jediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

11All these sons of Jediael were heads of their fathers' houses; there were seventeen thousand two hundred mighty men of valor fit to go out for war and battle. 12Shuppim and Huppim* were the sons of Ir, and Hushim was the son of Aher.

The Family of Naphtali

13The [d]sons of Naphtali were Jahziel,* Guni, Jezer, and Shallum,* the sons of Bilhah.

The Family of Manasseh (West)

14The [e]descendants of Manasseh: his Syrian concubine bore him [f]Machir the father of Gilead, the father of Asriel.* 15Machir took as his wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim,* whose name was Maachah. The name of Gilead's grandson* was [g]Zelophehad,* but Zelophehad begot only daughters. 16(Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. 17The son of Ulam was [h]Bedan.) These were the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

6:76 Kedesh. Kedesh was another of the six cities of refuge. It was the most northern of the three west of the Jordan.

6:78 Bezer. Bezer was also a city of refuge, the farthest south of those east of the Jordan.

6:80 Ramoth in Gilead. Another city of refuge, Ramoth, was directly east of the Jordan. In this way the cities of refuge were distributed throughout the land so that any Israelite could be within a few miles of one of them. All six cities were assigned to the Levites, with Hebron designated for the priests (Deut. 17:8–13; 19:17–21).

7:14 Manasseh . . . Machir. Manasseh was the son of Joseph, and his son was Machir. Machir's daughter became the wife of Judah's grandson Hezron (2:2), which joined the two tribes of Judah and Manasseh.

7:15 Zelophehad begot only daughters. This man had no sons, so Moses made provision for inheritance rights for daughters in such cases (Num. 36:1–9).

18 His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.
19 And the sons of Shemida were Ahian,
Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

The Family of Ephraim

20 [i]The sons of Ephraim were Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, 21 Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead.
The men of Gath who were born in that land killed them because they came down to take away their cattle. 22 Then Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort him.
23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah,* because tragedy had come upon his house. 24 Now his daughter was Sheerah, who built Lower and Upper [j]Beth Horon and Uzzen Sheerah; 25 and Re-phah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Telah his son, Tahan his son, 26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, [k]Elishama his son, 27 Nun* his son, and [l]Joshua his son.
28 Now their [m]possessions and dwelling places were Bethel and its towns: to the east Naaran, to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah* and its towns; 29 and by the borders of the children of [n]Manasseh were Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, [o]Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Joseph, the son of Israel.

The Family of Asher

30 [p]The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.
31 The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith.*
32 And Heber begot Japhlet, Shomer,* Hotham,* and their sister Shua. 33 The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Ash-vath. These were the children of Japhlet.
34 The sons of [q]Shemer were Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. 35 And the sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. 36 The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, 37 Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Jithran,* and Beera. 38 The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara. 39 The sons of Ulla were Arah, Haniel, and Rizia.
40 All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valor, chief leaders. And they were recorded by genealogies among the army fit for battle; their number was twenty-six thousand.

The Family Tree of King Saul of Benjamin

8 Now Benjamin begot [a]Bela his first-born, Ashbel the second, Aharah* the third, 2 Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth. 3 The sons of Bela were Addar,* Gera, Abihud, 4 Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, 5 Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.
6 These are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses of the inhabitants of [b]Geba, and who forced them to move to [c]Manahath: 7 Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera who forced them to move. He begot Uzza and Ahihud.
8 Also Shaharaim had children in the country of Moab, after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his wives. 9 By Hodesh his wife he begot Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Mal-cam, 10 Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers' houses.
11 And by Hushim he begot Abitub and Elpaal. 12 The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its towns; 13 and Beriah and [d]She-ma, who were heads of their fathers' houses of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath. 14 Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, 15 Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, 16 Michael, Ispah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah. 17 Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hiz-ki, Heber, 18 Ishmerai, Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal. 19 Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, 20 Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, 21 Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei. 22 Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, 23 Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, 24 Hananiah, Elam, Antothi-jah, 25 Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. 26 Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, 27 Jaareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.
28 These were heads of the fathers' houses by their generations, chief men. These dwelt in Jerusalem.

7:20–21 Tahath . . . Shuthelah. The repetition of these two names illustrates the custom of sons being named for their grandfathers or more remote ancestors.

8:1 Benjamin. The reason for this second and much more detailed genealogy of Benjamin is its focus on the genealogy of King Saul (vv. 29–40).

8:9 Mesha. There was a well-known Moabite king named Mesha. Both the Scriptures (2 Kin. 3:4) and the Moabite Stone attest to this fact. The reference here to Mesha as a son of Shaharaim and Hodesh, his Moabite wife (v. 8), suggests that the illustrious Moabite king may have had a Benjamite father, but the evidence is not conclusive.

8:28 chief men . . . dwelt in Jerusalem. This city was not taken by David until approximately 1004 B.C., so the line of Benjamin was traced to at least that time.

29Now the father of Gibeon, whose [e]wife's name was Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon. 30And his firstborn son was Ab-don, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, 31Gedor, Ahio, Zecher, 32and Mikloth, who begot Shimeah.* They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren.
33[f]Ner* begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab,* and Esh-Baal.* 34The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal,* and Merib-Baal begot [g]Micah. 35The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. 36And
Ahaz begot Jehoaddah;* Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza. 37Moza begot Binea, Raphah*
his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.
38Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. 39And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third.
40The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor—archers. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all.
These were all sons of Benjamin.

9 So [a]all Israel was recorded by genealogies, and indeed, they were inscribed in the book of the kings of Israel. But Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. 2[b]And the first inhabitants who dwelt in their possessions in their cities were Israelites, priests, Levites, and [c]the Nethinim.

Dwellers in Jerusalem

3Now in [d]Jerusalem the children of Judah dwelt, and some of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh: 4Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the descendants of Perez, the son of Judah. 5Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn and his sons. 6Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brethren—six hundred and ninety. 7Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah; 8Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; 9and their brethren, according to their generations—nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father's house in their fathers' houses.

The Priests at Jerusalem

10[e]Of the priests: Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin; 11Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the [f]officer over the house of God; 12Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malchijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; 13and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses—one thousand seven hundred and sixty. They were very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

The Levites at Jerusalem

14Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; 15Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of [g]Zichri, the son of Asaph; 16[h]Obadiah the son of [i]Shemaiah,

* 8:32 Spelled Shimeam in 9:38 * 8:33 Also the son of Gibeon (compare 9:36, 39) • Called Jishui in 1 Samuel 14:49 • Called Ishbosheth in 2 Samuel 2:8 and elsewhere * 8:34 Called Mephibosheth in 2 Samuel 4:4 * 8:36 Spelled Jarah in 9:42

Even after David took the city, there may have been Benjamites who still lived there, for David gave Benjamites positions of responsibility in his government (11:31; 12:1–7,29).

8:30 Kish. Kish was the father of Saul (v. 33; 9:39). In this passage the relationship between Jeiel and Kish is unclear because Kish is also named as the son of Ner (v. 33). However, in 9:35–39 the lineage is clearly traced from Jeiel to Ner to Kish and finally to Saul.

8:32 Jerusalem. Jerusalem remained under Jebusite control until David conquered it (2 Sam. 5:6–19). Perhaps at this time the Benjamites lived among the Jebusites.

8:33 Esh-Baal. Esh-Baal was evidently Saul's youngest son, since he was not named in the genealogies of the beginning of Saul's reign (1 Sam. 14:49). Usually called Ishbosheth, which means "man of shame," he reigned for a short time after his father's death (2 Sam. 2:10).

9:1 Unfaithfulness—Blatant disobedience always leads to disaster. God is serious about working righteousness in our lives, and He knows the changes that both trials and blessings can bring to our hearts. He will not leave us in a state of lethargy and peace if we need to be ignited. Sometimes He will test us to see if we are serious about walking with Him. Like the Israelites, we need to ask ourselves if we are obedient or compromising.

9:2 Israelites. The deportation of Israel by the Assyrians from 734 to 722 B.C. resulted in Israel's dispersion throughout the eastern Mediterranean world. However, it is apparent from this verse that some of them joined their Judean brethren in the return from Babylon after 539 B.C.

9:3 Ephraim and Manasseh. Both of these tribes were from the northern kingdom, or Israel. This is another confirmation that the returning community included Israelites as well as Judeans. It is very possible that some of those in the northern tribes, who had remained faithful to the Lord, may have migrated into Judah before Assyria took Israel captive.

the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

The Levite Gatekeepers

17And the gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brethren. Shallum was the chief. 18Until then they had been gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Levi at the King's Gate on the east.

19Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, from his father's house, the Korahites, were in charge of the work of the service, gatekeepers of the tabernacle. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of the LORD. 20And [j]Phinehas the son of Eleazar had been the officer over them in time past; the LORD was with him. 21[k]Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was keeper of the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

22All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. [l]They were recorded by their genealogy, in their villages. David and Samuel [m]the seer had appointed them to their trusted office. 23So they and their children were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the tabernacle, by assignment. 24The gatekeepers were assigned to the four directions: the east, west, north, and south. 25And their brethren in their villages had to come with them from time to time [n]for seven days. 26For in this trusted office were four chief gatekeepers; they were Levites. And they had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God. 27And they lodged all around the house of God because they had the [o]responsibility, and they were in charge of opening it every morning.

Other Levite Responsibilities

28Now some of them were in charge of the serving vessels, for they brought them in and took them out by count. 29*Some* of them were appointed over the furnishings and over all the implements of the sanctuary, and over the [p]fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices. 30And some of the sons of the priests made [q]the ointment of the spices.

31Mattithiah of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the trusted office [r]over the things that were baked in the pans. 32And some of their brethren of the sons of the Kohathites [s]were in charge of preparing the showbread for every Sabbath.

33These are [t]the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who lodged in the chambers, and were free from other duties; for they were employed in that work day and night. 34These heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Jerusalem.

The Family of King Saul

35Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was [u]Maacah, dwelt at Gibeon. 36His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, 37Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah,* and Mikloth. 38And Mikloth begot Shimeam.* They also dwelt alongside their relatives in Jerusalem, with their brethren. 39[v]Ner begot Kish, Kish begot Saul, and Saul begot Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal. 40The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal begot Micah. 41The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea,[w] and Ahaz. 42And Ahaz begot Jarah;* Jarah begot Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begot Moza; 43Moza begot Binea, Rephaiah* his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

44And Azel had six sons whose names were these: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

Tragic End of Saul and His Sons

10 Now [a]the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. 2Then the Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons. 3The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers. 4Then Saul said to his armorbearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and abuse me." But his armorbearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword and fell on it. 5And when his armorbearer saw that Saul was dead,

10:4 uncircumcised. For the Hebrew, circumcision was a sign of God's promise through Abraham to them. The uncircumcised were those outside the

he also fell on his sword and died. 6So Saul and his three sons died, and all his house died together. 7And when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; then the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8So it happened the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. 9And they stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among the people. 10*b*Then they put his armor in the temple of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11And when all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12all the [c]valiant men arose and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons; and they brought them to [d]Jabesh, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13So Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he had committed against the LORD, [e]because he did not keep the word of the LORD, and also because [f]he consulted a medium for guidance. 14But he did not inquire of the LORD; therefore He killed him, and [g]turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

David Made King over All Israel

11 Then [a]all Israel came together to David at Hebron, saying, "Indeed we are your bone and your flesh. 2Also, in time past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel out and brought them in; and the LORD your [b]God said to you, 'You shall [c]shepherd My people Israel, and be ruler over My people Israel.'" 3Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. And [d]they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by [e]Samuel.

The City of David

4And David and all Israel [f]went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, [g]where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. 5But the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David). 6Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief. 7Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. 8And he built the city around it, from the Millo* to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city. 9So David [h]went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with [i]him.

The Mighty Men of David

10Now [j]these were the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to [k]the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: [l]Jashobeam the son of a Hachmonite, [m]chief of the captains;* he had lifted up his spear against three hundred, killed by him at one time.

12After him was Eleazar the son of [n]Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the promise, often their enemies. abuse. The abuse of the Philistines might take the form of cutting off Saul's thumbs and big toes, which would leave him crippled and humiliated (Judg. 1:6–7). Whatever they did would have been meant to belittle Saul, his kingdom, and his God. was greatly afraid. The armorbearer was not afraid of Saul. He was afraid of God. He was afraid of killing one who had been anointed king over Israel and who belonged to God who had set him apart. sword and fell on it. Suicide was very rare among Hebrews of Old Testament times.

10:10 Dagon. Dagon was worshiped by the Philistines and other peoples in Syria and northwest Mesopotamia as the god of grain. Apparently the Philistines celebrated military victory by bringing a trophy of their success back to their temple where it could be displayed as a tribute to the might of their god.

10:14 He killed him. This statement is shocking in its bluntness. In the final analysis, Saul's death was not by his own hand, but by the hand of God. The Lord let Saul pursue a course that led to death.

11:1–2 Unity—The history of events between the death of Saul and the beginning of David's reign over all Israel is omitted by the chronicler, but is narrated in 2 Samuel 2–4. The fighting between the house of David and the house of Saul continued until Saul's son Ishbosheth was killed. Israel could not be unified as long as some were trying to be loyal to Saul. God had already rejected Saul and chosen David, but until Saul's house was gone, the people could not focus on God's choice for king. We as believers often find ourselves in a state of disunity because we are mixed up with our own agendas instead of seeing God's plan.

11:8 he built the city. Once David occupied Mount Ophel, the original and very small area of Jerusalem, he greatly enlarged it by building retaining walls along the Kidron valley to the east and south and the Tyropoeon valley to the west. Between these walls and the top of the hill he built terraces, so that various buildings could be constructed there.

three mighty men. 13He was with David at Pasdammim. Now there the Philistines were gathered for battle, and there was a piece of ground full of barley. So the people fled from the Philistines. 14But they stationed themselves in the middle of that field, defended it, and killed the Philistines. So the LORD brought about a great victory.

15Now three of the thirty chief men [o]went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines encamped [p]in the Valley of Rephaim. 16David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 17And David said with longing, "Oh, that someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!" 18So the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David. Nevertheless David would not drink it, but poured it out to the LORD. 19And he said, "Far be it from me, O my God, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it. These things were done by the three mighty men.

20[q]Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of another three.* He had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, killed them, and won a name among these three. 21[r]Of the three he was more honored than the other two men. Therefore he became their captain. However he did not attain to the first three.

22Benaiah was the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. [s]He had killed two lion-like heroes of Moab. He also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day. 23And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great height, five cubits tall. In the Egyptian's hand there was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. 24These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and won a name among three mighty men. 25Indeed he was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the first three. And David appointed him over his guard.

26Also the mighty warriors were [t]Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, 27Shammoth the Harorite,* [u]Helez the Pelonite,* 28[v]Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, [w]Abiezer the Anathothite, 29Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, 30[x]Maharai the Netophathite, Heled* the son of Baanah the Netophathite, 31Ithai* the son of Ribai of Gibeah, of the sons of Benjamin, [y]Benaiah the Pirathonite, 32Hurai* of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel* the Arbathite, 33Azmaveth the Baharumite,* Eliahba the Shaalbonite, 34the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shageh the Hararite, 35Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of Ur, 36Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, 37Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, 38Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, 39Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite* (the armorbearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah), 40Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, 41[z]Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, 42Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite (a chief of the Reubenites) and thirty with him, 43Hanan the son of Maachah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, 44Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, 45Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, 46Eliel the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite, 47Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

The Growth of David's Army

12 Now [a]these were the men who came to David at [b]Ziklag while he was still a fugitive from Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the war, 2armed with bows, using 11:18 poured it out to the LORD. Even though he had been longing for a drink from his "home well," David never considered sending any of his brave supporters to get it for him. When they risked their lives to bring it to him, David responded by pouring it on the ground, as if it had been a blood offering for God. The Israelites were strictly forbidden to eat blood (Lev. 3:17; Deut. 12:23), and David considered this water to be in the same category. Only God should receive such a sacrifice (Gen. 35:14).

11:23 five cubits. The Egyptian was about seven and a half feet tall.

11:41 Uriah. This is the same Uriah who was the husband of Bathsheba. The fact that Uriah was one of the mighty men of valor, who did so much to establish David as king, makes David's betrayal of Uriah doubly tragic (2 Sam. 11).

12:2 of Benjamin, Saul's brethren. There is a curious little play on words here. Benjamin means "son of the right hand." These Benjamites could shoot and sling with either the right hand or the left hand, which both the right hand and [c]the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows with the bow. They were of Benjamin, Saul's brethren.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Berachah, and Jehu the Anathothite; 4 Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite; 5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; 6 Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites; 7 and Joelah and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 Some Gadites joined David at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were [d]as swift as gazelles on the mountains: 9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, and Machbanai the eleventh. 14 These were from the sons of Gad, captains of the army; the least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a [e]thousand. 15 These are the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its [f]banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

16 Then some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to David at the stronghold. 17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart will be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look and bring judgment." 18 Then the Spirit came upon [g]Amasai, chief of the captains, and he said:

"We are yours, O David;
We are on your side, O son of Jesse!
Peace, peace to you,
And peace to your helpers!
For your God helps you."

So David received them, and made them captains of the troop.

19 And some from Manasseh defected to David [h]when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Saul; but they did not help them, for the lords of the Philistines sent him away by agreement, saying, [i]"He may defect to his master Saul and endanger our heads." 20 When he went to Ziklag, those of Manasseh who defected to him were Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of the thousands who were from Manasseh. 21 And they helped David against [j]the bands of raiders, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were captains in the army. 22 For at that time they came to David day by day to help him, until it was a great army, [k]like the army of God.

David's Army at Hebron

23 Now these were the numbers of the divisions that were equipped for war, and [l]came to David at [m]Hebron to [n]turn over the kingdom of Saul to him, [o]according to the word of the LORD: 24 of the sons of Judah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for war; 25 of the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor fit for war, seven thousand one hundred; 26 of the sons of Levi four thousand six hundred; 27 Jehoiada, the leader of the Aaronites, and with him three thousand seven hundred; 28 [p]Zadok, a young man, a valiant warrior, and from his father's house twenty-two captains; 29 of the sons of Benjamin, relatives of Saul, three thousand (until then [q]the greatest part of them had remained loyal to the house of Saul); 30 of the sons of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men throughout their father's house; 31 of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and make David king; 32 of the sons of Issachar [r]who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their chiefs were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their command; 33 of Zebulun there were fifty thousand who made them particularly versatile in battle. They were more than "sons of the right hand" to David. They were "sons of the left hand" as well.

12:15 in the first month. The first month was Nisan, corresponding approximately to April, the time of spring rains. Ordinarily a person could not cross the Jordan at flood stage, but the fact that the Gadites were not stopped by the floods is a testimony of their unusual courage.

12:28 Zadok. This Zadok was probably the same Zadok who was first appointed by David as priest at Gibeon (16:39). The office of priest was not incompatible with that of warrior, as Phinehas showed (Num. 25:6–9; Josh. 22:13–30).

12:32 Wisdom—The men of Issachar were dealing with the issue of "the Lord's anointed." There was no longer any question that David was the Lord's choice, and that Saul had been replaced, but the timing was crucial. It would do no good to anoint David if it took rebellion and treason to place him on the throne. Men who gain power by trickery usually assume that others will be ready to do likewise, and dishonesty and intrigue are not a good foundation for a God-honoring nation. It is sometimes hard to wait for God's timing, or even hard to tell just what His timing is, but if we ask for wisdom, He will give it to us (James 1:5).

went out to battle, expert in war with all weapons of war, [s]stouthearted men who could keep ranks; 34of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear; 35of the Danites who could keep battle formation, twenty-eight thousand six hundred; 36of Asher, those who could go out to war, able to keep battle formation, forty thousand; 37of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, from the other side of the Jordan, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of war.

38All these men of war, who could keep ranks, came to Hebron with a loyal heart, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest of Israel were of [t]one mind to make David king. 39And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brethren had prepared for them. 40Moreover those who were near to them, from as far away as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and oxen—provisions of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and oxen and sheep abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

The Ark Brought from Kirjath Jearim

13 Then David consulted with the [a]captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader. 2And David said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and if it is of the LORD our God, let us send out to our brethren everywhere who are [b]left in all the land of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and their common-lands, that they may gather together to us; 3and let us bring the ark of our God back to us, [c]for we have not inquired at it since the days of Saul." 4Then all the assembly said that they would do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5So [d]David gathered all Israel together, from [e]Shihor in Egypt to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God [f]from Kirjath Jearim. 6And David and all Israel went up to [g]Baalah,* to Kirjath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, [h]who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is proclaimed. 7So they carried the ark of God [i]on a new cart [j]from the house of Abinadab, and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. 8Then [k]David and all Israel played music before God with all their might, with singing, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on cymbals, and with trumpets.

9And when they came to Chidon's* threshing floor, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled. 10Then the anger of the LORD was aroused against Uzza, and He struck him [l]because he put his hand to the ark; and he [m]died there before God. 11And David became angry because of the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; therefore that place is called Perez Uzza* to this day. 12David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I bring the ark of God to me?"

13So David would not move the ark with him into the City of David, but took it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. 14[n]The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed [o]the house of Obed-Edom and all that he had.

David Established at Jerusalem

14 Now [a]Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house. 2So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, for his 13:3 the ark of our God. This was the ark of the covenant that contained a copy of the Ten Commandments (Ex. 25:10–22). Besides holding the stone tablets, the ark represented the presence of the living God among the Israelites.

13:5 Commitment—One of David's first official actions upon becoming king was to bring the ark of God to Jerusalem. The ark had been in Kirjath Jearim since the time it was returned by the Philistines when Samuel was a boy (1 Sam. 6:20—7:1). Moving the ark to Jerusalem was a sign of David's commitment to place the Lord first in his reign.

13:6 the LORD, who dwells between the cherubim. On each side of the ark of the covenant were two cherubim. They extended their wings over the cover, also called the mercy seat (Ex. 25:17–22), and the glory of God was perceived as sitting on top of the ark, as a King sits on a throne. Where His name is proclaimed. In Deuteronomy, the presence of God is often spoken of as the presence of His name (Deut. 12:1–14).

13:9 Chidon's threshing floor. Also called "Nachon's threshing floor" (2 Sam. 6:6), this hard flat surface was used for separating the grain kernels from the straw and husks.

13:11 Perez Uzza. Perez Uzza means "outbreak against Uzza." The ark should have been carried on poles by Levites (Num. 4:14–15). This direction for transporting the holy things was very clear, and should have been remembered.

14:1–2 Hiram king of Tyre. A powerful ruler of the Phoenician city-state of Tyre, Hiram is mentioned in the Scriptures and in other sources. He was a

The Philistines Defeated

8Now when the Philistines heard that [d]David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went out against them. 9Then the Philistines went and made a raid [e]on the Valley of Rephaim. 10And David [f]inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?"

The LORD said to him, "Go up, for I will deliver them into your hand."

11So they went up to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. Then David said, "God has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim.* 12And when they left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13[g]Then the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley. 14Therefore David inquired again of God, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; circle around them, [h]and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees. 15And it shall be, when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines." 16So David did as God commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as Gezer. 17Then [i]the fame of David went out into all lands, and the LORD [j]brought the fear of him upon all nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15 David built houses for himself in the City of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, [a]and pitched a tent for it. 2Then David said, "No one may carry the [b]ark of God but the Levites, for [c]the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God and to minister before Him forever." 3And David [d]gathered all Israel together at Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4Then David assembled the children of Aaron and the Levites: 5of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brethren; 6of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brethren; 7of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brethren; 8of the sons of [e]Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and two hundred of his brethren; 9of the sons of [f]Hebron, Eliel the chief, and eighty of his brethren; 10of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brethren.

11And David called for [g]Zadok and [h]Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites: for Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and contemporary of both David and Solomon. He helped build David's house, and he also supplied material for the temple and other building projects in Solomon's reign (1 Kin. 9:10).

14:3 took more wives. See the note at 3:1–5.

14:4 children. The first four listed here are all sons of Bathsheba (3:5).

15:1 place for the ark. The place for the ark was in the tent in the City of David. The original tabernacle built in Moses' day had been placed at Shiloh (Josh. 18:1). It remained there until the capture of the ark by the Philistines (1 Sam. 4:1–11), when it was evidently moved to Nob, just two miles from Jerusalem (1 Sam. 21:1–6). Then it was moved to a high place at Gibeon (2 Chr. 1:3), about two miles north of Saul's city Gibeah. When David became king, he left the Mosaic tabernacle at Gibeon and appointed the priest Zadok to attend to its ministry (16:39). Even after he had built a new tabernacle on Mount Zion and brought the ark into it, the original tent remained at Gibeon. Solomon brought the ark from Mount Zion and the tabernacle of Moses from Gibeon and placed them in the new temple he had built on Mount Moriah (2 Chr. 5:4–5).

15:2 No one . . . but the Levites. According to the provisions of the Law, the ark was to be carried only by the Levites, by means of poles inserted through corner rings (Num. 4:14–15).

15:11 Zadok. The other line of the priesthood descended from Aaron's son Eleazar, and included Zadok (6:8). During David's time representatives of both Ithamar and Eleazar served. Zadok served at the tabernacle at Gibeon, and Abiathar served as chief priest at Jerusalem. When Solomon became king, Abiathar was deposed and Zadok ministered as high priest at the temple (1 Kin. 2:26–27,35). The dismissal of Abiathar as priest was in accordance with the Lord's word to Eli because of the unfaithfulness of Eli's sons (1 Sam. 2:27–36). Abiathar. The transition from the rule of Saul to David involved a transition from the old Mosaic tabernacle to the new place David had established on Mount Zion in preparation for the temple (v. 1). Abiathar's father, the priest Ahimelech, was in charge of the old tabernacle when it left Shiloh and was moved to Nob (1 Sam. 21:1). Ahimelech was Eli's great-grandson (1 Sam. 14:3; 22:9). Eli is considered to have been a descendant of Aaron's son Ithamar.

Amminadab. 12He said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites; sanctify yourselves, you and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place I have prepared for it. 13For [i]because you did not do it the first time, [j]the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not consult Him about the proper order."

14So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. 15And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders, by its poles, as [k]Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16Then David spoke to the leaders of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers accompanied by instruments of music, stringed instruments, harps, and cymbals, by raising the voice with resounding joy. 17So the Levites appointed [l]Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, [m]Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of their brethren, the sons of Merari, [n]Ethan the son of Kushaiah; 18and with them their brethren of the second rank: Zechariah, Ben,* Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the gatekeepers; 19the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze; 20Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with strings according to [o]Alamoth; 21Mattithiah, Elipheleh, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to direct with harps on the [p]Sheminith; 22Chenaniah, leader of the Levites, was instructor in charge of the music, because he was skillful; 23Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark; 24Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, [q]were to blow the trumpets before the ark of God; and [r]Obed-Edom and Jehiah, doorkeepers for the ark.

25So [s]David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with joy. 26And so it was, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams. 27David was clothed with a robe of fine [t]linen, as were all the Levites who bore the ark, the singers, and Chenaniah the music master with the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. 28[u]Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, making music with stringed instruments and harps.

29And it happened, [v]as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, that Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window and saw King David whirling and playing music; and she despised him in her heart.

The Ark Placed in the Tabernacle

16 So [a]they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tabernacle that David had erected for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. 2And when David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, [b]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. 3Then he distributed to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a cake of raisins.

* 15:18 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Septuagint omits Ben.

15:17 Heman. The musician Heman was the grandson of the prophet Samuel (6:33). He is probably the same Heman who appears in the superscription of Psalm 88. Asaph. Asaph was leader of the Gershonite Levites (6:39–43). Asaph and his sons ministered primarily as singers (25:1–2; 2 Chr. 20:14) and composers, as their superscriptions suggest (Ps. 50; 73–83). Ethan. Ethan was the head of the Merarite division of musicians (6:44). He may be the composer of Psalm 89.

15:20 with strings according to Alamoth. The meaning of "alamoth" is uncertain. It may mean a soprano voice.

15:21 harps on the Sheminith. The meaning of "sheminith" is uncertain, but it is apparently a musical term, perhaps derived from the Hebrew word for eighth, referring to musical scales.

15:24 Obed-Edom. It is likely that Obed-Edom in this verse was the same person who had custody of the ark in the months before it was brought to Jerusalem (13:13–14). He apparently was a Levite and certainly a righteous man.

15:29 Michal, Saul's daughter. Michal was David's first wife, whom he married before Saul started pursuing him (1 Sam. 18:27; 19:11–17). When David was hiding from Saul, Michal was given in marriage to another (1 Sam. 25:44). One of the conditions of David's peace agreement with Abner was that Michal be returned to him (2 Sam. 3:13–16). The Bible does not say why Michal despised David, but it seems probable that the real source of her attitude was bitterness about her life. If she had no understanding of God's hand in her life and the life of the nation, seeing David's joyful abandonment before the Lord would have been galling.

16:3 he distributed. David's distribution of food was in line with the nature of the peace offerings. Such offerings often accompanied occasions of praise and thanksgiving such as this one. They were unique in that they provided a common meal in which all participated before God—the offerer, his family and friends, and the priests (Lev. 7:11–14; 28–34; Deut. 12:17–19).

amoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah,

ments and harps, but Asaph made music

David's Song of Thanksgiving

7 On that day [e]David [f]first delivered this psalm into the hand of Asaph and his brethren, to thank the LORD:

8 [g]Oh, give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
Make known His deeds among the peoples!
9 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
Talk of all His wondrous works!
10 Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
11 Seek the LORD and His strength;
Seek His face evermore!
12 Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His
mouth,
13 O seed of Israel His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

14 He is the LORD our God;
His [h]judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
16 The [i]covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
17 And [j]confirmed it to [k]Jacob for a statute,
To Israel for an everlasting covenant, 18 Saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"
19 When you were [l]few in number,
Indeed very few, and strangers in it.

20 When they went from one nation to another,
And from one kingdom to another
people,
21 He permitted no man to do them wrong;
Yes, He [m]rebuked kings for their sakes,
22 Saying, [n]"Do not touch My anointed
ones,
And do My prophets no harm."*

23 [o]Sing to the LORD, all the earth; Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
24 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.

25 For the LORD is great and greatly to be praised;
He is also to be feared above all gods.
26 For all the gods [p]of the peoples are
idols,
But the LORD made the heavens.
27 Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and gladness are in His place.

28 Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.
29 Give to the LORD the glory due His name;

* 16:22 Compare verses 8–22 with Psalm 105:1–15

16:4 Levites. The appointment of Levites described here was of a more permanent nature than that of 15:1–24, which concerned the immediate task of moving the ark into Jerusalem. Some of the same persons were involved, as verses 5 and 6 make clear.

16:7 to thank the LORD. David's musical abilities are well-known, both as a harpist (1 Sam. 16:18) and as the writer of many of the psalms. This psalm consists of three different parts. Each portion correlates with part of another psalm. Verses 8–22 correspond with Psalm 105:1–15; verses 23–33 with Psalm 96:1–13; and verses 34–36 with Psalm 106:1,47–48.

16:12–16 Obedience—"Remember His marvelous works . . . Remember His covenant forever . . ." and for those of us who are believers, "proclaim the Lord's death till He comes" (1 Cor. 11:23–26). Remembering is connected to obedience, only when we remember His commands can we obey Him.

16:22 anointed. In this context "anointed ones" means those set apart for God's service, not necessarily literally anointed with oil.

16:29 The Meaning of Worship—Worship refers to the honor and praise given in thought or deed to a person or thing. The Bible teaches that God alone is worthy of worship (Ps. 29:2). But it also records accounts of those who worshiped inappropriately: people (Acts 14:8–18); false gods (2 Kin. 10:19); images and idols (Is. 2:8); heavenly bodies (2 Kin. 21:3); Satan (Rev. 13:4); and demons (Rev. 9:20).

True worship involves at least three important elements:

1. Reverence. This includes the honor and respect directed toward the Lord in thought and feeling. Jesus said that those who worship God must do so "in spirit and truth" (John 4:24). The term spirit speaks of the personal nature of worship. It is from my person to God's person and involves the intellect, emotions, and will. The word truth speaks of the content of worship. God is pleased when we worship Him, understanding His true character.

holiness!

The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved.

earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations,
"The LORD reigns."
32 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
33 Then the [q]trees of the woods shall rejoice before the LORD,
For He is [r]coming to judge the earth.*
34 [s]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is

salvation;

from the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise."
36 [u]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel

And all [v]the people said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD.

Regular Worship Maintained

37 So he left [w]Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as every day's work [x]required; 38 and [y]Obed-Edom with his sixty-eight brethren, including Obed-Edom the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah, to be gatekeepers; 39 and Zadok the priest and his brethren the priests, [z]before the tabernacle of the LORD [a]at the high place that was at Gibeon, 40 to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering regularly [b]morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Law of the LORD which He commanded Israel; 41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to the LORD, [c]because His mercy endures forever; 42 and with them Heman and Jeduthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and the musical instruments of God. Now the sons of Jeduthun were gatekeepers.

43 [d]Then all the people departed, every man to his house; and David returned to bless his house.

God's Covenant with David

17 Now [a]it came to pass, when David was dwelling in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under tent curtains."

2 Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

* 16:33 Compare verses 23–33 with Psalm 96:1–13 * 16:34 Compare verse 34 with Psalm 106:1
* 16:36 Compare verses 35, 36 with Psalm 106:47, 48

2. Public expression. This was particularly prevalent in the Old Testament because of the sacrificial system. For example, when a believer received a particular blessing for which he wanted to thank God, it was not sufficient to say it privately; he expressed his thanks publicly with a thank offering (Lev. 7:12).
3. Service. The words for worship in both Testaments originally referred to the labor of slaves for the master. Worship especially includes the joyful service which Christians render to Christ their Master. The concept of worship involves much more than church attendance once or twice a week. It involves an entire life of obedience, service, and praise to God.

16:33 trees . . . rejoice. This is a figure of speech called personification, in which inanimate things are spoken of as if they had human characteristics. Because the whole creation was negatively affected by the fall of humanity into sin, it could not be restored to perfection and could not truly rejoice until humanity was redeemed. He is coming. When the Lord returns to the earth, all creation will burst out in praise.

16:38 Obed-Edom. There are two men by this name in this verse. The first is the Obed-Edom whose house sheltered the ark for three months (13:14) and who was a doorkeeper (15:24). The second was also a gatekeeper, a son of Jeduthun.

16:39 Zadok. Until the temple of Solomon was completed, there were two legitimate places for community worship—the Mosaic tabernacle at Gibeon, and David's tabernacle on Mount Zion. Zadok, a descendant of Eleazar, served at Gibeon, while Abiathar, a descendant of Ithamar, served at Jerusalem (see note at 15:11).

16:41 Jeduthun. This was probably another name for the musician Ethan, who is usually named together with Asaph and Heman (15:17,19; 6:33,39,44).

16:42 musical instruments of God. It is difficult to overemphasize the importance of music in Old Testament worship. The Book of Psalms in itself, and constant references to choral and orchestral ministry demonstrate the significance of music as the people worshiped their Creator (9:33; 15:16–24; 16:4–6; 25:1–31).

17:1 Nathan the prophet. Nathan was a prophet at the time of both David and Solomon. He was closely connected with both kings, and was trusted as a faithful spokesman of God (2 Sam. 7:2–3; 12:1–15; 1 Kin. 1:8–38; 45; 2 Chr. 29:25). The "book of Nathan the prophet" provided a source for the composition of the books of Chronicles (29:29; 2 Chr. 9:29). a house of cedar. Cedar paneling was too expensive to be used in an ordinary home.

3But it happened that night that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 4"Go and tell My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD:
"You shall [b]not build Me a house to dwell in. 5For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Israel, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another. 6Wherever
I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?'" ' 7Now therefore, thus shall you say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts: "I took you [c]from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Israel. 8And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth. 9Moreover I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and will [d]plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own and move no more; nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them anymore, as previously, 10since the time that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. Also I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore I tell you that the LORD will build you a house.* 11And it shall be, when your days are [e]fulfilled, when you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your [f]seed after you, who will be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12[g]He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. 13[h]I will be his Father, and he shall be My son; and I will not take My mercy away from him, [i]as I took it from him who was before you. 14And [j]I will establish him in My house and in My kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever."' "

15According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

16[k]Then King David went in and sat before the LORD; and he said: "Who am I, O LORD God? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far? 17And yet this was a small thing in Your sight, O God;
and You have also spoken of Your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, O LORD God. 18What more can David say to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant.
19O LORD, for Your servant's sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great things. 20O LORD, there is none like You, nor is there any God besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21[l]And who is like Your people Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people—to make for Yourself a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt? 22For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their
God.

23"And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be established forever, and do as You have said.
24So let it be established, that Your name may be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, is Israel's God.' And let the house of Your servant David be established before You. 25For You, O my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build him a house. Therefore Your servant has found it in his heart to pray before You. 26And now, LORD, You are God, and have promised this goodness to Your servant. 27Now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue before You forever; for You have blessed it, O LORD, and it shall be blessed
forever."

David's Further Conquests

18 After this [a]it came to pass that David attacked the Philistines, subdued them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines. 2Then he defeated
[b]Moab, and the Moabites became David's [c]servants, and brought tribute.

17:9 I will appoint a place. This did not mean that Israel would move to another land, but it was a restating of God's promise that they were meant to inherit the land (Gen. 13:14–17; 15:18–21; 17:8; Ex. 3:16–17; 6:8; Deut. 1:8; Josh. 1:2–5).

17:16–18 Thankfulness—As with David, God's willingness to bless us is not because we are great but because He is good. His purpose is for us to be like Him, and to bless us and establish us forever with Him through Christ (John 14).

17:20 God besides You. This is a clear assertion of the uniqueness of Israel's God. Statements such as "all gods" and "the gods of the peoples" in David's song of thanksgiving (16:25–26) must be understood in the light of this clear confession that there is only one living God.

18:1 took Gath. This is the only record of David taking a Philistine city, although he had defeated the Philistines many times in battle. Gath was the Philistine city closest to Israelite territory, so it posed the greatest threat to Israel.

18:2 Moab. David's great-grandmother Ruth was a Moabitess (Ruth 4:13–17), and David had sent his own family to Moab for protection when he was 3And [d]David defeated Hadadezer* king of Zobah as far as Hamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates. 4David took from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand* horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. Also David hamstrung all the chariot horses, except that he spared enough of them for one hundred chariots.

5When the [e]Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand of the Syrians. 6Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought tribute. So the LORD preserved David wherever he went. 7And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. 8Also from Tibhath* and from Chun, cities of Hadadezer, David brought a large amount of [f]bronze, with which [g]Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the articles of bronze.

9Now when Tou* king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 10he sent Hadoram* his son to King David, to greet him and bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou); and Hadoram brought with him all kinds of [h]articles of gold, silver, and bronze. 11King David also dedicated these to the LORD, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations—from Edom, from Moab, from the [i]people of Ammon, from the [j]Philistines, and from [k]Amalek.

12Moreover [l]Abishai the son of Zeruiah killed [m]eighteen thousand Edomites* in the Valley of Salt. 13[n]He also put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD preserved David wherever he went.

David's Administration

14So David reigned over all Israel, and administered judgment and justice to all his people. 15Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; 16Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelech the son of Abiathar were the priests; Shavsha* was the scribe; 17[o]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

The Ammonites and Syrians Defeated

19 It[a] happened after this that Nahash the king of the people of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. 2Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the people of Ammon to comfort him.

3And the princes of the people of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David really honors your father because he has sent comforters to you? Did his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?"

4Therefore Hanun took David's servants, shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their [b]buttocks, and sent them away. 5Then some went and told David about the men; and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

6When the people of Ammon saw that they had made themselves repulsive to David, Hanun and the people of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire for themselves chariots and horsemen from Mesopotamia,* from Syrian Maacah, [c]and from Zobah.* 7So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. hiding from Saul (1 Sam. 22:3–4). Yet Moab had been an enemy of Israel (Num. 23), and would be again (Ezek. 25:9).

18:11 dedicated . . . to the LORD. The fact that David dedicated all the spoils of war to God suggests that he viewed the battles as campaigns initiated and led by God. When Solomon built the temple, he brought all the dedicated things into the temple treasuries (2 Chr. 5:1).

18:17 Cherethites . . . Pelethites. These were companies of soldiers, probably mercenaries from Philistia (Ezek. 25:16; 1 Sam. 30:14; 2 Sam. 15:18).

19:1 Nahash. Nahash was reigning in Saul's earliest years (1 Sam. 11:1); the present incident must have occurred early in David's reign at Jerusalem.

19:3 Slander—The delegation was treated scandalously, and David's motives were slanderously attacked. Of course there were no grounds for such suspicions. Men who themselves act basely toward their neighbors are most likely to suspect such behavior in others. One of the marks of a godly person is that he does not slander with his tongue (Ps. 15:3).

19:4 shaved . . . cut off. Hebrew men were proud of their beards and scrupulously modest in their attire. The Ammonites had humiliated David's men in the most offensive way possible.

19:6 a thousand talents. A talent is about 75 pounds.

people of Ammon gathered together from their cities, and came to battle.

8Now when David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. 9Then the people of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.

10When Joab saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, he chose some of Israel's best and put them in battle array against the Syrians. 11And the rest of the people he put under the command of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in battle array against the people of Ammon. 12Then he said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the people of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you. 13Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

14So Joab and the people who were with him drew near for the battle against the Syrians, and they fled before him. 15When the people of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother, and entered the city. So Joab went to Jerusalem.

16Now when the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and brought the Syrians who were beyond the River,* and Shophach* the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them. 17When it was told David, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. So when David had set up in battle array against the Syrians, they fought with him. 18Then the Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed seven thousand* charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers* of the Syrians, and killed Shophach the commander of the army. 19And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants. So the Syrians were not willing to help the people of Ammon anymore.

Rabbah Is Conquered

20 It[a] happened in the spring of the year, at the time kings go out to battle, that Joab led out the armed forces and ravaged the country of the people of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But [b]David stayed at Jerusalem. And [c]Joab defeated Rabbah and overthrew it. 2Then David [d]took their king's crown from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on David's head. Also he brought out the spoil of the city in great abundance. 3And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work* with saws, with iron picks, and with axes. So David did to all the cities of the people of Ammon. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Destroyed

4Now it happened afterward [e]that war broke out at Gezer with the Philistines, at which time [f]Sibbechai the Hushathite killed Sippai,* who was one of the sons of the giant. And they were subdued.

5Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair* killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's [g]beam.

6Yet again [h]there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. 7So when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea,* David's brother, killed him.

8These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

The Census of Israel and Judah

21 Now [a]Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. 2So David said to Joab and to the leaders of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba to Dan, [b]and bring the number of them to me that I may know it."

20:1 David stayed at Jerusalem. This is the time that David committed adultery with Bathsheba (2 Sam. 11). The chronicler omits this story, not because it is unsavory, but because it has no bearing on his theme. He is showing how the Davidic dynasty was the fulfillment of God's promises.

20:2 crown. The crown David took was ceremonial and not for wearing, since it weighed about 75 pounds. David put the crown on his head to demonstrate that he had vanquished the Ammonites and now reigned over them as well.

20:7 Shimea. This was David's older brother, the third son of Jesse (2:13).

20:8 the giant in Gath. Goliath was from Gath (1 Sam. 17:4).

21:1 Temptation by Satan— The role of Satan as the Christian's opponent is well summed up by the meaning of the name Satan, which means "adversary." He is also called "the devil," meaning "accuser." He can

3And Joab answered, "May the LORD make His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? Why then does my lord require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Israel?" 4Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and came to Jerusalem. 5Then Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Judah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword. 6[c]But he did not count Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's word was abominable to Joab.
7And God was displeased with this thing; therefore He struck Israel. 8So David said to God, [d]"I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing; [e]but now,
I pray, take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly."
9Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's [f]seer, saying, 10"Go and tell David, [g]saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I offer you three things; choose one of them for yourself, that I may do it to you."' "
11So Gad came to David and said to him,
"Thus says the LORD: 'Choose for yourself, 12[h]either three* years of famine, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of the LORD—the plague in the land, with the angel* of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what answer
I should take back to Him who sent me."
13And David said to Gad, "I am in great distress. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His [i]mercies are very great;
but do not let me fall into the hand of man."
14So the LORD sent a [j]plague upon Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell.
15And God sent an [k]angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he* was destroying, the LORD looked and [l]relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who was destroying, "It is enough; now restrain your* hand." And the angel of the LORD stood by the [m]threshing floor of Ornan* the Jebusite.

appear as a dragon (Rev. 12:3–4,9) or as a beautifully deceptive "angel of light" (2 Cor. 11:14). He stands hatefully opposed to all the work of God and promotes defiance among men (Job 2:4–5). When Satan sinned he was expelled from heaven (Luke 10:18), although apparently he still had some access to God (Job 2:4–5). A multitude of angels joined him in his rebellion and subsequently became the demons mentioned often in the biblical record (Matt. 12:24; Rev. 12:7). Although Satan's doom was secured by Jesus' death on the cross (John 16:11), he will continue to hinder God's program until he and his angels are destroyed (Matt. 25:41).

The terrifying work of Satan in the unbeliever is described in Scripture as follows: he blinds their minds (2 Cor. 4:4); he takes the Word of God from their hearts (Luke 8:12); and he controls them (Acts 13:8). In regard to Christians, Satan may accuse them (Rev. 12:10), devour their testimony for Christ (1 Pet. 5:8–9), deceive them (Col. 2:8), hinder their work (1 Thess. 2:18), tempt them to immorality (1 Cor. 7:5), and even be used by God to discipline Christians (1 Cor. 5:5; 2 Cor. 12:7).

The Christian's response to Satan is to recognize his power and deception (2 Cor. 2:11; Eph. 6:11), to adhere steadfastly to the faith (1 Pet. 5:9) to resist him openly (James 4:7), and not to give him opportunities. In practice, the best way to oppose him is to be a growing Christian. Believers can respond to temptation by Satan with confidence. We know that nothing can separate us from the love of God (Rom. 8:38–39). Also in light of Satan's tremendous power to blind men to the gospel, Christians must always be aggressively and compassionately witnessing to the lost in order to snatch them from his control.

21:2 David said. Samuel attributed David's impulse to number the people to God Himself (2 Sam. 24:1) while here it is attributed to Satan (v. 1). The apparent contradiction can be resolved by recognizing that though Satan is the author of all evil, he cannot exercise his evil intentions apart from the permission of God. Moreover, God could use Satan to accomplish His own purposes of judgment (1 Kin. 22:19–23; Job 1) or discipline (as here with David). Go, number. David's plan to take a census was not evil in itself, for the Lord Himself at other times had commanded the Israelites to be counted (Num. 1). The problem seems to have been David's presumptuous attitude. He apparently wanted to have a number to look at, instead of remembering that no matter how many or few were the Israelites, their strength was always in the Lord. Beersheba to Dan. This was the traditional way of describing all of Israel from south to north. The distance is about 150 miles.

21:3 a cause of guilt. Joab's warning was David's chance to repent of his intention to number the people for his own purposes. God does not entice us to evil (James 1:13–15; 4:7–8), and even though God was using Satan in this situation, David was still the one who decided to sin (v. 17). God knew what was in David's heart, and either through Joab's rebuke or through David carrying out his sinful thoughts, God intended to deal with David's attitude.

21:9 seer. Gad was a prophet, one who received revelations from the Lord (1 Sam. 22:5).

21:15 Jerusalem to destroy it. When God saw David's repentance and heard his intercessory prayer (v. 17), He relented and stopped the destroying angel. God responded to David's heartfelt prayer. One of the most important aspects of intercessory prayer is how it turns the heart of the one praying toward God, and aligns the intercessor with God's attitudes and purposes.

16 Then David lifted his eyes and [n]saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem.
So David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. 17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed; but these [o]sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O LORD my God, be against me and my father's house, but not against Your people that they should be plagued."
18 Therefore, the [p]angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David that David should go and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD. 20 Now Ornan turned and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves, but Ornan continued threshing wheat. 21 So David came to Or-nan, and Ornan looked and saw David.
And he went out from the threshing floor, and bowed before David with his face to the ground. 22 Then David said to Ornan,
"Grant me the place of this threshing floor,
that I may build an altar on it to the LORD.
You shall grant it to me at the full price, that the plague may be withdrawn from the people."
23 But Ornan said to David, "Take it to yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. Look, I also give you the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give it all." 24 Then King David said to Ornan, "No, but I will surely buy it for the full price, for
I will not take what is yours for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings with that which costs me nothing." 25 So [q]David gave Or-nan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. 26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and [r]He answered him from heaven
by fire on the altar of burnt offering.
27 So the LORD commanded the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath.
28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. 29 [s]For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of the burnt offering, which Moses had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in [t]Gibeon. 30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God, for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

David Prepares to Build the Temple

22 Then David said, [a]"This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel." 2 So David commanded to gather the [b]aliens who were in the land of Israel; and he appointed masons to [c]cut hewn stones to build the house of God. 3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the joints, and bronze in abundance [d]beyond measure, 4 and cedar trees in abundance; for the [e]Sidonians and those from Tyre brought much cedar wood
to David.
5 Now David said, [f]"Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and glorious throughout all countries. I will now make preparation for it." So David made abundant preparations before his death.
6 Then he called for his son Solomon, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel. 7 And David said to Solomon:
"My son, as for me, [g]it was in my mind to build a house [h]to the name of the LORD my God; 8 but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, [i]'You have shed much blood and have made great wars; you shall not build a house for My name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My sight. 9 [j]Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him [k]rest from all his enemies all around.
His name shall be Solomon,* for I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.
10 [l]He shall build a house for My name, and [m]he shall be My son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.' 11 Now,

* 22:9 Literally Peaceful

21:24 costs me nothing. David showed a clear perception of the essence of sacrifice. Every prayer, every sacrifice must come from the heart and labor of the one who offers these things to God. No one can have a relationship with God for or on the behalf of someone else.

21:29 tabernacle . . . which Moses had made. The Old Testament account does not fully trace the movement of the tabernacle after Shiloh, but it did end up first at Nob and finally at Gibeon (15:1).

22:1 This is the house of the LORD God. As long as the ark remained at Kirjath Jearim and the tabernacle of Moses was at Nob and Gibeon, it was impossible for worship to be carried out in the manner originally intended. When the house of God was built, the ark and the altar would be together once again.

22:5 young and inexperienced. Solomon was born about halfway through David's reign. At the time that David began to gather building materials, Solomon was probably not over 18 years old.

my son, may [n]the LORD be with you; and may you prosper, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said to you. 12Only may the LORD [o]give you wisdom and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel, that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. 13[p]Then you will prosper, if you take care to fulfill the statutes and judgments with which the LORD charged Moses concerning Israel. [q]Be strong and of good courage; do not fear nor be dismayed. 14Indeed I have taken much trouble to prepare for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron [r]beyond measure, for it is so abundant. I have prepared timber and stone also, and you may add to them. 15Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance: woodsmen and stonecutters, and all types of skillful men for every kind of work. 16Of gold and silver and bronze and iron there is no limit. Arise and begin working, and [s]the LORD be with you."

17David also commanded all the [t]leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying, 18"Is not the LORD your God with you? [u]And has He not given you rest on every side? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and before His people. 19Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to [v]bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built [w]for the name of the LORD."

The Divisions of the Levites

23 So when David was old and full of days, he made his son [a]Solomon king over Israel.

2And he gathered together all the leaders of Israel, with the priests and the Levites. 3Now the Levites were numbered from the age of [b]thirty years and above; and the number of individual males was thirty-eight thousand. 4Of these, twenty-four thousand were to [c]look after the work of the house of the LORD, six thousand were [d]officers and judges, 5four thousand were gatekeepers, and four thousand [e]praised the LORD with musical instruments, [f]"which I made," said David, "for giving praise."

6Also [g]David separated them into divisions among the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7Of the [h]Gershonites: Laadan* and Shimei. 8The sons of Laadan: the first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel—three in all. 9The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, Haziel, and Haran—three in all. These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Laadan. 10And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Zina,* Jeush, and Beriah. These were the four sons of Shimei. 11Jahath was the first and Zizah the second. But Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; therefore they were assigned as one father's house.

12[i]The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four in all. 13The sons of [j]Amram: Aaron and Moses; and [k]Aaron was set apart, he and his sons forever, that he should sanctify the most holy things, [l]to burn incense before the LORD, [m]to minister to Him, and [n]to give the blessing in His name forever. 14Now [o]the sons of Moses the man of God were reckoned to the tribe of Levi. 15[p]The sons of Moses were Gershon* and Eliezer. 16Of the sons of Gershon, [q]Shebuel* was the first. 17Of the descendants of Eliezer, [r]Rehabiah was the first. And Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. 18Of the sons of Izhar, [s]Shelomith was the first. 19[t]Of the sons of Hebron, Jeriah was the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. 20Of the sons of Uzziel, Michah was the first and Jesshiah the second.

21[u]The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli were Eleazar and [v]Kish. 22And Eleazar died, and [w]had no sons, but only daughters; and their brethren, the sons of Kish, [x]took them as wives.

22:13 Zeal—David says in Psalm 71, "O God, You have taught me from my youth: and to this day I declare Your wondrous works" (v. 17). Wherever he went, David proclaimed the goodness and majesty of God, and now he saw the temple and the centrality of worship as the pinnacle of his service for God. He could encourage Solomon to proceed with confidence because he knew he was doing God's will.

22:18 subdued before the LORD. The conquest of the land began in Joshua's time and was completed under David. It had been a long process, including times of great disobedience and others of great faith. There is an element of submission in this statement, relating both to the Israelites and the land itself.

23:1 his son Solomon king. This phrasing suggests that this is an official appointment, perhaps in the role of coregent with David. It was later ratified by the whole nation (29:22).

23 [y]The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth—three in all.
24 These were the sons of [z]Levi by their fathers' houses—the heads of the fathers' houses as they were counted individually by the number of their names, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of [a]twenty years and above.
25 For David said, "The LORD God of Israel [b]has given rest to His people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem forever"; 26 and also to the Levites, "They shall no longer [c]carry the tabernacle, or any of the articles for its service." 27 For by the [d]last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above; 28 because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts and in the chambers, in the purifying of all holy things and the work of the service of the house of God, 29 both with [e]the showbread and [f]the fine flour for the grain offering, with [g]the unleavened cakes and [h]what is baked in the pan, with what is mixed and with all kinds of [i]measures and sizes; 30 to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening; 31 and at every presentation of a burnt offering to the LORD [j]on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the [k]set feasts, by number according to the ordinance governing them, regularly before the LORD; 32 and that they should [l]attend to the [m]needs of the tabernacle of meeting, the needs of the holy place, and the [n]needs of the sons of Aaron their brethren in the work of the house of
the LORD.

The Divisions of the Priests

24 Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. [a]The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. 2 And [b]Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; therefore Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests. 3 Then David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and [c]Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to the schedule of their service.
4 There were more leaders found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and thus they were divided. Among the sons of Eleazar were sixteen heads of their fathers' houses, and eight heads of their fathers' houses among the sons of Ithamar. 5 Thus they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of the house of God, from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar. 6 And the scribe, Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, one of the Levites, wrote them down before the king,
the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.
7 Now the first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah, 8 the third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, 9 the fifth to Malchi-jah, the sixth to Mijamin, 10 the seventh to Hakkoz, the eighth to [d]Abijah, 11 the ninth to Jeshua, the tenth to Shecaniah, 12 the eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim, 13 the thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, 14 the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immer, 15 the seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Happizzez,* 16 the nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,* 17 the twenty-first to Jachin, the twenty-second to Gamul, 18 the twenty-third to Delaiah, the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.
19 This was the schedule of their service
[e]for coming into the house of the LORD according to their ordinance by the hand of Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Other Levites

20 And the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael;* of the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah. 21 Concerning [f]Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was

23:26 no longer carry. When the tabernacle was replaced by a permanent building, the role of the Levites changed. This is another aspect of the subdued land. The Israelites were there to stay.
23:30 Praise—This is a beautiful picture of daily praise, thanking the Lord for the day that begins and the day that ends. As believers, we don't need someone else to thank the Lord on our behalf. We need to praise Him. The value of praise is that it lifts our hearts to God's heart. It keeps us thinking about Him and worshiping Him. Life can be almost overwhelming at times, and a habit of praising God lifts our thoughts above our troubles and focuses on who He is and what He has done.
23:32 holy place. This referred to the outer room of the tabernacle. The Most Holy Place was only approached by the high priest.
24:1 sons of Aaron. See notes at 6:2–4; 15:11.
24:10 Abijah. This Abijah may be the ancestor of Zacharias, father of John the Baptist, who is named in Luke 1:5.
24:20–21 sons of Levi. The nonpriestly Levites also were divided by clan to determine their service rotation.

30Also [j]the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

31These also cast lots just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and Levites. The chief fathers did just as their younger brethren.

The Musicians

25 Moreover David and the captains of the army separated for the service some of the sons of [a]Asaph, of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. And the number of the skilled men performing their service was: 2Of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asharelah;* the sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, who prophesied according to the order of the king. 3Of [b]Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, Zeri,* Jeshaiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six,* under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp to give thanks and to praise the LORD. 4Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel,* Shebuel,* Jerimoth,* Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. 5All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to exalt his [c]horn.* For God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and [d]harps, for the service of the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were [e]under the authority of the king. 7So the [f]number of them, with their brethren who were instructed in the songs of the LORD, all who were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

8And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, [g]the teacher with the student.

9Now the first lot for Asaph came out for Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, him with his brethren and sons, twelve; 10the third for Zaccur, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 11the fourth for Jizri,* his sons and his brethren, twelve; 12the fifth for Nethaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 13the sixth for Bukkiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 14the seventh for Jesharelah,* his sons and his brethren, twelve; 15the eighth for Jeshaiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 16the ninth for Mattaniah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 17the tenth for Shimei, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 18the eleventh for Azarel,* his sons and his brethren, twelve; 19the twelfth for Hashabiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 20the thirteenth for Shubael,* his sons and his brethren, twelve; 21the fourteenth for Mattithiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 22the fifteenth for Jeremoth,* his sons and his brethren, twelve; 23the sixteenth for Hananiah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 24the seventeenth for Joshbekashah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 25the eighteenth for Hanani, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 26the nineteenth for Mallothi, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 27the twentieth for Eliathah, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 28the twenty-first for Hothir, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 29the twenty-second for Giddalti, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 30the twenty-third for Mahazioth, his sons and his brethren, twelve; 31the twenty-fourth for Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brethren, twelve.

25:1 prophesy with harps, stringed instruments, and cymbals. The role of prophet was not limited to a prediction or proclamation in words. Vocal and instrumental music could be a kind of prophetic message, usually in the form of praise (1 Sam. 10:5–6).

25:2 according to the order of the king. This underscored the leading role that David took in the religious life of the nation.

The Gatekeepers

26 Concerning the divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of [a]Kore, of the sons of Asaph.
2And the sons of Meshelemiah were [b]Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, 3Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, Eliehoenai the seventh.
4Moreover the sons of [c]Obed-Edom were Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth,
5Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed him.
6Also to Shemaiah his son were sons born who governed their fathers' houses, because they were men of great ability.
7The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers Elihu and Semachiah were able men.
8All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom, they and their sons and their brethren, [d]able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Obed-Edom.
9And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, eighteen able men.
10Also [e]Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (for though he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first),
11Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth; all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.
12Among these were the divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, having duties just like their brethren, to serve in the house of the LORD.
13And they [f]cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father's house.
14The lot for the East Gate fell to Shelemiah. Then they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a wise counselor, and his lot came out for the North Gate;
15to Obed-Edom the South Gate, and to his sons the storehouse.* 16To Shuppim and Hosah the lot came out for the West Gate, with the Shallecheth Gate on the [g]ascending highway—watchman opposite watchman.
17On the east were six Levites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse* two by two.
18As for the Parbar* on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.
19These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Korah and among the sons of Merari.

The Treasuries and Other Duties

20Of the Levites, Ahijah was [h]over the treasuries of the house of God and over the treasuries of the [i]dedicated things.
21The sons of Laadan, the descendants of the Gershonites of Laadan, heads of their fathers' houses, of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli.
22The sons of Jehieli, Zetham and Joel his brother, were over the treasuries of the house of the LORD.
23Of the [j]Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:
24[k]Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was overseer of the treasuries.
25And his brethren by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and [l]Shelomith his son.
26This Shelomith and his brethren were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things [m]which King David and the heads of fathers' houses, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated.
27Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated to maintain the house of the LORD.
28And all that Samuel [n]the seer, Saul the son of Kish, Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated, every dedicated thing, was under the hand of Shelomith and his brethren.
29Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons [o]performed duties as [p]officials and judges over Israel outside Jerusalem.
30Of the Hebronites, [q]Hashabiah and his brethren, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.
31Among the Hebronites, [r]Jerijah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought, and there were found among them capable men [s]at Jazer of Gilead.
32And his brethren were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers' houses, whom King David made officials over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God and the [t]affairs of the king.

26:1–32 Duty—Our duties include all of the activities required to fulfill an assigned service. We are not praised for doing these jobs, and sometimes only the Lord sees what we have done. The temple servants knew that their jobs were "for" the Lord, but they were not personally very visible among the hundreds who did similar tasks. From the gatekeepers to the guardians of the treasures, faithfulness was the moral obligation, or duty, of each officer. For us as believers, the moral obligation is the same. We are never off duty.

26:14 lot for the East Gate. The East Gate was the most important because it led straight into the main entrance of the temple.

The Military Divisions

27 And the children of Israel, according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the captains of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the king in every matter of the military divisions. These divisions came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

2Over the first division for the first month was [a]Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand; 3he was* of the children of Perez, and the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. 4Over the division of the second month was Dodai* an Ahohite, and of his division Mikloth also was the leader; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 5The third captain of the army for the third month was [b]Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, who was chief; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 6This was the Benaiah who was [c]mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty; in his division was Ammizabad his son. 7The fourth captain for the fourth month was [d]Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 8The fifth captain for the fifth month was Shamhuth* the Izrahite; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 9The sixth captain for the sixth month was [e]Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 10The seventh captain for the seventh month was [f]Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 11The eighth captain for the eighth month was [g]Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 12The ninth captain for the ninth month was [h]Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 13The tenth captain for the tenth month was [i]Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 14The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was [j]Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; in his division were twenty-four thousand. 15The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai* the Netophathite, of Othniel; in his division were twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of Tribes

16Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: the officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri; over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maachah; 17over* the Levites, [k]Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok; 18over* Judah, [l]Elihu, one of David's brothers; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael; 19over* Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel; 20over* the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah; 21over* the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner; 22over* Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

23But David did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because [m]the LORD had said He would multiply Israel like the [n]stars of the heavens. 24Joab the son of Zeruiah began a census, but he did not finish, for [o]wrath came upon Israel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Other State Officials

25And Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasuries; and Jehonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the field, in the cities, in the villages, and in the fortresses. 26Ezri the son of Chelub was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground. 27And

27:1 heads of fathers' houses, the captains. Apparently a professional standing army is being described here, one that was divided into twelve corps.
27:2 Jashobeam. A connection can be made here to the list of David's mighty men, which is also headed by Jashobeam (11:11–12). He was one of "the three," which meant that he was regarded as unusually heroic.
27:4 Dodai. Dodai's son Eleazar was the second of the mighty men included in the first trio along with Jashobeam (11:12).
27:5 Benaiah. As the son of a priest, Benaiah was from the tribe of Levi. In the earlier list of mighty men he was celebrated for killing a lion and a gigantic Egyptian (11:22–23). Because of this kind of courage, he was honored among the thirty mighty men, though he was not one of "the three" (11:24). Later he was named as commander of the entire Israelite army (2 Kin. 4:4).
27:7 Asahel. David's nephew Asahel (2:15–16) was among the thirty mighty men, but did not achieve a position among "the three" (11:26).
27:11–12 Sibbechai . . . Abiezer. These two men were also members of the elite thirty mighty men. (11:28–29).
27:18 Elihu. This brother of David is usually called Eliab (1 Sam. 16:6).

Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over the produce of the vineyards for the supply of wine. 28Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowlands, and Joash was over the store of oil. 29And Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys. 30Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys, 31and Jaziz the [p]Hagrite was over the flocks. All these were the officials over King David's property.

32Also Jehonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons. 33[q]Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and [r]Hushai the Archite was the king's companion. 34After Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, then [s]Abiathar. And the general of the king's army was [t]Joab.

Solomon Instructed to Build the Temple

28 Now David assembled at Jerusalem all [a]the leaders of Israel: the officers of the tribes and [b]the captains of the divisions who served the king, the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, and [c]the stewards over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officials, the valiant men, and all [d]the mighty men of valor.

2Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brethren and my people: [e]I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for [f]the footstool of our God, and had made preparations to build it. 3But God said to me, [g]'You shall not build a house for My name, because you have been a man of war and have shed [h]blood.' 4However the LORD God of Israel [i]chose me above all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever, for He has chosen [j]Judah to be the ruler. And of the house of Judah, [k]the house of my father, and [l]among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me king over all Israel. 5[m]And of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) [n]He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. 6Now He said to me, 'It is [o]your son Solomon who shall build My house and My courts; for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. 7Moreover I will establish his kingdom forever, [p]if he is steadfast to observe My commandments and My judgments, as it is this day.' 8Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

9"As for you, my son Solomon, [q]know the 27:29 Sharonite. A fertile plain between Israelite and Philistine territory, Sharon was ideal for grazing cattle and sheep. It is appropriate that someone from Sharon, who knew the land and all its seasonal changes, should be in charge of the livestock.

27:30 Ishmaelite. As inhabitants of the desert, the Ishmaelites were at home with the breeding and use of camels.

28:2 footstool. The word "footstool" is a metaphor describing either the ark of the covenant or the tabernacle as the earthly base of God's activity. The words make a little picture of God on His throne in heaven, resting His feet on the earth.

28:4–6 Government of Israel—The government of Israel was under two important headings; the laws, and the leaders. The laws—The "commandments," especially the Ten Commandments, revealed God's holiness and set up a divine standard of righteousness for the people to follow (Ex. 20:1–17). The judgments governed the social life of the people (Ex. 21). The ordinances included the sacrifices that showed that blood must be shed for the forgiveness of sins (Lev. 1–17). The leaders—At first Moses was the primary leader; then he was replaced by Joshua. After Joshua's death the nation was governed for many years by judges who were usually raised up by God to oppose a specific enemy. Finally, at the people's request, God granted them a king, thus establishing the monarchy (1 Sam. 8:6–17).

Through most of Israel's history four leadership roles can be seen:

1. The king was the Lord's representative who ruled the people, but only as the Lord's servant. He led in war (1 Sam. 8:20) and made judicial decisions (2 Sam. 15:2), but could not make law, since he himself was under the law (Deut. 17:14–20).
2. The priest taught the Lord's laws and officiated at the offering of sacrifices (Lev. 1:5).
3. The prophet was the man of God who spoke for God and gave divine pronouncements for the present or the future.
4. The wise man produced literary works stressing practical wisdom (Prov. 1:1), taught discipline of character to the young (Prov. 22:17), and gave counsel to the king (2 Sam. 16:20).

28:6 be My son . . . I will be his Father. This remarkable statement not only shows that the Davidic kings enjoyed unparalleled access to the Lord as His adopted sons (17:3; Ps. 2:7), but it anticipates the absolute sonship of the Son of David, Jesus Christ (Acts 13:33; Heb. 1:5).

11Then David gave his son Solomon [w]the plans for the vestibule, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner chambers, and the place of the mercy seat; 12and the [x]plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, of all the chambers all around, [y]of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries for the dedicated things; 13also for the division of the priests and the [z]Levites, for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the articles of service in the house of the LORD. 14He gave* gold by weight for things of gold, for all articles used in every kind of service; also silver for all articles of silver by weight, for all articles used in every kind of service; 15the weight for the [a]lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand. 16And by weight he gave gold for the tables of the showbread, for each [b]table, and silver for the tables of silver; 17also pure gold for the forks, the basins, the pitchers of pure gold, and the golden bowls—he gave gold by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl; 18and refined gold by weight for the [c]altar of incense, and for the construction of the chariot, that is, the gold [d]cherubim that spread their wings and overshadowed the ark of the covenant of the LORD. 19"All this," said David, [e]"the LORD made me understand in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans."

20And David said to his son Solomon, [f]"Be strong and of good courage, and do it; do not fear nor be dismayed, for the LORD God—my God—will be with you. [g]He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD. 21Here are* [h]the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God; and [i]every willing craftsman will be with you for all manner of workmanship, for every kind of service; also the leaders and all the people will be completely at your command."

Offerings for Building the Temple

29 Furthermore King David said to all the assembly: "My son Solomon, whom alone God has [a]chosen, is [b]young and inexperienced; and the work is great, because the temple* is not for man but for the LORD God. 2Now for the house of my God I have prepared with all my might: gold for things to be made of gold, silver for things of silver, bronze for things of bronze, iron for things of iron, wood for things of wood, [c]onyx stones, stones to be set, glistening stones of various colors, all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs in abundance. 3Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver: 4three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [d]Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses; 5the gold for things of gold and the silver for things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is [e]willing to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?"

6Then [f]the leaders of the fathers' houses, leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with [g]the officers over the king's work, [h]offered willingly. 7They gave for the work of the house of God five thousand talents and ten

28:19 by His hand upon me. The plans for the temple were from God, just as the plans of the tabernacle of Moses were. This was extremely important, for God had stressed the necessity of making the tabernacle exactly according to His instructions (Ex. 38:22; 39:5–7,42–43). The Israelites would need to know that this permanent building was God's plan, not just David's.

28:20 Be strong and of good courage. David's charge to Solomon is very similar to the charge given to Joshua when Moses handed over the leadership of Israel to him (Josh. 1:6–9).

29:4 Generosity—It is extremely difficult to assign a modern monetary value to ancient goods and services, but we might compare David's gift for the temple to approximately one billion, eight hundred thousand dollars in gold, and eighty-four million in silver. This kind of personal wealth is astounding, but for David, its value was significant only as provision for the temple for the Lord. He never lost sight of the fact that both honor and riches come from God. They are His to give, His to use, and His to remove.

thousand darics of gold, ten thousand talents of silver, eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron. 8And whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD, into the hand of [i]Jehiel* the Gershonite. 9Then the people rejoiced, for they had offered willingly, because with a loyal heart they had [j]offered willingly to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

David's Praise to God

10Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said:

"Blessed are You, LORD God of Israel, our Father, forever and ever.
11 [k]Yours, O LORD, is the greatness,
The power and the glory,
The victory and the majesty;
For all that is in heaven and in earth is Yours;
Yours is the kingdom, O LORD,
And You are exalted as head over all.
12 [l]Both riches and honor come from
You,
And You reign over all.
In Your hand is power and might;
In Your hand it is to make great
And to give strength to all.
13 "Now therefore, our God,
We thank You
And praise Your glorious name.
14 But who am I, and who are my people,
That we should be able to offer so willingly as this?
For all things come from You,
And of Your own we have given You.
15 For [m]we are aliens and pilgrims before
You,
As were all our fathers;
[n]Our days on earth are as a shadow,
And without hope.

16"O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name is from Your hand, and is all Your own. 17I know also, my God, that You [o]test the heart and [p]have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things; and now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to offer willingly to You. 18O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and fix their heart toward You. 19And [q]give my son Solomon a loyal heart to keep Your commandments and Your testimonies and Your statutes, to do all these things, and to build the temple* for which [r]I have made provision."

20Then David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Anointed King

21And they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and [s]sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. 22So they ate and drank before the LORD with great gladness on that day. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and [t]anointed him before the LORD to be the leader, and Zadok to

This was equivalent to about 675 tons. one hundred thousand talents. This was approximately 3,750 tons.

29:10 blessed the LORD. David modeled before the people the worship of the living God. He started with praise for God's goodness, greatness, and glory, and then acknowledged his place under the care and blessing of God.

29:14–15 All That We Have—Even though David was king and could accumulate whatever he wanted, he was more conscious of the need to give, particularly to God. How can anyone strive to accumulate, if you know in the long run that none of what you've gathered is really yours? Generosity is the natural outcome of a right perspective on possessions.

Verse 15 points to two other elements that indicate a basis for generosity. David understood where his real home was, namely with God. If a king regards himself as an alien in his own land, how much more should we? Somehow he resisted the temptation to regard the land as his to do with as he wished. He understood the brevity of life. Why spend time accumulating when we can't take it with us? Living with this perspective allows us to be transparent before God. We can be in sync with God because we're keeping nothing from Him. What we have has value only as it furthers the kingdom, and God is quite capable of supplying everything we need to be able to live.

It also means we're functioning clearly in the context of the biblical mandate of stewardship. We're here to have dominion (Gen. 1:28) but with the end that God is honored by what we do.

29:18 God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel. These familiar words identify the Israelites with the promises of God to their forefathers, and to the God of those promises.

29:22 king the second time. This refers to the ratification of Solomon's kingship (see note at 23:1).

be priest. 23Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. 24All the leaders and the mighty men, and also all the sons of King David, [u]submitted themselves to King Solomon. 25So the LORD exalted Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and [v]bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

The Close of David's Reign

26Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. 27[w]And the period that he reigned over Israel was forty years; [x]seven years he reigned in Hebron, and thirty-three years he reigned in Jerusalem. 28So he [y]died in a good old age, [z]full of days and riches and honor; and Solomon his son reigned in his place.
29Now the acts of King David, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer, 30with all his reign and his might, [a]and the events that happened to him, to Israel, and to all the kingdoms of the lands.

29:23 throne of the LORD. The position of king may have passed from David to Solomon, but the throne was the Lord's. Eventually Jesus the Son of David and the Son of God would sit on that throne and reign forever (Luke 1:32).

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

▶ AUTHOR: The sources of 1 and 2 Chronicles include multiple official and prophetic records. In addition to these, the author-compiler had access to genealogical lists and documents, such as the message and letters of Sennacherib (2 Chr. 32:10–17). It seems likely that Ezra was the author as Jewish tradition suggests.

▶ TIME: c. 991–538 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: 2 Chr. 7:14

▶ THEME: Second Chronicles begins with Solomon's reign and ends with the fall of Jerusalem. It covers more extensively the details involved in the building and dedication of the temple. The kings of Judah are detailed down through the last king, Zedekiah, who is exiled to Babylon in 587 B.C. It largely ignores what happens in the northern kingdom after the split into two nations.

Solomon Requests Wisdom

1 Now [a]Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and [b]the LORD his God was with him and [c]exalted him exceedingly.

2And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to [d]the captains of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' houses. 3Then Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at [e]Gibeon; for the tabernacle of meeting with God was there, which Moses the servant of the LORD had [f]made in the wilderness. 4[g]But David had brought up the ark of God from Kirjath Jearim to the place David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. 5Now [h]the bronze altar that [i]Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, he put* before the tabernacle of the LORD; Solomon and the assembly sought Him there. 6And Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of meeting, and [j]offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7[k]On that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask! What shall I give you?"

8And Solomon said to God: "You have shown great [l]mercy to David my father, and have made me [m]king in his place. 9Now, O LORD God, let Your promise to David my father be established, [n]for You have made me king over a people like the [o]dust of the earth in multitude. 10[p]Now give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may [q]go out and come in before this people; for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

11[r]Then God said to Solomon: "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches or wealth or honor or the life of your enemies, nor have you asked long life—but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge My people over whom I have made you king—12wisdom and knowledge are granted to you; and I will give you riches and wealth and honor, such as [s]none of the kings have

* 1:5 Some authorities read it was there.

1:3 high place. In the Old Testament the high places were usually associated with pagan worship (Num. 22:41). The Israelites were specifically charged to destroy these places of worship so that they would not become a snare and lead them into idol worship (Num. 33:53; Deut. 33:59). Nevertheless, Israelites often chose the high places to worship (1 Sam. 9:12). The high place at Gibeon was the location of the Mosaic tabernacle and the great bronze altar throughout David's reign (see note at 1 Kin. 14:23).

1:10 go out and come in. This figure of speech refers to the totality of Solomon's life. As king he would lead by example as well as by edict.

1:11–12 Wisdom—There's significance here in what Solomon didn't ask for. He didn't ask for honor, money, a long life, or the death of his enemies. He didn't ask for the things that would be on the top of most people's lists. He didn't ask for what would make life comfortable and easy. He asked for what would make life good. He asked for wisdom with an eye toward how he would rule, knowing that the quality of his reign largely depended on the quality of his judgments in dealing with people and issues. His priority was his service to others rather than doing

Solomon's Military and Economic Power

13 So Solomon came to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from before the tabernacle of meeting, and reigned over Israel. 14 [t]And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. 15 [u]Also the king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland. 16 [v]And Solomon had horses imported from Egypt and Keveh; the king's merchants bought them in Keveh at the current price. 17 They also acquired and imported from Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty; thus, through their agents,* they exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Syria.

Solomon Prepares to Build the Temple

2 Then Solomon [a]determined to build a temple for the name of the LORD, and a royal house for himself. 2 [b]Solomon selected seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand to quarry stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

3 Then Solomon sent to Hiram* king of Tyre, saying:

[c]As you have dealt with David my father, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in, so deal with me. 4 Behold, [d]I am building a temple for the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him, [e]to burn before Him sweet incense, for [f]the continual showbread, for [g]the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the [h]Sabbaths, on the New Moons, and on the set feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance forever to Israel.

5 And the temple which I build will be great, for [i]our God is greater than all gods. 6 [j]But who is able to build Him a temple, since heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a temple, except to burn sacrifice before Him?

7 Therefore send me at once a man skillful to work in gold and silver, in bronze and iron, in purple and crimson and blue, who has skill to engrave with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, [k]whom David my father provided. 8 [l]Also send me cedar and cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants have skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and indeed my servants will be with your servants, 9 to prepare timber for me in abundance, for the temple which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.

10 [m]And indeed I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut timber, what was supposedly best for his personal well-being.

What would be an equivalent today? A corporate executive wanting to know how to make his company contribute for the good of society as opposed to focusing exclusively on profit? A manager being more interested in seeing his staff happy and functioning well rather than getting ahead himself? A father making personal sacrifices for the health of his family?

1:14 chariots. A chariot force of 1,400 units was a significant achievement for Israel, a nation located primarily in hilly terrain where chariots were of limited value. horsemen. Moses warned the future kings not to multiply horses for themselves, nor were they to send people back to Egypt to multiply horses (Deut. 17:16). The number of horses that Solomon had for his 1,400 chariots was probably about 4,000.

1:17 six hundred shekels of silver. It is often difficult to assign a price in modern currency to the goods and services of the ancient world. This verse suggests that a chariot cost as much as four horses. exported. Solomon had a thriving business in horses and chariots. Because Israel was on the route between Asia and Africa, such goods would go through Israel and become subject to Solomon's heavy import and export taxes.

2:3 Hiram the king of Tyre. Also called Huram, he was the same Phoenician ruler who had provided men and materials for David's palace.

2:5 our God is greater than all gods. Solomon's statement means that God is the only true God, not that He is the greatest among many lesser ones. All pagan "gods" are not gods at all (1 Cor. 8:4–5; 10:20).

2:6 Heaven—God is omnipresent. This means that He is everywhere present at all times. There are no bounds or limitations to His presence. But in a special sense, God does have a center for His existence. This is described by Solomon as the "heaven of heavens," an expression also used by Moses (Deut. 10:14). His title "LORD of hosts" (1 Sam. 1:3) suggests that the dwelling of God is populated by angels and other heavenly beings. It is here that His throne is situated (Is. 6:1). In this sphere His will is done perfectly (Dan. 4:35).

2:10 wheat . . . barley. The amount of wheat and barley was about 125,000 bushels, or 3,750 tons of each. wine . . . oil. Twenty thousand baths of wine and oil was approximately 115,000 gallons of each.

twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, twenty thousand kors of barley, twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Hiram king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon:

[n]Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.

12 Hiram* also said:

[o]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, [p]who made heaven and earth, for He has given King David a wise son, endowed with prudence and understanding, who will build a temple for the LORD and a royal house for himself!

13 And now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, Huram* my master* craftsman 14[q](the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre), skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan which may be given to him, with your skillful men and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

15 Now therefore, the wheat, the barley,
the oil, and the wine which [r]my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants. 16[s]And we will cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need; we will bring it to you in rafts by sea to Joppa, and you will carry it up to Jerusalem.

17[t]Then Solomon numbered all the aliens who were in the land of Israel, after the census in which [u]David his father had numbered them; and there were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. 18And he made [v]seventy thousand of them bearers of burdens, eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers
to make the people work.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3 Now [a]Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at [b]Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD* had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of [c]Or-nan* the Jebusite. 2And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

3This is the foundation [d]which Solomon laid for building the house of God: The length was sixty cubits (by cubits according to the former measure) and the width twenty cubits. 4And the [e]vestibule that was in front *of the sanctuary was twenty cubits long across the width of the house, and the height was one hundred and* twenty. He overlaid the inside with pure gold. 5[f]The larger room* he [g]paneled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it. 6And he decorated the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold from Parvaim. 7He also overlaid the house—the beams and doorposts, its walls and doors—with gold; and he carved cherubim on the walls.

8And he made the [h]Most Holy Place. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. He overlaid it with six hundred

2:12 Prudence—The wisdom and generosity of King Hiram toward Solomon showed him to be a prudent king. He wanted things to go well for Solomon because he liked and respected his father David, and good neighbors created stability for both nations.
2:14 woman of the daughters of Dan. His mother was an Israelite from the tribe of Dan.
3:1 Mount Moriah. This was the mountain where Abraham brought his son Isaac to sacrifice him (Gen. 22) and where the Lord provided a ram instead. It was suitable that this place where Abraham showed such incredible obedience should be the site of the temple that dealt with the issues of sacrifice and sin.
threshing floor of Ornan. It was here that David saw the angel of death and prayed for the people (2 Sam. 24).
3:2 second day of the second month. The second month fell in our month of April.
3:3 cubits according to the former measure. The Israelites had two standard cubits, one about 17 inches and the other about 20 inches. The temple was probably made on the cubit that measured a little over 17 inches, which means that its foundation was approximately 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. The tabernacle that Moses made in the wilderness was about 45 feet long and 15 feet wide (Ex. 26:15–37). More details of the temple are in 1 Kings 5–7.
3:5 larger room. This room was the holy place, or sanctuary (1 Kin. 6:17).
3:8 Most Holy Place. The "holy of holies," or Most Holy Place, was the inner sanctuary where the ark of the covenant was kept. This room was cubical, 30 feet on a side. six hundred talents. The room was overlaid with about 23 tons of gold.

talents of fine gold. 9The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold; and he overlaid the upper [i]area with gold. 10[j]In the Most Holy Place he made two cherubim, fashioned by carving, and overlaid them with gold. 11The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits in overall length: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub; 12*one* wing of the other cherub was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other cherub. 13The wings of these cherubim spanned twenty cubits overall. They stood on their feet, and they faced inward. 14And he made the [k]veil of blue, purple, crimson, and fine linen, and wove cherubim into it.

15Also he made in front of the temple* [l]two pillars thirty-five* cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. 16He made wreaths of chainwork, as in the inner sanctuary, and put them on top of the pillars; and he made [m]one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork. 17Then he [n]set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; he called the name of the one on the right hand Jachin, and the name of the one on the left Boaz.

4 Moreover he made [a]a bronze altar: twenty cubits was its length, twenty cubits its width, and ten cubits its height.

2[b]Then he made the Sea of cast bronze, ten cubits from one brim to the other; it was completely round. Its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured its circumference. 3[c]And under it was the likeness of oxen encircling it all around, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. The oxen were cast in two rows, when it was cast. 4It stood on twelve [d]oxen: three looking toward the north, three looking toward the west, three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts pointed inward. 5It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was shaped like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It contained three thousand* baths.

6He also made [e]ten lavers, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as they offered for the burnt offering they would wash in them, but the Sea was for the [f]priests to wash in. 7[g]And he made ten lampstands of gold [h]according to their design, and set them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. 8[i]He also made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred [j]bowls of gold.

9Furthermore [k]he made the court of the priests, and the [l]great court and doors for the court; and he overlaid these doors with bronze. 10[m]He set the Sea on the right side, toward the southeast.

11Then [n]Huram made the pots and the 3:9 nails . . . gold. Gold by itself is too soft to use for nails, so the nails mentioned here must have been plated with gold, as the weight would indicate.

3:13 twenty cubits. The wings of the cherubim spanned the entire width of the room.
3:14 the veil. The veil was a heavy curtain between the holy place and the Most Holy Place. It shielded the ark and cherubim from view, and as God was visualized as sitting on the mercy seat under the wings of the cherubim (see note at 1 Chr. 13:6), it also shielded even the priests from the most intimate presence of God. The veil between the holy place and the Most Holy Place was ripped in two when Jesus died on the cross (Matt. 27:51). The tearing of the temple curtain is seen as a symbol that through Jesus, believers have direct access to God (Heb. 6:19; 9:1—10:20).
3:15 thirty-five cubits . . . five cubits. The pillars were about 53 feet tall with a 7 foot capital on top.
3:17 Jachin . . . Boaz. The names of the two pillars mean "He establishes" and "in Him is strength."
4:2 Sea of cast bronze. The Sea was a receptacle for water corresponding to the much smaller bronze basin of the Mosaic tabernacle (Ex. 30:17–21). The basin provided water for the priests to wash their hands and feet in preparation for ministering at the altar. The Sea served the same purpose. It was huge—15 feet in diameter and 45 feet in circumference.
4:5 three thousand baths. When filled with about 27,000 gallons of water the sea would have weighed about 108 tons.
4:6 ten lavers. Each laver held 40 baths, or about 230 gallons (1 Kin. 7:38). They could accommodate large animals, such as oxen. The law of burnt offerings required certain parts of the animal to be washed in water before it was placed on the altar (Lev. 1:9,13).
4:7 ten lampstands. The wilderness tabernacle had only one lampstand (Ex. 25:31), but the temple had ten.
4:8 ten tables. There had been only one table in the tabernacle (Ex. 25:23). The increase reflects the grandeur of the temple, as well as the large number of people to be served.
4:9 court of the priests. There were areas in and about the temple that only the priests could enter. One of these was the area immediately surrounding it and enclosed by a separating wall, the "court of the priests." great court. The great court was an outer area where the people in general could go.

shovels and the bowls. So Huram finished doing the work that he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God:
12 the two pillars and [o]the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the pillars; 13 [p]four hundred pomegranates for the two networks (two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars); 14 he also made [q]carts and the lavers on the carts; 15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it; 16 also the pots, the shovels, the forks—and all their articles [r]Huram his master* craftsman made of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

17 In the plain of Jordan the king had them cast in clay molds, between Succoth and Zeredah.* 18 [s]And Solomon had all these articles made in such great abundance that the weight of the bronze was not determined.

19 Thus [t]Solomon had all the furnishings made for the house of God: the altar of gold and the tables on which was [u]the showbread; 20 the lampstands with their lamps of pure gold, to burn [v]in the prescribed manner in front of the inner sanctuary, 21 with [w]the flowers and the lamps and the wick-trimmers of gold, of purest gold; 22 the trimmers, the bowls, the ladles, and the censers of pure gold. As for the entry of the sanctuary, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple, were gold.

5 So [a]all the work that Solomon had done for the house of the LORD was finished; and Solomon brought in the things which his father David had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings. And he put them in the treasuries of the house of God.

The Ark Brought into the Temple

2 [b]Now Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel, in Jerusalem, that they might bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up [c]from the City of David, which is Zion. 3 [d]Therefore all the men of Israel assembled with the king [e]at the feast, which was in the seventh month. 4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the [f]Levites took up the ark. 5 Then they brought up the ark, the tabernacle of meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tabernacle. The priests and the Levites brought them up. 6 Also King Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing sheep and oxen that could not be counted or numbered for multitude. 7 Then the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the [g]inner sanctuary of the temple,* to the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim. 8 For the cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim overshadowed the ark and its poles. 9 The poles extended so that the ends of the [h]poles of the ark could be seen from the holy place, in front of the inner sanctuary; but they could not be seen from outside. And they are there to this day. 10 Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses [i]put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they had come out of Egypt.

11 And it came to pass when the priests came out of the Most Holy Place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, without keeping to their

4:14 carts. The carts had four bronze wheels (1 Kin. 7:27–37).

4:17 cast in clay molds. Many bronze products were made at a place in the Jordan valley about 35 miles north of the Dead Sea. Archaeologists have uncovered evidence of this work in an area where the clay is suitable for bronze casting.

4:19 altar of gold. This altar was used for offering incense (Ex. 30:1–10; 1 Kin. 7:48). It was in the holy place just in front of the veil.

4:22 inner doors. The tabernacle had a veil between the Most Holy Place, where the ark was, and the "house," or holy place. Solomon's temple had a set of doors there as well.

5:2 ark of the covenant. Though David had built a tabernacle, or tent, on Mount Zion to house the ark (1 Chr. 15:1), it was still separate from the original tabernacle and bronze altar at Gibeon. Completing Solomon's temple made it possible for the ark and the altar to be in the same place for the first time since the Israelites lost the ark to the Philistines during the days when the tabernacle was at Shiloh and Samuel was a little boy (1 Sam. 4–6).

5:3 feast. Since this was the seventh month, the feast was the Feast of Tabernacles. This was an appropriate occasion for moving the ark to a permanent location because the feast commemorated Israel's wandering in the wilderness when the ark had no permanent place (Lev. 23:39–43).

5:5 tabernacle. This tent was the Mosaic tabernacle. Solomon ended worship at the high place at Gibeon by dismantling the tabernacle and bringing it and all its furnishings to Jerusalem.

5:9 to this day. The ark was supposed to remain safely in the temple forever. At the time of the writing of this book (probably between 460 and 430 B.C.), the temple had been destroyed and the ark was gone. No one knows what happened to the ark after Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem in 586 B.C.

[m]"For He is good,

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud, 14so that the priests could not continue ministering because of the cloud; [n]for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

"The LORD said He would dwell in the [b]dark cloud.
2 I have surely built You an exalted
house,
And [c]a place for You to dwell in

Solomon's Speech upon Completion of the Work

3Then the king turned around and [d]blessed the whole assembly of Israel, while all the assembly of Israel was standing. 4And he said: "Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has fulfilled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, [e]saying, 5'Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Israel in which to build a house, that My name might be there, nor did I choose any man to be a ruler over My people Israel. 6[f]Yet I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name may be there, and I [g]have chosen David to be over My people Israel.' 7Now [h]it was in the heart of my father David to build a temple* for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 8But the LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a temple for My name, you did well in that it was in your heart. 9Nevertheless you shall not build the temple, but your son who will come from your body, he shall build the temple for My [i]name.' 10So the LORD has fulfilled His word which He spoke, and I have filled the position of my father David, and [j]sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised; and I have built the temple for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 11And there I have put the ark, [k]in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

12[l]Then *Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands 13(for Solomon had made a bronze platform five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and he stood on it, knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread out his hands toward heaven); 14and he said: "LORD God of Israel, [m]there is no God in heaven or on earth like You, who keep Your [n]covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts. 15[o]You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father; You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day. 16Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, [p]'You shall not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, [q]only if your sons take heed to their way, that they walk in My law as you have walked before Me.' 17And now, O LORD God of Israel, let Your word come true, which You have spoken to Your servant David.

5:12 Asaph . . . Heman . . . Jeduthun. These men were the heads of the divisions of Levitical musicians (1 Chr. 6:33,39; 25:1).

5:13 Praise—Praise and worship are simply recognizing the perfections and worthiness of the Lord. His lovingkindness never runs out or diminishes. Every day His mercy and grace exist in perfection on our behalf. A time for daily praise is one of the best ways to grow closer to God.

6:2 to dwell in forever. It did not occur to Solomon that one day the glory of the Lord would depart from this temple and it would be destroyed (Ezek. 10:18).

6:14 there is no God . . . like You. Solomon's acclamation is echoed by every child of God who reflects on God's faithfulness and mercy to those who "walk before Him" with "all their hearts." It is not that Solomon considered other gods to be valid, but he was in a position to see the kind of trust that pagans put in their gods, and how whimsical and unfaithful these "gods" were.

6:16 only if your sons take heed. Solomon was recognizing that the covenant was dependent on the people remaining faithful to God, and he wanted his line to walk with God as David had. Even though future generations did not imitate David, God's faithfulness was carried out through Jesus, the Son of David (Matt. 9:27; 15:22; 22:41–45).

18 "But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? [r]Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You.
How much less this temple* which I have built! 19 Yet regard the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD my God, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You: 20 that Your eyes may be [s]open toward this temple day and night, toward the place where You said You would put Your name, that You may hear the prayer which Your servant makes [t]toward this place. 21 And may You hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, [u]forgive.

22 "If anyone sins against his neighbor, and is forced to take an [v]oath, and comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this temple, 23 then hear from heaven, and act, and judge Your servants, bringing retribution on the wicked by bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous by giving him according to his [w]righteousness.

24 "Or if Your people Israel are defeated before an [x]enemy because they have sinned against You, and return and confess Your name, and pray and make supplication before You in this temple, 25 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and their fathers.

26 "When the [y]heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them, 27 then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

28 "When there [z]is famine in the land,
pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever [a]sickness there is;
29 whatever prayer, whatever supplication
is made by anyone, or by all Your people Israel, when each one knows his own burden and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this temple: 30 then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know (for You alone [b]know the [c]hearts of the sons of men), 31 that they may fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

32 "Moreover, concerning a foreigner, [d]who is not of Your people Israel, but has come from a far country for the sake of Your great name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this temple; 33 then hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, that all peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel, and that they may know that this temple which I have built is called by Your name.

34 "When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and the temple which I have built for Your name, 35 then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

36 "When they sin against You (for there is [e]no one who does not sin), and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and they take them [f]captive to a land far or near; 37 yet when they come to themselves in the land where they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication to You in the land of their captivity, saying,
'We have sinned, we have done wrong, and have committed wickedness'; 38 and when they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have been carried captive, and pray toward their land which You

* 6:18 Literally house

6:23 hear from heaven. Solomon's request that God hear from heaven underscored God's transcendence. Although God had chosen to be present on earth at the temple, He is also beyond the limits of the temple building.

6:25 bring them back. This statement is a hint of the future captivity and deportation of God's disobedient people (Deut. 28:29–30). When the exile to Babylon became a reality, the temple was destroyed and no one could pray at that place as before. But even in those days, God's people directed their prayer toward Jerusalem (Dan. 6:10).

6:32–33 concerning a foreigner. God made His covenant exclusively with Israel, the nation descended from Abraham, but He did so for the purpose of attracting the nations to Himself, the Creator of all people. A foreigner who embraced the Lord as God would be numbered among God's people.

6:36 there is no one who does not sin. This statement is repeated in the New Testament (Rom. 3:23; 1 John 1:8–10). take them captive. Solomon's speech anticipated the possibility of exile (v. 25), something that had already taken place by the time Chronicles was written.

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

7 When [a]Solomon had finished praying,
[b]fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and [c]the glory of the LORD filled the temple.* 2[d]And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. 3When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying:

[e]"For He is good,
[f]For His mercy endures forever."*

4[g]Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. 5King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. 6[h]And the priests attended to their services; the Levites also with instruments of the music of the LORD, which King David had made to praise the LORD, saying, "For His mercy endures forever,"* whenever David offered praise by their ministry. [i]The priests sounded trumpets opposite them, while all Israel stood.

7Furthermore [j]Solomon consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the fat.

8[k]At that time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly [l]from the entrance of Hamath to [m]the Brook of Egypt.* 9And on the eighth day they held a [n]sacred assembly, for they observed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

7:1 Miracles—This event marks the third of four events when supernatural fire fell from heaven. The first occurred during the dedication of the tabernacle in the days of Moses (Lev. 9:24). The second happened when David dedicated a piece of ground to the Lord that later became the site of Solomon's temple (1 Chr. 21:26). The final occurrence transpired on Mount Carmel when Elijah prayed for fire to consume his offering (1 Kin. 18:38). We often think that a miracle will convince an unbeliever of the reality of the living God, and sometimes it does. But sensing the presence of God, or seeing His work, does not equal believing. The Israelites often backslid, even after miraculous events, and even the miracles of Jesus did not convince all that He was the Messiah (Matt. 11:20–24).

7:3 Need for Worship—The first reason for worship is simply that God commands it (1 Chr. 16:29; Matt. 4:10). The first four of the Ten Commandments charge men and women to worship the one true God and Him alone (Ex. 20:3–10). To allow anything or anyone other than God to have a position of lordship over us constitutes gross disobedience to the will of God and incurs His terrible wrath (Ex. 20:5; Deut. 27:15). Eventually all peoples will bow to God anyway, even if they do so unwillingly (Phil. 2:10).

An equally important reason for worship is that God is worthy of our worship. He designed us for worship. He alone possesses the attributes that merit our worship and service. Among these are goodness (Ps. 100:5), mercy (Ex. 4:31), holiness (Ps. 99:5,9), and creative power (Rev. 4:11). When men of biblical times clearly saw the unveiled glory of God, they could not help but fall prostrate in worship. Examples of this response can be seen in the actions of Moses (Ex. 34:5–8), Isaiah (Is. 6), Paul (Acts 9:3–6), and John (Rev. 1:9–17).

A final reason for worship is that men and women need to give it. People cannot find personal fulfillment apart from the glad submission of themselves in worshipful obedience to God. He is the Creator and they are the creatures (Rev. 4:11). We are made to worship God. If we do anything less, we fail to be who God created us to be. One who worships God not only participates in the occupation of heaven (Rev. 7:9–12), but also finds joyful satisfaction in the present time (Rom. 12:2; Col. 3:24).

7:8 feast. The feast was the Feast of Tabernacles, which began on the fifteenth day of the seventh month and continued through the twenty-second day (see note at 5:3). Hamath . . . Brook of Egypt. These geographical locations specify the extent of Solomon's early kingdom from north to south.

7:9 dedication of the altar. This is the same dedication referred to in 5:3.

10 [o]On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the good that the LORD had done for David, for Solomon, and for His people Israel. 11 Thus [p]Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's house; and Solomon successfully accomplished all that came into his heart to make in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

God's Second Appearance to Solomon

12 Then the LORD [q]appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, [r]and have chosen this [s]place for Myself as a house of sacrifice. 13 [t]When I shut up heaven and there is no rain, or command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence among My people, 14 if My people who are [u]called by My name will [v]humble themselves, and pray and seek
My face, and turn from their wicked ways, [w]then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land. 15 Now [x]My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to prayer made in this place. 16 For now [y]I have chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever; and
My eyes and My heart will be there perpetually. 17 [z]As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments, 18 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, as I covenanted with David your father, saying, [a]'You shall not fail to have a man as ruler in Israel.'

19 [b]"But if you turn away and forsake My statutes and My commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, and worship them, 20 [c]then I will uproot them from My land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for My name I will cast out of My sight, and will make it a proverb and a [d]byword among all peoples.

21 "And as for [e]this house, which is exalted, everyone who passes by it will be [f]astonished and say, [g]'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and this house?' 22 Then they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, and worshiped them and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity on them.'"

Solomon's Additional Achievements

8 It [a]came to pass at the end of [b]twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of the LORD and his own house, 2 that the cities which Hiram* had given to Solomon, Solomon built them; and he settled the children of Israel there. 3 And Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it.
4 [c]He also built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in [d]Hamath. 5 He built Upper Beth Horon and [e]Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, 6 also Baalath and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Solomon [f]desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

7 [g]All the people who were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel— 8 that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Israel did not destroy—from these Solomon raised forced labor, as it is to this day. 9 But Solomon did not make the children of Israel servants for his work. Some were men of

* 8:2 Hebrew Huram (compare 2 Chronicles 2:3)

7:10 sent the people away to their tents. The people returned to their huts, or booths, where they stayed as a part of the Feast of Tabernacles. Few if any Israelites used tents for their housing at this time.

7:11 house of the LORD . . . king's house. Since it took Solomon 13 years to build his palace and 20 years in all to build both it and the temple, these events are halfway through Solomon's 40-year reign.

7:14 Prayer—This promise to hear, if the people will pray, is directly linked to the covenant promises that God made with the Israelites (Deut. 28–30). Blessings were linked to obedience, curses linked to rebellion, and the promise that God would hear if they repented was the reminder that God had eternal commitment to them. Even nations outside this covenant have taken great comfort in remembering this promise. God always hears the sincere prayers of His people, and Christians are directed to pray for the leaders of the nations (1 Tim. 2:1–2).

8:4 Tadmor. Solomon built and fortified cities such as Tadmor because they were on vital caravan routes. These fortified cities provided protection to his caravans and became the customs points at which Solomon collected taxes. storage cities. Facilities were scattered throughout Solomon's outlying provinces to provide warehouses for his armies and merchantmen, as well as to store produce and other tributes paid by the vassal states (1 Kin. 9:19).

8:5 Upper Beth Horon and Lower Beth Horon. These cities were strategically located near the border between Judah and the northern tribal districts, along a major mountain pass to the Mediterranean (Josh. 10:10; 1 Sam. 13:18).

war, captains of his officers, captains of his chariots, and his cavalry. 10And others were chiefs of the officials of King Solomon: [h]two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.

11Now Solomon [i]brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of David to the house he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places to which the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

12Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD which he had built before the vestibule, 13according to the [j]daily rate, offering according to the commandment of Moses, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the [k]three appointed yearly [l]feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles. 14And, according to the order of David his father, he appointed the [m]divisions of the priests for their service, [n]the Levites for their duties (to praise and serve before the priests) as the duty of each day required, and the [o]gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate; for so David the man of God had commanded. 15They did not depart from the command of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter or concerning the [p]treasuries.

16Now all the work of Solomon was well-ordered from* the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed.

17Then Solomon went to [q]Ezion Geber and Elath* on the seacoast, in the land of Edom. 18[r]And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. They went with the servants of Solomon to [s]Ophir, and acquired four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba's Praise of Solomon

9 Now [a]when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions, having a very great retinue, camels that bore spices, gold in abundance, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she spoke with him about all that was in her heart. 2So Solomon answered all her questions; there was nothing so difficult for Solomon that he could not explain it to her. 3And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, 4the food on his table, the seating of his servants, the service of his waiters and their apparel, his [b]cupbearers and their apparel, and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit in her.

5Then she said to the king: "It was a true report which I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom. 6However I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes; and indeed the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me. You exceed the fame of which I heard. 7Happy are your men and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom! 8Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, setting you on His throne to be king for the LORD your God! Because your God has [c]loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore He made you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

9And she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, spices in great abundance, and precious stones; there never were any spices such as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

10Also, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, [d]who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum* wood and precious stones. 11And the king made walkways of the algum* wood for the house of the LORD and for the king's house, also harps and stringed instruments for singers; and there were none such as these seen before in the land of Judah.

12Now King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, much more than she had brought to the king. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Great Wealth

People have speculated that it may have been in South Arabia, India, or Africa.

9:1 Sheba. Sheba was more than a thousand miles south of Israel, at the southern end of the Arabian peninsula.

9:8 Blessed be the LORD your God. The language of politeness in the ancient world does not necessarily suggest that the queen of Sheba was converted. Visiting dignitaries customarily praised the god of the host nation.

9:13 six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold. Solomon's annual income in gold amounted to 25 tons.

talents of gold, 14besides what the traveling merchants and traders brought. And all the kings of Arabia and governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. 15And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred shekels of hammered gold went into each shield. 16*He* also made three hundred shields of hammered gold; three hundred *shekels of gold went into each shield. The king put them in the [f]House of the Forest of Lebanon.

17Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. 18The throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests. 19Twelve lions stood there, one on each side of the six steps; nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom.

20All King Solomon's drinking vessels were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Not one was silver, for this was accounted as nothing in the days of Solomon. 21For the king's ships went to [g]Tarshish with the servants of Hiram.* Once every three years the merchant ships* came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and monkeys.*

22So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. 23And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. 24Each man brought his present: articles of silver and gold, garments, [h]armor, spices, horses, and mules, at a set rate year by year.

25Solomon [i]had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem.

26[j]So he reigned over all the kings [k]from the River* to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. 27[l]The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedar trees [m]as abundant as the sycamores which are in the lowland. 28[n]And they brought horses to Solomon from Egypt and from all lands.

Death of Solomon

29[o]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of [p]Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of [q]Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? 30[r]Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. 31Then Solomon rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

The Revolt Against Rehoboam

10 And [a]Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. 2So it happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (he was in Egypt, [b]where he had fled from the presence of King Solomon), that Jeroboam returned from Egypt. 3Then they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4"Your father made our yoke heavy; now therefore, lighten the burdensome service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you."

This figure probably reflects the annual revenues of the entire nation through taxes.

9:14 kings . . . governors . . . brought. The gold and silver that the kings and governors brought to Solomon was tribute, a form of taxation on vassal states, not a voluntary gift.

9:15 shields of hammered gold. The targets or shields of beaten gold were for decorative or ceremonial purpose, not the armory. Gold was too expensive, too heavy, and too soft to use in battle.

9:26 to the land of the Philistines. Most of the kings of Israel had continuing trouble with the Philistines, even though they were able to subdue every other surrounding neighbor. David had some success against the Philistines (1 Chr. 18:1), and later Jehoshaphat managed to exact tribute from some of them (17:11).

9:29 Nathan the prophet. This is the same Nathan that rebuked David for his adultery and murder (2 Sam. 12:1–15). He was a confidant and counselor to both David and Solomon (1 Kin. 1:8–11). Ahijah . . . Iddo. Ahijah and Iddo were contemporaries who compiled the accounts of both Jeroboam and Rehoboam (12:15).

9:31 Rehoboam. Rehoboam was a son of Solomon by his wife Naamah of Ammon (12:13). He was 41 when he began to rule, so he must have been born during the period when Solomon ruled alongside David (1 Chr. 29:22–23).

10:1 Shechem. Rehoboam probably chose Shechem as the place to be crowned because a rift had begun to develop between the northern and southern tribes (1 Kin. 11:26–40).

10:4 Wisdom—Bravado is different than wisdom. Saying that one is going to be tough is different than being wise. Short of despotic force, no king can rule a people who do not trust him, and even if there is not outright rebellion, the resistance makes an unhappy nation. Like many other people, Rehoboam mistook conciliation for weakness, and lost his chance to have influence with most of the nation. It is important to remember that the outcome of this encounter was just what God wanted. Rehoboam was reaping the fruits of his father's (and his own) indifference to God.

5So he said to them, "Come back to me after three days." And the people departed.
6Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who stood before his father Solomon while he still lived, saying, "How do you advise me to answer these people?"
7And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to these people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be your servants forever."
8[c]But he rejected the advice which the elders had given him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"
10Then the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you should speak to the people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us'—thus you shall say to them: 'My little finger shall be thicker than my father's waist! 11And now, whereas my father put a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!'"*
12So [d]Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had directed, saying, "Come back to me the third day." 13Then the king answered them roughly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders, 14and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father* made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scourges!"* 15So the king did not listen to the people; [e]for the turn of events was from God, that the LORD might fulfill His [f]word, which He had spoken by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16Now when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king, saying:

"What share have we in David?
We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.
Every man to your tents, O Israel!
Now see to your own house, O David!"

So all Israel departed to their tents. 17But Rehoboam reigned over the children of Israel who dwelt in the cities of Judah.

18Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of revenue; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. Therefore King Rehoboam mounted his chariot in haste to flee to Jerusalem. 19[g]So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11 Now [a]when Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.
2But the word of the LORD came [b]to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 3"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, 4'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up or fight against your brethren! Let every man return to his house, for this thing is from Me."'" Therefore they obeyed the words of the LORD, and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies the Cities

5So Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. 6And he built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7Beth Zur, Sochoh, Adullam, 8Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, 10Zorah, Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and Benjamin, fortified cities. 11And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, oil, and wine. 12Also in every city he put shields and spears, and made them very strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

Priests and Levites Move to Judah

13And from all their territories the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him. 14For the Levites left [c]their common-lands and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem, for [d]Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests to the LORD. 15[e]Then he appointed for himself priests for the high places, for [f]the demons, and [g]the calf idols which he had made. 16[h]And after the Levites left,* those from all the tribes

10:15 the turn of events was from God. Human foolishness and decisions often achieve God's purposes. Solomon's defection from God late in his reign had already disqualified his descendants from ruling over all Israel (1 Kin. 11:9–13). Rehoboam initiated the split with his own foolish actions.
11:13 all their territories. Though Israel and Judah had split into two kingdoms, the priests and Levites of Israel sided with Judah. One reason for this was that they knew that Rehoboam was of the lineage of David, and therefore part of God's covenant promise to David. Another reason was that Jeroboam had established his own religious cult, which had no need for the true priests of God (1 Kin. 12:24–33).
11:16 came to Jerusalem. Once the legitimate religious leaders had left Israel, the worshipers of God in the northern kingdom could no longer worship in of Israel, such as set their heart to seek the LORD God of Israel, [i]came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. 17So they [j]strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong for three years, because they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

The Family of Rehoboam

18Then Rehoboam took for himself as wife Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of [k]Eliah the son of Jesse. 19And she bore him children: Jeush, Shamariah, and Zaham. 20After her he took [l]Maachah the granddaughter* of [m]Absalom; and she bore him [n]Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. 21Now Rehoboam loved Maachah the granddaughter of Absalom more than all his [o]wives and his concubines; for he took eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. 22And Rehoboam [p]appointed [q]Abijah the son of Maachah as chief, to be leader among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. 23He dealt wisely, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the territories of Judah and Benjamin, to every [r]fortified city; and he gave them provisions in abundance. He also sought many wives for them.

Egypt Attacks Judah

12 Now [a]it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom and had strengthened himself, that [b]he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel along with him. 2[c]And it happened in the fifth year of King Rehoboam that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD, 3with twelve hundred chariots, sixty thousand horsemen, and people without number who came with him out of Egypt—[d]the Lubim and the Sukkiim and the Ethiopians. 4And he took the fortified cities of Judah and came to Jerusalem.

5Then [e]Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the leaders of Judah, who were gathered together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD: 'You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

6So the leaders of Israel and the king [f]humbled themselves; and they said, [g]"The LORD is righteous."

7Now when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, [h]the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance. My wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. 8Nevertheless [i]they will be his servants, that they may distinguish [j]My service from the service of the kingdoms of the nations."

9[k]So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house; he took everything. He also carried away the gold shields which Solomon had [l]made. 10Then King Rehoboam made bronze shields in their place, and committed them [m]to the hands of the captains of the guard, who guarded the doorway of the king's house. 11And whenever the king entered the house of the LORD, the guard would go and bring them out; then they would take them back into the guardroom. 12When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely; and things also went well in Judah.

* 11:20 Literally daughter, but in the broader sense of granddaughter (compare 2 Chronicles 13:2)

good conscience, so they either made pilgrimages to Jerusalem, or moved there (1 Kin. 12:25–33). At the time of the Babylonian captivity (36:10) the northern kingdom was already captured by Assyria (2 Kin. 17), but there were many representatives from the northern tribes living in Judah.

11:22 Abijah. Rehoboam named his son Abijah as the next king to ensure a smooth succession following his death. Abijah probably served under or alongside Rehoboam, just as Solomon had served under David (1 Chr. 23:1).

12:2 Egypt. Egypt was beginning to recover from a long period of decline and wanted to reestablish control over Israel. God used their ambitions to discipline Rehoboam for abandoning the Lord.

12:3 Lubim . . . Sukkiim. The Lubim were the Libyans, and the Sukkiim were other desert tribes, probably from western Libya. Ethiopians. These famous warriors, sometimes referred to as Cushites, originated in the lands south of Egypt.

12:6 Righteousness—The king and princes of Judah recognized that the Lord was righteous, even in leaving them in the hands of Shishak. What they did not know, was the difference between being the "vassal" of the righteous Lord, and the vassal of the unrighteous Shishak. Like the Israelites, we count on the righteousness and graciousness of the Lord toward us. It is good to know that He is unfailing in His lovingkindness, but it is not something to presume upon, as if our conforming to His image does not really matter.

12:9 took away the treasures. Judah was now a vassal state of Egypt.

The End of Rehoboam's Reign

13 Thus King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned. Now [n]Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [o]the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah, an [p]Ammonitess.
14 And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek the LORD.

15 The acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, [q]and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? [r]And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. 16 So Rehoboam rested with his fathers, and was buried in the City of David. Then [s]Abijah* his son reigned in his place.

Abijah Reigns in Judah

13 In [a]the eighteenth year of King Jer-oboam, Abijah became king over [b]Judah. 2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Michaiah* the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. 3 Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant warriors, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty men of valor.

4 Then Abijah stood on Mount [c]Zemara-im, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, and said, "Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel: 5 Should you not know that the LORD God of Israel [d]gave the dominion over Israel to David forever, to him and his sons, [e]by a covenant of salt? 6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and [f]rebelled against his lord. 7 Then [g]worthless rogues gathered to him, and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [h]young and inexperienced and could not withstand them. 8 And now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and with you are the gold calves which Jer-oboam [i]made for you as gods. 9 [j]Have you not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of other lands, [k]so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams may be a priest of [l]things that are not gods? 10 But as for us, the LORD is our [m]God, and we have not forsaken Him;
and the priests who minister to the LORD are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites at- tend to their duties. 11 [n]And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt sacrifices and sweet incense;
they also set the [o]showbread in order on the pure gold table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps [p]to burn every evening;
for we keep the command of the LORD our God, but you have forsaken Him. 12 Now look, God Himself is with us as our [q]head, [r]and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Israel, do not fight against the LORD God of your fathers, for you shall not prosper!"

13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to go around behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. 14 And when Judah looked around, to their surprise the battle line was at both front and rear; and they [s]cried out to the LORD, and the priests sounded the

* 12:16 Spelled Abijam in 1 Kings 14:31
* 13:2 Spelled Maachah in 11:20, 21 and 1 Kings 15:2

13:2 His mother's name was Michaiah. Michaiah is a variation of "Maachah." She is the daughter of "Uriel of Gibeah" in this passage, as well as the "daughter of Absalom" (11:21). It is thought that she was the granddaughter of Absalom, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah and Absalom's daughter Tamar (2 Sam. 14:27). The terms "father, mother, son, daughter" were often used in talking of ancestors instead of generations. Jesus is referred to as the "Son of David" (Matt. 9:27; 15:22; 22:42), which is clearly a reference to His ancestry.

13:5 covenant of salt. Salt was a preservative and symbolized durability, so a covenant of salt was one that would not be broken. Sometimes covenant makers each took a pinch of salt and mixed it, to show that just as the salt could not be separated, so the promise could not be set aside.

13:6 Yet Jeroboam. The throne had been promised to David's line forever, yet the promise was contingent on the faithfulness of his descendants (7:18–19). Because Solomon had turned from God, part of the kingdom was taken from him, and Jeroboam was chosen by God through the prophet Ahijah to rule over the part of the kingdom that was taken from Solomon (10:2). So far this story mirrors the events in the lives of Saul and David. But unlike David, Jeroboam did not wait for the Lord to deliver the promised kingdom to him. Jeroboam took his place by force, and immediately turned from God. His name became a byword, synonymous with "bad king." (See also 1 Kin. 11–14.)

13:7 when Rehoboam was young and inexperienced. Abijah's version of the nation's division put his father in a relatively good light. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king (12:13).

trumpets. 15Then the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened that God [t]struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. 16And the children of Israel fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hand. 17Then Abijah and his people struck them with a great slaughter; so five hundred thousand choice men of Israel fell slain. 18Thus the children of Israel were subdued at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, [u]because they relied on the LORD God of their fathers.

19And Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities from him: Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages, and [v]Ephrain* with its villages. 20So Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and the LORD [w]struck him, and [x]he died.

21But Abijah grew mighty, married fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. 22Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways, and his sayings are written in [y]the annals of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abijah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then [a]Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa Reigns in Judah

2Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God, 3for he removed the altars of the foreign gods and [b]the high places, and [c]broke down the sacred pillars [d]and cut down the wooden images. 4He commanded Judah to [e]seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to observe the law and the commandment. 5He also removed the high places and the incense altars from all the cities of Judah, and the kingdom was quiet under him. 6And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest; he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him [f]rest. 7Therefore he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought Him, and He has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered. 8And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand from Judah who carried shields and spears, and from Benjamin two hundred and eighty thousand men who carried shields and drew [g]bows; all these were mighty men of [h]valor.

9[i]Then Zerah the Ethiopian came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to [j]Mareshah. 10So Asa went out against him, and they set the troops in battle array in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. 11And Asa [k]cried out to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is [l]nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O LORD our God, for we rest on You, and [m]in Your name we go against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!"

12So the LORD [n]struck the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah, and the Ethiopians fled. 13And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to [o]Gerar. So the Ethiopians were overthrown, and they could not recover, for they were broken before the LORD and His army. And they carried away very much spoil. 14Then they defeated all the cities around Gerar, for [p]the fear of the LORD came upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them. 15They also attacked the livestock enclosures, and carried off sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

The Reforms of Asa

15 Now [a]the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded. 2And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him:

* 13:19 Or Ephron

14:2–4 Faithfulness—King Asa chose to be faithful to God as he began his reign. His people enjoyed ten years of peace because of Asa's obedience. For each one of us there is a peace that comes with faithfulness to God. This does not necessarily mean that outer circumstances are uncomplicated, but in our hearts the peace of God can still reign. Like Asa, our actions affect the lives of those around us. We are created to have an eternal relationship with God, and that begins in the life of faith, believing that He is who He says He is and that we need Him. "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (Heb. 11:1).

14:3 pillars . . . images. Sacred pillars were stone posts associated with Canaanite fertility rites. Asherah was a Canaanite goddess associated with Baal worship. Asherim were the poles, trees, or groves that were symbolic parts of Asherah worship.

14:9 Zerah the Ethiopian. Since Egypt was strong at this time (12:3) and fully in control of its own territory, it is likely that Zerah and his large army were mercenaries of the Egyptian king Osorkon I (914–874 B.C.), successor of Shishak. Mareshah. Mareshah was one of Asa's important fortified cities, about 25 miles southwest of Jerusalem (11:8). It was near the Via Maris, the coastal highway connecting Egypt and Canaan, making it strategically important.

14:13 Gerar. Gerar was at the frontier between Egypt and Canaan and might have been in Egyptian territory at this time.

"Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. [b]The LORD is with you while you are with Him. [c]If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if [d]you forsake Him, He will forsake you. 3[e]For a long time Israel has been without the true God, without a [f]teaching priest, and without [g]law; 4but [h]when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them. 5And in those times there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, but great turmoil was on all the inhabitants of the lands. 6[i]So nation was destroyed by nation, and city by city, for God troubled them with every adversity. 7But you, be strong and do not let your hands be weak, for your work shall be rewarded!"

8And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded* the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities [j]which he had taken in the mountains of Ephraim; and he restored the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD. 9Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and [k]those who dwelt with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for they came over to him in great numbers from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

18He also brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated and that he himself had dedicated: silver and gold and utensils. 19And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Asa's Treaty with Syria

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, [a]Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah and built Ramah, [b]that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. 2Then Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-Hadad king of Syria, who dwelt in Damascus, saying, 3"Let there be a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold; come, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

4So Ben-Hadad heeded King Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel. They attacked Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali. 5Now it happened, when Baasha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work. 6Then King Asa took all Judah, and they carried away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Baasha had used for building; and with them he built Geba and Mizpah.

Hanani's Message to Asa

7And at that time [c]Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said to him: [d]"Because you have relied on the king of Syria, and have not relied on the LORD your God,

15:10 third month. This quite likely locates this festival at the time of the firstfruits, the Feast of Pentecost (Lev. 23:15–21; Num. 28:26–31).

15:16 Maachah. It appears that "mother" is used in the sense of ancestress; Maachah was the mother of Asa's father, Abijah (13:2). Still, Asa demoted her from her position as queen mother because she set up pagan idols—a courageous and delicate task for anyone, even a king.

15:17 Perseverance—Asa started his reign with a determination to serve the Lord and to abolish idol worship. Oded the prophet spurred him on to finish the job, to get rid of idols in his land and the land just captured. Paul talks about fighting the good fight, finishing the course, keeping the faith (2 Tim. 4:7). We all need people like Oded in our lives, who encourage us to keep on being faithful. In the same manner, we need to encourage others to persevere to the end.

16:6 Geba and Mizpah. Geba was just east of Ramah, and Mizpah was between Ramah and Bethel. Fortifying these two cities effectively stopped Israel from rebuilding Ramah because it was now between two of Asa's fortresses.

16:7–9 Hanani the seer. Hanani was probably the therefore the army of the king of Syria has escaped from your hand. 8 Were [e]the Ethiopians and [f]the Lubim not a huge army with very many chariots and horsemen? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your [g]hand. 9 [h]For the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is loyal to Him. In this [i]you have done foolishly; therefore from now on [j]you shall have wars." 10 Then Asa was angry with the seer, and [k]put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

Illness and Death of Asa

11 [l]Note that the acts of Asa, first and last, are indeed written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his malady was severe; yet in his disease he [m]did not seek the LORD, but the physicians.

13 [n]So Asa rested with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign. 14 They buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of David; and they laid him in the bed which was filled [o]with spices and various ingredients prepared in a mixture of ointments. They made [p]a very great burning for him.

Jehoshaphat Reigns in Judah

17 Then [a]Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. 2 And he placed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of [b]Judah and in the cities of Ephraim [c]which Asa his father had taken. 3 Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the former ways of his father David; he did not seek the Baals, 4 but sought the God* of his father, and walked in His commandments and not according to [d]the acts of Israel. 5 Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah [e]gave presents to Jehoshaphat, [f]and he had riches and honor in abundance. 6 And his heart took delight in the ways of the LORD; moreover [g]he removed the high places and wooden images from Judah.

7 Also in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Michaiah, [h]to teach in the cities of Judah. 8 And with them he sent Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tobadonijah—the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. 9 [i]So they taught in Judah, and had the Book of the Law of the LORD with them; they went throughout all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

10 And [j]the fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they did not make war against Jehoshaphat. 11 Also some of the Philistines [k]brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver as tribute; and the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

12 So Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful, and he built fortresses and storage cities in Judah. 13 He had much property in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.

14 These are their numbers, according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand mighty men of valor; 15 and next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and eighty thousand; 16 and next to him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, [l]who willingly offered himself to the LORD, and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. 17 Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield; 18 and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for war. 19 These served the king, besides [m]those the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

17:13–18 men of war, mighty men of valor. Jehoshaphat's men were grouped into three divisions of Judeans with a total number of 780,000 and two divisions of Benjamites numbering 380,000. The Hebrew word for thousand can mean family, or clan, (Judg. 6:15; 1 Sam. 10:19; Mic. 5:2). In that case, the 780,000 would be 780 companies, and the 380,000 would be 380 companies, and the total warriors would be nearer to 78,000 and 38,000.

Samaria; and Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and the people who were with him, and persuaded him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. 3So Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?"

And he answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will be with you in the war."

4Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [e]"Please inquire for the word of the LORD today."

5Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"

So they said, "Go up, for God will deliver it into the king's hand."

6But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the LORD here, that we may inquire of [f]Him?"*

7So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!"

8Then the king of Israel called one of his officers and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imla quickly!"

9The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah, clothed in their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. 10Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made [g]horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.'"

11And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

12Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Therefore please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement."

13And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, [h]whatever my God says, that I will speak."

14Then he came to the king; and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"

And he said, "Go and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand!"

15So the king said to him, "How many times shall I make you swear that you tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

16Then he said, "I saw all Israel [i]scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no [j]shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.'"

17And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

18Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His [k]throne, and all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and His left. 19And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab king of Israel to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. 20Then a [l]spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' 21So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him and also prevail; go out and do so.' 22Therefore look! [m]The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

23Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near and [n]struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the spirit from the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

24And Micaiah said, "Indeed you shall see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide!"

18:5 prophets. These prophets were probably prophets of Baal or Ashera (1 Kin. 18:19), the Canaanite gods worshiped by Ahab's wife Jezebel.

18:11 prophesied. The true prophet's words come directly from God, and they show God's thoughts, and sometimes His plans. These false prophets were speaking authoritatively, probably accompanied with such ravings and demonstrations as would show their power and ability to see the future (1 Kin. 18:26–29).

18:15 nothing but the truth. Ahab knew from experience that his prophets told him what they thought he wanted to hear, not the truth. Because their prophecies agreed with Micaiah's he knew that Micaiah must have been mocking when he prophesied success.

18:22 lying spirit. The spirits who stood before the Lord were both angels and demons, none of whom could act without God's permission. God allowed this spirit to work in the mouths of the false prophets to accomplish His own purposes of judgment (1 Chr. 21:1; Job 1).

27 But Micaiah said, "If you ever return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by [p]me." And he said, "Take heed, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.
29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will [q]disguise myself and go into battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they went into battle.
30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots who were with him, saying, "Fight with no one small or great, but only with the king of Israel."
31 So it was, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they surrounded him to attack; but Jehoshaphat [r]cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God diverted them from him.
32 For so it was, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.
33 Now a certain man drew a bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of his armor. So he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."
34 The battle increased that day, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Syrians until evening; and about the time of sunset he died.

19 Then Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned safely to his house in Jerusalem.
2 And Jehu the son of Hanani [a]the seer went out to meet him, and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and [b]love those who hate the LORD? Therefore the [c]wrath of the LORD is upon you.
3 Nevertheless [d]good things are found in you, in that you have removed the wooden images from the land, and have [e]prepared your heart to seek God."

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

4 So Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the mountains of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their [f]fathers.
5 Then he set [g]judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,
6 and said to the judges, "Take heed to what you are doing, for [h]you do not judge for man but for the LORD, [i]who is with you in the judgment.
7 Now therefore, let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take care and do it, for [j]there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, no [k]partiality, nor taking of bribes."
8 Moreover in Jerusalem, for the judgment of the LORD and for controversies, Jehoshaphat [l]appointed some of the Levites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Israel, when they returned to Jerusalem.* 9 And he commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall act [m]in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a loyal heart:
10 [n]Whatever case comes to you from your brethren who dwell in their cities, whether of bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or ordinances, you shall warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and [o]wrath come upon [p]you and your brethren. Do this, and you will not be guilty.
11 And take notice: [q]Amariah the chief priest is over you [r]in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also the Levites will be officials before you. Behave courageously, and the LORD will be [s]with the good."

Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir Defeated

20 It happened after this that the people of [a]Moab with the people of [b]Ammon, and others with them besides the [c]Ammonites,* came to battle against Jehoshaphat.
2 Then some came and told Jehoshaphat, saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the 18:33 at random. From the human perspective, this was a chance shot. From God's perspective, chance had no part in it. Ahab's disguise could not foil God's plan.

19:3 Repentance—Repentance is never by word only. It is always followed by actions which show that the attitude of repentance is really present. Part of repentance is acknowledging that God is right and that He knows how we should live. It was the change in Jehoshaphat's actions that proved his change of heart.

19:4 mountains of Ephraim. The mountains of Ephraim became the northern border of Judah after the division into two kingdoms. This is another way of saying that the whole country was brought back to the Lord.

sea, from Syria;* and they are [d]in Hazazon Tamar" (which is [e]En Gedi). 3And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to [f]seek the LORD, and [g]proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. 4So Judah gathered together to ask [h]help from the LORD; and from all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5Then Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, 6and said: "O LORD God of our fathers, are You not [i]God in heaven, and [j]do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and [k]in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You? 7*Are* You not [l]our God, who [m]drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham [n]Your friend forever? 8And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying, 9[o]'If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your [p]name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.' 10And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom You [q]would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but [r]they turned from them and did not destroy them— 11here they are, rewarding us [s]by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit. 12O our God, will You not [t]judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but [u]our eyes are upon You."

14Then [v]the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly. 15And he said, "Listen, all you of Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem, and you, King Jehoshaphat! Thus says the LORD to you: [w]'Do not be afraid nor dismayed because of this great multitude, [x]for the battle is not yours, but God's. 16Tomorrow go down against them. They will surely come up by the Ascent of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the brook before the Wilderness of Jeruel. 17[y]You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the LORD, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!' Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, [z]for the LORD is with you."

18And Jehoshaphat [a]bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the LORD, worshiping the LORD. 19Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with voices loud and high.

20So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: [b]Believe in the LORD your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper." 21And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, [c]and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying:

[d]"Praise the LORD,
[e]For His mercy endures forever."*

22Now when they began to sing and to praise, [f]the LORD set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated. 23For the people of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to utterly kill and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, [g]they helped to destroy one another.

24So when Judah came to a place overlooking the wilderness, they looked toward the multitude; and there were their dead bodies, fallen on the earth. No one had escaped.

25When Jehoshaphat and his people

20:14 Jahaziel. As a member of the Asaph division of the Levites (1 Chr. 6:39; 15:17–19; 16:7) Jahaziel was probably a musician. The spiritual work of the musicians was closely linked with prophecy (1 Chr. 25:1).

20:19 Kohathites . . . Korahites. The Kohathites were members of the Levitical division of Heman the singer (1 Chr. 6:33). The Korahites were a subdivision of the Kohathites (1 Chr. 6:37,39) who were employed as gatekeepers to the temple.

20:21 Thankfulness—More necessary than guns for soldiers, more important than strategy, is the giving of thanks to God. Judah faced a literal, physical battle involving great odds. They sent their singers out first, singing praises to God and thanking Him for His everlasting lovingkindness. Is this the way we face battles in our lives? Do we first thank God for who He is, what He has done, and for His faithfulness to us?

came to take away their spoil, they found among them an abundance of valuables on the dead bodies,* and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away; and they were three days gathering the spoil because there was so much. 26And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Berachah, for there they blessed the LORD; therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Berachah* until this day. 27Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy, for the LORD had [h]made them rejoice over their enemies. 28So they came to Jerusalem, with stringed instruments and harps and trumpets, to the house of the LORD. 29And [i]the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. 30Then the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet, for his [j]God gave him rest all around.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

31[k]So Jehoshaphat was king over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. 32And he walked in the way of his father [l]Asa, and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. 33Nevertheless [m]the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not [n]directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.

34Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, indeed they are written in the book of Jehu the son of Hanani, [o]which is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35After this [p]Jehoshaphat king of Judah allied himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, [q]who acted very [r]wickedly. 36And he allied himself with him [s]to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. 37But Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." [t]Then the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to go [u]to Tarshish.

Jehoram Reigns in Judah

21 And [a]Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Jehoram his son reigned in his place. 2He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azaryahu, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel. 3Their father gave them great gifts of silver and gold and precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

4Now when Jehoram was established over the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the princes of Israel.

5[b]Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. 6And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for he had the daughter of [c]Ahab as a wife; and he did evil in the sight of the LORD. 7Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the [d]covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his [e]sons forever.

8[f]In his days Edom revolted against Judah's authority, and made a king over themselves. 9So Jehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and attacked the Edomites who had surrounded him and the captains of the chariots. 10Thus Edom has been in revolt against Judah's authority to this day. At that time Libnah revolted against his rule, because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers. 11Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to [g]commit harlotry, and led Judah astray.

* 20:25 A few Hebrew manuscripts, Old Latin, and Vulgate read garments; Septuagint reads armor.
* 20:26 Literally Blessing

20:26 Valley of Berachah. The Judeans renamed Ziz "the Valley of Berachah," meaning "blessing," to remind themselves of God's goodness.

20:34 Jehu. The son of the prophet Hanani, Jehu was a prophet himself (19:2). He is mentioned in 1 Kings in connection with the kings of Israel, and was therefore a good source of information about both the northern and southern kingdoms.

20:35 Ahaziah. Ahaziah was the son of Ahab. He succeeded his father and reigned for two years (1 Kin. 22:51). Ahaziah was injured in a fall and turned to the Philistine gods rather than to the Lord for healing (2 Kin. 1:2).

21:11 commit harlotry. Israel's relationship with God was like a marriage relationship. Worship of other gods was a violation in the same way that prostitution violates a marriage. It not only says that the true husband is not worthy of respect, it is a rejection of the whole idea of the faithfulness and care of the true husband.

12 And a letter came to him from Elijah
the prophet, saying,

Thus says the LORD God of your father
David:
Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, 13 but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have [h]made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to [i]play the harlot like the [j]harlotry of the house of Ahab, and also have [k]killed your brothers, those of your father's household, who were better than yourself, 14 behold, the LORD will strike your people with a serious affliction—your children, your wives, and all your possessions; 15 and you will become very sick with a [l]disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out by reason of the sickness, day by day.

16 Moreover the [m]LORD [n]stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the [o]Arabians who were near the Ethiopians. 17 And they came up into Judah and invaded it, and carried away all the possessions that were found in the king's house, and also [p]his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Jehoahaz,* the youngest of his sons.

18 After all this the LORD struck him [q]in his intestines with an incurable disease.
19 Then it happened in the course of time, after the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness;
so he died in severe pain. And his people made no burning for him, like [r]the burning for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem eight years and, to no one's sorrow, departed. However they buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah Reigns in Judah

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made [a]Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place, for the raiders who came with the [b]Arabians into the camp had killed all the [c]older sons. So Ahazi-ah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, reigned. 2 Ahaziah was forty-two* years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was [d]Athaliah the granddaughter of Omri. 3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab, for his mother advised him to do wickedly. 4 Therefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD, like the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.
5 He also followed their advice, and went with Jehoram* the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram. 6 [e]Then he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah* the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 His going to Joram [f]was God's occasion for Ahaziah's downfall; for when he arrived, [g]he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, [h]whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
8 And it happened, when Jehu was [i]executing judgment on the house of Ahab, and [j]found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers who served Ahaziah, that he killed them. 9 [k]Then he searched for Ahaziah; and they caught him (he was hiding in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu.
When they had killed him, they buried him, "because," they said, "he is the son of [l]Jehoshaphat, who [m]sought the LORD with all his heart."

So the house of Ahaziah had no one to assume power over the kingdom.

* 21:17 Elsewhere called Ahaziah (compare 2 Chronicles 22:1) * 22:2 Or twenty-two (compare 2 Kings 8:26) * 22:5 Also spelled Joram (compare verses 5 and 7; 2 Kings 8:28; and elsewhere) * 22:6 Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Vulgate, and 2 Kings 8:29 read Ahaziah.

21:12 Elijah the prophet. Though 1 and 2 Kings pay considerable attention to Elijah (1 Kin. 17:1—2 Kin. 2:18), the books of Chronicles mention him only here. He had been taken up into heaven after King Ahaziah's death (2 Kin. 1:17; 2:1).

21:20 tombs of the kings. These tombs were a royal cemetery in Jerusalem where most of the kings of David's dynasty were buried. (Asa was an exception, 16:14.)

22:1 Ahaziah. Ahaziah of Judah was the namesake of his uncle from Israel. His father Jehoram had married a sister of Ahab's son Ahaziah (1 Kin. 22:40; 2 Kin. 8:18).

22:5 Jehoram the son of Ahab. Jehoram succeeded his brother Ahaziah because Ahaziah had no son of his own (2 Kin. 1:17). He is also called Joram, a short form of Jehoram, to distinguish him from his brother-in-law Jehoram who was king of Judah. Hazael. Hazael was the king of Damascus who came to power after assassinating Ben-Hadad (2 Kin. 8:7–15). Elijah had prophesied that this would come about and had even commissioned Elisha to anoint Hazael to his new position (1 Kin. 19:15). Elisha wept after he had anointed Hazael, for he knew that Hazael would cruelly kill many Israelites. Ramoth-Gilead. Ahab and Jehoshaphat had tried to recover this city from Aramean domination 12 years earlier (18:3).

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

10 [n]Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal heirs of the house of Judah. 11But Jehoshabeath,* the daughter of the king, took [o]Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah so that she did not kill him. 12And he was hidden with them in the house of God for six years, while Atha-liah reigned over the land.

Joash Crowned King of Judah

23 In [a]the seventh year [b]Jehoiada strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the captains of hundreds:
Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of [c]Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri. 2And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah, and the [d]chief fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3Then all the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has [e]said of the sons of David. 4This is what you shall do: One-third of you [f]entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Levites, shall be keeping watch over the doors; 5one-third shall be at the king's house; and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.
6But let no one come into the house of the LORD except the priests and [g]those of the Levites who serve. They may go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. 7And the Levites shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. You are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out."

8So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to be on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest had not dismissed [h]the divisions. 9And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and the large and small [i]shields which had belonged to King David, that were in the temple of God. 10Then he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and by the temple, all around the king. 11And they brought out the king's son, put the crown on him, [j]gave him the Testimony,* and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, "Long live the king!"

Death of Athaliah

12Now when [k]Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people in the temple of the LORD. 13*When* she looked, there was the king standing by his pillar at the entrance; and the leaders and the trumpeters were by the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with musical instruments, and [l]those who led in praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, [m]"Treason! Treason!"

14And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Take her outside under guard, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not kill her in the house of
the LORD."

15So they seized her; and she went by way of the entrance [n]of the Horse Gate into the king's house, and they killed her there.

16Then Jehoiada made a [o]covenant between himself, the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people. 17And all the people went to the temple* of Baal, and tore it down. They broke in pieces its altars and images, and [p]killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. 18Also Jehoiada

22:10 the royal heirs. Most of the royal heirs that Athaliah murdered were her own grandchildren. She wanted to stamp out the Davidic dynasty and bring Judah back under Israelite control. Satan had been diligent in his attempts to thwart the plans of God, and because the Davidic line was directly linked to the Messiah, this would have been a strategic move. It is not unlike the murder of the baby boys by Herod at the time of Jesus' birth (Matt. 2:10–18).

23:3 Unity—Unity is only unity when we are "the same" on issues of the truth. The removal of Athaliah could not have occurred without the cooperation and teamwork of everyone. Knowing that they were doing God's will gave them great courage.

23:11 the Testimony. The Testimony was a copy of the law of Moses, part of which outlined the king's covenant privileges and duties (Deut. 17:18–20; 1 Chr. 29:19). anointed him. Anointing was a sign and seal of the king's appointment by God (1 Sam. 16:3; 1 Kin. 1:39).

appointed the oversight of the house of the LORD to the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had [q]assigned in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the [r]Law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was established by David. 19And he set the [s]gatekeepers at the gates of the house of the LORD, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

20[t]Then he took the captains of hundreds, the nobles, the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the house of the LORD; and they went through the Upper Gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. 21So all the people of the land rejoiced; and the city was quiet, for they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

24 Joash [a]was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. 2Joash [b]did what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. 3And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

4Now it happened after this that Joash set his heart on repairing the house of the LORD. 5Then he gathered the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and [c]gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that you do it quickly."

However the Levites did not do it quickly. 6[d]So the king called Jehoiada the chief priest, and said to him, "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of [e]Moses the servant of the LORD and of the assembly of Israel, for the [f]tabernacle of witness?" 7For [g]the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken into the house of God, and had also presented all the [h]dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals.

8Then at the king's command [i]they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD. 9And they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to the LORD [j]the collection that Moses the servant of God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness. 10Then all the leaders and all the people rejoiced, brought their contributions, and put them into the chest until all had given. 11So it was, at that time, when the chest was brought to the king's official by the hand of the Levites, and [k]when they saw that there was much money, that the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12The king and Jehoiada gave it to those who did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to [l]repair the house of the LORD, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to restore the house of the LORD. 13So the workmen labored, and the work was completed by them; they restored the house of God to its original condition and reinforced it. 14When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; [m]they made from it articles for the house of the LORD, articles for serving and offering, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

Apostasy of Joash

15But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was one hundred and thirty years old when he died. 16And they buried him in the City of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.

17Now after the death of Jehoiada the leaders of Judah came and bowed down to the king. And the king listened to them. 18Therefore they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served [n]wooden images and idols; and [o]wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem because of their trespass. 19Yet He [p]sent prophets to them, to bring them back to the LORD; and they testified against them, but they would not listen.

20Then the Spirit of God came upon

24:7 dedicated things. The dedicated things included gold, silver, and other valuables collected as tribute from defeated enemies and presented to God as spoils of war, acknowledging that the victory was His and for His purposes (2 Sam. 8:10–11).

24:14 all the days of Jehoiada. As long as Jehoiada remained alive, Judah enjoyed a revival of the true worship of God.

24:20–21 Zechariah the son of Jehoiada. This priest is not the prophet of the same name who wrote the Book of Zechariah, nor is he the Zechariah mentioned by Jesus (Matt. 23:35). Zechariah, whose father rescued the young Joash, may even have been raised like a brother to King Joash. The "Zechariah son of Berechiah," that Jesus refers to was probably the prophet who wrote the Book of Zechariah (Zech. 1:7), although the reference to his death is found only in the Gospels.

[q]Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God: [r]'Why do you transgress the commandments of the LORD, so that you cannot prosper? [s]Because you have forsaken the LORD, He also has forsaken you.'" 21So they conspired against him, and at the command of the king they [t]stoned him with stones in the court of the house of the LORD. 22Thus Joash the king did not remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son; and as he died, he said, "The LORD look on it, and [u]repay!"

Death of Joash

23So it happened in the spring of the year that [v]the army of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the leaders of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. 24For the army of the Syrians [w]came with a small company of men; but the LORD [x]delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they [y]executed judgment against Joash. 25And when they had withdrawn from him (for they left him severely wounded), [z]his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons* of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed. So he died. And they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

26These are the ones who conspired against him: Zabad* the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith* the Moabitess. 27Now concerning his sons, and [a]the many oracles about him, and the repairing of the house of God, indeed they are written in the annals of the book of the kings. [b]Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Amaziah Reigns in Judah

25 Amaziah [a]was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. 2And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, [b]but not with a loyal heart.

3[c]Now it happened, as soon as the kingdom was established for him, that he executed his servants who had murdered his father the king. 4However he did not execute their children, but did as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, [d]"The fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall the children be put to death for their fathers; but a person shall die for his own sin."*

The War Against Edom

5Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together and set over them captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, according to their fathers' houses, throughout all Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them [e]from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go to war, who could handle spear and shield. 6He also hired one hundred thousand mighty men of valor from Israel for one hundred talents of silver. 7But a [f]man of God came to him, saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim. 8But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has [g]power to help and to overthrow."

9Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the troops of Israel?"

And the man of God answered, [h]"The LORD is able to give you much more than this." 10So Amaziah discharged the troops that had come to him from Ephraim, to go back home. Therefore their anger was greatly aroused against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

24:22 Martyrs—Zechariah is one of the pre-Christian martyrs who gave his life for his faith in God. Some of these faithful ones are listed in Hebrews 11; some are known only to God. Jesus predicted that those killed for their faith would actually increase in the last days (Matt. 10:21; 24:9) and during the coming great tribulation, the ranks of the martyrs will swell to unprecedented size (Rev. 7:14). The "offense" of martyrs is their relationship with God; their comfort is that God knows, and He keeps them faithful to the end (2 Tim. 4:8).

24:24 execution judgment. God arranged for Israel's defeat and Joash's death in fulfillment of Zechariah's dying cry for justice (v. 22). Judgment for evil does not always come so quickly, but it is just as inevitable, no matter how long it is delayed.

25:7 do not let the army of Israel go with you. As long as Israel was in rebellion against God, He would not bless any alliance with them. Ephraim. Ephraim was the dominant tribe in Israel, so the whole kingdom was sometimes referred to as Ephraim (Hos. 4:15–19).

11 Then Amaziah strengthened himself, and leading his people, he went to [i]the Valley of Salt and killed ten thousand of the people of Seir. 12 Also the children of Judah took captive ten thousand alive, brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were dashed in pieces.
13 But as for the soldiers of the army which Amaziah had discharged, so that they would not go with him to battle, they raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth Horon, killed three thousand in them, and took much spoil.
14 Now it was so, after Amaziah came from the slaughter of the Edomites, that [j]he brought the gods of the people of Seir, set them up to be [k]his gods, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them. 15 Therefore the anger of the LORD was aroused against Amaziah, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, "Why have you sought [l]the gods of the people, which [m]could not rescue their own people from your hand?"
16 So it was, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you the king's counselor? Cease! Why should you be killed?"
Then the prophet ceased, and said, "I know that God has [n]determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not heeded my advice."

Israel Defeats Judah

17 Now [o]Amaziah king of Judah asked advice and sent to Joash* the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying,
"Come, let us face one another in battle."
18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife'; and a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. 19 Indeed you say that you have defeated the Edomites, and your heart is lifted up to [p]boast. Stay at home now; why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall—you and Judah with you?" 20 But Amaziah would not heed, for [q]it came from God, that He might give them into the hand of their enemies, because they [r]sought the gods of Edom. 21 So Joash king of Israel went out; and he and Amaziah king of Judah faced one another at [s]Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
22 And Judah was defeated by Israel, and every man fled to his tent. 23 Then Joash the king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of [t]Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh; and he brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate—four hundred cubits.
24 And he took all the gold and silver, all the articles that were found in the house of God with [u]Obed-Edom, the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

Death of Amaziah

25 [v]Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived fifteen years after the death of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel.
26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, indeed are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
27 After the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish and killed him there. 28 Then they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of Judah.

Uzziah Reigns in Judah

26 Now all the people of Judah took Uzziah,* who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. 2 He built Elath* and restored it to Judah, after the king rested with his fathers.
3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. 4 And he did what

25:11 Valley of Salt. This valley was probably in the desert south of the Dead Sea. people of Seir. These people were Edomites, descendants of Esau.
25:18 thistle . . . cedar. The thistle represents Amaziah, and the cedar, Joash. It was arrogant for the weak, insignificant Amaziah to suppose that he could defeat Joash. wild beast. The wild beast that tramples the thistle represents the war that Amaziah was so eager to pursue.
25:19 Vanity—Those who reject God's counsel in favor of their own way are taking counsel against Him; their devisings are in vain and will come to nothing (Ps. 2:12). Refusing God's counsel, though seeking counsel from others, Amaziah decided to challenge the king of Israel to war (v. 17). It is hard to imagine how he thought he could succeed under such circumstances. One of the delusions that goes with rejection of God is a false confidence in ones' own powers of understanding.
25:27 Lachish. The fact that Amaziah reached the city of Lachish on the border with Philistia, some 25 miles from Jerusalem, suggests that he may have been seeking sanctuary among the Philistines.
26:2 Elath. On the eastern arm of the Red Sea, Elath was technically in Edomite territory (8:17), but it was regularly under Israel or Judah throughout Old Testament times (21:8–10).

was [a]right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. 5[b]He sought God in the days of Zechariah, who [c]had understanding in the visions* of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him [d]prosper.

6Now he went out and [e]made war against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities around Ashdod and among the Philistines. 7God helped him against [f]the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur Baal, and against the Meunites. 8Also the Ammonites [g]brought tribute to Uzziah. His fame spread as far as the entrance of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

9And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the [h]Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress of the wall; then he fortified them. 10Also he built towers in the desert. He dug many wells, for he had much livestock, both in the lowlands and in the plains; he also had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Carmel, for he loved the soil.

11Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men who went out to war by companies, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. 12The total number of chief officers* of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred. 13And under their authority was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. 14Then Uzziah prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slings to cast stones. 15And he made devices in Jerusalem, invented by [i]skillful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he was marvelously helped till he became strong.

The Penalty for Uzziah's Pride

16But [j]when he was strong his heart was [k]lifted up, to his destruction, for he transgressed against the LORD his God [l]by entering the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. 17So [m]Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD—valiant men. 18And they withstood King Uzziah, and said to him, "It [n]is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the [o]priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have trespassed! You shall have no honor from the LORD God."

19Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, [p]leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the incense altar. 20And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and there, on his forehead, he was leprous; so they thrust him out of that place. Indeed he also [q]hurried to get out, because the LORD had struck him.

21[r]King Uzziah was a leper until the day of his death. He dwelt in an [s]isolated house, because he was a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from first to last, [t]the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz wrote. 23[u]So Uzziah rested with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings, for they said, "He is a leper." Then Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Jotham Reigns in Judah

27 Jotham [a]was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah* the daughter of Zadok. 2And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done (although he did not enter the temple of the LORD). But still [b]the people acted corruptly.

* 26:5 Several Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Arabic read fear.
* 26:12 Literally chief fathers * 27:1 Spelled Jerusha in 2 Kings 15:33

26:15 devices. This is one of the earliest references to catapults, which seem to have been defensive weapons, since their users were on the towers and in the corners.

26:19 leprosy. Leprosy was any kind of serious skin condition (Lev. 13:1—14:32). Today the term "leprosy" refers technically only to Hansen's disease. The law viewed leprosy as a breach of God's own holiness; it was a graphic symbol of defilement.

26:22 Isaiah. Isaiah the prophet witnessed the last years of Uzziah, but very little about Uzziah is included in the Book of Isaiah. The books of Kings and Chronicles frequently refer to further details written about the kings, but they were not part of the Scripture, so we know very little about these records.

27:1 sixteen years. Jotham's sixteen years began eleven years before Uzziah died. This suggests that Uzziah had leprosy for more than a decade before he died.

And the people of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The people of Ammon paid this to him in the second and third years also. 6So Jotham became mighty, [e]because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars and his ways, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. 9[f]So Jotham rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Then [g]Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz Reigns in Judah

28 Ahaz [a]was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and he did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD, as his father David had done. 2For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made [b]molded images for [c]the Baals. 3He burned incense in [d]the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned [e]his children in the [f]fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had [g]cast out before the children of Israel. 4And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

Syria and Israel Defeat Judah

5Therefore [h]the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria. They [i]defeated him, and carried away a great multitude of them as captives, and brought them to Damascus. Then he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who defeated him with a great slaughter. 6For [j]Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, all valiant men, [k]because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. 7Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer over the house, and Elkanah who was second to the king. 8And the children of Israel carried away captive of their [l]brethren two hundred thousand women, sons, and daughters; and they also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

Israel Returns the Captives

9But a [m]prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them: "Look, [n]because the LORD God of your fathers was angry with Judah, He has delivered them into your hand; but you have killed them in a rage that [o]reaches up to heaven. 10And now you propose to force the children of Judah and Jerusalem to be your [p]male and female slaves; but are you not also guilty before the LORD your God? 11Now hear me, therefore, and return the captives, whom you have taken captive from your brethren, [q]for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you."

12Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, 13and said to them, "You shall not bring the captives here, for we already have offended the LORD. You

27:3 Upper Gate. This gate connected the temple and the royal palace. wall of Ophel. Ophel was the original Jebusite area of Jerusalem. Its walls dated back hundreds of years and must have required regular maintenance.

27:6 Truth—In the face of deep moral corruption among his people, Jotham set his course to act on God's truth. There is always blessing in obedience, even if the blessing is not the sort that the rest of the world can see.

28:1 did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD. During Ahaz's reign Isaiah and Micah prophesied in Judah, and Hosea prophesied in Israel.

28:3 Valley of the Son of Hinnom. This valley, also called the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, was just outside the western wall of Jerusalem. It was a dumping ground for all kinds of refuse, much of which was burned. The valley itself became a symbol of impurity. It was used as a site of pagan worship, including human sacrifice (2 Kin. 23:10; Jer. 7:31–32; 19:2–6; 32:35). abominations of the nations. Worshipers of the Ammonite god Molech practiced human and child sacrifice (Lev. 18:21; 20:2–5; Deut. 12:31).

28:4 every green tree. Canaanite nature cults focused on evergreens, probably as symbols of perpetual fertility (see note at 14:3).

28:6 Pekah. Pekah, who assassinated Pekahiah son of Menahem so that he could become king of Israel (2 Kin. 15:23–27), reigned for 20 years. He was murdered in a plot headed by Hoshea, the last king of Israel. because they had forsaken the LORD God. Pekah was not offended by Judah's godlessness and did not himself initiate this purge. God used Pekah to carry out His judgment.

28:9 Oded. The prophet Oded is mentioned only here. killed them in a rage. God used the Israelite armies to carry out His judgment on Judah (v. 6), but He never intended for the Israelites to enjoy it.

intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel." 14So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly. 15Then the men [r]who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, [s]gave them food and drink, and anointed them; and they let all the feeble ones ride on donkeys. So they brought them to their brethren at Jericho, [t]the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Assyria Refuses to Help Judah

16[u]At the same time King Ahaz sent to the kings* of Assyria to help him. 17For again the [v]Edomites had come, attacked Judah, and carried away captives. 18[w]The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Sochoh with its villages, Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages; and they dwelt there. 19For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of [x]Israel, for he had [y]encouraged moral decline in Judah and had been continually unfaithful to the LORD. 20Also [z]Tiglath-Pileser* king of Assyria came to him and distressed him, and did not assist him. 21For Ahaz took part of the treasures from the house of the LORD, from the house of the king, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the king of Assyria; but he did not help him.

Apostasy and Death of Ahaz

22Now in the time of his distress King Ahaz became increasingly unfaithful to the LORD. This is that King Ahaz. 23For [a]he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus which had defeated him, saying, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them [b]that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him and of all Israel. 24So Ahaz gathered the articles of the house of God, cut in pieces the articles of the house of God, [c]shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. 25And in every single city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers.

26[d]Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 27So Ahaz rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they [e]did not bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah Reigns in Judah

29 Hezekiah [a]became king when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah* the daughter of Zechariah. 2And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

3In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he [b]opened the doors of the house of the LORD and repaired them. 4Then he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them in the East Square, 5and said to them: "Hear me, Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, [c]sanctify the house of the LORD God of your fathers, and carry out the rubbish from the holy place. 6For our fathers have trespassed and done evil in the eyes of Israelites, treating them far more cruelly than they were treating the Judeans. The Israelites brought this judgment on themselves not only by this incident, but by the whole course of the history of their unfaithfulness to God.

28:16 kings of Assyria. The kings of Assyria were Tiglath-Pileser III, Shalamaneser V, and Sargon II.

28:18 Beth Shemesh . . . Gimzo. All these places were near valleys that led up to central Judah from the surrounding plains. Control of them meant control of Judah itself. Because Ahaz understood this, he appealed to Assyria.

28:20 Tiglath-Pileser. Tiglath-Pileser brought the Mesopotamian influence over the countries of the eastern Mediterranean to its highest point. He undertook a campaign against Arpad in Syria and terrorized Menahem of Israel so much that Menahem paid him a huge bribe to be left alone (2 Kin. 15:19). Tiglath returned to the west again, and Ahaz scrambled for protection against Syria and Israel (2 Kin. 16:5–7; Is. 7:1–2). The Assyrians overran Damascus and replaced the assassinated Pekah of Israel with Hoshea (2 Kin. 15:30), but they did not assist Ahaz. The king of Judah's troubles with the Edomites, Philistines, Arameans, and even the Israelites (Is. 7:1) were over for the time being, but at great cost.

28:23 Unbelief—Looking to the gods of his enemies, foolishly believing that the gods had aided his enemies in their victory, Ahaz went farther from God into unbelief. Ahaz committed two grievous sins. He ascribed to another source what was God's doing, and he placed his faith in what was imagined, to bring success to himself. There is never a time when God is out of control. Even if things do not turn out the way we wish they would, we can be sure that if we keep our minds and attitudes in line with God's ways, we will eventually see these events from His perspective.

the LORD our God; they have forsaken Him, have [d]turned their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD, and turned their backs on Him. 7[e]They have also shut up the doors of the vestibule, put out the lamps, and have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. 8Therefore the [f]wrath of the LORD fell upon Judah and Jerusalem, and He has [g]given them up to trouble, to desolation, and to [h]jeering, as you see with your [i]eyes. 9For indeed, because of this [j]our fathers have fallen by the sword; and our sons, our daughters, and our wives are in captivity.

10"Now it is in my heart to make [k]a covenant with the LORD God of Israel, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us. 11My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has [l]chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and that you should minister to Him and burn incense."

12Then these Levites arose: [m]Mahath the son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the [n]Kohathites; of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son of Joah; 13of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; 14of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15And they gathered their brethren, [o]sanctified themselves, and went according to the commandment of the king, at the words of the LORD, [p]to cleanse the house of the LORD. 16Then the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and brought out all the debris that they found in the temple of the LORD to the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it out and carried it to the Brook [q]Kidron.

17Now they began to sanctify on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the vestibule of the LORD. So they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they finished.

18Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings with all its articles, and the table of the showbread with all its articles. 19Moreover all the articles which King Ahaz in his reign had [r]cast aside in his transgression we have prepared and sanctified; and there they are, before the altar of the LORD."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

20Then King Hezekiah rose early, gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. 21And they brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a [s]sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. 22So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood and [t]sprinkled it on the altar. Likewise they killed the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. They also killed the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23Then they brought out the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they laid their [u]hands on them. 24And the priests killed them; and they presented their blood on the altar as a sin offering [v]to make an atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering be made for all Israel.

25[w]And he stationed the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, [x]according to the commandment of David, of [y]Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; [z]for thus was the commandment of the LORD by His prophets. 26The Levites stood with the instruments [a]of David, and the priests with [b]the trumpets. 27Then Hezekiah commanded them to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, [c]the song of the LORD also began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David king of Israel. 28So all the assembly worshiped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29And when they had finished offering, [d]the king and all who were present with him bowed and worshiped. 30Moreover

29:12 Kohathites . . . Merari . . . Gershonites. Hezekiah summoned the leaders of the three major Levitical clans, two leaders from each clan.

29:21 bulls . . . rams . . . lambs . . . goats. The law required the sacrifice of these animals for atonement of sin in general (Lev. 1:3–13). On the other hand, the sacrifice of goats atoned for specific sins (Lev. 4:1—5:13). Here the priests offered seven of each kind to signify the wholeness of their repentance.

29:24 all Israel. The repetition of "all Israel" here suggests that Hezekiah meant to include all twelve tribes, including the northern kingdom (30:1–9).

29:30 the words of David and of Asaph. This refers to the psalms of David and Asaph (1 Chr. 6:39; 15:17; 16:5; 25:1), many of them in the Book of Psalms. The people of Judah used these psalms for community worship and private meditation.

King Hezekiah and the leaders commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, "Now that you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near, and bring sacrifices and [e]thank offerings into the house of the LORD." So the assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and as many as were of a [f]willing heart brought burnt offerings. 32 And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. 33 The consecrated things were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep. 34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings; therefore [g]their brethren the Levites helped them until the work was ended and until the other priests had sanctified themselves, [h]for the Levites were [i]more diligent in [j]sanctifying themselves than the priests. 35 Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with [k]the fat of the peace offerings and with [l]the drink offerings for every burnt offering.

So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. 36 Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events took place so suddenly.

Hezekiah Keeps the Passover

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel. 2 For the king and his leaders and all the assembly in Jerusalem had agreed to keep the Passover in the second [a]month. 3 For they could not keep it [b]at the regular time,* [c]because a sufficient number of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people gathered together at Jerusalem. 4 And the matter pleased the king and all the assembly. 5 So they resolved to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem, since they had not done it for a long time in the prescribed manner.

6 Then the [d]runners went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the king: "Children of Israel, [e]return to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel; then He will return to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of [f]the kings of [g]Assyria. 7 And do not be [h]like your fathers and your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, so that He [i]gave them up to [j]desolation, as you see. 8 Now do not be [k]stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD; and enter His sanctuary, which He has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, [l]that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you. 9 For if you return to the LORD, your brethren and your children will be treated with [m]compassion by those who lead them captive, so that they may come back to this land; for the LORD your God is [n]gracious and merciful, and will not turn His face from you if you [o]return to Him."

10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but [p]they laughed at them and mocked them. 11 Nevertheless [q]some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. 12 Also [r]the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, [s]at the word of the LORD.

13 Now many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Jerusalem to keep the Feast

29:31 thank offerings. Sometimes called "peace" or "fellowship" offerings, thank offerings celebrated the relationship gained by the offerings of atonement (vv. 21–24; Lev. 3:1–17; 7:11–36). The thank offerings included people and priests in a great banquet together, all in fellowship with God.

29:34 priests were too few. Under Ahaz the priests and Levites had been stripped of their duties. Now, 20 years later, there were not enough priests.

30:1 sent to all Israel. Though the kingdom of Israel had split more than two centuries before, Hezekiah never lost sight of the fact that God's covenant was made with all twelve tribes and that His promises included them all (Ezek. 37:15–28).

30:8 enter His sanctuary. People who were not priests were not allowed to enter the temple. This phrase is a figure of speech for serving the Lord.

30:9 if you return to the LORD. Hezekiah was referring to the covenant (Deut. 28–30) which promised that obedience would lead to blessing in the land, and disobedience would result in exile.

30:10 as far as Zebulun. Zebulun was probably the northernmost territory of Israel at this time because Naphtali had been taken by Tiglath-Pileser III (2 Kin. 15:29).

of [t]Unleavened Bread in the second month.
14 They arose and took away the [u]altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and cast them into the Brook [v]Kidron. 15 Then they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were [w]ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought the burnt offerings to the house of the LORD. 16 They stood in their [x]place according to their custom, according to the Law of Moses the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood re- ceived from the hand of the Levites. 17 For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves; [y]therefore the Levites had charge of the slaughter of the Passover lambs for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. 18 For a multitude of the people, [z]many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebu-lun, had not cleansed themselves, [a]yet they ate the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying,
"May the good LORD provide atonement for everyone 19 who [b]prepares his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary." 20 And the LORD listened to Hezekiah and healed the people.

21 So the children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept [c]the Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD, accompanied by loud instruments.
22 And Hezekiah gave encouragement to all the Levites [d]who taught the good knowledge of the LORD; and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings and [e]making confession to the LORD
God of their fathers.

23 Then the whole assembly agreed to keep the feast [f]another seven days, and they kept it another seven days with gladness. 24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [g]gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep, and the leaders gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests [h]sanctified themselves. 25 The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, also the priests and Levites, all the assembly that came from Israel, the sojourners [i]who came from the land of Israel, and those who dwelt in Judah. 26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of [j]Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem. 27 Then the priests, the Levites, arose and [k]blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to [l]His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

The Reforms of Hezekiah

31 Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah and [a]broke the sacred pillars in pieces, cut down the wooden images, and threw down the high places and the altars—from all Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh—until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned to their own cities, every man to his possession.

2 And Hezekiah appointed [b]the divisions of the priests and the Levites according to their divisions, each man according to his service, the priests and Levites [c]for burnt offerings and peace offerings, to serve, to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp* of the LORD. 3 The king also appointed a portion of his [d]possessions for the burnt offerings: for the morning and evening burnt offerings, the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and the New Moons and the set feasts, as it is written in the [e]Law of the LORD.

* 31:2 That is, the temple

30:17 Levites had charge of the slaughter. Traditionally the slaughter of the Passover lamb was performed by the head of the family (Ex. 12:3–6). But on this occasion many were not ritually purified, and the Levites acted on their behalf.

30:22 who taught the good knowledge. The Levites' ministry included teaching (17:8–10). The people of Israel had had virtually no consistent teaching of God's revelation for 200 years, apart from the witness of the prophets such as Elijah, Elisha, Hosea, and Amos.

30:25 sojourners. The strangers were aliens who lived in Israel and Judah and who could come to the festivals because they adhered to God and the law (Deut. 16:11; 26:11; 29:11; 31:12).

30:26 Heaven—Solomon asked God to hear the prayers of the people as they directed their prayers toward the temple in Jerusalem, and to respond from His dwelling in heaven (2 Chr. 6:21). The people, nearly 200 years after Solomon made this prayer, sought the Lord, and He heard them. There is great joy among the people when they realize that God hears them from heaven, and there is great joy in heaven when one sinner repents (Luke 15:7).

31:2 Hezekiah appointed. The long interruption (28:24) of Judah's official worship in the time of Ahaz brought chaos to their religious life. David had originally organized the Levitical system, but because of the years of neglect, Hezekiah had to reorganize it.

31:3 New Moons. The new moon celebrations came at the appearance of the new moon, the beginning of another month (Num. 28:11–15). set feasts. The fixed festivals were the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread (Lev. 23:4–8); Feast of Firstfruits or Pentecost

4 Moreover he commanded the people who dwelt in Jerusalem to contribute [f]support for the priests and the Levites, that they might devote themselves to [g]the Law
of the LORD.
5 As soon as the commandment was circulated, the children of Israel brought in abundance [h]the firstfruits of grain and wine, oil and honey, and of all the produce of the field; and they brought in abundantly the [i]tithe of everything. 6 And the children of Israel and Judah, who dwelt in the cities of Judah, brought the tithe of oxen and sheep; also the [j]tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God they laid in heaps.
7 In the third month they began laying them in heaps, and they finished in the seventh month. 8 And when Hezekiah and the leaders came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.
9 Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. 10 And Azariah the chief priest, from the [k]house of Zadok, answered him and said, [l]"Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for the LORD has blessed His people; and what is left is this great [m]abundance."
11 Now Hezekiah commanded them to [n]prepare rooms in the house of the LORD, and they prepared them. 12 Then they faithfully brought in the offerings, the tithes, and the dedicated things; [o]Cononiah the Levite had charge of them, and Shimei his brother was the next. 13 Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the [p]ruler of the house of God. 14 Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the [q]freewill offerings to God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD and the most holy things. 15 And under him were [r]Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, his faithful assistants in [s]the cities of the priests, to distribute [t]allotments to their brethren by divisions, to the great as well as the small.
16 Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the house of the LORD his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division, 17 and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father's house, and to the Levites [u]from twenty years old and up according to their work, by their divisions, 18 and to all who were written in the genealogy—their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, the whole company of them—for in their faithfulness they sanctified themselves in holiness.
19 Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in [v]the fields of the commonlands of their cities, in every single city, there were men who were [w]designated by name to distribute portions to all the males
among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Levites.
20 Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah, and he [x]did what was good and right and true before the LORD his God. 21 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, in the law and in the commandment, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart. So he [y]prospered.

Sennacherib Boasts Against the LORD

32 After [a]these deeds of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered Judah; he encamped against the fortified cities, thinking to win them over to himself. 2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that his purpose was to make war against Jerusalem, 3 he consulted with his leaders and commanders* to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city; and they helped him. 4 Thus many people gathered together

* 32:3 Literally mighty men

(Lev. 23:15–22); and the Feast of Tabernacles (Lev. 23:33–43).

31:5 firstfruits. The early harvests of grain, particularly barley, were being reaped at this time. The Passover had been held a month late (30:2) and it was now the third month. The first fruits began appearing at the time of the late Passover, and the harvests were fully gathered in some 50 days later, at the time of Pentecost (Lev. 23:9–22). the tithe. A tenth of the harvest belonged to the Levites (Num. 18:21–24).

31:17 genealogy . . . by their divisions. All temple servants had to descend from Levi, but the priests had to trace their genealogy specifically to Aaron (1 Chr. 6:49–53).

32:1 Sennacherib. In Hezekiah's fourteenth year, Sennacherib invaded Judah and eventually laid siege to Jerusalem (2 Kin. 18:13–17). One of the most imperialistic of Assyria's kings, Sennacherib undertook many military campaigns to the west. In his own inscriptions he boasts of having taken many of Judah's cities, a claim supported by the parallel account in 2 Kings.

32:3 stop the water. Hezekiah managed to stop the water by concealing the springs outside the city and then digging a tunnel to bring them to the Pool of Siloam inside the city walls. Hezekiah hid the source of water and made it unavailable to the enemy (2 Kin. 20:20). The Siloam Inscription describes how who stopped all the [b]springs and the brook that ran through the land, saying, "Why should the kings* of Assyria come and find much water?" 5And [c]he strengthened himself, [d]built up all the wall that was broken, raised it up to the towers, and built another wall outside; also he repaired the [e]Millo* in the City of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. 6Then he set military captains over the people, gathered them together to him in the open square of the city gate, and [f]gave them encouragement, saying, 7[g]"Be strong and courageous; [h]do not be afraid nor dismayed before the king of Assyria, nor before all the multitude that is with him; for [i]there are more with us than with him. 8With him is an [j]arm of flesh; but [k]with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles." And the people were strengthened by the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9[l]After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he and all the forces with him laid siege against Lachish), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying, 10[m]"Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: 'In what do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? 11Does not Hezekiah persuade you to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, [n]"The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria"? 12[o]Has not the same Hezekiah taken away His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, "You shall worship before one altar and burn incense on [p]it"? 13Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? [q]Were the gods of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand? 14Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my [r]hand? 15Now therefore, [s]do not let Hezekiah deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?'"

16Furthermore, his servants spoke against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah.

17He also wrote letters to revile the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against Him, saying, [t]"As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my [u]hand." 18[v]Then they called out with a loud voice in Hebrew* to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them and trouble them, that they might take the city. 19And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth—[w]the work of men's hands.

Sennacherib's Defeat and Death

20[x]Now because of this King Hezekiah and [y]the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed and cried out to heaven. 21[z]Then the LORD sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned [a]shamefaced to his own land. And when he had gone into the temple of his god, some of his own offspring struck him down with the sword there.

22Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them* on every side. 23And many brought gifts to the LORD at Jerusalem, and [b]presents to Hezekiah king of Judah, so that he was [c]exalted in the sight of all nations thereafter.

Hezekiah Humbles Himself

24[d]In those days Hezekiah was sick and near death, and he prayed to the LORD;

workmen constructed the 1,800 foot tunnel connecting the springs of Gihon to the Pool of Siloam.

32:5 repaired the Millo. Millo means "landfill" and refers to extensive terracing that surrounded the ancient hills of Ophel and Mount Zion. The work of extending the hills of Jerusalem was first undertaken by David (1 Chr. 11:7–8) and continued by Solomon (1 Kin. 9:15).

32:9 laid siege against Lachish. Both the Old Testament and Assyrian inscriptions document the siege against Lachish, an important fortified city west of Jerusalem and near the great coastal route (11:9). Its capture by Assyria would cut off access to Jerusalem from the west and would give Assyria control of the coast.

32:18 in Hebrew. Aramaic had become the language of international communication and diplomacy and there was no reason to continue the dialogue in Hebrew except to traumatize the people.

32:20 the prophet Isaiah. By now the prophet Isaiah had been involved in public ministry to the kings of Judah for nearly 40 years (26:22; Is. 6:1). He had considerable prestige and was especially important as a counselor of young Hezekiah (Is. 37:1–7).

and He spoke to him and gave him a sign.
25But Hezekiah [e]did not repay according to the favor shown him, for [f]his heart was lifted up; [g]therefore wrath was looming over him and over Judah and Jerusalem.
26[h]Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD did not come upon them [i]in the days of Hezekiah.

Hezekiah's Wealth and Honor

27Hezekiah had very great riches and honor. And he made himself treasuries for silver, for gold, for precious stones, for spices, for shields, and for all kinds of desirable items;
28storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.*
29Moreover he provided cities for himself, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for [j]God had given him very much property.
30[k]This same Hezekiah also stopped the water outlet of Upper Gihon, and brought the water by tunnel* to the west side of the City of David. Hezekiah [l]prospered in all his works.
31However, regarding the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, whom they [m]sent to him to inquire about the wonder that was done in the land, God withdrew from him, in order to [n]test him, that He might know all that was in his heart.

Death of Hezekiah

32Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, indeed they are written in [o]the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the [p]book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
33[q]So Hezekiah rested with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem [r]honored him at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh Reigns in Judah

33 Manasseh [a]was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.
2But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the [b]abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.
3For he rebuilt the high places which Hezekiah his father had [c]broken down; he raised up altars for the Baals, and [d]made wooden images; and he worshiped [e]all the host of heaven* and served them.
4He also built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, [f]"In Jerusalem shall My name be forever."
5And he built altars for all the host of heaven [g]in the two courts of the house of the LORD.
6[h]Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced [i]soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and [j]consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger.
7[k]He even set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, [l]"In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever;
8[m]and I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers—only if they are careful to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses."
9So Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

* 32:28 Following Septuagint and Vulgate; Arabic and Syriac omit folds for flocks; Masoretic Text reads flocks for sheepfolds. * 32:30 Literally brought it straight (compare 2 Kings 20:20)
* 33:3 The gods of the Assyrians

32:25 his heart was lifted up. Hezekiah had received Babylonian envoys who had come to congratulate him on his recovery, and probably to enlist his support in their struggle against Assyria (2 Kin. 20:12–19). Their visit ignited his desire to show off the treasures of his kingdom, and this treasure was eventually seized by the same Babylonians (2 Kin. 20:16–18; Is. 39:6–7).
32:31 test. This test was not for God's benefit, but for Hezekiah's.
33:4 In Jerusalem shall My name be. The point was that God had the exclusive right to inhabit the temple, as opposed to the deities Manasseh introduced (v. 5).
33:6 pass through the fire. Like Ahaz, Manasseh practiced human sacrifice, going so far as to offer up his own children (28:3). practiced soothsaying. Soothsaying is an attempt to determine the plans and purposes of the gods so that one can avoid their hostility or take advantage of their favors (Is. 2:6; Jer. 27:9). witchcraft . . . sorcery. Witchcraft and sorcery attempt to bring about desired results by employing magical or mystical rituals. mediums . . . spiritists. Mediums are those who claim to contact and consult with the dead. Spiritists are the "knowing ones" whose specialty is also communication with the dead in the hope of acquiring information inaccessible to the living. All such practices were common among Canaanite and other pagan religions and were to be strictly avoided by God's people (Deut. 13:1–6; 18:9–14).

Manasseh Restored After Repentance

10 And the LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they would not listen.
11 [n]Therefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with hooks,* [o]bound him with bronze fetters, and carried him off to Babylon. 12 Now when he was in affliction, he implored the LORD his God, and [p]humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 and prayed to Him; and He [q]received his entreaty, heard his supplication, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh [r]knew that the LORD was God.

14 After this he built a wall outside the City of David on the west side of [s]Gihon, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate; and it [t]enclosed Ophel, and he raised it to a very great height. Then he put military captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. 15 He took away [u]the foreign gods and the idol from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD and in Jerusalem; and he cast them out of the city. 16 He also repaired the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace offerings and [v]thank offerings on it, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. 17 [w]Nevertheless the people still sacrificed on the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

Death of Manasseh

18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of [x]the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, indeed they are written in the book* of the kings of Israel.
19 Also his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and trespass, and the sites where he built high places and set up wooden images and carved images, before he was humbled, indeed they are written among the sayings of Hozai.* 20 [y]So Manasseh rested with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. Then his son Amon reigned in his place.

Amon's Reign and Death

21 [z]Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. 22 But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done; for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which his father Manasseh had made, and served them. 23 And he did not humble himself before the LORD, [a]as his father Manasseh had humbled himself;
but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 [b]Then his servants conspired against him, and [c]killed him in his own house.
25 But the people of the land executed all those who had conspired against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place.

Josiah Reigns in Judah

34 Josiah [a]was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. 2 And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of his father David; he did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still [b]young, he began to [c]seek the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he began [d]to purge Judah and Jerusalem [e]of the high places, the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images. 4 [f]They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence, and the incense altars which were above them he cut down;
and the wooden images, the carved images, and the molded images he broke in pieces, and made dust of them [g]and scattered it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. 5 He also [h]burned the bones of the priests on their [i]altars, and cleansed Judah

* 33:11 That is, nose hooks (compare 2 Kings 19:28) * 33:18 Literally words * 33:19 Septuagint reads the seers.

33:11 Babylon. For some time Babylon had been part of the Assyrian Empire, though it had broken free on occasion, especially under the leadership of Berodach-Baladan, Hezekiah's contemporary (2 Kin. 20:12). Ashurbanipal brought Babylon back under Assyrian domination. He was the king who took Manasseh to Babylon as a prisoner.

33:14 wall outside the city of David. The term "city of David" originally referred to Mount Zion alone (1 Chr. 11:5) but eventually designated the entire city, including Mount Ophel, the original Jebusite settlement. Gihon. Gihon was the spring that was the main source of water for Jerusalem (33:2,4,30). It was in the Kidron valley near the northeastern brow of Mount Zion. Fish Gate. The Fish Gate was in the center of the wall north of the temple. Manasseh's construction was a total distance of about 750 yards.

33:20 buried him in his own house. Manasseh had truly converted (v. 13), but his prior sin had been so heinous that he was denied burial in the royal cemetery.

34:3 carved images. See note at 14:3.

34:5 burned the bones of the priests. This act of Josiah, which took place at Bethel, fulfilled the words of the prophet of Judah in the days of Jeroboam I, king of Israel (1 Kin. 13:1–2; 2 Kin. 23:15–16). The prophet had mentioned Josiah by name three hundred years before.

and Jerusalem. 6And so he did in the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, as far as Naphtali and all around, with axes.* 7When he had broken down the altars and the wooden images, had [j]beaten the carved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Hilkiah Finds the Book of the Law

8[k]In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the temple,* he sent [l]Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the [m]governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. 9When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered [n]the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, from all the [o]remnant of Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin, and which they had brought back to Jerusalem. 10Then they put it in the hand of the foremen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen who worked in the house of the LORD, to repair and restore the house. 11They gave it to the craftsmen and builders to buy hewn stone and timber for beams, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. 12And the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to supervise. Others of the Levites, all of whom were skillful with instruments of music, 13*were* [p]over the burden bearers and were overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. [q]And some of the Levites were scribes, officers, and gatekeepers.

14Now when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest [r]found the Book of the Law of the LORD given by Moses. 15Then Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the [s]book to Shaphan. 16So Shaphan carried the book to the king, bringing the king word, saying, "All that was committed to your servants they are doing. 17And they have gathered the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers and the workmen." 18Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read it before the king.

22So Hilkiah and those the king had appointed went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath,* the son of Hasrah,* keeper of the wardrobe. (She dwelt in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter.) And they spoke to her to that effect.

23Then she answered them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel, 'Tell the man who sent you to Me, 24"Thus says the LORD: 'Behold, I will [v]bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the [w]book which they have read before the king of Judah, 25because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath will be poured out on this place, and not be quenched.'"' 26But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, in this manner you shall speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: "Concerning the words which you have heard— 27because your heart was 34:8 Shaphan. Shaphan was a scribe or secretary of the king (v. 15). He was responsible for state records that must have included the original temple plans and specifications. The temple was repaired strictly according to its original pattern. Joahaz the recorder. The recorder kept the royal diaries. Official happenings were duly noted and recorded for posterity. The work of men like Joahaz provided sources for later historians such as the author of Chronicles (1 Chr. 18:15).

34:22 Huldah the prophetess. Huldah is one of four female prophets named in the Old Testament. The other three are Miriam (Ex. 15:20), Deborah (Judg. 4:4), and Noadiah (Neh. 6:14).

34:24 all the curses that are written in the book. Both Deuteronomy and Leviticus had long lists of blessings for obedience and curses for rebellion, which were part of the conditions attached to the covenant with Israel (Deut. 28–30).

34:25 Apostasy—In all of life, no greater sin, no more serious or sadder error could be made than to forsake God and believe other gods. Such an act cuts one off from all of the loving care, wisdom, and discipline of the Creator God. Apostasy grieves God, and it grieves those who love God.

So they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

29[y]Then the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 30The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he [z]read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD. 31Then the king [a]stood in [b]his place and made a [c]covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD, and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. 32And he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin take a stand. So the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33Thus Josiah removed all the [d]abominations from all the country that belonged to the children of Israel, and made all who were present in Israel diligently serve the LORD their God. [e]All his days they did not depart from following the LORD God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps the Passover

35 Now [a]Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover lambs on the [b]fourteenth day of the first month. 2And he set the priests in their [c]duties and [d]encouraged them for the service of the house of the LORD. 3Then he said to the Levites [e]who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD: [f]"Put the holy ark [g]in the house which Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built. [h]It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel. 4Prepare yourselves [i]according to your fathers' houses, according to your divisions, following the [j]written instruction of David king of Israel and the [k]written instruction of Solomon his son. 5And [l]stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brethren the lay people, and according to the division of the father's house of the Levites. 6So slaughter the Passover offerings, [m]consecrate yourselves, and prepare them for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

7Then Josiah [n]gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, as well as three thousand cattle; these were from the king's [o]possessions. 8And his [p]leaders gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred from the flock, and three hundred cattle. 9Also [q]Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for Passover offerings five thousand from the flock and five hundred cattle.

10So the service was prepared, and the priests [r]stood in their places, and the [s]Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command. 11And they slaughtered the Passover offerings; and the priests [t]sprinkled the blood with their hands, while the Levites [u]skinned the animals. 12Then they removed the burnt offerings that they might give them to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the lay people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written [v]in the Book of Moses. And so they did with the cattle. 13Also they [w]roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings they [x]boiled in 34:31 a covenant . . . to follow the LORD. Very few of the kings of Judah promised to follow the Lord as Josiah did. After David, only Joash, Hezekiah, and Josiah made such public commitments (23:3; 29:10; 1 Chr. 17:7–14).

35:3 Put the holy ark in the house . . . It shall no longer be a burden on your shoulders. The ark had apparently been removed from the temple. Who removed it and when or why is not known, but plenty of wicked kings could have done it. Manasseh's vehement opposition to God must have kept the ark in constant jeopardy, so perhaps it had been removed for protection. The only proper way to carry the ark was on the shoulders of the priests (Num. 4:5; 6:1).

35:6 slaughter the Passover offerings. The Levites were standing in for the people in the sacrifice of the Passover lambs. This became the tradition from that time on, with the result that the priests gained influence and power.

35:13 holy offerings. The other holy offerings, distinguished from the Passover offering, were pots, in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them quickly among all the lay people. 14Then afterward they prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aaron, were busy in offering burnt offerings and fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared portions for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron. 15And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the [y]command of David, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer. Also the gatekeepers [z]were at each gate; they did not have to leave their position, because their brethren the Levites prepared portions for them.

16So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the command of King Josiah. 17And the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the Feast of [a]Unleavened Bread for seven days. 18[b]There had been no Passover kept in Israel like that since the days of Samuel the prophet; and none of the kings of Israel had kept such a Passover as Josiah kept, with the priests and the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was kept.

Josiah Dies in Battle

20[c]After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against [d]Carchemish by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him. 21But he sent messengers to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, king of Judah? I have not come against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Refrain from meddling with God, who is with me, lest He destroy you." 22Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but [e]disguised himself so that he might fight with him, and did not heed the words of Necho from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

23And the archers shot King Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am severely wounded." 24[f]His servants therefore took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Jerusalem. So he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And [g]all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

25Jeremiah also [h]lamented for [i]Josiah. And to this day [j]all the singing men and the singing women speak of Josiah in their lamentations. [k]They made it a custom in Israel; and indeed they are written in the Laments.

26Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his goodness, according to what was written in the Law of the LORD, 27and his deeds from first to last, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoahaz

36 Then [a]the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. 2Jehoahaz* was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. 3Now the king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem; and he imposed on the land a tribute of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. 4Then the king of Egypt made Jehoahaz's brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother and carried him off to Egypt.

the cattle slaughtered for thank, or peace offerings (v. 7).

35:18 since the days of Samuel the prophet. It had been almost four hundred years since the days of Samuel.

35:20 to fight against Carchemish. Carchemish was one of the last strongholds of Assyria to resist the onslaught of the rising neo-Babylonian kingdom. The Babylonians and Medes were on their way to subdue Haran and Carchemish. Necho, more afraid of the Babylonians than the Assyrians, was hoping to get to Carchemish in time to assist his Assyrian allies in their time of need. Josiah was an ally of Babylon, so he went to Megiddo to intercept the Egyptians.

35:21 God commanded me. God sometimes spoke to pagan rulers about a course of action He wanted them to take (36:22; Gen. 20:6; 41:25; Dan. 2:28). Necho did not know the source of his divine leading, but God did direct him, displaying His sovereignty over even the wicked and unbelieving powers of this world (Is. 44:28–45).

35:22 Megiddo. The major route from Egypt to the upper Euphrates was the Via Maris, or Way of the Sea. This route went up the coast of Israel before turning inland through the mountain pass at Megiddo. It crossed the plain of Jezreel, crossed the Jordan near the Sea of Galilee, and went on through Damascus where it joined the north-south route to upper Syria. If Josiah could control the pass at Megiddo, he could control the movement of traffic on that vital route.

36:3 king of Egypt. After Assyria's defeat at Haran and Carchemish, the Egyptian army withdrew south of the Euphrates, dominating Syria and Judah. Judah became an Egyptian vassal state, which explains why Necho could depose Jehoahaz and require tribute.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiakim

5 [b]Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And he did [c]evil in the sight of the LORD his God. 6 [d]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him, and bound him in bronze fetters to [e]carry him off to Babylon. 7 [f]Nebuchadnezzar also carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. 8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the abominations which he did, and what was found against him, indeed they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

The Reign and Captivity of Jehoiachin

9 [g]Jehoiachin was eight* years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. And he did evil in the sight of the LORD. 10 At the turn of the year [h]King Nebuchadnezzar summoned him and took him to Babylon, [i]with the costly articles from the house of the LORD, and made [j]Zedekiah, *Jehoiakim's
brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah Reigns in Judah

11 [k]Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. 12 He did evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and [l]did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of the LORD.
13 And he also [m]rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God; but he [n]stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel. 14 Moreover all the leaders of the priests and the people transgressed more and more, according to all the abominations of the nations, and defiled the house of the LORD which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

15 [o]And the LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. 16 But [p]they mocked the messengers of God, [q]despised His words, and [r]scoffed at His prophets, until the [s]wrath of the LORD arose against His people, till there was no remedy.
17 [t]Therefore He brought against them
the king of the Chaldeans, who [u]killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, on the aged or the weak; He gave them all into his hand. 18 [v]And all the articles from the house of God, great and small, the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his leaders, all these he took to Babylon. 19 [w]Then they burned the house of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all its palaces with fire,

* 36:9 Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, and 2 Kings 24:8 read eighteen. * 36:10 Literally his (compare 2 Kings 24:17)

36:6 Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar was leading a campaign against Carchemish when he succeeded his father. He drove Egypt out of Syria and Judah and took some Jewish captives, including Daniel, back to Babylon (Dan. 1:1). At the same time, Jehoiakim changed his loyalty from Necho to Nebuchadnezzar and remained a trusted vassal for three years (2 Kin. 24:1). But then Jehoiakim rebelled against Babylon, and in about 602 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar returned to Jerusalem to punish him. to carry him off to Babylon. Jehoiakim was not actually taken to Babylon since he reigned until 598 B.C. and died of natural causes in Jerusalem (2 Kin. 26:6; Jer. 22:18).

36:7 carried off some of the articles from the house of the LORD. The Babylonian king looted the temple of much of its treasure, fulfilling the prophecy made to Hezekiah a century earlier (32:31). his temple. His temple was the temple of the Babylonians' patron god Marduk.

36:10 Zedekiah. Zedekiah was the youngest of the four sons of Josiah, and the third to rule over Judah (v. 1). He became king by Nebuchadnezzar's appointment, showing Judah's status as a Babylonian vassal (v. 3).

36:12 Jeremiah. Jeremiah was the famous prophet who composed the Book of Jeremiah, which included his words to Zedekiah (Jer. 21:3–7; 32:5).

36:14 all the abominations of the nations. This statement refers primarily to idolatry and all the immorality and perversity that went with it. God's covenant with Israel required them to be different from the nations in this key respect (Ex. 23:24; Lev. 26:1; Deut. 4:15–20,25–28; 18:9–14; 27:14–15).

36:16 Unbelief—There is a line of divine patience that a nation can cross, bringing doom upon that country. In 586 B.C. Judah stepped over that mark. Prior to this God had graciously given His people many opportunities to repent of their unbelief. When we earnestly pray for our country as commanded by God (1 Tim. 2:1–2) we are asking to be kept from overstepping the limit of God's patience. About three thousand years ago, Solomon succinctly said, "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people" (Prov. 14:34).

36:17 king of the Chaldeans. The Chaldean, or Babylonian, king was Nebuchadnezzar, who reigned from 605 to 562 B.C. He became an instrument of God's judgment all through Judah's last years and well into the exile (Dan. 2:37–38; 5:18–19).

The Proclamation of Cyrus

22 [c]Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of [d]Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of [e]Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

23 [f]Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:
All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah.
Who is among you of all His people?
May the LORD his God be with him,
and let him go up!

36:20 until the rule of the kingdom of Persia. Cyrus conquered Babylon in 539 B.C. and allowed the Jews to return to Jerusalem the following year.

36:21 Jeremiah. In two places (Jer. 25:12; 29:10) Jeremiah predicted the exile and its length (Dan. 9:2). Sabbath. According to the law of Moses, the land was to lie fallow every seventh year (Lev. 25:4). Judah's exile in Babylon allowed the land to enjoy the sabbaths it had missed because of disobedience (Lev. 26:33–35).

36:22 the first year of Cyrus. The first year refers to the first year of Cyrus' rule over Babylon, not his first year over Media and Persia. He began to rule Media and Persia in 550 B.C. Twelve years later he brought Babylon under his control and issued his famous decree, known from the Old Testament (Ezra 1:2–4) and from his own records, the Cylinder of Cyrus. Jeremiah's seventy years were from about 609 to 539 B.C. the LORD stirred up. Cyrus was both a mighty monarch and the instrument by whom God delivered His people from exile, returned them to their land, and rebuilt the temple (Is. 44:28–45). Like many rulers who encountered the living God, Cyrus recognized and even extolled His power as the God of Israel, but this was not the same as abandoning all other gods and following the Lord alone.

36:23 Providence—God is the Lord of the universe. He not only rules over those who are called by His name, but He also moves upon the hearts and minds of others whom He chooses to use in the fulfillment of His purpose. It was part of God's plan for the Jews to be taken captive by Babylon, and for Babylon to be taken by Persia. Cyrus had been chosen and ordained for his role in returning the Jews to their own land, and was even called by name by Isaiah the prophet (Is. 44:28; 45:1). It is not always possible to understand the things that the Lord is doing, but we can still rejoice in His providence, confident that the Judge of all the earth will do right (Gen. 18:25).

THE BOOK OF EZRA

▶ AUTHOR: Although Ezra is not specifically named as the author, Jewish tradition attributes the book to him. This seems appropriate as portions of the book are written in the first person, from Ezra's point of view (7:28—9:15). Similar to Chronicles, this book has a strong priestly emphasis. Ezra was a direct descendant of Aaron through Eleazar, Phinehas, and Zadok, and so came from a long and illustrious priestly line. It is believed that Ezra had access to the extensive library of written documents gathered by Nehemiah and that this was one of the sources used in writing this book as well as Chronicles.

▶ TIME: c. 538–457 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Ezra 1:3

▶ THEME: Many scholars think Ezra and Nehemiah belong together as one book. Together they tell parts of the same story. The exile is over and the temple is to be rebuilt along with the wall of Jerusalem despite considerable opposition. While Nehemiah's perspective is that of a civil servant and building contractor, Ezra is a teacher of the law and a priest, and as such, provides leadership by bringing God's Word to the people and by restoring proper worship. When the people respond to the Word and reestablish their relationship with God through worship, the building process is renewed and completed.

End of the Babylonian Captivity

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD [a]by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, [b]so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

2 Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:
All the kingdoms of the earth the LORD God of heaven has given me. And He has [c]commanded me to build Him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah.
3 Who is among you of all His people? May his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel [d](He is God), which is in Jerusalem.
4 And whoever is left in any place where he dwells, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the freewill offerings for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.

5 Then the heads of the fathers' houses of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all whose spirits [e]God had moved, arose to go up and build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.
6 And all those who were around them encouraged them with articles of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with precious things, besides all that was [f]willingly offered.
7 [g]King Cyrus also brought out the articles of the house of the LORD, [h]which

1:1 first year of Cyrus. This refers to the first year of Cyrus' reign over Babylon. Cyrus the Great, the founder of the Persian Empire and the Achaemenid dynasty, conquered Babylon in 539 B.C. The events in the Book of Ezra were taking place at the same time as the latter part of the Book of Daniel, after the overthrow of Belshazzar by the Medes and Persians, and the absorption of Babylon into the Persian Empire (Dan. 5:28,30–31; 6:28). Jeremiah. Jeremiah had prophesied that the Babylonian captivity would last 70 years (Jer. 25:11; 29:10) after which the Lord would judge Babylon (Jer. 25:12–14). he made a proclamation. One hundred and forty years before Cyrus the Great was even born, Isaiah the prophet called him by name, foretelling the decree he would issue allowing the Israelites to return to their homeland (Is. 44:28; 45:14).

1:4 let the men of his place help him. The assistance that the Israelites were to receive from their non-Jewish neighbors in rebuilding the temple was similar to the help an earlier generation received from the Egyptians before the Exodus (Ex. 12:33–36). In a sense, the return to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple was a second exodus (Is. 43:14–21; 48:20–21).

Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem and put in the temple of his gods;
8 and Cyrus king of Persia brought them out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and counted them out to [i]Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. 9 This is the number of them: thirty gold platters, one thousand silver platters, twenty-nine knives, 10 thirty gold basins, four hundred and ten silver basins of a similar kind, and one thousand other articles. 11 All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred.
All these Sheshbazzar took with the captives who were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

2 Now* [a]these are the people of the province who came back from the captivity, of those who had been carried away, [b]whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his own city.

1:8 Sheshbazzar. Ezra 5:2 and 5:16 appear to identify Sheshbazzar and Zerubbabel as one and the same person. The name Sheshbazzar occurs in only two passages (vv. 8–11; 5:14–16) and both times are related to official Persian actions. It is possible, and considered likely, that Sheshbazzar was the Persian name for Zerubbabel.

2:2 Nehemiah . . . Mordecai. The Nehemiah mentioned here is not the same man who rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem 90 years later. The Mordecai in this verse is also considered to be a different man than the one who figured so prominently in the Book of Esther.

2:40–42 The Levites . . . The singers . . . The sons of the gatekeepers. The Levites assisted the priests in the temple and in teaching the people the law. The singers were also Levites and had the responsibility of praising God with music (1 Chr. 15:16). Although only 128 singers returned to Jerusalem, at one time there had been as many as four thousand who praised the Lord with musical instruments in Solomon's temple (1 Chr. 23:5). The gatekeepers were another set of Levites who prevented unauthorized people from entering the restricted area of the temple.

2:43 The Nethinim. Nethinim means "given ones" sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, 57 the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth of Zebaim, and the sons of Ami.* 58 All the [m]Nethinim and the children of [n]Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

59 And these were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan,* and Immer; but they could not identify their father's house or their genealogy,* whether they were of Israel: 60 the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and fifty-two; 61 and of the sons of the priests: the sons of [o]Habaiah, the sons of Koz,* and the sons of [p]Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name. 62 These sought their listing among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found; [q]therefore they were excluded from the priesthood as defiled. 63 And the governor* said to them that they [r]should not eat of the most holy things till a priest could consult with the [s]Urim and Thummim.

64 [t]The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, 65 besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred men and women singers.
66 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, 67 their camels four hundred and thirty-five, and their donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 [u]Some of the heads of the fathers' houses, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to erect it in its place:
69 According to their ability, they gave to the [v]treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.

70 [w]So the priests and the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

Worship Restored at Jerusalem

3 And when the [a]seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to Jerusalem. 2 Then Jeshua the son of [b]Jozadak* and his brethren the priests, [c]and Zerubbabel the son of [d]Shealtiel and his brethren, arose and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is [e]written in the Law of Moses the man of God. 3 Though fear had come upon them because of the people of those countries, they set the altar on its bases; and they offered [f]burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings. 4 [g]They also kept the Feast of or "dedicated ones." In 1 Chronicles 9:2, the Nethinim are distinguished from the priests and the Levites. Jewish tradition identifies the Nethinim with the Gibeonites who had been assigned by Joshua to assist the Levites in more menial tasks (Josh. 9:27).

2:63 Urim and Thummim. The Urim and Thummim were somehow used to determine God's will (Ex. 28:30). It is not known exactly what they were, but it has been speculated that they were special sacred stones, used for casting lots.

2:64 forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty. The individual numbers listed in chapter 2 add up to only 29,818. The difference is accounted for because the larger total includes women, who are not named in the lists.

2:65 men and women singers. These men and women are thought to be other than the choir of the temple (v. 41). They were probably professional singers employed for banquets and feasts (2 Chr. 35:25; Eccl. 2:7–8). It could be that some of the Jews achieved prosperity and a degree of luxury in Babylon. They had not, after all, been enslaved in exile, but only restricted from returning to their land.

3:1 seventh month. The seventh month was a sacred month to the Jewish people. The first day of the month was the Feast of Trumpets (Num. 29:1–6), the tenth day was the Day of Atonement (Num. 29:7–11), and the fifteenth day was the Feast of Tabernacles (Num. 29:12–38).

3:2–3 Jeshua. This is believed to be the same person as the priest Joshua mentioned by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah (Hag. 1:1; Zech. 3:1).

3:4 Feast of Tabernacles. The Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles, was a feast instituted as a remembrance

Restoration of the Temple Begins

8Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, [n]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Jeshua the son of Jozadak,* and the rest of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, began work [o]and appointed the Levites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the house of the LORD. 9Then Jeshua with his sons and brothers, Kadmiel with his sons, and the sons of Judah,* arose as one to oversee those working on the house of God: the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brethren the Levites.

10When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, [p]the priests stood* in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise the LORD, according to the [q]ordinance of David king of Israel. 11[r]And they sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD:

[s]"For He is good,
[t]For His mercy endures forever toward Israel."*

Then all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12But many of the priests and Levites and [u]heads of the fathers' houses, old men who had seen the first temple, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes. Yet many shouted aloud for joy, 13so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people, for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard afar off.

Resistance to Rebuilding the Temple

4 Now when [a]the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity were building the temple of the LORD God of Israel, 2they came to Zerubbabel and the heads of the fathers' houses, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God as you do; and we have sacrificed to Him [b]since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here." 3But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers' houses of Israel said to them, [c]"You may do nothing with us to build a house for our God; but we alone will build to the LORD God of Israel, as [d]King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us." 4Then [e]the people of the land tried to discourage the people of Judah. They troubled them in building, 5and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of [f]Darius king of Persia.

of the earlier generations' wanderings in the wilderness (Num. 29:13–38).

3:11 Patience—In spite of Israel's history of sin, leading to the broken empire, captivity, exile, the destruction of the temple and walls of Jerusalem, God still had not forgotten His people. Joy filled the hearts of the Israelites, for God's love had endured. Patiently, faithfully, He was keeping every promise. He is equally faithful and patient to each of us, even though we so often miss the mark. He does not give us up, but showers us with benefits and never ceases to show us His unchanging persistent love.

4:1 the adversaries of Judah. The enemies of Judah were the Samaritans. Esarhaddon (v. 2), who ruled Assyria from 681–669 B.C., had transported the conquered people of the northern kingdom to other lands. He then brought people from elsewhere into Palestine. These foreigners intermarried with the Hebrews who were left in the land. Their offspring became the Samaritans mentioned in the New Testament.

4:4–5 Persecution—Israel encountered hostility when they returned to their land. At first glance it might seem that Israel was at fault for turning down help. These people said they had been offering sacrifices to Jehovah. This did not mean, however, that they had ceased to serve their idols (2 Kin. 17:29–35). Whatever their hidden reasons for offering help, it would not have been in favor of the Israelites. Their underlying hostility became obvious as they succeeded in hindering the work on the temple.

Rebuilding of Jerusalem Opposed

6 In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 In the days of [g]Artaxerxes also, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the letter was written in [h]Aramaic script, and translated into the Aramaic language. 8 Rehum* the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes in this fashion:

9 From* Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions—representatives of [i]the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the people of Persia and Erech and Babylon and Shushan,* the Dehavites, the Elamites, 10 [j]and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took captive and settled in the cities of Samaria and the remainder beyond the River*—[k]and so forth.*

11 (This is a copy of the letter that they sent him)

To King Artaxerxes from your servants, the men of the region beyond the River, and so forth:*

12 Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you have come to us at Jerusalem, and are building the [l]rebellious and evil city, and are finishing its [m]walls and repairing the foundations. 13 Let it now be known to the king that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they will not pay [n]tax, tribute, or custom, and the king's treasury will be diminished. 14 Now because we receive support from the palace, it was not proper for us to see the king's dishonor; therefore we have sent and informed the king, 15 that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. And you will find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited sedition within the city in former times, for which cause this city was destroyed.

16 We inform the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, the result will be that you will have no dominion beyond the River.

17 The king sent an answer:

To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and to the remainder beyond the River:

Peace, and so forth.*

18 The letter which you sent to us has been clearly read before me. 19 And I gave the command, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in former times has revolted against kings, and rebellion and sedition have been fostered in it. 20 There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have [o]ruled over all the region [p]beyond the River; and tax, tribute, and custom were paid to them. 21 Now give the command to make these men cease, that this city may not be built until the command is given by me.

22 Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the kings?

23 Now when the copy of King Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews, and by force of arms made them cease. 24 Thus the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem ceased, and it was discontinued until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

5 Then the prophet [a]Haggai and [b]Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophets, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. 2 So [c]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Jeshua the son of Jozadak* rose up and began to build the house of God which is in Jerusalem; and [d]the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

3 At the same time [e]Tattenai the governor of the region beyond the River* and Shethar-Boznai and their companions came to them and spoke thus to them: [f]"Who has commanded you to build this temple and finish this wall?" [4][g]Then, accordingly, we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building. [5]But [h]the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that they could not make them cease till a report could go to Darius. Then a [i]written answer was returned concerning this matter. [6]This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai sent:

The governor of the region beyond the River, and Shethar-Boznai, [j]and his companions, the Persians who were in the region beyond the River, to Darius the king.

[7](They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus)

To Darius the king:

All peace.

[8] Let it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judea, to the temple of the great God, which is being built with heavy stones, and timber is being laid in the walls; and this work goes on diligently and prospers in their hands.

[9] Then we asked those elders, and spoke thus to them: [k]"Who commanded you to build this temple and to finish these walls?" [10]We also asked them their names to inform you, that we might write the names of the men who were chief among them.

[11] And thus they returned us an answer, saying: "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built [l]and completed. [12]But [m]because our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, He gave them into the hand of [n]Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and [o]carried the people away to Babylon. [13]However, in the first year of [p]Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to build this house of God. [14]Also, [q]the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple that was in Jerusalem and carried into the temple of Babylon—those King Cyrus took from the temple of Babylon, and they were given to [r]one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor. [15]And he said to him, 'Take these articles; go, carry them to the temple site that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site.' [16]Then the same Sheshbazzar came and [s]laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem; but from that time even until now it has been under construction, and [t]it is not finished."

[17] Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, [u]let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there in Babylon, whether it is so that a decree was issued by King Cyrus to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us his pleasure concerning this matter.

The Decree of Darius

6 Then King Darius issued a decree, [a]and a search was made in the archives,* where the treasures were stored in Babylon. [2]And at Achmetha,* in the palace that is in the province of [b]Media, a scroll was found, and in it a record was written thus:

[3] In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued a [c]decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem: "Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices; and let the foundations of it be firmly laid, its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits, [4][d]with three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the [e]expenses be paid from the king's treasury. [5]Also let [f]the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple which is in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and taken back to the temple which is in Jerusalem, each to its place; and deposit them in the house of God"—

[6] [g]Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, and

6:3 its height sixty cubits and its width sixty cubits. Though the complete dimensions are not given, it is likely that the second temple was built on the foundation stones that were still in place from the time of Solomon (1 Kin. 6:2).

Shethar-Boznai, and your companions the Persians who are beyond the River, keep yourselves far from there. 7Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God on its site.

8 Moreover I issue a decree as to what you shall do for the elders of these Jews, for the building of this house of God: Let the cost be paid at the king's expense from taxes on the region beyond the River; this is to be given immediately to these men, so that they are not hindered. 9And whatever they need—young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Jerusalem—let it be given them day by day without fail, 10[h]that they may offer sacrifices of sweet aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

11 Also I issue a decree that whoever alters this edict, let a timber be pulled from his house and erected, and let him be hanged on it; [i]and let his house be made a refuse heap because of this. 12And may the God who causes His [j]name to dwell there destroy any king or people who put their hand to alter it, or to destroy this house of God which is in Jerusalem. I Darius issue a decree; let it be done diligently.

The Temple Completed and Dedicated

13Then Tattenai, governor of the region beyond the River, Shethar-Boznai, and their companions diligently did according to what King Darius had sent. 14[k]So the elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the command of [l]Cyrus, [m]Darius, and [n]Artaxerxes king of Persia. 15Now the temple was finished on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius. 16Then the children of Israel, the priests and the Levites and the rest of the descendants of the captivity, celebrated [o]the dedication of this house of God with joy. 17And they [p]offered sacrifices at the dedication of this house of God, one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. 18They assigned the priests to their [q]divisions and the Levites to their [r]divisions, over the service of God in Jerusalem, [s]as it is written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover Celebrated

19And the descendants of the captivity kept the Passover [t]on the fourteenth day of the first month. 20For the priests and the Levites had [u]purified themselves; all of them were ritually clean. And they [v]slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. 21Then the children of Israel who had returned from the captivity ate together with all who had separated themselves from the [w]filth of the nations of the land in order to seek the LORD God of Israel. 22And they kept the [x]Feast of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy; for the LORD made them joyful, and [y]turned the heart [z]of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

7 Now after these things, in the reign of [a]Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the [b]son of Seraiah, [c]the son of Azariah, the son of [d]Hilkiah, 2the son of Shallum, the 6:8–10 Moreover. Not only could Tattenai not stop reconstruction of the temple, he also had to fund its completion.

6:16 celebrated the dedication . . . with joy. Some have suggested that Psalms 145–148 were used to celebrate the completion of the rebuilding of the temple.

6:19 kept the Passover. This celebration must have been exceptionally memorable; it was the first time since the captivity that the people were able to celebrate according to the law, with sacrifices offered in the temple (v. 20).

6:21 the nations of the land. The term probably refers to the people who had been transplanted into Palestine by the Assyrians.

6:22 Providence—The situation the Jews faced seemed hopeless. But God in His providence caused Cyrus to look favorably upon the Jews and allow them to return to their homeland. What seemed impossible became possible through God. Sometimes it is easy for us to forget that even in the worst of times and circumstances God is still on His throne.

7:1–5 after these things. The events of chapter 6 took place during the reign of King Darius. The temple was completed and dedicated in 515 B.C. Chapter 7 jumps forward many years to the reign of Artaxerxes (464–424 B.C.). Thus, between chapters 6 and 7 there is a gap of approximately 60 years. During this period the events of the Book of Esther took place.

The king granted him all his request, [f]according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him. 7[g]Some of the children of Israel, the priests, [h]the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and [i]the Nethinim came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. 8And Ezra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. 9On the first day of the first month he began his journey from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Jerusalem, [j]according to the good hand of his God upon him. 10For Ezra had prepared his heart to [k]seek the Law of the LORD, and to do it, and to [l]teach statutes and ordinances in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

11This is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave Ezra the priest, the scribe, expert in the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of His statutes to Israel:

12 Artaxerxes,* [m]king of kings,

To Ezra the priest, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven:

Perfect peace, [n]and so forth.*

13 I issue a decree that all those of the people of Israel and the priests and Levites in my realm, who volunteer to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you. 14And whereas you are being sent by the king and his [o]seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, with regard to the Law of your God which is in your hand; 15and whereas you are to carry the silver and gold which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, [p]whose dwelling is in Jerusalem; 16[q]and whereas all the silver and gold that you may find in all the province of Babylon, along with the freewill offering of the people and the priests, are to be [r]freely offered for the house of their God in Jerusalem— 17now therefore, be careful to buy with this money bulls, rams, and lambs, with their [s]grain offerings and their drink offerings, and [t]offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 And whatever seems good to you and your brethren to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the will of your God. 19Also the articles that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver in full before the God of Jerusalem. 20And whatever more may be needed for the house of your God, which you may have occasion to provide, pay for it from the king's treasury.

21 And I, even I, Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers who are in the region beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may require of you, let it be done diligently, 22up to one hundred talents of silver, one hundred kors of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribed limit. 23Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it diligently be done for the house of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24 Also we inform you that it shall not be lawful to impose tax, tribute, or custom on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God. 25And you, Ezra, according to your God-given wisdom, [u]set magistrates and judges who may judge all the people who are in the region beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and [v]teach those

7:6 a skilled scribe in the Law of Moses. A scribe was one who copied and studied the law. After the exile, the office of scribe came into prominence, in some ways replacing the prophet in importance, and eventually eclipsing the role of the priest. In the Gospels, numerous references are made to the scribes as ones who were considered spiritual leaders of the people.
7:9 first month . . . fifth month. The first month corresponds to March-April, the fifth month to July-August. the good hand of his God. Ezra was grateful for God's protection even more since the route he traveled was dangerous because of rebellion in Egypt and the fact that spring was the time armies began their campaigns.
7:9–10 Obedience—Ezra followed God's command and made his paramount exercise the study, practice, and teaching of God's law. The "good hand of his God" was upon Ezra, for he "had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD." That same command is for us also. We don't always know when we as Christians are being watched by others, but if we are diligent to obey, our lives will point to Christ.
7:22 one hundred talents of silver. One hundred talents of silver weighed nearly four tons. One hundred kors of wheat amounted to about 625 bushels; one hundred baths of wine or oil equaled about six hundred gallons each.

who do not know them. 26Whoever will not observe the law of your God and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

27[w]Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, [x]who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, 28and [y]has extended mercy to me before the king and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes.

So I was encouraged, as [z]the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered leading men of Israel to go up with me.

Heads of Families Who Returned with Ezra

8 These are the heads of their fathers' houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes: 2of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel; of the sons of David, [a]Hattush; 3of the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of [b]Parosh, Zechariah; and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males; 4of the sons of [c]Pahath-Moab, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males; 5of the sons of Shechaniah,* Ben-Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males; 6of the sons of Adin, Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males; 7of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males; 8of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males; 9of the sons of Joab, Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males; 10of the sons of Shelomith,* Ben-Josiphiah, and with him one hundred and sixty males; 11of the sons of [d]Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty-eight males; 12of the sons of Azgad, Johanan the son of Hakkatan, and with him one hundred and ten males; 13of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah—and with them sixty males; 14also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

Servants for the Temple

15Now I gathered them by the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and found none of the [e]sons of Levi there. 16Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and [f]Meshullam, leaders; also for Joiarib and Elnathan, men of understanding. 17And I gave them a command for Iddo the chief man at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo and his brethren* the Nethinim at the place Casiphia—that they should bring us servants for the house of our God. 18Then, by the good hand of our God upon us, they [g]brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, namely Sherebiah, with his sons and brothers, eighteen men; 19and [h]Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men; 20[i]also of the Nethinim, whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim. All of them were designated by name.

Fasting and Prayer for Protection

21Then I [j]proclaimed a fast there at the river of Ahava, that we might [k]humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him the [l]right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions. 22For [m]I was ashamed to request of the king an escort of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the road, because we had spoken to the king, saying, [n]"The hand of our God is upon all those for [o]good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are [p]against all those who [q]forsake Him." 23So we fasted and entreated our God for this, and He [r]answered our prayer.

Gifts for the Temple

24And I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them—25and weighed out to them [s]the silver, the gold, and the articles, the offering for the house of our God which the king and his counselors and his princes, and all Israel who were present, had offered. 26I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, silver

In our own lives, it is the same. Our responsibility is obedience, no matter what. Our safety is God's responsibility.

articles weighing one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold, 27twenty gold basins worth a thousand drachmas, and two vessels of fine polished bronze, precious as gold. 28And I said to them, "You are [t]holy to the LORD; the articles are [u]holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. 29Watch and keep them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Levites and [v]heads of the fathers' houses of Israel in Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD." 30So the priests and the Levites received the silver and the gold and the articles by weight, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

31Then we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. And [w]the hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the road. 32So we [x]came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days.

33Now on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the articles were [y]weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest, and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; with them were the Levites, [z]Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui, 34with the number and weight of everything. All the weight was written down at that time.

35The children of those who had been [a]carried away captive, who had come from the captivity, [b]offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD.

36And they delivered the king's [c]orders to the king's satraps and the governors in the region beyond the River. So they gave support to the people and the house of God.

Intermarriage with Pagans

9 When these things were done, the leaders came to me, saying, "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not [a]separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, [b]with respect to the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. 2For they have [c]taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the [d]holy seed is [e]mixed with the peoples of those lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass." 3So when I heard this thing, [f]I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down [g]astonished. 4Then everyone who [h]trembled at the words of the God of Israel assembled to me, because of the transgression of those who had been carried away captive, and I sat astonished until the [i]evening sacrifice.

5At the evening sacrifice I arose from my fasting; and having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and [j]spread out my hands to the LORD my God. 6And I said: "O my God, I am too [k]ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God; for [l]our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has [m]grown up to the heavens. 7Since the days of our fathers to this day [n]we have been very guilty, and for our iniquities [o]we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the [p]sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to [q]humiliation, as it is this day. 8And now for a little while grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His holy place, that our God may [r]enlighten our eyes and give us a measure of revival in our bondage. 9[s]For we were slaves. [t]Yet our God did not forsake us in our bondage; but [u]He extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to revive us, to repair the house of our God, to rebuild its ruins, and to give us [v]a wall in Judah and Jerusalem. 10And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, 11which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, 'The land which you are entering to possess is an unclean land, with the [w]uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations which have filled it from one end to another with their impurity. 12Now therefore, [x]do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons; and [y]never seek their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good of the land, and [z]leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.' 13And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our God [a]have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such deliverance as this, 14should we [b]again break Your commandments, and [c]join in marriage with the people committing these abominations? Would You not be [d]angry with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor? 15O LORD God of Israel, [e]You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. [f]Here we are before You, [g]in our guilt, though no one can stand before You because of this!"

9:2 taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves. Intermarrying with people who did not worship the One True God was expressly forbidden (Ex. 34:16; Deut. 7:3). While there are instances of marriages to non-Israelites being blessed (Rahab, Ruth), these were cases where the woman had clearly taken a stand as a believer in Yahweh, renouncing her old religion.

Confession of Improper Marriages

10 Now [a]while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down [b]before the house of God, a very large assembly of men, women, and children gathered to him from Israel; for the people wept very [c]bitterly. 2And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, spoke up and said to Ezra, "We have [d]trespassed against our God, and have taken pagan wives from the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel in spite of this. 3Now therefore, let us make [e]a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the advice of my master and of those who [f]tremble at [g]the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the [h]law. 4Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. We also are with you. [i]Be of good courage, and do it."

5Then Ezra arose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel [j]swear an oath that they would do according to this word. So they swore an oath. 6Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib; and when he came there, he [k]ate no bread and drank no water, for he mourned because of the guilt of those from the captivity.

9So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month; and [l]all the people sat in the open square of the house of God, trembling because of this matter and because of heavy rain. 10Then Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, "You have transgressed and have taken pagan wives, adding to the guilt of Israel. 11Now therefore, [m]make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do His will; [n]separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the pagan wives."

12Then all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes! As you have said, so we must do. 13But there are many people; it is the season for heavy rain, and we are not able to stand outside. Nor is this the work of one or two days, for there are many of us who have transgressed in this matter. 14Please, let the leaders of our entire assembly stand; and let all those in our cities who have taken pagan wives come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until [o]the fierce wrath of our God is turned away from us in this matter." 15Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah opposed this, and [p]Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite gave them support.

16Then the descendants of the captivity

just in consuming them, even to the point of leaving no remnant or survivor. But in His great mercy, God provided a way out for Israel. In an even greater way, He provided a way out for all mankind. Sin is always sin, no matter how small it may seem to us. God would be justified in destroying us all for only one sin. God is just. This means that He cannot tolerate sin even a little bit. But He is also more loving, kind, and compassionate than we can comprehend. In His mercy, He provided the way out. He sent His son to pay the price of our sin for us. In this way His justice was satisfied, and at the same time His love provided a way to save us.

9:15 we are left as a remnant. It is true that Israel was rebellious and evil at times in her history. Kings and Chronicles record how wicked they had become. But the people who returned to rebuild the temple were a chastened and different generation from the one taken into captivity. The men and women who went back were determined to obey God's laws and would not tolerate idolatry. While the returning Jews succeeded in ridding themselves of heathen idol worship, they created another problem. They set in motion a legalistic system that culminated with a people who valued their interpretation of the law over the Scriptures. The condition progressed until Jesus spoke out against their extremism and their lack of mercy and compassion (Matt. 23:1–36).

10:3 Fear of God—When one thinks of fear, usually what comes to mind is dread and alarm—an unpleasant emotion caused by the anticipation of danger or a threat. But the fear of God is another thing. We tremble and obey Him, not out of dread but out of deep reverence for an almighty God. The covenant the men of Israel made with God was the most binding form of covenant a person could make. They were pledging "in the fear of God" to do as they promised.

did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain [q]heads of the fathers' households, were set apart by the fathers' households, each of them by name; and they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. 17By the first day of the first month they finished questioning all the men who had taken pagan wives.

Pagan Wives Put Away

18And among the sons of the priests who had taken pagan wives the following were found of the sons of [r]Jeshua the son of Jozadak,* and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. 19And they [s]gave their promise that they would put away their wives; and being [t]guilty, they presented a ram of the flock as their [u]trespass offering.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH

▶ AUTHOR: It is apparent that much of this book came from Nehemiah's personal memoirs. The account is extremely vivid and frank. Obviously, 1:1—7:5; 12:27–43; and 13:4–31 are the "words of Nehemiah." Some scholars state that Nehemiah composed the above portions and compiled the rest. Others feel that Ezra wrote 7:6—12:26 and 12:44—13:3, then put together the rest using Nehemiah's diary. Nehemiah 7:5–73 and Ezra 2:1–70 are almost identical, but both lists may have been pulled from an existing record of the same period.

▶ TIME: 444–425 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Neh. 6:15

▶ THEME: Nehemiah's role in rebuilding the temple and the walls of Jerusalem is more political than physical, as he deals with the new political situation arising in Persia and in Jerusalem. He also serves as the general contractor who pulls together the raw materials and the workers while orchestrating the rebuilding process. Within all his work, there is an underlying understanding that he has been called by God to do this work and is fulfilling God's purposes. When the people don't follow through with adhering to the law, Nehemiah is just as forceful as Ezra in calling the people back to repentance and obedience.

Nehemiah Prays for His People

1 The words of [a]Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

It came to pass in the month of Chislev, in the [b]twentieth year, as I was in [c]Shushan* the citadel, 2that [d]Hanani one of my brethren came with men from Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. 3And they said to me, "The survivors who are left from the captivity in the [e]province are there in great distress and [f]reproach. [g]The wall of Jerusalem [h]is also broken down, and its gates are burned with fire."

4So it was, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days; I was fasting and praying before the God of heaven.

5And I said: "I pray, [i]LORD God of heaven, O great and [j]awesome God, [k]You who keep Your covenant and mercy with those who love You* and observe Your* commandments, 6please let Your ear be attentive and [l]Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant which I pray before You now, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and [m]confess the sins of the children of Israel which we have sinned against You. Both my father's house and I have sinned. 7[n]We have acted very corruptly against You, and have [o]not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You commanded Your servant Moses. 8Remember, I pray, the word that You commanded Your

It was he who had commissioned Ezra to return to Jerusalem (Ezra 7:1). Shushan the citadel. The capital, or fortified royal palace, was built on an acropolis about 150 miles north of the Persian Gulf, in present day Iran. 1:5 Obedience—The covenant of God with the Israelites had been made with the understanding that obedience would bring God's great blessings, and the result of rebellion would be curses, one of which was captivity (Deut. 28–30). God had been patient for a long time, but eventually the nation was overpowered, and many of the people taken into captivity. Nehemiah acknowledged not only the necessity of obedience, but the confidence that he had that God would answer his prayer because God said He would hear and bless the obedient.

For I was the king's [v]cupbearer.

Nehemiah Sent to Judah

2 And it came to pass in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of [a]King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, that [b]I took the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never been sad in his presence before. [2]Therefore the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing but [c]sorrow of heart."

So I became dreadfully afraid, [3]and said to the king, [d]"May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when [e]the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with [f]fire?"

[4]Then the king said to me, "What do you request?"

So I [g]prayed to the God of heaven. [5]And I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may rebuild it."

[6]Then the king said to me (the queen also sitting beside him), "How long will your journey be? And when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him [h]a time.

[7]Furthermore I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given to me for the [i]governors of the region beyond the River,* that they must permit me to pass through till I come to Judah, [8]and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he must give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel which pertains [j]to the temple,* for the city wall, and for the house that I will occupy." And the king granted them to me [k]according to the good hand of my God upon me.

[9]Then I went to the governors in the region beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. [10]When [l]Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite official* heard of it, they were deeply disturbed that a man had come to seek the well-being of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Views the Wall of Jerusalem

[11]So I [m]came to Jerusalem and was there three days. [12]Then I arose in the night, I and a few men with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem; nor was there any animal with me, except the one on which I rode. [13]And I went out by night [n]through the Valley Gate to the Serpent Well and the Refuse Gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem which were [o]broken down and its gates which were burned with fire. [14]Then I went on to the [p]Fountain Gate and to the [q]King's Pool, but there was no room for the animal under me to pass. [15]So I went up in the night by the [r]valley, and viewed the wall; then I turned back and entered by the Valley Gate, and so returned. [16]And the officials did not know where I had gone or what I had done; I had not yet told the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or the others who did the work.

[17]Then I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lies

1:11 the king's cupbearer. As the king's cupbearer, Nehemiah held an honored position. His constant proximity to the king of Persia made him privy to the state secrets and personal affairs of the king.

2:2 face sad. Persian monarchs believed that just being in their presence would make any person happy. Yet, Nehemiah was about to request the emperor's permission to go to Jerusalem, suggesting that he would rather be somewhere other than in the emperor's presence. In addition to this, it was Artaxerxes himself who had ordered the work on the wall to be stopped (Ezra 4:21–23). Nehemiah had reason to be afraid.

2:4 I prayed. Even though Nehemiah had come into the presence of the king, he never left the presence of God.

2:8 the king's forest . . . timber. Jerusalem had plenty of limestone for building projects, but timber was scarce.

2:10 the Ammonite. At the time of Nehemiah, the Ammonites (Gen. 19:38) had pushed west into the land vacated by Judah. The prospect of a strong Jewish community in newly fortified Jerusalem would have seemed threatening.

18And I told them of [t]the hand of my God which had been good upon me, and also of the king's words that he had spoken to me.

So they said, "Let us rise up and build." Then they [u]set their hands to this good work.

19But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard of it, they laughed at us and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? [v]Will you rebel against the king?"

20So I answered them, and said to them, "The God of heaven Himself will prosper us; therefore we His servants will arise and build, [w]but you have no heritage or right or memorial in Jerusalem."

Rebuilding the Wall

3 Then [a]Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests [b]and built the Sheep Gate; they consecrated it and hung its doors. They built [c]as far as the Tower of the Hundred,* and consecrated it, then as far as the Tower of [d]Hananel. 2Next to *Eliashib [e]the men of Jericho built. And next to them Zaccur the son of Imri built.

3Also the sons of Hassenaah built [f]the Fish Gate; they laid its beams and [g]hung its doors with its bolts and bars. 4And next to them [h]Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,* made repairs. Next to them [i]Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs. Next to them Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. 5Next to them the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles did not put their shoulders* to [j]the work of their Lord.

6Moreover Jehoiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired [k]the Old Gate; they laid its beams and hung its doors, with its bolts and bars. 7And next to them Melatiah the Gibeonite, Jadon the Meronothite, the [l]men of Gibeon and Mizpah, repaired the [m]residence* of the governor of the region beyond the River. 8Next to him Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Also next to him Hananiah, one* of the perfumers, made repairs; and they fortified Jerusalem as far as the [n]Broad Wall. 9And next to them Rephaiah the son of Hur, leader of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. 10Next to them Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs in front of his house. And next to him Hattush the son of Hashabniah made repairs.

11Malchijah the son of Harim and Hashub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, [o]as well as the Tower of the Ovens. 12And next to him was Shallum the son of Hallohesh, leader of half the district of Jerusalem; he and his daughters made repairs.

13Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired [p]the Valley Gate. They built it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired a thousand cubits of the wall as far as [q]the Refuse Gate.

14Malchijah the son of Rechab, leader of the district of [r]Beth Haccerem, repaired the Refuse Gate; he built it and hung its doors with its bolts and bars.

15Shallun the son of Col-Hozeh, leader of the district of Mizpah, repaired [s]the Fountain Gate; he built it, covered it, hung its doors with its bolts and bars, and repaired the wall of the Pool of [t]Shelah by the [u]King's Garden, as far as the stairs that go down from the City of David. 16After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, leader of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs as far as the place in front of the tombs* of David, to the [v]man-made pool, and as far as the House of the Mighty.

17After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him Hashabiah, leader of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. 18After him their brethren, under Bavai* the son of Henadad, leader of the other half of the district of Keilah, made repairs. 19And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the leader of Mizpah, repaired another section in front of the Ascent to the Armory at the [w]buttress. 20After him Baruch the son of Zabbai* carefully repaired the other section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. 21After him Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz,* repaired another section, from the

After him Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the East Gate, made repairs. 30After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs in front of his dwelling. 31After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, in front of the Miphkad* Gate, and as far as the upper room at the corner. 32And between the upper room at the corner, as far as the [e]Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

The Wall Defended Against Enemies

4 But it so happened, [a]when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was furious and very indignant, and mocked the Jews. 2And he spoke before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they complete it in a day? Will they revive the stones from the heaps of rubbish—stones that are burned?"

3Now [b]Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, "Whatever they build, if even a fox goes up on it, he will break down their stone wall."

4[c]Hear, O our God, for we are despised; [d]turn their reproach on their own heads, and give them as plunder to a land of captivity! 5[e]Do not cover their iniquity, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You; for they have provoked You to anger before the builders.

6So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a mind to work.

7Now it happened, [f]when Sanballat, Tobiah, [g]the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being restored and the gaps were beginning to be closed, that they became very angry, 8and all of them [h]conspired together to come and attack Jerusalem and create confusion. 9Nevertheless [i]we made our prayer to our God, and because of them we set a watch against them day and night.

10Then Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing, and there is so much rubbish that we are not able to build the wall."

11And our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see anything, till we come into their midst and kill them and cause the work to cease."

12So it was, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, that they told us ten times, "From whatever place you turn, they will be upon us."

13Therefore I positioned men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings; and I set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows. 14And I looked, and arose and said to the nobles, to the leaders, and to the rest of the people, [j]"Do not be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, [k]great and awesome, and [l]fight for your brethren, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

15And it happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and [m]that God had brought their plot to nothing, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work. 16So it was, from that time on, that half of my servants worked at construction, while the other half held the

4:9 Prayer—It is difficult to work in a hostile environment. Ambition, courage, and preparation are important in a situation like this, and so is prayer. If we are not careful to ask God to protect us, our fear can cripple us as much as the animosity of our enemies. No matter how prepared we may be for a crisis, the power of God is the ultimate factor in determining whether we win or lose.

spears, the shields, the bows, and wore armor; and the leaders were behind all the house of Judah. 17Those who built on the wall, and those who carried burdens, loaded themselves so that with one hand they worked at construction, and with the other held a weapon. 18Every one of the builders had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the trumpet was beside me.

19Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "The work is great and extensive, and we are separated far from one another on the wall. 20Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet, rally to us there. [n]Our God will fight for us."

21So we labored in the work, and half of *the men held the spears from daybreak until the stars appeared. 22At the same time I also said to the people, "Let each man and his servant stay at night in Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party by day." 23So neither I, my brethren, my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes, except that everyone took them off for washing.

Nehemiah Deals with Oppression

5 And there was a great [a]outcry of the people and their wives against their [b]Jewish brethren. 2For there were those who said, "We, our sons, and our daughters are many; therefore let us get grain, that we may eat and live."

3There were also some who said, "We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses, that we might buy grain because of the famine."

4There were also those who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tax on our lands and vineyards. 5Yet now [c]our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and indeed we [d]are forcing our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have been brought into slavery. It is not in our power to redeem them, for other men have our lands and vineyards."

6And I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. 7After serious thought, I rebuked the nobles and rulers, and said to them, [e]"Each of you is exacting usury from his brother." So I called a great assembly against them. 8And I said to them, "According to our ability we have [f]redeemed our Jewish brethren who were sold to the nations. Now indeed, will you even sell your brethren? Or should they be sold to us?"

Then they were silenced and found nothing to say. 9Then I said, "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk [g]in the fear of our God [h]because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? 10I also, with my brethren and my servants, am lending them money and grain. Please, let us stop this usury! 11Restore now to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also a hundredth of the money and the grain, the new wine and the oil, that you have charged them."

12So they said, "We will restore it, and will require nothing from them; we will do as you say."

Then I called the priests, [i]and required an oath from them that they would do according to this promise. 13Then [j]I shook out the fold of my garment* and said, "So may God shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not perform this promise. Even thus may he be shaken out and emptied."

And all the assembly said, "Amen!" and praised the LORD. [k]Then the people did according to this promise.

The Generosity of Nehemiah

14Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year [l]until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers [m]ate the governor's provisions. 15But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver. Yes, even their servants bore rule over the people, but [n]I did not do so,

5:7 exacting usury. It was not wrong to lend money to a fellow Jew, or even to lend money at interest to a non-Jewish person, but it was forbidden to charge interest to a fellow Jew (Ex. 22:25; Deut. 23:19–20). The people had already fallen back into disobedience.

5:9 Fear of God—Fear of God is the knowledge that God has the right to judge our actions for good or evil. It is the basis for keeping the commandments which concern other men. We do not murder because it is taking the life of one who bears the image and likeness of God. We deal honestly with one another, we do not covet our neighbor's possessions, or abridge any of his rights, because those things are given to him by God, and our neighbor belongs to God who created him. If we do not walk in the fear of the Lord, we demonstrate our pride and presumption to those who are watching us.

5:11 hundredth. This is probably a reference to the interest the nobles and rulers had been charging.

5:15 former governors. Several former governors had paid their own expenses with the people's taxes. During his twelve year administration (444–432 B.C.), Nehemiah did not collect taxes from the people, although as the governor he had the right to.

because of the [o]fear of God. 16Indeed, I also continued the [p]work on this wall, and we* did not buy any land. All my servants were gathered there for the work.

17And [q]at my table were one hundred and fifty Jews and rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us. 18Now that [r]which was prepared daily was one ox and six choice sheep. Also fowl were prepared for me, and once every ten days an abundance of all kinds of wine. Yet in spite of this I [s]did not demand the governor's provisions, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

19[t]Remember me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Conspiracy Against Nehemiah

6 Now it happened [a]when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it [b](though at that time I had not hung the doors in the gates), 2that Sanballat and Geshem [c]sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together among the villages in the plain of [d]Ono." But they [e]thought to do me harm.

3So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and go down to you?"

4But they sent me this message four times, and I answered them in the same manner.

5Then Sanballat sent his servant to me as before, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6In it was written:

> It is reported among the nations, and Geshem* says, that you and the Jews plan to rebel; therefore, according to these rumors, you are rebuilding the wall, [f]that you may be their king. 7And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Jerusalem, saying, "There is a king in Judah!" Now these matters will be reported to the king. So come, therefore, and let us consult together.

8Then I sent to him, saying, "No such things as you say are being done, but you invent them in your own heart."

9For they all were trying to make us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened in the work, and it will not be done."

Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was a secret informer; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, at night they will come to kill you."

11And I said, "Should such a man as I flee? And who is there such as I who would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!" 12Then I perceived that God had not sent him at all, but that [g]he pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. 13For this reason he was hired, that I should be afraid and act that way and sin, so that they might have cause for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14[h]My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and the [i]prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

The Wall Completed

15So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. 16And it happened, [j]when all our enemies heard of it, and all the nations around us saw these things, that they were very disheartened in their own eyes; for [k]they perceived that this work was done by our God.

17Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them. 18For many in Judah were pledged to him, because he was the [l]son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of [m]Meshullam the son of Berechiah. 19Also they reported his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

7 Then it was, when the wall was built and I had [a]hung the doors, when the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites

Whether he was pretending to represent God, or was speaking with "authority" because he claimed that he had inside information, Shemaiah's strategy was to get Nehemiah sidetracked.

6:16 Providence—The fact that the Jews were able to finish the wall so quickly and with such singleness of purpose said even to their enemies that it was God who had helped them. God always provides everything we need to do His work. It is when we get off on our own agendas that we are short of energy and resources. Like Nehemiah, we need to pray for God's direct guidance, and then pray to keep our focus on His plan.

The Captives Who Returned to Jerusalem

4Now the city was large and spacious, but the people in it were [e]few, and the houses were not rebuilt. 5Then my God put it into my heart to gather the nobles, the rulers, and the people, that they might be registered by genealogy. And I found a register of those who had been carried away,

Ezra Reads the Law

[o]When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

8 Now all [a]the people gathered together as one man in the open square that was [b]in front of the Water Gate; and they told Ezra the [c]scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded Israel. 2So Ezra the priest brought [d]the Law before the assembly of men and women and all who could hear with understanding [e]on the first day of the seventh month. 3Then he [f]read from it in the open square that was in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law.

4So Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose; and beside him, at his right hand, stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Urijah, Hilkiah, and Maaseiah; and at his left hand Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. 5And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people [g]stood up. 6And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God.

Then all the people [h]answered, "Amen, Amen!" while [i]lifting up their hands. And they [j]bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7Also Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, [k]helped the people to understand the Law; and the people [l]stood in their place. 8So they read distinctly from the book, in the Law of God; and they gave the sense, and helped them to understand the reading.

8:3 Reading God's Word—There are many parts of the world today that still have limited access to the Bible and below-average literacy rates. Even if they could obtain a Bible they might not be able to read it. Other areas of the world have a well-educated population and freedom to pursue any religion they choose. Throughout much of history, the only access to Scripture was through someone who read it in a public or church setting. Today most of the western world has access to audio recordings of the Bible or to numerous printed versions. Here are some suggestions to aid you in receiving the greatest benefit from reading or listening to the Bible:

- Read the Bible prayerfully. Ask the Spirit of God to meet your heart's need as you read (Ps. 119:18).
- Read the Bible thoughtfully. Think about the meaning and implications of what you are reading.
- Read the Bible carefully. Take careful note not only of the words that are used but also of how they relate to one another.
- Read the Bible repeatedly. It may be of great help to read the same portion over and over again each day for a month's time. This is a good way for the words to take root in your heart. If you are reading a short book, read it every day. Divide longer books up into manageable portions of two or three chapters and read that portion through every day.
- Read the Bible extensively. Sometimes it is of great help to read large portions of the Word of God through at one sitting. If you do this, do it at a time when you are alert and not likely to be disturbed during your reading.
- Read the Bible regularly. It is good to have a particular time every day when you habitually give yourself to the reading of the Word of God.
- Read the Bible faithfully. Inevitably there will be days when you will fail to read the Bible. Do not let your momentary lapse discourage you. Faithfully resume your practice of reading God's Word.
- Read the Bible obediently. Because the Bible is God's Word written to you, it is essential to obey it (Ex. 42:3).
- Read the Bible thankfully. Thank God for the gift He has given us in Scripture. Thank Him that you have the freedom or the opportunity to read the Bible at all.

8:5 all the people stood up. Standing signified their reverence for the Word. This gesture later became characteristic of the Jewish people in synagogue services.

8:6 lifting up their hands. The people answered "Amen" and lifted their hands, indicating their participation with Ezra in prayer.

8:9 God's Word Convicts—One of the great proofs that the Bible is really God's inspired Word is its unique ability to convict men and women of their sins. There are many biblical stories that point to this phenomenon where people realize the extent of their sin and the need to repent of it.

Under Josiah's rule a copy of God's Word is found in the temple. When it is read both the king and the people are convicted of their sins in not keeping God's law. Afterwards a great revival occurs (2 Chr. 34:14–28).

When Nehemiah returns to Israel to help the returning Jews rebuild the gates of Jerusalem, he assembles the people and has the Scriptures read to them for three hours a day. This soon causes them to confess their sin (Neh. 9:3).

In the New Testament we see many instances where the Holy Spirit uses God's Word to convict Levites who taught the people said to all the people, [n]"This day is holy to the LORD your God; [o]do not mourn nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

10Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat, drink the sweet, [p]and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not sorrow, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

11So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Be still, for the day is holy; do not be grieved." 12And all the people went their way to eat and drink, to [q]send portions and rejoice greatly, because they [r]understood the words that were declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

13Now on the second day the heads of the fathers' houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to understand the words of the Law. 14And they found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in [s]booths during the feast of the seventh month, 15and [t]that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and [u]in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and [v]bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written."

16Then the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the [w]roof of his house, or in their courtyards or the courts of the house of God, and in the open square of the [x]Water Gate [y]and in the open square of the Gate of Ephraim. 17So the whole assembly of those who had returned from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths; for since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very [z]great gladness. 18Also [a]day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. And they kept the feast [b]seven days; and on the [c]eighth day there was a sacred assembly, according to the prescribed manner.

The People Confess Their Sins

9 Now on the twenty-fourth day of [a]this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, in sackcloth, [b]and with dust on their heads.* 2Then [c]those of Israelite lineage separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and [d]confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. 3And they stood up in their place and [e]read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for one-fourth of the day; and for another fourth they confessed and worshiped the LORD their God.

4Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to the LORD their God. 5And the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

"Stand up and bless the LORD your God
Forever and ever!

"Blessed be [f]Your glorious name,
Which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

6 [g]You alone are the LORD;
[h]You have made heaven,
[i]The heaven of heavens, with [j]all their host,
The earth and everything on it,
The seas and all that is in them,
And You [k]preserve them all.
The host of heaven worships You.

people of their sin. At Pentecost Peter uses the Scriptures to rebuke Israel for crucifying its Messiah. The result of his sermon is three thousand souls being convicted and accepting Christ (Acts 2:37,41).

8:9–10 Repentance—Once the people understood the Word of God, they wept. They had heard the high standard of the law, recognized their low standing before the Lord, and were convicted. Weeping and sorrow for sin are part of repentance. But the other part of repentance is change. With change comes joy. The joy of the Lord is the joy that springs up in our hearts because of our relationship to the Lord. It is a God-given gladness found when we are in communion with God. When our goal is to know more about the Lord, the byproduct is His joy.

8:17 since the days of Joshua. The reference here is to the construction of booths. The people of Israel had celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles since the days of Joshua (1 Kin. 8:65; 2 Chr. 7:9; Ezra 3:4).

9:1 the twenty-fourth day of this month. The people's public worship had begun on the first day of the seventh month (8:2). More than three weeks later, the people were still engaged in public worship. fasting, in sackcloth, and with dust. These are all traditional signs of mourning.

9:2 separated . . . from all foreigners. The separation was a sacred separation from foreign persons who worshiped other gods and whose practices might have brought harm to the integrity of the worship of the Lord.

9:3 confessed. When this word is used with God as its object, as in this verse, it refers to the praise of God. They were acknowledging His attributes and worthiness of praise.

9:6 You alone are the LORD. One of the fundamental teachings of Scripture is that God is not one among many. He alone is the living God (Deut. 6:4).

To give it to his descendants.
You [p]have performed Your words,
For You are righteous.

9 "You[q] saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt,
And [r]heard their cry by the Red Sea.
10 You [s]showed signs and wonders against Pharaoh,
Against all his servants,
And against all the people of his land.
For You knew that they [t]acted proudly against them.
So You [u]made a name for Yourself, as it is this day.
11 [v]And You divided the sea before them,
So that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land;
And their persecutors You threw into the deep,
[w]As a stone into the mighty waters.
12 Moreover You [x]led them by day with a cloudy pillar,
And by night with a pillar of fire,
To give them light on the road
Which they should travel.

13 "You[y] came down also on Mount Sinai,
And spoke with them from heaven,
And gave them [z]just ordinances and true laws,
Good statutes and commandments.
14 You made known to them Your [a]holy Sabbath,
And commanded them precepts, statutes and laws,
By the hand of Moses Your servant.
15 You [b]gave them bread from heaven for their hunger,
And [c]brought them water out of the rock for their thirst,
And told them to [d]go in to possess the land
Which You had sworn to give them.

16 "But[e] they and our fathers acted proudly,
[f]Hardened their necks,
And did not heed Your commandments.
17 They refused to obey,
And [g]they were not mindful of Your wonders
That You did among them.
But they hardened their necks,
And in their rebellion*
They appointed [h]a leader

And did not forsake them.

And worked great provocations,
19 Yet in Your [k]manifold mercies
You did not forsake them in the wilderness.
The [l]pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day,
To lead them on the road;
Nor the pillar of fire by night,
To show them light,
And the way they should go.
20 You also gave Your [m]good Spirit to instruct them,
And did not withhold Your [n]manna from their mouth,
And gave them [o]water for their thirst.
21 [p]Forty years You sustained them in the wilderness;
They lacked nothing;

* 9:17 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Septuagint reads in Egypt.

9:7 You are the LORD God. The word order of the Hebrew text is striking: "You are He, Yahweh (the) God." The use of the definite article marks Him as "the true God."

9:9 affliction of our fathers in Egypt. The Book of Exodus tells about the plight of the Israelites in Egypt and their complaint to the Lord for deliverance. It then speaks of God's mercy in His response to the people's need. This verse suggests that before the people expressed their hurt, the Lord was already aware of their troubles.

9:11 Persecution—No one asks for or welcomes persecution. But history has borne out the fact that when believers are persecuted they draw close to the Lord. They are keenly aware that they are dependent on Him for strength, endurance, and even sustenance. Some of the sweetest times with the Lord are the times when unbelievers pity us for our tribulation. Times of rest bring independence of spirit. This is when it helps to go back and remember the things that the Lord has done in the past and rejoice, and to remember that He is sufficient for future persecution as well.

And the land of Og king of Bashan.
23 You also multiplied [s]their children as the stars of heaven,
And brought them into the land
Which You had told their fathers
To go in and possess.
24 So [t]the people went in
And possessed the land;
[u]You subdued before them the

That You might bring them back to commandments,

But sinned against Your judgments,

with them,

Yet they would not listen; [k]Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
31 Nevertheless in Your great mercy [l]You did not utterly consume them nor forsake them;
For You are God, gracious and merciful.

32 "Now therefore, our God,
The great, the [m]mighty, and awesome
God,
Who keeps covenant and mercy:
Do not let all the trouble seem small before You

9:26 killed Your prophets. Jesus also directed this charge against the rebellious people of His time (Matt. 23:31).

9:30–31 Patience—Nehemiah writes, "You had patience with them." This is the same eternal God who still patiently bears with His people. Even as born-again believers we struggle with sin, and we are thankful that He is patient with us as we grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ (2 Pet. 3:18). This patience does not mean that He is tolerant of sin, but that He knows that it takes perseverance to walk as a Christian. He gives us time to grow. Indeed, God is patient to the whole world, not wishing for any to perish, but for all to come to repentance (2 Pet. 3:9).

9:32 covenant. God's covenant and loyalty are unbreakable (2 Tim. 2:11–13). this day. "This day" refers to the time of the great revival under Ezra (8:1–2).

gave them,
Or in the large and rich land which
You set before them;
Nor did they turn from their wicked
works.
36 "Here [r]we are, servants today!
And the land that You gave to our
fathers,
To eat its fruit and its bounty,
Here we are, servants in it!
37 And [s]it yields much increase to the kings
You have set over us,
Because of our sins;
Also they have [t]dominion over our bodies and our cattle
At their pleasure;
And we are in great distress.
38 "And because of all this,
We [u]make a sure covenant and write
it;
Our leaders, our Levites, and our priests [v]seal it."

The People Who Sealed the Covenant

10 Now those who placed their seal on the document were:
Nehemiah the governor, [a]the son of Hacaliah, and Zedekiah, 2[b]Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, 3Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah, 4Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, 5Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, 6Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, 7Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, 8Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests.
9The Levites: Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel.
10Their brethren: Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 11Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah, 12Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, 13Hodijah, Bani, and Beninu.
14The leaders of the people: [c]Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, 15Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, 16Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, 17Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, 18Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, 19Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, 20Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, 21Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, 22Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, 23Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, 24Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, 25Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, 26Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, 27Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

The Covenant That Was Sealed

28[d]Now the rest of the people—the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, [e]and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the Law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and understanding—29these joined with their brethren, their nobles, [f]and entered into a curse and an oath [g]to walk in God's Law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and His ordinances and His statutes: 30We would not give [h]our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; 31[i]if the peoples of the land brought wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and we would forego the [j]seventh year's produce and the [k]exacting of every debt.
32Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to exact from ourselves yearly [l]one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: 33for [m]the showbread, for the regular grain offering, for the [n]regular burnt offering of the Sabbaths, the New Moons, and the set feasts; for the holy things, for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and all the work of the house of our God. 34We cast lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, [o]for bringing the wood offering into the house of our God, according to our

9:38 because of all this. The psalm ends in action, not just sentiment. The intent was to bring the participants in this time of worship and remembrance to a commitment to change behavior and to pledge to mirror God's faithfulness.
10:1 those who placed their seal. The way a person in official capacity "signed" a document in the ancient world was similar to the use of a wax seal. A personally distinctive seal was pressed into soft clay. The pattern of the seal identified the official who had issued the document.
10:30 would not give our daughters. Marriage with non-Jewish people was strictly forbidden in Scriptures (Ex. 34:12–16; Deut. 7:3; Josh. 23:12–13; Judg. 3:6). Ezra had dealt very decisively with those who had married foreign wives, and this was still in their memory (Ezra 9–10).

fathers' houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God [p]as it is written in the Law.

35And we made ordinances [q]to bring the firstfruits of our ground and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; 36to bring the [r]firstborn of our sons and our cattle, as it is written in the Law, and the firstborn of our herds and our flocks, to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; 37[s]to bring the firstfruits of our dough, our offerings, the fruit from all kinds of trees, the new wine and oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the house of our God; and to bring [t]the tithes of our land to the Levites, for the Levites should receive the tithes in all our farming communities. 38And the priest, the descendant of Aaron, shall be with the Levites [u]when the Levites receive tithes; and the Levites shall bring up a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to [v]the rooms of the storehouse.

39For the children of Israel and the children of Levi [w]shall bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the articles of the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister and the gatekeepers [x]and the singers are; and we will not [y]neglect the house of our God.

The People Dwelling in Jerusalem

11 Now the leaders of the people dwelt at Jerusalem; the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, [a]the holy city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities. 2And the people blessed all the men who [b]willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

3[c]These are the heads of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (But in the cities of Judah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities—Israelites, priests, Levites, [d]Nethinim, and [e]descendants of Solomon's servants.) 4Also [f]in Jerusalem dwelt some of the children of Judah and of the children of Benjamin.

The children of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, of the children of [g]Perez; 5and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. 6All the sons of Perez who dwelt at Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

7And these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah; 8and after him Gabbai and Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight. 9Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer, and Judah the son of Senuah* was second over the city.

10[h]Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, and Jachin; 11Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the leader of the house of God. 12Their brethren who did the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, 13and his brethren, heads of the fathers' houses, were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14and their brethren, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel the son of one of the great men.*

15Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; 16[i]Shabbethai and [j]Jozabad, of the heads of the Levites, had the oversight of [k]the business outside of the house of God; 17Mattaniah the son of Micha,* the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer; Bakbukiah, the second among his brethren; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. 18All the Levites in [l]the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19Moreover the gatekeepers, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren who kept the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

20And the rest of Israel, of the priests and Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. 21[m]But the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel. And Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

22Also the overseer of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha, of the sons of Asaph, the singers in charge of the service of the house of God. 23For [n]it was the king's command concerning them that a certain

Solomon wrote, "The lot is cast into the lap, but its every decision is from the LORD" (Prov. 16:33). one out of ten. This was the proportion determined in order to bring the population of Jerusalem to the level deemed necessary for its strength and viability.

portion should be for the singers, a quota day by day. 24Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of [o]Zerah the son of Judah, was [p]the king's deputy* in all matters concerning the people.

The People Dwelling Outside Jerusalem

25And as for the villages with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt in [q]Kirjath Arba and its villages, Dibon and its villages, Jekabzeel and its villages; 26in Jeshua, Moladah, Beth Pelet, 27Hazar Shual, and Beersheba and its villages; 28in Ziklag and Meconah and its villages; 29in En Rimmon, Zorah, Jarmuth, 30Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages; in Lachish and its fields; in Azekah and its villages. They dwelt from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31Also the children of Benjamin from Geba dwelt in Michmash, Aija, and Bethel, and their villages; 32in Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah; 33in Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim; 34in Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat; 35in Lod, Ono, and [r]the Valley of Craftsmen. 36Some of the Judean divisions of Levites were in Benjamin.

The Priests and Levites

12 Now these are the [a]priests and the Levites who came up with [b]Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: [c]Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra, 2Amariah, Malluch, Hattush, 3Shechaniah, Rehum, Meremoth, 4Iddo, Ginnethoi,* [d]Abijah, 5Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah, 6Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah, 7Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.

These were the heads of the priests and their brethren in the days of [e]Jeshua.

8Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah [f]who led the thanksgiving psalms, he and his brethren. 9Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, stood across from them in their duties.

10Jeshua begot Joiakim, Joiakim begot Eliashib, Eliashib begot Joiada, 11Joiada begot Jonathan, and Jonathan begot Jaddua.

12Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, the [g]heads of the fathers' houses were: of Seraiah, Meraiah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; 13of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, Jehohanan; 14of Melichu,* Jonathan; of Shebaniah,* Joseph; 15of Harim,* Adna; of Meraioth,* Helkai; 16of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam; 17of Abijah, Zichri; the son of Minjamin;* of Moadiah,* Piltai; 18of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan; 19of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; 20of Sallai,* Kallai; of Amok, Eber; 21of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

22During the reign of Darius the Persian, a record was also kept of the Levites and priests who had been [h]heads of their fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua. 23The sons of Levi, the heads of the fathers' houses until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib, were written in the book of the [i]chronicles.

24And the heads of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to [j]praise and give thanks, [k]group alternating with group, [l]according to the command of David the man of God. 25Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers keeping the watch at the storerooms of the gates. 26These lived in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak,* and in the days of Nehemiah [m]the governor, and of Ezra the priest, [n]the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the Wall

27Now at [o]the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought out the Levites in all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with gladness, [p]both with thanksgivings and singing, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps. 28And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Jerusalem, from the [q]villages of the Netophathites, 29from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth;

12:23 the book of the chronicles. The book of the chronicles was not the biblical book, but an official record of the heads of the fathers' houses.

12:27 dedication of the wall. After the completion of Jerusalem's wall (ch. 6), the people repented and renewed their commitment to the Lord (chs. 8–10). The repopulation of Jerusalem was ordered, so the dedication was delayed.

for the singers had built themselves villages all around Jerusalem. 30Then the priests and Levites [r]purified themselves, and purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

31So I brought the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs. [s]One went to the right hand on the wall [t]toward the Refuse Gate. 32After them went Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah, 33and Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, 34Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, Jeremiah, 35and some of the priests' sons [u]with trumpets—Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph, 36and his brethren, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani, with [v]the musical [w]instruments of David the man of God. And Ezra the scribe went before them. 37[x]By the Fountain Gate, in front of them, they went up [y]the stairs of the [z]City of David, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of David, as far as [a]the Water Gate eastward.

38[b]The other thanksgiving choir went the opposite way, and I was behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the [c]Tower of the Ovens as far as [d]the Broad Wall, 39[e]and above the Gate of Ephraim, above [f]the Old Gate, above [g]the Fish Gate, [h]the Tower of Hananel, the Tower of the Hundred, as far as [i]the Sheep Gate; and they stopped by [j]the Gate of the Prison.

40So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, likewise I and the half of the rulers with me; 41and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Minjamin,* Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; 42also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly with Jezrahiah the director.

43Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced, for God had made them rejoice with great joy; the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard [k]afar off.

Temple Responsibilities

44[l]And at the same time some were appointed over the rooms of the storehouse for the offerings, the firstfruits, and the [m]tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions specified by the Law for the priests and Levites; for Judah rejoiced over the priests and Levites who ministered. 45Both the singers and the gatekeepers kept the charge of their God and the charge of the purification, [n]according to the command of David and Solomon his son. 46For in the days of David [o]and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. 47In the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah all Israel gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for [p]each day. [q]They also consecrated holy things for the Levites, [r]and the Levites consecrated them for the children of Aaron.

Principles of Separation

13 On that day [a]they read from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written [b]that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever come into the assembly of God, 2because they had not met the children of Israel with bread and water, but [c]hired Balaam against them to curse them. [d]However, our God turned the curse into a blessing. 3So it was, when they had heard the Law, [e]that they separated all the mixed multitude from Israel.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

4Now before this, [f]Eliashib the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the house of our God, was allied with [g]Tobiah. 5And he had prepared for him a large room, [h]where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, the articles, the tithes of grain, the new wine and oil, [i]which were commanded to be given to the Levites and singers and gatekeepers, and the offerings for the priests. 6But during all this I was not in Jerusalem, [j]for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I had returned to the king.

* 12:41 Or Mijamin (compare verse 5)

12:31–46 Praise—Nehemiah choreographed a dramatic demonstration of praise, thanksgiving, and celebration on top of the wall. It was a wholehearted celebration to the Lord, and a visible victory dance before Israel's enemies. This time of praise had been preceded by repentance and reorganization of their duties to the temple and the city of Jerusalem. Praise that rises deep in the heart is always praise that comes from knowing that we are in good standing with God. We have repented of our sins and set our hearts and minds on obedience. God is good, His ways are infinitely right, and He is worthy of all of our enthusiastic worship.

12:43 sacrifices. The sacrifices offered at the dedication of the wall probably were not burnt offerings, but peace offerings in which the people shared a common meal. The dedication was an occasion for great rejoicing, and men, women, and children took part.

13:4–9 Tobiah. Tobiah was an Ammonite (2:10).

Then after certain days I obtained leave from the king, 7and I came to Jerusalem and discovered the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in [k]preparing a room for him in the courts of the house of God. 8And it grieved me bitterly; therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiah out of the room. 9Then I commanded them to [l]cleanse the rooms; and I brought back into them the articles of the house of God, with the grain offering and the frankincense.
10I also realized that the portions for the Levites had [m]not been given them; for each of the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone back to [n]his field.
11So [o]I contended with the rulers, and said,
[p]"Why is the house of God forsaken?" And I gathered them together and set them in their place. 12[q]Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse. 13[r]And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah; and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were considered [s]faithful, and their task was to distribute to their brethren.
14[t]Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and do not wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God,
and for its services!
15In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses [u]on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all kinds of burdens, [v]which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. And I warned them about the day on which they were selling provisions. 16Men of Tyre dwelt there also, who brought in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.
17Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, by which you profane the Sabbath day? 18[w]Did not your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this disaster on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."
19So it was, at the gates of Jerusalem, as it [x]began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and charged that they must not be opened till after the Sabbath. [y]Then I posted some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20Now the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside Jerusalem once or twice.
21Then I warned them, and said to them,
"Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you!" From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath. 22And I commanded the Levites that [z]they should cleanse themselves, and that they should go and guard
the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day.
Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of Your mercy!
23In those days I also saw Jews who [a]had married women of [b]Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. 24And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod, and could not speak the language of Judah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.
25So I [c]contended with them and cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them [d]swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves. 26[e]Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things?
Yet among many nations there was no king like him, [f]who was beloved of his God; and God made him king over all Israel. [g]Nevertheless pagan women caused even him to sin. 27Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, [h]transgressing against our God by marrying pagan women?"
28And one of the sons [i]of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of [j]Sanballat the Horonite; therefore I drove him from me.
29[k]Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and [l]the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.
30[m]Thus I cleansed them of everything pagan. I also [n]assigned duties to the priests and the Levites, each to his service, 31and to bringing [o]the wood offering and the firstfruits at appointed times.
[p]Remember me, O my God, for good!

13:23–24 Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. The problem of Jews marrying foreigners had been dealt with thirty years before by Ezra (Ezra 9–10).

13:25 cursed them . . . struck . . . them . . . pulled out their hair. It is unnerving to read this list of verbs and imagine the scene. These were not the dispassionate remarks of someone giving a seminar. Nehemiah forced them to comply to the will of God in this matter. After all, this was the principal issue that had led to Israel's captivity in the beginning.

13:28 son-in-law of Sanballat. The marriage was particularly offensive because it formed a treasonable alliance with Israel's enemies and compromised the purity of the high priesthood.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER

▶ AUTHOR: Even though the author's identity is not given in the text, it is obvious from the intimate knowledge of Persian customs and etiquette, the palace in Susa, and the details of the reign of King Ahasuerus, that the author lived in Persia during this period. The love expressed here for the Jewish people and the author's knowledge of Jewish customs further suggest Jewish authorship. It is also thought that this Persian Jew was either an eyewitness to the events or knew an eyewitness. It may be that this author had access to the detailed records kept by Mordecai.

▶ TIME: c. 483–473 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Esth. 4:14

▶ THEME: Esther is unique among the Scriptures for two reasons: God is not mentioned by name once, and the heroine is a woman who is part of the harem of a foreign king. The events of the book take place about 30 years before Nehemiah, after the temple in Jerusalem was rebuilt but before the walls were refinished. Esther probably helped to pave the way for Nehemiah's work. The book fits well within the tapestry of the Old Testament. Just as in so many other Old Testament narratives, God provides the means to preserve His people in the face of a severe crisis. It is still read aloud as part of the Purim celebration by Jewish people.

The King Dethrones Queen Vashti

1 Now it came to pass in the days of [a]Ahasuerus* (this was the Ahasuerus who reigned [b]over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, [c]from India to Ethiopia), 2in those days when King Ahasuerus [d]sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [e]Shushan* the citadel, 3that* in the third year of his reign he [f]made a feast for all his officials and servants—the powers of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the princes of the provinces being before him— 4when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the splendor of his excellent majesty for many days, one hundred and eighty days in all.

5And when these days were completed, the king made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in Shushan the citadel, from great to small, in the court of the garden of the king's palace. 6There were* white and blue linen curtains fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and marble pillars; and the [g]couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, turquoise, and white and black marble. 7And they served drinks in golden vessels, each vessel being different from the other, with royal wine in abundance, [h]according to the generosity of the king. 8In accordance with the law, the drinking was not compulsory; for so the king had ordered all the officers of his household, that they should do according to each man's pleasure.

9Queen Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which belonged to King Ahasuerus.

10On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, [i]Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, seven eunuchs who served in the presence of King Ahasuerus, 11to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown, in order to show her beauty to the people

1:1 Ahasuerus. The kingdom of Ahasuerus extended from India (the region drained by the Indus River) to Ethiopia (northern Sudan). The Persian Kingdom under Ahasuerus was divided into smaller areas called provinces and larger divisions called satrapies.
1:6 white . . . blue . . . and purple. These were the royal colors of the Persians.
1:8 not compulsory. The usual Persian custom was that guests at a banquet were required to drink each time the king raised his cup.
1:10 eunuchs. These were eunuchs who were castrated for the purpose of acting as harem attendants. They would have had the physical strength and stamina of any man, but not be a sexual threat to the king's women.

and the officials, for she was beautiful to behold. 12But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command brought by his eunuchs; therefore the king was furious, and his anger burned within him.

13Then the king said to the [j]wise men [k]who understood the times (for this was the king's manner toward all who knew law and justice, 14those closest to him being Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the [l]seven princes of Persia and Media, [m]who had access to the king's presence, and who ranked highest in the kingdom): 15"What shall we do to Queen Vashti, according to law, because she did not obey the command of King Ahasuerus brought to her by the eunuchs?"

16And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: "Queen Vashti has not only wronged the king, but also all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. 17For the queen's behavior will become known to all women, so that they will [n]despise their husbands in their eyes, when they report, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.' 18This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media will say to all the king's officials that they have heard of the behavior of the queen. Thus there will be excessive contempt and wrath. 19If it pleases the king, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it will [o]not be altered, that Vashti shall come no more before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal position to another who is better than she. 20When the king's decree which he will make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is great), all wives will [p]honor their husbands, both great and small."

21And the reply pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan. 22Then he sent letters to all the king's provinces, [q]to each province in its own script, and to every people in their own language, that each man should [r]be master in his own house, and speak in the language of his own people.

Esther Becomes Queen

2 After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus subsided, he remembered Vashti, [a]what she had done, and what had been decreed against her. 2Then the king's servants who attended him said: "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king; 3and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the citadel, into the women's quarters, under the custody of Hegai* the king's eunuch, custodian of the women. And let beauty preparations be given them. 4Then let the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti."

This thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5In Shushan the citadel there was a certain Jew whose name was Mordecai the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of [b]Kish, a Benjamite. 6[c]Kish had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been captured with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. 7And Mordecai had brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, [d]his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and beautiful. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

8So it was, when the king's command and decree were heard, and when many young women were [e]gathered at Shushan the citadel, under the custody of Hegai, that Esther also was taken to the king's palace, into the care of Hegai the custodian of the women. 9Now the young woman pleased

1:16–18 Memucan. Acting as spokesman for the others, Memucan responded shrewdly by enlarging the offense beyond a personal affront to the king. The Hebrew word used for despise occurs only here in the Old Testament.

2:5 Kish. Some think this may have been the Kish who was the father of King Saul (1 Sam. 9:1–2). It was not uncommon to refer to someone as "the son of" a more distant ancestor (Matt. 15:22).

2:6 had been carried away. This verse is a little confusing, as the Hebrew text does not indicate the subject of the verb "had been carried away." It seems highly unlikely that it could be Mordecai, because if he had been among those carried to Babylon, he would probably not be alive in the time of Ahasuerus. If the name Kish does not refer to a more distant ancestor, he may have been the one taken into captivity. Whatever the case, it is obvious that Mordecai and his family were among those descended from the captives taken to Babylon in the days of Nebuchadnezzar.

2:7 Hadassah. Hadassah is a Hebrew name that means "myrtle." Esther is a Persian name meaning "star." Jewish people in that time customarily had two names when they lived in places other than Israel. One would be their secular name, which was understood by their adopted culture, and the other would be their sacred name, given in Hebrew.

2:8 Esther also was taken. We cannot determine whether Esther went willingly or reluctantly to the

him, and she obtained his favor; so he readily gave [f]beauty preparations to her, besides her allowance. Then seven choice maidservants were provided for her from the king's palace, and he moved her and her maidservants to the best place in the house of the women.

10 [g]Esther had not revealed her people or family, for Mordecai had charged her not to reveal it. 11 And every day Mordecai paced in front of the court of the women's quarters, to learn of Esther's welfare and what was happening to her.

12 Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after she had completed twelve months' preparation, according to the regulations for the women, for thus were the days of their preparation apportioned: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and preparations for beautifying women. 13 Thus prepared, each young woman went to the king, and she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace. 14 In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who kept the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

15 Now when the turn came for Esther [h]the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his daughter, to go in to the king, she requested nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the custodian of the women, advised. And Esther [i]obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her. 16 So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. 17 The king loved Esther more than all the other women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so he set the royal [j]crown upon her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. 18 Then the king [k]made a great feast, the Feast of Esther, for all his officials and servants; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces and gave gifts according to the generosity of a king.

Mordecai Discovers a Plot

19 When virgins were gathered together a second time, Mordecai sat within the king's gate. 20 [l]Now Esther had not revealed her family and her people, just as Mordecai had charged her, for Esther obeyed the command of Mordecai as when she was brought up by him.

21 In those days, while Mordecai sat within the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, doorkeepers, became furious and sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus. 22 So the matter became known to Mordecai, [m]who told Queen Esther, and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. 23 And when an inquiry was made into the matter, it was confirmed, and both were hanged on a gallows; and it was written in [n]the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Haman's Conspiracy Against the Jews

3 After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, the son of Hammedatha the [a]Agagite, and [b]advanced him and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. 2 And all the king's servants who were [c]within the king's gate bowed and paid homage to Haman, for so the king had commanded concerning him. But Mordecai [d]would not bow or pay homage. 3 Then the king's servants who were within the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why do you transgress the [e]king's command?" 4 Now it happened, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told it to Haman, to see whether Mordecai's words would stand; for Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew. 5 When Haman saw that Mordecai [f]did not bow or pay him homage, Haman was [g]filled with wrath.

palace complex. But perhaps God was already preparing her for the work he had for her to do.

2:14 concubines. These women lived unfortunate, though highly pampered lives. If the king never called them again, they were destined to remain secluded in the harem for the rest of their lives.

2:21 sat within the king's gate. In ancient cities, the gates were the "courthouse" of the town, where official business was carried out (Deut. 22:13–15). The "king's gate" may have served a similar purpose.

3:1 the Agagite. Some believe Agagite is a reference to the historical district of Agag within the Persian Empire. Others believe this term more likely links Haman's descent to the Amalekites. These descendants of Esau (Gen. 36:12) were ancient enemies of the Hebrews (Ex. 17:8). Agag, a king of the Amalekites, was captured by King Saul (1 Sam. 15:8). If Haman was descended from the Amalekites, and Mordecai from the family of Saul (v. 5), then the irritation Haman had for Mordecai could have been a symptom of a long-standing family hostility.

3:2 bowed and paid homage. It is not known whether the bowing was required as an act of worship to the king's man, or merely as an overt sign of deep respect. If such obeisance indicated worship, Mordecai's reason for refusal is obvious. If it was merely a sign of respect, he may not have been able to bring himself to show such honor to one who was an ancestral enemy.

3:5–6 filled with wrath. If Haman was of Amalekite ancestry, it could be that this was the cause of his deep hatred. Also, it is possible that Haman simply

6But he disdained to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him of the people of Mordecai. Instead, Haman [h]sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus—the people of Mordecai.
7In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, [i]they cast Pur (that is, the lot), before Haman to determine the day and the month,* until it fell on the twelfth *month,
which is the month of Adar.
8Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus,
"There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom; [j]their laws are different from all other people's, and they do not keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not fitting for the king to let them remain. 9If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the king's treasuries."
10So the king [k]took [l]his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the [m]enemy of the Jews. 11And the king said to Haman,
"The money and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you." 12[n]Then the king's scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded—to the king's satraps, to the governors who were over each province, to the officials of all people, to every province [o]according to its script, and to every people in their language. [p]In the name of King Ahasuerus it was written, and sealed with the king's signet ring.
13And the letters were [q]sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to annihilate all the Jews, both young and old, little children and women, [r]in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar, and [s]to plunder their possessions.* 14[t]A copy of the document was to be issued as law in every province, being published for all people, that they should be ready for that day. 15The couriers went out, hastened by the king's command; and the decree was proclaimed in Shushan the citadel. So the king and Haman sat down to drink, but [u]the city of Shushan was perplexed.

Esther Agrees to Help the Jews

4 When Mordecai learned all that had happened, he [a]tore his clothes and put on sackcloth [b]and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city. He [c]cried out with a loud and bitter cry. 2He went as far as the front of the king's gate, for no one might enter the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. 3And in every province where the king's command and decree arrived, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.
4So Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, and the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments to clothe Mordecai and take his sackcloth away from him, but he would not accept them. 5Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordecai, to learn what and why this was. 6So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square that was in front of the king's gate. 7And Mordecai told could not stand to see anyone who did not properly respect his position.

3:7 Pur (that is, the lot). The casting of lots was common in ancient times. Haman's casting a lot at the beginning of the year to determine the best time to destroy the Jewish people fits in with the culture of the day, as the Babylonians believed that the gods gathered at the beginning of each year to establish the destiny of human beings. The word pur is the basis for the name of the new feast in chapter 9.

3:8 Slander—Haman was sly. He devised an accusation to convince the king that the Jews were a dangerous and treasonous people. His accusation contained a clever mixture of truth and falsehood. The laws of the Jewish people were admittedly different, but this was not unusual, nor was it a threat to Persia, which contained many minorities. Not only was accusing the whole Jewish nation of civil disobedience a lie, it was also intended to lead to something much worse: murder.

3:10 ring. The king's signet ring symbolized his authority. He would have used this signet as a stamp to authorize official documents.

3:15 Haman sat down to drink. Haman was so unconcerned about the death sentence he was placing on the Jewish people that he sat down comfortably to relax while the city was in confusion.

4:1–2 sackcloth and ashes. Sackcloth and ashes were used as a visible sign of mourning, indicating a sense of desolation.

4:3 fasting. It is interesting to note that throughout the entire Book of Esther, God is not mentioned by name even once. One assumes that Esther's fasting was accompanied by prayer, but it is never mentioned. Fasting was a religious custom, and we know the Jews relied on God for their safety. Many think the author of Esther was writing the story to a secular audience, and this is the reason for God's actual name being left out.

him all that had happened to him, and [d]the sum of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews. 8He also gave him [e]a copy of the written decree for their destruction, which was given at Shushan, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her, and that he might command her to go in to the king to make supplication to him and plead before him for her people. 9So Hathach returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a command for Mordecai: 11"All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that any man or woman who goes into [f]the inner court to the king, who has not been called, [g]he has but one law: put all to death, except the one [h]to whom the king holds out the golden scepter, that he may live. Yet I myself have not been [i]called to go in to the king these thirty days." 12So they told Mordecai Esther's words.

13And Mordecai told them to answer Esther: "Do not think in your heart that you will escape in the king's palace any more than all the other Jews. 14For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

15Then Esther told them to reply to Mordecai: 16"Go, gather all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me; neither eat nor drink for [j]three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast likewise. And so I will go to the king, which is against the law; [k]and if I perish, I perish!"

17So Mordecai went his way and did according to all that Esther commanded him.*

Esther's Banquet

5 Now it happened [a]on the third day that Esther put on her royal robes and stood in [b]the inner court of the king's palace, across from the king's house, while the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, facing the entrance of the house.* 2So it was, when the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, that [c]she found favor in his sight, and [d]the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. Then Esther went near and touched the top of the scepter.

3And the king said to her, "What do you wish, Queen Esther? What is your request? [e]It shall be given to you—up to half the kingdom!"

4So Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

5Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, that he may do as Esther has said." So the king and Haman went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6At the banquet of wine [f]the king said to Esther, [g]"What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"

7Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and request is this: 8If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the [h]banquet which I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said."

Haman's Plot Against Mordecai

9So Haman went out that day [i]joyful and with a glad heart; but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, and [j]that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with indignation against Mordecai. 10Nevertheless Haman [k]restrained himself and went home, and he sent and called for his friends and his wife Zeresh. 11Then Haman told them of his great riches, [l]the multitude of his children, everything in which the king had promoted him, and how he

* 4:17 Septuagint adds a prayer of Mordecai here.
* 5:1 Septuagint adds many extra details in verses 1 and 2.

4:11 not been called. Esther understood that Mordecai was asking her to risk her life. She would be taking her life into her hands to go uncalled to the king in any circumstances; the fact that she had not been called for a month probably meant that she was even more unsure of her reception.

4:14 for such a time as this. Even though this verse does not directly mention God, Mordecai obviously believed that Esther was made queen through God's design, and she would be acting as God's agent to deliver His people.

4:16 Self-Denial—Even though Esther must have been afraid, knowing that she was breaking the law, she decided to trust God. Her statement "if I perish, I perish," was not despair, but willingness to act however God willed, recognizing that the consequences were in His hands. Self-denial is not easy, but God never fails His children.

5:2 she found favor in his sight. When Esther illegally entered the king's court, he was pleased by her appearance and decided to overlook her offense. In this scene we again see the hand of God.

5:8 tomorrow I will do as the king has said. Why did Esther delay in telling the king her real request? Perhaps she was afraid, and used the intervening time to strengthen her courage. But it seems that here also is God's hand, for the delay provided time for the king's sleepless night and the events that followed.

had [m]advanced him above the officials and servants of the king.

12 Moreover Haman said, "Besides, Queen Esther invited no one but me to come in with the king to the banquet that she prepared; and tomorrow I am again invited by her, along with the king. 13 Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Let a [n]gallows be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning [o]suggest to the king that Mordecai be hanged on it; then go merrily with the king to the banquet."

And the thing pleased Haman; so he had [p]the gallows made.

The King Honors Mordecai

6 That night the king could not sleep. So one was commanded to bring [q]the book of the records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. 2 And it was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on King Ahasuerus. 3 Then the king said, "What honor or dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?"

And the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

4 So the king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered [b]the outer court of the king's palace [c]to suggest that the king hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 The king's servants said to him, "Haman is there, standing in the court."

And the king said, "Let him come in."

6 So Haman came in, and the king asked him, "What shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman thought in his heart, "Whom would the king delight to honor more than [d]me?" 7 And Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, 8 let a royal robe be brought which the king has worn, and [e]a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal crest placed on its head. 9 Then let this robe and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that he may array the man whom the king delights to honor. Then parade him on horseback through the city square, [f]and proclaim before him: 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!'"

10 Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have suggested, and do so for Mordecai the Jew who sits within the king's gate! Leave nothing undone of all that you have spoken."

11 So Haman took the robe and the horse, arrayed Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!"

12 Afterward Mordecai went back to the king's gate. But Haman [g]hurried to his house, mourning [h]and with his head covered. 13 When Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish descent, you will not prevail against [i]him but will surely fall before him."

14 While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hastened to bring Haman to [j]the banquet which Esther had prepared.

Haman Hanged Instead of Mordecai

7 So the king and Haman went to dine with Queen Esther. 2 And on the second day, [q]at the banquet of wine, the king again said to Esther, "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It shall be granted you. And what is your request, up to half the kingdom? It shall be done!"

3 Then Queen Esther answered and said, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. 4 For we have been [b]sold, my people and I, to be destroyed, to be killed, and to be annihilated. Had we been sold as [c]male and female slaves, I would have held my tongue, although the enemy could never compensate for the king's loss."

5 So King Ahasuerus answered and said to Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do such a thing?"

6:10 Jew. The term "Jew," derived from Judah, came into use during the exile because the people were primarily from the southern kingdom of Judah.

6And Esther said, "The adversary and [d]enemy is this wicked Haman!"

So Haman was terrified before the king and queen.

7Then the king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden; but Haman stood before Queen Esther, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil was determined against him by the king. 8When the king returned from the palace garden to the place of the banquet of wine, Haman had fallen across [e]the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he also assault the queen while I am in the house?"

As the word left the king's mouth, they [f]covered Haman's face. 9Now [g]Harbonah, one of the eunuchs, said to the king, "Look! [h]The gallows, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who spoke [i]good on the king's behalf, is standing at the house of Haman."

Then the king said, "Hang him on it!"

10So [j]they [k]hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath subsided.

Esther Saves the Jews

8 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the [a]enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had told [b]how he was related to her. 2So the king took off [c]his signet ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai; and Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3Now Esther spoke again to the king, fell down at his feet, and implored him with tears to counteract the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme which he had devised against the Jews. 4And [d]the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose and stood before the king, 5and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight and the thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to revoke the [e]letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to annihilate the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. 6For how can I endure to see [f]the evil that will come to my people? Or how can I endure to see the destruction of my countrymen?"

7Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "Indeed, [g]I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he tried to lay his hand on the Jews. 8You yourselves write a decree concerning the Jews, as you please, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's signet ring; for whatever is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring [h]no one can revoke."

9[i]So the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces [j]from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces in all, to every province [k]in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their own script and language. 10[l]And he wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, and sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from swift steeds.*

11By these letters the king permitted the Jews who were in every city to [m]gather together and protect their lives—to [n]destroy, kill, and annihilate all the forces of any people or province that would assault them, both little children and women, and to plunder their possessions, 12[o]on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.* 13[p]A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province and published for all people, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. 14The couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's command. And the decree was issued in Shushan the citadel.

15So Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple; and [q]the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. 16The Jews had [r]light and gladness, joy and honor. 17And in every province and city, wherever the king's command and decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast [s]and a holiday. Then many of the people of the land [t]became Jews, because [u]fear of the Jews fell upon them.

The Jews Destroy Their Tormentors

9 Now [a]in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Adar, on the thirteenth day, [b]the time came for the king's command and his decree to be executed. On the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, the opposite occurred, in that the Jews themselves [c]overpowered those who hated them. 2 The Jews [d]gathered together in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus to lay hands on those who [e]sought their harm. And no one could withstand them, [f]because fear of them fell upon all people. 3 And all the officials of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and all those doing the king's work, helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces; for this man Mordecai [g]became increasingly prominent. 5 Thus the Jews defeated all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased with those who hated them.

6 And in [h]Shushan the citadel the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. 7 Also Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vajezatha— 10[i]the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews—they killed; [j]but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

11 On that day the number of those who were killed in Shushan the citadel was brought to the king. 12 And the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the citadel, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now [k]what is your petition? It shall be granted to you. Or what is your further request? It shall be done."

13 Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow [l]according to today's decree, and let Haman's ten sons [m]be hanged on the gallows."

14 So the king commanded this to be done; the decree was issued in Shushan, and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 And the Jews who were in Shushan [n]gathered together again on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men at Shushan; [o]but they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

16 The remainder of the Jews in the king's provinces [p]gathered together and protected their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of their enemies; [q]but they did not lay a hand on the plunder. 17 This was on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar. And on the fourteenth of *the month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

The Feast of Purim

18 But the Jews who were at Shushan assembled together [r]on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth; and on the fifteenth of *the month they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. 19 Therefore the Jews of the villages who dwelt in the unwalled towns celebrated the fourteenth day of the month of Adar [s]with gladness and feasting, [t]as a holiday, and for [u]sending presents to one another.

20 And Mordecai wrote these things and sent letters to all the Jews, near and far, who were in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, 21 to establish among them that they should celebrate yearly the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar, 22 as the days on which the Jews had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a holiday; that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of [v]sending presents to one another and gifts to the [w]poor. 23 So the Jews accepted the custom which they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them, 24 because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, [x]had plotted against the Jews to annihilate them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot), to consume them and destroy them; 25 but [y]when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letter that this wicked plot which Haman had devised against the Jews should [z]return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 So they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of [a]this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had happened to them, 27the Jews established and imposed it upon themselves and their descendants and all who would [b]join them, that without fail they should celebrate these two days every year, according to the written instructions and according to the prescribed time, 28*that* these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, that these days of Purim should not fail to be observed among the Jews, and that the memory of them should not perish among their descendants.

29Then Queen Esther, [c]the daughter of Abihail, with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this [d]second letter about Purim. 30And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews, to [e]the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 31to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed time, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had prescribed for them, and as they had decreed for themselves and their descendants concerning matters of their [f]fasting and lamenting. 32So the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Mordecai's Advancement

10 And King Ahasuerus imposed tribute on the land and on [a]the islands of the sea. 2Now all the acts of his power and his might, and the account of the greatness of Mordecai, [b]to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the [c]chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? 3For Mordecai the Jew was [d]second to King Ahasuerus, and was great among the Jews and well received by the multitude of his brethren, [e]seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his countrymen.*

THE BOOK OF JOB

▶ AUTHOR: The author of Job is unknown and there are no textual hints as to his identity. The non-Hebraic cultural background may point to a Gentile authorship, but an interesting school of thought maintains that Moses may have written this book. The land of Uz (1:1) is directly adjacent to Midian, where Moses lived for 40 years. Perhaps the oldest book of the Bible, set in the time of the patriarchs (Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph), it is conceivable that Moses obtained a record of the dialogue left by Job or Elihu.

▶ TIME: Unknown ▶ KEY VERSE: Job 13:15

▶ THEME: There are many things that set Job apart from the rest of Scripture. Its dramatic format is unique. It is a story that is not part of the flow of the history of Israel. And the thematic focus is narrower than other books of its size. A classic work of literature, its primary subject matter is the most basic question man has of God: Why do we suffer? The Book of Job is the biblical text that addresses this issue head-on, and the dramatic nature of the story intensifies the conflict of ideas and understanding between God and man.

Job and His Family in Uz

1 There was a man [a]in the land of Uz, whose name was [b]Job; and that man was [c]blameless and upright, and one who [d]feared God and shunned evil. 2And seven sons and three daughters were born to him. 3Also, his possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very large household, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

4And his sons would go and feast in their houses, each on his appointed day, and would send and invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5So it was, when the days of feasting had run their course, that Job would send and sanctify them, and he would rise early in the morning [e]and offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned and [f]cursed* God in their hearts." Thus Job did regularly.

Satan Attacks Job's Character

6Now [g]there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan* also came among them. 7And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?"

* 1:5 Literally blessed, but used here in the evil sense, and so in verse 11 and 2:5, 9 * 1:6 Literally the Adversary, and so throughout this book

1:1 Uz. The precise location of Uz is unknown, but it may have been near Edom. Some of the other towns and peoples mentioned in this book are known to have been located near Edom, so it is logical to assume that Uz was in the same area.

1:2 Why Do We Suffer?—Scripture points us to multiple reasons for suffering. Here, as in Job's case, suffering somehow is involved in God's purposes, and we are to learn from it. The New Testament echoes this teaching in James 1 where it says to "count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience" (James 1:2–3). Suffering also happens as a result of our own sin. David suffered many family trials because of his sin with Bathsheba. Other times we suffer directly because of our faith, as martyrs have done for centuries. Sometimes living out our faith comes in direct conflict with the ruling powers, and we suffer because of it. Still other times we suffer because we live in a fallen world where things go wrong or natural disasters occur.

Both Peter and Paul advise us to commit our pain and suffering to God, realizing He is faithful to work out all things for our good and God's glory (Rom. 8:28; 1 Pet. 4:9). This lesson is often learned over a whole lifetime as we see in numerous psalms and in the lives of many biblical characters.

1:6 the sons of God. Celestial beings or angels are called "sons of God" because they had no parents. They were created by God to serve Him (2:1; 4:18; Ps. 103:20). This can also mean a group of saints (Gen. 6:2). Adam was also called "the son of God" (Luke 3:38) because God was his Creator rather than having a human father and mother. Here Satan is said

1:1 [a] 1 Chr. 1:17 [b] Ezek. 14:14, 20 [c] Gen. 6:9; 17:1 [d] [Prov. 16:6] 1:5 [e] [Job 42:8] [f] 1 Kin. 21:10, 13 1:6 [g] Job 2:1

So Satan answered the LORD and said, "From [h]going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."

8Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil?"

9So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? 10[i]Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? [j]You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. 11[k]But now, stretch out Your hand and touch all that he has, and he will surely [l]curse You to Your face!"

12And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power; only do not lay a hand on his person."

So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job Loses His Property and Children

13Now there was a day [m]when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house; 14and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys feeding beside them, 15when the Sabeans* raided them and took them away—indeed they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

16While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

17While he was still speaking, another also came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands, raided the camels and took them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

18While he was still speaking, another also came and said, [n]"Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, 19and suddenly a great wind came from across* the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you!"

20Then Job arose, [o]tore his robe, and shaved his head; and he [p]fell to the ground and worshiped. 21And he said:

[q]"Naked I came from my mother's womb,
And naked shall I return there.
The LORD [r]gave, and the LORD has [s]taken away;
[t]Blessed be the name of the LORD."

22[u]In all this Job did not sin nor charge God with wrong.

Satan Attacks Job's Health

2 Again [a]there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. 2And the LORD said to Satan, "From where do you come?"

* 1:15 Literally Sheba (compare 6:19) * 1:19 Septuagint omits across.

to be among them. Satan. At some point after creation, Satan, who was the highest created angel (Ezek. 28:12–15), aspired to be as God Himself (Is. 14:13–14). As a result, he was barred from his heavenly position (Ezek. 28:16) and took a large number of angels with him in his rebellion, over whom he rules (Matt. 12:24). Jesus said that He saw Satan fall from heaven (Luke 10:18), but this chapter in Job, and the incident of the lying spirit with the false prophets of Ahab (2 Chr. 18:8–22), indicate that Satan still had access to heaven and heavenly counsels. God can and does limit Satan (1:12). The cross defeated Satan (John 12:31), but the final judgment will not occur until the end of the millennium (Rev. 20:10). In the meantime, Satan tries to thwart and defeat the work of God. God sometimes uses Satan to teach a lesson (1 Chr. 21; 2 Cor. 12:7–10), but it is still God who is in control.

1:7 the LORD. The Hebrew word Yahweh, usually translated "the LORD," is the personal name of the true God of the Old Testament (Ex. 3:14–15). It is the particular name of God in covenantal relations with His people Israel (Ex. 6:1–6; 19:3–8).

1:8 a blameless and upright man. The Lord was not saying that Job was sinless, but He was saying that Job had his priorities right. Job feared the Lord and it showed in his life.

1:10 hedge. No harm could come to Job unless the Lord permitted it (v. 12). Believers today should take great comfort from the biblical teaching that the Lord protects His people—whether by a cloud (Ex. 14:19–20), or by a wall of fiery chariots (2 Kin. 6:17), or through guardian angels (Heb. 1:14).

1:11 curse. The sin of cursing God is a pivotal issue for the Book of Job. Job feared that his children might think or speak irreverently of God (v. 5). But Satan asserted that Job would surely curse God if his prosperity and blessings were removed. Even Job's wife urged him to "curse God and die" (2:9).

1:15 Sabeans. The Sabeans were nomadic raiders from Sheba, probably located in southwestern Arabia, in present-day Yemen.

1:17 Chaldeans. The Chaldeans were part of various west Semitic marauding tribes active in the middle Euphrates from the twelfth to the ninth centuries B.C. They migrated eastward into Assyria and then Babylonia, and were the forerunners of the Chaldean or neo-Babylonian dynasty established by Nebuchadnezzar's father.

[b]Satan answered the LORD and said,
"From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking back and forth on it."
3 Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, [c]a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and shuns evil? And still he [d]holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, [e]to destroy him without cause."
4 So Satan answered the LORD and said,
"Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. 5 [f]But stretch out Your hand now, and touch his [g]bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You to Your face!"
6 [h]And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."
7 So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and struck Job with painful boils [i]from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself [j]while he sat in the midst of the ashes.
9 Then his wife said to him, "Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse God and die!"
10 But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. [k]Shall we indeed accept good from God, and shall we not accept adversity?" [l]In all this Job did not [m]sin with his lips.

Job's Three Friends

11 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this adversity that had come upon him, each one came from his own place—Eliphaz the [n]Temanite, Bildad the [o]Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. For they had made an appointment together to come [p]and mourn with him, and to comfort him. 12 And when they raised their eyes from afar, and did not recognize him, they lifted their voices and wept; and each one tore his robe and [q]sprinkled dust on his head toward heaven. 13 So they sat down with him on the ground [r]seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

Job Deplores His Birth

3 After this Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth. 2 And Job spoke, and said:

3 "May[a] the day perish on which I was born,
And the night in which it was said,
'A male child is conceived.'
4 May that day be darkness;
May God above not seek it,
Nor the light shine upon it.
5 May darkness and [b]the shadow of death claim it;
May a cloud settle on it;
May the blackness of the day terrify it.
6 As for that night, may darkness seize
it;
May it not rejoice* among the days of the year,
May it not come into the number of the months.
7 Oh, may that night be barren!
May no joyful shout come into it!
8 May those curse it who curse the day,
Those [c]who are ready to arouse Leviathan.
9 May the stars of its morning be dark;
May it look for light, but have none,
And not see the dawning of the day;
10 Because it did not shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
Nor hide sorrow from my eyes.

11 "Why[d] did I not die at birth?
Why did I not perish when I came from the womb?
12 [e]Why did the knees receive me?
Or why the breasts, that I should nurse?
13 For now I would have lain still and been quiet,
I would have been asleep;
Then I would have been at rest

* 3:6 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read be joined.

2:10 good . . . adversity. This comment of Job's is one of the central themes of the whole book. A person of faith will trust in God through prosperity or adversity, even if they are unable to understand why bad things happen (Hab. 3:17–19).

2:11 Temanite . . . Shuhite . . . Naamathite. A Temanite was probably an Edomite from Teman in northern Edom, and a Naamathite probably came from Naameh, a mountainous area in northwestern Arabia. From this context, it can be assumed that a Shuhite was also a person from a certain town, unknown in modern times.

3:1 cursed the day. The Hebrew word for "cursed," meaning "to hold in contempt," is elsewhere employed of cursing God (Ex. 22:28; Lev. 24:15) or cursing one's parents (Ex. 21:17). Job expressed a strong malediction against the day of his birth and the night of his conception, but he did not commit blasphemy. He did not curse the Chaldeans, or Sabeans, much less God. Neither did he express thoughts of suicide.

3:8 curse. Job employed two separate Hebrew words translated "curse," different from the term in verse 1. He wished that the popular magicians who cast spells on the day for their clients could have cast a spell on his day so that he never could have been born. He was not endorsing pagan magic, but was speaking vividly and forcefully to express his agony and despair.

Like infants who never saw light?

I have no rest, for trouble comes."

Eliphaz: Job Has Sinned

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "If one attempts a word with you, will you become weary?
But who can withhold himself from speaking?
3 Surely you have instructed many,
And you [a]have strengthened weak hands.
4 Your words have upheld him who was stumbling,
And you [b]have strengthened the feeble knees;
5 But now it comes upon you, and you are weary;
It touches you, and you are troubled.
6 Is not [c]your reverence [d]your confidence?
And the integrity of your ways your hope?

7 "Remember now, [e]who ever perished being innocent?
Or where were the upright ever cut off?
8 Even as I have seen,
[f]Those who plow iniquity
And sow trouble reap the same.
9 By the blast of God they perish,
And by the breath of His anger they are consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion,
The voice of the fierce lion,
And [g]the teeth of the young lions are broken.
11 [h]The old lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the cubs of the lioness are scattered.

12 "Now a word was secretly brought to me,
And my ear received a whisper of it.
13 [i]In disquieting thoughts from the visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls on men,
14 Fear came upon me, and [j]trembling,
Which made all my bones shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face;
The hair on my body stood up.
16 It stood still,
But I could not discern its appearance.
A form was before my eyes;
There was silence;
Then I heard a voice saying:
17 'Can a mortal be more righteous than God?
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?

* 3:24 Literally my bread

3:20–22 long for death. Even though Job longed for death, he was not considering suicide. The context of the other passages indicates that Job merely wished that the Lord would let him die (7:15–21; 10:18–22).
3:23 whom God has hedged in. The irony is that Job perceived God's hedge as keeping him from a desirable death instead of seeing it as God's protection of his life.
4:7 who ever perished being innocent. Eliphaz concluded that since Job was suffering, he must have sin in his life. Eliphaz supported the retribution doctrine: God supports the righteous but abandons the wicked.
4:8 sow trouble reap the same. It can be true that planting wicked actions will yield a crop of trauma, but the converse is not necessarily true. Hard times can come to anyone, and the crop that is harvested in hard times depends on whether or not we continue to follow God in times of trouble.
4:13 visions of the night. Eliphaz appealed to a vision to authenticate his theology, but all dreams do not come from God. The reader of this book has different information, for God pulled aside the curtain of heaven to reveal the true background for Job's troubles.

They perish forever, with no one regarding.

They die, even without wisdom.'

Eliphaz: Job Is Chastened by God

5 "Call out now;
Is there anyone who will answer you?
And to which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For wrath kills a foolish man,
And envy slays a simple one.
3 [a]I have seen the foolish taking root,
But suddenly I cursed his dwelling place.
4 His sons are [b]far from safety,
They are crushed in the gate,
And [c]there is no deliverer.
5 Because the hungry eat up his harvest,
Taking it even from the thorns,*
And a snare snatches their substance.*
6 For affliction does not come from the dust,
Nor does trouble spring from the ground;
7 Yet man is [d]born to trouble,
As the sparks fly upward.
8 "But as for me, I would seek God,
And to God I would commit my cause—
9 Who does great things, and unsearchable,
Marvelous things without number.
10 [e]He gives rain on the earth,
And sends waters on the fields.
11 [f]He sets on high those who are lowly,
And those who mourn are lifted to safety.
12 [g]He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
So that their hands cannot carry out their plans.
13 He catches the [h]wise in their own craftiness,
And the counsel of the cunning comes quickly upon them.
14 They meet with darkness in the daytime,
And grope at noontime as in the night.
15 But [i]He saves the needy from the sword,
From the mouth of the mighty,
And from their hand.
16 [j]So the poor have hope,
And injustice shuts her mouth.
17 "Behold,[k] happy is the man whom God corrects;
Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.
18 [l]For He bruises, but He binds up;
He wounds, but His hands make whole.
19 [m]He shall deliver you in six troubles,
Yes, in seven [n]no evil shall touch you.
20 [o]In famine He shall redeem you from death,
And in war from the power of the sword.
21 [p]You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
And you shall not be afraid of destruction when it comes.
22 You shall laugh at destruction and famine,
And [q]you shall not be afraid of the [r]beasts of the earth.
23 [s]For you shall have a covenant with the stones of the field,
And the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.

* 5:5 Septuagint reads They shall not be taken from evil men; Vulgate reads And the armed man shall take him by violence. • Septuagint reads The might shall draw them off; Vulgate reads And the thirsty shall drink up their riches.

4:19 Death—We live in houses of clay, and our foundations are in the dust. We may presume upon tomorrow, having illusions of permanence, but suddenly the cords of our tent are pulled up and our existence collapses. We perish, more readily than a moth encircling a flame. Surely the transience of life, the reality of death, and the certainty of judgment should move us to pray that the Eternal God will teach us to number our days so we can use them wisely (Ps. 90:12). This awareness gives us a sense of urgency in turning from sin and serving our Savior.

5:17 chastening. Eliphaz insinuated that since Job's suffering was a result of God's discipline for his sin, Job should not reject what God was trying to teach him. While it is true that God sometimes disciplines people for their own good (Prov. 3:11–12; Heb. 12:7), Eliphaz was suggesting that trouble in one's life necessarily means that one is being disciplined. Once again, the reader of this book has insight that the participants in the story do not have. Job's troubles do indeed teach him more about God, but the troubles originated because God was showing Satan that His followers are not following Him for what they get, but because of who He is.

5:23 covenant with the stones of the field. Stones in the field are a significant hindrance to farming, just as wild animals or lack of rain are a hindrance. Eliphaz was saying that one who accepts the discipline of the Almighty will not find himself fighting the

Job: My Complaint Is Just

6 Then Job answered and said:
2 "Oh, that my grief were fully weighed,
And my calamity laid with it on the scales!
3 For then it would be heavier than the sand of the sea—
Therefore my words have been rash.
4 [a]For the arrows of the Almighty are within me;
My spirit drinks in their poison;
[b]The terrors of God are arrayed [c]against me.
5 Does the [d]wild donkey bray when it has grass,
Or does the ox low over its fodder?
6 Can flavorless food be eaten without salt?
Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
7 My soul refuses to touch them;
They are as loathsome food to me.
8 "Oh, that I might have my request,
That God would grant me the thing that I long for!
9 That it would please God to crush me,
That He would loose His hand and [e]cut me off!
10 Then I would still have comfort;
Though in anguish I would exult,
He will not spare;
For [f]I have not concealed the words of [g]the Holy One.
11 "What strength do I have, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh bronze?
13 Is my help not within me?
And is success driven from me?
14 "To[h] him who is afflicted, kindness should be shown by his friend,
Even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
15 [i]My brothers have dealt deceitfully like a brook,
[j]Like the streams of the brooks that pass away,
16 Which are dark because of the ice,
And into which the snow vanishes.
17 When it is warm, they cease to flow;
When it is hot, they vanish from their place.
18 The paths of their way turn aside,
They go nowhere and perish.
19 The caravans of [k]Tema look,
The travelers of [l]Sheba hope for them.
20 They are [m]disappointed because they were confident;
They come there and are confused.
21 For now [n]you are nothing,
You see terror and [o]are afraid.
22 Did I ever say, 'Bring something to me'?
Or, 'Offer a bribe for me from your wealth'?
23 Or, 'Deliver me from the enemy's hand'?
Or, 'Redeem me from the hand of oppressors'?
24 "Teach me, and I will hold my tongue;
Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

But what does your arguing prove?

elements of nature. It is true that God is a deliverer, a healer, and one who disciplines His followers. We can safely trust Him to care for us. But having disaster, wounds, or failure is not necessarily a sign of God's discipline.

6:9 Prayer—Job thought it would be better to die than to endure all the pain and suffering that resulted from the tragedies he had experienced. He could not know that the fact that he was alive was actually because God had protected him. This prayer should be a great comfort to believers. We cannot always see God's hedge of protection in a traumatic situation. We can cry out for relief, when God wants us to endure. He knows far more about our situation than we do, and we can trust Him, even as we anguish over unanswered prayer.

6:10 still have comfort. Job's single comfort was that he had not denied God, even though he believed that God was the one who had wounded him.

6:15 streams of the brooks that pass away. A brook is a stream that only carries water during the rainy season. Other times of the year it is a dry path. Job was likening his friends to a dry stream.

6:24 Cause me to understand wherein. If Job's friends could show him error in his ways, Job was willing to listen. The problem was that Job's friends were reasoning backwards. They were assuming that they knew his error, based on the extent of Job's suffering. But they had their formula wrong. Sinners may suffer, but suffering does not equal sin or the Lord's discipline.

And you [p]undermine your friend.
28 Now therefore, be pleased to look at me;
For I would never lie to your face.
29 [q]Yield now, let there be no injustice!
Yes, concede, my [r]righteousness still stands!
30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
Cannot my taste discern the unsavory?

Job: My Suffering Is Comfortless

7 "Is there not [a]a time of hard service for man on earth?
Are not his days also like the days of a hired man?
2 Like a servant who earnestly desires the shade,
And like a hired man who eagerly looks for his wages,
3 So I have been allotted [b]months of futility,
And wearisome nights have been appointed to me.
4 [c]When I lie down, I say, 'When shall I arise,
And the night be ended?'
For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.
5 My flesh is [d]caked with worms and dust,
My skin is cracked and breaks out afresh.
6 "My[e] days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle,
And are spent without hope.
7 Oh, remember that [f]my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.
8 [g]The eye of him who sees me will see me no more;
While your eyes are upon me, I shall no longer be.
9 As the cloud disappears and vanishes away,
So [h]he who goes down to the grave does not come up.
10 He shall never return to his house,
[i]Nor shall his place know him anymore.
11 "Therefore I will [j]not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will [k]complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I a sea, or a sea serpent,
That You set a guard over me?
13 [l]When I say, 'My bed will comfort me,
My couch will ease my complaint,' 14 Then You scare me with dreams
And terrify me with visions,
15 So that my soul chooses strangling
And death rather than my body.*
16 [m]I loathe my life;
I would not live forever.
[n]Let me alone,
For [o]my days are but a breath.
17 "What[p] is man, that You should exalt him,
That You should set Your heart on him,
18 That You should visit him every morning,
And test him every moment?
19 How long?
Will You not look away from me,
And let me alone till I swallow my saliva?
20 Have I sinned?
What have I done to You, [q]O watcher of men?
Why [r]have You set me as Your target,
So that I am a burden to myself?*
21 Why then do You not pardon my transgression,
And take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust,
And You will seek me diligently,
But I will no longer be."

Bildad: Job Should Repent

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:
2 "How long will you speak these things,
And the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
3 [a]Does God subvert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If [b]your sons have sinned against Him,

* 7:15 Literally my bones * 7:20 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint and Jewish tradition read to You.

7:6 hope. Job's choice of the word "hope" in the context of the weaver's shuttle may convey a double meaning. The Hebrew word for "hope" sounds like the Hebrew word that means "thread" or "cord."

7:20 What have I done to You. Job, too, was assuming that his troubles came from God. Job did not believe that he had sinned in a way that would cause God to bring trouble on him. This may sound presumptuous, as if Job thought he was without any sin at all. But we remember that God Himself referred to Job as upright and blameless. God was not finding fault with the way that Job was living out his life of faith in God.

8:3 Does God subvert judgment? Bildad was saying that Job and his children received what they deserved.

5 [c]If you would earnestly seek God

6 If you were pure and upright,
Surely now He would awake for you,
And prosper your rightful dwelling
place.
7 Though your beginning was small,
Yet your latter end would [d]increase abundantly.

8 "For[e] inquire, please, of the former age,
And consider the things discovered by
their fathers;
9 For [f]we were born yesterday, and know nothing,
Because our days on earth are a shadow.
10 Will they not teach you and tell you,
And utter words from their heart?

11 "Can the papyrus grow up without a

Can the reeds flourish without water?
12 [g]While it is yet green and not cut down,
It withers before any other plant.
13 So are the paths of all who [h]forget perish,

14 Whose confidence shall be cut off,
And whose trust is a spider's web.
15 [j]He leans on his house, but it does not

He holds it fast, but it does not endure.
16 He grows green in the sun,

17 His roots wrap around the rock heap,
And look for a place in the stones.
18 [k]If he is destroyed from his place,
Then it will deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'

19 "Behold, this is the joy of His way,
And [l]out of the earth others will grow.
20 Behold, [m]God will not cast away the blameless,
Nor will He uphold the evildoers.
21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughing,
And your lips with rejoicing.
22 Those who hate you will be [n]clothed with shame,
And the dwelling place of the wicked will come to nothing."*

Job: There Is No Mediator

9 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Truly I know it is so,
But how can a [a]man be [b]righteous before God?
3 If one wished to contend with Him,
He could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
4 [c]God is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?
5 He removes the mountains, and they do not know
When He overturns them in His anger;
6 He [d]shakes the earth out of its place,
And its [e]pillars tremble;
7 He commands the sun, and it does not rise;
He seals off the stars;
8 [f]He alone spreads out the heavens,
And treads on the waves of the sea;
9 [g]He made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades,
And the chambers of the south;
10 [h]He does great things past finding out,
Yes, wonders without number.
11 [i]If He goes by me, I do not see Him;
If He moves past, I do not perceive
Him;
12 [j]If He takes away, who can hinder
Him?
Who can say to Him, 'What are You doing?'
13 God will not withdraw His anger, [k]The allies of the proud* lie prostrate beneath Him.

14 "How then can I answer Him,
And choose my words to reason with
Him?
15 [l]For though I were righteous, I could not answer Him;
I would beg mercy of my Judge.
16 If I called and He answered me,
I would not believe that He was listening to my voice.

* 8:22 Literally will not be * 9:13 Hebrew rahab

8:6 If you were pure and upright. This was actually the way God described Job (1:8; 2:3). Bildad's concept that one must "get right with God" was not erroneous. But his error was his assumption that loss of possessions was equal with loss of God's favor.

8:13 So are the paths of all who forget God. Bildad falsely deduced that one can always determine the cause by looking at the effect. We can know that the people around us suffer, but it is not given to us to know the spiritual causes, if any, behind this suffering.

9:3 If one wished to contend with Him. The word "contend" indicates a legal argument, not a quarrel. Job was seeking justice. He did not think he had sinned (as his friends indicated) so that God would punish him.

But fills me with bitterness.
19 If it is a matter of strength, indeed He is strong;
And if of justice, who will appoint my day in court?
20 Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me;
Though I were blameless, it would prove me perverse.
21 "I am blameless, yet I do not know myself;
I despise my life.
22 It is all one thing;
Therefore I say, [n]'He destroys the blameless and the wicked.'
23 If the scourge slays suddenly,
He laughs at the plight of the innocent.
24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If it is not He, who else could it be?
25 "Now [o]my days are swifter than a runner;
They flee away, they see no good.
26 They pass by like swift ships,
[p]Like an eagle swooping on its prey.
27 [q]If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face and wear a smile,'
28 [r]I am afraid of all my sufferings;
I know that You [s]will not hold me innocent.
29 If I am condemned,
Why then do I labor in vain?
30 [t]If I wash myself with snow water,
And cleanse my hands with soap,
31 Yet You will plunge me into the pit,
And my own clothes will abhor me.
32 "For [u]He is not a man, as I am,
That I may answer Him,
And that we should go to court together.
33 [v]Nor is there any mediator between us,
Who may lay his hand on us both.
34 [w]Let Him take His rod away from me,
And do not let dread of Him terrify me.
35 Then I would speak and not fear Him,
But it is not so with me.

Job: I Would Plead with God

10 "My [a]soul loathes my life;
I will give free course to my complaint,
[b]I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me;
Show me why You contend with me.
3 Does it seem good to You that You should oppress,
That You should despise the work of Your hands,
And smile on the counsel of the wicked?
4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
Or [c]do You see as man sees?
5 Are Your days like the days of a mortal man?
Are Your years like the days of a mighty man,
6 That You should seek for my iniquity
And search out my sin,
7 Although You know that I am not wicked,
And there is no one who can deliver from Your hand?
8 'Your[d] hands have made me and fashioned me,
An intricate unity;
Yet You would [e]destroy me.
9 Remember, I pray, [f]that You have made me like clay.
And will You turn me into dust again?
10 [g]Did You not pour me out like milk,
And curdle me like cheese,
11 Clothe me with skin and flesh,
And knit me together with bones and sinews?
12 You have granted me life and favor,
And Your care has preserved my spirit.
13 'And these things You have hidden in Your heart;
I know that this was with You:

9:17 crushes me with a tempest. Job saw God as Lord of the heavens (vv. 7–8) and assumed that it was God who sent the tempest that destroyed his children. Job did not know that it was Satan who sought to destroy him, and that God drew a line of protection around him.

10:1–3 Affliction—In the face of his adversities, Job despaired of life, but he continued to plead with God in prayer for an answer. Job's friends saw all suffering in a mathematical equation with sin. If these friends were right, that would reduce our relationship with God to a formula that says, "If you are good, God will rescue you, and if you are bad, God will abandon you to suffering." The converse of that statement says, "If you are suffering, you are bad, and because I am not suffering, I am good." It is often in the converse that a formula is shown to be faulty. Who can really claim to be good? We are all sinners in need of a savior.

10:7 I am not wicked . . . there is no one who can deliver. Job thought that God was unjust in oppressing him, yet he realized that there is no one higher than God to deliver him from God. Job's thinking was twisted in much the same way that his friends' was. He was equating innocence with peace, and he could not imagine any reason why God would not rescue him.

15 If I am wicked, [i]woe to me;
[j]Even if I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head.
I am full of disgrace;
[k]See my misery!
16 If my head is exalted,
[l]You hunt me like a fierce lion,
And again You show Yourself awesome against me.
17 You renew Your witnesses against me,
And increase Your indignation toward me;
Changes and war are ever with me.
18 'Why[m] then have You brought me out of the womb?
Oh, that I had perished and no eye had seen me!
19 I would have been as though I had not been.
I would have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 [n]Are not my days few?
Cease! [o]Leave me alone, that I may take a little comfort, 21 Before I go to the place from which I shall not return,
[p]To the land of darkness [q]and the shadow of death,
22 A land as dark as darkness itself,
As the shadow of death, without any order,
Where even the light is like darkness.'"

Zophar Urges Job to Repent

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

2 "Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be vindicated?
3 Should your empty talk make men hold their peace?
And when you mock, should no one rebuke you?
4 For you have said,
[a]'My doctrine is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.'
5 But oh, that God would speak,
And open His lips against you,
6 That He would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
Know therefore that [b]God exacts from you
Less than your iniquity deserves.
7 "Can[c] you search out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the limits of the Almighty?
8 They are higher than heaven—what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol—what can you know?
9 Their measure is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.
10 "If[d] He passes by, imprisons, and gathers to judgment,
Then who can hinder Him?
11 For [e]He knows deceitful men;
He sees wickedness also.
Will He not then consider it?
12 For an [f]empty-headed man will be wise,
When a wild donkey's colt is born a man.
13 "If you would [g]prepare your heart,
And [h]stretch out your hands toward Him;
14 If iniquity were in your hand, and you put it far away,
And [i]would not let wickedness dwell in your tents;
15 [j]Then surely you could lift up your face without spot;
Yes, you could be steadfast, and not fear;
16 Because you would [k]forget your misery,
And remember it as waters that have passed away,
17 And your life [l]would be brighter than noonday.
Though you were dark, you would be like the morning.

10:18 brought me out of the womb. Job wondered how the God who so carefully fashioned him in the womb (vv. 9–11) could turn against him. This was the desperate cry of a sufferer blind to the fact that God was working good out of all the tragic events of his life.

11:4 My doctrine is pure. Zophar exaggerated what Job had said about his innocence (9:14–21) to make Job look foolish.

11:7 Can you search out the deep things of God? Zophar was correct in saying that understanding the depths of God is beyond man. But the fact that we cannot know everything about God does not mean that we cannot know anything about Him, nor that it is wrong to try to know and understand Him better.

11:13 stretch out your hands toward Him. Stretching out the hands was a posture of prayer as well as of praise (Ps. 134:2). Assuming that Job was suffering because of his iniquity, this was not bad advice.

11:15 steadfast, and not fear. There is peace and comfort for those who have repented of their sin and turned to God. This is true and important to remember. But Zophar's presupposition that iniquity causes suffering kept him from understanding what Job's struggle was.

Yes, many would court your favor.
20 But [n]the eyes of the wicked will fail,
And they shall not escape,
And [o]their hope—loss of life!"

Job Answers His Critics

12 Then Job answered and said:
2 "No doubt you are the people,
And wisdom will die with you!
3 But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not [a]inferior to you.
Indeed, who does not know such things as these?
4 "I[b] am one mocked by his friends,
Who [c]called on God, and He answered him,
The just and blameless who is ridiculed.
5 A lamp* is despised in the thought of one who is at ease;
It is made ready for [d]those whose feet slip.
6 [e]The tents of robbers prosper,
And those who provoke God are secure—
In what God provides by His hand.
7 "But now ask the beasts, and they will teach you;
And the birds of the air, and they will tell you;
8 Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you;
And the fish of the sea will explain to you.
9 Who among all these does not know That the hand of the LORD has done this,
10 [f]In whose hand is the life of every living thing,
And the [g]breath of all mankind?
11 Does not the ear test words
And the mouth taste its food?
12 Wisdom is with aged men,
And with length of days, understanding.
13 "With Him are [h]wisdom and strength,
He has counsel and understanding.
14 If [i]He breaks a thing down, it cannot be rebuilt;
If He imprisons a man, there can be no release.
15 If He [j]withholds the waters, they dry up;
If He [k]sends them out, they overwhelm the earth.
16 With Him are strength and prudence.
The deceived and the deceiver are His.
17 He leads counselors away plundered,
And makes fools of the judges.
18 He loosens the bonds of kings,
And binds their waist with a belt.
19 He leads princes* away plundered,
And overthrows the mighty.
20 [l]He deprives the trusted ones of speech,
And takes away the discernment of the elders.
21 [m]He pours contempt on princes,
And disarms the mighty.
22 He [n]uncovers deep things out of darkness,
And brings the shadow of death to light.
23 [o]He makes nations great, and destroys them;
He enlarges nations, and guides them.
24 He takes away the understanding* of the chiefs of the people of the earth,
And [p]makes them wander in a pathless wilderness.
25 [q]They grope in the dark without light,
And He makes them [r]stagger like a drunken man.

13 "Behold, my eye has seen all this,
My ear has heard and understood it.
2 [a]What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.
3 [b]But I would speak to the Almighty,
And I desire to reason with God.
4 But you forgers of lies,
[c]You are all worthless physicians.
5 Oh, that you would be silent,
And [d]it would be your wisdom!
6 Now hear my reasoning,
And heed the pleadings of my lips.
7 [e]Will you speak wickedly for God,
And talk deceitfully for Him?
8 Will you show partiality for Him?
Will you contend for God?
9 Will it be well when He searches you out?
Or can you mock Him as one mocks a man?

* 12:5 Or disaster * 12:19 Literally priests, but not in a technical sense * 12:24 Literally heart

12:13 He has counsel and understanding. Job was sure that he did not understand what was happening to him, but he knew that God did know the answer.
13:4 forgers of lies. Job's friends were accusing him of hidden sin, offering a false formula for peace with God, and assuming that they had a greater understanding both of Job and of God's ways than they really did. False doctrine, even if held with sincerity, is still a lie.

10 He will surely rebuke you
If you secretly show partiality.
11 Will not His excellence make you afraid,
And the dread of Him fall upon you?
12 Your platitudes are proverbs of ashes,
Your defenses are defenses of clay.

13 "Hold your peace with me, and let me speak,
Then let come on me what may!
14 Why [f]do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And put my life in my hands?
15 [g]Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.
[h]Even so, I will defend my own ways before Him.
16 He also shall be my salvation,
For a [i]hypocrite could not come before Him.
17 Listen carefully to my speech,
And to my declaration with your ears.
18 See now, I have prepared my case,
I know that I shall be [j]vindicated.
19 [k]Who is he who will contend with me?
If now I hold my tongue, I perish.

Job's Despondent Prayer

20 "Only[l] two things do not do to me,
Then I will not hide myself from You:
21 [m]Withdraw Your hand far from me,
And let not the dread of You make me afraid.
22 Then call, and I will [n]answer;
Or let me speak, then You respond to me.
23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
Make me know my transgression and my sin.
24 [o]Why do You hide Your face,
And [p]regard me as Your enemy?
25 [q]Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
And will You pursue dry stubble?
26 For You write bitter things against me,
And [r]make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
27 [s]You put my feet in the stocks,
And watch closely all my paths.
You set a limit* for the soles of my feet.

28 "*Man decays like a rotten thing,
Like a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 "Man who is born of woman
Is of few days and [a]full of trouble.
2 [b]He comes forth like a flower and fades away;
He flees like a shadow and does not continue.
3 And [c]do You open Your eyes on such a one,
And [d]bring me* to judgment with Yourself?
4 Who [e]can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
No one!
5 [f]Since his days are determined,
The number of his months is with You;
You have appointed his limits, so that he cannot pass.
6 [g]Look away from him that he may rest,
Till [h]like a hired man he finishes his day.

7 "For there is hope for a tree,
If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
And that its tender shoots will not cease.
8 Though its root may grow old in the earth,
And its stump may die in the ground,
9 Yet at the scent of water it will bud
And bring forth branches like a plant.
10 But man dies and is laid away;
Indeed he breathes his last
And where is [i]he?
11 As water disappears from the sea,
And a river becomes parched and dries up,
12 So man lies down and does not rise.
[j]Till the heavens are no more,
They will not awake
Nor be roused from their sleep.

13 "Oh, that You would hide me in the grave,
That You would conceal me until Your wrath is past,
That You would appoint me a set time, and remember me!

* 13:27 Literally inscribe a print * 13:28 Literally He * 14:3 Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read him.

13:12 platitudes . . . defenses. The quickest way to make ourselves look silly is to try to explain something that we don't understand. Prayer is far more helpful than worthless counsel.

13:21 Withdraw Your hand . . . make me afraid. Job was not cocky as he turned to plead his case before God. His requests were safe and wise for any believer who struggles with what life has handed him. Job asked God not to give up on him, and he asked God to keep him from being overpowered by the terror and majesty of God. Job knew very well that he was far below God, and that all that God is and does could be totally overwhelming to him.

14:13 hide me . . . until Your wrath is past. Job's wish for the grave to be a temporary hiding place from God's wrath differed dramatically from his earlier remarks concerning the grave (7:9–10; 10:18–22). He attributed the cause of his suffering to God's wrath because he assumed the retribution dogma that the righteous are always blessed and the wicked will eventually experience God's judgment. It did not occur to Job that he was being tested.

15 [l]You shall call, and I will answer You;
You shall desire the work of Your hands.
16 For now [m]You number my steps,
But do not watch over my sin.
17 [n]My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And You cover* my iniquity.

18 "But as a mountain falls and crumbles away,
And as a rock is moved from its place;
19 As water wears away stones,
And as torrents wash away the soil of the earth;
So You destroy the hope of man.
20 You prevail forever against him, and he passes on;
You change his countenance and send him away.

They are brought low, and he does not perceive it.
22 But his flesh will be in pain over it,
And his soul will mourn over it."

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Folly

15 Then [a]Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "Should a wise man answer with empty knowledge,
And fill himself with the east wind?
3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk,
Or by speeches with which he can do no good?
4 Yes, you cast off fear,
And restrain prayer before God.
5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
And you choose the tongue of the crafty.
6 [b]Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
Yes, your own lips testify against you.

7 "Are you the first man who was born?
[c]Or were you made before the hills?
8 [d]Have you heard the counsel of God?
Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 [e]What do you know that we do not know?
What do you understand that is not in us?
10 [f]Both the gray-haired and the aged are among us,
Much older than your father.
11 Are the consolations of God too small for you,
And the word spoken gently* with you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away,
And what do your eyes wink at,
13 That you turn your spirit against God,
And let such words go out of your mouth?

14 "What[g] is man, that he could be pure?
And he who is born of a woman, that he could be righteous?
15 [h]If God puts no trust in His saints,
And the heavens are not pure in His sight,
16 [i]How much less man, who is abominable and filthy,
[j]Who drinks iniquity like water!

17 "I will tell you, hear me;
What I have seen I will declare,
18 What wise men have told,
Not hiding anything received [k]from their fathers,
19 To whom alone the land was given,
And [l]no alien passed among them:
20 The wicked man writhes with pain all his days,
[m]And the number of years is hidden from the oppressor.
21 Dreadful sounds are in his ears;
[n]In prosperity the destroyer comes upon him.
22 He does not believe that he will [o]return from darkness,
For a sword is waiting for him.
23 He [p]wanders about for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'
He knows [q]that a day of darkness is ready at his hand.
24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid;

* 14:17 Literally plaster over

14:14 live again. Job had some understanding of man's potential for immortality. The answer to his question comes in the New Testament with an emphatic "Yes!" by Jesus (John 11:23–26; 1 Cor. 15:3–57).

15:21 Dreadful sounds. Eliphaz began his subtle argument to prove that Job was a wicked man. He alluded to Job's dread, the same word translated feared in 3:25, as an implicit indicator that Job was wicked.

15:24 Trouble . . . afraid. In contrast to 14:20 where Job complained to God that He overpowered people, Eliphaz said that the wicked man's (by implication, Job's) own fears overpower him. Eliphaz's statement may have been true, but that did not mean it applied to Job. Job did not understand God's ways correctly, but neither did Eliphaz. Job was overpowered by Satan's attacks, and he could not see what God was doing. Eliphaz assumed that because Job was overpowered, it was because he had behaved arrogantly towards God.

26 Running stubbornly against Him
With his strong, embossed shield.

27 "Though[r] he has covered his face with

Job Reproaches His Pitiless Friends

16 Then Job answered and said:

2 "I have heard many such things;
[a]Miserable comforters are you all!
3 Shall words of wind have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?
4 I also could speak as you do,
If your soul were in my soul's place.
I could heap up words against you,
And [b]shake my head at you;
5 But I would strengthen you with my
mouth,
And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.
6 "Though I speak, my grief is not relieved;
And if I remain silent, how am I eased?
7 But now He has [c]worn me out;
You [d]have made desolate all my company.
8 You have shriveled me up,
And it is a [e]witness against me;
My leanness rises up against me
And bears witness to my face.
9 [f]He tears me in His wrath, and hates me;
He gnashes at me with His teeth;
[g]My adversary sharpens His gaze
on me.
10 They [h]gape at me with their mouth,
They [i]strike me reproachfully on the cheek,
They gather together against me.
11 God [j]has delivered me to the ungodly,
And turned me over to the hands of the wicked.
12 I was at ease, but He has [k]shattered me;
He also has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces;
He has [l]set me up for His target,
13 His archers surround me.
He pierces my heart* and does not pity;
He pours out my gall on the ground.
14 He breaks me with wound upon wound;
He runs at me like a warrior.*
15 "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin,
And [m]laid my head* in the dust.
16 My face is flushed from weeping,
And on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

15:31 trust in futile things. Eliphaz was entirely right in his comments about the fruitlessness of a wicked life, and that the Lord will bring the wicked into judgment. But Eliphaz did not have the concept that in this life the wicked can appear to prosper, and the righteous can appear to struggle. Judgment may not fall in this life.

15:34 fire will consume. In mentioning the fire that consumes the tents of the wicked, Eliphaz implied that the fire of God that destroyed Job's sheep and servants (1:16) was a direct result of Job's corruption.

16:7–17 Afflictions—One of the clear lessons of the Book of Job is that it is possible to give false and insensitive counsel to one who is experiencing affliction and testing. When we suffer, some of the lessons learned are for us, some of the lessons are for others who are watching, and some are for the kingdom of God. We may not know in this life what all of the implications are. Our afflictions are designed by God to drive us out of ourselves to the Eternal God who is our refuge and who supports us with His everlasting arms (Deut. 33:27). As friends of the afflicted, we must be sympathetic, loving, and kind, remembering that often only God has the answers. If we have suffered similarly, we have comfort to offer (2 Cor. 1:6–7), and if we have not suffered similarly, we can support our friends in prayer and practical service.

Job Prays for Relief

17 "My spirit is broken,
My days are extinguished,
[a]The grave is ready for me.
2 Are not mockers with me?
And does not my eye dwell on their [b]provocation?

3 "Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself.
Who is he who [c]will shake hands with me?
4 For You have hidden their heart from [d]understanding;
Therefore You will not exalt them.
5 He who speaks flattery to his friends,
Even the eyes of his children will [e]fail.

6 "But He has made me [f]a byword of the people,
And I have become one in whose face men spit.
7 [g]My eye has also grown dim because of sorrow,
And all my members are like shadows.
8 Upright men are astonished at this,
And the innocent stirs himself up against the hypocrite.
9 Yet the righteous will hold to his [h]way,
And he who has [i]clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

10 "But please, [j]come back again, all of you,*
For I shall not find one wise man among you.
11 [k]My days are past,
My purposes are broken off,
Even the thoughts of my heart.
12 They change the night into day;
'The light is near,' they say, in the face of darkness.
13 If I wait for the grave as my house,
If I make my bed in the darkness,
14 If I say to corruption, 'You are my father,'
And to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister,'
15 Where then is my [l]hope?
As for my hope, who can see it?
16 Will they go down [m]to the gates of Sheol?
Shall we have [n]rest together in the dust?"

Bildad: The Wicked Are Punished

18 Then [a]Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

2 "How long till you put an end to words?
Gain understanding, and afterward we will speak.
3 Why are we counted [b]as beasts,
And regarded as stupid in your sight?
4 [c]You who tear yourself in anger,
Shall the earth be forsaken for you?
Or shall the rock be removed from its place?

5 "The[d] light of the wicked indeed goes out,
And the flame of his fire does not shine.
6 The light is dark in his tent,
[e]And his lamp beside him is put out.
7 The steps of his strength are shortened,
And [f]his own counsel casts him down.
8 For [g]he is cast into a net by his own feet,
And he walks into a snare.

* 17:10 Following some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate; Masoretic Text and Targum read all of them.

16:21 one might plead. Job was expressing the need for an intercessor. This need anticipated Jesus Christ, who is our Intercessor (Heb. 7:25) and Advocate (1 John 2:1).

17:3 pledge. In another legal metaphor, Job appealed to God by laying down a pledge, that is, by providing bail. The use of the same metaphor in Psalm 119:121–122 to indicate the psalmist's request for relief from his oppressors may suggest that Job was pleading for God to demonstrate confidence in his innocence.

17:9 the righteous will hold to his way. Job seems to be entertaining a little sarcasm here. He had referred to himself as a byword, one at whom men spit. Then he said that the righteous will grow stronger, which was not a reference to himself, even though he still did not think he deserved the trouble that had fallen upon him. He was probably referring to his friends, who considered themselves righteous, with clean hands, and who repeatedly strengthened their position and arguments.

18:4 who tear yourself in anger. This may be Bildad's response to Job's allegation that God had torn Job in His anger (16:13).

18:8–10 net . . . snare. Six different Hebrew synonyms for various types of nets and snares emphasize the many imminent dangers that God has designed

Job Trusts in His Redeemer

19 Then Job answered and said:

2 "How long will you torment my soul,
And break me in pieces with words?
3 These ten times you have reproached me;
You are not ashamed that you have wronged me.*
4 And if indeed I have erred,
My error remains with me.
5 If indeed you [q]exalt yourselves against me,
And plead my disgrace against me,
6 Know then that [b]God has wronged me,
And has surrounded me with His net.
7 "If I cry out concerning wrong, I am not heard.
If I cry aloud, there is no justice.
8 [c]He has fenced up my way, so that I cannot pass;
And He has set darkness in my paths.
9 [d]He has stripped me of my glory,
And taken the crown from my head.
10 He breaks me down on every side,
And I am gone;
My [e]hope He has uprooted like a tree.
11 He has also kindled His wrath against me,
And [f]He counts me as one of His enemies.
12 His troops come together
And build up their road against me;
They encamp all around my tent.
13 "He[g] has removed my brothers far from me,
And my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
14 My relatives have failed,
And my close friends have forgotten me.
15 Those who dwell in my house, and my maidservants,
Count me as a stranger;
I am an alien in their sight.
16 I call my servant, but he gives no answer;
I beg him with my mouth.
17 My breath is offensive to my wife,
And I am repulsive to the children of my own body.
18 Even [h]young children despise me;
I arise, and they speak against me.

for the wicked to ensure that they will be caught in their wickedness.

18:21 wicked. Bildad believed that the evidence he had exhibited in verses 5–20 implicated Job himself as the wicked one. Bildad was right that, in the end, the wicked will perish dramatically. But in this life they are not necessarily judged. If it were that simple, that the wicked never prospered and the righteous always thrived, people might try to be followers of God just for the blessings. The whole thrust of the Book of Job is that God Himself is reason enough to follow God, whether or not there is prosperity (1:9–11).

19:7 Despondency—The despondency of Job was a swollen river into which many streams had poured. He had experienced the loss of family, property, and health. Wife and friends had misunderstood him. The suffering saint felt tormented, crushed with the irrelevant words of critics who should have comforted instead of corrected him. Crying out for help, Job received none and came to the conclusion that there is no justice anywhere. The interesting thing about Job is that while he may have despaired of hearing from God, he never doubted that God was there and knew what was going on.

19:8 He has fenced up my way. Job felt fenced in by God, when it was really Satan who had been mistreating him (1:10; 3:23). The only fence from God was a hedge of protection.

19 [i]All my close friends abhor me,
And those whom I love have turned against me.
20 [j]My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh,
And I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
21 "Have pity on me, have pity on me,
O you my friends,
For the hand of God has struck me!
22 Why do you [k]persecute me as God does,
And are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 "Oh, that my words were written!
Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
24 That they were engraved on a rock
With an iron pen and lead, forever!
25 For I know that my [l]Redeemer lives,
And He shall stand at last on the earth;
26 And after my skin is destroyed, this I know,
That [m]in my flesh I shall see God,
27 Whom I shall see for myself,
And my eyes shall behold, and not another.
How my heart yearns within me!
28 If you should say, 'How shall we persecute him?'—
Since the root of the matter is found in me,
29 Be afraid of the sword for yourselves;
For wrath brings the punishment of the sword,
That you may know there is a judgment."

Zophar's Sermon on the Wicked Man

20 Then [a]Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:

2 "Therefore my anxious thoughts make me answer,
Because of the turmoil within me.
3 I have heard the rebuke that reproaches me,
And the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.
4 "Do you not know this of [b]old,
Since man was placed on earth,
5 [c]That the triumphing of the wicked is short,
And the joy of the hypocrite is but for a [d]moment?
6 [e]Though his haughtiness mounts up to the heavens,
And his head reaches to the clouds,
7 Yet he will perish forever like his own refuse;
Those who have seen him will say,
'Where is he?'
8 He will fly away [f]like a dream, and not be found;
Yes, he [g]will be chased away like a vision of the night.
9 The eye that saw him will see him no more,
Nor will his place behold him anymore.
10 His children will seek the favor of the poor,
And his hands will restore his wealth.
11 His bones are full of [h]his youthful vigor,
[i]But it will lie down with him in the dust.
12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth,
And he hides it under his tongue,
13 Though he spares it and does not forsake it,
But still keeps it in his mouth,
14 Yet his food in his stomach turns sour;
It becomes cobra venom within him.
15 He swallows down riches
And vomits them up again;
God casts them out of his belly.
16 He will suck the poison of cobras;
The viper's tongue will slay him.
17 He will not see [j]the streams,
The rivers flowing with honey and cream.
18 He will restore that for which he labored,
And will not swallow it down;
From the proceeds of business
He will get no enjoyment.
19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor,
He has violently seized a house which he did not build.

19:25 I know that my Redeemer lives. Job's longing for a mediator (9:33) and his desire for someone to plead on his behalf with God (16:19–21) may suggest that he was thinking of someone other than God. Here was a strong, resolute hope for a mediator between God and humanity. Ultimately Job's longing for a vindicator or mediator was fulfilled in Jesus Christ (1 Tim. 2:5).
19:26 in my flesh I shall see God. Job was stating his strong belief in the eternality of the soul, and even of the resurrected body, although it was not until Christ's resurrection that followers of the Living God understood all the implications of this belief (1 Cor. 15:12–19).
19:29 Be afraid of the sword. Job anticipated the reaction of his friends to his stated confidence that some day he would see God face-to-face.
20:7 refuse. The word "refuse" may also be translated dung. This was a scathing comment.

Job's Discourse on the Wicked

21 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Listen carefully to my speech,
And let this be your consolation.
3 Bear with me that I may speak,
And after I have spoken, keep [a]mocking.
4 "As for me, is my complaint against man?
And if it were, why should I not be impatient?
5 Look at me and be astonished;
[b]Put your hand over your mouth.
6 Even when I remember I am terrified,
And trembling takes hold of my flesh.
7 [c]Why do the wicked live and become old,
Yes, become mighty in power?
8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
And their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are safe from fear,
[d]Neither is the rod of God upon them.
10 Their bull breeds without failure;
Their cow calves [e]without miscarriage.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock,
And their children dance.
12 They sing to the tambourine and harp,
And rejoice to the sound of the flute.
13 They [f]spend their days in wealth,
And in a moment go down to the grave.*
14 [g]Yet they say to God, 'Depart from us,
For we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.
15 [h]Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him?
And [i]what profit do we have if we pray to Him?'
16 Indeed their prosperity is not in their hand;
[j]The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
17 "How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
How often does their destruction come upon them,
The sorrows God [k]distributes in His anger?
18 [l]They are like straw before the wind,
And like chaff that a storm carries away.

* 20:20 Literally belly * 21:13 Or Sheol

20:20 no quietness. In stating that the wicked person knows no quietness, Zophar implied that Job had received what he deserved.

20:27 heavens will reveal his iniquity. Zophar apparently reversed Job's appeal to the earth and heavens (16:18–19) for vindication. He argued that the heavens and earth would bear witness not to Job's innocence, but to his iniquity.

20:29 heritage appointed to him by God. In contrast to his previous words (11:13–20) Zophar seemed to be suggesting that it was too late for Job to repent. It is true, as Zophar says (v. 5) that the wicked and godless will be judged. But that does not mean either that Job was one of the wicked, or that the judgment of the wicked would be in this life (Luke 16:19–25).

21:7 wicked live. With a rhetorical question, Job began exposing the loopholes in the retribution dogma—the belief that suffering always indicates God's punishment of a person. Other biblical writers also agonized over the prosperity of the wicked (Ps. 37; 73; Jer. 12:1–4), but Scriptures affirm that God is controlling everything to accomplish His good purpose (Rom. 8:28).

21:9 safe from fear. Job reacted to Eliphaz's argument (15:21–24) that although the wicked live peacefully for a while, they live in terror of inevitable destruction.

21:17 lamp of the wicked put out. The rhetorical questions introduced by "how often" expected the answer, "not very often." Job challenged Bildad's belief that the wicked person's light does go out (18:5–6).

And [n]let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
21 For what does he care about his household after him,
When the number of his months is cut in half?

22 "Can[o] anyone teach God knowledge,
Since He judges those on high?
23 One dies in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and secure;
24 His pails* are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is 25 Another man dies in the bitterness of his soul,

Never having eaten with pleasure.
26 They [p]lie down alike in the dust,

27 "Look, I know your thoughts,

28 For you say,
'Where is the house of the prince?
And where is the tent,*
The dwelling place of the wicked?'
29 Have you not asked those who travel
the road?
And do you not know their signs?
30 [q]For the wicked are reserved for the day of doom;
They shall be brought out on the day
of wrath.
31 Who condemns his way to his face?
And who repays him for what he has done?
32 Yet he shall be brought to the grave,
And a vigil kept over the tomb.
33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet
to him;
[r]Everyone shall follow him,
As countless have gone before him.
34 How then can you comfort me with empty words,
Since falsehood remains in your answers?"

Eliphaz Accuses Job of Wickedness

22 Then [a]Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

2 "Can[b] a man be profitable to God, Though he who is wise may be profitable to himself?
3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?
Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?

4 "Is it because of your fear of Him that
He corrects you,
And enters into judgment with you?
5 Is not your wickedness great,
And your iniquity without end?
6 For you have [c]taken pledges from your brother for no reason,
And stripped the naked of their clothing.
7 You have not given the weary water to drink,
And you [d]have withheld bread from the hungry.
8 But the mighty man possessed the land,
And the honorable man dwelt in it.
9 You have sent widows away empty,
And the strength of the fatherless was crushed.
10 Therefore snares are all around you,
And sudden fear troubles you,
11 Or darkness so that you cannot see;
And an abundance of [e]water covers
you.

12 "Is not God in the height of heaven?
And see the highest stars, how lofty they are!
13 And you say, [f]'What does God know?
Can He judge through the deep darkness?
14 [g]Thick clouds cover Him, so that He cannot see,
And He walks above the circle of heaven.'
15 Will you keep to the old way
Which wicked men have trod,

* 21:19 Literally his * 21:24 Septuagint and Vulgate read bowels; Syriac reads sides; Targum reads breasts. * 21:28 Vulgate omits the tent.

21:19 iniquity for his children. Job denied the dogma that even if a wicked person prospers temporarily, his children will be punished. Job's position is sustained by other passages in the Bible (Deut. 24:16; Ezek. 18:1–28; John 9:1–3).

22:2 man be profitable to God. The implication of Eliphaz's rhetorical question—that man cannot put God under any obligation that God must repay—was a valid theological principle that the Lord Himself corroborates in 41:11. However, his application of that principle to Job's circumstances (vv. 3–5) was invalid, for it was based on the faulty assumption that the righteous are always blessed and the wicked always experience God's judgment on earth.

22:3–4 blameless . . . fear. The same Hebrew root words ("reverence" and "integrity") had earlier been used by Eliphaz in his courteous remarks about Job (4:6). In these verses Eliphaz is being sarcastic.

22:6–9 naked . . . weary . . . widows. These trumped up charges were categorically denied by Job (29:11–17; 31:13–22), and God's own witness to Satan revealed to the reader that the charges were false (1:8).

18 Yet He filled their houses with good things;
But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

19 "The[j] righteous see it and are glad,
And the innocent laugh at them:
20 'Surely our adversaries* are cut down,
And the fire consumes their remnant.'

21 "Now acquaint yourself with Him, and [k]be at peace;
Thereby good will come to you.
22 Receive, please, [l]instruction from His mouth,
And [m]lay up His words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
You will remove iniquity far from your tents.
24 Then you will [n]lay your gold in the dust,
And the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
25 Yes, the Almighty will be your gold*
And your precious silver;
26 For then you will have your [o]delight in the Almighty,
And lift up your face to God.
27 [p]You will make your prayer to Him,
He will hear you,
And you will pay your vows.
28 You will also declare a thing,
And it will be established for you;
So light will shine on your ways.

Then [q]He will save the humble person.
30 He will even deliver one who is not innocent;
Yes, he will be delivered by the purity of your hands."

Job Proclaims God's Righteous Judgments

23 Then Job answered and said:

2 "Even today my [a]complaint is bitter;
My* hand is listless because of my groaning.
3 [b]Oh, that I knew where I might find Him,
That I might come to His seat!
4 I would present my case before Him,
And fill my mouth with arguments.
5 I would know the words which He would answer me,
And understand what He would say to me.
6 [c]Would He contend with me in His great power?
No! But He would take note of me.
7 There the upright could reason with Him,
And I would be delivered forever from my Judge.

8 "Look,[d] I go forward, but He is not there,
And backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
9 When He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him;
When He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.
10 But [e]He knows the way that I take;
When [f]He has tested me, I shall come forth as gold.
11 [g]My foot has held fast to His steps;
I have kept His way and not turned aside.
12 I have not departed from the [h]commandment of His lips;
[i]I have treasured the words of His mouth
More than my necessary food.

13 "But He is unique, and who can make Him change?
And whatever [j]His soul desires, that He does.
14 For He performs what is [k]appointed for me,
And many such things are with Him.
15 Therefore I am terrified at His presence;
When I consider this, I am afraid of Him.
16 For God [l]made my heart weak,
And the Almighty terrifies me;
17 Because I was not [m]cut off from the presence of darkness,
And He did not hide deep darkness from my face.

Job Complains of Violence on the Earth

24 "Since [a]times are not hidden from the Almighty,
Why do those who know Him see not His [b]days?

2 "Some remove [c]landmarks;
They seize flocks violently and feed on them;
3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless;
They [d]take the widow's ox as a pledge.
4 They push the needy off the road;
All the [e]poor of the land are forced to hide.
5 Indeed, like wild donkeys in the desert,
They go out to their work, searching for food.
The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.
6 They gather their fodder in the field
And glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
7 They [f]spend the night naked, without clothing,
And have no covering in the cold.
8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains,
And [g]huddle around the rock for want of shelter.

9 "Some snatch the fatherless from the breast,
And take a pledge from the poor.
10 They cause the poor to go naked, without [h]clothing;
And they take away the sheaves from the hungry.
11 They press out oil within their walls,
And tread winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
12 The dying groan in the city,
And the souls of the wounded cry out;
Yet God does not charge them with wrong.

13 "There are those who rebel against the light;
They do not know its ways
Nor abide in its paths.
14 [i]The murderer rises with the light;
He kills the poor and needy;
And in the night he is like a thief.
15 [j]The eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight,
[k]Saying, 'No eye will see me';
And he disguises his face.
16 In the dark they break into houses
Which they marked for themselves in the daytime;
[l]They do not know the light.
17 For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death;
If someone recognizes them,
They are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 "They should be swift on the face of the waters,
Their portion should be cursed in the earth,
So that no one would turn into the way of their vineyards.
19 As drought and heat consume the snow waters,
So the grave* consumes those who have sinned.
20 The womb should forget him,
The worm should feed sweetly on him;
[m]He should be remembered no more,
And wickedness should be broken like a tree.
21 For he preys on the barren who do not bear,
And does no good for the widow.

22 "But God draws the mighty away with His power;
He rises up, but no man is sure of life.
23 He gives them security, and they rely on it;
Yet [n]His eyes are on their ways.
24 They are exalted for a little while,
Then they are gone.
They are brought low;
They are taken out of the way like all others;
They dry out like the heads of grain.

25 "Now if it is not so, who will prove me a liar,
And make my speech worth nothing?"

Bildad: How Can Man Be Righteous?

25 Then [a]Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

2 "Dominion and fear belong to Him;
He makes peace in His high places.
3 Is there any number to His armies?
Upon whom does [b]His light not rise?
4 [c]How then can man be righteous before God?

* 24:19 Or Sheol

24:2 remove landmarks. Removing landmarks was tantamount to stealing land. The landmarks set boundaries, and moving them would have been like moving surveyor's stakes (Deut. 27:17).
24:16 break into houses. The walls of houses were built of mud bricks, through which thieves could dig.
24:24 brought low. Job was not so much arguing that the wicked would not prosper (vv. 18–25), as he was saying that everyone is brought low.

6 How much less man, who is [f]a maggot,
And a son of man, who is a worm?"

Job: Man's Frailty and God's Majesty

26 But Job answered and said:
2 "How have you helped him who is without power?
How have you saved the arm that has no strength?
3 How have you counseled one who has no wisdom?
And how have you declared sound advice to many?
4 To whom have you uttered words?
And whose spirit came from you?
5 "The dead tremble,
Those under the waters and those inhabiting them.
6 [a]Sheol is naked before Him,
And Destruction has no covering.
7 [b]He stretches out the north over empty space;
He hangs the earth on nothing.
8 [c]He binds up the water in His thick clouds,
Yet the clouds are not broken under it.
9 He covers the face of His throne,
And spreads His cloud over it.
10 [d]He drew a circular horizon on the face of the waters,
At the boundary of light and darkness.
11 The pillars of heaven tremble,
And are astonished at His rebuke.
12 [e]He stirs up the sea with His power,
And by His understanding He breaks up the storm.
13 [f]By His Spirit He adorned the heavens;
His hand pierced [g]the fleeing serpent.
14 Indeed these are the mere edges of His ways,
And how small a whisper we hear of Him!
But the thunder of His power who can understand?"

Job Maintains His Integrity

27 Moreover Job continued his discourse, and said:
2 "As God lives, [a]who has taken away my justice,
And the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,
3 As long as my breath is in me,
And the breath of God in my nostrils,
4 My lips will not speak wickedness,
Nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me
That I should say you are right;
Till I die [b]I will not put away my integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I [c]hold fast, and will not let it go;
[d]My heart shall not reproach me as long as I live.
7 "May my enemy be like the wicked,
And he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.
8 [e]For what is the hope of the hypocrite,
Though he may gain much,
If God takes away his life?
9 [f]Will God hear his cry
When trouble comes upon him?
10 [g]Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
Will he always call on God?
11 "I will teach you about the hand of God;
What is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
12 Surely all of you have seen it;
Why then do you behave with complete nonsense?

25:6 worm. What a contrast to the words of God (Gen. 1:26–31) when He made humans in His own image and declared them "very good." Bildad was conscious of the great gap between God and man, but unlike Job, he did not feel that he could make the connection of communication that Job was striving for.

26:4 whose spirit came from you. The contrast between Bildad's comments about God (ch. 25) and Job's worshipful declaration of God's majesty (vv. 7–14) indicate the difference in the level of their understanding of who God is.

26:6 Sheol is naked. This is the place of the dead and "destruction," which were fearful hidden concepts to Job and his contemporaries, but they held no secrets for the all-knowing God.

26:7 hangs the earth on nothing. Job's comments on the suspension of the earth, the manner of clouds (v. 8) and the horizon (v. 10) speak much for his powers of observation as well as the inspiration of Scripture.

27:2 who has made my soul bitter. Though Job repeatedly complained of a bitter spirit (7:11; 10:1), the Lord did not cause him to respond that way. Job's responses only exposed the attitude that lay deep within his being. The message of the Lord for Job was that no matter what the circumstances, one should resolutely trust in God (40:8; 42:1–6).

27:5 say you are right. Job maintained that his friends were erroneous in their reasoning, and to agree with them would be to compromise his integrity.

27:12 complete nonsense. Job maintained that the actions of his friends were foolish, considering the knowledge of God that they should have had.

And the heritage of oppressors,

14 [i]If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword;
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 Those who survive him shall be buried in death,
And [j]their* widows shall not weep,
16 Though he heaps up silver like dust,
And piles up clothing like clay—17 He may pile it up, but [k]the just will wear it,
And the innocent will divide the silver.
18 He builds his house like a moth,*
[l]Like a booth which a watchman makes.
19 The rich man will lie down,
But not be gathered *up;
He opens his eyes,
And he is [m]no more.
20 [n]Terrors overtake him like a flood;
A tempest steals him away in the night.
21 The east wind carries him away, and he is gone;
It sweeps him out of his place.
22 It hurls against him and does not [o]spare;
He flees desperately from its power.
23 Men shall clap their hands at him,
And shall hiss him out of his place.

Job's Discourse on Wisdom

28 "Surely there is a mine for silver,
And a place where gold is refined.
2 Iron is taken from the earth,
And copper is smelted from ore.
3 Man puts an end to darkness,
And searches every recess
For ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
4 He breaks open a shaft away from
people;
In places forgotten by feet
They hang far away from men;
They swing to and fro.
5 As for the earth, from it comes bread,
But underneath it is turned up as by fire;
6 Its stones are the source of sapphires,
And it contains gold dust.
7 That path no bird knows,
Nor has the falcon's eye seen it.
8 The proud lions* have not trodden it,
Nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
9 He puts his hand on the flint;
He overturns the mountains at the roots.
10 He cuts out channels in the rocks,
And his eye sees every precious thing.
11 He dams up the streams from trickling;
What is hidden he brings forth to light.
12 "But[a] where can wisdom be found?
And where is the place of
understanding?
13 Man does not know its [b]value,
Nor is it found in the land of the living.
14 [c]The deep says, 'It is not in me';
And the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
15 It [d]cannot be purchased for gold, Nor can silver be weighed for its price.
16 It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir,
In precious onyx or sapphire.
17 Neither [e]gold nor crystal can equal it, Nor can it be exchanged for jewelry of fine gold.
18 No mention shall be made of coral or quartz,
For the price of wisdom is above
[f]rubies.
19 The topaz of Ethiopia cannot equal it,
Nor can it be valued in pure [g]gold.
20 "From[h] where then does wisdom come?
And where is the place of
understanding?
21 It is hidden from the eyes of all living,
And concealed from the birds of the air.
22 [i]Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard a report about it with our ears.'
23 God understands its way,
And He knows its place.
24 For He looks to the ends of the earth,
And [j]sees under the whole heavens,

27:13 portion of a wicked man. Job likened the foolishness of his friends to wickedness, and indeed it is wicked to knowingly misrepresent God. The rest of the chapter is a satirical paraphrase of the friends' teaching about the fate of the wicked (24:18–25), which Job has thrown back in his friends' faces.

28:13–19 not. Every verse in this whole stanza has the Hebrew word for "not" at least once, stressing the absence of wisdom or even the desire for wisdom. The rhetorical questions concerning the whereabouts of wisdom and understanding (v. 12) receive an emphatic answer: not anywhere in the land of the living or dead.

28 And to man He said,

And to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Job's Summary Defense

29 Job further continued his discourse, and said:

2 "Oh, that I were as in months [a]past,
As in the days when God [b]watched over me;
3 [c]When His lamp shone upon my head,
And when by His light I walked through darkness;
4 Just as I was in the days of my prime,
When [d]the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;
5 When the Almighty was yet with me,
When my children were around me;
6 When [e]my steps were bathed with cream,*
And [f]the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!
7 "When I went out to the gate by the city,
When I took my seat in the open square,
8 The young men saw me and hid,
And the aged arose and stood;
9 The princes refrained from talking,
And [g]put their hand on their mouth;
10 The voice of nobles was hushed,
And their [h]tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
11 When the ear heard, then it blessed me,
And when the eye saw, then it approved me;
12 Because [i]I delivered the poor who cried out,
The fatherless and the one who had no helper.
13 The blessing of a perishing man came upon me,
And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
14 [j]I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
My justice was like a robe and a turban.
15 I was [k]eyes to the blind,
And I was feet to the lame.
16 I was a father to the poor,
And [l]I searched out the case that I did not know.
17 I broke [m]the fangs of the wicked,
And plucked the victim from his teeth.
18 "Then I said, [n]'I shall die in my nest,
And multiply my days as the sand.
19 [o]My root is spread out [p]to the waters,
And the dew lies all night on my branch.
20 My glory is fresh within me,
And my [q]bow is renewed in my hand.'
21 "Men listened to me and waited,
And kept silence for my counsel.
22 After my words they did not speak again,
And my speech settled on them as dew.
23 They waited for me as for the rain,
And they opened their mouth wide as for [r]the spring rain.
24 If I mocked at them, they did not believe it,
And the light of my countenance they did not cast down.
25 I chose the way for them, and sat as chief;
So I dwelt as a king in the army,
As one who comforts mourners.

30 "But now they mock at me, men younger than I,
Whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.
2 Indeed, what profit is the strength of their hands to me?
Their vigor has perished.
3 They are gaunt from want and famine,
Fleeing late to the wilderness, desolate and waste,
4 Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
And broom tree roots for their food.
5 They were driven out from among men,
They shouted at them as at a thief.

* 28:27 Literally it * 29:6 Masoretic Text reads wrath; ancient versions and some Hebrew manuscripts read cream (compare 20:17).

28:28 fear of the Lord. To fear God is to acknowledge that God has the right to judge our actions for good or evil. Job had talked a lot about injustice and his innocence, but he was solidly aware that only God has wisdom, and in the end, his fear of the Lord was greater than his protestations of blamelessness.
29:12 delivered the poor. Considering Job's account of his life when he was prosperous, Eliphaz's accusations of Job sending the widows away empty and crushing the orphans (22:9) was a calculated insult.
29:14 put on righteousness . . . a turban. This vivid portrait of Job was a stark contrast to his present condition, with his flesh being "clothed" in worms and dust.

6 They had to live in the clefts of the valleys,
In caves of the earth and the rocks.
7 Among the bushes they brayed,
Under the nettles they nestled.
8 They were sons of fools,
Yes, sons of vile men;
They were scourged from the land.

9 "And[a] now I am their taunting song;
Yes, I am their byword.
10 They abhor me, they keep far from me;
They do not hesitate [b]to spit in my face.
11 Because [c]He has loosed my* bowstring and afflicted me,
They have cast off restraint before me.
12 At my right hand the rabble arises;
They push away my feet,
And [d]they raise against me their ways of destruction.
13 They break up my path,
They promote my calamity;
They have no helper.
14 They come as broad breakers;
Under the ruinous storm they roll along.
15 Terrors are turned upon me;
They pursue my honor as the wind,
And my prosperity has passed like a cloud.

16 "And[e] now my soul is [f]poured out because of my plight;
The days of affliction take hold of me.
17 My bones are pierced in me at night,
And my gnawing pains take no rest.
18 By great force my garment is disfigured;
It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
19 He has cast me into the mire,
And I have become like dust and ashes.

20 "I [g]cry out to You, but You do not answer me;
I stand up, and You regard me.
21 But You have become cruel to me;
With the strength of Your hand You
[h]oppose me.
22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on it;
You spoil my success.
23 For I know that You will bring me to
death,
And to the house [i]appointed for all living.

24 "Surely He would not stretch out His hand against a heap of ruins,
If they cry out when He destroys it.
25 [j]Have I not wept for him who was in trouble?
Has not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 [k]But when I looked for good, evil came to me;
And when I waited for light, then came darkness.
27 My heart is in turmoil and cannot rest;
Days of affliction confront me.
28 [l]I go about mourning, but not in the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry out
for help.
29 [m]I am a brother of jackals,
And a companion of ostriches.
30 [n]My skin grows black and falls from me;
[o]My bones burn with fever.
31 My harp is turned to mourning,
And my flute to the voice of those who weep.

31 "I have made a covenant with my eyes;
Why then should I look upon a [a]young woman?
2 For what is the [b]allotment of God from above,
And the inheritance of the Almighty
from on high?
3 Is it not destruction for the wicked,
And disaster for the workers of iniquity?
4 [c]Does He not see my ways,
And count all my steps?

5 "If I have walked with falsehood,
Or if my foot has hastened to deceit,
6 Let me be weighed on honest scales,
That God may know my [d]integrity.
7 If my step has turned from the way,
Or [e]my heart walked after my eyes,
Or if any spot adheres to my hands,

* 30:11 Following Masoretic Text, Syriac, and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read His.

30:11 loosed my bowstring. A bow that is not strung up is not ready for use. This was a terrible contrast to his former life, described in 29:20, where Job referred to himself as having his bowstring renewed. A bow that is being used has its string replaced regularly so that the bow can operate at its maximum strength.
30:21 strength of Your hand. Job blamed God's strong hand, which Satan could not move, for calamities that were actually caused by the hand of Satan (1:11–12,18–19).
31:5 If. The word "if" was a part of a formula used by accused persons to swear their innocence. The full oath formula was, in effect, "If I am guilty of this crime, may God impose that curse." Because of hesitation about speaking a curse, the person swearing the oath would normally use an abbreviated version. By contrast, Job used the full formula four times, which demonstrated his confidence that he would be acquitted.

8 Then [f]let me sow, and another eat;
Yes, let my harvest be rooted out.

9 "If my heart has been enticed by a woman,
Or if I have lurked at my neighbor's door,
10 Then let my wife grind for [g]another,
And let others bow down over her.
11 For that would be wickedness;
Yes, [h]it would be iniquity deserving of judgment.
12 For that would be a fire that consumes to destruction,
And would root out all my increase.

13 "If I have [i]despised the cause of my male or female servant
When they complained against me,
14 What then shall I do when [i]God rises up?
When He punishes, how shall I answer Him?
15 [k]Did not He who made me in the womb make them?
Did not the same One fashion us in the womb?

16 "If I have kept the poor from their desire,
Or caused the eyes of the widow to [l]fail,
17 Or eaten my morsel by myself,
So that the fatherless could not eat of it 18 (But from my youth I reared him as a father,
And from my mother's womb I guided *the widow);
19 If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing,
Or any poor man without covering;
20 If his heart* has not [m]blessed me,
And if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
21 If I have raised my hand [n]against the fatherless,
When I saw I had help in the gate;
22 Then let my arm fall from my shoulder,
Let my arm be torn from the socket.
23 For [o]destruction from God is a terror to me,
And because of His magnificence I cannot endure.

24 "If[p] I have made gold my hope,

26 [r]If I have observed the sun* when it shines,
Or the moon moving in brightness,
27 So that my heart has been secretly enticed,
And my mouth has kissed my hand;
28 This also would be an iniquity deserving of judgment,
For I would have denied God who is above.

29 "If[s] I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
Or lifted myself up when evil found him
30 [t](Indeed I have not allowed my mouth to sin
By asking for a curse on his soul);
31 If the men of my tent have not said,
'Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?'
32 [u](But no sojourner had to lodge in the street,
For I have opened my doors to the traveler*);
33 If I have covered my transgressions [v]as Adam,
By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
34 Because I feared the great [w]multitude,
And dreaded the contempt of families,
So that I kept silence
And did not go out of the door—
35 [x]Oh, that I had one to hear me!
Here is my mark.
Oh, [y]that the Almighty would answer me,
That my Prosecutor had written a book!
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder,
And bind it on me like a crown;
37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps;
Like a prince I would approach Him.

38 "If my land cries out against me,
And its furrows weep together;
39 If [z]I have eaten its fruit* without money,
Or [a]caused its owners to lose their lives;
40 Then let [b]thistles grow instead of wheat,
And weeds instead of barley."

The words of Job are ended.

Elihu Contradicts Job's Friends

32 So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was [a]righteous in his own eyes. 2 Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel the [b]Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused against Job; his wrath was aroused because he [c]justified himself rather than God. 3 Also against his three friends his wrath was aroused, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak to Job.* 5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was aroused.

6 So Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, answered and said:

"I am [d]young in years, and you are very old;
Therefore I was afraid,
And dared not declare my opinion to you.
7 I said, 'Age* should speak,
And multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
8 But there is a spirit in man,
And [e]the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.
9 [f]Great men* are not always wise,
Nor do the aged always understand justice.

10 "Therefore I say, 'Listen to me,
I also will declare my opinion.'
11 Indeed I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.
12 I paid close attention to you;
And surely not one of you convinced Job,
Or answered his words—
13 [g]Lest you say,
'We have found wisdom';
God will vanquish him, not man.
14 Now he has not directed his words against me;
So I will not answer him with your words.

15 "They are dismayed and answer no more;
Words escape them.
16 And I have waited, because they did not speak,
Because they stood still and answered no more.
17 I also will answer my part,
I too will declare my opinion.
18 For I am full of words;
The spirit within me compels me.
19 Indeed my belly is like wine that has no vent;
It is ready to burst like new wineskins.
20 I will speak, that I may find relief;
I must open my lips and answer.
21 Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone;
Nor let me flatter any man.
22 For I do not know how to flatter,
Else my Maker would soon take me [h]away.

Elihu Contradicts Job

33 "But please, Job, hear my speech,
And listen to all my words.
2 Now, I open my mouth;
My tongue speaks in my mouth.
3 My words come from my upright heart;
My lips utter pure knowledge.
4 [a]The Spirit of God has made me,
And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 If you can answer me,
Set your words in order before me;
Take your stand.
6 [b]Truly I am as your spokesman* before God;
I also have been formed out of clay.
7 [c]Surely no fear of me will terrify you,
Nor will my hand be heavy on you.

8 "Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
And I have heard the sound of your words, saying,
9 'I[d] am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.
10 Yet He finds occasions against me,
[e]He counts me as His enemy;
11 [f]He puts my feet in the stocks,
He watches all my paths.'

12 "Look, in this you are not righteous.
I will answer you,
For God is greater than man.

* 32:4 Vulgate reads till Job had spoken.
* 32:7 Literally Days, that is, years * 32:9 Or Men of many years * 33:6 Literally as your mouth

32:1 righteous in his own eyes. Job's friends accused him of self-righteousness because of his denial of the sins they ascribed to him. Job considered himself blameless (and so did God), but he was not without sin. Job needed to see how he compared to God's utter holiness, in spite of the fact that he had none of the unconfessed sins that his friends accused him of.

32:2 wrath was aroused. Elihu's first mistake was in dealing with a delicate situation while he was angry. He did use the same arguments as the three friends, but he did not understand the whole situation any better than they did. Only the reader is aware of the counsel that took place in heaven (ch. 1).

33:12 in this you are not righteous. Elihu was correct in saying that God was not answerable to Job. God does not ever have to explain Himself to us, 13 Why do you [g]contend with Him?

For He does not give an accounting of any of His words.
14 [h]For God may speak in one way, or in another,
Yet man does not perceive it.
15 [i]In a dream, in a vision of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
While slumbering on their beds,
16 [j]Then He opens the ears of men,
And seals their instruction.
17 In order to turn man from his deed,
And conceal pride from man,
18 He keeps back his soul from the Pit,
And his life from perishing by the sword.

19 "Man is also chastened with pain on his [k]bed,
And with strong pain in many of his bones,
20 [l]So that his life abhors [m]bread,
And his soul succulent food.
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones stick out which once
were not seen.
22 Yes, his soul draws near the Pit,
And his life to the executioners.

23 "If there is a messenger for him,
A mediator, one among a thousand,
To show man His uprightness,
24 Then He is gracious to him, and says,
'Deliver him from going down to the Pit;
I have found a ransom';
25 His flesh shall be young like a child's,
He shall return to the days of his youth.
26 He shall pray to God, and He will delight in him,
He shall see His face with joy,
For He restores to man His
righteousness.
27 Then he looks at men and [n]says,
'I have sinned, and perverted what was right,
And it [o]did not profit me.'
28 He will [p]redeem his* soul from going down to the Pit,
And his* life shall see the light.
29 "Behold, God works all these things,
Twice, in fact, three times with a man,
30 [q]To bring back his soul from the Pit,
That he may be enlightened with the light of life.

31 "Give ear, Job, listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will speak.
32 If you have anything to say, answer
me;
Speak, for I desire to justify you.
33 If not, [r]listen to me;
Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

34 Elihu further answered and said:
2 "Hear my words, you wise men;
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
3 [a]For the ear tests words
As the palate tastes food.
4 Let us choose justice for ourselves;
Let us know among ourselves what is
good.

5 "For Job has said, [b]'I am righteous,
But [c]God has taken away my justice;
6 [d]Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
7 What man is like Job,
[e]Who drinks scorn like water,
8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity,
And walks with wicked men?
9 For [f]he has said, 'It profits a man nothing
That he should delight in God.'

10 "Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:
[g]Far be it from God to do wickedness,
And from the Almighty to commit
iniquity.
11 [h]For He repays man according to his work,
And makes man to find a reward
according to his way.
12 Surely God will never do wickedly,
Nor will the Almighty [i]pervert justice.

* 33:28 Or my (Kethib) • Or my (Kethib)

even though He often graciously does so. Job had great respect for God, and understood the fear of the Lord (28:28). He was persistent in asking God for an answer, and in the end, God did reply.

33:29–30 To bring back his soul from the Pit. Again, one of Job's advisors had some correct understanding of God, but he mistakenly applied it to Job. It is true that the chastening of pain or trouble sometimes causes men to turn to God and repent of wickedness. But Job's problem was not perverting what was right (v. 27). For him, the answer for the purpose of his pain could not be "to bring back his soul from the Pit." Without claiming that Job was sin free, God had called him blameless and upright (1:8).

34:8 walks with wicked men. There was no justice in this charge against Job.

34:12 do wickedly . . . pervert justice. Elihu was unhappy with Job's persistent charges that God was unjust (9:22–24; 24:1–25), and this was a proper concern. The judge of all the earth will always do right (Rev. 15:3).

Or who appointed Him over the whole world?
14 If He should set His heart on it,
If He should [j]gather to Himself His Spirit and His breath, 15 [k]All flesh would perish together,
And man would return to dust.

16 "If you have understanding, hear this;
Listen to the sound of my words:
17 [l]Should one who hates justice govern?
Will you [m]condemn Him who is most just?
18 [n]Is it fitting to say to a king, 'You are worthless,'
And to nobles, 'You are wicked'?
19 Yet He [o]is not partial to princes,
Nor does He regard the rich more than the poor;
For [p]they are all the work of His hands.
20 In a moment they die, [q]in the middle of the night;
The people are shaken and pass away;
The mighty are taken away without a hand.

21 "For[r] His eyes are on the ways of man,
And He sees all his steps.
22 [s]There is no darkness nor shadow of death
Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
23 For He need not further consider a man,
That he should go before God in judgment.
24 [t]He breaks in pieces mighty men without inquiry,
And sets others in their place.
25 Therefore He knows their works;
He overthrows them in the night,
And they are crushed.
26 He strikes them as wicked men
In the open sight of others,
27 Because they [u]turned back from Him,
And [v]would not consider any of His ways,
28 So that they [w]caused the cry of the poor to come to Him;
For He [x]hears the cry of the afflicted.
29 When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when He hides His face, who then can see Him,
Whether it is against a nation or a man alone?—
30 That the hypocrite should not reign,
Lest the people be ensnared.

31 "For has anyone said to God,
'I have borne chastening;
I will offend no more;
32 Teach me what I do not see;
If I have done iniquity, I will do no more'?
33 Should He repay it according to your terms,
Just because you disavow it?
You must choose, and not I;
Therefore speak what you know.

34 "Men of understanding say to me,
Wise men who listen to me:
35 'Job[y] speaks without knowledge,
His words are without wisdom.'
36 Oh, that Job were tried to the utmost,
Because his answers are like those of wicked men!
37 For he adds [z]rebellion to his sin;
He claps his hands among us,
And multiplies his words against God."

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

35 Moreover Elihu answered and said:
2 "Do you think this is right?
Do you say,
'My righteousness is more than God's'?
3 For [a]you say,
'What advantage will it be to You?
What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?'

4 "I will answer you,
And [b]your companions with you.
5 [c]Look to the heavens and see;
And behold the clouds—
They are higher than you.
6 If you sin, what do you accomplish [d]against Him?
Or, if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to Him?

34:16 hear this. As indicated by the singular Hebrew verb translated "hear," Elihu was addressing Job directly in verses 16–33.

34:24 breaks in pieces mighty men. Job was a mighty man who was broken. Elihu's implication is that Job was a worker of iniquity (v. 22).

34:37 adds rebellion to his sin. Job was stubborn, but he was not rebellious. He was willing to accept punishment if he deserved it (31:5–6).

35:6 If you sin. This is the same argument used by Eliphaz (22:2). The point that Elihu was making here and through verse 8, is that God's stature is not affected either by the sinfulness or righteousness of man. He cannot be diminished by sin nor made greater by righteousness. This is a true and important point. But it leaves out the understanding that God created man to be in His image, and He does care about the actions of man. God wants men to live blamelessly (ch. 1), and it is good to want to please God.

Or what does He receive from your hand?
8 Your wickedness affects a man such as you,
And your righteousness a son of man.
9 "Because[f] of the multitude of oppressions they cry out;
They cry out for help because of the arm of the mighty.
10 But no one says, [g]'Where is God my Maker,
[h]Who gives songs in the night,
11 Who [i]teaches us more than the beasts of the earth,
And makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?'
12 [j]There they cry out, but He does not answer,
Because of the pride of evil men.
13 [k]Surely God will not listen to empty talk,
Nor will the Almighty regard it.
14 [l]Although you say you do not see Him,
Yet justice is before Him, and [m]you must wait for Him.
15 And now, because He has not [n]punished in His anger,
Nor taken much notice of folly,
16 [o]Therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;
He multiplies words without knowledge."

Elihu Proclaims God's Goodness

36 Elihu also proceeded and said:
2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you
That there are yet words to speak on God's behalf.
3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar;
I will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false;
One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
5 "Behold, God is mighty, but despises no one;
[a]He is mighty in strength of understanding.
6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked,
But gives justice to the [b]oppressed.
7 [c]He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous;
But [d]they are on the throne with kings,
For He has seated them forever,
And they are exalted.
8 And [e]if they are bound in fetters,
Held in the cords of affliction,
9 Then He tells them their work and their transgressions—
That they have acted defiantly.
10 [f]He also opens their ear to instruction,
And commands that they turn from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve Him,
They shall [g]spend their days in prosperity,
And their years in pleasures.
12 But if they do not obey,
They shall perish by the sword,
And they shall die without [h]knowledge.*
13 "But the hypocrites in heart [i]store up wrath;
They do not cry for help when He binds them.
14 [j]They die in youth,
And their life ends among the perverted persons.*
15 He delivers the poor in their affliction,
And opens their ears in oppression.
16 "Indeed He would have brought you out of dire distress,
[k]Into a broad place where there is no restraint;
And [l]what is set on your table would be full of [m]richness.
17 But you are filled with the judgment due the [n]wicked;
Judgment and justice take hold of you.

* 36:12 Masoretic Text reads as one without knowledge. * 36:14 Hebrew qedeshim, that is, those practicing sodomy and prostitution in religious rituals

35:12 Pride—Elihu accused Job of pride because Job had declared his own righteousness (32:1). But Elihu's presumption and self-righteousness became even more excessive than Job's as he developed his pompous speech against Job (36:4). Later Elihu would understand that God had accepted Job, while his "friends" were condemned. Even knowledge about God and commitment to God can become a source of pride that blinds us to other things that God is doing, both in ourselves and in others.
35:13 empty talk. Elihu was assuming that Job had no answer from God because God knew that Job's cry was empty.
36:2 speak on God's behalf. Elihu believed that he was speaking for God and that he was setting Job straight. It is interesting to note that God asked Job to pray for the other three friends (42:7–10), but no word, either of censure or praise, was said about Elihu.
36:6–14 does not preserve the life of the wicked. Elihu repeats the concept that the wicked are judged by being cut off and the repentant are rewarded.

24 "Remember to [u]magnify His work,
Of which men have sung.
25 Everyone has seen it;
Man looks on it from afar.

26 "Behold, God is great, and we [v]do not know Him;
[w]Nor can the number of His years be discovered.
27 For He [x]draws up drops of water,
Which distill as rain from the mist,
28 [y]Which the clouds drop down
And pour abundantly on man.
29 Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,
The thunder from His canopy?
30 Look, He [z]scatters His light upon it,
And covers the depths of the sea.
31 For [a]by these He judges the peoples;
He [b]gives food in abundance.
32 [c]He covers His hands with lightning,
And commands it to strike.
33 [d]His thunder declares it,
The cattle also, concerning the rising storm.

37 "At this also my heart trembles,

And the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
3 He sends it forth under the whole heaven,
His lightning to the ends of the earth.
4 After it [a]a voice roars;
He thunders with His majestic voice,
And He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.
5 God thunders marvelously with His voice;
[b]He does great things which we [c]cannot comprehend.
6 For [c]He says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
Likewise to the gentle rain and the heavy rain of His strength.

He scatters His bright clouds.
12 And they swirl about, being turned by His guidance,
That they may [h]do whatever He commands them
On the face of the whole earth.*
13 [i]He causes it to come,
Whether for correction,
Or [j]for His land,
Or [k]for mercy.

14 "Listen to this, O Job;
Stand still and [l]consider the wondrous works of God.

* 37:12 Literally the world of the earth

36:23 You have done wrong. This is probably the most accurate warning that Elihu gives to Job. Even though Job was sure that God would vindicate his actions (and the reader knows that God saw Job as blameless and upright), he could not defend his position without telling God that He had done wrong. God cannot sin, nor will He tempt people to sin.
36:24 magnify His work. This is the best advice that Elihu gave Job, and indeed, it was something that Job had already done (26:5–14; 28:1–28). Exalting God for who He is and what He has done is one of the best ways to gain perspective when we are in trouble or despair.
36:26 Behold, God is great. As Elihu begins to praise God, his anger with Job disappears, and he speaks accurately and joyfully of the things that he knows about God. From here to the end of chapter 37 Elihu is praising God. The speeches of Elihu are the most difficult of the friends' admonitions to analyze, and scholars are not in total agreement about which charges by Elihu are discerning and which charges are misapplied "conventional wisdom." Like all mixtures of truth and misunderstanding, Elihu's discourse needs careful sorting.
37:7 seals the hand of every man. God uses the winter storm to stop man so that he cannot work, but instead may recognize the work of God.

15 Do you know when God dispatches them,
And causes the light of His cloud to shine?
16 [m]Do you know how the clouds are balanced,
Those wondrous works of [n]Him who is perfect in knowledge?
17 Why are your garments hot,
When He quiets the earth by the south wind?
18 With Him, have you [o]spread out the [p]skies,
Strong as a cast metal mirror?
19 "Teach us what we should say to Him,
For we can prepare nothing because of the darkness.
20 Should He be told that I wish to speak?
If a man were to speak, surely he would be swallowed up.
21 Even now men cannot look at the light when it is bright in the skies,
When the wind has passed and cleared them.
22 He comes from the north as golden splendor;
With God is awesome majesty.
23 As for the Almighty, [q]we cannot find Him;
[r]He is excellent in power,
In judgment and abundant justice;
He does not oppress.
24 Therefore men [s]fear Him;
He shows no partiality to any who are [t]wise of heart."

The LORD Reveals His Omnipotence to Job

38 Then the LORD answered Job [a]out of the whirlwind, and said:

2 "Who[b] is this who darkens counsel
By [c]words without knowledge?
3 [d]Now prepare yourself like a man;
I will question you, and you shall answer Me.
4 "Where[e] were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell Me, if you have understanding.
5 Who determined its measurements?
Surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?
6 To what were its foundations fastened?
Or who laid its cornerstone,
7 When the morning stars sang together,
And all [f]the sons of God shouted for joy?
8 "Or[g] who shut in the sea with doors,
When it burst forth and issued from the womb;
9 When I made the clouds its garment,
And thick darkness its swaddling band;
10 When [h]I fixed My limit for it,
And set bars and doors;
11 When I said,
'This far you may come, but no farther,
And here your proud waves [i]must stop!'
12 "Have you [j]commanded the morning since your days began,
And caused the dawn to know its place,
13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
And [k]the wicked be shaken out of it?
14 It takes on form like clay under a seal,
And stands out like a garment.
15 From the wicked their [l]light is withheld,
And [m]the upraised arm is broken.
16 "Have you [n]entered the springs of the sea?
Or have you walked in search of the depths?
17 Have [o]the gates of death been revealed to you?
Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18 Have you comprehended the breadth of the earth?
Tell Me, if you know all this.
19 "Where is the way to the dwelling of light?
And darkness, where is its place,
20 That you may take it to its territory,
That you may know the paths to its home?

the course for the clouds, which respond obediently to His hand at the helm.

37:18 Strong . . . cast metal mirror. Ancient mirrors were firm and unbreakable because they were made of polished bronze.

37:24 partiality . . . wise of heart. Even though Elihu had claimed earlier to be one who "is perfect in knowledge" (36:4), he knew that God does not give preferential treatment, even to the wise.

38:2 words without knowledge. The theme of the first speech of the Lord is given here. Job did not know what he was talking about. God quite quickly points out that there is a wide gap in understanding between God and man. God was not saying that Job had sinned in the way that his friends had accused him, but He was saying that Job had been presumptuous with his superficial knowledge of divine things. Job, along with his friends, had to learn that suffering may serve a purpose known only to God. In that case, a follower of God will submit even to loss and trauma, without complaint, for the glory of God.

38:10 My limit. If God controls the sea and places boundaries on it, He can place boundaries on anything else that will affect mankind.

Or have you seen the treasury of hail, 23 [q]Which I have reserved for the time of
trouble,
For the day of battle and war?
24 By what way is light diffused, Or the east wind scattered over the
earth?

25 "Who [r]has divided a channel for the overflowing water,
Or a path for the thunderbolt, 26 To cause it to rain on a land where there is no one,
A wilderness in which there is no man;
27 [s]To satisfy the desolate waste,
And cause to spring forth the growth of tender grass?
28 [t]Has the rain a father?
Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
29 From whose womb comes the ice?
And the [u]frost of heaven, who gives it birth?
30 The waters harden like stone,
And the surface of the deep is [v]frozen.

32 Can you bring out Mazzaroth* in its

Can you set their dominion over the

That an abundance of water may cover
you?
35 Can you send out lightnings, that they may go,
And say to you, 'Here we are!'?
36 [y]Who has put wisdom in the mind?*

Or lurk in their lairs to lie in wait?

And wander about for lack of food?

39 "Do you know the time when the young?

Or can you mark when [b]the deer gives birth?
2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?
Or do you know the time when they bear young?
3 They bow down,
They bring forth their young,
They deliver their offspring.*
4 Their young ones are healthy,
They grow strong with grain;
They depart and do not return to them.

5 "Who set the wild donkey free?
Who loosed the bonds of the onager, 6 [c]Whose home I have made the wilderness,
And the barren land his dwelling?
7 He scorns the tumult of the city;
He does not heed the shouts of the driver.
8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
And he searches after [d]every green thing.

9 "Will the [e]wild ox be willing to serve
you?
Will he bed by your manger?
10 Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes?
Or will he plow the valleys behind you?
11 Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Or will you leave your labor to him?
12 Will you trust him to bring home your grain,
And gather it to your threshing floor?

38:26 where there is no one. Though God utilizes meteorological elements to intervene in human affairs, He also uses them in areas that lie outside the human realm, for the sake of the land itself.
38:32 Great Bear. This is a reference to the constellation known as Ursa Major, also called the Big Dipper.
39:1 Do you know. God continues His probing of Job. He has shown His control of the earth and seas, the elements and the heavens, and now He shows the splendor and mysteries of the wild forces of nature, which are also all in God's control.

39:5 loosed the bands of the onager. God shows His compassion even for beasts of burden. This contrasts sharply with Job's complaints about God not noticing the oppression by the wicked (24:1–12).

13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly,
But are her wings and pinions like the kindly stork's?
14 For she leaves her eggs on the ground,
And warms them in the dust;
15 She forgets that a foot may crush them,
Or that a wild beast may break them.
16 She [f]treats her young harshly, as though they were not hers;
Her labor is in vain, without concern,
17 Because God deprived her of wisdom,
And did not [g]endow her with
understanding.
18 When she lifts herself on high,
She scorns the horse and its rider.

19 "Have you given the horse strength?
Have you clothed his neck with thunder?*
20 Can you frighten him like a locust?
His majestic snorting strikes terror.
21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in
his strength;
[h]He gallops into the clash of arms.
22 He mocks at fear, and is not frightened;
Nor does he turn back from the sword.
23 The quiver rattles against him,
The glittering spear and javelin.
24 He devours the distance with fierceness and rage;
Nor does he come to a halt because the trumpet has sounded.
25 At the blast of the trumpet he says,
'Aha!'
He smells the battle from afar,
The thunder of captains and shouting.

26 "Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,
And spread its wings toward the south?
27 Does the [i]eagle mount up at your command,
And [j]make its nest on high?
28 On the rock it dwells and resides,
On the crag of the rock and the stronghold.
29 From there it spies out the prey;
Its eyes observe from afar.
30 Its young ones suck up blood;
And [k]where the slain are, there it is."

40 Moreover the LORD [a]answered Job, and said:

2 "Shall [b]the one who contends with the Almighty correct Him?
He who [c]rebukes God, let him answer it."

Job's Response to God

3 Then Job answered the LORD and said:

4 "Behold,[d] I am vile;
What shall I answer You?
[e]I lay my hand over my mouth.
5 Once I have spoken, but I will not
answer;
Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

God's Challenge to Job

6 [f]Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said:

7 "Now[g] prepare yourself like a man;
[h]I will question you, and you shall
answer Me:

8 "Would[i] you indeed annul My judgment?
Would you condemn Me that you may be justified?
9 Have you an arm like God?
Or can you thunder with [j]a voice like His?
10 [k]Then adorn yourself with majesty and splendor,
And array yourself with glory and beauty.
11 Disperse the rage of your wrath; Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him.
12 Look on everyone who is [l]proud, and bring him low;
Tread down the wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together,
Bind their faces in hidden darkness.
14 Then I will also confess to you
That your own right hand can save you.

15 "Look now at the behemoth,* which I made along with you;
He eats grass like an ox.
16 See now, his strength is in his hips,
And his power is in his stomach muscles.
17 He moves his tail like a cedar;
The sinews of his thighs are tightly knit.
18 His bones are like beams of bronze,
His ribs like bars of iron.
19 He is the first of the [m]ways of God;
Only He who made him can bring near
His sword.

* 39:19 Or a mane * 40:15 A large animal, exact identity unknown

39:30 where the slain are, there it is. The animals that feed on the blood of the slain prevent the spread of disease. This too is part of God's intricate plan.
40:8 condemn Me that You may be justified. Because Job had been arguing against the inflexible retribution dogma, which views suffering as God's punishment for sin, Job had to condemn God in order to maintain his own innocence.
40:15 behemoth. Suggestions for the identity of this beast include the elephant, the hippopotamus, or a dinosaur. The name means "great beast," and the description most nearly fits a dinosaur, as neither the elephant nor the hippo has a tail like a cedar.

20 Surely the mountains [n]yield food for him,
And all the beasts of the field play there.
21 He lies under the lotus trees,
In a covert of reeds and marsh.
22 The lotus trees cover him with their shade;
The willows by the brook surround him.
23 Indeed the river may rage,
Yet he is not disturbed;
He is confident, though the Jordan gushes into his mouth,
24 Though he takes it in his eyes,
Or one pierces his nose with a snare.

41 "Can you draw out [a]Leviathan* with a hook,
Or snare his tongue with a line which you lower?
2 Can you [b]put a reed through his nose,
Or pierce his jaw with a hook?
3 Will he make many supplications to you?
Will he speak softly to you?
4 Will he make a covenant with you?
Will you take him as a servant forever?
5 Will you play with him as with a bird,
Or will you leash him for your maidens?
6 Will your companions make a banquet* of him?
Will they apportion him among the merchants?
7 Can you fill his skin with harpoons,
Or his head with fishing spears?
8 Lay your hand on him;
Remember the battle—
Never do it again!
9 Indeed, any hope of overcoming him is false;
Shall one not be overwhelmed at the sight of him?
10 No one is so fierce that he would dare stir him up.
Who then is able to stand against Me?
11 [c]Who has preceded Me, that I should pay him?
[d]Everything under heaven is Mine.

12 "I will not conceal* his limbs,
His mighty power, or his graceful proportions.
13 Who can remove his outer coat?
Who can approach him with a double bridle?
14 Who can open the doors of his face,
With his terrible teeth all around?
15 His rows of scales are his pride,
Shut up tightly as with a seal;
16 One is so near another
That no air can come between them;
17 They are joined one to another,
They stick together and cannot be parted.
18 His sneezings flash forth light,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
19 Out of his mouth go burning lights;
Sparks of fire shoot out.
20 Smoke goes out of his nostrils,
As from a boiling pot and burning rushes.
21 His breath kindles coals,
And a flame goes out of his mouth.
22 Strength dwells in his neck,
And sorrow dances before him.
23 The folds of his flesh are joined together;
They are firm on him and cannot be moved.
24 His heart is as hard as stone,
Even as hard as the lower millstone.
25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid;
Because of his crashings they are beside* themselves.
26 Though the sword reaches him, it cannot avail;
Nor does spear, dart, or javelin.
27 He regards iron as straw,
And bronze as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee;
Slingstones become like stubble to him.
29 Darts are regarded as straw;
He laughs at the threat of javelins.
30 His undersides are like sharp potsherds;
He spreads pointed marks in the mire.
31 He makes the deep boil like a pot;
He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He leaves a shining wake behind him;
One would think the deep had white hair.
33 On earth there is nothing like him,
Which is made without fear.
34 He beholds every high thing;
He is king over all the children of pride."

Job's Repentance and Restoration

42 Then Job answered the LORD and said:

2 "I know that You [a]can do everything,
And that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You.

* 41:1 A large sea creature, exact identity unknown * 41:6 Or bargain over him * 41:12 Literally keep silent about * 41:25 Or purify themselves

41:1 Leviathan. The identity of Leviathan, which is a transliteration for the Hebrew word "sea monster," or "sea serpent," is disputed. His description (vv. 12–18) sounds like the traditional dragon. He is a sea animal, an uncontrollable giant.

40:20 [n] Ps. 104:14 41:1 [a] Is. 27:1 41:2 [b] Is. 37:29 41:11 [c] [Rom. 11:35] [d] Ps. 24:1; 50:12 42:2 [a] [Matt. 19:26]

3 You asked, [b]'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'
Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand,
[c]Things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.
4 Listen, please, and let me speak;
You said, [d]'I will question you, and you shall answer Me.'
5 "I have [e]heard of You by the hearing of the ear,
But now my eye sees You.
6 Therefore I [f]abhor myself,
And repent in dust and ashes."

7And so it was, after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, that the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is aroused against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has. 8Now therefore, take for yourselves [g]seven bulls and seven rams, [h]go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job shall [i]pray for you. For I will accept him, lest I deal with you according to your folly; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has."

9So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD commanded them; for the LORD had accepted Job. 10[j]And the LORD restored Job's losses* when he prayed for his friends. Indeed the LORD gave Job [k]twice as much as he had before. 11Then [l]all his brothers, all his sisters, and all those who had been his acquaintances before, came to him and ate food with him in his house; and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. Each one gave him a piece of silver and each a ring of gold.

12Now the LORD blessed [m]the latter days of Job more than his beginning; for he had [n]fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys. 13[o]He also had seven sons and three daughters. 14And he called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-Happuch. 15In all the land were found no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job; and their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.

16After this Job [p]lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations. 17So Job died, old and [q]full of days.

* 42:10 Literally Job's captivity, that is, what was captured from Job

42:4 you shall answer Me. Job was completely done with his complaints of injustice. He knew that his presuppositions were wrong, and that he needed God's wisdom.

42:5 Conviction—Job was not convicted of a particular sin, but of too small a view of God. In the Bible, the revelation of the character and person of God is the criterion for proper self-evaluation (Is. 6:5). Job regretted that his trust in God had been so imperfect, for he now understood God in a new way.

42:6 repent in dust and ashes. Dust and ashes were a sign of mourning. Job could not retract more fully.

42:7 spoken of Me . . . as My servant Job has. Even though God had just shown Job his presumption, God still validated Job's doggedly held position that God had not brought suffering on him because of sin in his life.

42:10 restored Job's losses when he prayed. Not only did God deal with Job's presumption and the wrong ideas of his friends, but He provided the perfect way to restore their relationship with each other, as well as with God.

THE BOOK OF
PSALMS

▶ AUTHOR: Seventy-five of the psalms in the book are designated as Davidic: 3–9; 11–32; 34–41; 51–65; 68–70; 86; 101; 103; 108–110; 122; 124; 131; 133; and 138–145. The New Testament tells us that the "anonymous" Psalms 2 and 95 were also written by David. In addition to these, twelve are by Asaph, a priest who headed the service of music; ten are by the sons of Korah, a guild of singers and composers; two are by Solomon, Israel's most powerful king; one is by Moses; one by Heman, a wise man; and one is by Ethan, another wise man. The remaining fifty psalms are anonymous, but tradition attributes them to Ezra.

▶ TIME: c. 1410–430 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Ps. 19:14

▶ THEME: A collection of songs that literally covers hundreds of years of Jewish history from the patriarchs down through the postexilic period, the Book of Psalms is practical and personal as well as scenic and magnificently beautiful. The Psalms teach us how to pray, how to grieve, how to rejoice, and how to worship. Any Christian who makes building a relationship with God a priority in his or her life will find great spiritual nourishment in the Psalms. It is the prayer book for all who believe in the God of the universe. Jesus used it as such, and so should we.

BOOK ONE

Psalms 1–41

Psalm 1

The Way of the Righteous and the End of the Ungodly

1 Blessed [a]is the man
Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor stands in the path of sinners,
[b]Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;
2 But [c]his delight is in the law of the LORD,
[d]And in His law he meditates day and night.
3 He shall be like a tree
[e]Planted by the rivers of water,
That brings forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also shall not wither;
And whatever he does shall [f]prosper.
4 The ungodly are not so,
But are [g]like the chaff which the wind drives away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

1:1 Success—Psalm 1 sets the tone for the whole Book of Psalms. It contrasts the ways of life of the blessed man and the wicked man. Being blessed or successful is not a once for all time, dramatic event, but rather a lifetime of choosing to follow God and His commandments. Success happens when we move from grudging acceptance to enthusiastic delight in absorbing and then following God's laws and mandates. Nothing provides more resources. No motivational speakers will set us on a better course. No degrees will give us more of a life-changing education.

At first glance this kind of lifestyle may not look like the most exciting way to live. We can go through life, plodding along this way, without anybody even noticing. It's a lifestyle that doesn't fill up trophy cases or result in monuments being created. It can, however, end with "Well done, good and faithful servant" from our Lord. The excitement is in the results of being in a position to help family and friends grow. Success comes from being in a relationship with God that means fruitfulness by His definition.

1:1 Blessed is the man. Hebrew wisdom literature and poetry is filled with descriptions of two favorite characters: "the righteous man" and "wisdom" (often personified as "she"). In this context, "the righteous man" is a literary tool used to represent those who love and desire to please God, rather than an actual individual.

1:2 meditates. Biblical meditation is focusing the mind on Scripture or the attributes and actions of God.

1:3 shall prosper. This is not a guarantee of the future financial worth of the righteous; rather, the righteous person is always useful and productive to the Lord.

1:1 [a] Prov. 4:14 [b] Jer. 15:17 1:2 [c] Ps. 119:14, 16, 35 [d] [Josh. 1:8] 1:3 [e] Jer. 17:8 [f] Gen. 39:2, 3, 23 1:4 [g] Job 21:18

6 For [h]the LORD knows the way of the righteous,
But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 2

The Messiah's Triumph and Kingdom

1 Why [a]do the nations rage,
And the people plot a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the [b]rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against His [c]Anointed, saying,
3 "Let [d]us break Their bonds in pieces
And cast away Their cords from us."
4 He who sits in the heavens [e]shall laugh;
The Lord shall hold them in derision.
5 Then He shall speak to them in His wrath,
And distress them in His deep displeasure:
6 "Yet I have set My King
On My holy hill of Zion."
7 "I will declare the decree:
The LORD has said to Me,
[f]'You are My Son,
Today I have begotten You.
8 Ask of Me, and I will give You
The nations for Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth for Your possession.
9 [g]You shall break* them with a rod of iron;
You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel.'"
10 Now therefore, be wise, O kings;
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
12 Kiss the Son,* lest He* be angry,
And you perish in the way,
When [h]His wrath is kindled but a little.
[i]Blessed are all those who put their trust in Him.

Psalm 3

The LORD Helps His Troubled People

A Psalm of David [a]when he fled from Absalom his son.

1 LORD, how they have increased who trouble me!
Many are they who rise up against me.
2 Many are they who say of me,
"There is no help for him in God." Selah
3 But You, O LORD, are [b]a shield for me,
My glory and [c]the One who lifts up my head.
4 I cried to the LORD with my voice,
And [d]He heard me from His [e]holy hill. Selah
5 [f]I lay down and slept;
I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.
6 [g]I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me all around.
7 Arise, O LORD;
Save me, O my God!
[h]For You have struck all my enemies on the cheekbone;
You have broken the teeth of the ungodly.
8 [i]Salvation belongs to the LORD.
Your blessing is upon Your people. Selah

* 2:9 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read rule (compare Revelation 2:27). * 2:12 Septuagint and Vulgate read Embrace discipline; Targum reads Receive instruction. • Septuagint reads the LORD.

1:6 knows the way. The verb "knows" in this context refers not just to God's awareness, but to an intimate, personal knowledge (101:4). God is intimately involved with the way of the righteous, but has no connection with the way of the ungodly, except in judgment (146:9).

2:1 Why do the nations rage. David, the human author of this psalm (Acts 4:24–26), was probably referring to the nations that confronted him and his legitimate heirs to the throne of Israel. But the Davidic kings were mere shadows of the coming great King, the Savior Jesus. Consequently, in a larger sense, this verse refers to any attack on Jesus and His divine kingdom. This assault occurred in its most dramatic form at the cross, but resistance to God's kingdom has continued.

2:12 Kiss the Son. All peoples are presented with a clear choice. They can either love and respect the Lord's anointed, and so experience His great blessing, or they can refuse to submit, and incur God's wrath.

3:title when he fled from Absalom. The history behind this psalm is recorded in 1 Samuel 15.

3:2 Selah. This is probably a literary or musical term, perhaps indicating a pause in the lyrics for a musical interlude.

3:7 struck . . . on the cheekbone. In the poetic imagery that David uses, his enemies are like powerful beasts whose strength is in their jaws and whose terror is in their teeth. God's strike at the source of their strength means that they are no longer a threat.

1:6 [h] Ps. 37:18 2:1 [a] Acts 4:25, 26 2:2 [b] [Matt. 12:14; 26:3, 4, 59–66; 27:1, 2; Mark 3:6; 11:18]; Acts 4:25–28 [c] [John 1:41] 2:3 [d] Luke 19:14 2:4 [e] Ps. 37:13 2:7 [f] [Heb. 1:5; 5:5] 2:9 [g] Ps. 89:23; 110:5, 6 2:12 [h] [Rev. 6:16, 17] [i] [Ps. 5:11; 34:22] 3:title [a] 2 Sam. 15:13–17 3:3 [b] Ps. 5:12; 28:7 [c] Ps. 9:13; 27:6 3:4 [d] Ps. 4:3; 34:4 [e] Ps. 2:6; 15:1; 43:3 3:5 [f] Lev. 26:6 3:6 [g] Ps. 23:4; 27:3 3:7 [h] Job 16:10 3:8 [i] [Is. 43:11]

Psalm 4

The Safety of the Faithful

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

1 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have relieved me in my distress;
Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

2 How long, O you sons of men,
Will you turn my glory to shame?
How long will you love worthlessness
And seek falsehood? Selah

3 But know that [a]the LORD has set apart* for Himself him who is godly;
The LORD will hear when I call to Him.

4 [b]Be angry, and do not sin.
[c]Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still. Selah

5 Offer [d]the sacrifices of righteousness,
And [e]put your trust in the LORD.

6 There are many who say,
"Who will show us any good?"
[f]LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us.

7 You have put [g]gladness in my heart,
More than in the season that their grain and wine increased.

8 [h]I will both lie down in peace, and sleep;
[i]For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

A Prayer for Guidance

To the Chief Musician. With flutes.*
A Psalm of David.

1 Give [a]ear to my words, O LORD,
Consider my meditation.

2 Give heed to the voice of my cry,
My King and my God,
For to You I will pray.

3 My voice You shall hear in the morning, O LORD;
[b]In the morning I will direct it to You,
And I will look up.

4 For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, Nor shall evil dwell with You.

5 The [c]boastful shall not [d]stand in Your sight;
You hate all workers of iniquity.

6 You shall destroy those who speak falsehood;
The LORD abhors the [e]bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

7 But as for me, I will come into Your house in the multitude of Your mercy;
In fear of You I will worship toward Your holy temple.

8 [f]Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness because of my enemies;
Make Your way straight before my face.

9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth;
Their inward part is destruction;
[g]Their throat is an open tomb;
They flatter with their tongue.

10 Pronounce them guilty, O God!
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,
For they have rebelled against You.

11 But let all those rejoice who put their trust in You;
Let them ever shout for joy, because You defend them;
Let those also who love Your name
Be joyful in You.

12 For You, O LORD, will bless the righteous;
With favor You will surround him as with a shield.

* 4:3 Many Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read made wonderful.
* 5:title Hebrew nehiloth

4:1 O God of my righteousness. This phrase can also be translated "O my righteous God." It has two meanings: only God is righteous, and all of a person's righteousness is found in Him alone.
4:4 Be angry, and do not sin. These words are cited by Paul in the New Testament (Eph. 4:26). This is a good description of what righteous indignation should look like.
4:7 their grain and wine. The joy God gives transcends the joy of the harvest. Agricultural produce, the result of abundant rain on fertile soil, was a blessing of God on His people. But there is something greater than full barns and overflowing cisterns—the joy of God's presence.
5:7 Your holy temple. David was a leader in reforming the worship of God in Jerusalem, and he established a structure for the worship that would take place in the temple to be built by Solomon. David uses the word "temple" in anticipation of the future glorious building; all later generations of Hebrew worshipers would understand their own worship better because of the use of this word in these psalms.
5:9 Their throat is an open tomb. Paul echoed the words of these verses in describing the depravity of all people (Rom. 3:13).

4:3 [a] [2 Tim. 2:19] 4:4 [b] [Eph. 4:26] [c] Ps. 77:6

Psalm 6

A Prayer of Faith in Time of Distress

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. [a]On an eight-stringed harp.* A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, [b]do not rebuke me in Your anger,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.
2 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak;
O LORD, [c]heal me, for my bones are troubled.
3 My soul also is greatly [d]troubled;
But You, O LORD—how long?
4 Return, O LORD, deliver me!
Oh, save me for Your mercies' sake!
5 [e]For in death there is no remembrance of You;
In the grave who will give You thanks?
6 I am weary with my groaning;
All night I make my bed swim;
I drench my couch with my tears.
7 [f]My eye wastes away because of grief;
It grows old because of all my enemies.
8 [g]Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
For the LORD has [h]heard the voice of my weeping.
9 The LORD has heard my supplication;
The LORD will receive my prayer.
10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
Let them turn back and be ashamed suddenly.

Psalm 7

Prayer and Praise for Deliverance from Enemies

A [a]Meditation* of David, which he sang to the LORD [b]concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

1 O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
[c]Save me from all those who persecute me;
And deliver me,
2 [d]Lest they tear me like a lion,
[e]Rending me in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
3 O LORD my God, [f]if I have done this:
If there is [g]iniquity in my hands,
4 If I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or [h]have plundered my enemy without cause,
5 Let the enemy pursue me and overtake me;
Yes, let him trample my life to the earth,
And lay my honor in the dust. Selah
6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
[i]Lift Yourself up because of the rage of my enemies;
[j]Rise up for me* to the judgment You have commanded!
7 So the congregation of the peoples shall surround You;
For their sakes, therefore, return on high.
8 The LORD shall judge the peoples;
[k]Judge me, O LORD, [l]according to my righteousness,
And according to my integrity within me.
9 Oh, let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end,
But establish the just;
[m]For the righteous God tests the hearts and minds.
10 My defense is of God,
Who saves the [n]upright in heart.
11 God is a just judge,
And God is angry with the wicked every day.
12 If he does not turn back,
He will [o]sharpen His sword;
He bends His bow and makes it ready.
13 He also prepares for Himself instruments of death;
He makes His arrows into fiery shafts.

* 6:title Hebrew sheminith * 7:title Hebrew Shiggaion * 7:6 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; Septuagint reads O LORD my God.

6:4 for Your mercies' sake. Perhaps the most significant single term in the Hebrew text regarding the character of God is the word rendered "mercies" here. The Hebrew word describes what some prefer to call the "loyal love" or "lovingkindness" of God.

6:6–7 grief. The sighing and tears of this psalm are to be understood as responses to the psalmist's physical afflictions experienced at the hands of his enemies, and also to reflect the seriousness with which he felt the weight and burden of his own sinfulness. All affliction is not directly related to sin; however, it is an occasion when a spiritual accounting with God should be taken and in which the believer should be inclined to strengthen himself in God.

7:1 in You I put my trust. The dominant message in the Book of Psalms is twofold: (1) God is good, and (2) life is difficult. The life of faith is lived between these two realities.

7:12 If he does not turn back. God abhors sin, but He is also merciful, giving people the opportunity to repent before they are punished for their wickedness.

iniquity;
Yes, he conceives trouble and brings forth falsehood.
15 He made a pit and dug it out,
[q]And has fallen into the ditch which he made.
16 [r]His trouble shall return upon his own head,
And his violent dealing shall come down on his own crown.
17 I will praise the LORD according to His
righteousness,
And will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

The Glory of the LORD in Creation

To the Chief Musician. On the instrument of Gath.* A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, our Lord,
How [a]excellent is Your name in all the
earth,
Who have [b]set Your glory above the heavens!
2 [c]Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
You have ordained strength,
Because of Your enemies,
That You may silence [d]the enemy and the avenger.
3 When I [e]consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have ordained,
4 [f]What is man that You are mindful of
him,
And the son of man that You [g]visit
him?
5 For You have made him a little lower than the angels,*
And You have crowned him with glory
and honor.
6 [h]You have made him to have dominion
over the works of Your hands;
[i]You have put all things under his feet,
7 All sheep and oxen—
Even the beasts of the field,
8 The birds of the air,
And the fish of the sea
That pass through the paths of the seas.
9 [j]O LORD, our Lord, How excellent is Your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

Prayer and Thanksgiving for the LORD's Righteous Judgments

To the Chief Musician. To the tune of
"Death of the Son."* A Psalm of David.

1 I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole heart;
I will tell of all Your marvelous works.
2 I will be glad and [a]rejoice in You;
I will sing praise to Your name,
[b]O Most High.
3 When my enemies turn back,
They shall fall and perish at Your presence.
4 For You have maintained my right and my cause;
You sat on the throne judging in
righteousness.
5 You have rebuked the nations,
You have destroyed the wicked;
You have [c]blotted out their name
forever and ever.
6 O enemy, destructions are finished
forever!
And you have destroyed cities;
Even their memory has [d]perished.

* 8:title Hebrew Al Gittith * 8:5 Hebrew Elohim, God; Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Jewish tradition translate as angels. * 9:title Hebrew Muth Labben

7:14 he conceives trouble. These words are echoed in the apostle James' description of the progress of sin (James 1:14–15).

8:5 a little lower than the angels. Mankind stands at the summit of God's creation. The Septuagint, an ancient Greek translation of the Old Testament, translates the Hebrew word meaning "God" (elohim) as "angels." The author of Hebrews bases his argument in 2:5–9 on this translation, and both readings are true. God made man (human beings) in His own image, just a little lower than angels. God created human beings as majestic creatures who were to rule over His creation. In our fallen state, we are profoundly disfigured, a perversion of the majesty God intended. However, Jesus restores those who put their trust in Him. In Christ, we recover majesty; in Him, we become the people that God wants us to be. Whenever we feel worthless, the words of this psalm should encourage us. We and all other human beings are valuable because God Himself created us in His own glorious image.

8:9 O LORD, our Lord. The first word is the divine name Yahweh. The second Hebrew word translated "our Lord" speaks of the One in control: "our Sovereign."

9:1 with my whole heart. Real praise is not half-hearted; it involves one's whole being (146:2). The words of these two verses are characteristic of the praise of God in the Psalms. He is to be praised for His works and His name. His name represents who He is; His works represent what He does.

7 [e]But the LORD shall endure forever;
He has prepared His throne for judgment.
8 [f]He shall judge the world in righteousness,
And He shall administer judgment for the peoples in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a [g]refuge for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.
10 And those who [h]know Your name will put their trust in You;
For You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek You.

11 Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion!
[i]Declare His deeds among the people.
12 [j]When He avenges blood, He remembers them;
He does not forget the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy on me, O LORD!
Consider my trouble from those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,
14 That I may tell of all Your praise
In the gates of the daughter of Zion.
I will [k]rejoice in Your salvation.

15 [l]The nations have sunk down in the pit which they made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.
16 The LORD is [m]known by the judgment He executes;
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
[n]Meditation.* Selah

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the nations [o]that forget God.
18 [p]For the needy shall not always be forgotten;
[q]The expectation of the poor shall not perish forever.

19 Arise, O LORD,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the nations be judged in Your sight.
20 Put them in fear, O LORD,
That the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah

Psalm 10

A Song of Confidence in God's Triumph over Evil

1 Why do You stand afar off, O LORD?
Why do You hide in times of trouble?
2 The wicked in his pride persecutes the poor;
[a]Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

3 For the wicked [b]boasts of his heart's desire;
He [c]blesses the greedy and renounces the LORD.
4 The wicked in his proud countenance does not seek God;
God is in none of his [d]thoughts.

5 His ways are always prospering;
Your judgments are far above, out of his sight;
As for all his enemies, he sneers at them.
6 [e]He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved;
[f]I shall never be in adversity."
7 [g]His mouth is full of cursing and [h]deceit and oppression;
Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.

8 He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are secretly fixed on the helpless.
9 He lies in wait secretly, as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor when he draws him into his net.
10 So he crouches, he lies low,
That the helpless may fall by his strength.

* 9:16 Hebrew Higgaion

9:10 those who know Your name. Those in Old Testament times who "knew the name of the Lord" were those who looked forward with saving faith to God's promised redemption, just as we look back with saving faith to the redemption accomplished.
9:14 the daughter of Zion. This endearing term for Jerusalem indicated the close relationship and nurturing care God had for His people.
10:1 Why. Psalm 10 is found as the second half of Psalm 9 in the Septuagint, the ancient Greek translation of the Hebrew Scripture.
10:3 the greedy. The verb "to boast," as translated here, is most commonly rendered "praise." The wicked offer praise, but not to the Lord. Rather, their hearts offer praise and worship to their own greedy desires. Their desires know no divinely set limits, since the wicked do not seek Him, but live with the conscious thought that there is no God (v. 4).

O God, [i]lift up Your hand!
Do not forget the [j]humble.
13 Why do the wicked renounce God?
He has said in his heart,
"You will not require an account."

14 But You have [k]seen, for You observe

15 Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man;
Seek out his wickedness until You find none.

16 [n]The LORD is King forever and ever;
The nations have perished out of His land.
17 LORD, You have heard the desire of the humble;
You will prepare their heart;
You will cause Your ear to hear, 18 To do justice to the fatherless and the oppressed,
That the man of the earth may oppress no more.

Psalm 11

Faith in the LORD's Righteousness

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 In [a]the LORD I put my trust;
How can you say to my soul,
"Flee as a bird to your mountain"?
2 For look! [b]The wicked bend their bow,
They make ready their arrow on the string,
That they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.
3 [c]If the foundations are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?
4 The LORD is in His holy temple,
The LORD's [d]throne is in heaven;
[e]His eyes behold,
His eyelids test the sons of men.
5 The LORD [f]tests the righteous,
But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.
6 Upon the wicked He will rain coals;
Fire and brimstone and a burning wind
[g]Shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the LORD is righteous,
He [h]loves righteousness;
His countenance beholds the upright.*

Psalm 12

Man's Treachery and God's Constancy

To the Chief Musician. [a]On an eight-stringed harp.* A Psalm of David.

1 Help, LORD, for the godly man [b]ceases!
For the faithful disappear from among the sons of men.
2 [c]They speak idly everyone with his neighbor;
With flattering lips and a double heart
they speak.

3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips,
And the tongue that speaks proud things,
4 Who have said,
"With our tongue we will prevail;
Our lips are our own;
Who is lord over us?"

5 "For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy,
Now I will arise," says the LORD;
"I will set him in the safety for which he yearns."

6 The words of the LORD are [d]pure words,
Like silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Purified seven times.

* 11:7 Or The upright beholds His countenance
* 12:title Hebrew sheminith

10:11 God has forgotten. The wicked behave the way they do because they doubt that the Lord knows, cares, or will act. They want to believe that there will be no final judgment, so they feel free to do as they please. But the truth is that God will establish justice.
11:1 In the LORD I put my trust. In contrast to the surrounding psalms of lament (9; 10; 12), this psalm expresses great trust in the Almighty Lord.
11:3 If the foundations are destroyed. The wicked may taunt, but in fact the foundations are not destroyed and will never be.
11:5 The LORD tests. Undergoing trials and suffering is not necessarily a mark of sin or of God's disfavor. Such tests will show the true allegiance of our hearts.
12:2 idly. The very foundation of a nation is undermined when falsehood prevails. Every aspect of life—home, business, social life—is based on truth. Falsehood breeds suspicion and distrust, which will destroy the very fabric of society and civilization.
12:6 pure words. In contrast to the idle words of the wicked, the words of God are altogether trustworthy. The eternal and steadfast nature of the Lord Himself stands behind His words. He will establish justice just as He has promised to David (v. 5).

Psalm 13

Trust in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 How long, O LORD? Will You forget me forever?
[a]How long will You hide Your face from me?
2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
Having sorrow in my heart daily?
How long will my enemy be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God;
[b]Enlighten my eyes,
[c]Lest I sleep the sleep of death;
4 Lest my enemy say,
"I have prevailed against him";
Lest those who trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in Your mercy;
My heart shall rejoice in Your salvation.
6 I will sing to the LORD,
Because He has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

Folly of the Godless, and God's Final Triumph

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The [a]fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt,
They have done abominable works,
There is none who does good.
2 [b]The LORD looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who seek God.
3 [c]They have all turned aside,
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.

4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And [d]do not call on the LORD?
5 There they are in great fear,
For God is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
But the LORD is his [e]refuge.

7 [f]Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
[g]When the LORD brings back the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 15

The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the LORD

A Psalm of David.

1 LORD, [a]who may abide in Your tabernacle?
Who may dwell in Your holy hill?

2 He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the [b]truth in his heart;
3 He who [c]does not backbite with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
[d]Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;

13:1 How long, O LORD? The Lord allows David to pour out his anxiety before Him. But by the end of David's prayer, the Lord has granted him a correct perspective on his situation. David's only option is to trust in the sovereign mercy of his loving God.
13:5 Your mercy. This word refers to God's loyal love or lovingkindness, His faithfulness to His commitment to take care of His people.
14:1 fool. This word does not refer to mental inability, but to moral and spiritual insensitivity. A fool is one who lives a life of "practical atheism," the view that even if there is a God, it really does not matter to one's life.
14:4 no knowledge. The wicked lack knowledge of God's truth. Although people may be brilliant in their chosen fields, they can still be morally insensitive and spiritually closed to the issues that have eternal consequences.
15:1 who may abide in Your tabernacle. No one except Jesus the Messiah is righteous enough to approach God. But there have always been those who stand before God as forgiven sinners, whose righteousness comes as a gift from God. We may come boldly into God's presence because our sins have been covered by Christ's blood.
15:2 He who walks uprightly, And works righteousness. The Lord commands us to be holy (1 Pet. 1:15–16), and He also gives us the power to become holy (2 Thess. 2:16–17).

But he honors those who fear the LORD;
He who [f]swears to his own hurt and does not change;
5 He who does not put out his money at usury,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things [g]shall never be moved.

Psalm 16

The Hope of the Faithful, and the Messiah's Victory

A [a]Michtam of David.

1 Preserve me, O God, for in You I put my trust.
2 O my soul, you have said to the LORD,
"You are my Lord,
[b]My goodness is nothing apart from You."
3 As for the saints who are on the earth,
"They are the excellent ones, in [c]whom is all my delight."
4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied who hasten after another god;
Their drink offerings of [d]blood I will not offer,
[e]Nor take up their names on my lips.
5 O LORD, You are the portion of my inheritance and my cup;
You maintain my lot.
6 The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places;
Yes, I have a good inheritance.
7 I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel;
My heart also instructs me in the night seasons.
8 [f]I have set the LORD always before me;
Because He is at my right hand I shall not be moved.
9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
My flesh also will rest in hope.
10 [g]For You will not leave my soul in Sheol,
Nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.
11 You will show me the [h]path of life;
In Your presence is fullness of joy;
At Your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psalm 17

Prayer with Confidence in Final Salvation

A Prayer of David.

1 Hear a just cause, O LORD,
Attend to my cry;
Give ear to my prayer which is not from deceitful lips.
2 Let my vindication come from Your presence;
Let Your eyes look on the things that are upright.
3 You have tested my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
[a]You have tried me and have found nothing;
I have purposed that my mouth shall not [b]transgress.
4 Concerning the works of men,
By the word of Your lips,
I have kept away from the paths of the destroyer.

16:5 my inheritance. This phrase refers to the Promised Land. God had given this inheritance to His people (Deut. 6:1–3). However, there was a greater inheritance for the Levites, who did not receive a share in the land (Num. 26:62); their share of the inheritance was in the Lord. David had an ancestral inheritance in the land. As king, he also had extensive royal holdings. But he realized that no inheritance was greater than his relationship with Almighty God.

16:10 Sheol. Sheol is "the grave," or the realm of the dead. Not much is known of the ancient Hebrew's concept of life after death. Sheol seems to be a dreaded place, shrouded in mystery.

17:3 tested my heart. David knew that God had done what he was requesting even before he asked. That is, God knew David's needs and what was in his heart. David's prayer helped him to focus on the source of his strength and to reaffirm his determination to live a pure life.

17:4 God's Word Corrects—There are many symbols for God's word that can be found in the Bible itself. It can be thought of as a mirror (James 1:23–25), a seed (1 Pet. 1:23), a lamp (Ps. 119:105), a sword (Eph. 6:17), and even food (Heb. 5:12–14). But the Bible also serves as a measuring rod that can be used as a standard against which to measure our beliefs.

God Himself sometimes uses His word to correct us as He did with David. "You have dealt well with Your servant, O LORD, according to Your word . . . Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word" (Ps. 119:65,67).

There are times when God's word can correct believers when they are in honest and unintentional error. Aquila and Priscilla, a godly Christian couple, used the Scriptures to help a young preacher named Apollos (Acts 18:24–28). Paul does the same thing for some former disciples of John the Baptist that he met in the city of Ephesus (Acts 19:1–7).

5 [c]Uphold my steps in Your paths,
That my footsteps may not slip.

6 [d]I have called upon You, for You will hear me, O God; Incline Your ear to me, and hear my speech.
7 Show Your marvelous lovingkindness
by Your right hand,
O You who save those who trust in You
From those who rise up against them.
8 Keep me as the apple of Your eye; Hide me under the shadow of Your wings,
9 From the wicked who oppress me,
From my deadly enemies who surround me.

10 They have closed up their [e]fat hearts;
With their mouths they [f]speak proudly.
11 They have now surrounded us in our steps;
They have set their eyes, crouching
down to the earth,
12 As a lion is eager to tear his prey,
And like a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD,
Confront him, cast him down;
Deliver my life from the wicked with
Your sword,
14 With Your hand from men, O LORD, From men of the world who have their portion in this life,
And whose belly You fill with Your hidden treasure.
They are satisfied with children,
And leave the rest of their possession
for their babes.

15 As for me, [g]I will see Your face in
righteousness;
[h]I shall be satisfied when I [i]awake in Your likeness.

Psalm 18

God the Sovereign Savior

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David [a]the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of [b]this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.
And he said:

1 I [c]will love You, O LORD, my strength.
2 The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;
My God, my strength, [d]in whom I will trust;
My shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.
3 I will call upon the LORD, [e]who is worthy to be praised;
So shall I be saved from my enemies.

4 [f]The pangs of death surrounded me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
5 The sorrows of Sheol surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.
6 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried out to my God;
He heard my voice from His temple,
And my cry came before Him, even to His ears.

7 [g]Then the earth shook and trembled;
The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken,
Because He was angry.
8 Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
9 [h]He bowed the heavens also, and came down
With darkness under His feet.

17:14 who have their portion in this life. The wicked live their lives with only the pursuit of the pleasures of this world in mind. The righteous should not try to obtain what this life can offer, but instead pursue God and His ways.

17:15 I will see Your face. In the Old Testament there is no well-developed theology of heaven, yet there are times when the faith of the writer rises to utter statements of hope of resurrection and of life eternal with God. It would appear that such a view was always a part of godly faith, even though dim in comparison with the later revelation through Christ. Both Psalms 16 and 17 are testimonies to a growing faith that entrance into God's presence would be the fruit of a relationship with God in this life. The afflictions on earth cause faith to look forward to a time after this life when one will behold God's face in righteousness, and faith in God will be vindicated by seeing God.

18:1 I will love You, O LORD. Twice in the Psalms the poet declares a love for God (116:1). Here an unusual word for love is used, referring to compassion as deep as a mother's love. The text for this psalm is also found in 2 Samuel 22.

18:2 The LORD is my rock. This is a particularly apt image for David, who many times had to hide in the mountains for security (1 Sam. 26:1,20).

18:5–6 distress. As the title of Psalm 18 indicates, this poem of praise was composed in the midst of very trying times (2 Sam. 22:1). Once again, David had become the object of Saul's uncontrollable rage; in his bouts of paranoia, Saul mistakenly suspected that David was laying the foundation of a revolt against his own royal position. How foolish David would have been had he said, "In my distress I took the matter into my own hands." Rather he said, "In my distress I called upon the LORD." We have no other option when caught in our distressing situations. Otherwise we compound the suffering.

18:4 [f] Ps. 116:3 18:7 [g] Acts 4:31 18:9 [h] Ps. 144:5

10 [i]And He rode upon a cherub, and flew;
[j]He flew upon the wings of the wind.
11 He made darkness His secret place;
[k]His canopy around Him was dark waters
And thick clouds of the skies.
12 [l]From the brightness before Him,
His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire.

13 The LORD thundered from heaven,
And the Most High uttered [m]His voice,
Hailstones and coals of fire.*
14 [n]He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe,
Lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.
15 Then the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At Your rebuke, O LORD,
At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.

16 [o]He sent from above, He took me;
He drew me out of many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those who hated me,
For they were too strong for me.
18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But the LORD was my support.
19 [p]He also brought me out into a broad place;
He delivered me because He delighted in me.

20 [q]The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands
He has recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all His judgments were before me,
And I did not put away His statutes from me.
23 I was also blameless before Him,
And I kept myself from my iniquity.
24 [r]Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in His sight.

25 [s]With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;
With a blameless man You will show Yourself blameless;
26 With the pure You will show Yourself pure;
And [t]with the devious You will show Yourself shrewd.
27 For You will save the humble people,
But will bring down [u]haughty looks.

28 [v]For You will light my lamp;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
29 For by You I can run against a troop,
By my God I can leap over a wall.
30 As for God, [w]His way is perfect;
[x]The word of the LORD is proven;
He is a shield [y]to all who trust in Him.

31 [z]For who is God, except the LORD?
And who is a rock, except our God?
32 It is God who [a]arms me with strength,
And makes my way perfect.
33 [b]He makes my feet like the feet of deer,
And [c]sets me on my high places.
34 [d]He teaches my hands to make war,
So that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

35 You have also given me the shield of Your salvation;
Your right hand has held me up,
Your gentleness has made me great.
36 You enlarged my path under me,
[e]So my feet did not slip.

37 I have pursued my enemies and overtaken them;
Neither did I turn back again till they were destroyed.
38 I have wounded them,
So that they could not rise;
They have fallen under my feet.
39 For You have armed me with strength for the battle;
You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
40 You have also given me the necks of my enemies,
So that I destroyed those who hated me.
41 They cried out, but there was none to save;

* 18:13 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; a few Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint omit Hailstones and coals of fire.

18:11–12 darkness . . . brightness. The references to darkness speak of the hiddenness of God. He cannot be completely understood by those whom He has created. The references to brightness speak of God's holiness.

18:35 the shield of Your salvation. The use of battle armor as an image of God's provision for the righteous is found in both the Old and New Testaments (Eph. 6:10–20).

18:41 They cried out . . . to the LORD. Apparently, in the extremes of battle, the enemies of David found no help from their gods, so they screamed aloud to David's God for deliverance. But God would not answer them.

43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people;
[h]You have made me the head of the nations;
[i]A people I have not known shall serve me.
44 As soon as they hear of me they obey me;
The foreigners submit to me.
45 [j]The foreigners fade away,
And come frightened from their hideouts.
46 The LORD lives!
Blessed be my Rock!
Let the God of my salvation be exalted.
47 It is God who avenges me,
[k]And subdues the peoples under me;
48 He delivers me from my enemies.
[l]You also lift me up above those who rise against me;
You have delivered me from the violent man.
49 [m]Therefore I will give thanks to You,
O LORD, among the Gentiles,
And sing praises to Your name.
50 [n]Great deliverance He gives to His king,
And shows mercy to His anointed,
To David and his descendants
forevermore.

Psalm 19

The Perfect Revelation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The [a]heavens declare the glory of God;
And the [b]firmament shows His handiwork.
2 Day unto day utters speech,
And night unto night reveals
knowledge.
3 There is no speech nor language
Where their voice is not heard.
4 [c]Their line* has gone out through all
the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.

In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
[d]And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.
6 Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.
7 [e]The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the LORD is sure,
making [f]wise the simple;
8 The statutes of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes;
9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than [g]gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.
12 Who can understand his errors?
[h]Cleanse me from secret faults.

* 19:4 Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read sound; Targum reads business.

There is only one prayer from the wicked to which He gladly listens—the prayer of repentance.

18:43 head of the nations. David gained his empire by the work of the Lord on his behalf. But David's empire was only a picture of the kingdom of God that will one day be governed by David's greater Son, the Lord Jesus.

18:49 among the Gentiles. By proclaiming the victories of God to the Gentiles, David was calling for the nations to respond in faith. How fitting that Paul would cite this verse (or its parallel in 2 Sam. 22:50) in Romans 15:9 as an indicator of God's ongoing intention to bring His salvation to all people.

19:1 The heavens declare. All of creation reveals God's glory and majesty (Rom. 1:18–20).

19:4 a tabernacle for the sun. In the ancient Middle East, the sun was often thought of as a god. In this poem, the sun is but the stunning workmanship of the Creator, glorifying the God who made it.

19:7–8 The law of the LORD. The world reveals God's glory, and the Word reveals His saving grace. God's law (or teaching) is described as "perfect," which is best understood here as "complete." This law needs no alteration in part or in whole. It has power to bring deep and radical change in the inner life or soul. It is God's great instrument in conversion (James 1:18; 1 Pet. 1:23). The Word of God is spoken of as God's "testimony" because it is His own instruction concerning His person and purpose. In Scripture, God testifies concerning Himself, His Son, and sinners. God's Word is sure (2 Pet. 1:19), and may be trusted because He is faithful (1 Tim. 1:15). To those wise in their own eyes, the truth of God is hidden (Matt. 11:25), but to the simple the Scriptures give wisdom that leads to salvation (2 Tim. 3:15).

Psalm 20

The Assurance of God's Saving Work

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;
May the name of the God of Jacob defend you;
2 May He send you help from the
sanctuary,
And strengthen you out of Zion;
3 May He remember all your offerings,
And accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah

4 May He grant you according to your heart's desire,
And [a]fulfill all your purpose.
5 We will rejoice in your salvation,
And in the name of our God we will set up our banners!
May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

6 Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He will answer him from His holy
heaven
With the saving strength of His right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in [b]horses;
But we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
8 They have bowed down and fallen;
But we have risen and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD!
May the King answer us when we call.

Psalm 21

Joy in the Salvation of the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 The king shall have joy in Your strength, O LORD;
And in Your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
2 You have given him his heart's desire,
And have not withheld the [a]request of his lips. Selah

3 For You meet him with the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of pure gold upon his head.
4 [b]He asked life from You, and You gave it to him—
Length of days forever and ever.
5 His glory is great in Your salvation; Honor and majesty You have placed upon him.
6 For You have made him most blessed
forever;
[c]You have made him exceedingly glad with Your presence.
7 For the king trusts in the LORD,
And through the mercy of the Most High he shall not be moved.

8 Your hand will find all Your enemies;
Your right hand will find those who hate You.
9 You shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of Your anger;
The LORD shall swallow them up in
His wrath,
And the fire shall devour them.
10 Their offspring You shall destroy from
the earth,
And their descendants from among
the sons of men.
11 For they intended evil against You;
They devised a plot which they are not able to [d]perform.
12 Therefore You will make them turn their back;
You will make ready Your arrows on
Your string toward their faces.

13 Be exalted, O LORD, in Your own
strength!
We will sing and praise Your power.

19:14 my Redeemer. God is the One who purchases our freedom from any bondage or slavery. The principal meaning of the word is "defender of family rights."
20:5 salvation. In the immediate context, salvation is used to describe daily deliverance from the rigors of the battle and the victory over the enemy. But the Lord's deliverance of us from our spiritual troubles should prompt the same type of praise.
20:6 His right hand. This is a slogan that describes God's powerful deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt (17:7; 44:3; 118:16; Ex. 15:6).
21:2 his heart's desire. The Lord gives people their aspirations when they are derived from a fundamental desire for God's honor and glory (20:4; 37:4; 145:19).
21:9 the time of Your anger. This may refer to any period of God's judgment, but compare to "the day of the LORD" (Joel 2:1; Zeph. 1:14).

Psalm 22

The Suffering, Praise, and Posterity of the Messiah

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Deer of the Dawn."* A Psalm of David.

1 My [a]God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?
Why are You so far from helping Me,
And from the words of My groaning?
2 O My God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not hear;
And in the night season, and am not silent.

3 But You are holy,
Enthroned in the [b]praises of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in You;
They trusted, and You delivered them.
5 They cried to You, and were delivered;
[c]They trusted in You, and were not ashamed.

6 But I am [d]a worm, and no man;
[e]A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
7 [f]All those who see Me ridicule Me;
They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 "He[g] trusted* in the LORD, let Him rescue Him;
[h]Let Him deliver Him, since He delights in Him!"

9 [i]But You are He who took Me out of the womb;
You made Me trust while on My mother's breasts.
10 I was cast upon You from birth.
From My mother's womb
[j]You have been My God.
11 Be not far from Me,
For trouble is near;
For there is none to help.

12 [k]Many bulls have surrounded Me;
Strong bulls of [l]Bashan have encircled Me.
13 [m]They gape at Me with their mouths,
Like a raging and roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water,
[n]And all My bones are out of joint;
My heart is like wax;
It has melted within Me.
15 [o]My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
And [p]My tongue clings to My jaws;
You have brought Me to the dust of death.

16 For dogs have surrounded Me;
The congregation of the wicked has enclosed Me.
[q]They pierced* My hands and My feet;
17 I can count all My bones.
[r]They look and stare at Me.
18 [s]They divide My garments among them,
And for My clothing they cast lots.

19 But You, O LORD, do not be far from Me;
O My Strength, hasten to help Me!
20 Deliver Me from the sword,
[t]My precious life from the power of the dog.
21 [u]Save Me from the lion's mouth
And from the horns of the wild oxen!

[v]You have answered Me.

22 [w]I will declare Your name to [x]My brethren;
In the midst of the assembly I will praise You.
23 [y]You who fear the LORD, praise Him!
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him,
And fear Him, all you offspring of Israel!
24 For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
Nor has He hidden His face from Him;
But [z]when He cried to Him, He heard.

25 [a]My praise shall be of You in the great assembly;
[b]I will pay My vows before those who fear Him.

22:1 My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? David used these words to express a painful sense of separation from God at a time of great trouble (38:21). These were the very words used by Christ while in agony on the cross (Matt. 27:46; Mark 15:34).
22:6 despised by the people. When David was at his lowest, his enemies ridiculed his faith in the Lord. These words also describe the experience of the Savior who endured the verbal abuse of His tormentors (Matt. 27:27–31,39–44).
22:15 My tongue clings to My jaws. Jesus' words "I thirst" (John 19:28) also expressed the pain of terrible thirst.
22:16 they pierced My hands and My feet. This verse explicitly predicts the crucifixion of the Lord Jesus Christ. The words were a figure of speech for David, but they were literally true for Jesus.
22:18 for My clothing they cast lots. This text was directly fulfilled by the soldiers who gambled at the

Psalm 23

The LORD the Shepherd of His People

A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD is [a]my shepherd;
[b]I shall not want.
2 [c]He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
[d]He leads me beside the still waters.
3 He restores my soul;
[e]He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of [f]the shadow of death,
[g]I will fear no evil;
[h]For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

5 You [i]prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You [j]anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell* in the house of the LORD
Forever.

Psalm 24

The King of Glory and His Kingdom

A Psalm of David.

1 The [a]earth is the LORD's, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell therein.
2 For He has [b]founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the waters.

3 [c]Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD?
Or who may stand in His holy place?
4 He who has [d]clean hands and [e]a pure heart, foot of the cross for the possession of Jesus' robe (Matt. 27:35).

22:27 all the families of the nations. This is speaking of the eventual spread of the gospel of redemption to the whole world, fulfilling God's promise to bless all nations through Abraham's descendants (Gen. 12:3).

23:1 The LORD is my shepherd. Even though the word "king" does not appear in it, this psalm is a description of what it means to be a good ruler. Moreover, the psalm prophetically speaks of Jesus. He is the Good Shepherd whose flock trusts in Him (John 10:1–18) and the King whose perfect rule will be established (Luke 23:2–3).

23:4 the valley of the shadow of death. The awareness of our own mortality often comes with sickness, trials, and hardship. But the Lord our protector can lead us through these dark and difficult valleys to eternal life with Him. There is no need to fear death's power (1 Cor. 15:25–27). Our Lord has already traveled this road and come through the valley of darkness. Because He lives, we too shall live. Death is not our final destiny.

23:6 the house of the LORD forever. God's promise for the Israelites was not just for the enjoyment of this life in the land of promise; it was also for the full enjoyment of the life to come in His presence (16:9–11; 17:15; 49:15).

24:1 Affirming God's Ownership of the World— Whose world is this anyway? David, of course, who lived in the hills with the animals, had a firm answer. It is God's world. This statement should shape our thinking about a great deal of life. We should have a heightened sense of stewardship to care for God's creation. We should look to God more to understand what is important and what is not important. Seeing God's creation every day should help make praise and thanksgiving a way of life. It should also help us desire to understand God's redemptive acts in history and in our lives.

24:4 clean hands and a pure heart. God looks at a person's actions and also at the attitudes of the heart.

Psalm 25

A Plea for Deliverance and Forgiveness

A Psalm of David.

1 To [a]You, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I [b]trust in You;
Let me not be ashamed;
[c]Let not my enemies triumph over me.
3 Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed;
Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.

4 [d]Show me Your ways, O LORD;
Teach me Your paths.
5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
For You are the God of my salvation;
On You I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, [e]Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses,
For they are from of old.

7 Do not remember [f]the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;
[g]According to Your mercy remember me,
For Your goodness' sake, O LORD.

8 Good and upright is the LORD;
Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.
9 The humble He guides in justice,
And the humble He teaches His way.
10 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth,
To such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.
11 [h]For Your name's sake, O LORD,
Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

12 Who is the man that fears the LORD?
[i]Him shall He* teach in the way He* chooses.
13 [j]He himself shall dwell in prosperity,
And [k]his descendants shall inherit the earth.
14 [l]The secret of the LORD is with those who fear Him,
And He will show them His covenant.
15 [m]My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
For He shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 [n]Turn Yourself to me, and have mercy on me,
For I am desolate and afflicted.
17 The troubles of my heart have enlarged;
Bring me out of my distresses!
18 [o]Look on my affliction and my pain,
And forgive all my sins.
19 Consider my enemies, for they are many;
And they hate me with cruel hatred.
20 Keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in You.
21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me,
For I wait for You.

22 [p]Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all their troubles!

24:9 And the King of glory shall come in. When Jesus came, the meaning of this ancient poem became clear (Matt. 21:1–10; Rev. 19:11–16).
25:3 who waits on You. Waiting on the Lord is the equivalent of hoping in Him (25:5; 40:1).
25:7 sins of my youth. Both the sins of immaturity and the transgressions of adulthood need forgiveness (1 John 1:9).
25:14 with those who fear Him. Those who fear the Lord pay attention to His instructions and thus learn the secrets of God's wisdom (111:10; Prov. 1:7; 3:32).
25:19 they hate me. This psalm is a prayer for forgiveness, instruction, and protection from the forces of darkness which are oppressing the writer. His most prominent trial is hostility from enemies. The animosity which the psalmist encountered was not primarily personal, but was the result of his identification with God's cause. Therefore, he could ask the Lord to look upon him and vindicate him in the face of his afflictions. The writer's suffering had its roots in the origins of redemptive history (Gen. 3:15)—there

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption

A Psalm of David.

1 Vindicate [a]me, O LORD,
For I have [b]walked in my integrity.
[c]I have also trusted in the LORD;
I shall not slip.
2 [d]Examine me, O LORD, and prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.
3 For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And [e]I have walked in Your truth.
4 I have not [f]sat with idolatrous mortals,
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.
5 I have [g]hated the assembly of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
6 I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about Your altar, O LORD,
7 That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all Your wondrous works.
8 LORD, [h]I have loved the habitation of Your house,
And the place where Your glory dwells.
9 [i]Do not gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,
10 In whose hands is a sinister scheme,
And whose right hand is full of [j]bribes.
11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.
12 [k]My foot stands in an even place;
In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

An Exuberant Declaration of Faith

A Psalm of David.

1 The LORD is my [a]light and my salvation;
Whom shall I fear?
The [b]LORD is the strength of my life;
Of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked came against me
To [c]eat up my flesh,
My enemies and foes,
They stumbled and fell.
3 [d]Though an army may encamp against me,
My heart shall not fear;
Though war may rise against me,
In this I will be confident.
4 [e]One thing I have desired of the LORD,
That will I seek:
That I may [f]dwell in the house of the LORD
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD,
And to inquire in His temple.
5 For [g]in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall [h]set me high upon a rock.
6 And now [i]my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me;
Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When You said, "Seek My face,"
My heart said to You, "Your face, LORD, I will seek."
9 [j]Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
10 [k]When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the LORD will take care of me.
11 [l]Teach me Your way, O LORD,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.
12 Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For [m]false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.

would be enmity between the seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent, between the godly and the ungodly. Jesus also reminded His disciples that hatred directed against His servants on His account was to be expected (John 15:18–20).

26:3 Your lovingkindness. The loyal love (13:5) of God is the recurring focus of the Book of Psalms.

26:9 Do not gather my soul. On the basis of his protests of integrity (vv. 1–2), David prays for divine discrimination (4:3). God distinguishes those who have responded to His grace from those who have not.

27:6 sacrifices of joy. These are praise offerings that the believers bring to God to celebrate the blessings He gives them (Heb. 13:15).

Psalm 28

Rejoicing in Answered Prayer

A Psalm of David.

1 To You I will cry, O LORD my Rock:
[a]Do not be silent to me,
[b]Lest, if You are silent to me,
I become like those who go down to the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications
When I cry to You,
[c]When I lift up my hands [d]toward Your holy sanctuary.

3 Do not take me away with the wicked
And with the workers of iniquity, [e]Who speak peace to their neighbors,
But evil is in their hearts.

4 [f]Give them according to their deeds,
And according to the wickedness of their endeavors;
Give them according to the work of their hands;
Render to them what they deserve.

5 Because [g]they do not regard the works of the LORD,
Nor the operation of His hands,
He shall destroy them
And not build them up.

6 Blessed be the LORD,
Because He has heard the voice of my supplications!

7 The LORD is [h]my strength and my shield;
My heart [i]trusted in Him, and I am helped;
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
And with my song I will praise Him.

8 The LORD is their strength,*
And He is the [j]saving refuge of His anointed.

9 Save Your people,
And bless [k]Your inheritance;
Shepherd them also,
[l]And bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

Praise to God in His Holiness and Majesty

A Psalm of David.

1 Give [a]unto the LORD, O you mighty ones,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due to His name;
Worship the LORD in [b]the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
[c]The God of glory thunders;
The LORD is over many waters.

* 28:8 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read the strength of His people.

27:14 Wait on the LORD. To wait for the Lord is to demonstrate confident expectation. The Hebrew word for "wait" may also be translated "hope." To hope in God is to wait for His timing and His action (40:1; Is. 40:31).
28:1 the pit. This is one of the terms for death in the Psalms (55:23; 143:7).
28:5 they do not regard. The language here is similar to that of Paul in Romans 1:18–32. One day even the wicked will have to acknowledge God as their Creator and give Him the glory He deserves.
28:8 His anointed. This term acknowledges God's covenant with David, His promise that He would be David's God and David would be His representative. This passage became a heritage of the monarchy, a treasure for each godly king in the Davidic line to go back to for strength and encouragement.
29:1 O you mighty ones. This means "O sons of gods." This Hebrew phrase refers to spiritual beings who are in the presence of God (see Job 1:6).
29:2 Worship by Israel—The central aspect of Israel's worship was the object of their worship, the Lord. While other nations paid homage to many gods, including inanimate objects such as trees and stones, Israel worshiped the one true God. This worship could be private, as a family, or corporate as a congregation.

Israel's worship occurred in many different contexts and many different elements. It included offering sacrifices (1 Sam. 1:3), adopting a reverent posture (2 Chr. 7:6), verbal praise—either spoken (1 Chr. 16:7) or sung (Ps. 57:7), instrumental praise (Ps. 150:3–5), prayer (2 Chr. 6:14–42), and the great feasts (Lev. 23; 25).

The first place of worship for the people of Israel was the tabernacle constructed by Moses (Ex. 25; 27; 30–31; 35; 40). Solomon's temple in Jerusalem became the permanent place for the central worship of the whole nation when it was completed. The New Testament teaching is that there is no limitation on location for worship. Access to God is direct and immediate (1 Cor. 6:19).

The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
5 The voice of the LORD breaks [d]the cedars,
Yes, the LORD splinters the cedars of Lebanon.
6 [e]He makes them also skip like a calf,
Lebanon and [f]Sirion like a young wild ox.
7 The voice of the LORD divides the flames of fire.
8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
The LORD shakes the Wilderness of [g]Kadesh.
9 The voice of the LORD makes the [h]deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;
And in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"
10 The [i]LORD sat enthroned at the Flood,
And [j]the LORD sits as King forever.
11 [k]The LORD will give strength to His people;
The LORD will bless His people with peace.

Psalm 30

The Blessedness of Answered Prayer

A Psalm. A Song [a]at the dedication of the house of David.

1 I will extol You, O LORD, for You have [b]lifted me up,
And have not let my foes [c]rejoice over me.
2 O LORD my God, I cried out to You,
And You [d]healed me.
3 O LORD, [e]You brought my soul up from the grave;
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.*
4 [f]Sing praise to the LORD, you saints of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.*
5 For [g]His anger is but for a moment,
[h]His favor is for life;
Weeping may endure for a night,
But joy comes in the morning.
6 Now in my prosperity I said,
"I shall never be moved."
7 LORD, by Your favor You have made my mountain stand strong;
[i]You hid Your face, and I was troubled.
8 I cried out to You, O LORD;
And to the LORD I made supplication:
9 "What profit is there in my blood,
When I go down to the pit?
[j]Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?
10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me;
LORD, be my helper!"
11 [k]You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;
You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness,
12 To the end that my glory may sing praise to You and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Psalm 31

The LORD a Fortress in Adversity

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 In [a]You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be ashamed;
Deliver me in Your righteousness.
2 [b]Bow down Your ear to me,
Deliver me speedily;
Be my rock of refuge,
A fortress of defense to save me.
3 [c]For You are my rock and my fortress;
Therefore, [d]for Your name's sake,
Lead me and guide me.
4 Pull me out of the net which they have secretly laid for me,
For You are my strength.

* 30:3 Following Qere and Targum; Kethib, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read from those who descend to the pit. * 30:4 Or His holiness

29:6 Sirion. This was an ancient name for Mount Hermon (Deut. 3:9).
29:10 at the Flood. God is the true victor over all. He even controlled the waters at the height of their destructive power during the flood.
30:3 from the grave. David is not reporting a resurrection, but a deliverance from a nearly fatal illness. As in 28:1, the psalmist describes death as a great pit into which a person drops into the enveloping darkness of the unknown.
30:10 my helper. "Helper" can also be translated "power" or "strength" (33:20). Jesus promised His disciples that the Holy Spirit would be their Helper (John 14:16).
31:1 I put my trust. This is a psalm of lament, yet David expresses deep trust in God in spite of his afflictions.

5 [e]Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
You have redeemed me, O LORD God of [f]truth.

6 I have hated those [g]who regard useless idols;
But I trust in the LORD.
7 I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy,
For You have considered my trouble;
You have [h]known my soul in adversities,
8 And have not [i]shut me up into the hand of the enemy;
[j]You have set my feet in a wide place.

9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
[k]My eye wastes away with grief,
Yes, my soul and my body!
10 For my life is spent with grief,
And my years with sighing;
My strength fails because of my iniquity,
And my bones waste away.
11 [l]I am a reproach among all my enemies,
But [m]especially among my neighbors,
And am repulsive to my acquaintances;
[n]Those who see me outside flee from me.
12 [o]I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind;
I am like a broken vessel.
13 [p]For I hear the slander of many;
[q]Fear is on every side;
While they [r]take counsel together against me,
They scheme to take away my life.

14 But as for me, I trust in You, O LORD;
I say, "You are my God."
15 My times are in Your [s]hand;
Deliver me from the hand of my enemies,
And from those who persecute me.
16 [t]Make Your face shine upon Your servant;
Save me for Your mercies' sake.
17 [u]Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called upon You;
Let the wicked be ashamed;
[v]Let them be silent in the grave.

18 [w]Let the lying lips be put to silence,
Which [x]speak insolent things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

19 [y]Oh, how great is Your goodness,
Which You have laid up for those who fear You,
Which You have prepared for those who trust in You
In the presence of the sons of men!
20 [z]You shall hide them in the secret place of Your presence
From the plots of man;
[a]You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion
From the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD,
For [b]He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a strong city!
22 For I said in my haste,
"I am cut off from before Your eyes";
Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications
When I cried out to You.

23 Oh, love the LORD, all you His saints!
For the LORD preserves the faithful,
And fully repays the proud person.
24 [c]Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart,
All you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

The Joy of Forgiveness

A Psalm of David. A Contemplation.*

1 Blessed is he whose [a]transgression is forgiven,
Whose sin is covered.
2 Blessed is the man to whom the LORD [b]does not impute iniquity,
And [c]in whose spirit there is no deceit.

3 When I kept silent, my bones grew old
Through my groaning all the day long.

* 32:title Hebrew Maschil

31:5 Into Your hand I commit my spirit. With these words, David expressed his complete dependence on God. These very words were spoken by Jesus on the cross shortly before His death (Luke 23:46), and by Stephen when he was stoned (Acts 7:59).

31:15 My times are in Your hand. Even when we cannot understand the "why," we can trust that God is in control of when each life begins and ends, and also of our times of suffering.

31:22 I said in my haste. The psalmist's emotional response was to accuse God of abandoning him instead of asking for help, yet God still answered his true need.

32:1 Blessed. "Blessed" means "happy." It is appropriate that this word is used both of the righteous (1:1) and of the forgiven.

32:3 kept silent. When we refuse to admit our sin, we will suffer. David realized that it was not just his feelings that were assaulting him, but the heavy hand of God (38:1,6–8). No matter who else is hurt, the principal offense of any sin is always against the Lord.

And my iniquity I have not hidden.
[e]I said, "I will confess my

And You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

6 [f]For this cause everyone who is godly shall [g]pray to You
In a time when You may be found;
Surely in a flood of great waters
They shall not come near him.
7 [h]You are my hiding place;
You shall preserve me from trouble;

deliverance. Selah

8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will guide you with My eye.
9 Do not be like the [j]horse or like the mule,
Which have no understanding,
Which must be harnessed with bit and bridle,
Else they will not come near you.

10 [k]Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But [l]he who trusts in the LORD, mercy shall surround him.
11 [m]Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you
righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

Psalm 33

The Sovereignty of the LORD in Creation and History

1 Rejoice [a]in the LORD, O you righteous!
For praise from the upright is beautiful.
2 Praise the LORD with the harp; Make melody to Him with an instrument of ten strings.
3 Sing to Him a new song;
Play skillfully with a shout of joy.

4 For the word of the LORD is right,
And all His work is done in truth.
5 He loves righteousness and justice;
The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 [b]By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
And all the [c]host of them [d]by the breath of His mouth.
7 [e]He gathers the waters of the sea
together as a heap;*
He lays up the deep in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD;
Let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of Him.
9 For [f]He spoke, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 [g]The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
He makes the plans of the peoples of no effect.
11 [h]The counsel of the LORD stands
forever,
The plans of His heart to all
generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,
The people He has [i]chosen as His own inheritance.

13 [j]The LORD looks from heaven;
He sees all the sons of men.
14 From the place of His dwelling He looks
On all the inhabitants of the earth;
15 He fashions their hearts individually;
[k]He considers all their works.

* 33:7 Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read in a vessel.

32:5 What Should Be Done About Sin—There are only two things that the believer should do about his sin: confess it and forsake it. He should never condone or attempt to excuse his sin. Here David confesses his sin and experiences forgiveness. Similarly 1 John 1:9 makes the same point. When the believer confesses his sin, he has the assurance that God "is faithful" (He can be counted on to keep His word) and "just" (He is just in dealing with our sins because He paid the price for them) "to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." God is able to cleanse us completely from anything that is inconsistent with His own moral character. Having received forgiveness and cleansing, the believer is to forsake his sin and yield himself completely to God. In so doing, the believer is restored to full fellowship with God.

32:9 bit and bridle, else they will not come near you. God does not want to drive His people with rules and regulations, the "bit and bridle" of righteousness. Rather, He wants His people to follow Him willingly, that they desire above all to please Him, not just to appease Him.

33:5 the earth is full. In spite of the fallen nature of our world, much of the creation remains as it was in the beginning: "very good" (Gen. 1:31). We do have to deal with evil, but every time we see the goodness of God's creation we should rejoice.

33:9 He spoke, and it was done. The creation account in Genesis 1 describes God's spoken word as the controlling element in creation; John 1 shows that Word to be Jesus Christ, God's Son.

33:15 He fashions their hearts . . . He considers.

Just as we hope in You.

Psalm 34

The Happiness of Those Who Trust in God

A Psalm of David [a]when he pretended madness before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

1 I will [b]bless the LORD at all times;
His praise shall continually be in my
mouth.
2 My soul shall make its boast in the LORD;
The humble shall hear of it and be glad.
3 Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt His name together.

4 I [c]sought the LORD, and He heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
5 They looked to Him and were radiant,
And their faces were not ashamed.
6 This poor man cried out, and the LORD
heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.

7 [d]The angel* of the LORD [e]encamps all around those who fear Him,
And delivers them.

8 Oh, [f]taste and see that the LORD is
good;
[g]Blessed is the man who trusts in
Him!
9 Oh, fear the LORD, you His saints!
There is no want to those who fear
Him.
10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger;
[h]But those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.

11 Come, you children, listen to me;
[i]I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 [j]Who is the man who desires life,
And loves many days, that he may see
good?
13 Keep your tongue from evil,
And your lips from speaking [k]deceit.
14 [l]Depart from evil and do good;
[m]Seek peace and pursue it.

15 [n]The eyes of the LORD are on the
righteous,
And His ears are open to their cry.
16 [o]The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, [p]To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry out, and [q]the LORD hears,
And delivers them out of all their troubles.
18 [r]The LORD is near [s]to those who have a broken heart,
And saves such as have a contrite
spirit.

19 [t]Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
[u]But the LORD delivers him out of them
all.
20 He guards all his bones;
[v]Not one of them is broken.

* 34:7 Or Angel

When we are troubled and weary and suffering, we can never say that God does not notice or understand. He made us carefully, and He continues to watch over all that we do.

33:18 hope. Those who hoped for the Lord's lovingkindness were looking forward in faith to the promised redemption, the ultimate fulfillment of the covenants, just as believers today who have the same hope, based on faith in Christ's finished work of redemption.

34:1 at all times. The determination of David to praise God is similar to the words of Paul in 1 Thessalonians 5:18. The story behind this psalm may be found in 1 Samuel 21:10–15.

34:7 The angel of the LORD. This term is often used interchangeably with the name of God (Ex. 3). When we realize that God Himself is watching over us, there is no need to fear.

34:9 Oh, fear the LORD. This is a call to awe, wonder, worship, and reverence (Prov. 1:7). To fear God is to respond to Him in obedience.

34:20 guards all his bones. John 19:33–36 shows that the words of this verse were fulfilled in detail in the death of Jesus. Despite the terrible suffering that the Savior endured, none of His bones were broken.

Psalm 35

The LORD the Avenger of His People

A Psalm of David.

1 Plead my cause, O LORD, with those who strive with me;
Fight against those who fight
against me.
2 Take hold of shield and buckler,
And stand up for my help.
3 Also draw out the spear,
And stop those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."
4 [a]Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor
Who seek after my life;
Let those be [b]turned back and brought to confusion
Who plot my hurt.
5 [c]Let them be like chaff before the wind,
And let the angel* of the LORD chase
them.
6 Let their way be [d]dark and slippery,
And let the angel of the LORD pursue
them.
7 For without cause they have [e]hidden their net for me in a pit,
Which they have dug without cause for my life.
8 Let [f]destruction come upon him unexpectedly,
And let his net that he has hidden catch himself;
Into that very destruction let him fall.
9 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD;
It shall rejoice in His salvation.
10 [g]All my bones shall say,
"LORD, [h]who is like You, Delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him,
Yes, the poor and the needy from him who plunders him?"
11 Fierce [i]witnesses rise up;
They ask me things that I do not know.
12 [j]They reward me evil for good,
To the sorrow of my soul.
13 But as for me, [k]when they were sick,
My clothing was sackcloth;
I humbled myself with fasting;
And my prayer would return to my own heart.
14 I paced about as though he were my friend or brother;
I bowed down heavily, as one who mourns for his mother.
15 But in my adversity they rejoiced
And gathered together;
Attackers gathered against me,
And I did not know it;
They tore at me and did not cease;
16 With ungodly mockers at feasts
They gnashed at me with their teeth.
17 Lord, how long will You [l]look on?
Rescue me from their destructions,
My precious life from the lions.
18 I will give You thanks in the great assembly;
I will praise You among many people.
19 [m]Let them not rejoice over me who are wrongfully my enemies;
Nor let them wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
20 For they do not speak peace,
But they devise deceitful matters
Against the quiet ones in the land.
21 They also opened their mouth wide
against me,
And said, "Aha, aha!
Our eyes have seen it."
22 This You have seen, O LORD;
Do not keep silence.
O Lord, do not be far from me.
23 Stir up Yourself, and awake to my vindication,
To my cause, my God and my Lord.

* 35:5 Or Angel

35:2 stand up for my help. David did not hesitate to call upon God for vindication, comfort, and justice. He placed complete dependence on the Lord.

35:8 Let destruction come upon him. David's response is certainly not an example of turning the other cheek or loving his enemies (Matt. 5:39,44), but it shows David's keen awareness of the battle between good and evil, the reality of wickedness, and his understanding that wickedness is an abomination to the Lord.

35:18 assembly. Three times a year, at three of the great annual feasts, all males were required to appear before the Lord in Jerusalem. Each brought his offering to the Lord on these occasions. When they came accompanied by their families, as was often the case, Jerusalem was flooded by a vast horde of people intent upon worshiping God. David viewed speaking before this "great assembly" or the congregation of Israel as the ultimate opportunity for testimony. A constant testimony is given to the world by believers as they give voice to praise Him for His watchful care over them.

35:19 hate me without a cause. This passage was fulfilled in the suffering of Jesus, the Savior (John 15:23–25).

according to Your righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over me.
25 Let them not say in their hearts, "Ah, so we would have it!"
Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."
26 Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who rejoice at my hurt;
Let them be [n]clothed with shame and dishonor
Who exalt themselves against me.
27 [o]Let them shout for joy and be glad,
Who favor my righteous cause;
And let them say continually,
"Let the LORD be magnified,
Who has pleasure in the prosperity of His servant."
28 And my tongue shall speak of Your
righteousness
And of Your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

Man's Wickedness and God's Perfections

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD.

1 An oracle within my heart concerning the transgression of the wicked:
[a]There is no fear of God before his eyes.
2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
When he finds out his iniquity and when he hates.
3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
[b]He has ceased to be wise and to do
good.
4 [c]He devises wickedness on his bed;
He sets himself [d]in a way that is not
good;
He does not abhor [e]evil.
5 Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens;
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
6 Your righteousness is like the great mountains;
[f]Your judgments are a great deep;
O LORD, You preserve man and beast.
7 How precious is Your lovingkindness,
O God!
Therefore the children of men [g]put their trust under the shadow of Your wings.
8 [h]They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house,
And You give them drink from [i]the river of Your pleasures.
9 [j]For with You is the fountain of life;
[k]In Your light we see light.
10 Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness to the upright
in heart.
11 Let not the foot of pride come against
me,
And let not the hand of the wicked
drive me away.
12 There the workers of iniquity have fallen;
They have been cast down and are not able to rise.

Psalm 37

The Heritage of the Righteous and the Calamity of the Wicked

A Psalm of David.

1 Do[a] not fret because of evildoers, Nor be envious of the workers of iniquity.
2 For they shall soon be cut down [b]like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.
3 Trust in the LORD, and do good; Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.
4 [c]Delight yourself also in the LORD,
And He shall give you the desires of your [d]heart.
5 [e]Commit your way to the LORD,
Trust also in Him,
And He shall bring it to pass.

35:26 ashamed. The phrase "be ashamed" does not refer just to simple embarrassment, but to the revelation of the complete emptiness of wickedness before the judgment seat of God.

36:1 no fear of God. Underlying wickedness is a complete disregard for the reality of God in a person's life and in the world.

36:9 fountain of life. God's salvation and continuing mercy to His people are often described in terms of life-giving water (Is. 12:3; Jer. 2:13; John 4:1–14).

37:1 Do not fret. When the wicked seem to prosper, the psalmist calls for patience, a renewed sense of dependence on the Lord, and a new sense of pleasure in knowing Him.

37:4 the desires of your heart. Many times, we read this verse as a promise that God will give us anything that we want because He wants us to be happy. In reality, this verse goes much deeper. When we truly delight in God, He plants in our hearts godly desires that He delights to fulfill.

6 [f]He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,
And your justice as the noonday.

7 Rest in the LORD, [g]and wait patiently for Him;
Do not fret because of him who [h]prospers in his way,
Because of the man who brings wicked schemes to pass.

8 [i]Cease from anger, and forsake wrath;
[j]Do not fret—it only causes harm.

9 For evildoers shall be cut off;
But those who wait on the LORD,
They shall [k]inherit the earth.

10 For [l]yet a little while and the wicked shall be no more;
Indeed, [m]you will look carefully for
his place,
But it shall be no more.

11 [n]But the meek shall inherit the earth,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just,
[o]And gnashes at him with his teeth.

13 [p]The Lord laughs at him,
For He sees that [q]his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn the sword
And have bent their bow,
To cast down the poor and needy,
To slay those who are of upright conduct.

15 Their sword shall enter their own heart,
And their bows shall be broken.

16 [r]A little that a righteous man has Is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken,
But the LORD upholds the righteous.

18 The LORD knows the days of the upright,
And their inheritance shall be forever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil
time,
And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish;
And the enemies of the LORD,
Like the splendor of the meadows,
shall vanish.
Into smoke they shall vanish away.

21 The wicked borrows and does not repay,
But [s]the righteous shows mercy and gives.

22 [t]For those blessed by Him shall inherit
the earth,
But those cursed by Him shall be cut off.

23 [u]The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD,
And He delights in his way.

24 [v]Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down;
For the LORD upholds him with His
hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old;
Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
Nor his descendants begging bread.

26 [w]He is ever merciful, and lends;
And his descendants are blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good;
And dwell forevermore.

28 For the LORD loves justice,
And does not forsake His saints;
They are preserved forever,
But the descendants of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 [x]The righteous shall inherit the
land,
And dwell in it forever.

30 [y]The mouth of the righteous speaks
wisdom,
And his tongue talks of justice.

31 The law of his God is in his heart;
None of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked [z]watches the righteous,
And seeks to slay him.

33 The LORD [a]will not leave him in his
hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 [b]Wait on the LORD,
And keep His way,

37:7 Rest in the LORD . . . do not fret. This is not a call to stop caring and go to sleep, but to depend actively on the living Lord, leaving our lives and times in His hands.
37:13 He sees that his day is coming. The wicked sometimes appear to prosper, but from God's perspective, the flourishing of the wicked is short (Eccl. 3:16–17).
37:21 the righteous shows mercy and gives. There are many contrasts between the wicked and the righteous in the wisdom psalms; this one is based on contrasting attitudes toward possessions (15:5; 112:5). Jesus said that such generous givers would be rewarded with "good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over" (Luke 6:38).
37:25 begging bread. Some interpret these words as referring to spiritual famine—the righteous will never be deprived of the Lord's presence (John 6:35). However, many have taken these words literally and experienced God's miraculous provision for their material needs.
37:27 Depart from evil. In this life people must choose either to cling to God and righteousness or to pursue evil.

37:6 [f] Job 11:17 37:7 [g] [Lam. 3:26] [h] [Ps. 73:3–12] 37:8 [i] [Eph. 4:26] [j] Ps. 73:3 37:9 [k] [Is. 57:13; 60:21] 37:10 [l] [Heb. 10:37] [m] Job 7:10 37:11 [n] [Matt. 5:5] 37:12 [o] Ps. 35:16 37:13 [p] Ps. 2:4; 59:8 [q] 1 Sam. 26:10 37:16 [r] Prov. 15:16; 16:8 37:21 [s] Ps. 112:5, 9 37:22 [t] [Prov. 3:33] 37:23 [u] [1 Sam. 2:9] 37:24 [v] Prov. 24:16 37:26 [w] [Deut. 15:8] 37:29 [x] Prov. 2:21 37:30 [y] [Matt. 12:35] 37:32 [z] Ps. 10:8; 17:11 37:33 [a] [2 Pet. 2:9] 37:34 [b] Ps. 27:14; 37:9

And He shall exalt you to inherit the land;
When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.
35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.
36 Yet he passed away,* and behold, he was no more;
Indeed I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the blameless man, and observe the upright;
For the future of that man is peace.
38 [c]But the transgressors shall be destroyed together;
The future of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;
He is their strength [d]in the time of trouble.
40 And [e]the LORD shall help them and deliver them;
He shall deliver them from the wicked,
And save them,
[f]Because they trust in Him.

Psalm 38

Prayer in Time of Chastening

A Psalm of David. [a]To bring to remembrance.

1 O LORD, do not [b]rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure!
2 For Your arrows pierce me deeply,
And Your hand presses me down.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh
Because of Your anger,
Nor any health in my bones
Because of my sin.
4 For my iniquities have gone over my head;
Like a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
5 My wounds are foul and festering
Because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly;
I go mourning all the day long.
7 For my loins are full of inflammation,
And there is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I am feeble and severely broken;
I groan because of the turmoil of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing is not hidden from You.
10 My heart pants, my strength fails me;
As for the light of my eyes, it also has gone from me.

11 My loved ones and my friends [c]stand aloof from my plague,
And my relatives stand afar off.
12 Those also who seek my life lay snares for me;
Those who seek my hurt speak of destruction,
And plan deception all the day long.

13 But I, like a deaf man, do not hear;
And I am like a mute who does not open his mouth.
14 Thus I am like a man who does not hear,
And in whose mouth is no response.

15 For in You, O LORD, [d]I hope;
You will hear, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, "Hear me, lest they rejoice over me, Lest, when my foot slips, they exalt themselves against me."

17 [e]For I am ready to fall,
And my sorrow is continually before me.
18 For I will [f]declare my iniquity;
I will be [g]in anguish over my sin.
19 But my enemies are vigorous, and they are strong;
And those who hate me wrongfully have multiplied.
20 Those also [h]who render evil for good,
They are my adversaries, because I follow what is good.

21 Do not forsake me, O LORD;
O my God, [i]be not far from me!
22 Make haste to help me,
O Lord, my salvation!

* 37:36 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Targum; Syriac and Vulgate read I passed by.

37:39 salvation. The principal issue here is not regeneration, but sanctification—the daily deliverance of God's people from temptation and evil.
38:1 do not rebuke me. David is not saying, "Don't tell me I'm wrong," but "Have mercy on my sinfulness." David's penitent psalms can serve as a model for our own prayers of confession.
38:14 a man who does not hear. David was determined not to present an opportunity for his enemies to condemn the name of the Lord. His silence foreshadowed the silence of Jesus before His accusers (Mark 14:61).
38:18 I will declare. David's silence was only before his enemies; to the Lord he willingly confessed his sins.

Psalm 39

Prayer for Wisdom and Forgiveness

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun.
A Psalm of David.

1 I said, "I will guard my ways,
Lest I sin with my [a]tongue;
I will restrain my mouth with a muzzle,
While the wicked are before me."
2 [b]I was mute with silence,
I held my peace even from good;
And my sorrow was stirred up.
3 My heart was hot within me;
While I was musing, the fire burned.
Then I spoke with my tongue:

4 "LORD, [c]make me to know my end,
And what is the measure of my days,
That I may know how frail I am.
5 Indeed, You have made my days as handbreadths,
And my age is as nothing before You;
Certainly every man at his best state is but [d]vapor. Selah
6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow;
Surely they busy themselves in vain;
He heaps up riches,
And does not know who will gather them.

7 "And now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My [e]hope is in You.
8 Deliver me from all my transgressions;
Do not make me [f]the reproach of the foolish.
9 [g]I was mute, I did not open my mouth,
Because it was [h]You who did it.
10 [i]Remove Your plague from me;
I am consumed by the blow of Your hand.
11 When with rebukes You correct man for iniquity,
You make his beauty [j]melt away like a moth;
Surely every man is vapor. Selah

12 "Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And give ear to my cry;
Do not be silent at my tears;
For I am a stranger with You,
A sojourner, [k]as all my fathers were.
13 [l]Remove Your gaze from me, that I may regain strength,
Before I go away and [m]am no more."

Psalm 40

Faith Persevering in Trial

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 I [a]waited patiently for the LORD;
And He inclined to me,
And heard my cry.
2 He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
Out of [b]the miry clay,
And [c]set my feet upon a rock,
And established my steps.
3 [d]He has put a new song in my mouth—
Praise to our God;
Many will see it and fear,
And will trust in the LORD.

4 [e]Blessed is that man who makes the LORD his trust,
And does not respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
5 [f]Many, O LORD my God, are Your wonderful works
Which You have done;
[g]And Your thoughts toward us
Cannot be recounted to You in order;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

6 [h]Sacrifice and offering You did not desire;
My ears You have opened.
Burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
7 Then I said, "Behold, I come;
In the scroll of the book it is written of me.

39:1 I will guard my ways. David determined to be silent in suffering so that he would not speak out foolishly.

39:9 it was You who did it. David knows that his only chance of deliverance is in God. But he also believes that his trouble has come from God. He is in a quandary. Should he ask for God's help, or should he ask for God to leave him alone?

39:13 Remove Your gaze from me. If God is not going to deliver him, the despondent psalmist asks God to leave him alone. It is rare outside the Book of Job to find language such as this (Job 7:19). The pain of the psalmist was so far from being resolved that he remained in despair until the last verse. Yet the fact that God saves those who call upon Him is described again and again in the Book of Psalms (22:31; 118:21).

40:1 I waited patiently. The verb "to wait" expresses a confident trust or faith in the Lord (130:5). David knows that salvation comes only from the Almighty (3:8).

40:6 My ears You have opened. God allows us to hear His words, and He also gives us understanding and wisdom to internalize and apply them.

40:7 Behold, I come. According to Hebrews 10:4–7, Jesus spoke these words to the Father.

39:1 [a] [James 3:5–12] 39:2 [b] Ps. 38:13 39:4 [c] Ps. 90:12; 119:84 39:5 [d] Ps. 62:9 39:7 [e] Ps. 38:15 39:8 [f] Ps. 44:13; 79:4; 119:22 39:9 [g] Ps. 39:2 [h] Job 2:10 39:10 [i] Job 9:34; 13:21 39:11 [j] Job 13:28 39:12 [k] Gen. 47:9 39:13 [l] Job 7:19; 10:20, 21; 14:6 [m] [Job 14:10] 40:1 [a] Ps. 25:5; 27:14; 37:7 40:2 [b] Ps. 69:2, 14 [c] Ps. 27:5 40:3 [d] Ps. 32:7; 33:3 40:4 [e] Ps. 34:8; 84:12 40:5 [f] Job 9:10 [g] [Is. 55:8] 40:6 [h] [Heb. 10:5–9]

8 [i]I delight to do Your will, O my God,
And Your law is [j]within my heart."

9 [k]I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness
In the great assembly;
Indeed, [l]I do not restrain my lips,
O LORD, You Yourself know.
10 [m]I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart;
I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth
From the great assembly.

11 Do not withhold Your tender mercies from me, O LORD;
[n]Let Your lovingkindness and Your truth continually preserve me.
12 For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
[o]My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
They are more than the hairs of my head;
Therefore my heart fails me.

13 [p]Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me!
14 [q]Let them be ashamed and brought to mutual confusion
Who seek to destroy my life;
Let them be driven backward and brought to dishonor
Who wish me evil.
15 Let them be [r]confounded because of their shame,
Who say to me, "Aha, aha!"

16 [s]Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
Let such as love Your salvation [t]say continually,
"The LORD be magnified!"
17 [u]But I am poor and needy;
[v]Yet the LORD thinks upon me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
Do not delay, O my God.

Psalm 41

The Blessing and Suffering of the Godly

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Blessed is he who considers the poor;
The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
2 The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive,
And he will be blessed on the earth;
[a]You will not deliver him to the will of his enemies.
3 The LORD will strengthen him on his bed of illness;
You will sustain him on his sickbed.

4 I said, "LORD, be merciful to me;
[b]Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."
5 My enemies speak evil of me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"
6 And if he comes to see me, he speaks lies;
His heart gathers iniquity to itself;
When he goes out, he tells it.

40:8 To Know God's Will—Knowing the will of God is not simply a vehicle for finding the right vocation for a life's work. While vocation is important, it is only a small part of God's will. The will of God must be thought of in more comprehensive terms. The will of God is for everyone to live in such a way as to bring honor and glory to God. For different people God may have very different things in mind. We must continually stay in God's Word so that He can make clear to us what His will is for us. We must also be still, listen, and know that He is God.

The first step towards understanding God's will is believing in Christ (John 3:14–16). If we do not accept this gift from God, we will not be saved from judgment (Matt. 7:21). Second, Scripture teaches us that it is God's will for every believer to be sanctified (2 Thess. 2:13–17). Third, the Bible declares God's will as it must be applied to our lives (Deut. 29:29). This fact involves commands to be obeyed, principles to be followed, prohibitions of things to be avoided and living examples to be imitated or shunned. God takes great joy in those who cheerfully do His will.

Although the Bible is a comprehensive revelation of God's will, there are always decisions we make that Scripture does not directly address. In order to know God's will in these situations we need to be in fellowship with the Lord (1 John 1:6–7), seek principles from the Word (1 Cor. 10:6), obtain advice from godly counselors (Prov. 11:14), use common sense, and remember that God works through our own minds and He desires for us to do His will (Phil. 2:13).

40:9 assembly. In Psalm 35 David prayed for deliverance from his enemies and promised to give God praise before "the great assembly," the congregation of Israel, for that deliverance. Psalm 40 is a joyful account of his deliverance from trouble, and his witness of God's righteousness before the people. The believer is obligated to speak of God's righteous acts toward him, so that others may hear of the goodness and glory of God.

40:11 tender mercies. This term refers to God's affection for us. David is asking God to surround him with warmth and comfort that is practically maternal.

41:4 for I have sinned. In the context of this psalm, this is a general acknowledgment of sin and the need for God's forgiveness and restoration (1 John 1:9).

over me.

Psalms 42–72

Psalm 42

Yearning for God in the Midst of Distresses

To the Chief Musician.
A Contemplation* of the sons of Korah.

1 As the deer pants for the water brooks,
So pants my soul for You, O God.
2 [a]My soul thirsts for God, for the [b]living
God.
When shall I come and appear before
God?*
3 [c]My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say to me,
[d]"Where is your God?"
4 When I remember these things,
[e]I pour out my soul within me.
For I used to go with the multitude;
[f]I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise,
With a multitude that kept a pilgrim feast.
5 [g]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within
me?
[h]Hope in God, for I shall yet praise
Him
For the help of His countenance.*
6 O my God,* my soul is cast down
within me;
Therefore I will remember You from the land of the Jordan,
And from the heights of Hermon,
From the Hill Mizar.
7 Deep calls unto deep at the noise of Your waterfalls;
[i]All Your waves and billows have gone
over me.
8 The LORD will [j]command His lovingkindness in the daytime,
And [k]in the night His song shall be
with me—
A prayer to the God of my life.
9 I will say to God my Rock,
[l]"Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"
10 As with a breaking of my bones,
My enemies reproach me,
[m]While they say to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"
11 [n]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within
me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my
God.

41:9 my own familiar friend. Jesus quoted this verse, noting its fulfillment in Judas (John 13:18).
41:13 Blessed. This psalm begins with a blessing of God on the righteous; it ends with the righteous blessing their Lord. This word "blessed" is different from the word in verse 1. Here the word identifies the Lord as the source of our blessing.
42:4 I used to go with the multitude . . . to the house of God. This psalm was written in exile. The psalmist is remembering with longing and tears the times when he was able to worship God in Jerusalem.
42:5 I shall yet praise Him. As is common in the Psalms, the poet is not describing an act of private devotion, but of public praise of the goodness of God. This is praise in words and songs that would be repeated in the midst of the congregation (22:22; Eph. 5:19; Heb. 13:15).
42:6 the land of the Jordan . . . of Hermon. These are references to the Promised Land, from which the people were exiled.

Psalm 43

Prayer to God in Time of Trouble

1 Vindicate [a]me, O God,
And [b]plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!
2 For You are the God of my strength;
Why do You cast me off?
[c]Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3 [d]Oh, send out Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me;
Let them bring me to [e]Your holy hill
And to Your tabernacle.
4 Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy;
And on the harp I will praise You,
O God, my God.
5 [f]Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 44

Redemption Remembered in Present Dishonor

To the Chief Musician.
A [a]Contemplation* of the sons of Korah.

1 We have heard with our ears,
O God,
[b]Our fathers have told us,
The deeds You did in their days,
In days of old:
2 [c]You drove out the nations with Your hand,
But them You planted;
You afflicted the peoples, and cast them out.
3 For [d]they did not gain possession of the land by their own sword,
Nor did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your countenance, [e]Because You favored them.
4 [f]You are my King, O God;*
Command* victories for Jacob.
5 Through You [g]we will push down our enemies;
Through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.
6 For [h]I will not trust in my bow,
Nor shall my sword save me.
7 But You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.
8 [i]In God we boast all day long,
And praise Your name forever. Selah
9 But [j]You have cast us off and put us to shame,
And You do not go out with our armies.
10 You make us [k]turn back from the enemy,
And those who hate us have taken spoil for themselves.
11 [l]You have given us up like sheep intended for food,
And have [m]scattered us among the nations.
12 [n]You sell Your people for next to nothing,
And are not enriched by selling them.
13 [o]You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
A scorn and a derision to those all around us.
14 [p]You make us a byword among the nations,

*44:title Hebrew Maschil *44:4 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read and my God. • Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read Who commands.

43:1 Vindicate me. It is believed that Psalm 43 is a continuation of Psalm 42.
43:5 cast down. Psalms 42 and 43 reflect a uniform feeling of being cut off from God, rejected and forsaken by Him. There is a common refrain in both psalms in which the author reasons with himself in order to surmount his feelings of depression and loneliness. Prayer is still possible when God seems to be absent, and we can hope in God in the face of present affliction because faith enables the believer to give thanks before the answer is experienced.
44:4 You are my King. In this community lament, it is striking that here the speaker is singular. It may be that these words are spoken by Israel's king to the King of glory. As the king of the nation, it was appropriate for him to lead the people in asking for God's renewed favor.
44:9 You have cast us off. The army of Israel was not just a group of soldiers. They were the warriors of the Almighty; their victories were the victories of God, and their defeats were losses that He allowed them to endure. If He ceased accompanying them to battle, they were doomed to failure.

[q]A shaking of the head among the peoples.
15 My dishonor is continually before me,
And the shame of my face has covered me,
16 Because of the voice of him who reproaches and reviles,
[r]Because of the enemy and the avenger.

17 [s]All this has come upon us;
But we have not forgotten You,
Nor have we dealt falsely with Your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned back,
[t]Nor have our steps departed from Your way;
19 But You have severely broken us in [u]the place of jackals,
And covered us [v]with the shadow of death.

20 If we had forgotten the name of our God,
Or [w]stretched out our hands to a foreign god,
21 [x]Would not God search this out?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22 [y]Yet for Your sake we are killed all day long;
We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 [z]Awake! Why do You sleep, O Lord?
Arise! Do not cast us off forever.
24 [a]Why do You hide Your face,
And forget our affliction and our oppression?
25 For [b]our soul is bowed down to the dust;
Our body clings to the ground.
26 Arise for our help,
And redeem us for Your mercies' sake.

Psalm 45

The Glories of the Messiah and His Bride

To the Chief Musician. [a]Set to "The Lilies."* A Contemplation* of the sons of Korah. A Song of Love.

1 My heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

2 You are fairer than the sons of men;
[b]Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.
3 Gird Your [c]sword upon Your thigh,
[d]O Mighty One,
With Your [e]glory and Your majesty.
4 [f]And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness;
And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.
5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies;
The peoples fall under You.

6 [g]Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A [h]scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.
7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has [i]anointed You
With the oil of [j]gladness more than Your companions.
8 All Your garments are [k]scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.

44:17 we have not forgotten You. The faithful remnant had to bear the punishment of exile as well as the wicked. Human beings are so interwoven that it is impossible to sin alone. Inevitably others will have to share the burden of our just punishment.
44:22 as sheep. These words predict another beloved Son of the Most High who would also feel cast off by the Lord (Is. 53:7; Rom. 8:36).
45:3 O Mighty One. In the ancient Middle East the king was supposed to be a great warrior. The model in Israel was David, the celebrated champion who defeated the giant Goliath (1 Sam. 17). The term "most mighty" is also a messianic title.
45:6–7 O God . . . God, Your God. The words "Your throne" indicate the messianic direction of the psalm. Here the King is addressed as God, yet it is "God, Your God" who anointed Him. The writer to the Hebrews used these verses to assert Jesus' deity (Heb. 1:8–9).
45:7 righteousness. A person is known by his loves and his hates. If a person "loves" something, he will "hate" its opposite. One who loves justice will hate oppression. One who loves truth will hate falsehood. One who loves kindness will hate cruelty. The psalm deliberately uses very strong verbs: love righteousness, hate wickedness. We might prefer to be a bit more moderate and tone down the language, but the Scripture calls us to disengage ourselves radically from wickedness, for it is both a virus and a vice. anointed You. Anointing set aside a particular person for special service to God. In Old Testament times, those who were anointed for special service foreshadowed the Anointed One, the Messiah.

Psalm 46

God the Refuge of His People and Conqueror of the Nations

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song [a]for Alamoth.

1 God is our [b]refuge and strength,
[c]A very present help in trouble.
2 Therefore we will not fear,
Even though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
3 [d]Though its waters roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah

5 God is [g]in the midst of her, she shall

God shall help her, just at the break of dawn.
6 [h]The nations raged, the kingdoms were

He uttered His voice, the earth melted.

The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

8 Come, behold the works of the LORD,
Who has made desolations in the
earth.
9 [j]He makes wars cease to the end of the
earth;
[k]He breaks the bow and cuts the spear

[l]He burns the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God;
[m]I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth!

The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Praise to God, the Ruler of the Earth

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to God with the voice of triumph!
2 For the LORD Most High is awesome;
He is a great [a]King over all the earth.
3 [b]He will subdue the peoples under us,
And the nations under our feet.
4 He will choose our [c]inheritance for us,
The excellence of Jacob whom He loves. Selah

45:9 Ophir. Possibly located in southern Arabia or in Africa (2 Chr. 8:17–18), this place was known in the Old Testament world as a source of fine gold.

45:14 robes of many colors. In the ancient world, the beauty of the bride's gowns might be an expression of her family's wealth, their pride in her, and their love for her.

46:2 though the earth be removed. God is a refuge for His people against everything actual or imagined.

46:5 God is in the midst of her. We do not have an absentee deliverer, a defense that is only sometimes present. The Lord lives with His people and His protection can be counted on.

46:10 Be still, and know that I am God. This call for stillness before the Lord is not preparation for worship, but for impending judgment (Hab. 2:20; Zeph. 1:7; Zech. 2:13).

Psalm 48

The Glory of God in Zion

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the [a]city of our God,
In His holy mountain.
2 [b]Beautiful in elevation,
The joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.
3 God is in her palaces;
He is known as her refuge.

4 For behold, [c]the kings assembled,
They passed by together.
5 They saw it, and so they marveled;
They were troubled, they hastened
away.
6 Fear [d]took hold of them there,
And pain, as of a woman in birth
pangs,
7 As when You break the [e]ships of Tarshish
With an east wind.

8 As we have heard,
So we have seen
In the city of the LORD of hosts,
In the city of our God:
God will [f]establish it forever. Selah

9 We have thought, O God, on [g]Your
lovingkindness,
In the midst of Your temple.
10 According to [h]Your name, O God, So is Your praise to the ends of the
earth;
Your right hand is full of
righteousness.
11 Let Mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad,
Because of Your judgments.

12 Walk about Zion,
And go all around her.
Count her towers;
13 Mark well her bulwarks;
Consider her palaces;
That you may [i]tell it to the generation
following.
14 For this is God,
Our God forever and ever;
[j]He will be our guide
Even to death.*

Psalm 49

The Confidence of the Foolish

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 Hear this, all peoples;
Give ear, all inhabitants of the world,
2 Both low and high,
Rich and poor together.
3 My mouth shall speak wisdom,
And the meditation of my heart shall give understanding.
4 I will incline my ear to a proverb;
I will disclose my dark saying on the harp.

* 48:14 Following Masoretic Text and Syriac; Septuagint and Vulgate read Forever.

holy people and, in that way, He loved them. In His dialogue with Nicodemus, Jesus explained that God's love extended to all the nations as well as to Israel (John 3:16).

47:9 The people of the God of Abraham. This is the prophetic picture of the ultimate fulfillment of the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:1–3). One day all the peoples of the earth who have come to faith in God through Jesus will discover that they are one people. They are all the true seed of Abraham because they, like Abraham, believed in God (Gen. 15:6; Gal. 3:5–8).

48:1 Great is the LORD. Psalm 48 unites with Psalms 46 and 47 to form three great psalms of praise to God for His kingship and His love for the holy city of Jerusalem. This emphasis on Jerusalem has led many scholars to speak of these psalms as "Songs of Zion." the city of our God. The city of Jerusalem had a particularly dear place in the heart of God's people (1 Kin. 14:21). The city was holy because of the presence of God in the temple.

48:2 The joy of the whole earth. As is strongly established in the Book of Psalms, the purpose of God's work in Israel was to draw all nations to Himself. city of the great King. Jesus quoted these words in Matthew 5:35, speaking of Jerusalem.

48:12 Walk about Zion. Praising the city of Zion was another way of praising God, whose dwelling was there.

49:4 dark saying. Also translated "riddle," this word refers to a perplexing moral problem. How do the righteous come to terms with oppressive rich people who seem to have no thought for God?

5 Why should I fear in the days of evil,
When the iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
6 Those who [a]trust in their wealth And boast in the multitude of their riches,
7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother,
Nor [b]give to God a ransom for him—8 For [c]the redemption of their souls is costly,
And it shall cease forever—
9 That he should continue to live eternally,
And [d]not see the Pit.

10 For he sees wise men die;
Likewise the fool and the senseless person perish,
And leave their wealth to others.
11 Their inner thought is that their houses will last forever,*
Their dwelling places to all
generations;
They [e]call their lands after their own names.
12 Nevertheless man, though in honor,
does not remain;*
He is like the beasts that perish.

13 This is the way of those who are
[f]foolish,
And of their posterity who approve their sayings. Selah
14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave;
Death shall feed on them;
[g]The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning;
[h]And their beauty shall be consumed in the grave, far from their dwelling.
15 But God [i]will redeem my soul from the power of the grave,
For He shall [j]receive me. Selah

16 Do not be afraid when one becomes rich,
When the glory of his house is increased;
17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing away;
His glory shall not descend after him.

18 Though while he lives [k]he blesses himself
(For men will praise you when you do well for yourself), 19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers;
They shall never see [l]light.
20 A man who is in honor, yet does not understand,
[m]Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

God the Righteous Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 The [a]Mighty One, God the LORD,
Has spoken and called the earth
From the rising of the sun to its going down.
2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
[b]God will shine forth.
3 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silent;
[c]A fire shall devour before Him,
And it shall be very tempestuous all around Him.

4 [d]He shall call to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, that He may judge
His people:
5 "Gather [e]My saints together to Me,
[f]Those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."
6 Let the [g]heavens declare His
righteousness,
For [h]God Himself is Judge. Selah

7 "Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you;
[i]I am God, your God!
8 [j]I will not rebuke you [k]for your sacrifices

* 49:11 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read Their graves shall be their houses forever.

49:6 Those who trust in their wealth. The accumulation of material wealth is of no value in the life to come (Mark 10:23). Money can never buy redemption. Only God has the power to deliver us from death and hell.

49:14 Death shall feed on them. Death is the great leveler. People who have beauty, riches (vv. 16–17), and power in this world will lose them all at death. They will be stripped of everything except their character or soul. This is why the Scriptures exhort us to pursue character development—God's law, holiness, wisdom, and knowledge—more than anything else.

50:1 The Mighty One, God the LORD. These three titles give a stunning introduction to the poem, a grand display of God Himself in the midst of His people.

50:8 rebuke you for your sacrifices. The sacrifices were commanded by God in Leviticus, but the people had difficulty keeping a godly perspective on the nature of sacrifices. God did not need their offerings—He is already the owner of all the earth. The sacrifices were for their sakes, so that they would understand that sin equals death, and atonement comes by blood.

And the cattle on a thousand hills.
11 I know all the birds of the mountains,
And the wild beasts of the field are Mine.

Or take My covenant in your mouth,

20 You sit and speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother's son.
21 These things you have done, and I kept silent;
[v]You thought that I was altogether like you;
But I will rebuke you,
And [w]set them in order before your eyes.

22 "Now consider this, you who [x]forget God,
Lest I tear you in pieces,
And there be none to deliver:
23 Whoever offers praise glorifies Me;
And [y]to him who orders his conduct aright
I will show the salvation of God."

Psalm 51

A Prayer of Repentance

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David [a]when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

1 Have mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
[b]Blot out my transgressions.
2 [c]Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions,
And my sin is always before me.
4 [d]Against You, You only, have I sinned,
And done this evil [e]in Your sight—
[f]That You may be found just when You speak,*
And blameless when You judge.

5 [g]Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.
6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts,
And in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.

7 [h]Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;

* 50:18 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read ran. * 51:4 Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read in Your words.

50:12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you. God doesn't hunger for food—and even if He did, He would not need His people to bring it to Him. He hungers for the righteousness of His people.
50:18 have been a partaker with adulterers. In this psalm the Lord brings a legal case against His people for violations of the covenant (v. 4). Verses 7–15 address the formalists, whose major emphasis is on the outward and external observances of the ceremonial law. Verses 16–23 are spoken to wicked members of the community who do not put God's commandments into practice in everyday life. The believer's attitude toward evil is to be one of total rejection: "Do not love the world or the things in the world" (1 John 2:15). There is no neutrality in regard to the moral law, and no approval can be given to those who disobey God's law (Rom. 1:32).
51:1 Have mercy upon me. This psalm is associated with one of the hardest experiences of David's life, the aftermath of his affair with Bathsheba. For the account of David's sin and the prophet Nathan's rebuke, see 2 Samuel 11:1—12:15. the multitude of Your tender mercies. David's call for mercy is the only appropriate request for a confessing sinner. No sinner should ask for justice, for that would mean judgment and ruin.
51:4 Against You. David had sinned against Bathsheba, Uriah, and the nation he was called to rule. But none of these indictments were as serious as David's offense against God.
51:5 iniquity. The psalmist should not be misunderstood as teaching that the pollution of human nature results from anything inherently corrupt in sexual relations between husband and wife. We are male and female by the sovereign will and creative power of God (Gen. 1:27). What David confesses, however, is the reality of human depravity (Rom. 5:12). We are inclined to gratify the cravings of our sinful nature, following its desires and thoughts,

12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
And uphold me by Your [m]generous

13 Then I will teach transgressors Your

Your righteousness.
15 O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth shall show forth Your praise.
16 For [n]You do not desire sacrifice, or else
I would give it;
You do not delight in burnt offering.
17 [o]The sacrifices of God are a broken
spirit,
A broken and a contrite heart—
These, O God, You will not despise.

18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then You shall be pleased with [p]the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then they shall offer bulls on Your altar.

The End of the Wicked and the Peace of the Godly

To the Chief Musician.

Doeg the Edomite went and [b]told Saul, and said to him, "David has gone to the house of Ahimelech."

1 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The goodness of God endures continually.
2 Your tongue devises destruction,
Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
3 You love evil more than good,
Lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah
4 You love all devouring words,
You deceitful tongue.

5 God shall likewise destroy you forever;
He shall take you away, and pluck you out of your dwelling place,
And uproot you from the land of the living. Selah
6 The righteous also shall see and fear,
And shall laugh at him, saying,
7 "Here is the man who did not make God
his strength,
But trusted in the abundance of his
riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness."

8 But I am [c]like a green olive tree in the house of God;
I trust in the mercy of God forever and
ever.
9 I will praise You forever,
Because You have done it;
And in the presence of Your saints
I will wait on Your name, for it is good.

* 52:title Hebrew Maschil

contradicting God's commands. This is why we must experience radical regeneration by the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit. Apart from that rebirth, we can neither see nor enter the kingdom of God (John 3:3–5).

51:7 hyssop. Here David refers to the ritual acts of cleansing described in the law of Moses (Lev. 14:4; Num. 19:6).

51:10–13 Confession—Confession leads to forgiveness, but what does that look like? Psalm 51 gives us a picture. The results of forgiveness are a clean heart, a renewed spirit, a restored relationship with God, and a joyful experience of God's salvation. God cleans us up. He makes us presentable. He reorients us towards Himself, helping us to focus on what it is right. By forgiving us, God crosses over the canyon of sin that separates us from Him. When you put all this together there is great cause for joy on our part. Forgiveness is more than a theological abstract. It makes the salvation experience deeply personal and emotional in every sense. It takes that which is wrong in our life and makes it right.

51:16 You do not desire sacrifice. God's pleasure is not in the sacrificed animal, but in the willing obedience of His people (Gen. 4:1–7; John 4:21–24; Rom. 12:1–2). The motions of sacrifice not accompanied by a contrite heart are not acceptable to God (Is. 1:12–20).

52:2 Your tongue. This phrase refers to more than just words. These people used language as a weapon, for they believed that the gods could empower their words to a devastating effect.

52:6 see and fear. This fear is a deepened respect for God and a sense of awe before His throne.

52:8 a green olive tree. An olive tree was a symbol of beauty. In Romans 11:16–24, the olive tree is used as a symbol of the Gentiles who are grafted into the root—the people of God or the church.

Folly of the Godless, and the Restoration of Israel

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Mahalath." A Contemplation* of David.

1 The [a]fool has said in his heart,
"There is no God."
They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity;
[b]There is none who does good.

2 God looks down from heaven upon the children of men,
To see if there are any who understand, who [c]seek God.

3 Every one of them has turned aside;
They have together become corrupt;
There is none who does good,
No, not one.

4 Have the workers of iniquity [d]no knowledge,
Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
And do not call upon God?

5 [e]There they are in great fear
Where no fear was,
For God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you;
You have put them to shame,
Because God has despised them.

6 [f]Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back the captivity of His people,
Let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

Answered Prayer for Deliverance from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.* A Contemplation* of David [a]when the Ziphites went and said to Saul, "Is David not hiding with us?"

1 Save me, O God, by Your name,
And vindicate me by Your strength.

2 Hear my prayer, O God;
Give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For strangers have risen up against me,
And oppressors have sought after my life;
They have not set God before them.
Selah

4 Behold, God is my helper;
The Lord is with those who uphold my life.

5 He will repay my enemies for their evil.
Cut them off in Your truth.

6 I will freely sacrifice to You;
I will praise Your name, O LORD, for it is good.

7 For He has delivered me out of all trouble;
[b]And my eye has seen its desire upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

Trust in God Concerning the Treachery of Friends

To the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments.* A Contemplation* of David.

1 Give ear to my prayer, O God,
And do not hide Yourself from my supplication.

2 Attend to me, and hear me;
I [a]am restless in my complaint, and moan noisily,

3 Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked;
[b]For they bring down trouble upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.

4 [c]My heart is severely pained within me,
And the terrors of death have fallen upon me.

53:1 The fool. In the Bible, the term "fool" does not indicate mental incompetence, but moral and spiritual insensitivity.
53:5 scattered the bones. This is a prophetic pronouncement of the final judgment on the wicked.
54:3 They have not set God before them. In one of the dark moments of David's life, when the insanely jealous King Saul was bent on destroying him, David was able to lift his heart in supplication, trust, and praise to God. He had been hiding with his men in the hill country south of Jeshimon, but his location was betrayed to Saul by the people of Ziph (1 Sam. 23:19; 26:1). These were the "strangers" who doubtless stood to profit from David's death. They had no regard for covenant law, which bade the Israelites to love their neighbors as themselves (Lev. 19:18). Nor did they love the Lord their God wholeheartedly (Deut. 6:5), but instead turned their hands against His anointed. Betrayal is a supreme act of treachery, whether in terms of a human being such as David, or of Jesus (Luke 22:48), the anointed Son of God. As such, it merits the most severe punishment from God (Mark 14:21).
54:5 He will repay. David did not take vengeance into his own hands. Only the Lord can take revenge.
55:4 terrors of death. David's intense pain can be felt in his strong language. The phrase "terrors of death" is unusual. The Hebrew word for "terror" or "dread" is first used in Scripture to describe the horror that Abraham felt in the unnatural darkness that seized him as God was about to come near (Gen. 15:12). The word also described the horrors that would fall on the people of Canaan when the Lord gave the land to the Israelites (Ex. 15:16). To strengthen this feeling, David speaks of fear and trembling and an overwhelming horror (Ezek. 7:18).

55:15 Let them go down alive into hell. David could express his emotions to God in prayer, but judgment or revenge was in God's hands (Rom. 12:19).

Psalm 57

Prayer for Safety from Enemies

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."* A Michtam of David [a]when he fled from Saul into the cave.

1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me!
For my soul trusts in You;
[b]And in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge, [c]Until these calamities have passed by.

2 I will cry out to God Most High,
To God [d]who performs all things for me.
3 [e]He shall send from heaven and save me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah
God [f]shall send forth His mercy and His truth.

4 My soul is among lions;
I lie among the sons of men
Who are set on fire,
[g]Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue a sharp sword.

5 [h]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

6 [i]They have prepared a net for my steps;
My soul is bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
Into the midst of it they themselves have fallen. Selah

7 [j]My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise.
8 Awake, [k]my glory!
Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.

9 [l]I will praise You, O Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing to You among the nations.
10 [m]For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens,
And Your truth unto the clouds.

11 [n]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
Let Your glory be above all the earth.

Psalm 58

The Just Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."* A Michtam of David.

1 Do you indeed speak righteousness, you silent ones?
Do you judge uprightly, you sons of men?
2 No, in heart you work wickedness;
You weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.

3 [a]The wicked are estranged from the womb;
They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
4 [b]Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;

happens to us escapes God's notice and care; not a tear falls to the ground that He does not remember. When we suffer, it is a great comfort to know that God is for us—everything that we live through will be put to use for our good.

57:title Saul into the cave. The narrative of David's life indicates that he twice hid in caves—once in Adullam (1 Sam. 22:1–5) which was the setting of Psalm 142, and once in En Gedi (1 Sam. 24:1–7), the setting of this poem. In En Gedi, David spared Saul's life even though he had a perfect chance to put Saul out of the way and claim the kingship for himself.

57:1–3 I will cry out to God. Although he had lived a righteous life, David still realized that he did not deserve the protection of God and that if his life was saved it would be by the grace of God. He trusted God to care for him just as a mother hen protects her young by covering them with her wings.

57:5 Be exalted. One of the ways in which God exalts Himself is by graciously delivering the needy.

57:7 My heart is steadfast. Just as Paul was able to say that he had kept the faith (2 Tim. 4:7), David rejoiced that his trust in God had remained strong.

58:1 silent ones. This may also be translated "mighty ones" or "judges." Although they were merely humans, the wicked judges were behaving as though they claimed divine authority.

10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the [i]vengeance;

11 [k]So that men will say,
"Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
Surely He is God who [l]judges in the earth."

Psalm 59

The Assured Judgment of the Wicked

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy."* A Michtam of David [a]when Saul sent men, and they watched the house in order to kill him.

1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
Defend me from those who rise up against me.
2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
And save me from bloodthirsty men.
3 For look, they lie in wait for my life;
[b]The mighty gather against me,
Not for my transgression nor for my sin, O LORD.
4 They run and prepare themselves through no fault of mine.
[c]Awake to help me, and behold!
5 You therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel,
Awake to punish all the nations;
Do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah
6 [d]At evening they return,
They growl like a dog,
And go all around the city.
7 Indeed, they belch with their mouth;
[e]Swords are in their lips;
For they say, [f]"Who hears?"
8 But [g]You, O LORD, shall laugh at them;
You shall have all the nations in derision.
9 I will wait for You, O You his Strength;*
[h]For God is my defense.
10 My God of mercy* shall [i]come to meet me;
God shall let [j]me see my desire on my enemies.
11 Do not slay them, lest my people forget;
Scatter them by Your power,
And bring them down,
O Lord our shield.

58:6 Break their teeth. The wicked are pictured as having powerful teeth, as though they were carnivores, eating the righteous alive. Here David asks God to shatter their teeth, symbolizing the destruction of the power of the wicked over the poor and defenseless.

58:10 wash his feet in the blood of the wicked. We know that it is wrong to rejoice in the downfall of another human being; the picture of the righteous wading in the blood of their fallen enemies is hard for modern Western Christians to understand. Jesus clearly taught that our attitude towards our enemies should be one of compassion and forgiveness (Matt. 5:43–48; Luke 23:34), but this does not mean that we should take a soft attitude towards sin. Wickedness grieves and angers God, and when wickedness has finally been dealt with, we will rejoice.

59:1 Deliver me from my enemies. The story behind this psalm of lament is found in 1 Samuel 19:9–17.

59:3 Not for my transgression. There were times in David's life when he knew that he was suffering because of sin in his life (32:1–7), but at other times he was hounded by wicked persons even though he was innocent.

59:6 a dog. Dogs were unclean animals, semi-wild scavengers rather than the beloved pets of our own day. To call someone a dog or compare him to a dog was a profound insult.

59:11 Do not slay them . . . scatter. The imprecation or curse in this verse is unusual. Instead of asking for the destruction of the wicked, the psalmist asks

They growl like a dog,

Yes, I will sing aloud of Your mercy in the morning;

For God is my defense,

Psalm 60

Urgent Prayer for the Restored Favor of God

To the Chief Musician. [a]Set to "Lily of the Testimony."* A Michtam of David. For teaching. [b]When he fought against Mesopotamia and Syria of Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

1 O God, [c]You have cast us off;
You have broken us down;
You have been displeased;
Oh, restore us again!
2 You have made the earth tremble;
You have broken it;
[d]Heal its breaches, for it is shaking.
3 [e]You have shown Your people hard things;
[f]You have made us drink the wine of confusion.
4 [g]You have given a banner to those who fear You,
That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah
5 [h]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.

6 God has [i]spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will [j]divide [k]Shechem
And measure out [l]the Valley of Succoth.
7 Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
[m]Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;
[n]Judah is My lawgiver.
8 [o]Moab is My washpot;
[p]Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
[q]Philistia, shout in triumph because of Me."

9 Who will bring me to the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
10 Is it not You, O God, [r]who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did [s]not go out with our armies?
11 Give us help from trouble,
[t]For the help of man is useless.
12 Through God [u]we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.*

Assurance of God's Eternal Protection

To the Chief Musician. On a stringed instrument.* A Psalm of David.

for them to be scattered, to be made fugitives. This would be a constant reminder of the consequences of evil.

59:16–17 I will sing. David knew that King Saul had sent a murder squad to track him down and kill him. Yet he arose in the morning with joy in his heart and a song on his lips. This was in contrast to his enemies, who would return to the city each evening after a long, fruitless search for David. They were nervous, irritable, and arrogant.

60:1 You have broken us down. This is a poetic description of an otherwise unknown defeat of the armies of Israel in a battle that was part of the campaign against Aram of Zobah and his Mesopotamian allies (2 Sam. 8). The defeat was so startling that it caused the people of Israel to feel as though God had made the earth tremble.

60:5 Your beloved. This term is particularly endearing (Is. 5:1; Jer. 11:15). God did not merely act for His people out of duty, He loved them.

60:8 Moab . . . Edom . . . Philistia. These traditional enemies of Israel were also enemies of God. The Lord would not allow them to disturb His people.

60:12 we will do valiantly. As the title records, this was what happened. David's general Joab led the battle, and under God's hand Israel's enemies were soundly defeated. When the help of man proves useless, often God dramatically provides strength and power so that our boast is solely in Him.

8 So I will sing praise to Your name
forever,
That I may daily perform my vows.

Psalm 62

A Calm Resolve to Wait for the Salvation of God

To the Chief Musician. To [a]Jeduthun.
A Psalm of David.

1 Truly [b]my soul silently waits for God;
From Him comes my salvation.
2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be greatly [c]moved.

3 How long will you attack a man?
You shall be slain, all of you,
[d]Like a leaning wall and a tottering fence.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his high position;
They [e]delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But they curse inwardly. Selah

5 My soul, wait silently for God alone,
For my expectation is from Him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my defense;
I shall not be moved.
7 [f]In God is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength,
And my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
[g]Pour out your heart before Him;
God is a refuge for us. Selah

9 [h]Surely men of low degree are a vapor,
Men of high degree are a lie;
If they are weighed on the scales,
They are altogether lighter than vapor.
10 Do not trust in oppression,
Nor vainly hope in robbery;
[i]If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.

11 God has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That power belongs to God.
12 Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy; For [j]You render to each one according to his work.

Psalm 63

Joy in the Fellowship of God

A Psalm of David [a]when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

1 O God, You are my God;
Early will I seek You;
[b]My soul thirsts for You;
My flesh longs for You
In a dry and thirsty land
Where there is no water.
2 So I have looked for You in the
sanctuary,
To see [c]Your power and Your glory.

3 [d]Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
My lips shall praise You.
4 Thus I will bless You while I live;
I will [e]lift up my hands in Your name.

61:2 the rock that is higher than I. The imagery of God as a Rock for the believer was introduced by Moses (Deut. 32:4) and is developed elsewhere in the Psalms (62:2; 71:3; 144:1).
61:6 as many generations. This phrase refers to David's long rule, but more literally prophesies the eternal rule of Jesus, the King of kings.
62:title Jeduthun. Jeduthun was appointed by David as one of those in charge of the music associated with worship (1 Chr. 16:41–42).
62:8 Trust . . . you people. David addresses the righteous with his lesson of reliance on God. What is true for David is extended to all in the believing community.
62:11 spoken once, Twice. It is a convention of wisdom literature to use a number and then raise it by one (Prov. 30:15–31), emphasizing the certainty of the point made.
63:title in the wilderness of Judah. This possibly refers to an incident during the period when Saul was chasing David (1 Sam. 22–24).
63:2 in the sanctuary. The sanctuary had been at Nob (1 Sam. 21:1), and it was there that David had sought the presence of the Lord. Later it was moved to Jerusalem (76:1–2).
63:4 lift up my hands. To lift the hands to the Lord expresses dependence on Him, coupled with an acknowledgment of His power, wonder, and majesty.

Psalm 64

Oppressed by the Wicked but Rejoicing in the LORD

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my voice, O God, in my meditation;
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
2 Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked,
From the rebellion of the workers of
iniquity,
3 Who sharpen their tongue like a
sword,
[a]And bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter words, 4 That they may shoot in secret at the blameless;
Suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.
5 They encourage themselves in an evil
matter;
They talk of laying snares secretly;
[b]They say, "Who will see them?"
6 They devise iniquities:
"We have perfected a shrewd scheme."
Both the inward thought and the heart of man are deep.
7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow;
Suddenly they shall be wounded.
8 So He will make them stumble over their own tongue;
[c]All who see them shall flee away.
9 All men shall fear,
And shall [d]declare the work of God;
For they shall wisely consider His doing.
10 [e]The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and trust in Him.
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

Psalm 65

Praise to God for His Salvation and Providence

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

1 Praise is awaiting You, O God, in Zion;
And to You the vow shall be performed.
2 O You who hear prayer,
[a]To You all flesh will come.
3 Iniquities prevail against me;
As for our transgressions,
You will [b]provide atonement for
them.
4 [c]Blessed is the man You [d]choose,
And cause to approach You,
That he may dwell in Your courts.
[e]We shall be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,
Of Your holy temple.
5 By awesome deeds in righteousness
You will answer us,
O God of our salvation,
You who are the confidence of all the ends of the earth,
And of the far-off seas;
6 Who established the mountains by His strength,
[f]Being clothed with power;
7 [g]You who still the noise of the seas,
The noise of their waves,
[h]And the tumult of the peoples.

63:8 Your right hand. The same power of God that delivered Israel from Egypt (Ex. 15:6) would support David—and all other believers in their daily lives.

64:10 trust in Him. By placing our problems into God's hands, we can rest in His sovereign will for our lives. Concerns about the future can be cast aside, for the Lord controls our future and has good plans for us (Rom. 8:28).

65:3 provide atonement for them. David speaks of a coming day when sin will be dealt with fully, when redemption will be completely paid. This took place in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:7).

8 They also who dwell in the farthest

You make the outgoings of the morning and evening rejoice.

9 You visit the earth and [i]water it,
You greatly enrich it;
[j]The river of God is full of water;

[k]The valleys also are covered with
grain;
They shout for joy, they also sing.

Psalm 66

Praise to God for His Awesome Works

To the Chief Musician. A Song.
A Psalm.

1 Make [a]a joyful shout to God, all the
earth!
2 Sing out the honor of His name;
Make His praise glorious.
3 Say to God,
"How [b]awesome are Your works!
[c]Through the greatness of Your power
Your enemies shall submit themselves
to You.
4 [d]All the earth shall worship You
And sing praises to You;
They shall sing praises to Your name."
Selah

5 Come and see the works of God;
He is awesome in His doing toward the sons of men.

6 [e]He turned the sea into dry land;
[f]They went through the river on foot.
There we will rejoice in Him.
7 He rules by His power forever;
His eyes observe the nations;
Do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

8 Oh, bless our God, you peoples!
And make the voice of His praise to be heard,
9 Who keeps our soul among the living,
And does not allow our feet to be moved.
10 For [g]You, O God, have tested us; [h]You have refined us as silver is refined.
11 [i]You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction on our backs.
12 [j]You have caused men to ride over our heads;
[k]We went through fire and through water;
But You brought us out to rich fulfillment.

13 [l]I will go into Your house with burnt offerings;
[m]I will pay You my vows,
14 Which my lips have uttered
And my mouth has spoken when I was in trouble.
15 I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,
With the sweet aroma of rams;
I will offer bulls with goats. Selah

16 Come and hear, all you who fear
God,
And I will declare what He has done
for my soul.
17 I cried to Him with my mouth,
And He was extolled with my tongue.
18 [n]If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The Lord will not hear.
19 But certainly God [o]has heard me;
He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

20 Blessed be God,
Who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor His mercy from me!

65:9 You visit the earth. Rainfall is seen here as a gracious visitation of God. This is in keeping with the provisions of God's covenant with Israel (Deut. 28:12). These words have some fulfillment every time the rains bring productivity to the earth.
66:1 all the earth. As in Psalm 100:1, the call is not only for the people of Israel, but for the peoples of all the earth to join in the praises of the living God, the Most High (87:7; 96:1–6; 117:1).
66:2 the honor of His name. The Lord's name describes His character, so honoring God's name is honoring God Himself (Ex. 3:14–15).
66:8 O bless our God. To bless God is to identify Him as the source of our blessing.
66:13 Your house. This term refers to the temple in Jerusalem where God lived among His people.
66:16 all you who fear God. Those who fear God are those who respond in awe and wonder to Him.
66:18 regard iniquity. Ongoing sin tolerated in a believer's life is one of the main things that blocks effective prayer and hinders growth.

Psalm 67

An Invocation and a Doxology

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.* A Psalm. A Song.

1 God be merciful to us and bless us,
And [a]cause His face to shine upon us,
Selah
2 That [b]Your way may be known on earth,
[c]Your salvation among all nations.
3 Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.
4 Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy!
For [d]You shall judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations on earth.
Selah
5 Let the peoples praise You, O God;
Let all the peoples praise You.
6 [e]Then the earth shall yield her increase;
God, our own God, shall bless us.
7 God shall bless us,
And all the ends of the earth shall fear Him.

Psalm 68

The Glory of God in His Goodness to Israel

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. A Song.

1 Let [a]God arise,
Let His enemies be scattered;
Let those also who hate Him flee before Him.
2 [b]As smoke is driven away,
So drive them away;
[c]As wax melts before the fire,
So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
3 But [d]let the righteous be glad;
Let them rejoice before God;
Yes, let them rejoice exceedingly.
4 Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
[e]Extol Him who rides on the clouds,*
[f]By His name YAH,
And rejoice before Him.
5 [g]A father of the fatherless, a defender of widows,
Is God in His holy habitation.
6 [h]God sets the solitary in families;
[i]He brings out those who are bound into prosperity;
But [j]the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
7 O God, [k]when You went out before Your people,
When You marched through the wilderness, Selah
8 The earth shook;
The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God;
Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
9 [l]You, O God, sent a plentiful rain,
Whereby You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.
10 Your congregation dwelt in it;
[m]You, O God, provided from Your goodness for the poor.
11 The Lord gave the word;
Great was the company of those who proclaimed it:
12 "Kings[n] of armies flee, they flee,
And she who remains at home divides the spoil.
13 [o]Though you lie down among the sheepfolds,
[p]You will be like the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold."

* 67:title Hebrew neginoth * 68:4 Masoretic Text reads deserts; Targum reads heavens (compare verse 34 and Isaiah 19:1).

67:1 His face to shine. In the language of Aaron's benediction (Num. 6:24–26), the psalmist calls for God to smile on His people.

67:2 known on earth. From the beginning God had intended to bring His blessing to all nations, in fulfillment of the provisions of the Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 12:3). This passage anticipates the thrust of world mission that is found in the New Testament (Matt. 28:18–20; Acts 1:8).

67:6 yield her increase. The coming of God's kingdom on earth will be marked by a magnificent increase in production. The curse on the land (Gen. 3:17–19; Rom. 8:22) will be lifted at that time.

68:1 Let God arise. This psalm is based in part on the Song of Deborah in Judges 5. The presence of the wicked on the earth is an assault on God's holiness and a constant threat to the righteous. Only God's mercy compels Him to delay His judgment (75:2).

68:5–6 father. The view of God as Father is not as fully developed in the Old Testament as it is in the New Testament. This passage affords some insight into the character of God as Father. He is not seen in these verses as the Almighty God destroying His foes. He is pictured rather as the Father helping His children in need. He delights in kindly works which bring a happy existence to His children.

68:11 the company of those who proclaimed. This may refer to the women who gave praise to God under the direction of Miriam (Ex. 15:20–21).

14 [q]When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
It was white as snow in Zalmon.
15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan;
A mountain of many peaks is the mountain of Bashan.
16 Why do you fume with envy, you mountains of many peaks?
[r]This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in;
Yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever.
17 [s]The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
Even thousands of thousands;
The Lord is among them as in Sinai, in the Holy Place.
18 [t]You have ascended on high,
[u]You have led captivity captive;
[v]You have received gifts among men,
Even from [w]the rebellious,
[x]That the LORD God might dwell there.
19 Blessed be the Lord,
Who daily loads us with benefits,
The God of our salvation! Selah
20 Our God is the God of salvation;
And [y]to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death.
21 But [z]God will wound the head of His enemies,
[a]The hairy scalp of the one who still goes on in his trespasses.
22 The Lord said, "I will bring [b]back from Bashan,
I will bring them back [c]from the depths of the sea,
23 [d]That your foot may crush *them in blood,
[e]And the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."
24 They have seen Your procession, O God,
The procession of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.
25 [f]The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after;
Among them were the maidens playing timbrels.
26 Bless God in the congregations,
The Lord, from [g]the fountain of Israel.
27 [h]There is little Benjamin, their leader,
The princes of Judah and their company,
The princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.
28 Your God has [i]commanded* your strength;
Strengthen, O God, what You have done for us.
29 Because of Your temple at Jerusalem,
[j]Kings will bring presents to You.
30 Rebuke the beasts of the reeds,
[k]The herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples,
Till everyone [l]submits himself with pieces of silver.
Scatter the peoples who delight in war.
31 [m]Envoys will come out of Egypt;
[n]Ethiopia will quickly [o]stretch out her hands to God.
32 Sing to God, you [p]kingdoms of the earth;
Oh, sing praises to the Lord, Selah
33 To Him [q]who rides on the heaven of heavens, which were of old!
Indeed, He sends out His voice, a [r]mighty voice.
34 [s]Ascribe strength to God;
His excellence is over Israel,
And His strength is in the clouds.
35 O God, [t]You are more awesome than Your holy places.
The God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to His people.

Blessed be God!

Psalm 69

An Urgent Plea for Help in Trouble

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."* A Psalm of David.

1 Save me, O God!
For [a]the waters have come up to my neck.

* 68:23 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read you may dip your foot. * 68:28 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read Command, O God. * 69:title Hebrew Shoshannim

68:14 the Almighty. This translates the name "Shaddai," a title that refers to the majesty and strength of the Lord (91:1).

68:18 You have led captivity captive. Paul quotes this verse in Ephesians 4:8, applying it to Jesus Christ.

received gifts. When God delivered His people from Egypt, He brought them out with great treasures from the Egyptians (Ex. 12:35–36). These gifts were used by the people of Israel to build the tabernacle (Ex. 35:20–29), where the Lord promised to dwell.

68:29 Kings will bring presents to You. Royal guests came to Solomon with gifts (1 Kin. 10:1–10); but the ultimate prophetic fulfillment of this verse was in the kings who came to Jerusalem to bring gifts to the infant Jesus (Matt. 2:1–12). One day all kings will show their obedience and humility before Jesus, the great King (2:10–12; 76:11).

69:1 the waters have come up to my neck. This highly messianic psalm presents a remarkable description of

2 [b]I sink in deep mire,
Where there is no standing;
I have come into deep waters,
Where the floods overflow me.
3 [c]I am weary with my crying;
My throat is dry;
[d]My eyes fail while I wait for my God.

4 Those who [e]hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head;
They are mighty who would destroy me,
Being my enemies wrongfully;
Though I have stolen nothing,
I still must restore it.

5 O God, You know my foolishness;
And my sins are not hidden from You.
6 Let not those who wait for You,
O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed because of me;
Let not those who seek You be confounded because of me,
O God of Israel.
7 Because for Your sake I have borne reproach;
Shame has covered my face.
8 [f]I have become a stranger to my brothers,
And an alien to my mother's children;
9 [g]Because zeal for Your house has eaten me up,
[h]And the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.
10 When I wept and chastened my soul with fasting,
That became my reproach.
11 I also made sackcloth my garment;
I became a byword to them.
12 Those who sit in the gate speak against me,
And I am the song of the [i]drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is to You,
O LORD, in the acceptable time;
O God, in the multitude of Your mercy,
Hear me in the truth of Your salvation.
14 Deliver me out of the mire,
And let me not sink;
Let me be delivered from those who hate me,
And out of the deep waters.
15 Let not the floodwater overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up;
And let not the pit shut its mouth on me.

16 Hear me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good;
Turn to me according to the multitude of Your tender mercies.
17 And do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in trouble;
Hear me speedily.
18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;
Deliver me because of my enemies.

19 You know [j]my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor;
My adversaries are all before You.
20 Reproach has broken my heart,
And I am full of heaviness;
[k]I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
And for [l]comforters, but I found none.
21 They also gave me gall for my food,
[m]And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

22 [n]Let their table become a snare before them,
And their well-being a trap.
23 [o]Let their eyes be darkened, so that they do not see;
And make their loins shake continually.
24 [p]Pour out Your indignation upon them,
And let Your wrathful anger take hold of them.
25 [q]Let their dwelling place be desolate;
Let no one live in their tents.
26 For they persecute the ones [r]You have struck, the suffering of Jesus Christ. Psalm 22 describes Jesus' physical sufferings, while Psalm 69 focuses more on His emotional and spiritual suffering. Yet, like Psalm 22, this psalm was written by David approximately a thousand years before the events it describes. Both psalms begin with the sufferings of David but have their full meaning in the sufferings of Jesus. For these reasons, the apostles in the New Testament acknowledge that David was a prophet of God (Acts 2:30).

69:4 without a cause. The Savior suffered affliction even though He was holy, harmless, and undefiled, and so no amount of holiness in His followers can prevent the enmity of a wicked world (John 15:19). In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus promised blessing and a great reward to His followers who suffered for the sake of righteousness, a cause which is identified with Christ's own person (Matt. 5:10–11). Peter must have taken seriously Jesus' words on this subject, for he reminds believers that if they are reviled for the name of Christ, it is a blessing which indicates that the Spirit of God is resting upon them (1 Pet. 4:14).

69:9 zeal for Your house has eaten me up. Like Phinehas in Numbers 25, David describes himself as a zealot for the house of the Lord. Jesus' cleansing of the temple was a fulfillment of these words (John 2:17).

69:21 gall. "Gall" is commonly employed in Scripture as a synonym for poison, or bitterness. When Jesus hung on the cross, He actually was offered some sour wine mixed with gall (probably the bitter herb myrrh), a drink given occasionally to relieve the crucified person's thirst and pain (Matt. 27:34).

69:25 Let their dwelling place be desolate. These words were fulfilled in Judas Iscariot. See Acts 1:20, in which the words of this verse are joined to the words of 109:8.

27 [s]Add iniquity to their iniquity,
[t]And let them not come into Your righteousness.
28 Let them [u]be blotted out of the book of the living,
[v]And not be written with the righteous.

29 But I am poor and sorrowful;
Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
30 [w]I will praise the name of God with a song,
And will magnify Him with thanksgiving.
31 [x]This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bull,
Which has horns and hooves.
32 [y]The humble shall see this and be glad;
And you who seek God, [z]your hearts shall live.
33 For the LORD hears the poor,
And does not despise [a]His prisoners.

34 [b]Let heaven and earth praise Him,
The seas [c]and everything that moves in them.
35 [d]For God will save Zion
And build the cities of Judah,
That they may dwell there and possess it.
36 Also, [e]the descendants of His servants shall inherit it,
And those who love His name shall dwell in it.

Psalm 70

Prayer for Relief from Adversaries

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. [a]To bring to remembrance.

1 Make haste, [b]O God, to deliver me!
Make haste to help me, O LORD!

2 [c]Let them be ashamed and confounded
Who seek my life;
Let them be turned back* and confused
Who desire my hurt.
3 [d]Let them be turned back because of their shame,
Who say, "Aha, aha!"

4 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
And let those who love Your salvation say continually,
"Let God be magnified!"

5 [e]But I am poor and needy;
[f]Make haste to me, O God!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

God the Rock of Salvation

1 In [a]You, O LORD, I put my trust;
Let me never be put to shame.
2 [b]Deliver me in Your righteousness, and cause me to escape;
[c]Incline Your ear to me, and save me.
3 [d]Be my strong refuge,
To which I may resort continually;
You have given the [e]commandment to save me,
For You are my rock and my fortress.

4 [f]Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
5 For You are [g]my hope, O Lord GOD;
You are my trust from my youth.
6 [h]By You I have been upheld from birth;
You are He who took me out of my mother's womb.
My praise shall be continually of You.

7 [i]I have become as a wonder to many,
But You are my strong refuge.
8 Let [j]my mouth be filled with Your praise
And with Your glory all the day.

9 Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
Do not forsake me when my strength fails.

* 70:2 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate; some Hebrew manuscripts and Syriac read be appalled (compare 40:15).

70:2 be ashamed and confounded. David prays that those who rejoice in his misery will be proven wrong in their assumption that the Lord is unable to help His people. In this way, the Lord's deliverance of David will result in God's name being glorified—both by the joy of God's people and the shame of His enemies.
71:2 Your righteousness. The psalmist is concerned with his own plight and also with the character of God. The psalmist's point is that God could display His righteousness by answering the needs of the psalmist, whose life had been lived in constant trust in God.
71:7 a wonder. The poet declares that the work of God in his life has made him a special sign to the people, similar to the great miracles of God through Moses and Aaron in Egypt (Ex. 7:3; 11:9).

12 [l]O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, [m]make haste to help me!

And will praise You yet more and

And Your salvation all the day,
For I do not know their limits.
16 I will go in the strength of the Lord
GOD;
I will make mention of Your

19 Also [p]Your righteousness, O God, is very high,
You who have done great things;
[q]O God, who is like You?
20 [r]You, who have shown me great and severe troubles,
[s]Shall revive me again,
And bring me up again from the depths of the earth.
21 You shall increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.

22 Also [t]with the lute I will praise You—
And Your faithfulness, O my God!
To You I will sing with the harp,
O [u]Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing to You,
And [v]my soul, which You have redeemed.
24 My tongue also shall talk of Your righteousness all the day long;
For they are confounded,
For they are brought to shame
Who seek my hurt.

Psalm 72

Glory and Universality of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm [a]of Solomon.

1 Give the king Your judgments,
O God,
And Your righteousness to the king's Son.
2 [b]He will judge Your people with
righteousness,
And Your poor with justice.
3 [c]The mountains will bring peace to the
people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.
4 [d]He will bring justice to the poor of the
people;
He will save the children of the needy,
And will break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They shall fear You*
[e]As long as the sun and moon endure,
Throughout all generations.
6 [f]He shall come down like rain upon the grass before mowing,
Like showers that water the earth.
7 In His days the righteous shall flourish,
[g]And abundance of peace,
Until the moon is no more.

8 [h]He shall have dominion also from sea
to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the
earth.
9 [i]Those who dwell in the wilderness will bow before Him,
[j]And His enemies will lick the dust.

* 72:5 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read They shall continue.

71:22 the lute . . . the harp. The psalmist praised God with music, both vocal and instrumental. His worship came from his inner being ("my soul," v. 23) which was filled with praises to the living God. No matter what form our worship takes, it is worthless unless it comes from the heart.

72:1 Give the king Your judgments. Solomon's prayer for his own godly reign is an intensely messianic poem, speaking in ideal terms of the coming of the great King. The psalm calls for a good king to govern Israel under God's blessing. Ultimately this king is the Savior Jesus.

72:8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea. The promises of God to Abraham included a promise that his descendants would have dominion over the land of Canaan (Gen. 15:18–21). These verses expand the geographical dimensions to include the entire earth. the River. This refers to the Euphrates.

BOOK THREE

Psalms 73–89

Psalm 73

The Tragedy of the Wicked, and the Blessedness of Trust in God

A Psalm of [a]Asaph.

1 Truly God is good to Israel,
To such as are pure in heart.
2 But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled;
My steps had nearly [b]slipped.
3 [c]For I was envious of the boastful,
When I saw the prosperity of the [d]wicked.

4 For there are no pangs in their death,
But their strength is firm.
5 [e]They are not in trouble as other men,
Nor are they plagued like other men.
6 Therefore pride serves as their necklace;
Violence covers them [f]like a garment.
7 [g]Their eyes bulge* with abundance;
They have more than heart could wish.

* 73:7 Targum reads face bulges; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read iniquity bulges.

72:14 He will redeem their life. This verse points to Jesus' death on the cross, when He paid the price to redeem us from the oppression of sin.
72:17 His name shall endure forever. The name of the great King will be regarded as the greatest in the universe. Paul speaks this way of Jesus' name in Philippians 2:9–11.
72:20 The prayers of David . . . are ended. The superscription of this psalm attributes it to Solomon. It is possible that Solomon wrote this poem as the close of a collection of his father's psalms. Other psalms were later added to this original collection.
73:1 Walking in the Spirit—An important prerequisite to walking in the Spirit is the confession of sin. Sin must be confessed in order to restore fellowship and to continue receiving God's forgiveness (1 John 1:5–10). Confession means that we agree with God about our sin. That involves much more than simply acknowledging the sin. Confession requires an attitude of sorrow for the sin and a willingness to turn from it. It does not mean that we will never commit the same sin again, but it does mean that the attitude of repentance towards the sin is present.

Confession should be made at the moment the Christian becomes aware of sin. The Scriptures actually mention two specific times for confession: before the close of the day (Eph. 4:26) and before the Lord's Supper (1 Cor. 11:27–32). Failure to do the latter is a special cause for discipline from the Lord.

Confession of sin should involve only those who have knowledge of the sin. This means that private sins should be confessed privately, sins between individuals confessed between those involved (Matt. 5:23–24), and public sins confessed publicly (Matt. 18:17). Public confession is normally made for the edification of the church (1 Cor. 14:26).
73:3 For I was envious. This psalmist is open with the readers concerning his own weakness and doubts; he also shows that he came to the right conclusion in the end: to trust God.

8 [h]They scoff and speak wickedly concerning oppression;
They [i]speak loftily.
9 They set their mouth [j]against the heavens,
And their tongue walks through the earth.

10 Therefore his people return here,
[k]And waters of a full cup are drained by them.
11 And they say, [l]"How does God know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?"
12 Behold, these are the ungodly,
Who are always at ease;
They increase in riches.
13 Surely I have cleansed my heart in [m]vain,
And washed my hands in innocence.
14 For all day long I have been plagued,
And chastened every morning.

15 If I had said, "I will speak thus,"
Behold, I would have been untrue to the generation of Your children.
16 When I thought how to understand this,
It was too painful for me—
17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God;
Then I understood their [n]end.

18 Surely [o]You set them in slippery places;
You cast them down to destruction.
19 Oh, how they are brought to desolation, as in a moment!
They are utterly consumed with terrors.
20 As a dream when one awakes,
So, Lord, when You awake,
You shall despise their image.

21 Thus my heart was grieved,
And I was vexed in my mind.
22 [p]I was so foolish and ignorant;
I was like a beast before You.

23 Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You hold me by my right hand.
24 [q]You will guide me with Your counsel,
And afterward receive me to glory.

25 [r]Whom have I in heaven but You?
And there is none upon earth that I desire besides You.
26 [s]My flesh and my heart fail;
But God is the strength of my heart and my [t]portion forever.

27 For indeed, [u]those who are far from You shall perish;
You have destroyed all those who desert You for harlotry.
28 But it is good for me to [v]draw near to God;
I have put my trust in the Lord GOD,
That I may [w]declare all Your works.

Psalm 74

A Plea for Relief from Oppressors

A Contemplation* of Asaph.

1 O God, why have You cast us off forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep of Your pasture?
2 Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
The tribe of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed—
This Mount Zion where You have dwelt.
3 Lift up Your feet to the perpetual desolations.
The enemy has damaged everything in the sanctuary.
4 [a]Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place;
[b]They set up their banners for signs.

* 74:title Hebrew Maschil

73:12 always at ease. It often does appear that ungodly people get away with everything, ending up on the top of the heap and leaving the godly wondering whether their own acts of righteous living are without meaning or purpose.

73:15 would have been untrue. Even as he struggled with the apparent lack of reward for righteousness, Asaph knew in his heart that such thoughts were wrong. Even when we can't understand the surface facts, God's witness in our spirits lets us know when we are moving down the wrong track.

73:22 like a beast before You. An animal has no sense of eternity or divine perspective. When the psalmist wondered about the value of righteousness, his thinking was based only on the present, like an animal, rather than understanding the bigger picture as a being with an eternal soul.

73:28 it is good for me to draw near to God. There are those who may enjoy great wealth and notoriety today, but nothing they have or do will last forever. Compared to a relationship with the living God, nothing else matters.

74:1 anger. The Babylonian destruction of the temple in 586 B.C. occasioned a crisis of faith among the ancient covenant people. Since the temple served as the external sign of God's covenant with Israel, its destruction may have caused the impression that God's promise to David had been canceled (2 Sam. 7:12–14). The psalmist is deeply conscious that God is angry with the nation, and the reason for His anger is unmistakably clear. The people had forsaken the covenant, and worshiped and served other gods (Deut. 29:25–26). God's anger reminds us of His eternal hatred of all unrighteousness. It is the holiness of God stirred into an appropriate response to sin.

5 They seem like men who lift up
Axes among the thick trees.
6 And now they break down its carved work, all at once,
With axes and hammers.
7 They have set fire to Your sanctuary;
They have defiled the dwelling place of Your name to the ground.
8 [c]They said in their hearts,
"Let us destroy them altogether."
They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

9 We do not see our signs;
[d]There is no longer any prophet;
Nor is there any among us who knows
how long.
10 O God, how long will the adversary reproach?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name
forever?
11 [e]Why do You withdraw Your hand,
even Your right hand?
Take it out of Your bosom and destroy
them.
12 For [f]God is my King from of old, Working salvation in the midst of the
earth.
13 [g]You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the sea
serpents in the waters.
14 You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces,
And gave him as food to the people
inhabiting the wilderness.
15 [h]You broke open the fountain and the flood;
[i]You dried up mighty rivers.
16 The day is Yours, the night also is [j]Yours;
[k]You have prepared the light and the sun.
17 You have [l]set all the borders of the
earth;
[m]You have made summer and winter.

18 Remember this, that the enemy has
reproached, O LORD,
And that a foolish people has blasphemed Your name.
19 Oh, do not deliver the life of Your turtledove to the wild beast!
Do not forget the life of Your poor
forever.

20 [n]Have respect to the covenant;
For the dark places of the earth are full of the haunts of cruelty.
21 Oh, do not let the oppressed return ashamed!
Let the poor and needy praise Your
name.

22 Arise, O God, plead Your own cause; Remember how the foolish man
reproaches You daily.
23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies;
The tumult of those who rise up against You increases continually.

Thanksgiving for God's Righteous Judgment

To the Chief Musician. Set to [a]"Do Not Destroy."* A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

1 We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!

Your name is near.

6 For exaltation comes neither from the

Nor from the west nor from the south.
7 But [c]God is the Judge:
[d]He puts down one,
And exalts another.
8 For [e]in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;

* 75:title Hebrew Al Tashcheth

74:12 my King from of old. The Lord is King by virtue of His creation of the earth (Ps. 93). He is King because of His special relationship with Israel (44:4; 99:1–3). And He is the coming King who will reign over all (96:13; 97:1–6; 98:6–9).
74:14 Leviathan. This creature was used to poetically describe various evil forces over which God has ultimate control and victory. Eventually the Leviathan (Job 41:1–10) became a symbol for Satan (Is. 27:1) who is "the dragon, that serpent of old" (Rev. 20:2).
74:15 dried up mighty rivers. God enabled His people to cross over the Red Sea (Ex. 14) and the River Jordan (Josh. 3).
75:2 When I choose the proper time. God will not be rushed, even by His devoted followers. When we grow impatient to see justice done, we must remember that God has a better sense of time than we do.
75:8 a cup. This is not a cup of blessing, but of the Lord's wrath. The biblical image of wine and judgment goes back to Jacob's blessing on Judah (Gen. 49:11) and is referred to in Christ's judgment as depicted in Revelation 19:13–15.

The Majesty of God in Judgment

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments.* A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

1 In [a]Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
2 In Salem* also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.
3 There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle. Selah

4 You are more glorious and excellent
[b]Than the mountains of prey.
5 [c]The stouthearted were plundered;
[d]They have sunk into their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
6 [e]At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.

7 You, Yourself, are to be feared;
And [f]who may stand in Your presence
When once You are angry?
8 [g]You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
[h]The earth feared and was still,
9 When God [i]arose to judgment,
To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah

10 [j]Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.

11 [k]Make vows to the LORD your God, and pay them;
[l]Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.
12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
[m]He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

The Consoling Memory of God's Redemptive Works

To the Chief Musician. [a]To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

1 I cried out to God with my voice—
To God with my voice;
And He gave ear to me.
2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing;
My soul refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered God, and was troubled;
I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah

4 You hold my eyelids open;
I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
5 I have considered the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
6 I call to remembrance my song in the night;
I meditate within my heart,
And my spirit makes diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off forever?
And will He be favorable no more?
8 Has His mercy ceased forever?
Has His [b]promise failed forevermore?
9 Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah

10 And I said, "This is my anguish;
But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

76:6 chariot and horse. This verse is referring to the defeat of the army of Pharaoh (Ex. 14:13–29; 15).
76:7 to be feared. For the righteous, the fear of God is a response of awe, wonder, adoration, and worship. For the wicked, the fear of God is terror, for there is no escape from Him (14:5).
76:11 bring presents. As one might bring gifts to a king, so the righteous should bring their gifts to God—the ultimate gift being the dedication of their lives to the service of God (Rom. 12:1).
77:3 remembered . . . troubled. What he knew of God contrasted with what he was experiencing. The more the psalmist thought about these things, the more troubled he became.
77:7–8 Will the Lord cast off forever? Even though we have put our faith in Christ and committed ourselves to obeying His will, this doesn't automatically guarantee total and perpetual immunity from trouble. There will be seasons when God seems remote and we begin to wonder about God's unfailing love. It is in these times that we must hold most firmly to what we know about God, rather than what we feel.

God's Kindness to Rebellious Israel

A [a]Contemplation* of Asaph.

1 Give ear, O my people, to my law;
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in a [b]parable;
I will utter dark sayings of old,
3 Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.
4 [c]We will not hide them from their children,
[d]Telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
And His strength and His wonderful works that He has done.
5 For [e]He established a testimony in Jacob,
And appointed a law in Israel,
Which He commanded our fathers,
That [f]they should make them known to their children;
6 [g]That the generation to come might know them,
The children who would be born,

* 78:title Hebrew Maschil

God has neither forgotten to show mercy nor stifled His compassion.

77:11 I will remember. Asaph did not feel any more at peace, but he made a conscious decision to turn from his pain and focus his thoughts on the person, works, and wonders of God. When we are in distress, we often feel that it is our right to vent our frustrations and complaints as long as we still feel them, but God doesn't call us to be driven by feelings. Instead, we have to consciously decide to praise God, trusting that the feelings will follow.

77:20 You led Your people like a flock. Lost in contemplation of the greatness of God, the poet seems thoroughly distracted from his pain. He does not mention it again, not daring to compare it to the greatness of the Almighty.

78:1 my law. The psalmist uses the vocabulary of the wisdom school to establish himself. "My law" is the familiar word Torah. The wisdom writers used this word to indicate insight; their instruction is always in accord with the law of Moses (Prov. 1:8; 3:1; 4:2).

78:2 dark sayings. These are riddles, or instructions with a deeper meaning beyond the surface.

78:4 Israel's History—The biblical history of Israel covers 1,800 years and represents a marvelous panorama of God's gracious working through promise, miracle, blessing, and judgment. Israel begins as only a promise to Abraham (Gen. 12:2). For over four hundred years the people of Israel maintain their belief in that promise while in bondage in Egypt. Finally, in God's perfect timing, He brings the nation out of Egypt with the greatest series of miracles recorded in the Old Testament (Ex. 7–15). This event is called the Exodus, meaning a going out. It is the formative event in the history of the nation. It was a great act of redemption and in the Old Testament is the foremost example of God's care for His people (Ps. 77:14–20; 78:12–55; Hos. 11:1).

Once God had redeemed Israel He established His covenant with them at Mount Sinai (Ex. 19:5–8). From that point on He has been their God and they His people. The covenant foretells gracious blessings for obedience and severe judgments for disobedience. The rest of Israel's history demonstrates the certainty of that prophecy. Throughout periods of conquest, judges, monarchy, exile, restoration and Gentile domination, Israel was blessed when she obeyed and judged when she disobeyed. The nation is finally destroyed in A.D. 70, although this event is not described in the New Testament. Many prophecies appear to promise a future redemption (Rom. 11:26).

There are at least three good reasons to study the history of Israel:

1. It sets forth examples to be followed or avoided (1 Cor. 10:6).
2. It shows God's control of historical events (Ps. 78).
3. It serves as a model for all ages of God's kindness and mercy towards His people (Ps. 78).

78:5–7 testimony. The history of Israel is told in a series of cycles with steps in each cycle ranging from a firm, dependent hope in God to deep apostasy. One generation would seek the works of God, hope in Him, and follow Him. The next generation would forget the mighty works of God and depart from reliance and confidence in Him. To avert this endless round of making the same mistakes, God

That they may arise and declare them
to their children,
7 That they may set their hope in God,
And not forget the works of God,
But keep His commandments;
8 And [h]may not be like their fathers,
[i]A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation [j]that did not set its heart
aright,
And whose spirit was not faithful to
God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows,
Turned back in the day of battle.
10 [k]They did not keep the covenant of
God;
They refused to walk in His law,
11 And [l]forgot His works
And His wonders that He had shown
them.

12 [m]Marvelous things He did in the sight of
their fathers,
In the land of Egypt, [n]in the field of Zoan.
13 [o]He divided the sea and caused them to pass through;
And [p]He made the waters stand up like a heap.
14 [q]In the daytime also He led them with the cloud,
And all the night with a light of fire.
15 [r]He split the rocks in the wilderness,
And gave them drink in abundance like the depths.
16 He also brought [s]streams out of the rock,
And caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 But they sinned even more against
Him
By [t]rebelling against the Most High in the wilderness.
18 And [u]they tested God in their heart
By asking for the food of their fancy.
19 [v]Yes, they spoke against God:
They said, "Can God prepare a table in
the wilderness?
20 [w]Behold, He struck the rock,
So that the waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed.
Can He give bread also?
Can He provide meat for His people?"

21 Therefore the LORD heard this and [x]was furious;
So a fire was kindled against Jacob,
And anger also came up against
Israel,
22 Because they [y]did not believe in God,
And did not trust in His salvation.
23 Yet He had commanded the clouds
above,
[z]And opened the doors of heaven, 24 [a]Had rained down manna on them to eat,
And given them of the bread of [b]heaven.
25 Men ate angels' food;
He sent them food to the full.

26 [c]He caused an east wind to blow in the
heavens;
And by His power He brought in the south wind.
27 He also rained meat on them like the dust,
Feathered fowl like the sand of the seas;
28 And He let them fall in the midst of their camp,
All around their dwellings.
29 [d]So they ate and were well filled,
For He gave them their own desire.
30 They were not deprived of their craving;
But [e]while their food was still in their mouths,
31 The wrath of God came against them,
And slew the stoutest of them,
And struck down the choice men of Israel.

32 In spite of this [f]they still sinned,
And [g]did not believe in His wondrous
works.
33 [h]Therefore their days He consumed in futility,
And their years in fear.

34 [i]When He slew them, then they sought
Him;
And they returned and sought earnestly for God.
35 Then they remembered that [j]God was their rock,
And the Most High God [k]their Redeemer.
36 Nevertheless they [l]flattered Him with their mouth,

commanded His people to make His laws a regular part of their everyday lives (Deut. 6:4–9), so that they could not forget.

78:9 Ephraim . . . Turned back. The poet may be referring to Ephraim's conflict with Jephthah (Judg. 12:1–7).

78:29 He gave them their own desire. When we turn our hearts toward the Lord, our desires will change to match His will. Then He delights to give us our desires because they are right things which will lead to wholeness and goodness (37:4). Without God, we don't have the wisdom to know what we should long for.

And they lied to Him with their tongue;
37 For their heart was not steadfast with
Him,
Nor were they faithful in His covenant.
38 [m]But He, being full of [n]compassion,
forgave their iniquity,
And did not destroy them.
Yes, many a time [o]He turned His anger away,
And [p]did not stir up all His wrath; 39 For [q]He remembered [r]that they were but flesh,
[s]A breath that passes away and does not come again.
40 How often they [t]provoked Him in the wilderness,
And grieved Him in the desert!
41 Yes, [u]again and again they tempted
God,
And limited the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember His power:
The day when He redeemed them from
the enemy,
43 When He worked His signs in Egypt,
And His wonders in the field of Zoan;
44 [v]Turned their rivers into blood,
And their streams, that they could not drink.
45 [w]He sent swarms of flies among them,
which devoured them,
And [x]frogs, which destroyed them.
46 He also gave their crops to the caterpillar,
And their labor to the [y]locust.
47 [z]He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.
48 He also gave up their [a]cattle to the hail,
And their flocks to fiery lightning.
49 He cast on them the fierceness of His anger,
Wrath, indignation, and trouble,
By sending angels of destruction
among them.
50 He made a path for His anger;
He did not spare their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the plague, 51 And destroyed all the [b]firstborn in Egypt,
The first of their strength in the tents
of Ham.
52 But He [c]made His own people go forth like sheep,
And guided them in the wilderness
like a flock;
53 And He [d]led them on safely, so that they did not fear;
But the sea [e]overwhelmed their
enemies.
54 And He brought them to His [f]holy border,
This mountain [g]which His right hand had acquired.
55 [h]He also drove out the nations before
them,
[i]Allotted them an inheritance by survey,
And made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.
56 [j]Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
And did not keep His testimonies, 57 But [k]turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
They were turned aside [l]like a deceitful bow.
58 [m]For they provoked Him to anger with their [n]high places,
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.
59 When God heard this, He was furious,
And greatly abhorred Israel, 60 [o]So that He forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent He had placed among men, 61 [p]And delivered His strength into captivity,
And His glory into the enemy's hand.
62 [q]He also gave His people over to the
sword,
And was furious with His inheritance.
63 The fire consumed their young men,
And [r]their maidens were not given in marriage.
64 [s]Their priests fell by the sword,
And [t]their widows made no lamentation.
65 Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, [u]Like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.

78:38 full of compassion. The awesome transcendence of the Lord is complemented in this section (v. 35) by an emphasis on His compassionate mercy.

78:58 high places. These places of worship were associated with the Canaanite worship of Baal and other fertility gods.

78:60 the tabernacle of Shiloh. This reference to Shiloh, the place where the tabernacle was set up in the time of Eli, places the time of disobedience described here in the latter period of the judges (1 Sam. 1:3).

78:61 delivered His strength into captivity. This term is an unusual way of speaking of the ark of the covenant which was lost to the Philistines during the battle of Aphek (1 Sam. 4:1–11). At this time the suffering of the people was acute, including even the deaths of priests (1 Sam. 4:17–18).

Mount Zion [w]which He loved.
69 And He built His [x]sanctuary like the 70 [y]He also chose David His servant,

And took him from the sheepfolds;
71 From following [z]the ewes that had young He brought him,
[a]To shepherd Jacob His people,
And Israel His inheritance.
72 So he shepherded them according to the [b]integrity of his heart,
And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Dirge and a Prayer for Israel, Destroyed by Enemies

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 O God, the nations have come into
[a]Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
[b]They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
2 [c]The dead bodies of Your servants
They have given as food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your saints to the beasts
of the earth.
3 Their blood they have shed like water
all around Jerusalem,
And there was no one to bury them.
4 We have become a reproach to our [d]neighbors,
A scorn and derision to those who are around us.
5 [e]How long, LORD?
Will You be angry forever?
Will Your [f]jealousy burn like fire?
6 [g]Pour out Your wrath on the nations that [h]do not know You,
And on the kingdoms that [i]do not call on Your name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob,
And laid waste his dwelling place.
8 [j]Oh, do not remember former iniquities against us!
Let Your tender mercies come speedily
to meet us,
For we have been brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
For the glory of Your name;
And deliver us, and provide atonement
for our sins,
[k]For Your name's sake!
10 [l]Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
Let there be known among the nations in our sight
The avenging of the blood of Your servants which has been shed.
11 Let [m]the groaning of the prisoner
come before You;
According to the greatness of Your power
Preserve those who are appointed to die;
12 And return to our neighbors
[n]sevenfold into their bosom [o]Their reproach with which they have reproached You, O Lord.
13 So [p]we, Your people and sheep of Your
pasture,
Will give You thanks forever;
[q]We will show forth Your praise to all generations.

Psalm 80

Prayer for Israel's Restoration

[b]You who lead Joseph [c]like a flock;

78:68 Mount Zion which He loved. The description of the sanctuary in verses 68–69 suggests that this psalm was written after Solomon's temple was built.
78:71 To shepherd Jacob His people. The shepherding attributed to David is an ideal; it will be fully realized in the Savior King, Jesus, the true Good Shepherd (Matt. 2:6; John 10:1–18).
79:1 Your holy temple. The destruction described in this verse may be what the Babylonians did in 586 B.C.
79:6 Pour out Your wrath. An imprecation or curse on one's enemies is often found in the psalms of lament (137:7–9). Vengeance is left to the Lord, but such a call for vengeance is based in part on the covenant provisions that God had established with Abraham. God had promised to curse those who cursed Abraham's descendants (Gen. 12:2–3).
79:12 return to our neighbors sevenfold . . . Their reproach. While the Israelites' cries for vengeance seem to be missing the concept of "love your neighbor," it is clear that they understand both the seriousness of the offense against God and also the fact that it is God, not they, who must avenge.
80:1 Shepherd of Israel. The concept of God as the Good Shepherd who cares for His people is clearly Revive us, and we will call upon Your name.

19 Restore us, O LORD God of hosts;
Cause Your face to shine,
And we shall be saved!

Psalm 81

An Appeal for Israel's Repentance

To the Chief Musician. [a]On an instrument of Gath.* A Psalm of Asaph.

1 Sing aloud to God our strength;
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob.
2 Raise a song and strike the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the lute.
3 Blow the trumpet at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our solemn feast day.
4 For [b]this is a statute for Israel,
A law of the God of Jacob.
5 This He established in Joseph as a testimony,
When He went throughout the land of Egypt,
[c]Where I heard a language I did not understand.
6 "I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.

shown by Jesus in John 10:1–18. dwell between the cherubim. In the Most Holy Place, the ark of the covenant was topped by the mercy seat on which were two cherubim, heavenly symbols of the throne of God (Ex. 25:22).

80:8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt. The picture of Israel as God's vine recurs other places in Scripture (see, for example, Is. 5:1–25). In the New Testament, Jesus used the same metaphor to describe the relationship of God with all who trust in Him (John 15:1–8).

81:3 the New Moon. The New Moon festival is mentioned in association with the Feast of Trumpets (Num. 29:6). Regulations for this festival can be found in the instructions to the Levites during the time of David (1 Chr. 23:31) and Solomon (2 Chr. 2:4). This psalm seems to be a basic instruction on the festival. The language and regulations are as solemn as any in the Torah.

81:7 I answered you. The Lord's appearance to Moses on Mount Sinai was God's great revelation of Himself (Ex. 19:20).

Psalm 82

A Plea for Justice

A Psalm of Asaph.

1 God [a]stands in the congregation of the mighty;
He judges among [b]the gods.*
2 How long will you judge unjustly,
And [c]show partiality to the wicked?
Selah
3 Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and [d]needy.
4 Deliver the poor and needy;
Free them from the hand of the wicked.

Psalm 83

Prayer to Frustrate Conspiracy Against Israel

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

1 Do[a] not keep silent, O God!
Do not hold Your peace,
And do not be still, O God!
2 For behold, [b]Your enemies make a tumult;
And those who hate You have lifted up their head.
3 They have taken crafty counsel against Your people,
And consulted together [c]against Your sheltered ones.
4 They have said, "Come, and [d]let us cut them off from being a nation,
That the name of Israel may be remembered no more."

5 For they have consulted together with one consent;
They form a confederacy against You:
6 [e]The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
Moab and the Hagrites;
7 Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;

* 82:1 Hebrew elohim, mighty ones; that is, the judges * 82:6 Hebrew elohim, mighty ones; that is, the judges

81:9 no foreign god. Asaph, the chief musician during David's reign, reviews the goodness of God and His marvelous deliverance of Israel from the land of bondage (Ex. 7–12). The plagues sent upon Egypt were meant to accomplish a purpose: first, to show to God's people the power of the true God; and second, to demonstrate to the Egyptians the total inability of their false gods. In spite of these dramatic object lessons against idolatry, Israel began worshiping pagan images almost as soon as they left Egypt.

82:6 You are gods. Jesus quoted this verse in His exchange with the religious authorities who wanted to stone Him for declaring Himself to be the Son of God (John 10:31–35). The word translated "gods" here is the same word translated such in verse 1. This word (elohim) is used to refer to the one God, to false gods, to angels, or to "mighty ones" (that is, the judges).

83:6 tents of Edom. The place names in this passage refer to nations on the borders of Israel and Judah. The Hagrites may have come from Arabia (1 Chr. 5:10,19–20).

Psalm 84

The Blessedness of Dwelling in the House of God

To the Chief Musician. [a]On an instrument of Gath.* A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

1 How [b]lovely is Your tabernacle,
O LORD of hosts!
2 [c]My soul longs, yes, even faints
For the courts of the LORD;
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

3 Even the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she may lay her young—
Even Your altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.
4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your [d]house;
They will still be praising You. Selah

5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
Whose heart is set on pilgrimage.
6 As they pass through the Valley [e]of Baca,
They make it a spring;
The rain also covers it with pools.
7 They go [f]from strength to strength;
Each one [g]appears before God in Zion.*

8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah
9 [h]O God, behold our shield,
And look upon the face of Your anointed.

10 For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
Than dwell in the tents of wickedness.
11 For the LORD God is [i]a sun and [j]shield;
The LORD will give grace and glory;
[k]No good thing will He withhold
From those who walk uprightly.

12 O LORD of hosts,
[l]Blessed is the man who trusts in You!

83:9 Sisera. God's victory over Sisera was accomplished through Deborah and Barak (Judg. 4–5). The same God who had battled Israel's enemies in the past would fight all those who might oppose His people in the future.
83:16 That they may seek Your name. Asaph's first call for God to shame Israel's enemies is redemptive—that the nations might hear, feel shame, repent, and seek the Lord. Yet, if they continued in their wicked path, they would be further confounded and would one day face God in judgment.
84:1 How lovely is Your tabernacle. This psalm celebrates God's presence in Jerusalem, the city where His temple was built. Today it is not necessary to go to Jerusalem to draw near to God, for God is near to those who trust in His Son (Matt. 28:18–20).
84:6 the Valley of Baca. The Valley of Baca, or "Valley of Weeping," refers to the various difficulties that one might face on a pilgrimage. With God, even times of hardship and sorrow can become times of great joy and blessing.
84:9 Your anointed. The two phrases "our shield" and "Your anointed" both point to the same person, the king of Israel (89:3–4). These anointed kings foreshadowed the coming Messiah—the Anointed One.
84:11 No good thing will He withhold. When we go through times of darkness and difficulty, it sometimes seems that God is not giving us what we need. However, God is far wiser than we can ever be, and He never withholds what is good from us. When it seems that He does, we must assume that what we want would not actually be a good thing for us to have.

Psalm 85

Prayer that the LORD Will Restore Favor to the Land

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm [a]of the sons of Korah.

1 LORD, You have been favorable to Your land;
You have [b]brought back the captivity of Jacob.
2 You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people;
You have covered all their sin. Selah
3 You have taken away all Your wrath;
You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.

4 [c]Restore us, O God of our salvation,
And cause Your anger toward us to cease.
5 [d]Will You be angry with us forever?
Will You prolong Your anger to all generations?
6 Will You not [e]revive us again,
That Your people may rejoice in You?
7 Show us Your mercy, LORD,
And grant us Your salvation.

8 I will hear what God the LORD will speak,
For He will speak peace
To His people and to His saints;
But let them not turn back to folly.
9 Surely [f]His salvation is near to those who fear Him,
[g]That glory may dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth have met together;
[h]Righteousness and peace have kissed.
11 Truth shall spring out of the earth,
And righteousness shall look down from heaven.
12 [i]Yes, the LORD will give what is good;
And our land will yield its increase.
13 Righteousness will go before Him,
And shall make His footsteps our pathway.

Psalm 86

Prayer for Mercy, with Meditation on the Excellencies of the LORD

A Prayer of David.

1 Bow down Your ear, O LORD, hear me;
For I am poor and needy.
2 Preserve my life, for I am holy;
You are my God;
Save Your servant who trusts in You!
3 Be merciful to me, O Lord,
For I cry to You all day long.
4 Rejoice the soul of Your servant,
[a]For to You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
5 For [b]You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You.

6 Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer;
And attend to the voice of my supplications.
7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
For You will answer me.

8 [c]Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
Nor are there any works like Your works.
9 All nations whom You have made
Shall come and worship before You, O Lord,
And shall glorify Your name.
10 For You are great, and [d]do wondrous things;
[e]You alone are God.

11 [f]Teach me Your way, O LORD;
I will walk in Your truth;
Unite my heart to fear Your name.
12 I will praise You, O Lord my God, with all my heart,
And I will glorify Your name forevermore.
13 For great is Your mercy toward me,
And You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

85:1 You have brought back the captivity. The setting for this psalm appears to be the restoration of the people of God following a great catastrophe—perhaps the Babylonian captivity.

85:2–3 You have forgiven. In all its forms, from hideous to petty, sin alienates people from God and is deserving of His punishment. The wonderful message of the Bible is that God will forgive even the most despicable sinner if that sinner repents and turns from wickedness. God's forgiveness is not just an arbitrary overlooking of our sin, but a judicial act whereby He applies the penalty paid by His son to our account. Our sins are thus covered by Jesus' blood, and God considers us righteous.

85:10 Mercy and truth have met together. Kindness without truth is hypocrisy, while truth without love and mercy is cruel. Only when the two meet can we experience wholeness and healing.

86:1 Bow down Your ear. David's dramatic phrase captures the grandeur of God on high and his own humble position on the earth below.

86:8 Among the gods. The ancient nations took their sense of identity in part from their ties to their supposed gods. When the nations found out that their "gods" did not exist, they would have to acknowledge that the Lord alone is God. Here David envisions other nations worshiping the true God and thus anticipates the missionary thrust of the New Testament (Ps. 117:1; Matt. 28:18–20).

86:13 You have delivered my soul. The cold hand of death knocks at everyone's door, whether we dwell in a luxury condominium with security guards or a

Psalm 87

The Glories of the City of God

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

1 His foundation is in the holy mountains.
2 [a]The LORD loves the gates of Zion
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3 [b]Glorious things are spoken of you,
O city of God! Selah
4 "I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to those who know Me;
Behold, O Philistia and Tyre, with Ethiopia:
'This one was born there.'"
5 And of Zion it will be said,
"This one and that one were born in her;
And the Most High Himself shall establish her."
6 The LORD will record,
When He [c]registers the peoples:
"This one was born there." Selah
7 Both the singers and the players on instruments say,
"All my springs are in you."

Psalm 88

A Prayer for Help in Despondency

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the Chief Musician.
Set to "Mahalath Leannoth."
A Contemplation* of [a]Heman the Ezrahite.

1 O LORD, [b]God of my salvation,
I have cried out day and night before You.
2 Let my prayer come before You;
Incline Your ear to my cry.
3 For my soul is full of troubles,
And my life [c]draws near to the grave.
4 I am counted with those who [d]go down to the pit;
[e]I am like a man who has no strength,
5 Adrift among the dead,
Like the slain who lie in the grave,
Whom You remember no more,
And who are cut off from Your hand.
6 You have laid me in the lowest pit,
In darkness, in the depths.
7 Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
And You have afflicted me with all [f]Your waves. Selah
8 [g]You have put away my acquaintances far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
[h]I am shut up, and I cannot get out;
9 My eye wastes away because of affliction.

tenement surrounded by urban blight. The good news, however, is that the Lord has not left us at the mercy of death, but has provided for the deliverance of our souls from the depths of the grave. We can face the future confidently, knowing that, when our bodies die, our spirits will be with Christ, and that one day we shall also experience the resurrection of the body by His mighty power (Phil. 3:20–21).

87:1 His foundation. God Himself established Zion (or Jerusalem) as the center of true worship. He ordained Solomon to build a temple there so that He could live among the Israelites (1 Kin. 6:13). Zion is holy because of God's declaration (1 Kin. 11:13), His promise, the worship given Him there (1 Kin. 8:14–66), the future work of the Savior there (Matt. 21:4–11), and the future rule of the King there (Rev. 21).

87:4 Rahab. Rahab is a symbolic name for Egypt (Is. 30:7) that has negative connotations, alluding to the arrogance of the Egyptians. Babylon. Babylon was the proverbial seat of apostasy and idolatry (Gen. 10:10).

87:5 born in her. Despite their foreign heritage, the people who worshiped God were considered to have been born in Zion. It appears that this is referring to a spiritual birth, foreshadowing Jesus' teaching about being born again (John 3:1–8).

88:title Heman. Heman is identified in 1 Kings 4:31 as a gifted wise man, and in 1 Chronicles 15:16–19 as one of the musically gifted Levites who ministered in worship during the time of David.

88:1 God of my salvation. Even in the midst of despair, Heman confesses his faith in God's saving goodness.

88:3 grave. This is also translated "Sheol," which is the Hebrew word for "hell." It is often linked with the term "pit" as a symbol of the end of earthly existence. The Old Testament has very little to say about what happens to a soul after death, but it is clear that to go to Sheol is the end of all we know.

And in the morning my prayer comes before You.
14 LORD, why do You cast off my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?

I am distraught.

Your terrors have cut me off.

Psalm 89

Remembering the Covenant with David, and Sorrow for Lost Blessings

A Contemplation* of [a]Ethan the Ezrahite.

1 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever;
With my mouth will I make known Your faithfulness to all generations.
2 For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever;
[b]Your faithfulness You shall establish in the very heavens."
3 "I[c] have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have [d]sworn to My servant David:
4 'Your seed I will establish forever,
And build up your throne [e]to all generations.'"
Selah
5 And [f]the heavens will praise Your wonders, O LORD;
Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the saints.
6 [g]For who in the heavens can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened to the LORD?
7 [h]God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be held in reverence by all those around Him.
8 O LORD God of hosts,
Who is mighty like You, O LORD?
Your faithfulness also surrounds You.
9 [i]You rule the raging of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them.
10 [j]You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one who is slain;
You have scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
11 [k]The heavens are Yours, the earth also is Yours;
The world and all its fullness, You have founded them.
12 The north and the south, You have created them;
[l]Tabor and [m]Hermon rejoice in Your name.
13 You have a mighty arm;
Strong is Your hand, and high is Your right hand.
14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
Mercy and truth go before Your face.
15 Blessed are the people who know the [n]joyful sound!
They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your countenance.
16 In Your name they rejoice all day long,
And in Your righteousness they are exalted.
17 For You are the glory of their strength,
And in Your favor our horn is [o]exalted.
18 For our shield belongs to the LORD,
And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

88:11 destruction. This word is also translated "Abaddon."
89:1 the mercies of the LORD. The lovingkindness of the Lord in this psalm centers on the covenant that He made with David, promising him an eternal dynasty (2 Sam. 7).
89:6 sons of the mighty. This phrase may mean "sons of gods" or "heavenly beings." The reference could be to other supposed gods or to angels, members of the heavenly court (Job 1:6).
89:10 Rahab. Rahab is a title for Egypt (87:4).
89:13 a mighty arm. God is the great Deliverer; He brandished His arm and hand in delivering His people from Egypt (Ex. 6:6; 15:6).
89:18 the Holy One of Israel. This is the title that Isaiah used to describe God, following his experience of God's holiness in his memorable vision of God's throne (Is. 6:1–5).

I have exalted one [p]chosen from the people.
20 [q]I have found My servant David;
With My holy oil I have anointed him,
21 [r]With whom My hand shall be

Also My arm shall strengthen him.
22 The enemy shall not outwit him,
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
23 I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague those who hate him.
24 "But My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him,
And in My name his horn shall be exalted.
25 Also I will [s]set his hand over the sea,

27 Also I will make him [v]My firstborn,
[w]The highest of the kings of the earth.

And My covenant shall stand firm

29 His seed also I will make to endure

[y]And his throne [z]as the days of heaven.

And do not walk in My judgments,

And do not keep My commandments,

with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
33 [c]Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him,
Nor allow My faithfulness to fail.
34 My covenant I will not break,

I will not lie to David:

You have been furious with Your 39 You have renounced the covenant of Your servant;

casting it to the ground.
40 You have broken down all his hedges;
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
41 All who pass by the way [k]plunder him;
He is a reproach to his neighbors.
42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries;
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
43 You have also turned back the edge of
his sword,
And have not sustained him in the battle.
44 You have made his glory cease,
And cast his throne down to the ground.
45 The days of his youth You have shortened;
You have covered him with shame.
Selah

46 How long, LORD?
Will You hide Yourself forever?
Will Your wrath burn like fire?
47 Remember how short my time [l]is;
For what [m]futility have You created all the children of men?
48 What man can live and not see [n]death?
Can he deliver his life from the power of the grave? Selah

49 Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses,
Which You [o]swore to David [p]in Your truth?
50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of Your servants—
[q]How I bear in my bosom the reproach
of all the many peoples, 51 [r]With which Your enemies have
reproached, O LORD,
With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.
52 [s]Blessed be the LORD forevermore!
Amen and Amen.

* 89:19 Following many Hebrew manuscripts; Masoretic Text, Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read holy ones.

89:29 seed . . . throne. These words echo the covenant God made with David (2 Sam. 7:8–17).

89:34 My covenant I will not break. God is determined to complete, fulfill, and accomplish His grand plan for David's dynasty (2 Sam. 7:1–24).

89:49–51 Which You swore to David. The writer complains that God has not been keeping His promises to David (2 Sam. 7:1–24). As a result, His people are experiencing harsh treatment from their enemies. There is no resolution to this psalm; it ends with the people, the king, and the psalmist in distress. Yet the inclusion of this psalm among the praises of Israel suggests that God did answer this prayer of His people, just as He did in the case of Psalm 60.

BOOK FOUR

Psalms 90–106

Psalm 90

The Eternity of God, and Man's Frailty

A Prayer [a]of Moses the man of God.

1 Lord, [b]You have been our dwelling place* in all generations.
2 [c]Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever You had formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting,
You are God.

3 You turn man to destruction,
And say, [d]"Return, O children of men."
4 [e]For a thousand years in Your sight
Are like yesterday when it is past,
And like a watch in the night.
5 You carry them away like a flood;
[f]They are like a sleep.
In the morning [g]they are like grass which grows up:
6 In the morning it flourishes and grows up;
In the evening it is cut down and withers.

7 For we have been consumed by Your
anger,
And by Your wrath we are terrified.
8 [h]You have set our iniquities before
You,
Our [i]secret sins in the light of Your countenance.
9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath;
We finish our years like a sigh.
10 The days of our lives are seventy years;
And if by reason of strength they are
eighty years,
Yet their boast is only labor and sorrow;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
For as the fear of You, so is Your wrath.
12 [j]So teach us to number our days,
That we may gain a heart of wisdom.

13 Return, O LORD!
How long?
And [k]have compassion on Your
servants.
14 Oh, satisfy us early with Your mercy, [l]That we may rejoice and be glad all our days!
15 Make us glad according to the days in which You have afflicted us,
The years in which we have seen evil.
16 Let [m]Your work appear to Your
servants,
And Your glory to their children.
17 [n]And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us,
And [o]establish the work of our hands
for us;
Yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

Safety of Abiding in the Presence of God

1 He [a]who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide [b]under the shadow of the Almighty.

* 90:1 Septuagint, Targum, and Vulgate read refuge.

90:1 Lord. This is not God's personal name (Ex. 3:14–15), but a Hebrew word celebrating His majestic authority.
90:4 a thousand years . . . like yesterday. A thousand years may seem long at the time, but in comparison with God's eternal existence, they are nothing.
90:7 Your anger. The unbelieving Israelites in the wilderness experienced God's anger (Num. 13–14). An entire generation spent their lives wandering because of their unbelief and rebellion.
90:10 seventy years . . . eighty years. The point here is not to set a maximum, but to present a context for the brevity of human life. No matter how long people live, death is inevitable.
90:12 Counting Our Days—This prayer of Moses, probably written near the end of his life, gives us some excellent insight into living. We need to seek wisdom, be sober-minded and diligent, and seek to use our time wisely, living in light of the Lord's commands.
- Life is often painful, sometimes very painful, but survivable.
- We perpetually fall short of God's plan for us.
- We are loved by an all-powerful yet merciful God who knows all about us.
- The only true satisfaction is in knowing and obeying God.
- Serve God to your fullest because your time here on earth is short.

90:17 establish the work of our hands. We need to have a sense of lasting meaning in our lives, something that will continue to the next generation.
91:1 in the secret place. The person who trusts in God is the one who lives close to Him. Most High. This title emphasizes God's majesty and is parallel to the term "Almighty." Together, the terms "Most High" and "Almighty" speak of God as a mountain-like majesty.

90:title [a] Deut. 33:1 90:1 [b] [Ezek. 11:16] 90:2 [c] [Prov. 8:25, 26] 90:3 [d] Gen. 3:19 90:4 [e] 2 Pet. 3:8 90:5 [f] Ps. 73:20 [g] Is. 40:6 90:8 [h] Ps. 50:21 [i] Ps. 19:12 90:12 [j] Ps. 39:4 90:13 [k] Deut. 32:36 90:14 [l] Ps. 85:6 90:16 [m] Hab. 3:2 90:17 [n] Ps. 27:4 [o] Is. 26:12 91:1 [a] Ps. 27:5; 31:20; 32:7 [b] Ps. 17:8

2 [c]I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust."

3 Surely [d]He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler*
And from the perilous pestilence.
4 [e]He shall cover you with His feathers,
And under His wings you shall take refuge;
His truth shall be your shield and buckler.
5 [f]You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that flies by day,
6 Nor of the pestilence that walks in
darkness,
Nor of the destruction that lays waste
at noonday.

7 A thousand may fall at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand;
But it shall not come near you.
8 Only [g]with your eyes shall you look,
And see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because you have made the LORD, who is [h]my refuge,
Even the Most High, [i]your dwelling
place,
10 [j]No evil shall befall you, Nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;
11 [k]For He shall give His angels charge
over you,
To keep you in all your ways.
12 In their hands they shall bear you up,
[l]Lest you dash your foot against a stone.
13 You shall tread upon the lion and the cobra,
The young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.

14 "Because he has set his love upon Me,
therefore I will deliver him;
I will set him on high, because he has [m]known My name.
15 He shall [n]call upon Me, and I will answer him;
I will be [o]with him in trouble;
I will deliver him and honor him.
16 With long life I will satisfy him,
And show him My salvation."

Psalm 92

Praise to the LORD for His Love and Faithfulness

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

1 It is [a]good to give thanks to the LORD,
And to sing praises to Your name,
O Most High;
2 To [b]declare Your lovingkindness in the morning,
And Your faithfulness every night,
3 [c]On an instrument of ten strings,
On the lute,
And on the harp,
With harmonious sound.
4 For You, LORD, have made me glad through Your work;
I will triumph in the works of Your hands.

5 [d]O LORD, how great are Your works!
[e]Your thoughts are very deep.
6 [f]A senseless man does not know,
Nor does a fool understand this.
7 When [g]the wicked spring up like grass,
And when all the workers of iniquity
flourish,
It is that they may be destroyed
forever.

8 [h]But You, LORD, are on high forevermore.
9 For behold, Your enemies, O LORD,
For behold, Your enemies shall perish;
All the workers of iniquity shall [i]be scattered.

10 But [j]my horn You have exalted like a wild ox;
I have been [k]anointed with fresh oil.
11 [l]My eye also has seen my desire on my
enemies;
My ears hear my desire on the wicked
Who rise up against me.

* 91:3 That is, one who catches birds in a trap or snare

91:4 feathers . . . wings. Just as chicks take refuge under the wings of the mother hen, so we can take refuge in God's enveloping care.
91:7 A thousand may fall at your side. The Israelites in Egypt were spared the danger that touched their neighbors (Ex. 9:26; 10:23; 11:7); similarly, believers in the Lord are protected from Satan's attacks.
91:11 give His angels charge over you. These words were used by Satan to tempt the Savior (Matt. 4:5–6).
91:13 lion and the cobra. The animal and snake imagery in this verse pictures all kinds of evil that might threaten believers.
91:14 he has set his love upon Me. The word used here is not the usual Hebrew word for love. It has the idea of "holding close to," or even "hugging tightly in love" (Deut. 7:8; 10:15).
92:6 A senseless man . . . a fool. A foolish or senseless person is not someone with limited intelligence, but rather a person who is spiritually obtuse—someone who ignores God and refuses to accept responsibility.
92:10 my horn You have exalted. This is a figure of speech for the psalmist's eventual triumph, the celebration of the psalmist's strength.

12 [m]The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,
He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
13 Those who are planted in the house of
the LORD
Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
14 They shall still bear fruit in old age;
They shall be fresh and flourishing,
15 To declare that the LORD is upright;
[n]He is my rock, and [o]there is no unrighteousness in Him.

Psalm 93

The Eternal Reign of the LORD

1 The [a]LORD reigns, He is clothed with majesty;
The LORD is clothed,
[b]He has girded Himself with strength.
Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be moved.
2 [c]Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.
4 [d]The LORD on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,
Than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Your testimonies are very sure;
Holiness adorns Your house,
O LORD, forever.

Psalm 94

God the Refuge of the Righteous

1 O LORD God, [a]to whom vengeance belongs—
O God, to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth!
2 Rise up, O [b]Judge of the earth;
Render punishment to the proud.
3 LORD, [c]how long will the wicked,
How long will the wicked triumph?

4 They [d]utter speech, and speak insolent
things;
All the workers of iniquity boast in themselves.
5 They break in pieces Your people,
O LORD,
And afflict Your heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.
7 [e]Yet they say, "The LORD does not see,
Nor does the God of Jacob
understand."

8 Understand, you senseless among the
people;
And you fools, when will you be wise?
9 [f]He who planted the ear, shall He not hear?
He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
10 He who instructs the nations, shall He not correct,
He who teaches man knowledge?
11 The LORD [g]knows the thoughts of man,
That they are futile.

12 Blessed is the man whom You
[h]instruct, O LORD,
And teach out of Your law, 13 That You may give him rest from the days of adversity,
Until the pit is dug for the wicked.
14 For the LORD will not cast off His
people,
Nor will He forsake His inheritance.
15 But judgment will return to
righteousness,
And all the upright in heart will follow it.

16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

92:12 flourish like a palm tree. This promise does not refer to success as the world counts it—the righteous are not often wealthy or powerful—but rather to spiritual success. Those who are committed to following God's ways will be so alive spiritually that even in old age they will appear young and vibrant.

93:1 is clothed with majesty. This language describes the victor of one-on-one combat. God is dressed in the garments of victory.

93:4 The LORD on high is mightier. The Creator King is infinite in power; no force in the universe competes with Him.

94:2 Judge of the earth. Even when the poets call out for divine vengeance, they recognize that God decides when to exercise His wrath and judgment. God's law clearly states that vengeance belongs to Him (Deut. 32:35).

94:6 slay the widow and the stranger. The Israelites had been commanded to comfort widows and orphans and to welcome strangers, as long as those strangers obeyed the law of God (Ex. 22:21–22).

94:12 Blessed is the man whom You instruct. The word "blessed" means "happy." Instruction, even if accompanied by chastening, is always for our ultimate good, and thus shows the depth of God's love for us (Heb. 12:7–11).

94:13 the pit is dug for the wicked. "Pit" is one of the words used as a synonym for Sheol (16:10). Digging the "pit" is a way of describing the preparations for the final judgment of the wicked (Rev. 20:11–15).

94:14 the LORD will not cast off His people. God will not forget His people any more than He will forget or deny Himself (2 Tim. 2:13).

92:12 [m] Ps. 52:8 92:15 [n] [Deut. 32:4] [o] [Rom. 9:14] 93:1 [a] Ps. 96:10 [b] Ps. 65:6 93:2 [c] Ps. 45:6 93:4 [d] Ps. 65:7 94:1 [a] [Nah. 1:2] 94:2 [b] [Gen. 18:25] 94:3 [c] [Job 20:5] 94:4 [d] Ps. 31:18 94:7 [e] Ps. 10:11 94:9 [f] [Ex. 4:11] 94:11 [g] 1 Cor. 3:20 94:12 [h] [Heb. 12:5, 6]

17 Unless the LORD had been my help,
My soul would soon have settled in silence.
18 If I say, "My foot slips,"
Your mercy, O LORD, will hold me up.
19 In the multitude of my anxieties within me,
Your comforts delight my soul.
20 Shall [i]the throne of iniquity, which devises evil by law,
Have fellowship with You?
21 They gather together against the life of the righteous,
And condemn [j]innocent blood.
22 But the LORD has been my defense,
And my God the rock of my refuge.
23 He has brought on them their own iniquity,
And shall cut them off in their own wickedness;
The LORD our God shall cut them off.

Psalm 95

A Call to Worship and Obedience

1 Oh come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.
2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving;
Let us shout joyfully to Him with [a]psalms.
3 For [b]the LORD is the great God,
And the great King above all gods.
4 In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
The heights of the hills are His also.
5 [c]The sea is His, for He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land.
6 Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let [d]us kneel before the LORD our Maker.
7 For He is our God,
And [e]we are the people of His pasture,
And the sheep of His hand.

[f]Today, if you will hear His voice:
8 "Do not harden your hearts, as in the rebellion,*
[g]As in the day of trial* in the wilderness,
9 When [h]your fathers tested Me;
They tried Me, though they [i]saw My work.
10 [j]For forty years I was grieved with that generation,
And said, 'It is a people who go astray in their hearts,
And they do not know My ways.'
11 So [k]I swore in My wrath,
'They shall not enter My rest.'"

Psalm 96

A Song of Praise to God Coming in Judgment

1 Oh, [a]sing to the LORD a new song!
Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
2 Sing to the LORD, bless His name;
Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.
3 Declare His glory among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
4 For [b]the LORD is great and [c]greatly to be praised;
[d]He is to be feared above all gods.
5 For [e]all the gods of the peoples are idols,
[f]But the LORD made the heavens.
6 Honor and majesty are before Him;
Strength and [g]beauty are in His sanctuary.
7 [h]Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples,
Give to the LORD glory and strength.

* 95:8 Or Meribah • Or Massah

94:18 Your mercy. God's "mercy" or "lovingkindness" refers to His loyal, covenant love.
95:1–7 Let us shout joyfully. Along with others (Ps. 96–100), this song was probably sung at the dedication of the temple after it was restored by Ezra and Nehemiah. It was a time of great celebration. The hearts of the people were filled with joy as they sang and shouted to God, whom they declared to be the great King above all gods.
95:6 worship . . . bow down . . . kneel. These words amplify each other and call for a reflective, humble approach to God. Worship is joyful and can be done with abandon (vv. 1–5); but at other times worship may be quiet reverence of the Almighty (Ps. 134).
95:7–11 For He is our God. This whole section is quoted in Hebrews 3:7–11, with a notable introduction: "Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says . . ." This phrase reminds us that the words of the Psalms, which are the response of the worshiping Israelite community, are also the oracles of God.
95:8 rebellion. Also translated "Meribah," this word would remind the Israelites of a time when they had doubted the Lord's provision (Ex. 17:7; Num. 20:13).
96:3 all peoples. This is a bold declaration that one day the message of God's mercy will be known the world over, the fulfillment of God's covenant promise to Abraham that through his descendants all nations of the earth would be blessed (Gen. 12:1–3).
96:7 O families of the peoples. The allusion to the Abrahamic covenant continues (vv. 2–3; Gen. 12:1–3).

94:20 [i] Amos 6:3 94:21 [j] [Ex. 23:7] 95:2 [a] James 5:13 95:3 [b] [Ps. 96:4] 95:5 [c] Gen. 1:9, 10 95:6 [d] [Phil. 2:10] 95:7 [e] Ps. 79:13 [f] Heb. 3:7–11, 15; 4:7 95:8 [g] Ex. 17:2–7 95:9 [h] Ps. 78:18 [i] Num. 14:22 95:10 [j] Heb. 3:10, 17 95:11 [k] Heb. 4:3, 5 96:1 [a] 1 Chr. 16:23–33 96:4 [b] Ps. 145:3 [c] Ps. 18:3 [d] Ps. 95:3 96:5 [e] [Jer. 10:11] [f] Is. 42:5 96:6 [g] Ps. 29:2 96:7 [h] Ps. 29:1, 2

8 Give to the LORD the glory due His name;
Bring an offering, and come into His courts.
9 Oh, worship the LORD [i]in the beauty of holiness!
Tremble before Him, all the earth.
10 Say among the nations, [j]"The LORD reigns;
The world also is firmly established,
It shall not be moved;
[k]He shall judge the peoples righteously."
11 [l]Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
[m]Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;
12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.
Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice
13 before the LORD.
For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth.
[n]He shall judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with His truth.

Psalm 97

A Song of Praise to the Sovereign LORD

1 The LORD [a]reigns;
Let the earth rejoice;
Let the multitude of isles be glad!
2 [b]Clouds and darkness surround Him;
[c]Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
3 [d]A fire goes before Him,
And burns up His enemies round about.
4 [e]His lightnings light the world;
The earth sees and trembles.
5 [f]The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6 [g]The heavens declare His righteousness,
And all the peoples see His glory.
7 [h]Let all be put to shame who serve carved images,
Who boast of idols.
[i]Worship Him, all you gods.
8 Zion hears and is glad,
And the daughters of Judah rejoice
Because of Your judgments, O LORD.
9 For You, LORD, are [j]most high above all the earth;
[k]You are exalted far above all gods.
10 You who love the LORD, [l]hate evil!
[m]He preserves the souls of His saints;
[n]He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
11 [o]Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
12 [p]Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,
[q]And give thanks at the remembrance of His holy name.*

Psalm 98

A Song of Praise to the LORD for His Salvation and Judgment

A Psalm.

1 Oh, [a]sing to the LORD a new song!
For He has [b]done marvelous things;
His right hand and His holy arm have gained Him the victory.
2 [c]The LORD has made known His salvation;
[d]His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.

* 97:12 Or His holiness

96:10 The LORD reigns. This key phrase was the countercultural cry of ancient Israelites in a world that believed that gods could rise and fall. In contrast, the living God remains Ruler for all eternity.
96:11–13 Let the heavens rejoice . . . for He is coming. All creation groans under the curse, but when Christ returns, "the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God" (Rom. 8:21).
97:2 Clouds and darkness. These words may be rephrased as "impenetrable clouds," an indicator of the final judgment and God's awesome power (Joel 2:2; Zeph. 1:15).
97:7 Worship Him, all you gods. One day, people will be forced to acknowledge that God is the only one worthy of worship, as they see that the very things they devoted themselves to in rejection of God must bow down to the Creator as Lord.
97:10 hate. The righteousness of God evokes a response either of delight or of shame because of sin (Is. 6:5). The subjects of the kingdom, the lovers of God, follow Him by loving what He loves and hating what He hates. "The fear of the LORD is to hate evil" (Prov. 8:13). Sin is portrayed in Scripture as an active and powerful force in unrelenting pursuit of its victims (Gen. 4:7; 1 Pet. 5:8), and the believer is called to total war against it.
98:1 His right hand. The "right hand" of the Lord is a way of referring to His great salvation of Israel from Egypt (Ex. 15:6; Deut. 4:34). The phrase is like a slogan for the Lord's redemption.
98:2 revealed in the sight of the nations. God's salvation was designed to be a witness to the nations (Deut. 4:6).

3 He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the house of Israel;
[e]All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Shout joyfully to the LORD, all the
earth;
Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing
praises.
5 Sing to the LORD with the harp,
With the harp and the sound of a
psalm,
6 With trumpets and the sound of a horn;
Shout joyfully before the LORD, the King.
7 Let the sea roar, and all its fullness,
The world and those who dwell in it;
8 Let the rivers clap their hands;
Let the hills be joyful together
9 before the LORD.
[f]For He is coming to judge the earth.
With righteousness He shall judge the
world,
And the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

Praise to the LORD for His Holiness

1 The LORD reigns;
Let the peoples tremble!
[a]He dwells between the cherubim;
Let the earth be moved!
2 The LORD is great in Zion,
And He is high above all the peoples.
3 Let them praise Your great and awesome name—
He is holy.
4 The King's strength also loves justice;
You have established equity;
You have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
5 Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His footstool—
He is holy.
6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests,
And Samuel was among those who [b]called upon His name;
They called upon the LORD, and He answered them.
7 He spoke to them in the cloudy pillar;
They kept His testimonies and the ordinance He gave them.
8 You answered them, O LORD our God;
You were to them God-Who-Forgives, Though You took vengeance on their deeds.
9 Exalt the LORD our God,
And worship at His holy hill;
For the LORD our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A Song of Praise for the LORD's Faithfulness to His People

[a]A Psalm of Thanksgiving.

1 Make [b]a joyful shout to the LORD, all you lands!
2 Serve the LORD with gladness; Come before His presence with singing.
3 Know that the LORD, He is God; [c]It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;*
[d]We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.
4 [e]Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise.
Be thankful to Him, and bless His
name.
5 For the LORD is good;
[f]His mercy is everlasting,
And His truth endures to all
generations.

* 100:3 Following Kethib, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Qere, many Hebrew manuscripts, and Targum read we are His.

98:9 For He is coming. Creation rejoices at the coming of the Lord because when He establishes His kingdom, the curse will be lifted, and all creation will be freed from its slavery to corruption (Rom. 8:21–22).
99:1 cherubim. Cherubim are the angels most closely related to the glory of God. Two gold cherubim graced the mercy seat of the ark of the covenant (Ex. 25:18–22).
99:3 name . . . He is holy. To be holy is to be "distinct from," "separated," "set apart." This is the principal Hebrew word used to describe the transcendence of God (113:4–6).
99:5 His footstool. The footstool of the Lord is sometimes said to be the earth (Is. 66:1); but more specifically, Zion is the Lord's footstool (132:7; Is. 60:13). When the Israelites came to the temple in Jerusalem to worship, they pictured themselves as being at the feet of the Creator.
100:1 Make a joyful shout. This command is addressed not just to Israel but to all the earth. The Israelites were to be a people who would attract the nations to worship God.
100:3 the LORD, He is God. These words reflect the great confession of faith in Deuteronomy 6:4–9.
100:5 the LORD is good. The shout of the goodness of God in this verse is buttressed by an appeal to His lovingkindness and faithfulness. The Hebrew root for the word for "truth" comes from the word meaning "to be established" or "to be confirmed." From this word also comes the word "amen," meaning "surely" or "truly." God's goodness is based on His loyal love and His truth.

Psalm 101

Promised Faithfulness to the LORD

A Psalm of David.

1 I will sing of mercy and justice;
To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.
2 I will behave wisely in a perfect way.
Oh, when will You come to me?
I will [a]walk within my house with a perfect heart.
3 I will set nothing wicked before my eyes;
[b]I hate the work of those [c]who fall away;
It shall not cling to me.
4 A perverse heart shall depart from me;
I will not [d]know wickedness.
5 Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
Him I will destroy;
[e]The one who has a haughty look and a proud heart,
Him I will not endure.
6 My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me;
He who walks in a perfect way,
He shall serve me.
7 He who works deceit shall not dwell within my house;
He who tells lies shall not continue in my presence.
8 [f]Early I will destroy all the wicked of the land,
That I may cut off all the evildoers [g]from the city of the LORD.

Psalm 102

The LORD's Eternal Love

A Prayer of the afflicted, [a]when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

1 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
And let my cry come to You.
2 [b]Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my trouble;
Incline Your ear to me;
In the day that I call, answer me speedily.
3 For my days are [c]consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned like a hearth.
4 My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
So that I forget to eat my bread.
5 Because of the sound of my groaning
My bones cling to my skin.
6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I am like an owl of the desert.
7 I lie awake,
And am like a sparrow alone on the housetop.
8 My enemies reproach me all day long;
Those who deride me swear an oath against me.
9 For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mingled my drink with weeping,
10 Because of Your indignation and Your wrath;
For You have lifted me up and cast me away.
11 My days are like a shadow that lengthens,
And I wither away like grass.
12 But You, O LORD, shall endure forever,
And the remembrance of Your name to all generations.
13 You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
For the time to favor her,
Yes, the set time, has come.
14 For Your servants take pleasure in her stones,
And show favor to her dust.
15 So the nations shall [d]fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth Your glory.
16 For the LORD shall build up Zion;
[e]He shall appear in His glory.
17 [f]He shall regard the prayer of the destitute,
And shall not despise their prayer.
18 This will be [g]written for the generation to come,
That [h]a people yet to be created may praise the LORD.
19 For He [i]looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
From heaven the LORD viewed the earth,
20 [j]To hear the groaning of the prisoner,
To release those appointed to death,

101:1 mercy and justice. God's loyal love is coupled with justice. He does not allow sin to go unnoticed or unpunished, either in His children or in those who oppress them.
101:4 not know wickedness. The verb "to know" here has the idea of experience or intimate relationship with something or someone.
101:6 My eyes shall be on the faithful. David made a covenant with his eyes (Job 31:1) to observe the righteous and sustain them in their walk.
102:12 endure forever. Our days may be just a passing shadow, but God is King forever. He is gracious, loves His people, and promises to favor them.
102:15 the nations shall fear. A time will come when the Lord will rule over all the earth.

And His praise in Jerusalem,
22 [l]When the peoples are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

23 He weakened my strength in the way;
He [m]shortened my days.
24 [n]I said, "O my God,
Do not take me away in the midst of my days;
[o]Your years are throughout all generations.
25 [p]Of old You laid the foundation of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of Your hands.
26 [q]They will perish, but You will endure;
Yes, they will all grow old like a garment;
Like a cloak You will change them,
And they will be changed.
27 But [r]You are the same,
And Your years will have no end.
28 [s]The children of Your servants will continue,
And their descendants will be established before You."

Psalm 103

Praise for the LORD's Mercies

A Psalm of David.

1 Bless [a]the LORD, O my soul;
And all that is within me, bless His holy name!
2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all His benefits:
3 [b]Who forgives all your iniquities,
Who [c]heals all your diseases,
4 Who redeems your life from destruction,
[d]Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies,
5 Who satisfies your mouth with good things,
So that [e]your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

6 The LORD executes righteousness
And justice for all who are oppressed.
7 [f]He made known His ways to Moses,
His acts to the children of Israel.
8 [g]The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.
9 [h]He will not always strive with us,
Nor will He keep His anger forever.
10 [i]He has not dealt with us according to our sins,
Nor punished us according to our iniquities.

11 For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far has He [j]removed our transgressions from us.
13 [k]As a father pities his children,
So the LORD pities those who fear Him.
14 For He knows our frame;
He remembers that we are dust.

15 As for man, [l]his days are like grass;
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
16 [m]For the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
And [n]its place remembers it no more.*
17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting
On those who fear Him,
And His righteousness to children's children,
18 [o]To such as keep His covenant,
And to those who remember His commandments to do them.

19 The LORD has established His throne in heaven,
And [p]His kingdom rules over all.

* 103:16 Compare Job 7:10

102:25 Of old. God is eternal and His works are from ancient times. The writer of the Book of Hebrews applies these words of creation and eternality to the Son (vv. 25–27; Heb. 1:10–12).
103:1 Bless the LORD. To bless the Lord is to remember that He is the source of all our blessings. The psalmist blesses the Lord with his entire being (146:2).
103:3 heals all your diseases. This cannot be seen as a promise that the godly will never suffer from disease. Many believers have suffered and died of illnesses, despite repeated prayers for healing. Even though He does not always choose to heal, God is the source of all healing. This verse could also be seen as a parallel construction, coupling pardon from iniquity with healing from the disease of sin.
103:8 merciful and gracious. This is a basic description of God in the Old Testament (86:15; Ex. 34:6–7). If God dealt with us according to our sins, no one could stand before Him (130:3).
103:11 as the heavens are high above the earth. There is no way to compare the divine with the mortal; the mercy of God is greater than the heavens.
103:17 the mercy of the LORD. God's loyal love is forever.

Psalm 104

Praise to the Sovereign LORD for His Creation and Providence

1 Bless [a]the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD my God, You are very great:
You are clothed with honor and majesty,
2 Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment,
Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain.

3 [b]He lays the beams of His upper chambers in the waters,
Who makes the clouds His chariot,
Who walks on the wings of the wind,
4 Who makes His angels spirits,
His ministers a flame of fire.

5 You who laid the foundations of the earth,
So that it should not be moved forever,
6 You [c]covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At Your rebuke they fled;
At the voice of Your thunder they hastened away.
8 They went up over the mountains;
They went down into the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
9 You have [d]set a boundary that they may not pass over,
[e]That they may not return to cover the earth.

10 He sends the springs into the valleys;
They flow among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
12 By them the birds of the heavens have their home;
They sing among the branches.
13 [f]He waters the hills from His upper chambers;
The earth is satisfied with [g]the fruit of Your works.

14 [h]He causes the grass to grow for the cattle,
And vegetation for the service of man,
That he may bring forth [i]food from the earth,
15 And [j]wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make his face shine,
And bread which strengthens man's heart.
16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
17 Where the birds make their nests;
The stork has her home in the fir trees.
18 The high hills are for the wild goats;
The cliffs are a refuge for the [k]rock badgers.*

19 [l]He appointed the moon for seasons;
The [m]sun knows its going down.
20 [n]You make darkness, and it is night,
In which all the beasts of the forest creep about.
21 [o]The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their food from God.
22 When the sun rises, they gather together
And lie down in their dens.
23 Man goes out to [p]his work
And to his labor until the evening.

* 104:18 Or rock hyrax (compare Leviticus 11:5)

103:20–22 Bless the LORD. The poet began the psalm with a call to his own inner being to respond with praise to God (v. 1); he concludes the psalm with a call to heaven and earth to join him.
104:2 cover Yourself with light. God is Spirit (John 4:24), and descriptions of Him vary throughout the Bible. One strong description of Him is "light" (1 John 1:5). Here, light is described as the garment that enfolds His wonder. The first act of God in Genesis was the command for light (Gen. 1:3).
104:5 laid the foundations of the earth. The poet retells the story of creation from Genesis 1.
104:6 covered it with the deep. The term "deep" is the same word used in Genesis 1:2.
104:9 set a boundary. God promised that never again would the entire earth be covered as in the flood (Gen. 8:21–22).
104:15 wine . . . Oil . . . bread. It is clear that the earth was created for human beings and filled with good things for our sake.
104:19 He appointed the moon for seasons. In the ancient world, the heavenly bodies (sun, moon, and stars) were often worshiped as gods. God makes it clear that, far from being objects of worship, these things were created and set in place specifically for humans. The moon is not our god but our servant, set in place to keep track of times and seasons.

24 [q]O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all.
The earth is full of Your [r]possessions—
25 This great and wide sea,
In which are innumerable teeming things,
Living things both small and great.
26 There the ships sail about;
There is that [s]Leviathan
Which You have made to play there.

27 [t]These all wait for You,
That You may give them their food in due season.
28 What You give them they gather in;
You open Your hand, they are filled with good.
29 You hide Your face, they are troubled;
[u]You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
30 [v]You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
And You renew the face of the earth.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
May the LORD [w]rejoice in His works.
32 He looks on the earth, and it [x]trembles;
[y]He touches the hills, and they smoke.

33 [z]I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;
I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
34 May my [a]meditation be sweet to Him;
I will be glad in the LORD.
35 May [b]sinners be consumed from the earth,
And the wicked be no more.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

The Eternal Faithfulness of the LORD

1 Oh, [a]give thanks to the LORD!
Call upon His name;
[b]Make known His deeds among the peoples!
2 Sing to Him, sing psalms to Him;
[c]Talk of all His wondrous works!
3 Glory in His holy name;
Let the hearts of those rejoice who seek the LORD!
4 Seek the LORD and His strength;
[d]Seek His face evermore!
5 [e]Remember His marvelous works which He has done,
His wonders, and the judgments of His mouth,
6 O seed of Abraham His servant,
You children of Jacob, His chosen ones!

7 He is the LORD our God;
[f]His judgments are in all the earth.
8 He [g]remembers His covenant forever,
The word which He commanded, for a thousand generations,
9 [h]The covenant which He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Isaac,
10 And confirmed it to Jacob for a statute,
To Israel as an everlasting covenant,
11 Saying, [i]"To you I will give the land of Canaan
As the allotment of your inheritance,"
12 [j]When they were few in number,
Indeed very few, [k]and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people,
14 [l]He permitted no one to do them wrong;
Yes, [m]He rebuked kings for their sakes,
15 Saying, "Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm."

16 Moreover [n]He called for a famine in the land;
He destroyed all the [o]provision of bread.
17 [p]He sent a man before them—
Joseph—who [q]was sold as a slave.

104:27 These all wait for You. All creation depends on the Creator for birth, life, and sustenance. Even death is controlled by the Sovereign One.
104:31 May the LORD rejoice in His works. The Lord considered His creation "good" from the beginning (Gen. 1:31), and His pleasure in it remains (Prov. 8:30–31).
105:5 Remember His marvelous works. The psalmist calls to memory what God did for His people in fulfillment of the covenant with Abraham (Gen. 12:1–3; 22:16–18).
105:8 He remembers. The words of the original promise to Abraham set out the Lord's obligation in strong terms (Gen. 12:1–3).
105:13–15 went . . . rebuked kings for their sakes. The descendants of Abraham have more than once been strangers in a foreign land, but each time the Lord has preserved their identity as a people and has rescued them from destruction. He saved them from the hand of Pharaoh (Exodus), and from the Persians (Esther). Today, the Jews are again scattered, but even though many have forgotten their God, they still do not forget that they are Jews. God's miraculous preservation of the identity of His people indicates that He is not yet finished with them.
105:17 Joseph. The story of Joseph's life is told in Genesis 37–50.

18 [r]They hurt his feet with fetters,
He was laid in irons.
19 Until the time that his word came to pass,
[s]The word of the LORD tested him.
20 [t]The king sent and released him,
The ruler of the people let him go free.
21 [u]He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his possessions,
22 To bind his princes at his pleasure,
And teach his elders wisdom.

23 [v]Israel also came into Egypt,
And Jacob dwelt [w]in the land of Ham.
24 [x]He increased His people greatly,
And made them stronger than their enemies.
25 [y]He turned their heart to hate His people,
To deal craftily with His servants.

26 [z]He sent Moses His servant,
And Aaron whom He had chosen.
27 They [a]performed His signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they did not rebel against His word.
29 [b]He turned their waters into blood,
And killed their fish.
30 [c]Their land abounded with frogs,
Even in the chambers of their kings.
31 [d]He spoke, and there came swarms of flies,
And lice in all their territory.
32 [e]He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
33 [f]He struck their vines also, and their fig trees,
And splintered the trees of their territory.
34 [g]He spoke, and locusts came,
Young locusts without number,
35 And ate up all the vegetation in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 [h]He also destroyed all the firstborn in their land,
[i]The first of all their strength.

37 [j]He also brought them out with silver and gold,
And there was none feeble among His tribes.

38 [k]Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
39 [l]He spread a cloud for a covering,
And fire to give light in the night.
40 [m]The people asked, and He brought quail,
And [n]satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
41 [o]He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
It ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For He remembered [p]His holy promise,
And Abraham His servant.
43 He brought out His people with joy,
His chosen ones with gladness.
44 [q]He gave them the lands of the Gentiles,
And they inherited the labor of the nations,
45 [r]That they might observe His statutes
And keep His laws.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

Joy in Forgiveness of Israel's Sins

1 Praise the LORD!

[a]Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can declare all His praise?
3 Blessed are those who keep justice,
And he who [b]does* righteousness at [c]all times!

4 [d]Remember me, O LORD, with the favor You have toward Your people.
Oh, visit me with Your salvation,
5 That I may see the benefit of Your chosen ones,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
That I may glory with Your inheritance.

6 [e]We have sinned with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity,
We have done wickedly.

* 106:3 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read those who do.

105:26–36 He sent Moses. The full story of the Israelites' slavery in Egypt and the plagues God sent upon the Egyptians is told in Exodus 1–11.
105:44 gave them the lands of the Gentiles. It is believed that this psalm may have been composed after the return from exile in Babylon. A celebration of God's gift of land would have been a tremendous source of encouragement to the people who had just returned to Israel.
106:6 sinned with our fathers. It is easy to point out the places where people have gone wrong in the past and to marvel at their stupidity and rebellion, but we have to point the finger at ourselves as well.

7 Our fathers in Egypt did not understand Your wonders;
They did not remember the multitude of Your mercies,
[f]But rebelled by the sea—the Red Sea.
8 Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
[g]That He might make His mighty power known.
9 [h]He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it
dried up;
So [i]He led them through the depths,
As through the wilderness.
10 He [j]saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of
the enemy.
11 [k]The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left.
12 [l]Then they believed His words;
They sang His praise.
13 [m]They soon forgot His works;
They did not wait for His counsel, 14 [n]But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness,
And tested God in the desert.
15 [o]And He gave them their request,
But [p]sent leanness into their soul.
16 When [q]they envied Moses in the camp,
And Aaron the saint of the LORD,
17 [r]The earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the faction of Abiram.
18 [s]A fire was kindled in their company;
The flame burned up the wicked.
19 [t]They made a calf in Horeb,
And worshiped the molded image.
20 Thus [u]they changed their glory
Into the image of an ox that eats grass.
21 They forgot God their Savior,
Who had done great things in Egypt,
22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
Awesome things by the Red Sea.
23 [v]Therefore He said that He would destroy them,
Had not Moses His chosen one [w]stood before Him in the breach,
To turn away His wrath, lest He
destroy them.
24 Then they despised [x]the pleasant
land;
They [y]did not believe His word,
25 [z]But complained in their tents,
And did not heed the voice of the LORD.
26 [a]Therefore He raised His hand in an oath against them,
[b]To overthrow them in the wilderness,
27 [c]To overthrow their descendants
among the nations,
And to scatter them in the lands.
28 [d]They joined themselves also to Baal of Peor,
And ate sacrifices made to the dead.
29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among
them.
30 [e]Then Phinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
31 And that was accounted to him [f]for
righteousness
To all generations forevermore.
32 [g]They angered Him also at the waters of strife,*
[h]So that it went ill with Moses on account of them;
33 [i]Because they rebelled against His Spirit,
So that he spoke rashly with his lips.

* 106:32 Or Meribah

106:12 Then they believed. The people had faithlessly rebelled, but God graciously rescued them anyway, proving that His word is true and worth believing.

106:13 They soon forgot. Faith which is only active in the face of abundant proof is weak and short-lived.

106:15 He gave them their request. When the people rebelliously kept asking for their own desires, God finally let them have their own way—and also let them take the consequences. We don't have to fear that we might accidentally pray for something wrong and then receive a bad gift from the Lord. Even when we pray wrongly, if our hearts are turned towards God, He will redirect our desires and teach us the better way (37:4). However, it is sin if we keep praying for something when we already know that He said no, and we may have to bear consequences that we never dreamed of.

106:20 changed their glory. These words are echoed by Paul in Romans 1:22–23.

106:24–25 They did not believe. The Old Testament books of Exodus and Joshua illustrate God's plan of salvation. The first relates how Israel was brought out of the land of bondage, and the second describes how they were brought into the land of blessing. The wilderness route they traveled was of His choosing, but not the aimless wandering which followed. That sad 40-year episode was a direct result of their sin of unbelief.

106:28 Baal of Peor. After Balaam was prevented from cursing the Israelites, he suggested that the Moabites could destroy the Israelites in another way, by leading them into sin against their God (Num. 25).

34 [j]They did not destroy the peoples,
[k]Concerning whom the LORD had commanded them,
35 [l]But they mingled with the Gentiles
And learned their works;
36 [m]They served their idols,
[n]Which became a snare to them.
37 [o]They even sacrificed their sons
And their daughters to [p]demons,
38 And shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan;
And [q]the land was polluted with blood.
39 Thus they were [r]defiled by their own works,
And [s]played the harlot by their own deeds.

40 Therefore [t]the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
So that He abhorred [u]His own inheritance.
41 And [v]He gave them into the hand of the Gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over them.
42 Their enemies also oppressed them,
And they were brought into subjection under their hand.
43 [w]Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their counsel,
And were brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless He regarded their affliction,
When [x]He heard their cry;
45 [y]And for their sake He remembered His covenant,
And [z]relented [a]according to the multitude of His mercies.
46 [b]He also made them to be pitied
By all those who carried them away captive.

47 [c]Save us, O LORD our God,
And gather us from among the Gentiles,
To give thanks to Your holy name,
To triumph in Your praise.

48 [d]Blessed be the LORD God of Israel
From everlasting to everlasting!
And let all the people say, "Amen!"

Praise the LORD!

Psalms 107–150

Psalm 107

Thanksgiving to the LORD for His Great Works of Deliverance

1 Oh, [a]give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
For His mercy endures forever.
2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,
3 And [b]gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

4 They wandered in [c]the wilderness in a desolate way;
They found no city to dwell in.
5 Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
6 [d]Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He delivered them out of their distresses.
7 And He led them forth by the [e]right way,
That they might go to a city for a dwelling place.
8 [f]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
9 For [g]He satisfies the longing soul,
And fills the hungry soul with goodness.

10 Those who [h]sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
[i]Bound in affliction and irons—
11 Because they [j]rebelled against the words of God,
And despised [k]the counsel of the Most High,
12 Therefore He brought down their heart with labor;
They fell down, and there was [l]none to help.

106:34 destroy the peoples. If Israel had obeyed and the Canaanites had been driven out, the people might never have succumbed to the idolatry that marked their existence for hundreds of years.
106:45 He remembered His covenant. God's wrath must always be seen in the context of His loyal love and His long forbearance. Even when the people brought down His wrath by their sins, He remained faithful to the covenant.
107:1 His mercy endures forever. God's "loyal love" or "mercies" will never end. He is always willing to restore those who call on Him.
107:9 He satisfies the longing soul. Only God can fulfill the spiritual longings of the human soul.

13 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.
14 [m]He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And broke their chains in pieces.
15 Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
16 For He has [n]broken the gates of bronze,
And cut the bars of iron in two.

17 Fools, [o]because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, were afflicted.
18 [p]Their soul abhorred all manner of food,
And they [q]drew near to the gates of death.
19 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He saved them out of their distresses.
20 [r]He sent His word and [s]healed them,
And [t]delivered them from their destructions.
21 Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
22 [u]Let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And [v]declare His works with rejoicing.

23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Who do business on great waters,
24 They see the works of the LORD,
And His wonders in the deep.
25 For He commands and [w]raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
26 They mount up to the heavens,
They go down again to the depths;
[x]Their soul melts because of trouble.
27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.
28 Then they cry out to the LORD in their trouble,
And He brings them out of their distresses.
29 [y]He calms the storm,
So that its waves are still.
30 Then they are glad because they are quiet;
So He guides them to their desired haven.
31 [z]Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness,
And for His wonderful works to the children of men!
32 Let them exalt Him also [a]in the assembly of the people,
And praise Him in the company of the elders.

33 He [b]turns rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground;
34 A [c]fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
35 [d]He turns a wilderness into pools of water,
And dry land into watersprings.
36 There He makes the hungry dwell,
That they may establish a city for a dwelling place,
37 And sow fields and plant vineyards,
That they may yield a fruitful harvest.
38 [e]He also blesses them, and they multiply greatly;
And He does not let their cattle [f]decrease.

39 When they are [g]diminished and brought low
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow,
40 [h]He pours contempt on princes,
And causes them to wander in the wilderness where there is no way;
41 [i]Yet He sets the poor on high, far from affliction,
And [j]makes their families like a flock.
42 [k]The righteous see it and rejoice,
And all [l]iniquity stops its mouth.

43 [m]Whoever is wise will observe these things,
And they will understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

Psalm 108

Assurance of God's Victory over Enemies

A Song. A Psalm of David.

1 O [a]God, my heart is steadfast;
I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

107:17 Fools. This harsh word emphasizes moral failure (Prov. 1:7; 15:5). These people deserved the trouble they suffered, yet they too may call upon the Lord, and He will deliver and restore them.

107:33 He turns rivers into a wilderness. During the reign of King Ahab of the northern kingdom of Israel, God sentenced the land to three years of drought because of their Baal worship (1 Kin. 17:1–7).

107:43 Whoever is wise. There is no wisdom apart from centering in on and responding to the love of God. The psalmist exhorts the readers to review God's history of delivering those in trouble and to praise His great love.

108:title A Song. This psalm is actually a medley of two other psalms of David. Verses 1–5 are from

2 [b]Awake, lute and harp!
I will awaken the dawn.
3 I will praise You, O LORD, among the peoples,
And I will sing praises to You among the nations.
4 For Your mercy is great above the heavens,
And Your truth reaches to the clouds.
5 [c]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
And Your glory above all the earth;
6 [d]That Your beloved may be delivered,
Save with Your right hand, and hear me.
7 God has spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
And measure out the Valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is the helmet for My head;
[e]Judah is My lawgiver.
9 Moab is My washpot;
Over Edom I will cast My shoe;
Over Philistia I will triumph."
10 [f]Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
11 Is it not You, O God, who cast us off?
And You, O God, who did not go out with our armies?
12 Give us help from trouble,
For the help of man is useless.
13 [g]Through God we will do valiantly,
For it is He who shall tread down our enemies.*

Psalm 109

Plea for Judgment of False Accusers

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Do[a] not keep silent,
O God of my praise!
2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful
Have opened against me;
They have spoken against me with a [b]lying tongue.
3 They have also surrounded me with words of hatred,
And fought against me [c]without a cause.
4 In return for my love they are my accusers,
But I give myself to prayer.
5 Thus [d]they have rewarded me evil for good,
And hatred for my love.
6 Set a wicked man over him,
And let [e]an accuser* stand at his right hand.
7 When he is judged, let him be found guilty,
And [f]let his prayer become sin.
8 Let his days be [g]few,
And [h]let another take his office.
9 [i]Let his children be fatherless,
And his wife a widow.
10 Let his children continually be vagabonds, and beg;
Let them seek *their bread also from their desolate places.
11 [j]Let the creditor seize all that he has,
And let strangers plunder his labor.
12 Let there be none to extend mercy to him,
Nor let there be any to favor his fatherless children.
13 [k]Let his posterity be cut off,
And in the generation following let their [l]name be blotted out.
14 [m]Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD,
And let not the sin of his mother [n]be blotted out.
15 Let them be continually before the LORD,

* 108:13 Compare verses 6–13 with 60:5–12
* 109:6 Hebrew satan * 109:10 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint and Vulgate read be cast out.

57:7–11, and verses 6–13 are from 60:5–12. David is the author of both of these psalms, and 108 is attributed to him as well, even though the arrangement may have been someone else's.

108:7 I will rejoice. The remarkable fact about these words is that they are spoken by God. The Lord has pleasure in delivering His people and giving them victory. He celebrates His deliverance of them.

109:8 let another take his office. These words (along with 69:25) are quoted in Acts 1:20 as having been fulfilled in the replacement of Judas Iscariot.

109:9 fatherless . . . a widow. The curses that the psalmist wants to call down on his enemies seem very harsh and unforgiving. It is hard to understand how we should take this kind of language, in the face of Christ's teaching about loving our enemies and doing good to those who hurt us. However, two important points are clear: the psalmist left vengeance in the hands of the Lord, and he also clearly understood the reality of wickedness. We must remember that forgiveness is not saying, "It wasn't really bad." True forgiveness does not pretend that sin did not happen; it recognizes evil, and then releases the desire for vengeance into God's hands. God has promised that He will judge the wicked in the end.

16 Because he did not remember to show mercy,
But persecuted the poor and needy man,
That he might even slay the [p]broken in heart.
17 [q]As he loved cursing, so let it come to him;
As he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.
18 As he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment,
So let it [r]enter his body like water,
And like oil into his bones.

And to those who speak evil against my person.

21 But You, O GOD the Lord,
Deal with me for Your name's sake;
Because Your mercy is good, deliver me.

And my heart is wounded within me.

I am shaken off like a locust.

When they look at me, [v]they shake their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God!
Oh, save me according to Your mercy,
27 [w]That they may know that this is Your hand—
That You, LORD, have done it!
28 [x]Let them curse, but You bless;
When they arise, let them be ashamed,
But let [y]Your servant rejoice.
29 [z]Let my accusers be clothed with shame,
And let them cover themselves with their own disgrace as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
Yes, [a]I will praise Him among the multitude.
31 For [b]He shall stand at the right hand of the poor,
To save him from those who condemn him.

Psalm 110

Announcement of the Messiah's Reign

A Psalm of David.

1 The [a]LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
Till I make Your enemies Your [b]footstool."
2 The LORD shall send the rod of Your strength [c]out of Zion.
[d]Rule in the midst of Your enemies!

3 [e]Your people shall be volunteers
In the day of Your power;
[f]In the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning,
You have the dew of Your youth.
4 The LORD has sworn
And [g]will not relent,
"You are a [h]priest forever
According to the order of [i]Melchizedek."

109:27 That they may know. Even in the psalmist's intense emotional state, he wants to see the name of God defended, proclaimed, and honored.

110:1 The LORD. "LORD" is the translation of the Hebrew name Yahweh (I AM) and refers to God the Father. According to Jesus' interpretation of the passage (Matt. 22:41–45; Mark 12:35–37; Luke 20:41–44), the second "Lord" is a reference to the Son of God in heaven in the presence of the Father. David himself confesses the Son to be his Lord—that is, his master or sovereign. at My right hand. This position of high honor beside the Father was given to the Savior upon His resurrection and ascension (Acts 2:33–36; 1 Cor. 15:20–28; Col. 3:1; Heb. 1:13). The Savior placing His feet on His foes depicts the utter defeat of the enemies of Christ (1 Cor. 15:25–26; Eph. 1:22–23).

110:3 In the beauties of holiness. This description of the people who join the King in His great battle fits with Revelation 19:14.

110:4 a priest. God is seen appointing the coming Messiah to be a priest (Heb. 7). This was a source of confusion for Jews, as demonstrated by the questions that the New Testament Jews had about the Messiah. Some Dead Sea Scrolls give evidence that more than one Messiah was anticipated. According to Scripture, the Messiah would be a descendant of David (Is. 9:7), but this prophecy presents Him as a priest. This might seem to be a contradiction because true priests had to be descendants of Aaron, but the Messiah is presented as a priest by divine declaration rather than human descent. Melchizedek. Melchizedek is first mentioned in Genesis 14:18–20. He was a true priest of the Most High God, unrelated to Abraham and living hundreds of years before Aaron. He became a

Psalm 111

Praise to God for His Faithfulness and Justice

1 Praise the LORD!

[a]I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright and in the congregation.
2 [b]The works of the LORD are great,
[c]Studied by all who have pleasure in them.
3 His work is [d]honorable and glorious,
And His righteousness endures forever.
4 He has made His wonderful works to be remembered;
[e]The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
5 He has given food to those who fear Him;
He will ever be mindful of His covenant.
6 He has declared to His people the power of His works,
In giving them the heritage of the nations.
7 The works of His hands are [f]verity and justice;
All His precepts are sure.
8 [g]They stand fast forever and ever,
And are [h]done in truth and uprightness.
9 [i]He has sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever:
[j]Holy and awesome is His name.
10 [k]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all those who do His commandments.
His praise endures forever.

Psalm 112

The Blessed State of the Righteous

1 Praise the LORD!

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,
Who [a]delights greatly in His commandments.
2 [b]His descendants will be mighty on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
3 [c]Wealth and riches will be in his house,
And his righteousness endures forever.
4 [d]Unto the upright there arises light in the darkness;
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
5 [e]A good man deals graciously and lends;
He will guide his affairs [f]with discretion.
6 Surely he will never be shaken;
[g]The righteous will be in everlasting remembrance.
7 [h]He will not be afraid of evil tidings;
His heart is steadfast, trusting in the LORD.
8 His [i]heart is established;
[j]He will not be afraid,
Until he [k]sees his desire upon his enemies.
9 He has dispersed abroad,
He has given to the poor;
His righteousness endures forever;
His horn will be exalted with honor.

prototype of the Messiah, whose priesthood was not based on connection with the line of Aaron but was by divine decree (Heb. 5:5–11; 6:20; 7:1–28).

111:1 Praise the LORD. This translates the Hebrew word hallelujah.

111:9 redemption. The psalmists constantly look back to the Exodus, but they also speak of that which was still to come—the redemption of mankind through the Messiah.

111:10 fear of the LORD. The fear of the Lord describes an obedient response of wonder and awe before the Most High God.

112:1 Praise the LORD. Like Psalm 111, this psalm begins with the Hebrew word "hallelujah." It then picks up where Psalm 111 left off. Blessed. This word, meaning "manifestly happy," is the same word which begins the Book of Psalms.

112:2 His descendants will be mighty. Compare the blessings of this psalm with the curses placed on the wicked in 109:6–13.

112:9 given to the poor. The gracious and compassionate nature of God is also seen in His people, especially in their acts of benevolence toward the poor. The poor are the materially destitute and

The Majesty and Condescension of God

1 Praise the LORD!

[a]Praise, O servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD!
2 [b]Blessed be the name of the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore!
3 [c]From the rising of the sun to its going down
The LORD's name is to be praised.

4 The LORD is [d]high above all nations,
[e]His glory above the heavens.
5 [f]Who is like the LORD our God,
Who dwells on high,
6 [g]Who humbles Himself to behold
The things that are in the heavens and in the earth?

7 [h]He raises the poor out of the dust,
And lifts the [i]needy out of the ash heap,
8 That He may [j]seat him with princes—
With the princes of His people.
9 [k]He grants the barren woman a home,
Like a joyful mother of children.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

The Power of God in His Deliverance of Israel

1 When [a]Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob [b]from a people of strange language,
2 [c]Judah became His sanctuary,
And Israel His dominion.

3 [d]The sea saw it and fled;
[e]Jordan turned back.
4 [f]The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.
5 [g]What ails you, O sea, that you fled?
O Jordan, that you turned back?
6 O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
At the presence of the God of Jacob,
8 [h]Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

Psalm 115

The Futility of Idols and the Trustworthiness of God

1 Not [a]unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
But to Your name give glory,
Because of Your mercy,
Because of Your truth.

helpless segments of society—widows, orphans, and aliens—whose rights are more easily violated. Scripture tells us that giving to the poor is lending to the Lord and will be repaid by the Lord (Prov. 19:17). To give freely to the poor literally means "to scatter" God's gifts, which suggests that the poor will be provided for and that abundance will come to the giver as well (2 Cor. 9:8–9). His horn. The horn is a symbol of power. When used for a righteous person, it speaks of prominence and a lasting sense of worth in his or her life.

113:1 Praise the LORD. This psalm of descriptive praise begins and ends with the Hebrew word "hallelujah." This psalm, along with Psalm 114, is traditionally read before the Passover meal.

113:2 the name of the LORD. In biblical times there was a close association between a person's name and identity. Praising the name of God centers one's thoughts on His character.

113:4 high above all nations. Unlike the manmade gods of the ancient Middle East, the Lord is not limited to a certain tribe or territory. Not only is He supreme over all nations, but His glory cannot be contained in the universe.

113:6 humbles Himself. God is not some far distant deity who set the world in motion and then went about His business. Instead, He is deeply involved in the lives of the people He created and loves us so much that He came down from His high position to save us (Phil. 2:5–9).

113:9 barren woman. In that time and culture, a barren woman was without significance and without joy. The joy of a barren woman who has been given children is a picture of the joy we receive when God stoops down to touch us.

114:1 out of Egypt. This psalm recalling the salvation of Israel from Egypt is traditionally read along with Psalm 113 before the Passover meal.

114:2 Judah became His sanctuary. This verse anticipates the New Testament sense of God living among His people (Ezek. 37:26–27; 2 Cor. 6:16–18).

115:1 to Your name give glory. This community psalm of praise focuses on the glory of the Lord in the salvation of His people. It is one of the Passover psalms (115–118; 136), traditionally read or sung after the Passover meal.

4 [d]Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;
6 They have ears, but they do not hear;
Noses they have, but they do not smell;
7 They have hands, but they do not handle;
Feet they have, but they do not walk;
Nor do they mutter through their

8 [e]Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.

9 [f]O Israel, trust in the LORD;
[g]He is their help and their shield.

12 The LORD has been mindful of us;
He will bless us;
He will bless the house of Israel;
He will bless the house of Aaron.
13 [h]He will bless those who fear the LORD,
Both small and great.

14 May the LORD give you increase more and more,
You and your children.
15 May you be [i]blessed by the LORD,
[j]Who made heaven and earth.

16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's;
But the earth He has given to the children of men.
17 [k]The dead do not praise the LORD,
Nor any who go down into silence.
18 [l]But we will bless the LORD
From this time forth and forevermore.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 116

Thanksgiving for Deliverance from Death

1 I [a]love the LORD, because He has heard
My voice and my supplications.
2 Because He has inclined His ear
to me,
Therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.

3 [b]The pains of death surrounded me,
And the pangs of Sheol laid hold of
me;
I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then I called upon the name of the LORD:
"O LORD, I implore You, deliver my soul!"

5 [c]Gracious is the LORD, and [d]righteous;
Yes, our God is merciful.
6 The LORD preserves the simple;
I was brought low, and He saved me.
7 Return to your [e]rest, O my soul,
For [f]the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.

8 [g]For You have delivered my soul from death,
My eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before the LORD
[h]In the land of the living.
10 [i]I believed, therefore I spoke,
"I am greatly afflicted."
11 [j]I said in my haste,
[k]"All men are liars."

12 What shall I render to the LORD
For all His benefits toward me?
13 I will take up the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the
LORD.
14 [l]I will pay my vows to the LORD
Now in the presence of all His
people.

15 [m]Precious in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of His saints.

115:4–8 idols. Like the prophets (Is. 40:18–20; Jer. 10:1–10), the psalms are derisive toward the idols of the nations.

115:18 Praise the LORD. Many of the Passover psalms (115–117) conclude with the Hebrew word "hallelujah."

116:1 I love the LORD. This messianic psalm is one of the Passover psalms (113–118). It was probably recited by Jesus on the night of His arrest, the night He celebrated the Passover with His disciples (Luke 22:15).

116:3 pains of death. These words point prophetically to the Savior's anguish on the cross (Matt. 27:27–35).

116:10 I believed, therefore I spoke. This belief is the hope of eternal life articulated in verse 9. Paul quotes this verse (translated "I believed, and therefore I spoke") as proof of the scriptural hope of the resurrection (2 Cor. 4:13).

116:13 the cup of salvation. This psalm is traditionally read after the Passover meal, following the third cup of wine, called the cup of salvation. How appropriate that this Passover psalm would call to mind God's cup of salvation the very night that the Savior was betrayed (Matt. 26:27; Luke 22:14–22).

And will call upon the name of the LORD.

Now in the presence of all His people,

In the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

Psalm 117

Let All Peoples Praise the LORD

1 Praise [a]the LORD, all you Gentiles!
Laud Him, all you peoples!
2 For His merciful kindness is great toward us,
And [b]the truth of the LORD endures forever.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 118

Praise to God for His Everlasting Mercy

1 Oh, [a]give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
[b]For His mercy endures forever.

2 [c]Let Israel now say,
"His mercy endures forever."
3 Let the house of Aaron now say,
"His mercy endures forever."
4 Let those who fear the LORD now say,
"His mercy endures forever."

5 [d]I called on the LORD in distress;
The LORD answered me and [e]set me in a broad place.
6 [f]The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear.
What can man do to me?
7 [g]The LORD is for me among those who help me;
Therefore [h]I shall see my desire on those who hate me.
8 [i]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
9 [j]It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.

10 All nations surrounded me,
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
11 They [k]surrounded me,
Yes, they surrounded me;
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
12 They surrounded me [l]like bees;
They were quenched [m]like a fire of thorns;
For in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
13 You pushed me violently, that I might fall,
But the LORD helped me.
14 [n]The LORD is my strength and song,
And He has become my salvation.*

15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation
Is in the tents of the righteous;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
16 [o]The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
The right hand of the LORD does valiantly.
17 [p]I shall not die, but live,
And [q]declare the works of the LORD.
18 The LORD has [r]chastened me severely,
But He has not given me over to death.

19 [s]Open to me the gates of righteousness;

* 118:14 Compare Exodus 15:2

118:1 give thanks. This is the climax of the group of psalms called the Passover psalms. These psalms were probably sung by Jesus on the night before His death.
118:2 His mercy endures forever. This refrain praises God's loyal, merciful, covenant love throughout the psalm.
118:9 put confidence in princes. Although relying on other people is part of living, our ultimate trust can only be placed in the Lord God. Even powerful rulers are limited by their own mortality (146:3).
118:13 the LORD helped me. Compare this to Paul's words in 2 Timothy 4:17–18. Deliverance always comes from God.
118:14 my strength and song. These words are a quotation from "the Song of Moses" (Ex. 15:2); they are also quoted in Isaiah 12:2. The God who delivered the Israelites by dividing the waters of the Red Sea was ready to deliver the psalmist from trouble.
118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness. The poet draws on the wording and imagery of Psalm 24. There is only One who can enter the gates of the Lord of His own accord—Jesus, the perfect King of glory.

Meditations on the Excellencies of the Word of God

א ALEPH

1 Blessed are the undefiled in the way,
[a]Who walk in the law of the LORD!
2 Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
Who seek Him with the [b]whole heart!
3 [c]They also do no iniquity;
They walk in His ways.
4 You have commanded us
To keep Your precepts diligently.
5 Oh, that my ways were directed
To keep Your statutes!
6 [d]Then I would not be ashamed,
When I look into all Your commandments.
7 I will praise You with uprightness of heart,
When I learn Your righteous judgments.
8 I will keep Your statutes;
Oh, do not forsake me utterly!

9 How can a young man cleanse his way?
By taking heed according to Your word.

118:20 gate of the LORD. The literal reference may be to the gate of Jerusalem, the city of God—or even to a gate of the temple. Jesus declared that He was the gate or door leading to salvation (John 10:9).

118:22 the chief cornerstone. The potent imagery of this verse depicts Jesus' rejection by many (Is. 53:3; Mark 8:31; Luke 9:22; 17:25). Jesus elaborated on this prophetic verse with the parable of the vineyard owner. In this parable, the rejection included the murder of the owner's son—a reference to God's only Son (Mark 12:1–12). But, even though the Savior was rejected, He was elevated to the right hand of God (Acts 7:56). The cross, the symbol of Jesus' rejection, has become the symbol of our salvation (1 Cor. 1:18; Heb. 12:2).

118:25 Save now. These words are familiar to us in the transliteration of the Hebrew word "hosanna." The words are so significant that, if the people had not shouted them aloud (Matt. 21:16) when Jesus entered Jerusalem, the stones would have had to shout them (Luke 19:40).

118:26 Blessed is he who comes. These are the very words that the people used to bless Jesus as He rode into Jerusalem the week before the Passover (Matt. 21:9; Mark 11:9; Luke 19:38).

119:1 Blessed are the undefiled. This very lengthy poem is an acrostic. For each of the 22 consonants in the Hebrew alphabet, there are eight verses beginning with that letter. Within the psalm, eight words for God's law occur again and again: law, testimonies, promise, precepts, statutes, commandments, judgments, word. These words elaborate the application of the law of God to daily life and to Israel's destiny.

the law of the LORD. The Hebrew word torah, translated "law," basically means "instruction" or "direction." Broadly, it refers to all God's instructions from Moses to the prophets. More strictly, it refers to the first five books of the Old Testament. The law was never designed as a means of salvation; no one could be saved by keeping it. Instead, the law was the means for the Israelites to learn how to live as God's holy people. The psalmists consistently describe the law of God as a great blessing, for it was God's gracious revelation to His people for their own good (Deut. 6:1–3). In the law, God mercifully pointed out the right path to follow. Only mistaken legalistic interpretations of the law prompted the negative statements in the New Testament.

119:9–11 Your word. The Lord designs that His Word should bring purity (v. 9), security (v. 23), freedom (v. 45), hope (v. 49), life (v. 50), light (v. 105), and peace (v. 165).

119:9 God's Word Cleanses—One of the pieces of furniture in the Old Testament tabernacle was called the bronze laver (Ex. 38:8). It was a huge upright bronze bowl filled with water, resting upon a pedestal. The priests would often stop at this laver to perform their ritualistic cleansings. The Word of God is like this laver. Only the Word can remove the filth and dirt from our hearts (1 Pet. 1:22) just as the bronze laver removed the physical impurities from the priests.

How can the Bible cleanse us? It can cleanse us from wrong thoughts (Ps. 19:12; 51:10; Phil. 4:8–9). It can help eliminate fear (Judg. 1:9). It can cleanse us from wrong actions (1 John 1:9). Jesus directly promises all this: "You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you" (John 15:3).

119:11 Memorizing Scripture—The Bible recognizes the importance of Scripture memorization. By memorizing the Word, we have access to it no matter where we are or what our circumstances. The following benefits can be cited:

- It keeps us from sinning (Ps. 119:11).
- It provides comfort in times of trouble (Ps. 119:52,92).
- It provides daily sustenance for the spiritual life (Deut. 8:3).
- It provides continual and ready guidance in all the situations of life (Prov. 6:20–23).
- It provides the basis for formal and informal instruction of children (Deut. 6:6–7).

119:16 statutes. The Hebrew word translated "statutes" refers to something marked out as a boundary, something inscribed or engraved. Hence the word speaks of the permanence of the law, which God Himself had engraved in stone (Ex. 24:12). The same word is often translated "decree" (2:7).

119:22 testimonies. The Hebrew word translated "testimonies" is derived from the verb meaning "to witness" or "to testify." It refers to the Ten Commandments, called the "two tablets of the Testimony" (Ex. 31:18). The commandments were a testimony because they were a witness to the Israelites of their faithfulness or unfaithfulness to the covenant (Deut. 31:26).

119:37 Your way. The will of God is like a path leading to life; His ways are a reflection of His good character.

53 [b]Indignation has taken hold of me

119:45 at liberty. Many think of laws, instructions, and commandments as limiting and restricting, but the law of God paradoxically frees us. It frees us from sin (v. 133) and gives us the peace that comes from following the Lord's instructions (v. 165).

119:56 precepts. This Hebrew word means "an appointed thing," "something for which one is given charge." The word has the same idea as "commandment" for both words assume that the One who commands has the authority to take charge or appoint (v. 4).

119:70 delight. This is not the delight of a passive observer, but the delight of a disciple who has staked his life and security on a cause or principle.

Revive me, O LORD, according to Your word.

119:82 Your word. The Hebrew term for "word" is derived from the verb "to say." The term is a general word for God's law, encompassing everything that the Lord has promised and spoken.
119:97 how I love Your law. Fundamentally, the psalmist's attraction to the law is the result of his love for God Himself, his Teacher (vv. 102,132).

119:127 commandments. This word alludes to God's authority to govern His people. The commandments of God help believers to find their way in a world that is filled with confusion, sin, and error.

119:136 Rivers of water. One of the earmarks of a true believer is the remorse and sorrow that is felt when the person sins and fails to keep God's law.

145 I cry out with my whole heart;
Hear me, O LORD!
I will keep Your statutes.
146 I cry out to You;
Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies.
147 [i]I rise before the dawning of the

And cry for help;
I hope in Your word.
148 [j]My eyes are awake through the night
watches,
That I may meditate on Your word.
149 Hear my voice according to Your
lovingkindness;
O LORD, revive me according to Your justice.
150 They draw near who follow after wickedness;
They are far from Your law.
151 You are [k]near, O LORD,
And all Your commandments are
truth.
152 Concerning Your testimonies,
I have known of old that You have founded them [l]forever.

ר RESH

153 [m]Consider my affliction and deliver
me,
For I do not forget Your law.
154 [n]Plead my cause and redeem me;
Revive me according to Your word.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
For they do not seek Your statutes.
156 Great are Your tender mercies,
O LORD;
Revive me according to Your judgments.
157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies,
Yet I do not [o]turn from Your
testimonies.
158 I see the treacherous, and [p]am disgusted,
Because they do not keep Your word.
159 Consider how I love Your precepts; Revive me, O LORD, according to Your lovingkindness.
160 The entirety of Your word is truth,
And every one of Your righteous

164 Seven times a day I praise You,
Because of Your righteous

And nothing causes them to stumble.
166 [s]LORD, I hope for Your salvation,

ת TAU

169 Let my cry come before You, O LORD;
[u]Give me understanding according to Your word.
170 Let my supplication come before You;
Deliver me according to Your word.
171 [v]My lips shall utter praise,
For You teach me Your statutes.
172 My tongue shall speak of Your word,
For all Your commandments are
righteousness.
173 Let Your hand become my help,
For [w]I have chosen Your precepts.
174 [x]I long for Your salvation, O LORD,
And [y]Your law is my delight.
175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise
You;
And let Your judgments help me.
176 [z]I have gone astray like a lost sheep;
Seek Your servant,
For I do not forget Your commandments.

119:149 revive. With this word, the psalmist begs God to transform him, to breathe new life back into his soul. The psalmist does not want his obedience to be mechanical; he asks for a renewed spirit. The basis for his plea is God's covenantal love and His just nature.

119:159 lovingkindness. The lovingkindness of God is a recurring theme in the Book of Psalms, describing His loyal, covenant love and merciful care of His people.

119:162 rejoice. Jesus also described the "kingdom of God" as a great treasure, one so valuable that it would be worth selling everything one had in order to possess it (Matt. 13:44–46).

119:176 like a lost sheep. Jesus, the Messiah, described Himself as the Good Shepherd who would lay down His own life in order to protect and rescue His sheep (John 10:11). He affirmed that God does indeed seek lost sinners in order to bring them to Himself (Luke 15:3–7).

Psalm 120

Plea for Relief from Bitter Foes

A Song of Ascents.

1 In [a]my distress I cried to the LORD,
And He heard me.
2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips
And from a deceitful tongue.

3 What shall be given to you,
Or what shall be done to you,
You false tongue?
4 Sharp arrows of the warrior,
With coals of the broom tree!

5 Woe is me, that I dwell in [b]Meshech,
[c]That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
6 My soul has dwelt too long
With one who hates peace.
7 I am for peace;
But when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

God the Help of Those Who Seek Him

A Song of Ascents.

1 I [a]will lift up my eyes to the hills—
From whence comes my help?
2 [b]My help comes from the LORD,
Who made heaven and earth.

3 [c]He will not allow your foot to be moved;
[d]He who keeps you will not slumber.
4 Behold, He who keeps Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD is your keeper;
The LORD is [e]your shade [f]at your right
hand.

6 [g]The sun shall not strike you by day,
Nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD shall preserve you from all evil;
He shall [h]preserve your soul.
8 The LORD shall [i]preserve your going out and your coming in
From this time forth, and even forevermore.

Psalm 122

The Joy of Going to the House of the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

1 I was glad when they said to me,
[a]"Let us go into the house of the LORD."
2 Our feet have been standing Within your gates, O Jerusalem!

3 Jerusalem is built
As a city that is [b]compact together,
4 [c]Where the tribes go up,
The tribes of the LORD,
To [d]the Testimony of Israel,
To give thanks to the name of the LORD.
5 [e]For thrones are set there for judgment,
The thrones of the house of David.

6 [f]Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May they prosper who love you.
7 Peace be within your walls,
Prosperity within your palaces."
8 For the sake of my brethren and companions,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."
9 Because of the house of the LORD our
God
I will [g]seek your good.

120:1 In my distress I cried. This psalm is the first of a group of psalms called the Songs of Ascent (120–134). This group of hymns was probably used by pilgrims making their way to Jerusalem to worship the Lord during the three annual feasts—Passover, Pentecost, and Tabernacles (Lev. 23). Since Jerusalem is on a high hill, a traveler always goes "up" to Jerusalem; hence the term "songs of ascent."

120:5 Meshech . . . Kedar. These seem to be examples of the pagan peoples among whom the psalmist had to live.

121:1 my eyes to the hills. This Song of Ascent (see Ps. 120) dramatically pictures a traveler approaching the city of Jerusalem.

121:2 from the LORD. As comforting as the sight of the holy city would be to a pilgrim, the psalmist emphasizes the real reason for rejoicing: God's tender care for His people. Who made. We might have expected the psalmist to emphasize God as a loving heavenly Father or a tender and compassionate Savior, but instead he ascribes our everlasting safety to the God of creation. God owns the world because He made it; nothing that happens is beyond Him.

121:6 Nor the moon by night. There is never a time when the Lord is "off duty" and does not see what is happening to His people.

122:1 I was glad. This third Song of Ascent (see Ps. 120) describes the joy of the pilgrim on arriving at Jerusalem to worship God.

122:4 the tribes go up. This refers to the three annual feasts of ancient Israel (Lev. 23), as well as to any time that an individual or family needed to worship the Lord in the holy city.

122:5 thrones . . . for judgment. Jerusalem was not only the central place for worship, it was also the site where civil judgments and decisions were made. Religious and civil issues were closely intertwined in the law of God.

122:6 the peace of Jerusalem. True peace will only come when the Prince of Peace returns to establish His rule (Ps. 98:5–6; Rev. 21:9–27).

Psalm 123

Prayer for Relief from Contempt

A Song of Ascents.

1 Unto You [a]I lift up my eyes,
O You [b]who dwell in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their masters,
As the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress,
[c]So our eyes look to the LORD our God,
Until He has mercy on us.
3 Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us!
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
4 Our soul is exceedingly filled
With the scorn of those who are at ease,
With the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

The LORD the Defense of His People

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

1 "If it had not been the LORD who was on our [a]side,"
[b]Let Israel now say—
2 "If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
When men rose up against us,
3 Then they would have [c]swallowed us
alive,
When their wrath was kindled against us;
4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us,
The stream would have gone over our
soul;
5 Then the swollen waters
Would have gone over our soul."
6 Blessed be the LORD,
Who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
7 [d]Our soul has escaped [e]as a bird from the snare of the fowlers;*
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
8 [f]Our help is in the name of the LORD,
[g]Who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

The LORD the Strength of His People

A Song of Ascents.

1 Those who trust in the LORD
Are like Mount Zion,
Which cannot be moved, but abides
forever.
2 As the mountains surround
Jerusalem,
So the LORD surrounds His people
From this time forth and forever.
3 For [a]the scepter of wickedness shall not rest
On the land allotted to the righteous, Lest the righteous reach out their hands to iniquity.
4 Do good, O LORD, to those who are
good,
And to those who are upright in their hearts.
5 As for such as turn aside to their [b]crooked ways,
The LORD shall lead them away
With the workers of iniquity.

[c]Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 126

A Joyful Return to Zion

A Song of Ascents.

1 When [a]the LORD brought back the captivity of Zion,
[b]We were like those who dream.
2 Then [c]our mouth was filled with laughter,
And our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for
them."
3 The LORD has done great things
for us,
And we are glad.

* 124:7 That is, persons who catch birds in a trap or snare

123:2 as the eyes of servants. Good servants keep watch over their masters, anticipating their wants and keeping themselves in constant readiness to obey orders. In the same way, we should keep ourselves focused on pleasing God. The more we look at Him, the more we become like Him (2 Cor. 3:18).
124:1 the LORD who was on our side. It is because God is "on our side" that He sent His Son to save the world (John 3:16).
124:6 Blessed be the LORD. To bless God is to identify Him as the source of our blessings (103:2).
125:2 the mountains surround Jerusalem. Jerusalem is built on one of seven mountain peaks in the region. The mountains provided some protection for the city, since any invading army would have to march through difficult terrain to reach the city.
126:1 brought back the captivity. This seventh Song of Ascent (see Ps. 120) comes from the time of the restoration of Jerusalem, following the Babylonian captivity.

Psalm 127

Laboring and Prospering with the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

1 Unless the LORD builds the house,
They labor in vain who build it;
Unless [a]the LORD guards the city,
The watchman stays awake in vain.
2 It is vain for you to rise up early,
To sit up late,
To [b]eat the bread of sorrows;
For so He gives His beloved sleep.
3 Behold, [c]children are a heritage from
the LORD,
[d]The fruit of the womb is a [e]reward.
4 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior,
So are the children of one's youth.
5 [f]Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
[g]They shall not be ashamed,
But shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

Blessings of Those Who Fear the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

1 Blessed [a]is every one who fears the LORD,
Who walks in His ways.
2 [b]When you eat the labor of your hands,
You shall be happy, and it shall be
[c]well with you.
3 Your wife shall be [d]like a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your [e]children [f]like olive plants
All around your table.
4 Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the LORD.
5 [g]The LORD bless you out of Zion,
And may you see the good of
Jerusalem
All the days of your life.
6 Yes, may you [h]see your children's children.

[i]Peace be upon Israel!

Psalm 129

Song of Victory over Zion's Enemies

A Song of Ascents.

1 "Many a time they have [a]afflicted me from [b]my youth,"
[c]Let Israel now say—
2 "Many a time they have afflicted me from my youth;
Yet they have not prevailed
against me.
3 The plowers plowed on my back;
They made their furrows long."
4 The LORD is righteous;
He has cut in pieces the cords of the wicked.
5 Let all those who hate Zion
Be put to shame and turned back.
6 Let them be as the [d]grass on the housetops,
Which withers before it grows up, 7 With which the reaper does not fill his
hand,

126:4 Bring back. The people who returned were a small percentage of those who had been exiled; the people still prayed that God would complete the restoration of His people to their land.
127:1 Unless the LORD. This psalm, the eighth Song of Ascent (see Ps. 120), is one of only two psalms attributed to Solomon (see Ps. 72).
127:2 bread of sorrows. This phrase captures the essence of those removed from a sense of the Lord in their lives. The food that should give them strength for life and a zest for living only maintains their miserable state.
127:5 in the gate. The gate was the place where the elders of the city met and where citizens would convene (Ruth 4:1–12).
128:1 Blessed. This word describes the happiness of those who trust in the Lord and do His will (127:5).
fears. The fear of God is an attitude of respect, a response of reverence and wonder. It is the only appropriate response to our Creator and Redeemer.
128:2 the labor of your hands. There is a reward in work and a satisfaction in labor that is a blessing of God (Eccl. 3:9–13).
129:1–4 Many a time. The psalm begins with a litany of suffering, as the people of God acknowledge that throughout their history in the land they have been under constant assault by various peoples.
129:6 grass on the housetops. Sod was sometimes used on the roofs of the houses. After a spring rain, there might be grass growing on the housetop, but

Psalm 130

Waiting for the Redemption of the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

1 Out a of the depths I have cried to You,
O LORD;
2 Lord, hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.
3 b If You, LORD, should mark
iniquities,
O Lord, who could c stand?
4 But there is d forgiveness with You,
That e You may be feared.
5 f I wait for the LORD, my soul waits,
And g in His word I do hope.
6 h My soul waits for the Lord
More than those who watch for the morning—
Yes, more than those who watch for the morning.
7 i O Israel, hope in the LORD;
For j with the LORD there is mercy,
And with Him is abundant redemption.
8 And k He shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

Psalm 131

Simple Trust in the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

1 LORD, my heart is not haughty,
Nor my eyes lofty.
a Neither do I concern myself with great matters,
Nor with things too profound for me.
2 Surely I have calmed and quieted my
soul,
b Like a weaned child with his mother;
Like a weaned child is my soul
within me.
3 c O Israel, hope in the LORD
From this time forth and forever.

Psalm 132

The Eternal Dwelling of God in Zion

A Song of Ascents.

1 LORD, remember David
And all his afflictions;
2 How he swore to the LORD,
a And vowed to b the Mighty One of Jacob:
3 "Surely I will not go into the chamber of my house,
Or go up to the comfort of my bed;
4 I will c not give sleep to my eyes
Or slumber to my eyelids,

this was not grass that flourished; it lacked roots and soon withered under the summer heat.

130:1 Out of the depths. The placement of this penitential psalm is fitting. We must not be so interested in the destruction of the wicked (Ps. 129) that we fail to understand our own heart before the Lord.

130:3 iniquities. Does the Lord keep a record of our sins? The answer is both yes and no. At the end of all things, Christ will sit on the judgment seat, the books will be opened, and everyone will be judged according to the actual record (Rev. 20:11–15). However, if we cry to Him for mercy now in this life, we shall find forgiveness. Then the record of our sins will be cast away into the depth of God's forgetfulness. They are covered by the blood of Jesus.

130:4 forgiveness . . . that You may be feared. God's provision for forgiveness is not to be taken lightly (Rom. 6:1–2). The truly forgiven sinner realizes the magnitude of God's grace, remains grateful for Jesus' sacrifice for sins, and lives in the fear or awe of God (Ps. 128).

130:8 He shall redeem. God had redeemed the people from slavery in Egypt; the psalmist also looked forward to the time when He would redeem the people from slavery to their own sinful natures, through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Gal. 3:13).

131:1 my heart is not haughty. David presents himself with genuine humility, a delicate balance between self-abasement and arrogant pride. From the life of David, we know that he was not always able to keep this balance. But it was his desire, and at times—by God's grace—a reality in his life.

131:2 Like a weaned child. A weaned child is comforted just by the presence of his mother, without crying for the more tangible comfort of milk as a younger baby does.

132:1 remember. This psalm was one of the 15 Songs of Ascent sung by pilgrims as they approached the holy city to worship. Each year, as they marched and sang, they anticipated that perhaps this was the year that this prophecy would be fulfilled. David . . . his afflictions. If this psalm was written during the period after the exile, these words have a significant meaning. During the years between the return of the people to Jerusalem and the birth of Jesus, there would have been a growing desire on the part of

He will not turn from it:
"I will set upon your throne [m]the fruit of your body.

12 If your sons will keep My covenant
And My testimony which I shall teach them,
Their sons also shall sit upon your throne forevermore."

13 [n]For the LORD has chosen Zion;
He has desired it for His dwelling place:

14 "This[o] is My resting place forever;
Here I will dwell, for I have desired it.

15 [p]I will abundantly bless her provision;
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 [q]I will also clothe her priests with salvation,
[r]And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

17 [s]There I will make the horn of David grow;
[t]I will prepare a lamp for My Anointed.

18 His enemies I will [u]clothe with shame,
But upon Himself His crown shall flourish."

Psalm 133

Blessed Unity of the People of God

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For [a]brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious oil upon the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aaron,
Running down on the edge of his garments.

3 It is like the dew of [b]Hermon,
Descending upon the mountains of Zion;
For [c]there the LORD commanded the blessing—
Life forevermore.

Psalm 134

Praising the LORD in His House at Night

A Song of Ascents.

1 Behold, bless the LORD,
All you servants of the LORD,
Who by night stand in the house of the LORD!

2 [a]Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
And bless the LORD.

3 The LORD who made heaven and earth
Bless you from Zion!

Psalm 135

Praise to God in Creation and Redemption

1 Praise the LORD!

Praise the name of the LORD;
[a]Praise Him, O you servants of the LORD!

* 132:6 Hebrew Jaar

godly people for the Lord to restore David's kingdom in fulfillment of His promise.

132:6 Ephrathah. This name refers to the region of Bethlehem (Ruth 1:2).

132:12 sit upon your throne forevermore. The ultimate fulfillment of God's covenant with David (2 Sam. 7:8–16) is in Jesus Christ, the Son of David (Luke 1:32–33; Acts 2:30).

132:16 joy. God's presence is a source of joy to the upright. God had chosen Zion as His resting place, and His godly ones shouted "aloud for joy." When God rules on the throne of the human spirit, joy reigns within.

132:17 horn . . . lamp. The words "horn" and "lamp" speak of the Messiah's authority and righteousness (Is. 11:1–5).

133:3 the dew of Hermon. This high mountain to the north of Israel received such large amounts of water that it seemed to be a source of moisture for the lands below.

134:1 All you servants of the LORD. This psalm concludes the Songs of Ascent. The people who had come to worship at the temple were getting ready to go home, but the priests would remain at the holy temple, continuing to lift up worship to the Lord.

2 [b]You who stand in the house of the LORD,
In [c]the courts of the house of our God,
3 Praise the LORD, for [d]the LORD is good;
Sing praises to His name, [e]for it is pleasant.
4 For [f]the LORD has chosen Jacob for Himself,
Israel for His special treasure.

5 For I know that [g]the LORD is great,
And our Lord is above all gods.
6 [h]Whatever the LORD pleases He does,
In heaven and in earth,
In the seas and in all deep places.
7 [i]He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth;
[j]He makes lightning for the rain;
He brings the wind out of His [k]treasuries.

8 [l]He destroyed the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast.
9 [m]He sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt,
[n]Upon Pharaoh and all his servants.
10 [o]He defeated many nations
And slew mighty kings—11 Sihon king of the Amorites,
Og king of Bashan,
And [p]all the kingdoms of Canaan—
12 [q]And gave their land as a heritage,
A heritage to Israel His people.

13 [r]Your name, O LORD, endures forever,
Your fame, O LORD, throughout all generations.
14 [s]For the LORD will judge His people,
And He will have compassion on His servants.

15 [t]The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands.
16 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
Eyes they have, but they do not see;
17 They have ears, but they do not hear;
Nor is there any breath in their mouths.
18 Those who make them are like them;
So is everyone who trusts in them.

19 [u]Bless the LORD, O house of Israel!
Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron!
20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi!
You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!
21 Blessed be the LORD [v]out of Zion,
Who dwells in Jerusalem!

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 136

Thanksgiving to God for His Enduring Mercy

1 Oh, [a]give thanks to the LORD, for He is good!
[b]For His mercy endures forever.
2 Oh, give thanks to [c]the God of gods!
For His mercy endures forever.
3 Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords!
For His mercy endures forever:

4 To Him [d]who alone does great wonders,
For His mercy endures forever;
5 [e]To Him who by wisdom made the heavens,
For His mercy endures forever;
6 [f]To Him who laid out the earth above the waters,
For His mercy endures forever;
7 [g]To Him who made great lights,
For His mercy endures forever—
8 [h]The sun to rule by day,
For His mercy endures forever;
9 The moon and stars to rule by night,
For His mercy endures forever.

10 [i]To Him who struck Egypt in their firstborn,
For His mercy endures forever;
11 [j]And brought out Israel from among them,
For His mercy endures forever;
12 [k]With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm,
For His mercy endures forever;
13 [l]To Him who divided the Red Sea in two,
For His mercy endures forever;

135:8 the firstborn of Egypt. The defeat of Egypt was solely the work of the Lord. Israel was merely His instrument; the battle belonged to Him (Ex. 12:12; 15:3).

135:15 idols of the nations. The people who returned from Babylon had had their fill of the worship of idols; at long last, the people of Israel were ready to worship the only true God.

135:19 Bless the LORD. To bless the Lord is to identify Him as the source of all blessings and to be grateful for all that He has given.

136:1 mercy. This word, also translated "lovingkindness" or "loyal love," is the most significant term used in the Psalms to describe the character of God. His love is forever; it is part of His eternal character.

136:4–9 great wonders. God's creation of the universe is the grand display of His wisdom. The heavens give a clear presentation of the glory of God (19:1–6). Romans 1:20 teaches that God's "invisible attributes" are clearly seen through the things He has made.

For His mercy endures forever;
20 [r]And Og king of Bashan,
For His mercy endures forever—
21 [s]And gave their land as a heritage,
For His mercy endures forever;
22 A heritage to Israel His servant,
For His mercy endures forever.

23 Who [t]remembered us in our lowly state,
For His mercy endures forever;
24 And [u]rescued us from our enemies,
For His mercy endures forever;
25 [v]Who gives food to all flesh,
For His mercy endures forever.

26 Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven!
For His mercy endures forever.

Psalm 137

Longing for Zion in a Foreign Land

1 By the rivers of Babylon,
There we sat down, yea, we wept
When we remembered Zion.
2 We hung our harps
Upon the willows in the midst of it.
3 For there those who carried us away captive asked of us a song,
And those who [a]plundered us
requested mirth, Saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

4 How shall we sing the LORD's song
In a foreign land?
5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
Let my right hand forget its skill!
6 If I do not remember you, Let my [b]tongue cling to the roof of my
mouth—
If I do not exalt Jerusalem
Above my chief joy.

7 Remember, O LORD, against [c]the sons of Edom
The day of Jerusalem,
Who said, "Raze it, raze it,
To its very foundation!"

8 O daughter of Babylon, [d]who are to be destroyed,
Happy the one [e]who repays you as you have served us!
9 Happy the one who takes and [f]dashes
Your little ones against the rock!

Psalm 138

The LORD's Goodness to the Faithful

A Psalm of David.

1 I will praise You with my whole heart;
[a]Before the gods I will sing praises to
You.
2 [b]I will worship [c]toward Your holy temple,
And praise Your name
For Your lovingkindness and Your
truth;
For You have [d]magnified Your word
above all Your name.
3 In the day when I cried out, You answered me,
And made me bold with strength in my soul.

136:23 remembered us. It is possible that these words suggest the return of the people of Judah and Jerusalem to their land following the Babylonian captivity.
137:1 Babylon. Babylon was one of the great empires in world history. When this psalm was written, the Jews were living there in exile.
137:5 If I forget you. The love of the people for Jerusalem was not just for the place, but for its function in their lives. The place was holy because it was the dwelling place of God and the place of worship and sacrifice for sins.
137:9 Happy the one. The idea of rejoicing and happiness at the violence depicted here is hard to swallow. Like some of the other difficult stories recorded in Scripture (see the Book of Judges), this imprecatory psalm is included with no comments about how God viewed the psalmist's emotion. Elsewhere in Scripture, we receive strict commands condemning taking vengeance into our own hands (Rom. 12:19–21), rejoicing when others suffer (Obad. 12), and refusing to forgive (Matt. 5:43–45; 6:14–15). However, none of these passages are saying that we should pretend that evil doesn't exist. This psalmist's violent reaction to evil should remind us of how seriously God takes sin. He will not allow wickedness to go unpunished.
138:1 Before the gods. David is so confident in his faith in the Lord that he is determined to take the name of God into foreign territory.
138:2 Your holy temple. The use of the word "temple" does not rule out David as the author of this or similar poems (15:1). The Hebrew term is a general one that would fit whatever building was in use in David's day.

4 [e]All the kings of the earth shall praise
You, O LORD,
When they hear the words of Your
mouth.
5 Yes, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
For great is the glory of the LORD.
6 [f]Though the LORD is on high,
Yet [g]He regards the lowly;
But the proud He knows from afar.
7 [h]Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
You will revive me;
You will stretch out Your hand
Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand will save me.
8 [i]The LORD will perfect that which concerns me;
Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;
[j]Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

Psalm 139

God's Perfect Knowledge of Man

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD, [a]You have searched me and known me.
2 [b]You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You [c]understand my thought afar off.
3 [d]You comprehend my path and my lying down,
And are acquainted with all my ways.
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
But behold, O LORD, [e]You know it altogether.
5 You have hedged me behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me.
6 [f]Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain it.
7 [g]Where can I go from Your Spirit?
Or where can I flee from Your presence?
8 [h]If I ascend into heaven, You are there;
[i]If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there.
9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
10 Even there Your hand shall lead me,
And Your right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, "Surely the darkness shall fall*
on me,"
Even the night shall be light about me;
12 Indeed, [j]the darkness shall not hide
from You,
But the night shines as the day;
The darkness and the light are both alike to You.
13 For You formed my inward parts;
You covered me in my mother's womb.
14 I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;*
Marvelous are Your works,
And that my soul knows very well.
15 [k]My frame was not hidden from You,
When I was made in secret,
And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.
And in Your book they all were written,
The days fashioned for me,
When as yet there were none of them.

* 139:11 Vulgate and Symmachus read cover.
* 139:14 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read You are fearfully wonderful.

138:6 the lowly. When man is boastful and conceited before God, he separates himself from God. Yet God bends with a special concern toward those who are humble before Him.

138:8 mercy . . . endures forever. God's loyal covenant love will never be rescinded or forgotten.

139:5 You have hedged me behind and before. The purpose of God's intimate knowledge of His servants is protective and helpful, not judgmental and condemning.

139:7–12 You are there. The believer can rejoice and rest in the knowledge that God is present in every place and every situation in life.

139:12 the darkness and the light are both alike to You. God can see what is happening to us even under cover of darkness. Nothing can conceal His people from Him.

139:14 God's Omniscience—He is the God who knows. He knows everything that has happened and will happen. He understands all of nature perfectly. In fact He knows everything there is to know. God knows so much that it would be impossible to overstate what He knows. The proper theological term for this attribute of God is: omniscience.

God knows all of our thoughts, motives, and deeds. God knows us better than we know ourselves. We are all uneasy with the fact that God knows us so well. Like Adam and Eve, we fear the exposure of our sin.

There is, however, great reason to rejoice in the fact that God knows us so well. He loves us in spite of what He knows about us; in the midst of our sin He still loves us. He knows the worst things there are to know about us and still wants to save us. He also knows the best things about us. When everyone else misunderstands us, He understands us fully. Finally, God knows what we will be. He has a marvelous end in mind that should give us great comfort no matter what our present state.

139:16 in Your book. The idea is that all human beings, and the structure and meaning of each person's life, are all established from the beginning by God.

17 [l]How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
18 If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;
When I awake, I am still with You.

19 Oh, that You would [m]slay the wicked,
O God!
[n]Depart from me, therefore, you bloodthirsty men.
20 For they [o]speak against You wickedly; Your enemies take Your name in vain.*
21 [p]Do I not hate them, O LORD, who hate
You?
And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
22 I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.

23 [q]Search me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me, and know my anxieties;
24 And see if there is any wicked way in
me,
And [r]lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm 140

Prayer for Deliverance from Evil Men

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

1 Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men;
Preserve me from violent men,
2 Who plan evil things in their hearts;
[a]They continually gather together for war.
3 They sharpen their tongues like a serpent;
The [b]poison of asps is under their lips.
Selah

4 [c]Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of
the wicked;
Preserve me from violent men,
Who have purposed to make my steps
stumble.
5 The proud have hidden a [d]snare for me, and cords;
They have spread a net by the wayside;
They have set traps for me. Selah

6 I said to the LORD: "You are my God;
Hear the voice of my supplications,
O LORD.
7 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my
salvation,
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
8 Do not grant, O LORD, the desires of
the wicked;
Do not further his wicked scheme,
[e]Lest they be exalted. Selah

9 "As for the head of those who surround
me,
Let the evil of their lips cover them;
10 [f]Let burning coals fall upon them;
Let them be cast into the fire,
Into deep pits, that they rise not up again.
11 Let not a slanderer be established in
the earth;
Let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him."

12 I know that the LORD will [g]maintain
The cause of the afflicted,
And justice for the poor.
13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to Your name;
The upright shall dwell in Your presence.

Psalm 141

Prayer for Safekeeping from Wickedness

A Psalm of David.

1 LORD, I cry out to You;
Make haste to me!
Give ear to my voice when I cry out
to You.
2 Let my prayer be set before You [a]as incense,
[b]The lifting up of my hands as [c]the evening sacrifice.

3 Set a guard, O LORD, over my [d]mouth;
Keep watch over the door of my lips.

* 139:20 Septuagint and Vulgate read They take Your cities in vain.

139:23 Search me, O God. It is only when we are aware of our sins that we can repent of them and be healed.
140:6 You are my God. David confessed his complete trust in the Lord even though he was surrounded by people plotting his destruction. On the basis of his trust, he pled with the Lord to deliver him.
140:10 Let burning coals fall. David recalls the judgment of Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen. 19:12–29) and asks God to once again judge the enemies of the righteous.
140:12 justice for the poor. The cause of the poor and afflicted is of special interest to the Lord. He promises to uphold and comfort them (41:1; 72:4; 109:31; Luke 4:18; 6:20).
141:2 as incense. The prayers of God's people are also compared to incense in Revelation 8:3–4.
141:3 Set a guard . . . over my mouth. David recognized how terribly easy it is to sin in what we say (Prov. 30:32–33; James 3:1–12).

4 Do not incline my heart to any evil thing,
To practice wicked works
With men who work iniquity;
[e]And do not let me eat of their delicacies.

5 [f]Let the righteous strike me;
It shall be a kindness.
And let him rebuke me;
It shall be as excellent oil;
Let my head not refuse it.

For still my prayer is against the deeds of the wicked.
6 Their judges are overthrown by the sides of the cliff,
And they hear my words, for they are sweet.
7 Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,
As when one plows and breaks up the earth.

8 But [g]my eyes are upon You, O GOD the Lord;
In You I take refuge;
Do not leave my soul destitute.
9 Keep me from [h]the snares they have laid for me,
And from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
10 [i]Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
While I escape safely.

A Plea for Relief from Persecutors

A [a]Contemplation* of David. A Prayer [b]when he was in the cave.

1 I cry out to the LORD with my voice;
With my voice to the LORD I make my supplication.
2 I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare before Him my trouble.

3 When my spirit was [c]overwhelmed within me,
Then You knew my path.
In the way in which I walk
They have secretly [d]set a snare for me.
4 Look on my right hand and see,
For there is no one who acknowledges me;
Refuge has failed me;
No one cares for my soul.

5 I cried out to You, O LORD:
I said, "You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.
6 Attend to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are stronger than I.
7 Bring my soul out of prison,
That I may [e]praise Your name;
The righteous shall surround me,
For You shall deal bountifully with me."

Psalm 143

An Earnest Appeal for Guidance and Deliverance

A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
Give ear to my supplications!
In Your faithfulness answer me,
And in Your righteousness.
2 Do not enter into judgment with Your servant,
[a]For in Your sight no one living is righteous.

3 For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
He has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in darkness,
Like those who have long been dead.
4 [b]Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
My heart within me is distressed.

5 [c]I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all Your works;
I muse on the work of Your hands.
6 I spread out my hands to You;
[d]My soul *long*s for You like a thirsty land. Selah

* 142:title Hebrew Maschil

141:5 Let the righteous strike me; it shall be a kindness. The rebuke of a righteous person, even if it is painful at the time, is designed to bring about good. Sometimes being "nice" isn't really the kindest thing we can do for someone.
141:8 my eyes are upon You. If we focus on the strength of wickedness, we will be overcome with fear. If we focus on ourselves, we will become absorbed in our difficulties or exalt ourselves in our victories. Only when we focus on God can we achieve balance and health.
142:title when he was in the cave. This may refer to one of two occasions when David hid from King Saul in a cave: at En Gedi (Ps. 57; 1 Sam. 24), and at Adullam (1 Sam. 22:1).
142:5 You are my refuge. Sometimes God allows us to go through times when we have no one at our right hand, "no one cares," just so that we will be very aware of our need for God.
143:2 no one living is righteous. This is not so much a confession as an observation that everyone is sinful.
143:3 in darkness. To live in darkness is similar to being in the pit (v. 7); this is the reason for the parallel to those who are already dead (Job 10:21–22).

8 Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness [f]in the morning,
For in You do I trust;
[g]Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
For [h]I lift up my soul to You.
9 Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
In You I take shelter.*
10 [i]Teach me to do Your will,
For You are my God;
[j]Your Spirit is good.
Lead me in [k]the land of uprightness.
11 [l]Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake!
For Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
12 In Your mercy [m]cut off my enemies,
And destroy all those who afflict my soul;
For I am Your servant.

Psalm 144

A Song to the LORD Who Preserves and Prospers His People

A Psalm of David.

1 Blessed be the LORD my Rock,
[a]Who trains my hands for war,
And my fingers for battle—
2 My lovingkindness and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer,
My shield and the One in whom I take refuge,
Who subdues my people* under me.
3 [b]LORD, what is man, that You take knowledge of him?
Or the son of man, that You are mindful of him?
4 [c]Man is like a breath;
[d]His days are like a passing shadow.
5 [e]Bow down Your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
[f]Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6 [g]Flash forth lightning and scatter them;
Shoot out Your arrows and destroy them.
7 Stretch out Your hand from above;
Rescue me and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of foreigners,
8 Whose mouth [h]speaks lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
9 I will [i]sing a new song to You, O God;
On a harp of ten strings I will sing praises to You,
10 The One who gives salvation to kings,
[j]Who delivers David His servant
From the deadly sword.
11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners,
Whose mouth speaks lying words,
And whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood—
12 That our sons may be [k]as plants grown up in their youth;
That our daughters may be as pillars,
Sculptured in palace style;
13 That our barns may be full,
Supplying all kinds of produce;
That our sheep may bring forth thousands
And ten thousands in our fields;
14 That our oxen may be well laden;
That there be no breaking in or going out;
That there be no outcry in our streets.
15 [l]Happy are the people who are in such a state;
Happy are the people whose God is the LORD!

* 143:9 Septuagint and Vulgate read To You I flee.
* 144:2 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Syriac and Targum read the peoples (compare 18:47).

143:11 for Your name's sake. The requests of the psalmists are often tied to various character traits of God. When we pray "in Jesus' name," we pray both in the authority of His name and in the character it represents.
144:4 like a passing shadow. Human life apart from God is presented in the darkest terms by the Word of God. Briefly stated, it is short and full of trouble (Job 14:1), uncertain (Luke 12:16–20), and empty (Eccl. 1:2). In contrast, Paul the apostle describes the life of the redeemed as being like a victorious soldier, a winning athlete, a successful farmer, a diligent student, and a useable vessel (2 Tim. 2). The redeemed life is marked by peace and purpose now, and eternity with Christ later.
144:11 hand of falsehood. The principal lie of the enemy was that the Lord could not save His people (Is. 36:18–20).
144:15 Happy. This word could also be translated "Blessed." The happiness that David describes refers both to external well-being and to internal peace.

Psalm 145

A Song of God's Majesty and Love

[a]A Praise of David.

1 I will extol You, my God, O King;
And I will bless Your name forever and ever.
2 Every day I will bless You,
And I will praise Your name forever and ever.
3 [b]Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised;
And [c]His greatness is unsearchable.
4 [d]One generation shall praise Your works to another,
And shall declare Your mighty acts.
5 I* will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty,
And on Your wondrous works.*
6 Men shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I will declare Your greatness.
7 They shall utter the memory of Your great goodness,
And shall sing of Your righteousness.
8 [e]The LORD is gracious and full of compassion,
Slow to anger and great in mercy.
9 [f]The LORD is good to all,
And His tender mercies are over all His works.
10 [g]All Your works shall praise You, O LORD,
And Your saints shall bless You.
11 They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom,
And talk of Your power,
12 To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of His kingdom.
13 [h]Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And Your dominion endures throughout all generations.*
14 The LORD upholds all who fall,
And [i]raises up all who are bowed down.
15 [j]The eyes of all look expectantly to You,
And [k]You give them their food in due season.
16 You open Your hand
[l]And satisfy the desire of every living thing.
17 The LORD is righteous in all His ways,
Gracious in all His works.
18 [m]The LORD is near to all who call upon Him,
To all who call upon Him [n]in truth.
19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him;
He also will hear their cry and save them.
20 [o]The LORD preserves all who love Him,
But all the wicked He will destroy.
21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD,
And all flesh shall bless His holy name Forever and ever.

Psalm 146

The Happiness of Those Whose Help Is the LORD

1 Praise the LORD!

[a]Praise the LORD, O my soul!
2 [b]While I live I will praise the LORD;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
3 [c]Do not put your trust in princes,
Nor in a son of man, in whom there is no help.
4 [d]His spirit departs, he returns to his earth;
In that very day [e]his plans perish.
5 [f]Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God,
6 [g]Who made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that is in them;
Who keeps truth forever,

* 145:5 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read They. • Literally on the words of Your wondrous works * 145:13 Following Masoretic Text and Targum; Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate add The LORD is faithful in all His words, And holy in all His works.

145:8 gracious and full of compassion. In contrast to the popular image of God as stern and critical, God is full of compassion for erring humans—so much so that He sent His own Son to redeem them (John 3:16).
145:13 an everlasting kingdom. The rule of God is eternal, and the message of His wonders needs to be delivered to all people in the present time.
145:17 righteous . . . Gracious. The pairing of these two terms is a powerful description of the character of God. Righteousness alone would lead to our destruction because of our sin, but God is also kind and gracious and has arranged a way for us to be saved.

146:3 in princes. Even the best of people are not adequate help in times of terrible stress.
146:5 hope. Most people are aware that there is

Psalm 147

Praise to God for His Word and Providence

1 Praise the LORD!
For [a]it is good to sing praises to our
God;
[b]For it is pleasant, and [c]praise is beautiful.
2 The LORD [d]builds up Jerusalem;
[e]He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
3 [f]He heals the brokenhearted
And binds up their wounds.
4 [g]He counts the number of the stars;
He calls them all by name.
5 [h]Great is our Lord, and [i]mighty in power;
[j]His understanding is infinite.
6 [k]The LORD lifts up the humble;
He casts the wicked down to the ground.
7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving;
Sing praises on the harp to our
God,
8 [l]Who covers the heavens with
clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass to grow on the
mountains.
9 [m]He gives to the beast its food,
And [n]to the young ravens that cry.
10 [o]He does not delight in the strength of the horse;
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a
man.
11 The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him,
In those who hope in His mercy.
12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!
13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates;
He has blessed your children within
you.
14 [p]He makes peace in your borders,
And [q]fills you with the finest wheat.
15 [r]He sends out His command to the
earth;
His word runs very swiftly.
16 [s]He gives snow like wool;
He scatters the frost like ashes;
17 He casts out His hail like morsels;
Who can stand before His cold?
18 [t]He sends out His word and melts
them;
He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.
19 [u]He declares His word to Jacob, [v]His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
20 [w]He has not dealt thus with any nation;
And as for His judgments, they have not known them.

Praise the LORD!

more in life than they are getting out of it. They try many things to satisfy their desire for a fuller life. But like Solomon, who gives his testimony in the Book of Ecclesiastes, they find that "things" do not satisfy. Blessedness, or fullness of life, comes to those who have a relationship with God and hope of eternal life with Him.

146:10 reign forever. God's reign is both present and eternal.

147:2 builds up Jerusalem. The few people who had returned from captivity faced an immense task. They needed to remember that the work was God's and He would see that it was accomplished.

147:3 heals the brokenhearted. God's principal work is always within the human heart (51:10–12).

147:6 lifts up the humble. God's greatness may be approached only by the humble (James 4:6).

147:9 beast its food. Jesus describes God's care as extending even to sparrows (Matt. 10:29).

147:10 He does not delight. The joy that God finds in His "very good" creation (Gen. 1) does not compare with the delight that He takes in humans whose hearts are turned to Him.

147:19 His word. God's word goes throughout His creation, causing snow, frost, hail, wind, and every other aspect of weather to obey His command. He has also given His Word to His people. Will we obey as the wind does, or will we be the only element of creation that is unresponsive to Him?

Psalm 148

Praise to the LORD from Creation

1 Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD from the heavens;
Praise Him in the heights!
2 Praise Him, all His angels;
Praise Him, all His hosts!
3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
Praise Him, all you stars of light!
4 Praise Him, [a]you heavens of heavens,
And [b]you waters above the heavens!

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For [c]He commanded and they were created.
6 [d]He also established them forever and ever;
He made a decree which shall not pass away.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
[e]You great sea creatures and all the depths;
8 Fire and hail, snow and clouds;
Stormy wind, fulfilling His word;
9 [f]Mountains and all hills;
Fruitful trees and all cedars;
10 Beasts and all cattle;
Creeping things and flying fowl;
11 Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
12 Both young men and maidens;
Old men and children.

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For His [g]name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and heaven.
14 And He [h]has exalted the horn of His people,
The praise of [i]all His saints—
Of the children of Israel,
[j]A people near to Him.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

Praise to God for His Salvation and Judgment

1 Praise the LORD!

[a]Sing to the LORD a new song,
And His praise in the assembly of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their [b]King.
3 [c]Let them praise His name with the dance;
Let them sing praises to Him with the timbrel and harp.
4 For [d]the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
[e]He will beautify the humble with salvation.

5 Let the saints be joyful in glory;
Let them [f]sing aloud on their beds.
6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And [g]a two-edged sword in their hand,
7 To execute vengeance on the nations,
And punishments on the peoples;
8 To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron;
9 [h]To execute on them the written judgment—
[i]This honor have all His saints.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

Let All Things Praise the LORD

1 Praise[a] the LORD!

Praise God in His sanctuary;
Praise Him in His mighty firmament!

148:5 He commanded and they were created. The reality of God as Creator of the universe is the basis of His claim on our lives.

148:14 A people near to Him. When we consider the meaning of God's holiness (99:1; Is. 6:3) and the reality of His power, the marvel that He approaches us to mercifully provide for us becomes overwhelming.

149:1 in the assembly. One of the primary emphases in the Book of Psalms is that the praise of God is to take place in the center of the worshiping community. Praise unites the people of God (33:1–3).

149:5 the saints. This term (also translated "godly ones") refers to those who demonstrate in their lives the characteristics of the God whom they serve.

149:6 two-edged sword. The focus of the psalm switches from the congregation at worship to the army in training. Israel's army was to be the vanguard for the battle of the Lord. Their training was to have a strong component of praise and worship to God.

150:1 Praise the LORD. This psalm is a development of the Hebrew word "hallelujah," meaning "praise the Lord."

150:1 Praise—To praise God is to acknowledge who He is in all His glory. While thanksgiving is given to acknowledge what God has done, praise is given to declare who God is. Here are some facts about praise:

- God alone is worthy of our praise (Ps. 18:3; 113:3).
- It is His will for us to praise Him (Ps. 50:23).

2 Praise Him for His mighty acts;
Praise Him according to His excellent
[b]greatness!
3 Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;
Praise Him with the lute and harp!
4 Praise Him with the timbrel and dance;
Praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes!
5 Praise Him with loud cymbals;
Praise Him with clashing cymbals!
6 Let everything that has breath praise
the LORD.

Praise the LORD!

- Praise should be continuous (Ps. 34:1; 71:6) and also public (Ps. 22:25).
- We are to praise God for His holiness (2 Chr. 20:21), grace (Eph. 1:6), goodness (Ps. 135:3), and kindness (Ps. 138:2).
- All nature praises God (Ps. 148).
- The sun, moon, and stars praise Him (Ps. 19:1).
- The angels praise Him (Ps. 148:2).

150:6 everything that has breath. The very breath that God gives us should be used to praise Him. As long as we live we should praise our Creator (146:1–2). By His breath God created all things (33:6), and by our breath we should adore Him. The Book of Psalms begins with God's blessing on the righteous (1:1) and concludes with all of creation blessing its loving Creator.

THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

▶ AUTHOR: Solomon's name appears at the beginning of the three sections that he wrote: 1–9; 10:1—22:16; and 25–29. Only about 800 of the more than 3,000 proverbs attributed to Solomon are recorded here. It is likely that Solomon collected and edited proverbs other than his own. The collection of Solomonic proverbs in chapters 25–29 was assembled by the scribes of King Hezekiah. Some of the sayings in Proverbs are quite similar to those found in The Wisdom of Amenemope, a document of teachings on civil service by an Egyptian who probably lived between 1000 B.C. and 600 B.C.

▶ TIME: c. 950–700 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Prov. 3:5–6

▶ THEME: The Proverbs are part of what is commonly called the wisdom literature of the Bible. Each society needs a way to pass on what it understands to be the best way to live to succeeding generations. Biblical wisdom literature provided that means for the Jewish community. The Proverbs contain nuggets of truth that endure not only in the Jewish culture, but also make sense today. It contains basic wisdom on how to deal with the most common everyday issues that we face. Transcending personality and culture, the simple truth is that if people followed the advice of Proverbs, many of their problems would be reduced dramatically.

The Beginning of Knowledge

1 The [a]proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:

2 To know wisdom and instruction,
To perceive the words of understanding,
3 To receive the instruction of wisdom,
Justice, judgment, and equity;
4 To give prudence to the [b]simple,
To the young man knowledge and discretion—
5 [c]A wise man will hear and increase learning,
And a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,
6 To understand a proverb and an enigma,
The words of the wise and their [d]riddles.
7 [e]The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Shun Evil Counsel

8 [f]My son, hear the instruction of your father,
And do not forsake the law of your mother;

1:2–3 To know . . . To perceive . . . To receive. These verbs refer to the ways we acquire wisdom. Wisdom refers to skill. Instruction could also be translated discipline; it refers to the process of receiving knowledge and applying it to daily life.

1:3 Justice, judgment, and equity. Biblical wisdom also has a moral context. It involves all of life and may often involve a change of behavior and a commitment to justice.

1:4 To the young man knowledge and discretion. The young have little experience and are more likely to make mistakes. A wise person has learned by experience how to distinguish what is true, praiseworthy, and good from what is false, shameful, and bad (Rom. 12:1–2).

1:7 The fear of the LORD. This concept is the most basic ingredient in wisdom. Fools have rejected the fear of the Lord. The term "despise" is strongly negative. Not fearing God is the same as rejecting wisdom outright (Dan. 11:32; John 17:3).

1:8 My son, hear. The opening words of wisdom's instruction come as an appeal from parent to son (a generic term for child)—a theme that continues throughout the book. Both the Old and New Testaments have one central teaching for children to understand—obey your parents. The Fifth Commandment makes honoring parents the foundational teaching in human relationships. It is also the only Commandment that comes with a promise, "that your days may be long" (Deut. 5:16). Paul's teaching in Ephesians 6:1 echoes what we see here in Proverbs. Obeying parents is the right thing to do.

9 For they will be a [g]graceful ornament on your head,
And chains about your neck.

10 My son, if sinners entice you,
[h]Do not consent.
11 If they say, "Come with us,
Let us [i]lie in wait to shed blood;
Let us lurk secretly for the innocent
without cause;
12 Let us swallow them alive like Sheol,*
And whole, [j]like those who go down to the Pit;
13 We shall find all kinds of precious possessions,
We shall fill our houses with spoil;
14 Cast in your lot among us,
Let us all have one purse"— 15 My son, [k]do not walk in the way with
them,
[l]Keep your foot from their path;
16 [m]For their feet run to evil,
And they make haste to shed blood.
17 Surely, in vain the net is spread
In the sight of any bird;
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood,
They lurk secretly for their own lives.
19 [n]So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain;
It takes away the life of its owners.

The Call of Wisdom

20 [o]Wisdom calls aloud outside;
She raises her voice in the open squares.
21 She cries out in the chief concourses,*
At the openings of the gates in the city
She speaks her words:
22 "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?
For scorners delight in their scorning,
And fools hate knowledge.
23 Turn at my rebuke;
Surely [p]I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
24 [q]Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no
one regarded,
25 Because you [r]disdained all my counsel,
And would have none of my rebuke,
26 [s]I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your terror comes,
27 When [t]your terror comes like a storm,
And your destruction comes like a whirlwind,
When distress and anguish come upon
you.

28 "Then[u] they will call on me, but I will not answer;
They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me.
29 Because they [v]hated knowledge
And did not [w]choose the fear of the LORD,
30 [x]They would have none of my counsel
And despised my every rebuke.
31 Therefore [y]they shall eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled to the full with their own fancies.
32 For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
And the complacency of fools will
destroy them;
33 But whoever listens to me will dwell
[z]safely,
And [a]will be secure, without fear of evil."

The Value of Wisdom

2 My son, if you receive my words,
And [a]treasure my commands within
you,
2 So that you incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;

* 1:12 Or the grave * 1:21 Septuagint, Syriac, and Targum read top of the walls; Vulgate reads the head of multitudes.

From obedience springs the ability to deal with all the other important issues of life. The child who has not learned to obey his parents, who are God's representatives in the family, will probably not learn to obey God.

Christ's obedience is the perfect illustration. He was obedient to God the Father even though that obedience resulted in His death (Phil. 2:6–8). Being obedient for Christ meant no qualifications or limitations on that obedience.

1:15–18 My son, do not walk in the way with them. The parents speak words of caution. One step on the precipitous path is a step toward destruction. Spreading a net in the sight of the bird one wishes to trap would be a fruitless task. Yet the fool is less sensible than the bird; he will watch the trap being set and get caught in it anyway.

1:19 takes away the life. The study of wisdom is a matter of life and death.

1:20–21 Wisdom calls aloud outside. The word wisdom is plural and intensive. This fact calls attention to the word and heightens its meaning.

1:22–27 How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity? Wisdom addresses the simple ones. These are young people who have not yet made up their minds about life or the direction they will take. Wisdom ridicules those who reject her when they come to face the inevitable judgment of their foolishness (Ps. 2:4). Yet wisdom also laughs with joy at God's work and has delight in the people of God (8:30–31).

1:28–33 I will not answer. When fools despise wisdom, they must face the results of their choice. Their hatred for wisdom arises out of refusal to fear God (v. 29). Fools bring about their own destruction. In contrast, those who listen to her will find security.

3 Yes, if you cry out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding,
4 [b]If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures;
5 [c]Then you will understand the fear of the LORD,
And find the knowledge of God.
6 [d]For the LORD gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding;
7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
[e]He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;
8 He guards the paths of justice,
And [f]preserves the way of His saints.
9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
Equity and every good path.

10 When wisdom enters your heart,
And knowledge is pleasant to your soul,
11 Discretion will preserve you;
[g]Understanding will keep you,
12 To deliver you from the way of evil,
From the man who speaks perverse things,
13 From those who leave the paths of uprightness
To [h]walk in the ways of darkness;
14 [i]Who rejoice in doing evil,
And delight in the perversity of the wicked;
15 [j]Whose ways are crooked,
And who are devious in their paths;
16 To deliver you from [k]the immoral woman,
[l]From the seductress who flatters with her words,
17 Who forsakes the companion of her youth,
And forgets the covenant of her God.
18 For [m]her house leads down to death,
And her paths to the dead;
19 None who go to her return,
Nor do they regain the paths of life—
20 So you may walk in the way of goodness,
And keep to the paths of righteousness.
21 For the upright will dwell in the [n]land,
And the blameless will remain in it;
22 But the wicked will be cut off from the earth,
And the unfaithful will be uprooted from it.

Guidance for the Young

3 My son, do not forget my law,
[a]But let your heart keep my commands;
2 For length of days and long life
And [b]peace they will add to you.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake you;
[c]Bind them around your neck,
[d]Write them on the tablet of your heart,
4 [e]And so find favor and high esteem
In the sight of God and man.

5 [f]Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
[g]And lean not on your own understanding;
6 [h]In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct* your paths.

7 Do not be wise in your own [i]eyes;
Fear the LORD and depart from evil.
8 It will be health to your flesh,*
And [j]strength* to your bones.

9 [k]Honor the LORD with your possessions,
And with the firstfruits of all your increase;

* 3:6 Or make smooth or straight * 3:8 Literally navel, figurative of the body • Literally drink or refreshment

"my son" passages and tie the concepts of wisdom and the knowledge of God more closely together. Wisdom is near but not always easy to embrace.

2:5–8 the fear of the LORD . . . the knowledge of God. When a person seeks wisdom, he or she finds it. Those who know God fear or revere Him. sound wisdom. This is another word for wisdom that can also mean "abiding success" or "victory."

2:10–11 wisdom enters your heart. This phrase stresses the internalization of wisdom. The proverbs do not merely provide knowledge; they provide insight into practical living.

2:12–15 the way of evil. Evil is directly contrasted with wisdom. It is characterized by perverse things such as lies, deceptions, and deviousness.

2:16–19 the immoral woman. The adulteress is described as a flatterer, and flattery is the method used by the adulteress, not only in trapping her victims, but in excusing her sin (30:20). She is unfaithful to her husband and prefers to forget the covenant of her God (2:17).

3:3–4 mercy and truth. These words describe God's character (Ps. 100:5). The apostle John used the Greek equivalent of these words, "grace and truth," to describe Jesus' character in John 1:14.

3:5–6 Trust in the LORD. The verb "trust" is complemented by the verb "lean." Trusting in God is a conscious dependence on God, much like leaning on a tree for support. The command to acknowledge Him means to observe Him and get to know Him in the process of living. These are the vital elements of faith that should fill every area of life.

3:9 the firstfruits of all your increase. God expects that out of the blessings we receive we should readily give. One aspect of worship is giving. These verses

11 [m]My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD,
Nor detest His correction;
12 For whom the LORD loves He corrects,
[n]Just as a father the son in whom he delights.

13 [o]Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
And the man who gains understanding;
14 [p]For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver,
And her gain than fine gold.

In her left hand riches and honor.

And all her paths are peace.
18 She is [t]a tree of life to those who take hold of her,
And happy are all who retain her.

19 [u]The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;
By understanding He established the heavens;
20 By His knowledge the depths were [v]broken up,
And clouds drop down the dew.

21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes—
Keep sound wisdom and discretion;
22 So they will be life to your soul
And grace to your neck.
23 [w]Then you will walk safely in your way,
And your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
Yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.
25 [x]Do not be afraid of sudden terror,
Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
26 For the LORD will be your confidence,
And will keep your foot from being caught.

27 [y]Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
When it is in the power of your hand to do so.
28 [z]Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come back,
And tomorrow I will give it,"
When you have it with you.
29 Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
For he dwells by you for safety's sake.
30 [a]Do not strive with a man without cause,
If he has done you no harm.

31 [b]Do not envy the oppressor,
And choose none of his ways;
32 For the perverse person is an abomination to the LORD,
[c]But His secret counsel is with the upright.
33 [d]The curse of the LORD is on the house of the wicked,
But [e]He blesses the home of the just.
34 [f]Surely He scorns the scornful,
But gives grace to the humble.
35 The wise shall inherit glory,
But shame shall be the legacy of fools.

Security in Wisdom

4 Hear, [a]my children, the instruction of a father,
And give attention to know understanding;
2 For I give you good doctrine:
Do not forsake my law.
3 When I was my father's son,
[b]Tender and the only one in the sight of my mother,
4 [c]He also taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words;
[d]Keep my commands, and live.
5 [e]Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.

should not be taken as a formula for getting rich. They point to what is the proper response to God's gifts to us, not a return we get for investing.

3:11–12 the chastening of the LORD. Discipline is the other side of God's grace. We should cherish God's correction in our lives, because God disciplines those He loves (Heb. 2:7–10).

3:13–18 Happy. The Beatitudes of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount (Matt. 5:3–12) work much the way these verses do. God is pleased with people who discover that wisdom is a priceless treasure.

3:19 by wisdom founded the earth. One of the central themes in Proverbs is the association of wisdom with creation (8:1–36).

3:21 let them not depart. This verse encourages the son to keep faith with wisdom. The intent is much like that of the Shema (Deut. 6:4–9).

4:1–4 I was my father's son. In Israel training in wisdom happened in the home. As his father had taught him, so the son now teaches his own sons, one generation instructing another. The call for parents to teach the things of God to their children is based on Deuteronomy 6:7.

4:5–7 Get wisdom. Verses 5–9 present an impassioned plea from the father to his sons to acquire wisdom whatever the cost. The presentation follows

She will bring you honor, when you embrace her.
9 She will place on your head [i]an ornament of grace;
A crown of glory she will deliver to
you."

10 Hear, my son, and receive my sayings,
[j]And the years of your life will be many.
11 I have [k]taught you in the way of wisdom;
I have led you in right paths.
12 When you walk, [l]your steps will not be hindered,
[m]And when you run, you will not stumble.
13 Take firm hold of instruction, do not let go;
Keep her, for she is your life.

14 [n]Do not enter the path of the wicked,
And do not walk in the way of evil.
15 Avoid it, do not travel on it;
Turn away from it and pass on.
16 [o]For they do not sleep unless they have done evil;
And their sleep is taken away unless they make someone fall.
17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
And drink the wine of violence.

18 [p]But the path of the just [q]is like the shining sun,*
That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.
19 [r]The way of the wicked is like
darkness;
They do not know what makes them
stumble.

20 My son, give attention to my words;
Incline your ear to my sayings.
21 Do not let them depart from your eyes;
Keep them in the midst of your heart;
22 For they are life to those who find
them,
And health to all their flesh.
23 Keep your heart with all diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of [s]life.
24 Put away from you a deceitful mouth,
And put perverse lips far from you.
25 Let your eyes look straight ahead,
And your eyelids look right before you.
26 Ponder the path of your [t]feet,
And let all your ways be established.
27 Do not turn to the right or the left;
Remove your foot from evil.

The Peril of Adultery

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
Lend your ear to my understanding,
2 That you may preserve discretion,
And your lips [a]may keep knowledge.
3 [b]For the lips of an immoral woman drip honey,
And her mouth is [c]smoother than oil;
4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
Sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death,
[d]Her steps lay hold of hell.*
6 Lest you ponder her path of life—
Her ways are unstable;
You do not know them.

7 Therefore hear me now, my children,
And do not depart from the words of my mouth.
8 Remove your way far from her,
And do not go near the door of her
house,
9 Lest you give your honor to others,
And your years to the cruel one;
10 Lest aliens be filled with your wealth,
And your labors go to the house of a foreigner;
11 And you mourn at last,
When your flesh and your body are consumed,
12 And say:
"How I have hated instruction,
And my heart despised correction!

a pattern: statement, restatement, embellishment. By making generous use of creative restatement, the ideas come through strongly.

4:9 ornament of grace . . . crown of glory. These phrases emphasize the supreme value of wisdom. The person who holds wisdom in highest esteem and embraces it will be exalted and honored.

4:20–27 Keep your heart with all diligence. This section demands constancy of heart and purpose, honesty in speech, steadiness of gaze, and a right goal in walk and life. Setting off on the path of wisdom is no casual thing.

5:1–6 the lips of an immoral woman drip honey. Chapter 5 returns to the theme of the immoral woman (2:16–19). This passage speaks strongly for marital fidelity against all pressure to the contrary.

5:5 Her feet go down to death. This verse warns us of the deadly effects of immorality. Fornication, adultery, and prostitution lead to personality decay, venereal disease, abortion, separation, and divorce.

5:8–10 Remove your way far from her. Some temptations should be avoided at all cost. A wise son knows this and will not go near an immoral woman. The apostle Paul's instruction to Timothy to flee youthful lusts (2 Tim. 2:22) teaches the same theme.

15 Drink water from your own cistern,
And running water from your own well.
16 Should your fountains be dispersed abroad,
Streams of water in the streets?
17 Let them be only your own,
And not for strangers with you.
18 Let your fountain be blessed,
And rejoice with [e]the wife of your youth.
19 [f]As a loving deer and a graceful doe,
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
And always be enraptured with her love.
20 For why should you, my son, be enraptured by [g]an immoral
woman,
And be embraced in the arms of a seductress?

21 [h]For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
And He ponders all his paths.
22 [i]His own iniquities entrap the wicked
man,
And he is caught in the cords of his sin.
23 [j]He shall die for lack of instruction,
And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Dangerous Promises

6 My son, [a]if you become surety for your friend,
If you have shaken hands in pledge for
a stranger,
2 You are snared by the words of your
mouth;
You are taken by the words of your
mouth.
3 So do this, my son, and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand of your friend:
Go and humble yourself;
Plead with your friend.
4 [b]Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
And like a bird from the hand of the fowler.*

The Folly of Indolence

6 [c]Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise,
7 Which, having no captain,
Overseer or ruler,
8 Provides her supplies in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
9 [d]How long will you slumber,
O sluggard?
When will you rise from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to sleep—
11 [e]So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,
And your need like an armed man.

The Wicked Man

12 A worthless person, a wicked man,
Walks with a perverse mouth;
13 [f]He winks with his eyes,
He shuffles his feet,
He points with his fingers;
14 Perversity is in his heart,
[g]He devises evil continually,
[h]He sows discord.
15 Therefore his calamity shall come
[i]suddenly;
Suddenly he shall [j]be broken [k]without remedy.

16 These six things the LORD hates,
Yes, seven are an abomination to Him:
17 [l]A proud look,
[m]A lying tongue,
[n]Hands that shed innocent blood,
18 [o]A heart that devises wicked plans,
[p]Feet that are swift in running to evil,

* 6:5 That is, one who catches birds in a trap or snare

5:15 Drink water from your own cistern. This image is a clear call to marital fidelity.
5:18 and rejoice with the wife of your youth. We are encouraged to find mutual joy and pleasure in the marriage bed. It is in fact blessed by God.
6:1 if you become surety for your friend. This phrase refers to responsibility for someone else's debt as in cosigning a loan. This does not mean we should never be generous, only that we should not promise what we cannot deliver.
6:6 Go to the ant, you sluggard. This passage is a warning about laziness. The sluggard is a lazy person who is captive to leisure. He can learn all he needs to know by studying the work habits of the ant.
6:12 a wicked man. He is a troublemaker. Unlike the sluggard, whose only desire is to take a nap, the troublemaker cannot wait to cause more problems. He delights in creating dissension.
6:16 Yes, seven are an abomination to Him. The use of numerical progression—six, even seven—in these proverbs is a rhetorical device that embellishes the poetry and serves as a memory aid. It gives the impression that there is more to be said about the

Beware of Adultery

20 [s]My son, keep your father's command,
And do not forsake the law of your mother.
21 [t]Bind them continually upon your heart;
Tie them around your neck.
22 [u]When you roam, they* will lead you;
When you sleep, [v]they will keep you;
And when you awake, they will speak with you.
23 [w]For the commandment is a lamp,
And the law a light;
Reproofs of instruction are the way of life,
24 [x]To keep you from the evil woman,
From the flattering tongue of a seductress.
25 [y]Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
Nor let her allure you with her eyelids.
26 For [z]by means of a harlot
A man is reduced to a crust of bread;
[a]And an adulteress* will [b]prey upon his precious life.
27 Can a man take fire to his bosom,
And his clothes not be burned?
28 Can one walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be seared?
29 So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
Whoever touches her shall not be innocent.

30 People do not despise a thief
If he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
31 Yet when he is found, [c]he must restore sevenfold;
He may have to give up all the substance of his house.
32 Whoever commits adultery with a woman [d]lacks understanding;
He who does so destroys his own soul.
33 Wounds and dishonor he will get,
And his reproach will not be wiped away.
34 For [e]jealousy is a husband's fury;
Therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
35 He will accept no recompense,
Nor will he be appeased though you give many gifts.

7 My son, keep my words,
And [q]treasure my commands within you.
2 [b]Keep my commands and live,
[c]And my law as the apple of your eye.
3 [d]Bind them on your fingers;
Write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
And call understanding your nearest kin,
5 [e]That they may keep you from the immoral woman,
From the seductress who flatters with her words.

The Crafty Harlot

6 For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice,
7 And saw among the simple,
I perceived among the youths,
A young man [f]devoid of understanding,
8 Passing along the street near her corner;
And he took the path to her house
9 [g]In the twilight, in the evening,
In the black and dark night.

10 And there a woman met him,
With the attire of a harlot, and a crafty heart.

* 6:22 Literally it * 6:26 Literally a man's wife, that is, of another topic. The word "abomination" is the Bible's strongest expression of hatred for wickedness.

6:23 Illumination of God's Word—Illumination is the last of three important steps that God takes to communicate with us. The first step is revelation which occurred when God spoke to the authors of the Bible. The second step was inspiration, which is the process God used to guide them in correctly writing down His message. The third step provides understanding as men and women hear and see God's message. It is a divine process whereby God causes the written revelation to be understood by the human heart.

Christians need this illumination because we are blinded by our fallen fleshly natures (1 Cor. 2:14) and by Satan himself (2 Cor. 4:3–4). The Holy Spirit is the one who illumines us (John 14:26). We see this illumination process at work in Acts 2 when over 3,000 people respond to Peter's message and become followers of Christ.

Christians also need this illumination on a day-to-day basis to help them fully grasp the marvelous message in God's Word. Paul tells us that the Holy Spirit will show these tremendous truths to us as we read the Scriptures (1 Cor. 2:10; 2 Cor. 4:6).

6:30 if he steals to satisfy himself . . . starving. This passage is not condoning theft. It merely contrasts theft with adultery, which never makes sense. For ancient Israelites, marital fidelity was a mark of one's fidelity to God.

7:1–5 as the apple of your eye. People should guard wise words as instinctively as they protect the pupil of the eye.

[i]Her feet would not stay at home.
12 At times she was outside, at times in the open square,
Lurking at every corner.
13 So she caught him and kissed him;
With an impudent face she said to him:
14 "I have peace offerings with me;
Today I have paid my vows.
15 So I came out to meet you,
Diligently to seek your face,
And I have found you.

Let us delight ourselves with love.

21 With [k]her enticing speech she caused him to yield,
[l]With her flattering lips she seduced him.

Or as a fool to the correction of the stocks,*
23 Till an arrow struck his liver.

Do not stray into her paths;

And [n]all who were slain by her were strong men.
27 [o]Her house is the way to hell,*
Descending to the chambers of death.

The Excellence of Wisdom

8 Does not [a]wisdom cry out,
And understanding lift up her voice?
2 She takes her stand on the top of the high hill,
Beside the way, where the paths meet.
3 She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city,
At the entrance of the doors:
4 "To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
5 O you simple ones, understand prudence,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.
6 Listen, for I will speak of [b]excellent things,
And from the opening of my lips will come right things;
7 For my mouth will speak truth;
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are with righteousness;
Nothing crooked or perverse is in them.
9 They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;
11 [c]For wisdom is better than rubies,
And all the things one may desire cannot be compared with her.

12 "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence,
And find out knowledge and discretion.
13 [d]The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
[e]Pride and arrogance and the evil way
And [f]the perverse mouth I hate.
14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
I am understanding, [g]I have strength.
15 [h]By me kings reign,
And rulers decree justice.

* 7:22 Septuagint, Syriac, and Targum read as a dog to bonds; Vulgate reads as a lamb … to bonds.
* 7:27 Or Sheol

7:15 I came out to meet you. All the adulteress does is perverse. Here she presents an offering as a feast for the young man she plans to entrap. She overcomes her target's fear by assuring him that her husband will not come home and discover them together.
7:22 as a fool to the correction of the stocks. This passage uses several unflattering metaphors to describe how a young fool falls into immorality.
8:1 Does not wisdom cry out? Wisdom, in contrast to foolishness, wants to reach everyone and therefore broadcasts her message publicly, unlike the immoral woman, who uses privacy and deception to achieve her goals. Wisdom is open to all. Her location is at the place of decision, the place of authority, the place of beginnings. She speaks loudly, but only those who adjust their lives to God's truth actually enjoy the spoils of wisdom.
8:13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil. The offer of wisdom is held out only to those who fear God. Coming to wisdom requires coming to God, and coming to God means turning away from all that God hates—evil, pride, and arrogance.
8:15 By me kings reign, and rulers. Power and authority require the use of wisdom.

20 I traverse the way of righteousness,

That I may fill their treasuries.

22 "The[l] LORD possessed me at the beginning of His way,
Before His works of old.
23 [m]I have been established from everlasting,
From the beginning, before there was ever an earth.
24 When there were no depths I was brought forth,
When there were no fountains abounding with water.
25 [n]Before the mountains were settled,
Before the hills, I was brought forth;
26 While as yet He had not made the earth or the fields,
Or the primal dust of the world.
27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there,
When He drew a circle on the face of the deep,
28 When He established the clouds above,
When He strengthened the fountains of the deep,
29 [o]When He assigned to the sea its limit,
So that the waters would not transgress His command,
When [p]He marked out the foundations of the earth,
30 [q]Then I was beside Him as a master craftsman;*
[r]And I was daily His delight,
Rejoicing always before Him,
31 Rejoicing in His inhabited world,
And [s]my delight was with the sons of men.

32 "Now therefore, listen to me, my children,
For [t]blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Hear instruction and be wise,
And do not disdain it.
34 [u]Blessed is the man who listens to me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
35 For whoever finds me finds life,
And [v]obtains favor from the LORD;
36 But he who sins against me [w]wrongs his own soul;
All those who hate me love death."

The Way of Wisdom

9 Wisdom has [a]built her house,
She has hewn out her seven pillars;
2 [b]She has slaughtered her meat,
[c]She has mixed her wine,
She has also furnished her table.
3 She has sent out her maidens,
She cries out from the highest places of the city,
4 "Whoever[d] is simple, let him turn in here!"
As for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
5 "Come,[e] eat of my bread
And drink of the wine I have mixed.
6 Forsake foolishness and live,
And go in the way of understanding.

7 "He who corrects a scoffer gets shame for himself,
And he who rebukes a wicked man only harms himself.
8 [f]Do not correct a scoffer, lest he hate you;
[g]Rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

* 8:16 Masoretic Text, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read righteousness; Septuagint, Bomberg, and some manuscripts and editions read earth.
* 8:30 A Jewish tradition reads one brought up.

8:30–31 as a master craftsman. With wisdom's skill, God created the universe. A proper study of the universe is a progressive study of God's wisdom. Her greatest joy comes in the finest of the work of God—the sons of men—that is, humankind.

9:1 seven pillars. The number seven represents completeness, as it often does in Semitic poetry. That is, it is not that there were precisely seven pillars so much as that the house of wisdom was solidly built and substantial in character.

9:2 mixed her wine. Wine was a staple in ancient Israel; but when a feast was special, a homemaker would add aromatic spices to the wine, enlivening the bouquet and improving the taste (Song 8:2). This idea sets up a contrast with the foolish woman. While wisdom is busy, attending to every detail like a gracious hostess, the foolish woman sits at the entrance of her house with very little to do (9:14).

9:4 Whoever is simple. Wisdom makes a point of inviting the naive, meaning those who have not yet made up their minds about their course in life. The person who comes to wisdom has nothing to lose but naiveté. Hebrews 5:14 speaks of a mature person as one who is able to eat and enjoy solid food, in contrast to the naive, who is able only to drink milk.

9:7 He who corrects a scoffer. This personality is thoroughly set against wisdom (1:22) and scoffs at the things of God (Ps. 1:1). By contrast a wise man accepts correction and responds with gratitude to the one who points out his error.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be still wiser;
Teach a just man, [h]and he will increase in learning.

10 "The[i] fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 [j]For by me your days will be multiplied,
And years of life will be added to you.
12 [k]If you are wise, you are wise for yourself,
And if you scoff, you will bear it alone."

The Way of Folly

13 [l]A foolish woman is clamorous;
She is simple, and knows nothing.
14 For she sits at the door of her house,
On a seat [m]by the highest places of the city, 15 To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their way:
16 "Whoever[n] is simple, let him turn in here";
And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,
17 "Stolen[o] water is sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant."
18 But he does not know that [p]the dead are there,
That her guests are in the depths of hell.*

Wise Sayings of Solomon

10 The proverbs of [a]Solomon:

[b]A wise son makes a glad father,
But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

2 [c]Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
[d]But righteousness delivers from death.

3 [e]The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish,
But He casts away the desire of the wicked.

4 [f]He who has a slack hand becomes poor,
But [g]the hand of the diligent makes rich.
5 He who gathers in [h]summer is a wise son;
He who sleeps in harvest is [i]a son who causes shame.

6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
7 [j]The memory of the righteous is blessed,
But the name of the wicked will rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commands,
[k]But a prating fool will fall.
9 [l]He who walks with integrity walks securely,
But he who perverts his ways will become known.

10 He who winks with the eye causes trouble,
But a prating fool will fall.

11 The mouth of the righteous is a well of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirs up strife,
But [m]love covers all sins.

13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,
But [n]a rod is for the back of him who is devoid of understanding.

* 9:18 Or Sheol

9:13–18 A foolish woman is clamorous. This section is a parody of 9:1–6. Like personified wisdom, the woman of folly calls out an invitation. But she is brash, loud, undisciplined, and knows nothing (7:10–12). She cries out in the same words that wisdom has used, but she has no marvelous banquet for her guests, only shabby food, stolen and meager.

9:18 the dead are there. Fools cast away all restraint and express their freedom in direct defiance of heaven's moral law for the ordering of our conduct on earth. But they do not know that the end of such perverse behavior is death. The way of wisdom is to turn from such a disastrous course while there is time.

10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. This section focuses on the wise son in contrast with the foolish son. Son is used generically for son and daughter.

10:4 slack hand. Proverbs often links laziness with poverty, and hard work with riches.

10:7 But the name of the wicked. In biblical times a person's name was most significant. When a person's name was remembered by future generations for good, that person's life was believed to have been of great value. But when the memory of a name rotted away, it was as though that person had never lived.

10:9 walks with integrity. Many of the proverbs contrast two paths of life. This phrase means conforming to God's law as a course of life. Choosing crooked paths is willfully to disdain the guidance God so graciously provided.

10:12 Hatred . . . love. This verse describes interpersonal relationships, not salvation. When people respond in love to each other, they cover over the sins or offenses that would otherwise come between them.

10:13 But a rod is for the back of him. Rod refers to punishment, in this case deserved. The phrase "devoid of understanding" comes from the Hebrew idiom "lack heart." The one who "lacks heart" is contrasted with the one who is "wise in heart" (10:8).

14 Wise people store up knowledge,
But [o]the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

15 The [p]rich man's wealth is his strong city;
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.

16 The labor of the righteous leads to [q]life,
The wages of the wicked to sin.

17 He who keeps instruction is in the way of life,
But he who refuses correction goes astray.

18 Whoever [r]hides hatred has lying lips,
And [s]whoever spreads slander is a fool.

19 [t]In the multitude of words sin is not lacking,
But [u]he who restrains his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver;
The heart of the wicked is worth little.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many,
But fools die for lack of wisdom.*

22 [v]The blessing of the LORD makes one rich,
And He adds no sorrow with it.

23 [w]To do evil is like sport to a fool,
But a man of understanding has wisdom.

24 [x]The fear of the wicked will come upon him,
And [y]the desire of the righteous will be granted.

25 When the whirlwind passes by, [z]the wicked is no more,
But [a]the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So is the lazy man to those who send him.

27 [b]The fear of the LORD prolongs days,
But [c]the years of the wicked will be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous will be gladness,
But the [d]expectation of the wicked will perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength for the upright,
But [e]destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

30 [f]The righteous will never be removed,
But the wicked will not inhabit the earth.

31 [g]The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
But the perverse tongue will be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable,
But the mouth of the wicked what is perverse.

11 [a]Dishonest scales are an abomination to the LORD,
But a just weight is His delight.

2 When pride comes, then comes [b]shame;
But with the humble is wisdom.

* 10:21 Literally heart

10:14–15 store up knowledge. This set of verses contrasts the wise person's pursuit of knowledge with the empty talk of a fool. Wealth is like a fortress. In biblical times only walled cities had any defense against enemy armies.

10:16–17 The labor of the righteous leads to life. These verses present the doctrine of the two ways. The righteous are on the way of life but the wicked wander from it.

10:23 like sport to a fool. Sport here usually means "joyous laughter." Here the proverb uses the word in a completely negative sense. For the fool, wickedness is only a game. He makes up the rules as he goes along; for losing is only in getting caught. But a person who has understanding takes a longer-term perspective.

10:25 the righteous has an everlasting foundation. The short-lived nature of the wicked is contrasted with the stability of the righteous. The foundation of righteousness is faith in God, much like the waters that nourish the tree of Psalm 1:3.

10:28 hope . . . expectation. The righteous have something to look forward to; the wicked do not.

10:29 The way of the LORD is strength for the upright. Different people see the way of the Lord differently. Those who are innocent see it as a shelter from the storm. Those who practice iniquity see it only as a source of condemnation and wrath. The viewer's perspective makes all the difference.

10:31–32 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom. These verses form another pair of sentences about true and false speech. This repetition with variation indicates the significance of truth and falsehood.

11:1 Dishonest scales are abomination to the LORD. Dealing fairly with one another is an outgrowth of the command to love one's neighbor as oneself (Lev. 19:18), which in turn is an outgrowth of the central command given to Israel, to love God above all else (Deut. 6:4–9). That is why dishonest scales are an abomination to God.

11:2 When pride comes. Many proverbs contrast the arrogant with the humble, as this one does. The Hebrew word for pride comes from a root that means "to boil up"; it refers to a raging arrogance or insolence.

3 The integrity of the upright will guide
[c]them,
But the perversity of the unfaithful will destroy them.
4 [d]Riches do not profit in the day of
wrath,
But [e]righteousness delivers from
death.
5 The righteousness of the blameless will direct* his way aright,
But the wicked will fall by his own
[f]wickedness.
6 The righteousness of the upright will deliver them,
But the unfaithful will be caught by their lust.

7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation will [g]perish,
And the hope of the unjust perishes.
8 [h]The righteous is delivered from
trouble,
And it comes to the wicked instead.
9 The hypocrite with his mouth destroys
his neighbor,
But through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
10 [i]When it goes well with the righteous,
the city rejoices;
And when the wicked perish, there is jubilation.
11 By the blessing of the upright the city is [j]exalted,
But it is overthrown by the mouth of
the wicked.

12 He who is devoid of wisdom despises
his neighbor,
But a man of understanding holds his peace.

13 [k]A talebearer reveals secrets,
But he who is of a faithful spirit
[l]conceals a matter.

14 [m]Where there is no counsel, the people fall;
But in the multitude of counselors
there is safety.

15 He who is [n]surety for a stranger will suffer,
But one who hates being surety is secure.

16 A gracious woman retains honor,
But ruthless men retain riches.
17 [o]The merciful man does good for his own soul,
But he who is cruel troubles his own
flesh.
18 The wicked man does deceptive work,
But [p]he who sows righteousness will have a sure reward.
19 As righteousness leads to [q]life,
So he who pursues evil pursues it to his own [r]death.
20 Those who are of a perverse heart are an abomination to the LORD,
But the blameless in their ways are
His delight.
21 [s]Though they join forces,* the wicked will not go unpunished;
But [t]the posterity of the righteous will be delivered.

22 As a ring of gold in a swine's snout,
So is a lovely woman who lacks discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only
good,
But the expectation of the wicked [u]is
wrath.

24 There is one who [v]scatters, yet increases more;
And there is one who withholds more than is right,
But it leads to poverty.
25 [w]The generous soul will be made rich, [x]And he who waters will also be watered himself.
26 The people will curse [y]him who withholds grain,
But [z]blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.

11:10 When it goes well with the righteous. Truly righteous people bring justice to all the inhabitants of a city, and the city experiences true peace. Many of the psalm writers cried for vindication of the righteous and for a cessation of evil (Ps. 69:22–28).
11:13 A talebearer reveals secrets. A faithful friend conceals delicate matters that an unfaithful person reveals.
11:14 in the multitude of counselors. In modern times, as in the past, leaders of nations need adequate counsel. We all need to seek advice from wise and trustworthy people.
11:17 The merciful man does good for his own soul. Throughout the Bible, God promises that good actions will return to you in benefits. Behavior that hurts others will hurt you as well.
11:19 leads to life. Proverbs such as this remind us that the pursuit of righteousness is a matter of life and death.
11:22 ring of gold. A golden ring would be ludicrous on a pig's snout. To the ancient Israelites, pigs were unclean and repellent. The immoral person is compared to such an animal, no matter what the outward appearance might be.
11:24–26 There is one who scatters. These proverbs should shape our attitudes toward wealth: We should share it. Stinginess may lead to poverty. Generosity has the opposite effect. Selfishness is foolish because it only creates enemies and dishonors God.

But [c]the righteous will flourish like

29 He who troubles his own house [d]will

And [f]he who wins souls is wise.

But he who hates correction is stupid.

right,
But the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.

6 [d]The words of the wicked are, "Lie in wait for blood," [e]But the mouth of the upright will deliver them.

7 [f]The wicked are overthrown and are no
more,
But the house of the righteous will stand.

8 A man will be commended according to his wisdom,
[g]But he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.

9 [h]Better is the one who is slighted but has a servant,
Than he who honors himself but lacks bread.

10 [i]A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 [j]He who tills his land will be satisfied with [k]bread,
But he who follows frivolity [l]is devoid of understanding.*

12 The wicked covet the catch of evil men,
But the root of the righteous yields fruit.

13 [m]The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips, [n]But the righteous will come through trouble.

14 [o]A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth, [p]And the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

15 [q]The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But he who heeds counsel is wise.

16 [r]A fool's wrath is known at once,
But a prudent man covers shame.

17 [s]He who speaks truth declares
righteousness,
But a false witness, deceit.

18 [t]There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword,
But the tongue of the wise promotes health.

11:31 much more. This proverb argues from a premise to a conclusion. Since the righteous will finally find their reward, it follows that the wicked, who are defiant toward God and in conflict with His works, will certainly receive judgment.

12:1 But he who hates correction is stupid. Literally "stupid as a cow."

12:4 An excellent wife. A husband should rejoice in such a woman because her noble character brings him honor.

12:5–6 The thoughts of the righteous. A person's thoughts are the foundation of his or her words and deeds. The words of wicked persons can be like a deadly ambush.

12:9 he who honors himself. This verse contrasts a person who is a "nobody" but has a servant with a person who makes a great display but does not even have food on the table. Pretension destroys those who indulge in it.

12:16 known at once. Careless words can make a fool out of us, so we are wise to think before we speak. Whereas the wise man restrains his anger and turns it away, the fool constantly loses his temper (29:11).

12:18–19 the tongue of the wise promotes health. Many proverbs praise people who speak carefully and truthfully. Speech reflects a person's character. The words of a righteous person soothe the listener.

19 The truthful lip shall be established forever,
[u]But a lying tongue is but for a moment.
20 Deceit is in the heart of those who devise evil,
But counselors of peace have joy.
21 [v]No grave trouble will overtake the righteous,
But the wicked shall be filled with evil.
22 [w]Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
But those who deal truthfully are His delight.

23 [x]A prudent man conceals knowledge,
But the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.

24 [y]The hand of the diligent will rule,
But the lazy man will be put to forced labor.

25 [z]Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression,
But [a]a good word makes it glad.

26 The righteous should choose his friends carefully,
For the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 The lazy man does not roast what he took in hunting,
But diligence is man's precious possession.

28 In the way of righteousness is life,
And in its pathway there is no death.

13 A wise son heeds his father's instruction,
[a]But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 [b]A man shall eat well by the fruit of his mouth,
But the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.

3 [c]He who guards his mouth preserves his life,
But he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.

4 [d]The soul of a lazy man desires, and has nothing;
But the soul of the diligent shall be made rich.

5 A righteous man hates lying,
But a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.

6 [e]Righteousness guards him whose way is blameless,
But wickedness overthrows the sinner.

7 [f]There is one who makes himself rich, yet has nothing;
And one who makes himself poor, yet has great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
But the poor does not hear rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoices,
[g]But the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

10 By pride comes nothing but [h]strife,
But with the well-advised is wisdom.

11 [i]Wealth gained by dishonesty will be diminished,
But he who gathers by labor will increase.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
But [j]when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

13 He who [k]despises the word will be destroyed,
But he who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

14 [l]The law of the wise is a fountain of life,
To turn one away from [m]the snares of death.

12:22 Lying lips are an abomination. Abomination is something that "nauseates" God (11:20). The term conveys extreme hatred.
12:25 Anxiety in the heart of man. Anxiety loses some of its force in the face of a positive, encouraging word. Barnabas is an example of an encourager in the early church (Acts 4:36).
12:26 The righteous should choose his friends carefully. Our friends help to determine who we will become, and an excellent example inspires us to copy.
12:27 The lazy man. Lazy people do work, they just don't always finish what they start. The cure for their laziness is diligence—to follow through to the end.
13:5 A righteous man hates lying. The person who hates lying does not merely feel bad about it; he avoids it like the plague.
13:7 rich, yet has nothing. The paradox of greed causing poverty, and of generosity causing wealth, is a recurring theme in Scripture (Matt. 6:19–21). The point is not how much money you have, but what you do with it.
13:9 The light of the righteous rejoices. For an ancient Israelite, an oil lamp would be the only source of light at night. Without it, a person had no way of seeing the path in front of him.
13:10 By pride. It is self-centeredness and having to push one's own ideas that bring quarrels. The wise know when to speak and when to keep still.
13:11 Wealth gained by dishonesty will be diminished. This proverb describes the natural long-term consequences of cheating. People who compromise their honesty to get rich merely postpone the inevitable need to earn their keep. The day comes when their cheating catches up with them, but by then their honest colleagues have become far better at obtaining wealth.
13:14 fountain of life. In an arid land such as ancient Judah, a fountain provided water for oneself and for

But a fool lays open his folly.
17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
But [p]a faithful ambassador brings health.
18 Poverty and shame will come to him who disdains correction,
But [q]he who regards a rebuke will be honored.
19 A desire accomplished is sweet to the soul,
But it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.
20 He who walks with wise men will be wise,
But the companion of fools will be destroyed.
21 [r]Evil pursues sinners,
But to the righteous, good shall be repaid.
22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children,
But [s]the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.

But the foolish pulls it down with her hands.
2 He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,
[a]But he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.
3 In the mouth of a fool is a rod of pride,
[b]But the lips of the wise will preserve them.
4 Where no oxen are, the trough is clean;
But much increase comes by the strength of an ox.
5 A [c]faithful witness does not lie,
But a false witness will utter [d]lies.
6 A scoffer seeks wisdom and does not find it,
But [e]knowledge is easy to him who understands.
7 Go from the presence of a foolish man,
When you do not perceive in him the lips of [f]knowledge.
8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way,
But the folly of fools is deceit.
9 [g]Fools mock at sin,
But among the upright there is favor.
10 The heart knows its own bitterness,
And a stranger does not share its joy.
11 [h]The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
But the tent of the upright will flourish.
12 [i]There is a way that seems right to a man,
But [j]its end is the way of [k]death.

one's flocks. It was a necessity—a source of life. A fountain is also a picture for salvation (Is. 12:1–3).

13:15 Good understanding gains favor. Favor with God and other people—a good reputation is highly desirable because it ensures that you won't be alone in life. A good reputation was the first qualification listed by the apostles for deacons in the early church (Acts 6:3).

13:20 He who walks with wise men. Our selection of friends (12:26) is extremely important. Pressure from peers is much stronger than many people realize.

13:24 hates . . . loves. This is the first of several proverbs on parental discipline. A parent's loving discipline is modeled after God's loving correction (3:11–12).

14:1 wise woman builds her house. She develops a peaceful setting for family nurture.

14:2 fears the LORD. This phrase contrasts starkly with "despises him." Love for uprightness will naturally coincide with love and respect for the most upright One of all, God Himself. Love for perversity will likewise result in hatred for Him. Fear of the Lord as the beginning of wisdom is the central theme of Proverbs (1:7).

14:4 the trough is clean. A farmer has to put up with some messes in the barn if he wants the help of an ox. This is not an excuse to be slovenly, but an encouragement to work hard.

14:12 There is a way that seems right to a man. Only when it is too late does the deluded person discover that he is on the crowded highway to death. The implication is not that he was tricked, but that he relied too heavily on his own "wisdom" rather than turning in humility to God.

But a good man will be satisfied from [n]above.*

15 The simple believes every word,
But the prudent considers well his steps.

16 [o]A wise man fears and departs from evil,
But a fool rages and is self-confident.

17 A quick-tempered man acts foolishly,
And a man of wicked intentions is hated.

18 The simple inherit folly,
But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil will bow before the good,
And the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

20 [p]The poor man is hated even by his own neighbor,
But the rich has many [q]friends.

21 He who despises his neighbor sins;
[r]But he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.

22 Do they not go astray who devise evil?
But mercy and truth belong to those who devise good.

23 In all labor there is profit,
But idle chatter* leads only to poverty.

24 The crown of the wise is their riches,
But the foolishness of fools is folly.

25 A true witness delivers [s]souls,
But a deceitful witness speaks lies.

26 In the fear of the LORD there is strong confidence,
And His children will have a place of refuge.

27 [t]The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
To turn one away from the snares of death.

28 In a multitude of people is a king's honor,
But in the lack of people is the downfall of a prince.

29 [u]He who is slow to wrath has great understanding,
But he who is impulsive* exalts folly.

30 A sound heart is life to the body,
But [v]envy is [w]rottenness to the bones.

31 [x]He who oppresses the poor reproaches [y]his Maker,
But he who honors Him has mercy on the needy.

32 The wicked is banished in his wickedness,
But [z]the righteous has a refuge in his death.

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding,
But [a]what is in the heart of fools is made known.

34 Righteousness exalts a [b]nation,
But sin is a reproach to any people.

35 [c]The king's favor is toward a wise servant,
But his wrath is against him who causes shame.

15 A [a]soft answer turns away wrath,
But [b]a harsh word stirs up anger.

2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly,
[c]But the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness.

3 [d]The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.

4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life,
But perverseness in it breaks the spirit.

14:19 at the gates of the righteous. In an ancient walled city, the gate area would normally be the weakest section of the wall. The city engineers of ancient Canaan developed complex structures to fortify this point. Controlling the gate of a city meant controlling the city.

14:31 oppresses . . . honors. The theme of "as you treat people, so you treat God" is central to Scripture (Ex. 22:22–24; Matt. 25:31–46).

14:32 The wicked is banished in his wickedness. Some of the proverbs describe deliverance from death itself (11:4). The teaching of life after death is not a major teaching in the Old Testament, but neither is it altogether neglected.

14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation. Although each individual is responsible for his or her actions, the effects extend to the whole community.

15:1 A soft answer turns away wrath. Often it is not so much what we say but the way we say it that prompts such varied responses as acceptance and anger. For Abigail's gentle words to David when he was angry, see 1 Samuel 25:12–34. Words can have either life-giving or death-producing results.

15:3 The eyes of the LORD. That they are in every place watching everything chills those who do evil and comforts those who submit to Him (Eccl. 12:12).

But in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge,

But the prayer of the upright is His delight.

9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
But He loves him who [h]follows righteousness.

15:6 the house of the righteous. One house is a blessing and the other is ruinous; the reason for this lies in how the house was acquired and how it is being used. The house of the righteous contains great wealth because it is founded on wisdom and a proper response to God. On the other hand, the wicked never gain enough to suit them, and lose what they have because of their deceptive ways.

15:10 Harsh discipline. There is a consequence for those who forsake God's way. This discipline comes as a means of correction. Only the person who hates this correction will die.

15:11 how much more the hearts. This is a "how much more" proverb, which impresses on the reader the clarity with which the Lord sees people's hearts. The Hebrew word sheol, or "hell," connotes the fear of the unknown. The word actually means "the mysterious realm of death." Yet death is no mystery to the Lord. And if the mysterious realm of the dead is known to Him, then surely a person's heart is transparent to Him. This technique of arguing from the greater to the lesser appears in both Testaments.

15:12 A scoffer does not love. The scorner (14:6) is used as a foil or comparison in Proverbs to expose more sharply the character of the wise. Whereas the sluggard is a comic figure in Proverbs, the scorner is a villain. His basic problem is displayed in his response to correction. He does not learn from it nor does he seek it. The scorner is adamant in his folly.

15:14 The heart of him who has understanding. The person with an understanding heart, another description of the wise, is never satisfied with what he or she knows. The pursuit of wisdom and knowledge are lifelong occupations—never fully realized in this lifetime. But fools, not knowing the extent of their ignorance, continue to pursue folly.

15:18 A wrathful man stirs up strife. A hot-tempered person can stir up strife where there is none; but a person who has a slow fuse—who is slow to anger—soothes contention (15:1).

15:25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud. God will bring about justice in the end. To the haughty, God will give a dose of humility. But for the widow, a completely defenseless person in ancient times, God will provide protection.

15:32 despises his own soul. The natural instinct for self-preservation is dangerous when it is time to listen to a necessary rebuke.

15:33 The fear of the LORD . . . instruction. Knowledge alone does not make a person wiser; the fear of the Lord must accompany it. The same is true of honor.

16:1–2 The preparations of the heart. These verses contrast human limitations with the sovereignty of God. Man can plan, dream, and hope, but the final outcome is from the Lord. Rather than "resign ourselves to fate," we should trust in God.

16:3 Commit your works to the LORD. The verb "commit to" is from a word meaning "to roll." The idea is to "roll your cares onto the Lord." Trusting the Lord with our decisions frees us from preoccupation with our problems (3:5–6).

Dedication is the foundation of commitment. Without it the believer is unable to offer God anything else. Paul explains this dedication process in Romans 12:1–2. He emphasizes three things. First, it is our body which is to be dedicated as a living sacrifice to God. Second, we are to avoid being conformed to this world, but should strive to be transformed by the Word. Finally, by doing this we can discover God's perfect will for our lives.

After the dedication of our bodies, what are we to commit? We are to commit our salvation to God (2 Tim. 1:12). We are to commit our works (Prov. 16:3). Then our goals in life are to be given to Him (Job 5:8; Ps. 37:5). It is difficult but vital to commit our suffering experiences to God (1 Pet. 4:19). Our Lord Jesus did this very thing when He was on earth (1 Pet. 2:23). Finally, in the hour of death, we can with confidence commit our very souls to God (Ps. 31:5). Paul the apostle assures us that any and all such commitments to the Lord will be accepted and honored (1 Cor. 15:58).

16:6 In mercy and truth. These words can also be translated "by genuine piety." "Atonement" probably alludes to a sacrificial offering, but not apart from a contrite heart.

16:10 Divination. This refers to judicial decisions made by the king. Because the nation rested in the king's hands, his first responsibility was to obey God (King Josiah's reform of Israel, 2 Kin. 22). Even the king had to submit to the dictates of justice.

16:15 life . . . his favor. Successfully courting a powerful person's favor is like seeing rain clouds in a dry land. The phrase about the light of the face in this proverb helps us understand Aaron's benediction in Numbers 6:24–26.
16:17 The highway of the upright. This phrase is a metaphor for the way a person lives habitually. An upright person's highway or habit is to depart from evil. He does not compromise; he consistently strives to do good.
16:24 Pleasant words are like a honeycomb. The Hebrew word for honeycomb is also used in Psalm 19:10–11 with regard to the Word of God. The Israelites saw honey as a healthy food as well as a sweetener. Any comparison to it would connote positive, healthful effects.
16:27–29 ungodly . . . perverse . . . violent man. These verses all begin in a similar way describing three different types of wicked people. The word "ungodly" means a man of Belial; this person is a muckraker who uses bad information for evil purposes; he destroys people on purpose. The "perverse" person starts fights between friends. The "violent man" uses his power of persuasion to recruit others to join in his attacks.
16:32 better than the mighty. Even though one of the most favored persons in the ancient Middle East was the military hero, this proverb suggests that one who is "slow to anger" or who "rules his spirit" is a greater hero than a returning warrior.
16:33 The lot is cast into the lap. The use of lots in ancient Israel (16:10) could easily be confused with luck. But when a lot was cast as a means of determining God's will, the people knew it did not fall indiscriminately. God exercises sovereignty over human affairs (16:4).
17:1 Better is a dry morsel. This expression means "very little" especially in comparison to feasting. But the feasting in this verse is tainted by contention. Feasting could also be part of a sacrifice to God, but even such a feast could be ruined by angry disputes between believers.
17:2 A wise servant. Reversals of fortune could happen if the wise servant was sufficiently skillful and the son and his brothers were undeserving. Much of 17:4 A evildoer gives heed to false lips. This proverb presents the "evildoer" and the "liar" as a parody of the wise. As the righteous person listens with care to the instruction of a teacher, so the wicked person listens with care to the ruinous speech of the unrighteous.

17:7 Excellent speech. It is a contradiction in terms for a fool to speak well or for a prince to be a liar.

18:8 The words of a talebearer. These words are like delicious sweets. Although they are fun to eat, they ruin the person's health. Gossip is fun to listen to, but it damages the listener's innermost parts.

18:10–11 The name of the LORD is a strong tower. The phrase name of the LORD is a way of speaking of God's person. The righteous turn to God for security. Rich people, by contrast, tend to trust in their wealth.

18:12 the heart of a man is haughty. The Hebrew word for haughty, ordinarily negative, can also be used positively to mean courage and daring (2 Chr. 17:6). The path to honor, which the proud so covet, is humility.

18:14 The spirit of a man will sustain him in sickness. This proverb affirms the value of coping skills. Sickness can be overcome, but there is no medicine for a broken spirit.

18:20 stomach . . . mouth. Inner satisfaction comes from true and good speech.

18:22 favor from the LORD. Problems in marriage arise from breakdowns in communication or mutual respect, not from some flaw in marriage itself (12:4).

4 [b]Wealth makes many friends,
But the poor is separated from his friend.

5 A [c]false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who speaks lies will not escape.

6 Many entreat the favor of the nobility,
And every man is a friend to one who gives gifts.

7 [d]All the brothers of the poor hate him;
How much more do his friends go [e]far from him!
He may pursue them with words, yet they abandon him.

8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul;
He who keeps understanding [f]will find good.

9 A false witness will not go unpunished,
And he who speaks lies shall perish.

10 Luxury is not fitting for a fool,
Much less [g]for a servant to rule over princes.

11 [h]The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger,
[i]And his glory is to overlook a transgression.

12 [j]The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,
But his favor is [k]like dew on the grass.

13 [l]A foolish son is the ruin of his father,
[m]And the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping.

14 [n]Houses and riches are an inheritance from fathers,
But [o]a prudent wife is from the LORD.

15 [p]Laziness casts one into a deep sleep,
And an idle person will [q]suffer hunger.

16 [r]He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul,
But he who is careless* of his ways will die.

17 [s]He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD,
And He will pay back what he has given.

18 [t]Chasten your son while there is hope,
And do not set your heart on his destruction.*

19 A man of great wrath will suffer punishment;
For if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.

20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction,
That you may be wise [u]in your latter days.

21 There are many plans in a man's heart,
[v]Nevertheless the LORD's counsel—that will stand.

22 What is desired in a man is kindness,
And a poor man is better than a liar.

23 [w]The fear of the LORD leads to life,
And he who has it will abide in satisfaction;
He will not be visited with evil.

24 [x]A lazy man buries his hand in the bowl,*
And will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

25 Strike a scoffer, and the simple [y]will become wary;
[z]Rebuke one who has understanding, and he will discern knowledge.

26 He who mistreats his father and chases away his mother
Is [a]a son who causes shame and brings reproach.

19:4 Wealth makes many friends. This proverb speaks of the effects of wealth and poverty on friendship. It does not describe how friends ought to behave, but how many friends actually do. Like a faithful spouse, a faithful friend is priceless (14:20).
19:8 he who keeps understanding will find good. Ultimately to "find good" means to find the Lord in His Word (16:20).
19:10 is not fitting. This phrase might also be rendered "is not a pretty sight" (compare 17:7). For the wrong people to rule is an outrage.
19:12 roaring of a lion . . . dew on the grass. These metaphors are especially fitting when a monarch has all power. His rage may be violent and unpredictable, his pleasure gracious and restorative. A good king will display rage and spread favor for the right reasons.
19:13 A foolish son . . . the contentions of a wife. The family exists as the basic unit of a godly society. Two threats against the family are pictured in this proverb. One is the wayward son. The second is an emotionally unstable wife.
19:21 many plans in a man's heart. A wise person commits his or her plans to the Lord (16:3). A person whose plans oppose the Lord (as in Ps. 2:1–3) may actually become God's enemy. But the person whose ways are from God will certainly succeed (16:1,9).
19:22 kindness. Kindness may also mean "beauty." Faithfulness is beautiful, whereas deception is a disfigurement of character (3:14; 31:18).
19:26–27 son. The desire for a good son—or daughter—is the subject of a significant portion of Proverbs (chs. 1–9). A child who is abusive to his parents shames them and violates God's command (20:20; Ex. 20:12; Deut. 5:16). As an abusive son is shameful, so an obedient son is faithful.

28 A disreputable witness scorns justice,
And [b]the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.

29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers,
[c]And beatings for the backs of fools.

20 Wine [a]is a mocker,
Strong drink is a brawler,
And whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

2 The wrath* of a king is like the roaring of a lion;
Whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own life.

3 [b]It is honorable for a man to stop striving,
Since any fool can start a quarrel.

4 [c]The lazy man will not plow because of winter;
[d]He will beg during harvest and have nothing.

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water,
But a man of understanding will draw it out.

6 Most men will proclaim each his own goodness,
But who can find a faithful man?

7 [e]The righteous man walks in his integrity;
[f]His children are blessed after him.

8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment
Scatters all evil with his eyes.

9 [g]Who can say, "I have made my heart clean,
I am pure from my sin"?

10 [h]Diverse weights and diverse measures,
They are both alike, an abomination to the LORD.

11 Even a child is [i]known by his deeds,
Whether what he does is pure and right.

12 [j]The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
The LORD has made them both.

13 [k]Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty;
Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.

14 "It is good for nothing,"* cries the buyer;
But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and a multitude of rubies,
But [l]the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

16 [m]Take the garment of one who is surety for a stranger,
And hold it as a pledge when it is for a seductress.

17 [n]Bread gained by deceit is sweet to a man,
But afterward his mouth will be filled with gravel.

18 [o]Plans are established by counsel;
[p]By wise counsel wage war.

19 [q]He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets;
Therefore do not associate with one [r]who flatters with his lips.

20 [s]Whoever curses his father or his mother,
[t]His lamp will be put out in deep darkness.

* 20:2 Literally fear or terror which is produced by the king's wrath * 20:14 Literally evil, evil

20:1 Wine is a mocker. This chapter begins with a warning against the abuse of wine, or excessive drinking (see this theme more extensively in 23:29–35). A wise person takes the danger seriously.
20:5 draw it out. Motivation for behavior is complex. A gifted counselor is able to draw out from a person genuine feelings and motivations, just as someone draws water from a deep well.
20:9 Who can say. This proverb is a rhetorical question. Everyone sins, a theme that Paul addresses at length in Romans 3:10–23. Anyone who claims never to sin is a liar (1 John 1:8–9). But those who confess their sin obtain forgiveness (Rom. 4:7).
20:11 by his deeds. A pattern established early in life may continue to mark a person for his or her lifetime. Even at a very early age, a person's moral character may be revealed.
20:13 sleep. While sleep is a gift from God, it can also be a matter of excess and laziness. Hard work is necessary to make a living; laziness leads only to poverty (6:6–9).
20:16 Take the garment. Clothing could be taken as collateral for a debt (Deut. 24:10–13). If someone assumes responsibility for the debt of an unknown stranger, he or she should be held accountable even to the point of taking his or her clothing as a pledge.
20:17 But afterward. The Scriptures do not say that there is no pleasure in sinning, only that the reward does not last (9:17–18).
20:20 Whoever curses. This proverb is about breaking the Fifth Commandment, "Honor your father and your mother" (Ex. 20:12). The term for "curses" is based on a word that means "to treat lightly, to regard as insignificant." The statement "his lamp will be put out in deep darkness," is a symbol of eternal damnation.

21 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD,

Is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

And the plowing* of the wicked are sin.

5 [e]The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty,
But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty.

Is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death.*

7 The violence of the wicked will destroy them,*
Because they refuse to do justice.

8 The way of a guilty man is perverse;*
But as for the pure, his work is right.

Than in a house shared with [g]a contentious woman.

10 [h]The soul of the wicked desires evil;

11 When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise;
But when the [i]wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The righteous God wisely considers the house of the wicked, Overthrowing the wicked for their wickedness.

20:25 something as holy. Several proverbs warn against making rash promises about holy things, then withdrawing the promises later (Eccl. 5:1–7). It is better never to vow than to vow and then change one's mind.

20:26 A wise king sifts out the wicked. This royal proverb presents discipline as a merciful act. To punish wickedness is entirely appropriate. When the wicked are separated and punished with the severity that their crimes demand, all of society benefits. Ideally, the king in Israel mirrored God's character.

20:30 Blows that hurt cleanse away evil. Suffering cleanses. No one wants to be hurt, but God can bring good out of any evil and make us better through hardship.

21:1 The king's heart . . . rivers of water. A person can look at a river and think that it is following a random pattern, but the water is following the direction of God's hand. So is the king.

21:3 To do righteousness and justice. This proverb affirms, as do Psalm 40:6–8; Micah 6:8, and numerous other passages in the Bible, that righteous living is more important than sacrifice (1 Sam. 15:22).

21:6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue. If you have to lie to gain your "treasure," you are ultimately choosing death to your dreams. There is no stability in anything gained by a lie.

21:9 a corner of a housetop. Ancient Israelite roofs were flat and could be used as a deck or terrace. On occasion people would build a temporary shelter on a part of the roof. Here, the harried husband finds he prefers to live on the housetop rather than below with the nagging words of his wife.

21:10 The soul of the wicked desires evil. Wicked persons typically refuse to think of anyone but themselves.

But destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

16 A man who wanders from the way of understanding
Will rest in the assembly of the [k]dead.

17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man;
He who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous,

Finds life, righteousness, and honor.

For his hands refuse to labor.

26 He covets greedily all day long,
But the righteous [q]gives and does not spare.

27 [r]The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
How much more when he brings it with wicked intent!

28 A false witness shall perish,
But the man who hears him will speak endlessly.

29 A wicked man hardens his face,
But as for the upright, he establishes* his way.

30 [s]There is no wisdom or understanding
Or counsel against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle,
But [t]deliverance is of the LORD.

22 A [a]good name is to be chosen rather than great riches,
Loving favor rather than silver and gold.

2 The [b]rich and the poor have this in common,
The [c]LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself,
But the simple pass on and are [d]punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD
Are riches and honor and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
He who guards his soul will be far from them.

6 [e]Train up a child in the way he should go,
And when he is old he will not depart from it.

*21:14 Literally in the bosom *21:29 Qere and Septuagint read understands.

21:15 joy . . . to do justice. Doing justice is not a heavy obligation that weighs a person down. For the righteous, promoting justice is a joy.

21:16 the assembly of the dead. The term dead is a frightful one, meaning "shades" (9:18). Death in these verses may speak of physical death rather than spiritual death (as is the case in James 1).

21:21 life, righteousness, and honor. It is possible that these three ideas go together to mean "a more abundant life." The pursuit of righteousness is its own reward. But added rewards are found in fullness of life, achieving righteousness, and receiving honor. All these things are gifts from the Lord (15:9).

21:28 A false witness shall perish. A large number of proverbs focus on bearing false witness (19:28). The problem with a false witness is that his lies pervert justice for others.

22:2 The LORD is the maker of them all. This sentence repeats the theme of riches (v. 1). God makes both the rich and the poor. This means that those who favor the rich over the poor (James 2) have not only missed the point of creation, they have insulted the Creator (14:31).

22:4 By humility and the fear of the LORD. The writer of this proverb makes humility synonymous with the fear of the Lord. True humility begins with a proper attitude toward God. In such a spirit of submission to God, true fear of God is exhibited.

22:6 Train up a child. This verse, like the other proverbs, contains a wise statement that is usually true. Who your child turns out to be is a reflection of your parenting. As God has taught elsewhere in His word, parents are to teach their children the way of the Lord. Not only are they to teach it purposefully, but they are to do it constantly—when they talk and sit and walk

9 [h]He who has a generous eye will be [i]blessed,
For he gives of his bread to the poor.

10 [j]Cast out the scoffer, and contention will leave;
Yes, strife and reproach will cease.

11 [k]He who loves purity of heart
And has grace on his lips,

Sayings of the Wise

17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your heart to my knowledge;

18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you;
Let them all be fixed upon your lips,

19 So that your trust may be in the LORD;
I have instructed you today, even you.

20 Have I not written to you excellent things
Of counsels and knowledge,

21 [p]That I may make you know the certainty of the words of truth,
[q]That you may answer words of truth
To those who send to you?

22 Do not rob the [r]poor because he is poor,
Nor oppress the afflicted at the gate;

23 [s]For the LORD will plead their cause,
And plunder the soul of those who plunder them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man,
And with a [t]furious man do not go,

25 Lest you learn his ways
And set a snare for your soul.

26 [u]Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge,
One of those who is surety for debts;

27 If you have nothing with which to pay,
Why should he take away your bed from under you?

28 [v]Do not remove the ancient landmark
Which your fathers have set.

29 Do you see a man who excels in his work?
He will stand before kings;
He will not stand before unknown men.

23 When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
Consider carefully what is before you;

2 And put a knife to your throat
If you are a man given to appetite.

and lie down and get up (Deut. 6:7–8). If children see their parents speaking kindly, being forgiving and gracious, gentle and understanding, children will want these character attributes too. But even more important, if the parents teach that they depend upon God to build kindly habits in themselves, children will know that it is to the Lord that one turns for help in every part of life. Training children undoubtedly involves everything from wiping feet and closing doors to saying "please" and "thank you," and "I am sorry." But the most important training that a child receives is the continual teaching and daily example of their parents' dependence on the Lord.

22:10 the scoffer. This kind of person should be expelled from the community because his influence is harmful to everyone. The wise know that the scorner is not a laughing matter, because he is laughing at holy things, at God Himself.

22:12 The eyes of the LORD. God is the final arbiter of knowledge and justice. The eyes of human beings are simply not trustworthy.

22:13 There is a lion outside. This proverb about lazy people pokes fun at how the lazy invent all sorts of excuses for avoiding work and risk.

22:17—24:22 Proverbs Concerning Various Situations—Verse 17 marks a new section of Proverbs. Three elements distinguish this section: (1) the change from one-verse units to multiple-verse units; (2) section headings that are embedded in the text; and (3) the affinity of this section for ancient Egyptian wisdom texts.

22:17–21 Incline your ear. These introductory words call the reader to pay attention and to prepare to learn about and worship God. The advice emphasizes strongly that a person's trust must be in the Lord.

22:28 Do not remove the ancient landmark. The ancient Israelites regarded respect for the posted landmark as more than a question of private property. They saw it as a basic part of civil life. People

3 Do not desire his delicacies,
For they are deceptive food.

4 [a]Do not overwork to be rich;
[b]Because of your own understanding,
cease!
5 Will you set your eyes on that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves
wings;
They fly away like an eagle toward
heaven.

6 Do not eat the bread of [c]a miser,*
Nor desire his delicacies;
7 For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.
"Eat and drink!" [d]he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.
8 The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up,
And waste your pleasant words.

9 [e]Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,
For he will despise the wisdom of your words.

10 Do not remove the ancient landmark,
Nor enter the fields of the fatherless;
11 [f]For their Redeemer is mighty;
He will plead their cause against you.

12 Apply your heart to instruction,
And your ears to words of knowledge.

13 [g]Do not withhold correction from a child,
For if you beat him with a rod, he will not die.
14 You shall beat him with a rod,
And deliver his soul from hell.*

15 My son, if your heart is wise,
My heart will rejoice—indeed, I myself;
16 Yes, my inmost being will rejoice
When your lips speak right things.

17 [h]Do not let your heart envy sinners,
But [i]be zealous for the fear of the LORD all the day;
18 [j]For surely there is a hereafter,
And your hope will not be cut off.

19 Hear, my son, and be wise;
And guide your heart in the way.

20 [k]Do not mix with winebibbers,
Or with gluttonous eaters of meat; 21 For the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty,
And drowsiness will clothe a man
with rags.

22 [l]Listen to your father who begot you,
And do not despise your mother when she is old.

23 [m]Buy the truth, and do not sell it,
Also wisdom and instruction and
understanding.

24 [n]The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice,
And he who begets a wise child will delight in him.
25 Let your father and your mother be glad,
And let her who bore you rejoice.

26 My son, give me your heart,
And let your eyes observe my ways.
27 [o]For a harlot is a deep pit,
And a seductress is a narrow well.
28 [p]She also lies in wait as for a victim,
And increases the unfaithful among men.

29 [q]Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has contentions?
Who has complaints?
Who has wounds without cause?
Who [r]has redness of eyes?
30 [s]Those who linger long at the wine,
Those who go in search of [t]mixed wine.
31 Do not look on the wine when it is red,
When it sparkles in the cup,
When it swirls around smoothly;
32 At the last it bites like a serpent,
And stings like a viper.
33 Your eyes will see strange things,
And your heart will utter perverse
things.
34 Yes, you will be like one who lies down in the midst of the sea,

must feel a certain sense of public trust and fairness for society to function.

23:4–5 Do not overwork to be rich. These verses call for moderation in work. Although the proverbs discourage laziness (22:13), they also discourage any overworking whose purpose is greater wealth.

23:13–14 if you beat him with a rod. This language was designed to motivate overly permissive parents, who were afraid of damaging children with any kind of discipline, or of making rules and enforcing them. There is no call here for abuse. Loving discipline does not destroy rebellious children; it does them a big favor.

23:15 if your heart is wise. Wisdom is an outgrowth of a proper response to discipline. That wisdom in turn is immediately discernible to the father and brings joy that must be expressed.

23:21 For the drunkard and the glutton. These kinds of people have no self-control, and this fact plagues them. Hebrew culture gave a prominent place to eating and drinking, but it had little tolerance for drunkenness and gluttony.

23:29–35 Who has woe? Along with Isaiah's celebrated description of debauchery (Is. 19:11–15), this section is one of the sharpest attacks on drunkenness in the Bible (vv. 19–21). The satire is razor sharp and the imagery vivid.

Nor desire to be with them;
2 For their heart devises violence,
And their lips talk of troublemaking.

3 Through wisdom a house is built,
And by understanding it is established;
4 By knowledge the rooms are filled
With all precious and pleasant riches.

5 [b]A wise man is strong,
Yes, a man of knowledge increases
strength;
6 [c]For by wise counsel you will wage

And in a multitude of counselors *there

7 [d]Wisdom is too lofty for a fool;

11 [g]Deliver those who are drawn toward
death,
And hold back those stumbling to the slaughter.
12 If you say, "Surely we did not know this,"
Does not [h]He who weighs the hearts
consider it?
He who keeps your soul, does He not know it?
And will He not render to each man
[i]according to his deeds?

13 My son, [j]eat honey because it is good,
And the honeycomb which is sweet to your taste;
14 [k]So shall the knowledge of wisdom be
to your soul;
If you have found it, there is a prospect,
And your hope will not be cut off.

15 Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the
righteous;
Do not plunder his resting place;
16 [l]For a righteous man may fall seven times
And rise again,
[m]But the wicked shall fall by calamity.

17 [n]Do not rejoice when your enemy falls,
And do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;
18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease
Him,
And He turn away His wrath from
him.

19 [o]Do not fret because of evildoers,
Nor be envious of the wicked;
20 For there will be no prospect for the
evil man;
The lamp of the wicked will be put out.

21 My son, [p]fear the LORD and the king;
Do not associate with those given to change;
22 For their calamity will rise suddenly,
And who knows the ruin those two can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

23 These things also belong to the wise:

[q]It is not good to show partiality in judgment.
24 [r]He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous,"
Him the people will curse;
Nations will abhor him.
25 But those who rebuke the wicked will have [s]delight,
And a good blessing will come upon
them.

24:6 The Will of God—Common sense tells us that God often works through circumstances and through wise counsel to reveal His will for us. A number of biblical examples illustrate this principle:

- God directed Abraham to substitute a ram, whose horns had become entangled in a thicket, for the life of Isaac (Gen. 22:13).
- God arranged for Pharaoh's daughter to be bathing in the river Nile at the exact time the baby Moses floated by in an ark of bulrushes (Ex. 2:1–10).
- Paul's young nephew happened to overhear a plot to kill his uncle. He then reported it to the authorities who saved Paul's life (Acts 23:11–35).

In light of the above, the Christian should ask himself, "Is the Lord showing me something through these circumstances?" We can also take great comfort in Paul's reminder to the Romans that God causes all things to "work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose" (Rom. 8:28).

24:21–22 fear the LORD and the king. This proverb relates most fully to the Davidic kings, who were God's regents on earth; one way the ancient Israelites could show respect for God was to respect the king.

30 I went by the field of the lazy man,
And by the vineyard of the man devoid

Further Wise Sayings of Solomon

25 These[a] also are proverbs of Solomon which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied:

2 [b]It is the glory of God to conceal a
matter,
But the glory of kings is to search out
a matter.

3 As the heavens for height and the earth for depth,
So the heart of kings is
unsearchable.

4 [c]Take away the dross from silver,
And it will go to the silversmith for jewelry.
5 Take away the wicked from before the
king,
And his throne will be established in [d]righteousness.

6 Do not exalt yourself in the presence
of the king,
And do not stand in the place of the great;
7 [e]For it is better that he say to you,
"Come up here,"
Than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,
Whom your eyes have seen.

8 [f]Do not go hastily to court;
For what will you do in the end,
When your neighbor has put you to shame?
9 [g]Debate your case with your neighbor,
And do not disclose the secret to
another;
10 Lest he who hears it expose your shame,
And your reputation be ruined.

11 A word fitly [h]spoken is like apples of gold
In settings of silver.
12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold
Is a wise rebuker to an obedient ear.

13 [i]Like the cold of snow in time of harvest
Is a faithful messenger to those who send him,
For he refreshes the soul of his masters.

14 [j]Whoever falsely boasts of giving
Is like [k]clouds and wind without rain.

15 [l]By long forbearance a ruler is persuaded,
And a gentle tongue breaks a bone.

16 Have you found honey?
Eat only as much as you need,
Lest you be filled with it and vomit.

17 Seldom set foot in your neighbor's
house,
Lest he become weary of you and hate
you.

* 24:28 Septuagint and Vulgate read Do not deceive.

25:1 These also are proverbs of Solomon. After the first collection of proverbs from Solomon (10:1—22:16) and proverbs from foreign sources (22:17—24:22; 24:23–34) comes a collection of proverbs attributed to Solomon, but which were not compiled until the time of Hezekiah. The following observations can be made: (1) The wisdom tradition concerning Solomon was prodigious; (2) Israel's interest in wisdom was particularly centered in times of relative peace; (3) Hezekiah's involvement in this activity was a mark of the strength of his rule and the sense he had of restoring Solomon's glory.

25:6 Do not exalt yourself. Knowing your place is a recurring theme in the Bible. It is humiliating to be told to remove yourself from a seat of honor. Jesus spoke of the same need for deference (Luke 14:11).

25:7 Whom your eyes have seen. This phrase reflects the custom in the ancient world of never looking directly in the eyes of a superior until told to do so (Is. 6:5).

25:15 By long forbearance a ruler is persuaded. In this passage the general rule that a gentle answer turns away wrath is applied to a particular and most difficult situation.

time of trouble
Is like a bad tooth and a foot out of joint.

20 Like one who takes away a garment in

And like vinegar on soda,
Is one who [n]sings songs to a heavy
heart.

21 [o]If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
And if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;
22 For so you will heap coals of fire on his head,
[p]And the LORD will reward you.

23 The north wind brings forth rain,
And [q]a backbiting tongue an angry
countenance.

24 [r]It is better to dwell in a corner of a housetop,
Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.

25 As cold water to a weary soul,
So is [s]good news from a far country.

26 A righteous man who falters before
the wicked
Is like a murky spring and a polluted
well.

27 It is not good to eat much honey;
So [t]to seek one's own glory is not glory.

28 [u]Whoever has no rule over his own spirit
Is like a city broken down, without walls.

26 As snow in summer [a]and rain in
harvest,
So honor is not fitting for a fool.

2 Like a flitting sparrow, like a flying swallow,
So [b]a curse without cause shall not alight.

3 [c]A whip for the horse,
A bridle for the donkey,
And a rod for the fool's back.

4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest you also be like him.
5 [d]Answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest he be wise in his own eyes.
6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.
7 Like the legs of the lame that hang limp
Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
8 Like one who binds a stone in a sling
Is he who gives honor to a fool.
9 Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard
Is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
10 The great God who formed everything Gives the fool his hire and the transgressor his wages.*
11 [e]As a dog returns to his own vomit,
[f]So a fool repeats his folly.
12 [g]Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for
him.

13 The lazy man says, "There is a lion in
the road!
A fierce lion is in the streets!"
14 As a door turns on its hinges,
So does the lazy man on his bed.
15 The [h]lazy man buries his hand in the bowl;*
It wearies him to bring it back to his
mouth.
16 The lazy man is wiser in his own eyes
Than seven men who can answer sensibly.

17 He who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own
Is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

18 Like a madman who throws
firebrands, arrows, and death,
19 Is the man who deceives his neighbor,
And says, [i]"I was only joking!"

20 Where there is no wood, the fire goes
out;
And where there is no talebearer, strife ceases.

* 26:10 The Hebrew is difficult; ancient and modern translators differ greatly. * 26:15 Compare 19:24

25:21–22 coals of fire. The words of Jesus in Matthew 5:43–48 have direct ties to these verses. They speak of God's judgment (Ps. 120:4; 140:10); the idea is that an act of kindness to your enemy may cause him or her to feel ashamed. This is just one way to overcome evil with good (Rom. 12:20).

26:4–5 according to his folly. Some people have called the two proverbs here contradictory, but that is not necessarily true. The phrase appears twice as a play on words with two shades of meaning. On the one hand, it means "avoid the temptation to stoop to his level"; that is do not use his methods, "lest you also be like him." On the other hand, it means "avoid the temptation to ignore him altogether"; that is respond in some way, or else he will become wise in his own eyes and his folly will get worse.

26:23 earthenware covered with silver dross. The meaning of this proverb is similar to Jesus' remarks to His enemies that they were like whitewashed tombs (Matt. 23:27). No amount of painting on the outside changes the value of the rotten interior.
26:24–26 revealed before the assembly. A person who hates says one thing but stores up anger within. He may find that his hatred hurts him, when in his life there is so much falsehood that no one believes him no matter how gracious and truthful he might be at times.
27:7 to a hungry soul. Those who are full do not appreciate what they have, while to those who are hungry anything tastes good.

27:17 iron sharpens iron. This may also be translated as applying to the will; "let iron sharpen iron, and so let a person sharpen his friend." The idea is that people grow from interaction with one another.

21 [m]The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
And a man is valued by what others say of him.

22 [n]Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with crushed grain,
Yet his foolishness will not depart from him.

23 Be diligent to know the state of your [o]flocks,
And attend to your herds;
24 For riches are not forever,
Nor does a crown endure to all generations.
25 [p]When the hay is removed, and the tender grass shows itself,
And the herbs of the mountains are gathered in,
26 The lambs will provide your clothing,
And the goats the price of a field;
27 You shall have enough goats' milk for your food,
For the food of your household,
And the nourishment of your maidservants.

28 The [a]wicked flee when no one pursues,
But the righteous are bold as a lion.

2 Because of the transgression of a land, many are its princes;
But by a man of understanding and knowledge
Right will be prolonged.

3 [b]A poor man who oppresses the poor
Is like a driving rain which leaves no food.

4 [c]Those who forsake the law praise the wicked,
[d]But such as keep the law contend with them.

5 [e]Evil men do not understand justice,
But [f]those who seek the LORD understand all.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than one perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

7 Whoever keeps the law is a discerning son,
But a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 One who increases his possessions by usury and extortion Gathers it for him who will pity the poor.

9 One who turns away his ear from hearing the law,
[g]Even his prayer is an abomination.

10 [h]Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,
He himself will fall into his own pit;
[i]But the blameless will inherit good.

11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes,
But the poor who has understanding searches him out.

12 When the righteous rejoice, there is great [j]glory;
But when the wicked arise, men hide themselves.

13 [k]He who covers his sins will not prosper,
But whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

14 Happy is the man who is always reverent,
But he who hardens his heart will fall into calamity.

15 [l]Like a roaring lion and a charging bear
[m]Is a wicked ruler over poor people.

16 A ruler who lacks understanding is a great [n]oppressor,
But he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

17 [o]A man burdened with bloodshed will flee into a pit;
Let no one help him.

18 Whoever walks blamelessly will be saved,
But he who is perverse in his ways will suddenly fall.

19 [p]He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,

28:4–5 Those who forsake the law. When a person abandons God's law, he or she loses all sense of right and praise the wicked (Rom. 1:28–32). Since true justice is from God, the ungodly have trouble understanding it. This is why the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (1:7).
28:7 a companion of gluttons. One way of breaking God's law is to be a companion of gluttons (23:20–21). This is why Jesus' enemies charged Him with associating with gluttons and winebibbers. Such accusations were attacks on His faithfulness to God (Matt. 11:19).
28:8 usury and extortion. Profit gained by charging interest or high "profit margins" is unjust. God will help the poor eventually at their exploiters' expense.
28:14 Happy is the man. This is a repeat of Psalm 1:1 about a person who is in awe of God. The person who never thinks of God faces calamity.

But he who follows frivolity will have poverty enough!

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings,
[q]But he who hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

21 [r]To show partiality is not good,
[s]Because for a piece of bread a man will transgress.

22 A man with an evil eye hastens after
riches,
And does not consider that [t]poverty will come upon him.

23 [u]He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward
Than he who flatters with the tongue.

24 Whoever robs his father or his mother,
And says, "It is no transgression,"
The same [v]is companion to a destroyer.

25 [w]He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife,
[x]But he who trusts in the LORD will be prospered.

26 He who [y]trusts in his own heart is a fool,
But whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

27 [z]He who gives to the poor will not lack,
But he who hides his eyes will have many curses.

28 When the wicked arise, [a]men hide
themselves;
But when they perish, the righteous
increase.

29 He[a] who is often rebuked, and hardens his neck,
Will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 When the righteous are in authority,
the [b]people rejoice;
But when a wicked man rules, [c]the people groan.

3 Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
But a companion of harlots wastes his wealth.

4 The king establishes the land by justice,
But he who receives bribes
overthrows it.

5 A man who [d]flatters his neighbor
Spreads a net for his feet.

6 By transgression an evil man is snared,
But the righteous sings and rejoices.

7 The righteous [e]considers the cause of the poor,
But the wicked does not understand such knowledge.

8 Scoffers [f]set a city aflame,
But wise men turn away wrath.

9 If a wise man contends with a foolish
man,
[g]Whether the fool rages or laughs,
there is no peace.

10 [h]The bloodthirsty hate the blameless,
But the upright seek his well-being.*

11 A fool vents all his [i]feelings,*
But a wise man holds them back.

12 If a ruler pays attention to lies,
All his servants become wicked.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
[j]The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14 The king who judges the [k]poor with
truth,
His throne will be established
forever.

15 The rod and rebuke give [l]wisdom,
But a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

16 When the wicked are multiplied,
transgression increases;
But the righteous will see their [m]fall.

17 Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
Yes, he will give delight to your soul.

18 [n]Where there is no revelation,* the people cast off restraint;
But [o]happy is he who keeps the law.

28:23 He who rebukes a man. Constructive criticism has more value than flattery, which aims only to win people's affection.

28:25–26 He who is . . . proud. One of the main causes of strife is pride; trust in God leads to blessing.

29:5 Spreads a net. Flattery is a lie. If you flatter your neighbor you are making a trap of some kind for him. God never lies. He always tells the truth and so should we.

29:13 The poor man and the oppressor. God is responsible for giving life to both. Jesus attested that God causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust (Matt. 5:45).

29:18 Where there is no revelation. Without God's revelation of the law, the people flounder. True happiness is discovered within the constraints of revelation, in the counsel of the Savior.

21 He who pampers his servant from

Will have him as a son in the end.

The Wisdom of Agur

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, his utterance. This man declared to Ithiel—to Ithiel and Ucal:

2 [a]Surely I am more stupid than any man,
And do not have the understanding of a man.
3 I neither learned wisdom
Nor have [b]knowledge of the Holy One.

4 [c]Who has ascended into heaven, or descended?
[d]Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of
the earth?
What is His name, and what is His Son's name,
If you know?

5 [e]Every word of God is pure;
[f]He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
6 [g]Do not add to His words,
Lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar.

7 Two things I request of You (Deprive me not before I die):
8 Remove falsehood and lies far from
me;
Give me neither poverty nor riches—
[h]Feed me with the food allotted to me;
9 [i]Lest I be full and deny You,
And say, "Who is the LORD?"
Or lest I be poor and steal,
And profane the name of my God.

10 Do not malign a servant to his master,
Lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curses its [j]father,
And does not bless its mother.
12 There is a generation [k]that is pure in its own eyes,
Yet is not washed from its filthiness.
13 There is a generation—oh, how [l]lofty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are lifted up.
14 [m]There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
And whose fangs are like knives,
[n]To devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.

15 The leech has two daughters—
Give and Give!

There are three things that are never satisfied,
Four never say, "Enough!":
16 [o]The grave,*
The barren womb,

29:23 A man's pride will bring him low. Pride, inordinate self-esteem, causes others to lose respect for the conceited egotist. In contrast to this, humility draws honor from others. However, pride takes many forms and is not always the adornment of just the conceited egotist.

29:26 but justice for man comes from the LORD. God controls human affairs. Therefore it makes more sense to seek the Lord first before stooping to seek the favor of human rulers.

30:1 The words of Agur. This verse starts an entirely new section of Proverbs. Like Lemuel (31:1–9), Agur was a non-Hebrew contributor to the Book of Proverbs. He came to faith in the God of Israel in a foreign land.

30:4 what is His name? This verse gives the riddle that perplexed Agur. The questions all culminate in the last two lines. The Old Testament would answer that "His name" is the Lord God, but did not have a name for His Son. This riddle was to remain unsolved until Jesus answered it for Nicodemus (John 3:13). These verses form one of the most straightforward messianic texts in the Bible.

And the fire never says, "Enough!"

17 [p]The eye that mocks his father,
And scorns obedience to his mother,
The ravens of the valley will pick it out,
And the young eagles will eat it.

18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me,
Yes, four which I do not understand:
19 The way of an eagle in the air,
The way of a serpent on a rock,
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
And the way of a man with a virgin.

20 This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She eats and wipes her mouth,
And says, "I have done no wickedness."

21 For three things the earth is perturbed,
Yes, for four it cannot bear up:
22 [q]For a servant when he reigns,
A fool when he is filled with food,
23 A hateful woman when she is married,
And a maidservant who succeeds her mistress.

24 There are four things which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
25 [r]The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;
26 [s]The rock badgers* are a feeble folk,
Yet they make their homes in the crags;
27 The locusts have no king,
Yet they all advance in ranks;
28 The spider* skillfully grasps with its hands,
And it is in kings' palaces.

29 There are three things which are majestic in pace,
Yes, four which are stately in walk:
30 A lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn away from any;
31 A greyhound,*
A male goat also,
And a king whose troops are with him.*

32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself,
Or if you have devised evil, [t]put your hand on your mouth.
33 For as the churning of milk produces butter,
And wringing the nose produces blood,
So the forcing of wrath produces strife.

The Words of King Lemuel's Mother

31 The words of King Lemuel, the utterance which his mother taught him:

2 What, my son?
And what, son of my womb?
And what, [a]son of my vows?
3 [b]Do not give your strength to women,
Nor your ways [c]to that which destroys kings.

4 [d]It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine,
Nor for princes intoxicating drink;
5 [e]Lest they drink and forget the law,
And pervert the justice of all the afflicted.
6 [f]Give strong drink to him who is perishing,
And wine to those who are bitter of heart.
7 Let him drink and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.

8 [g]Open your mouth for the speechless,
In the cause of all who are appointed to die.*
9 Open your mouth, [h]judge righteously,
And [i]plead the cause of the poor and needy.

The Virtuous Wife

10 [j]Who* can find a virtuous* wife?
For her worth is far above rubies.

* 30:26 Or hyraxes * 30:28 Or lizard

30:19 virgin. This term could also read maid or young woman in this context.
30:20 This is the way. This verse contrasts with the way of verse 19; this way is awful whereas the former is wonderful. The adulterous woman regards her illicit sexual relations without remorse.
30:24–28 four things which are little on the earth. This numerical proverb speaks of four creatures that are small in size but amazing in behavior. Each of these small creatures has a behavioral trait from which wise people can learn.
30:32–33 put your hand on your mouth. This phrase means "stop it." The idea is if you are in the middle of making trouble and suddenly realize your foolishness, stop right then before things get worse.
31:1 The words of King Lemuel. This verse begins a new section of material from a non-Israelite source.
31:4–5 Lest they drink and forget the law. In this passage the consumption of strong drink is linked to injustice.
31:10 a virtuous wife. Proverbs 31:10–31 is an acrostic poem; each verse begins with a successive letter to the Hebrew alphabet. As the Book of Proverbs begins with a Prologue (1:1–7), which gives the goals of wisdom in general terms, so now it concludes with this Epilogue, which presents them in a case study.

31:20–22 to the poor. The excellent woman works not to get rich, but to give to the poor. She can be concerned for others because she has provided for her own family.

31:26 on her tongue is the law of kindness. This attribute of kindness in a woman is valued far above physical charm in God's sight. Peter describes real beauty as a product of the heart and not the combination of certain physical features (1 Pet. 3:1–5).

31:30–31 Charm. Charm, which could be translated "graciousness," like beauty, can deceive us about the true nature of someone's character. But if a woman fears the Lord, that is trustworthy and more worthy of praise than physical comeliness.

THE BOOK OF ECCLESIASTES

▶ AUTHOR: The author calls himself "the son of David, king in Jerusalem" in 1:1. Solomonic authorship is the standard Christian position, although some scholars, along with the Talmud, believe the work was later edited during the time of Hezekiah or possibly Ezra. The proverbs in this book are similar to those in the Book of Proverbs (Eccl. 7; 10). According to 12:9, the Preacher collected and arranged many proverbs, perhaps referring to the two Solomonic collections in Proverbs.

▶ TIME: c. 935 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Eccl. 2:24

▶ THEME: Ecclesiastes is a Greek word that is usually translated "the preacher" or "the teacher." The book was likely written late in Solomon's life, when he could see that the glorious era of his kingdom was beginning to decline. He had it all—power, prestige, pleasure—but none of that provides ultimate satisfaction. That fulfillment comes only through a relationship with God and obedience to His word. It is important to note that the arguments of the book are more thematic than linear. The same topics are addressed in different ways at different points within the work.

The Vanity of Life

1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, [a]king in Jerusalem.

2 "Vanity[b]* of vanities," says the Preacher;
"Vanity of vanities, [c]all is vanity."

3 [d]What profit has a man from all his labor
In which he toils under the sun?

4 One generation passes away, and another generation comes;
[e]But the earth abides forever.

5 [f]The sun also rises, and the sun goes down,
And hastens to the place where it arose.

6 [g]The wind goes toward the south,
And turns around to the north;
The wind whirls about continually,
And comes again on its circuit.

7 [h]All the rivers run into the sea,
Yet the sea is not full;
To the place from which the rivers come,
There they return again.

8 All things are full of labor;
Man cannot express it.
[i]The eye is not satisfied with seeing,
Nor the ear filled with hearing.

9 [j]That which has been is what will be,
That which is done is what will be done,
And there is nothing new under the sun.

10 Is there anything of which it may be said,
"See, this is new"?

* 1:2 Or Absurdity, Frustration, Futility, Nonsense; and so throughout this book

1:1 the Preacher. This word denotes a function or a profession. It literally means "one who assembles or gathers people together." Thus the word refers to Solomon as a person who convened an assembly of the wise in order to explore in a formal manner the meaning of life.

1:2 Vanity of vanities. This phrase translates the Hebrew superlative, familiar from such phrases as "Song of Songs" and "holy of holies." Here it might express "the ultimate absurdity" or "utter emptiness." The word vanity means "breath" or "vapor" and thus speaks of life as "quickly passing." Life is like a vapor; indeed, it is like the thinnest of vapors. Wherever we read the word vanity in Ecclesiastes, we should think not of what is "meaningless," but of what is "quickly passing" (v. 14; 6:12). This is one of the key terms in the Book of Ecclesiastes, for it is found 38 times here, but only 34 times throughout the rest of the Old Testament. The teaching of the Preacher is to realize that life is a fleeting thing that needs to be savored and enjoyed as a gift from God.

1:4 One generation. This term suggests both the human actors and the natural phenomena as well. With the verb "passes" we have the first of a series of antitheses in Ecclesiastes. the earth abides forever. Only God is eternal and everlasting in the fullest sense. But compared to the lives of humankind, the earth abides with little change.

11 There is [k]no remembrance of former
things,
Nor will there be any remembrance of things that are to come
By those who will come after.

The Grief of Wisdom

12 I, the Preacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 And I set my heart to seek and [l]search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; [m]this burdensome task God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be exercised. 14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun;
and indeed, all is vanity and grasping for
the wind.

15 [n]What is crooked cannot be made straight,
And what is lacking cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with my heart, saying,
"Look, I have attained greatness, and have gained [o]more wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My heart has understood great wisdom and knowledge." 17 [p]And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is grasping for the wind.

18 For [q]in much wisdom is much grief,
And he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

The Vanity of Pleasure

2 I said [a]in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with [b]mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure"; but surely, [c]this also was vanity. 2 I said of laughter—"Madness!"; and of mirth, "What does it accomplish?" 3 [d]I searched in my heart how to gratify my flesh with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was [e]good for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their lives.

4 I made my works great, I built myself
[f]houses, and planted myself vineyards. 5 I made myself gardens and orchards, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.
6 I made myself water pools from which to water the growing trees of the grove. 7 I acquired male and female servants, and had servants born in my house. Yes, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were in Jerusalem before me.
8 [g]I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the special treasures of kings and of the provinces. I acquired male and female singers, the delights of the sons of men, and musical instruments* of all kinds.

9 [h]So I became great and excelled [i]more than all who were before me in Jerusalem.
Also my wisdom remained with me.

10 Whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them.
I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure,
For my heart rejoiced in all my labor;
And [j]this was my reward from all my labor.
11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had done
And on the labor in which I had toiled;
And indeed all was [k]vanity and grasping for the wind.
There was no profit under the sun.

The End of the Wise and the Fool

12 Then I turned myself to consider wisdom [l]and madness and folly;
For what can the man do who succeeds the king?—
Only what he has already [m]done.
13 Then I saw that wisdom [n]excels folly
As light excels darkness.
14 [o]The wise man's eyes are in his head,
But the fool walks in darkness.
Yet I myself perceived
That [p]the same event happens to them
all.

15 So I said in my heart,
"As it happens to the fool,
It also happens to me,

* 2:8 Exact meaning unknown

1:13 under heaven. This is a synonymous expression for "under the sun" (vv. 3,9); it refers to life as it is lived by people on earth.

1:14 grasping for the wind. This phrase does not occur in the Hebrew Bible outside of Ecclesiastes. Seven of its nine occurrences (v. 14; 2:11,17,26; 4:4,6; 6:9) follow "vanity" statements. The phrase explains the nature of life according to the Preacher. Life is real, but quickly passing; any attempt to slow it is futile.

2:1 Come now, I will test you with mirth. The Preacher uses a literary device of conversing with himself as a way of describing his thought processes.

pleasure. A new test is proposed, following the test of wisdom. It is the test of "joy."

2:2 Madness. Solomon labels the lighter side of pleasure and joy as sheer madness, but even the weightier aspects of laughter cause Solomon to ask if anything substantial is really achieved. As Solomon writes in Proverbs 14:13, "Even in laughter the heart may sorrow, and the end of mirth may be grief."

2:10 my eyes desired. Solomon had limitless ability to fulfill any and all of his desires.

2:11 indeed all was vanity. At the end of his grand quest for possessions and experiences, Solomon

And why was I then more wise?"
Then I said in my heart,
"This also is vanity."
16 For there is [q]no more remembrance of the wise than of the fool
forever,
Since all that now is will be forgotten
in the days to come.
And how does a wise man die?
As the fool!

17 Therefore I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was distressing to me, for all is vanity and grasping for the wind.

18 Then I hated all my labor in which I had toiled under the sun, because [r]I must leave it to the man who will come after me. 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will rule over all my labor in which I toiled and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity. 20 Therefore I turned my heart and despaired of all the labor in which I had toiled under the sun. 21 For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he must leave his heritage to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22 [s]For what has man for all his labor, and for the striving of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun? 23 For all his days are [t]sorrowful, and his work burdensome; even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.

24 [u]Nothing is better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and that his soul should enjoy good in his labor. This also, I saw, was from the hand of God. 25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?* 26 For God gives [v]wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His sight; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting, that [w]he may give to him who is good before God. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Everything Has Its Time

3 To everything there is a season,
A [a]time for every purpose under heaven:

2 A time to be born,
And [b]a time to die;
A time to plant,
And a time to pluck what is planted;
3 A time to kill,
And a time to heal;
A time to break down,
And a time to build up;
4 A time to [c]weep,
And a time to laugh;
A time to mourn,
And a time to dance;
5 A time to cast away stones,
And a time to gather stones;
[d]A time to embrace,
And a time to refrain from embracing;
6 A time to gain,
And a time to lose;
A time to keep,
And a time to throw away;
7 A time to tear,
And a time to sew;
[e]A time to keep silence,
And a time to [f]speak;

* 2:25 Following Masoretic Text, Targum, and Vulgate; some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, and Syriac read without Him.

concluded that it was "vanity" or a "vapor," a striving after the wind. That is, even with all he had done and experienced, there was still a sense that nothing lasting or enduring had been achieved.

2:17 Therefore I hated life. Such hatred of life is astonishing since the one who finds wisdom also finds life, according to Proverbs 3:16. But the Preacher's dissatisfaction was related to the quickly passing nature of everything (1:2), including the good things.

2:21 This also is vanity and a great evil. The term evil often has a sense of moral evil; here, however, it may mean "calamity" or "ruin." There is a sense of sadness that runs through this section. Nothing that we gain in this life can be carried on into the life to come.

2:24 eat and drink. The Preacher concludes that all good is located only in God. This phrase marks one of the central affirmations of the book (3:12,22; 8:15; 9:7); in the midst of a world of trouble, a believer is able to seize the moment in joy from God. Only God supplies the key to the meaning of life. Without Him, genuine meaning, satisfaction, and enjoyment in life are ultimately elusive.

2:26 God gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy. One of the words used most frequently in Ecclesiastes to describe God's relationship to individuals is a verb "to give." It appears 11 times with God as the subject. Joy is God's gift to the man who is good in His sight. God has designed us so that true joy is possible only through Him.

3:1–15 To everything there is a season. Some regard the Book of Ecclesiastes as describing life apart from God. But clearly this text describes life that is lived in relationship with God. Through these words, the Preacher is not saying that everything has an opportune time according to which one should choose one action or the other. Rather, he teaches that all events are in the hand of God, who makes everything happen in the time He judges appropriate.

3:5 A time to cast away stones. In times of peace, stones were cleared from the fields allowing for cultivation. In wartime, the rocks were thrown on the fields to make them unusable (2 Kin. 3:19,25).

3:7 A time to tear, And a time to sew. When bad news came, it was customary to rip one's garments to show grief (2 Sam. 13:31). When the problem passed, it was just as well to sew the garment back together.

The God-Given Task

9 [h]What profit has the worker from that in which he labors? 10 [i]I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied. 11 He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that [j]no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

12 I know that nothing is [k]better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, 13 and also that [l]every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labor—
it is the gift of God.

14 I know that whatever God does,
It shall be forever.
[m]Nothing can be added to it,
And nothing taken from it.
God does it, that men should fear before Him.
15 [n]That which is has already been,
And what is to be has already been;
And God requires an account of what is past.

Injustice Seems to Prevail

16 Moreover [o]I saw under the sun:

In the place of judgment,
Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness,
Iniquity was there.

17 I said in my heart,

[p]"God shall judge the righteous and the wicked,
For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work."

18 I said in my heart, "Concerning the condition of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals." 19 [q]For what happens to the sons of men also happens to animals;
one thing befalls them: as one dies, so dies
the other. Surely, they all have one breath; man has no advantage over animals, for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place: [r]all are from the dust, and all return to dust.
21 [s]Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, which goes down to the earth?*
22 [t]So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for [u]that is his heritage. [v]For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?

4 Then I returned and considered all the
[a]oppression that is done under the sun:

And look! The tears of the oppressed,
But they have no comforter—
On the side of their oppressors there is power,
But they have no comforter.
2 [b]Therefore I praised the dead who were already dead,
More than the living who are still alive.
3 [c]Yet, better than both is he who has never existed,
Who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

The Vanity of Selfish Toil

4 Again, I saw that for all toil and every skillful work a man is envied by his neighbor. This also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

5 [d]The fool folds his hands
And consumes his own flesh.

* 3:21 Septuagint, Syriac, Targum, and Vulgate read Who knows whether the spirit … goes upward, and whether … goes downward to the earth?

3:9 What profit has the worker. This is the same question posed in 1:3. The answer here is that all of life unfolds at the appointment of God. All the toiling of man cannot change the time, circumstances, and control of events that God has reserved for Himself.

3:11 put eternity in their hearts. This phrase refers to a deep-seated, compulsive drive to transcend our mortality by knowing the meaning and destiny of the world. Because we are made in the image of God, we have an inborn inquisitiveness about eternal realities. We can find peace only when we come to know our eternal Creator. Even then, we know God only in part (1 Cor. 13:12).

3:12–13 nothing is better . . . to rejoice. As in 2:24, the advice of the Preacher is to seize the day in the joy of God. Biblical faith is a call for joy, even when we live in a wicked world and under terrible stress; this is because we find true joy in the living God.

3:16–17 Wickedness was there. It was outrageous that in the very establishments where people should expect justice, they could find only wickedness. The Preacher warns the wicked judges that God, the final Judge, will come to rectify all wrongdoing and bring true justice.

3:20 All go to one place. Both humans and beasts die and go to the grave. But this is not the end for human beings—they will face eternal life or death.

4:1 they have no comforter. So much pain can come to the downtrodden that they may even despair of life (1 Kin. 19:4). Only when the oppressed go into the house of God will they gain perspective (5:1–6; Ps. 73:17).

4:3 who has never existed. So powerfully wrong and so lonely is the suffering of the oppressed, that Solomon, with a good deal of poetic license similar to Job 3:3–10, argues that nonexistence could be preferred over existence.

3:8 [g] Luke 14:26 3:9 [h] Eccl. 1:3 3:10 [i] Eccl. 1:13 3:11 [j] Rom. 11:33 3:12 [k] Eccl. 2:3, 24 3:13 [l] Eccl. 2:24 3:14 [m] James 1:17 3:15 [n] Eccl. 1:9 3:16 [o] Eccl. 5:8 3:17 [p] [Rom. 2:6–10] 3:19 [q] [Eccl. 2:16] 3:20 [r] Gen. 3:19 3:21 [s] Eccl. 12:7 3:22 [t] Eccl. 2:24; 5:18 [u] Eccl. 2:10 [v] Eccl. 6:12; 8:7 4:1 [a] Eccl. 3:16; 5:8 4:2 [b] Job 3:17, 18 4:3 [c] Job 3:11–22 4:5 [d] Prov. 6:10; 24:33

6 [e]Better a handful with quietness Than both hands full, together with toil and grasping for the wind.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun:

8 There is one alone, without companion:
He has neither son nor brother.
Yet there is no end to all his labors,
Nor is his [f]eye satisfied with riches.
But [g]he never asks,
"For whom do I toil and deprive myself of [h]good?"
This also is vanity and a grave misfortune.

The Value of a Friend

9 Two are better than one,
Because they have a good reward for their labor.
10 For if they fall, one will lift up his companion.
But woe to him who is alone when he
falls,
For he has no one to help him up.
11 Again, if two lie down together, they will keep warm;
But how can one be warm alone?
12 Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him.
And a threefold cord is not quickly
broken.

Popularity Passes Away

13 Better a poor and wise youth Than an old and foolish king who will be admonished no more.
14 For he comes out of prison to be
king,
Although he was born poor in his kingdom.
15 I saw all the living who walk under the
sun;
They were with the second youth who stands in his place.
16 There was no end of all the people over whom he was made king;
Yet those who come afterward will not rejoice in him.
Surely this also is vanity and grasping for the wind.

Fear God, Keep Your Vows

5 Walk [a]prudently when you go to the house of God; and draw near to hear rather [b]than to give the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

2 Do not be [c]rash with your mouth,
And let not your heart utter anything hastily before God.
For God is in heaven, and you on
earth;
Therefore let your words [d]be few.
3 For a dream comes through much activity,
And [e]a fool's voice is known by his many words.

4 [f]When you make a vow to God, do not delay to [g]pay it;
For He has no pleasure in fools.
Pay what you have vowed—5 [h]Better not to vow than to vow and not pay.

6 Do not let your [i]mouth cause your flesh to sin, [j]nor say before the messenger of God that it was an error. Why should God be angry at your excuse* and destroy the work of your hands? 7 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there is also vanity. But [k]fear God.

The Vanity of Gain and Honor

8 If you [l]see the oppression of the poor, and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness in a province, do not marvel at the matter; for [m]high official watches over high official, and higher officials are over them.

9 Moreover the profit of the land is for all; even the king is served from the field.

10 He who loves silver will not be satisfied with silver;
Nor he who loves abundance, with
increase.
This also is vanity.

* 5:6 Literally voice

4:8 Nor is his eye satisfied. Man is in love with what is vanishing. The antidote for covetousness is to replace sinful desire for increase in wealth, with a strong passion for doing the will of God (1 John 2:17).
4:9–12 Two are better than one. Throughout this section there is an emphasis on the obvious benefits of companions. The intimacy and sharing of life brings relief for the problem of isolation and loneliness. A companion can offer assistance, comfort, and defense—a threefold cord.
5:1 Walk prudently. This means behave yourself. The idea of righteous behavior is rephrased at the end of the section in the words: "fear God" (5:7).
5:4–5 When you make a vow to God. One should not attempt to bribe God with a hasty vow. The first part of this verse is almost identical to Deuteronomy 23:21. See the later example of the lie of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1–11).
5:7 fear God. This is a central theme of the Book of Ecclesiastes. It does not mean to be afraid of God (Ex. 20:2). It means to have reverence, awe, and wonder in response to His glory.
5:10 will not be satisfied. Desire always outruns possessions, no matter how vast acquisitions may grow.

11 When goods increase,
They increase who eat them;
So what profit have the owners
Except to see them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet,
Whether he eats little or much;
But the abundance of the rich will not permit him to sleep.

13 [n]There is a severe evil which I have seen under the sun:
Riches kept for their owner to his hurt.
14 But those riches perish through misfortune;
When he begets a son, there is nothing
in his hand.
15 [o]As he came from his mother's womb,
naked shall he return,
To go as he came;
And he shall take nothing from his labor
Which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a severe evil—
Just exactly as he came, so shall he go.
And [p]what profit has he [q]who has labored for the wind?
17 All his days [r]he also eats in darkness,
And he has much sorrow and sickness and anger.

18 Here is what I have seen: [s]It is good and fitting for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labor in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which God gives him; [t]for it is his heritage.
19 As for [u]every man to whom God has given riches and wealth, and given him power to eat of it, to receive his heritage and rejoice in his labor—this is the [v]gift of God.
20 For he will not dwell unduly on the days of his life, because God keeps him busy with the joy of his heart.

6 There[a] is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: 2 A man to whom God has given riches and wealth and honor, [b]so that he lacks nothing for himself of all he desires; [c]yet God does not give him power to eat of it, but a foreigner consumes it. This is vanity, and it is an evil affliction.

3 If a man begets a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with goodness, or [d]indeed he has no burial, I say that [e]a stillborn child is better than he— 4 for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. 5 Though it has not seen the sun or known anything, this has more rest than that man, 6 even if he lives a thousand years twice—but has not seen goodness. Do not all go to one [f]place?

7 [g]All the labor of man is for his mouth,
And yet the soul is not satisfied.
8 For what more has the wise man than the fool?
What does the poor man have,
Who knows how to walk before the living?
9 Better is the [h]sight of the eyes than the wandering of desire.
This also is vanity and grasping for
the wind.

10 Whatever one is, he has been named
[i]already,
For it is known that he is man;
[j]And he cannot contend with Him who is mightier than he.
11 Since there are many things that increase vanity,
How is man the better?

12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he passes like [k]a shadow? [l]Who can tell a man what will happen after him under the sun?

The Value of Practical Wisdom

7 A [a]good name is better than precious ointment,
And the day of death than the day of one's [b]birth;
2 Better to go to the house of mourning
Than to go to the house of feasting,
For that is the end of all men;
And the living will take it to [c]heart.
3 Sorrow is better than laughter, [d]For by a sad countenance the heart is made better.

5:15 As he came . . . naked. The maxim that "you can't take it with you" is affirmed here (2:21).
5:19 this is the gift of God. God has separated the gift of enjoying something from the gift of the object itself so that we might be driven back to the Giver.
6:2 God does not give him power. Prosperity without the divine gift of enjoyment amounts to nothing (5:19).
6:6 Do not all go to one place? That one place is the grave (3:20). If a long life terminates in death with no prospect of anything else, will that life have been worthwhile? Long life without knowing God and without the power to enjoy it is indeed frustrating and useless.
6:12 like a shadow. This phrase is a confirmation of the meaning of the Hebrew word translated vanity. Life passes away quickly, like a vapor. what will happen after him. The implied answer is that only God knows what will happen to us after death. Rather than imply that nothing exists beyond the grave, this book teaches that each person's life will be reviewed by God after death.
7:2–4 house of mourning. We may learn more about the meaning of life in the house of mourning than in the house of mirth.

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
But the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

5 [e]It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise
Than for a man to hear the song of fools.
6 [f]For like the crackling of thorns under a pot,
So is the laughter of the fool.
This also is vanity.
7 Surely oppression destroys a wise man's reason,
[g]And a bribe debases the heart.

8 The end of a thing is better than its beginning;
[h]The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.
9 [i]Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry,
For anger rests in the bosom of fools.
10 Do not say,
"Why were the former days better than these?"
For you do not inquire wisely concerning this.

11 Wisdom is good with an inheritance,
And profitable [j]to those who see the sun.
12 For wisdom is a [k]defense as money is a defense,
But the excellence of knowledge is that wisdom gives [l]life to those who have it.

13 Consider the work of God;
For [m]who can make straight what He has made crooked?
14 [n]In the day of prosperity be joyful,
But in the day of adversity consider:
Surely God has appointed the one as well as the other,
So that man can find out nothing that will come after him.

15 I have seen everything in my days of vanity:

[o]There is a just man who perishes in his righteousness,
And there is a wicked man who prolongs life in his wickedness.

16 [p]Do not be overly righteous,
[q]Nor be overly wise:
Why should you destroy yourself?
17 Do not be overly wicked,
Nor be foolish:
[r]Why should you die before your time?
18 It is good that you grasp this,
And also not remove your hand from the other;
For he who [s]fears God will escape them all.

19 [t]Wisdom strengthens the wise
More than ten rulers of the city.

20 [u]For there is not a just man on earth who does good
And does not sin.

21 Also do not take to heart everything people say,
Lest you hear your servant cursing you.
22 For many times, also, your own heart has known
That even you have cursed others.

23 All this I have proved by wisdom.
[v]I said, "I will be wise";
But it was far from me.
24 [w]As for that which is far off and [x]exceedingly deep,
Who can find it out?
25 [y]I applied my heart to know,
To search and seek out wisdom and the reason of things,
To know the wickedness of folly,
Even of foolishness and madness.

7:9 anger rests in the bosom of fools. Anger is a destructive flood, working all kinds of havoc in our lives. It often leads to protracted and bitter strife (Prov. 30:33). It disrupts and disunites families (1 Sam. 20:30) and may lead to murder (Gen. 4:4–5; 49:6).
7:13 straight what He has made crooked. The bend that needs straightening is the presence of afflictions and adversities in life. Both prosperity and adversity come from the hand of God. For prosperity give thanks, but in adversity reflect on the goodness and the comprehensiveness of the plan of God.
7:15 There is a just man. There are inequities in life that will always be a mystery (3:16—4:3; 8:14).
7:16–18 Be not be overly righteous. Few verses in Ecclesiastes are more susceptible to incorrect interpretation than these. This one is not the so-called golden mean that advises: "Don't be too holy and don't be too wicked; sin to a moderate degree." The Preacher was warning instead about pseudo-religiosity and showy forms of worship as well as self-righteousness and judgmental legalism.
7:20 Individual Sin—The depravity of man is verifiable. In Romans 3:23, Paul echoes this when he says, "for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." All we have to do is watch the news or check the headlines and we are forced to deal with this reality. Each individual man, woman, and child needs the righteousness of God. Without God's righteousness no one can ever enter or stand in God's presence. We all need new life in Christ because we are all sinners.
7:24 Who can find it out? The theme of wisdom's inaccessibility also appears in Job 28. The answer to this search for wisdom is that God can find wisdom (Job 28:23–28).

7:5 [e] Ps. 141:5 7:6 [f] Eccl. 2:2 7:7 [g] Ex. 23:8 7:8 [h] Prov. 14:29 7:9 [i] James 1:19 7:11 [j] Eccl. 11:7 7:12 [k] Eccl. 9:18 [l] Prov. 3:18 7:13 [m] Job 12:14 7:14 [n] Deut. 28:47 7:15 [o] Eccl. 8:12–14 7:16 [p] Prov. 25:16 [q] Rom. 12:3 7:17 [r] Job 15:32 7:18 [s] Eccl. 3:14; 5:7; 8:12, 13 7:19 [t] Prov. 21:22 7:20 [u] 1 John 1:8 7:23 [v] Rom. 1:22 7:24 [w] 1 Tim. 6:16 [x] Rom. 11:33 7:25 [y] Eccl. 1:17

26 [z]And I find more bitter than death
The woman whose heart is snares and nets,
Whose hands are fetters.
He who pleases God shall escape from her,
But the sinner shall be trapped by her.

27 "Here is what I have found," says [a]the Preacher,
"Adding one thing to the other to find out the reason, 28 Which my soul still seeks but I cannot find:
[b]One man among a thousand I have found,
But a woman among all these I have not found.
29 Truly, this only I have found:
[c]That God made man upright,
But [d]they have sought out many schemes."

8 Who is like a wise man?
And who knows the interpretation of a thing?
[a]A man's wisdom makes his face shine,
And [b]the sternness of his face is changed.

Obey Authorities for God's Sake

2 I say, "Keep the king's commandment [c]for the sake of your oath to God. 3 [d]Do not be hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand for an evil thing, for he does whatever pleases him."

4 Where the word of a king is, there is power;
And [e]who may say to him, "What are you doing?"
5 He who keeps his command will experience nothing harmful;
And a wise man's heart discerns both time and judgment,
6 Because [f]for every matter there is a time and judgment,
Though the misery of man increases greatly.
7 [g]For he does not know what will happen;
So who can tell him when it will occur?
8 [h]No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit,
And no one has power in the day of death.
There is [i]no release from that war,
And wickedness will not deliver those who are given to it.

9 All this I have seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: There is a time in which one man rules over another to his own hurt.

Death Comes to All

10 Then I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of holiness, and they were [j]forgotten* in the city where they had so done. This also is vanity. 11 [k]Because the sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. 12 [l]Though a sinner does evil a hundred times, and his days are prolonged, yet I surely know that [m]it will be well with those who fear God, who fear before Him. 13 But it will not be well with the wicked; nor will he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

14 There is a vanity which occurs on earth, that there are just men to whom it [n]happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the [o]righteous. I said that this also is vanity.

15 [p]So I commended enjoyment, because a man has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink, and be merry; for this will remain with him in his labor all the days of his life which God gives him under the sun.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to see the business that is done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night, 17 then I saw all the work of God, that [q]a man cannot find out the work that

* 8:10 Some Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint, and Vulgate read praised.

7:29 God made man upright. God created men to do right. They have preferred to search out their own path.

8:1 makes his face shine . . . sternness of his face is changed. This idiom is an image of a person who is stable. Out of the depths of experience and understanding, that person is able to enjoy life and build up others.

8:8 power over the spirit to retain the spirit. In this context spirit could mean "life force" (3:19). God is in charge.

8:15 eat, drink, and be merry. In contrast to the search for the meaning of all things is the contentment that a wise, loving God gives to those who will receive His gifts. Here is one of the central themes of Ecclesiastes. The Preacher marks the end of the third major section of his book with this refrain. The wicked person (the fool) decides that the best thing to do is "to eat, drink, and be merry" with no thought given to the living God. But the righteous person (the wise) can enjoy life while thinking of God and His good gifts.

7:26 [z] Prov. 5:3, 4 7:27 [a] Ecc. 1:1, 2 7:28 [b] Job 33:23 7:29 [c] Gen. 1:27 [d] Gen. 3:6, 7 8:1 [a] Acts 6:15 [b] Deut. 28:50 8:2 [c] 1 Chr. 29:24 8:3 [d] Ecc. 10:4 8:4 [e] Job 34:18 8:6 [f] Ecc. 3:1, 17 8:7 [g] Ecc. 6:12 8:8 [h] Ps. 49:6, 7 [i] Deut. 20:5–8 8:10 [j] Ecc. 2:16; 9:5 8:11 [k] Is. 26:10 8:12 [l] Is. 65:20 [m] [Is. 3:10] 8:14 [n] Ps. 73:14 [o] Ecc. 2:14; 7:15; 9:1–3 8:15 [p] Ecc. 2:24 8:17 [q] Rom. 11:33

is done under the sun. For though a man labors to discover it, yet he will not find it; moreover, though a wise man attempts to know it, he will not be able to find it.

9 For I considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: [a]that the righteous and the wise and their works are in the hand of God. People know neither love nor hatred by anything they see before them. 2[b]All things come alike to all:

One event happens to the righteous and the wicked;
To the good,* the clean, and the unclean;
To him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice.
As is the good, so is the sinner;
He who takes an oath as he who fears an oath.

3This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that one thing happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are full of evil; madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead. 4But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they will die;
But [c]the dead know nothing,
And they have no more reward,
For [d]the memory of them is forgotten.
6 Also their love, their hatred, and their envy have now perished;
Nevermore will they have a share
In anything done under the sun.

7 Go, [e]eat your bread with joy,
And drink your wine with a merry
heart;
For God has already accepted your
works.
8 Let your garments always be white,
And let your head lack no oil.

9Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity; [f]for that is your portion in life, and in the labor which you perform under the sun.

10[g]Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your [h]might; for there is no work or device or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

11I returned [i]and saw under the sun that—

The race is not to the swift,
Nor the battle to the strong,
Nor bread to the wise,
Nor riches to men of understanding,
Nor favor to men of skill;
But time and [j]chance happen to them
all.
12 For [k]man also does not know his
time:
Like fish taken in a cruel net,
Like birds caught in a snare,
So the sons of men are [l]snared in an evil time,
When it falls suddenly upon them.

Wisdom Superior to Folly

13This wisdom I have also seen under the sun, and it seemed great to me: 14[m]There was a little city with few men in it; and a great king came against it, besieged it, and built great snares* around it. 15Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that same poor man.

16Then I said:

"Wisdom is better than [n]strength.
Nevertheless [o]the poor man's wisdom is despised,
And his words are not heard.
17 Words of the wise, spoken quietly, should be heard
Rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.
18 Wisdom is better than weapons of
war;
But [p]one sinner destroys much
good."

* 9:2 Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read good and bad. * 9:14 Septuagint, Syriac, and Vulgate read bulwarks.

9:1 neither love nor hatred. Sometimes in Hebrew two opposites together are a way of saying "everything." Love and hate are best viewed as words for God's favor and disfavor.

9:5 the dead know nothing. This is not a flat denial of any hope beyond the grave. The point of view is limited to what can be known strictly from the human point of view, "under the sun."

9:8 Let your garments always be white. It was difficult in ancient times to keep white clothing clean (see analogy in Is. 1:18). White clothing and ointments—oil—were symbols of joy and purity.

9:11 not to the swift . . . to the strong . . . wise . . . understanding . . . men of skill. We would like to think that the best always win, that the deserving are always rewarded. But our experience shows that these expectations are not always realized. These five assets were enjoyed by individuals. But while some planned and counted on their assets, God in the end determined their lot.

9:14–18 There was a little city. Here is a parable about how an unstoppable military operation against a small city was prevented by the wisdom of one poor but wise man. The conclusion is that wisdom is preferable to strength, and should be heeded.

10 Dead flies putrefy* the perfumer's
ointment,
And cause it to give off a foul odor;
So does a little folly to one respected for wisdom and honor.
2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand,
But a fool's heart at his left.
3 Even when a fool walks along the way,
He lacks wisdom,
[a]And he shows everyone that he is a fool.
4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against
you,
[b]Do not leave your post;
For [c]conciliation pacifies great offenses.
5 There is an evil I have seen under the
sun,
As an error proceeding from the ruler:
6 [d]Folly is set in great dignity,
While the rich sit in a lowly place.
7 I have seen servants [e]on horses,
While princes walk on the ground like
servants.
8 [f]He who digs a pit will fall into it,
And whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.
9 He who quarries stones may be hurt
by them,
And he who splits wood may be endangered by it.
10 If the ax is dull,
And one does not sharpen the edge,
Then he must use more strength;
But wisdom brings success.
11 A serpent may bite [g]when it is not charmed;
The babbler is no different.
12 [h]The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
But [i]the lips of a fool shall swallow
him up;
13 The words of his mouth begin with foolishness,
And the end of his talk is raving madness.
14 [j]A fool also multiplies words.
No man knows what is to be;
Who can tell him [k]what will be after
him?
15 The labor of fools wearies them,
For they do not even know how to go to the city!
16 [l]Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child,
And your princes feast in the morning!
17 Blessed are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles,
And your [m]princes feast at the proper
time—
For strength and not for drunkenness!
18 Because of laziness the building
decays,
And [n]through idleness of hands the house leaks.
19 A feast is made for laughter,
And [o]wine makes merry;
But money answers everything.
20 [p]Do not curse the king, even in your thought;
Do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom;
For a bird of the air may carry your voice,
And a bird in flight may tell the matter.

The Value of Diligence

11 Cast your bread [a]upon the waters,
[b]For you will find it after many days.
2 [c]Give a serving [d]to seven, and also to eight,
[e]For you do not know what evil will be on the earth.
3 If the clouds are full of rain,
They empty themselves upon the
earth;
And if a tree falls to the south or the north,
In the place where the tree falls, there
it shall lie.
4 He who observes the wind will not sow,
And he who regards the clouds will not reap.

* 10:1 Targum and Vulgate omit putrefy.

10:1 Dead flies putrefy the perfumer's ointment. Just as one fly can ruin a whole batch of ointment, so an ounce of folly will spoil a pound of wisdom.
10:2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand. In ancient thought, the right hand was the place of honor and favor, while the left hand was the reverse.
10:10 If the ax is dull. The wise person will sharpen the ax. A person of limited training will have to work harder, as though with a dull ax, than someone wiser whose tools are maintained.
10:17 Blessed are you, O land. Useful nobility expresses itself in a sense of responsibility and deference to social order. This verse is an argument for propriety.
11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters. Verses 1–6 emphasize the element of risk and uncertainty in commercial and agricultural enterprises. Thus if the preceding proverbs in chapter 10 deal with royalty and leaders, these in verses 1–6 deal with common people. Men and women must venture forth judiciously if they are ever to realize a gain, even though there is always a certain amount of risk.
11:2 to seven, and also to eight. This urges us to be generous to as many as possible—and then some.
11:4 will not sow . . . will not reap. The person who

5 As [f]you do not know what is the way of the wind,*
[g]Or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child,
So you do not know the works of God who makes everything.
6 In the morning sow your seed,
And in the evening do not withhold
your hand;
For you do not know which will prosper,
Either this or that,
Or whether both alike will be good.
7 Truly the light is sweet,
And it is pleasant for the eyes [h]to behold the sun;
8 But if a man lives many years
And [i]rejoices in them all, Yet let him [j]remember the days of
darkness,
For they will be many.
All that is coming is vanity.

Seek God in Early Life

9 Rejoice, O young man, in your
youth,
And let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth;
[k]Walk in the ways of your heart,
And in the sight of your eyes;
But know that for all these [l]God will bring you into judgment.
10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart,
And [m]put away evil from your
flesh,
[n]For childhood and youth are vanity.

12 Remember[a] now your Creator in the days of your youth,
Before the difficult days come,
And the years draw near [b]when you say,
"I have no pleasure in them":
2 While the sun and the light,
The moon and the stars,
Are not darkened,
And the clouds do not return after the rain;
3 In the day when the keepers of the house tremble,
And the strong men bow down;
When the grinders cease because they are few,
And those that look through the windows grow dim;
4 When the doors are shut in the streets,
And the sound of grinding is low;
When one rises up at the sound of a bird,
And all [c]the daughters of music are brought low.
5 Also they are afraid of height,
And of terrors in the way;
When the almond tree blossoms,
The grasshopper is a burden,
And desire fails.
For man goes to [d]his eternal home,
And [e]the mourners go about the streets.
6 Remember your Creator before the silver cord is loosed,*
Or the golden bowl is broken,
Or the pitcher shattered at the fountain,
Or the wheel broken at the well.
7 [f]Then the dust will return to the earth
as it was,
[g]And the spirit will return to God [h]who gave it.
8 "Vanity[i] of vanities," says the Preacher,
"All is vanity."

The Whole Duty of Man

9 And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and [j]set in order many proverbs. 10 The Preacher sought to find acceptable words;
and what was written was upright—words of truth. 11 The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of scholars* are like

* 11:5 Or spirit * 12:6 Following Qere and Targum; Kethib reads removed; Septuagint and Vulgate read broken. * 12:11 Literally masters of the assemblies is so cautious that he must wait for the ideal time before he makes a move is doomed to fail.

11:9 Walk in the ways of your heart. This verse is not an invitation to live sinfully in sensual pleasure (as Num. 15:39 describes). Instead, it urges young people to enjoy themselves completely while not forgetting that God will review the quality of their life (3:17; 12:14).

12:1–8 Remember now your Creator. Most interpreters have argued that this poem is an allegory of old age.

12:2 Are not darkened. The person is losing his sight.

12:4 sound of grinding is low. A depiction of toothless old age when eating only soft foods makes little or no noise.

12:6 the wheel broken at the well. The system of veins and arteries radiating out from the heart might have appeared to the ancients like the spokes on a wheel.

12:11 The words of the wise are like goads. Just as an ox goad prods an animal in the right direction, so will the words of this book, when they are properly understood. well-driven nails. The nails or "pegs" referred to here are the same as in 2 Chronicles 3:9 and Jeremiah 10:4. These are hooks in tents where well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd.

12 And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and [k]much study is wearisome to the flesh.

13 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter:

For this is man's all.

judgment,
Including every secret thing,
Whether good or evil.

families hung the clothes and pots needed for everyday life. Here they refer to mental hooks giving stability and perspective to life.

12:13 keep His commandments. The commandments of the law are in view here. Jesus summed them up as to "love the Lord your God" and "your neighbor as yourself" (Matt. 22:34–40). We are whole or complete only when we fear God and obey His commandments. What profit is there in living? If we follow what this book has said, we will have a relationship with God and find life in Him.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON

▶ AUTHOR: According to 1 Kings 4:32, Solomon wrote 1,005 songs, but this eulogy of love stood out among them as the "song of songs." Tradition strongly favors Solomon as the author of this book. Solomon is specifically mentioned seven times, and he is identified as the groom. There is also evidence in the book of incredible royal luxury and expensive imported goods, things that characterized Solomon's reign.

▶ TIME: c. 965 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSE: Song 7:10

▶ THEME: Song of Solomon, or Song of Songs as it is sometimes known, is a one-of-a-kind love poem that concentrates on elements of the physical attraction between the sexes. It is possible that the Shulamite maiden was Abishag, who attended to David in his last days. Like Jesus' presence at a wedding, Song of Solomon is an indication of God's blessing on the physical union of man and woman. God created us for each other, and we should delight in physical intimacy within the context of marriage that God has sanctioned for us.

The Banquet

THE SHULAMITE*

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth—
[b]For your* love is better than wine.
3 Because of the fragrance of your good ointments,
Your name is ointment poured forth;
Therefore the virgins love you.
4 [c]Draw me away!

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

[d]We will run after you.*

THE SHULAMITE

The king [e]has brought me into his chambers.

THE DAUGHTERS OF JERUSALEM

We will be glad and rejoice in you.*
We will remember your* love more than wine.

THE SHULAMITE

Rightly do they love you.*

5 I am dark, but lovely,
O daughters of Jerusalem,
Like the tents of Kedar,
Like the curtains of Solomon.
6 Do not look upon me, because I am dark,
Because the sun has tanned me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;

1:1 song of songs. Like the superlative expressions "holy of holies" or "King of kings," song of songs means "the loveliest of songs." There are two principal speakers in this book, the woman (the Shulamite) and the man (Solomon).

1:2 for your love is better than wine. The Hebrew noun used here means sexual love, as it clearly does in Ezekiel 16:8. This is the Hebrew word that most approximates the Greek word eros. In the Song of Solomon, this plural word (a mark of intensity) speaks of divinely blessed lovemaking.

1:3 your good ointments. It was customary in biblical times to rub the body with fragrant oils after a bath in preparation for a festive occasion (Ruth 3:3).

1:5 I am dark, but lovely. The Shulamite compares her dark coloring acquired from long hours working in the vineyards (v. 6) with the lighter complexion of the city maidens. The point here is her class and station in life. Unlike the young women of the court in Jerusalem who had been raised in comfort and conditions of ease, this woman had worked as a field

The Beloved

The Beloved

15 [k]Behold, you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes.

The Shulamite

16 Behold, you are [l]handsome, my beloved!
Yes, pleasant!
Also our bed is green.
17 The beams of our houses are cedar,
And our rafters of fir.

And the lily of the valleys.

The Beloved

So is my love among the daughters.

The Shulamite

3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods,
So is my beloved among the sons.
I sat down in his shade with great delight,
And [a]his fruit was sweet to my taste.

The Shulamite to the Daughters of Jerusalem

4 He brought me to the banqueting

And his banner over me was love.

Refresh me with apples,
For I am lovesick.

And his right hand embraces me.

The Beloved's Request

hand in the sun. She knows her beauty is not diminished by her more rugged manner of living.

1:7 O you whom I love. Here the woman mentally addresses Solomon, her husband. She pictures him as the shepherd of Israel.

1:8 Follow in the footsteps of the flock. It would be better if she returned to the borders of Lebanon and the life of the farm rather than live alone and anxious in Solomon's palace. The point of this verse is that one should always count the cost of marriage to a particular person before the marriage.

1:13 A bundle of myrrh is my beloved to me. This verse refers to an oriental custom for a woman to wear a small bag of myrrh, a perfumed ointment, around her neck at night. All the next day a lovely fragrance would linger about her.

1:17 The beams of our houses are cedar. As the Shulamite lies on their wedding bed (v. 16), she observes the marvelous cedar beams above her head. The opulence of Solomon's personal and public buildings in Jerusalem is well documented (1 Kin. 7:1–12).

2:3 Like an apple tree. Raisin cakes (v. 5) and apples are symbols for sexual passion in ancient love songs.

2:4 to the banqueting house. The literal meaning of the phrase is "the house of wine," used because of the role that wine plays not only in feasting, but especially in weddings in biblical cultures (1:2). In the Bible, wine is a symbol of joy (Ps. 104:15).

2:8 Skipping upon the hills. This is the young bride's imaginative way of recalling the joy she experienced at her husband's arrival.

A Troubled Night

The Shulamite

3 By [a]night on my bed I sought the one

I sought him, but I did not find him.
2 "I will rise now," I said,
"And go about the city;
In the streets and in the squares
I will seek the one I love."
I sought him, but I did not find him.
3 [b]The watchmen who go about the city found me;
I said,
"Have you seen the one I love?"

4 Scarcely had I passed by them,
When I found the one I love.
I held him and would not let him go,

And into the chamber of her who conceived me.

The Coming of Solomon

Perfumed with myrrh and
frankincense,
With all the merchant's fragrant

7 Behold, it is Solomon's couch,
With sixty valiant men around it,
Of the valiant of Israel.
8 They all hold swords,
Being expert in war.
Every man has his sword on his thigh
Because of fear in the night.

2:11–13 the winter is past. By this Solomon means that the time of joy has come; it is the summer of their love. Solomon may have come at a time of great beauty in the fields and forests where the young woman lived; he uses the beauty of creation to describe the ripeness of time for their love.

2:15 Catch us the foxes. The Shulamite's brothers called on Solomon to catch them the foxes. Many times they had seen little foxes creep into the vineyards they tended and destroy the roots by gnawing on them.

3:1 on my bed. This is a dream that took place before they were married. The young woman was becoming concerned about what she would be getting into in the royal marriage.

3:3 Have you seen. Her frantic search for her beloved is initially unsuccessful.

3:4 the one I love. At last she finds him and in her dream takes him to her mother's house. The worry of his absence is intolerable to her; she wants him to move back with her to her familiar home and lifestyle.

3:7 Solomon's couch. This was a sedan chair with poles projecting from the front and back so that a person could be carried by several bearers. (vv. 9–10). The Shulamite was being carried to the wedding and to her groom on Solomon's own couch.

The Bridegroom Praises the Bride

The Beloved

4 Behold, [a]you are fair, my love!
Behold, you are fair!
You have dove's eyes behind your veil.
Your hair is like a [b]flock of goats,
Going down from Mount Gilead.
2 [c]Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep
Which have come up from the washing,
Every one of which bears twins,
And none is barren among them.
3 Your lips are like a strand of scarlet,
And your mouth is lovely.
[d]Your temples behind your veil
Are like a piece of pomegranate.
4 [e]Your neck is like the tower of David,
Built [f]for an armory,
On which hang a thousand bucklers,
All shields of mighty men.
5 [g]Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle,
Which feed among the lilies.

6 [h]Until the day breaks
And the shadows flee away,
I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh
And to the hill of frankincense.

7 [i]You are all fair, my love,
And there is no spot in you.
8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse,
With me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Senir [j]and Hermon,
From the lions' dens,
From the mountains of the leopards.

9 You have ravished my heart,
My sister, my spouse;
You have ravished my heart
With one look of your eyes,
With one link of your necklace.
10 How fair is your love,
My sister, my spouse!
[k]How much better than wine is your love,
And the scent of your perfumes
Than all spices!
11 Your lips, O my spouse,
Drip as the honeycomb;
[l]Honey and milk are under your tongue;
And the fragrance of your garments
Is [m]like the fragrance of Lebanon.

12 A garden enclosed
Is my sister, my spouse,
A spring shut up,
A fountain sealed.
13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
With pleasant fruits,
Fragrant henna with spikenard,
14 Spikenard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon,
With all trees of frankincense,
Myrrh and aloes,
With all the chief spices—
15 A fountain of gardens,
A well of [n]living waters,
And streams from Lebanon.

The Shulamite

16 Awake, O north wind,
And come, O south!
Blow upon my garden,
That its spices may flow out.
[o]Let my beloved come to his garden
And eat its pleasant [p]fruits.

The Beloved

5 I [a]have come to my garden, my [b]sister, my spouse;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
[c]I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

4:1 Behold, you are fair. Solomon lavishly praises his bride's great beauty. He uses verbal symbols of loveliness to paint a picture of the breathtaking charm of the Shulamite. Dove's eyes are a picture of purity, innocence, and beauty. The king compared the movement of her flowing hair to the graceful movement of a flock of goats in their descent down from Mount Gilead.

4:2–5 teeth . . . lips . . . neck . . . breasts. The king rhapsodizes of the perfection of her physical features. Her beauty is exquisite.

4:9 My sister, my spouse. This strange pairing of words was based on the idea that in marriage a couple became "related." The woman was dignified as a member of the king's family.

4:11 lips . . . Honey and milk. The sweetness of his bride's kisses are like food to him (5:1; compare 1:2).

4:12 A garden enclosed . . . A spring shut up. Solomon evokes thoughts of refreshment and delight. His use of the words "shut up" and "sealed" indicate, in a poetic manner, his wife's virginity on their wedding night. This was the treasure she brought to him, and which she charged the other young women in the court to maintain for their wedding nights as well (2:7).

4:16 Let my beloved come to his garden. The bride is now ready to accept her lover for the first time to her "garden." She calls on the wind to blow through. That is, she is ready to make love to her husband for the first time.

5:1 I have drunk my wine with my milk. At the

It is the voice of my beloved!

My dove, my perfect one;
For my head is covered with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night."
3 I have taken off my robe;
How can I put it on again?
I have washed my feet;
How can I defile them?
4 My beloved put his hand
By the latch of the door,
And my heart yearned for him.
5 I arose to open for my beloved,
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with liquid myrrh,
On the handles of the lock.
6 I opened for my beloved,
But my beloved had turned away and was gone.
My heart leaped up when he spoke.
[f]I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him, but he gave me no answer.
7 [g]The watchmen who went about the city found me.
They struck me, they wounded me;
The keepers of the walls
Took my veil away from me.

If you find my beloved,
That you tell him I am lovesick!

The Daughters of Jerusalem
9 What is your beloved

His locks are wavy,
And black as a raven.
12 [i]His eyes are like doves
By the rivers of waters,
Washed with milk,
And fitly set.
13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
Banks of scented herbs.
His lips are lilies,
Dripping liquid myrrh.
14 His hands are rods of gold
Set with beryl.
His body is carved ivory
Inlaid with sapphires.
15 His legs are pillars of marble
Set on bases of fine gold.
His countenance is like Lebanon,
Excellent as the cedars.
16 His mouth is most sweet,
Yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved,
And this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem!

The Daughters of Jerusalem
6 Where has your beloved gone,
[a]O fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside,
That we may seek him with you?

The Shulamite
2 My beloved has gone to his [b]garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed his flock in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.
3 [c]I am my beloved's,
And my beloved is mine.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

conclusion of their lovemaking, the groom speaks of his complete satisfaction in his beautiful bride.

5:2–7 I sleep. These words begin a section (vv. 2–8) that most likely is another dream sequence (3:1–5). The bride dreams that her lover is coming to her, but she has already washed, removed her robe, and gotten into bed. (v. 3). She finally goes to the door to let him in, but he is gone. Her sorrow at this drives her into the city to search for him.

5:8–9 O daughters of Jerusalem. She asks for help in her search, but the daughters question what is so special about the one for whom she seeks.

6:1 that we may seek him with you. The chorus members now join in the search. In the dream sequence, we suspect that the chorus is well aware of his location. It is only the bride who needs to discover his whereabouts.

6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. These words are an inversion of the words of 2:16; compare also 7:10. he feeds his flock among the lilies. With these words the bride comes to terms with the reality that, as much as she and the king are in love, he still has other responsibilities and so does she. His work as king makes him the shepherd of

Expressions of Praise

The Beloved

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
[a]O prince's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of a skillful workman.
2 Your navel is a rounded goblet;
It lacks no blended beverage.

A king is held captive by your tresses.

6 How fair and how pleasant you are,
O love, with your delights!
7 This stature of yours is like a palm tree,
And your breasts like its clusters.
8 I said, "I will go up to the palm tree,
I will take hold of its branches."
Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
The fragrance of your breath like apples,

Let us lodge in the villages.

There I will give you my love.

6:8–9 sixty . . . eighty. This use of numbers is a rhetorical device to emphasize that the bride alone is Solomon's love.

6:13 Return, return, O Shulamite. The chorus calls the bride back from her daydreams and reminds her that she is Solomon's queen.

7:1 The curves of your thighs. The Hebrew wording suggests not only her form but also the fluid motion of her dance (6:13).

7:7–8 like a palm tree. This is a sexual image that has its basis in the pollination of palm trees. To fertilize a female palm tree, the gardener climbs the male tree and takes some of its flowers. Then he climbs the female tree and ties the pollen-bearing flowers among its branches.

13 The [g]mandrakes give off a fragrance,
And at our gates [h]are pleasant fruits,
All manner, new and old,
Which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh, that you were like my brother,
Who nursed at my mother's breasts!
If I should find you outside,
I would kiss you;
I would not be despised.
2 I would lead you and bring you
Into the [a]house of my mother,
She who used to instruct me.
I would cause you to drink of [b]spiced wine,
Of the juice of my pomegranate.

(To the Daughters of Jerusalem)

3 [c]His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.
4 [d]I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
Do not stir up nor awaken love
Until it pleases.

Love Renewed in Lebanon

A Relative

5 [e]Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?

I awakened you under the apple tree.
There your mother brought you forth;
There she who bore you brought you forth.

The Shulamite to Her Beloved

6 [f]Set me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death,
[g]Jealousy as cruel as the grave;*
Its flames are flames of fire,
A most vehement flame.*
7 Many waters cannot quench love,
Nor can the floods drown it.
[h]If a man would give for love
All the wealth of his house,
It would be utterly despised.

The Shulamite's Brothers

8 [i]We have a little sister,
And she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister
In the day when she is spoken for?
9 If she is a wall,
We will build upon her
A battlement of silver;
And if she is a door,
We will enclose her
With boards of cedar.

The Shulamite

10 I am a wall,
And my breasts like towers;
Then I became in his eyes
As one who found peace.
11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon;
[j]He leased the vineyard to keepers;
Everyone was to bring for its fruit
A thousand silver coins.

(To Solomon)

12 My own vineyard is before me.
You, O Solomon, may have a thousand,
And those who tend its fruit two hundred.

The Beloved

13 You who dwell in the gardens,
The companions listen for your voice—
[k]Let me hear it!

The Shulamite

14 [l]Make haste, my beloved,
And [m]be like a gazelle
Or a young stag
On the mountains of spices.

* 8:6 Or Sheol • Literally A flame of YAH (a poetic form of YHWH, the LORD)

7:13 The mandrakes. The yellow fruit of the mandrake was small, sweet-tasting, and fragrant. It was considered a love potion (Gen. 30:16).
8:3 left . . . right. The repetition of 2:6–7 punctuates both the joy of sexual intimacy with marriage and the warnings against sexual activity before marriage.
8:6 as a seal. This is a symbol of possession or ownership. The Shulamite wants the king to feel a total ownership of her in his heart. She is committed only to him; and she wants him to be completely committed to her. As long as she resides in his heart, she feels secure.
8:7 quench . . . despised. The point of this verse is that true love cannot be destroyed or purchased.
8:10 I am a wall . . . towers. The woman explains that she has been virtuous in youth and that she will remain faithful in her adulthood.
8:14 mountains of spices. That is, she wants him to return to her loving embrace (1:13).

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

▶ AUTHOR: Although there is much argument regarding the unity of the work, Isaiah is the commonly accepted author of this book. He was from a distinguished Jewish family and his education is evident in his impressive vocabulary and style. The New Testament writers John, Paul, Matthew, and Luke, as well as Jesus Himself, all quote from the Book of Isaiah and credit him with its authorship. This great poet was uncompromising, sincere, and compassionate. Isaiah maintained close contact with the royal court, but his exhortations against alliances with foreign powers were not always well received.

▶ TIME: c. 740–680 B.C. ▶ KEY VERSES: Is. 9:6–7

▶ THEME: Because of the length of the book and Isaiah's interactions with the politics of the time, we probably get a better picture of Isaiah's ministry than we do of any of the other prophets. It also contains more of the well-known, classic prophecy texts than any other book. One commentator calls Isaiah "the Romans of the Old Testament," as in Isaiah we get a broad perspective on how and why God is working in history. Both God's holiness and grace come clearly into perspective through a careful study of this book.

1 The [a]vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the [b]days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The Wickedness of Judah

2 [c]Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth!
For the LORD has spoken:
"I have nourished and brought up children,
And they have rebelled against Me;
3 [d]The ox knows its owner
And the donkey its master's crib;
But Israel [e]does not know,
My people do not consider."

4 Alas, sinful nation,
A people laden with iniquity,
[f]A brood of evildoers,
Children who are corrupters!
They have forsaken the LORD,
They have provoked to anger
The Holy One of Israel,
They have turned away backward.

5 [g]Why should you be stricken again?
You will revolt more and more.
The whole head is sick,
And the whole heart faints.
6 From the sole of the foot even to the head,
There is no soundness in it,
But wounds and bruises and putrefying sores;
They have not been closed or bound up,
Or soothed with ointment.

7 [h]Your country is desolate,
Your cities are burned with fire;
Strangers devour your land in your presence;
And it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
8 So the daughter of Zion is left [i]as a booth in a vineyard,
As a hut in a garden of cucumbers,
[j]As a besieged city.

1:1 Isaiah the son of Amoz. God sent His message through Isaiah to Judah, the people of the southern kingdom—specifically to their magistrates, priests, and prophets in Jerusalem. The nation had been divided into two parts: Judah (the southern kingdom) and Israel (the northern kingdom). While Isaiah's message was primarily for the southern kingdom, it was also for the northern kingdom. The entire nation was heading down a path of sin and idolatry that would end in destruction. Isaiah lived to see the nation of Assyria take the northern kingdom into captivity in 722 B.C. The record of Isaiah's visions contains the revelations that God gave during the reigns of Uzziah (792–740 B.C.), Jotham (752–736 B.C.), Ahaz (736–720 B.C.), and Hezekiah (729–699 B.C.). God never changes, and this revelation is still relevant for His people today.

9 [k]Unless the LORD of hosts
Had left to us a very small remnant,
We would have become like [l]Sodom,
We would have been made like Gomorrah.

10 Hear the word of the LORD,
You rulers [m]of Sodom;
Give ear to the law of our God,
You people of Gomorrah: 11 "To what purpose is the multitude of your [n]sacrifices to Me?"
Says the LORD.
"I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams
And the fat of fed cattle.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
Or of lambs or goats.

12 "When you come [o]to appear before Me,
Who has required this from your hand,
To trample My courts?
13 Bring no more [p]futile sacrifices;
Incense is an abomination to Me.
The New Moons, the Sabbaths, and [q]the calling of assemblies—
I cannot endure iniquity and the sacred meeting.
14 Your [r]New Moons and your [s]appointed feasts
My soul hates;
They are a trouble to Me,
I am weary of bearing them.
15 [t]When you spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;
[u]Even though you make many prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.

16 "Wash[v] yourselves, make yourselves clean;
Put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.
[w]Cease to do evil,

17 Learn to do good;
Seek justice,
Rebuke the oppressor;*
Defend the fatherless,
Plead for the widow.

18 "Come now, and let us [x]reason together,"
Says the LORD,
"Though your sins are like scarlet,
[y]They shall be as white as snow;
Though they are red like crimson,
They shall be as wool.
19 If you are willing and obedient,
You shall eat the good of the land;
20 But if you refuse and rebel,
You shall be devoured by the sword";
[z]For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

The Degenerate City

21 [a]How the faithful city has become a harlot!
It was full of justice;
Righteousness lodged in it,
But now [b]murderers.
22 [c]Your silver has become dross,
Your wine mixed with water.
23 [d]Your princes are rebellious,
And [e]companions of thieves;
[f]Everyone loves bribes,
And follows after rewards.
They [g]do not defend the fatherless,
Nor does the cause of the widow come before them.

24 Therefore the Lord says,
The LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel,
"Ah, [h]I will rid Myself of My
adversaries,
And take vengeance on My enemies.

* 1:17 Some ancient versions read the oppressed.

1:9 LORD of hosts. Isaiah describes God as ruler over all powers in heaven and earth through His command of His angelic armies. remnant. Though God punished His sinful people, He always preserved a remnant, or survivor (Gen. 22:16–17; Ex. 34:6–7; Mic. 7:19–20; Rom. 9:29; 11:15). Sodom . . . Gomorrah. These two cities were regarded as the epitome of sinfulness. It was a scathing condemnation to say that Jerusalem had become like those cities.

1:18–20 The Message of the Prophets—These verses contain the essence of the prophet's message to Israel, which is also meant for us today. We need to recognize the reality of our condition. We are a stiff-necked and rebellious people, who would rather do what we want, when we want. Even today, we want the benefits of God's grace without accepting any accountability to God.

Just as in the days of Isaiah, God's people attempt to replace obedience with ceremony. We ignore God's commands to care for the destitute, and we lose sight of God's requirements for justice and righteousness. Each of us stands before God dirty and bloody, saying we are still His people, when we are clearly not ready to fellowship with a holy God. We need to be cleaned up first.

Our God is a redeeming God who knows how to deal with sin. Although there is no rebellion that goes beyond His reach, the remedy has to be His. The first step in obedience is repentance—turning away from the direction we are going in order to see God.

1:18 reason together. This term means "to come to a legal decision." It is not an invitation to negotiate or compromise. The people were to come to an agreement with God concerning the enormous gravity of their sin. God was not declaring His people innocent of wickedness, but He was prepared to pardon their sins if they would repent and turn to Him.

1:20 has spoken. The verb "has spoken" indicates finality (contrast the verb "says" in v. 18). God had graciously extended His offer of mercy over a significant period of time, but this was the only offer He made. They could not "cut another deal" with Him (40:5; 55:11).

And your counselors as at the beginning.
Afterward [k]you shall be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city."

27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice,
And her penitents with righteousness.
28 The [l]destruction of transgressors and of sinners shall be together,
And those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
29 For they* shall be ashamed of the terebinth trees
Which you have desired;
And you shall be embarrassed because of the gardens
Which you have chosen.
30 For you shall be as a terebinth whose leaf fades,
And as a garden that has no water.
31 [m]The strong shall be as tinder,
And the work of it as a spark;
Both will burn together,
And no one shall [n]quench them.

The Future House of God

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 Now [a]it shall come to pass [b]in the latter days
[c]That the mountain of the LORD's house
Shall be established on the top of the mountains,
And shall be exalted above the hills;
And all nations shall flow to it.
3 Many people shall come and say,
[d]"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
To the house of the God of Jacob;
He will teach us His ways,
And we shall walk in His paths."
[e]For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
4 He shall judge between the nations,
And rebuke many people;
They shall beat their swords into plowshares,
And their spears into pruning hooks;
Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
Neither shall they learn war anymore.

The Day of the LORD

5 O house of Jacob, come and let us [f]walk
In the light of the LORD.

6 For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Jacob,
Because they are filled [g]with eastern ways;
They are [h]soothsayers like the Philistines,
[i]And they are pleased with the children of foreigners.
7 [j]Their land is also full of silver and gold,
And there is no end to their treasures;
Their land is also full of horses,
And there is no end to their chariots.

* 1:29 Following Masoretic Text, Septuagint, and Vulgate; some Hebrew manuscripts and Targum read you.

1:27 redeemed. The Hebrew word for "redeemed" means "ransomed" or "freed" from another's ownership through the payment of a price. penitents. Zion's penitents, those who turned their backs on idolatry and injustice, found freedom from sin and judgment.
1:29 terebinth trees . . . gardens. The terebinth was a sacred tree, and the gardens with sacred groves for fertility rites were part of idol worship, which the people had chosen instead of worshiping only the living God.
2:2 in the latter days. The latter days refer to the conditions in Christ's (the Messiah's) future kingdom. At the time of the writing of the Book of Isaiah, no one had a clear idea of what the coming of the Messiah would mean. They believed that, under His rule, earthly kingdoms and authorities would vanish, and everything would at last be the way God originally planned before the fall (Gen. 3:1–22). But they did not yet have an understanding of Christ dying on the cross for the sins of the whole world, or of the church age. Isaiah was looking forward to what Christians are still looking forward to—what we call the second coming, or return of Christ (Acts 1:11; Rev. 21–22).
2:4 Neither shall they learn war anymore. The Old Testament term for "peace" meant soundness or completeness. Just as man can never be truly at peace apart from his Creator, so a nation of sinful humanity cannot truly achieve peace apart from God. Men or nations will be rebellious, self-centered, and at odds with each other unless their harmony with God is restored. This can only happen when, person by person, peace is provided by the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ. To look forward to the day when there will be this peace for the whole world is to understand the magnitude of God's promise in this passage.
2:6 You have forsaken. This was a present condition—but not a permanent condition—for the Israelites. God's covenant with Israel had always been based on their obedience, and the Israelites (or house of Jacob) were finally going to experience the results of their disobedience (Deut. 27–30). filled with eastern ways . . . soothsayers. Copying other religions and participating in the occult practices of peoples of Canaan were strictly forbidden (Deut. 18:9–14). Whoever did these things was detestable to the Lord.
2:7 full of silver and gold . . . full of horses. The king was not to multiply horses, wives, or gold and silver for himself, for this would cause his heart to turn away from the Lord (Deut. 17:14–17).

They worship the work of their own hands,
That which their own fingers have made.
9 People bow down,
And each man humbles himself;
Therefore do not forgive them.

10 [l]Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty.
11 The lofty looks of man shall be [m]humbled,
The haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
And the LORD alone shall be exalted [n]in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts
Shall come upon everything proud and lofty,
Upon everything lifted up—
And it shall be brought low—
13 Upon all [o]the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,

And upon all the beautiful sloops.
17 The loftiness of man shall be bowed down,
And the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
The LORD alone will be exalted in that day,
18 But the idols He shall utterly abolish.

19 They shall go into the [r]holes of the rocks,
And into the caves of the earth,
[s]From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises [t]to shake the earth mightily.

20 In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver
And his idols of gold,
Which they made, each for himself to worship,
To the moles and bats,
21 To go into the clefts of the rocks,
And into the crags of the rugged rocks,
From the terror of the LORD
And the glory of His majesty,
When He arises to shake the earth mightily.

22 [u]Sever yourselves from such a man,
Whose [v]breath is in his nostrils;
For of what account is he?

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

3 For behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts,
[a]Takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
[b]The stock and the store,
The whole supply of bread and the whole supply of water;
2 [c]The mighty man and the man of war,
The judge and the prophet,
And the diviner and the elder;
3 The captain of fifty and the honorable man,
The counselor and the skillful artisan,
And the expert enchanter.

4 "I will give [d]children to be their princes,
And babes shall rule over them.
5 The people will be oppressed,
Every one by another and every one by his neighbor;
The child will be insolent toward the elder,
And the base toward the honorable."

6 When a man takes hold of his brother
In the house of his father, saying,
"You have clothing;
You be our ruler,
And let these ruins be under your power,"*
7 In that day he will protest, saying,
"I cannot cure your ills,
For in my house is neither food nor clothing;
Do not make me a ruler of the people."

8 For [e]Jerusalem stumbled,
And Judah is fallen,
Because their tongue and their doings
Are against the LORD,
To provoke the eyes of His glory.

* 3:6 Literally hand

2:8 full of idols. Idolatry was forbidden in the Ten Commandments (Ex. 20:4; Deut. 13), and it was a flagrant rebellion against the Lord who had rescued them from the land of Egypt and redeemed them from slavery. It was a seduction to unfaithfulness and was to be punished with death.

2:19 caves of the earth . . . terror of the LORD. Men will want to hide from the Lord whom they have not been willing to obey (Rev. 6:15–17).

3:4 children . . . babes. The rulers would be incompetent and inexperienced.

3:8 against the LORD. Prior to entering Canaan, Moses had the blessings and the curses of the law of God recited to the people, warning of the serious consequences of unbelief. Unfaithfulness would result in captivity, worldwide dispersion, and aimless wandering among the Gentile nations (Deut. 28). Joshua gave the same warning after bringing them into the land (Josh. 24). Both warnings went unheeded. From

Oppression and Luxury Condemned

13 The LORD stands up [k]to plead,
And stands to judge the people.
14 The LORD will enter into judgment
With the elders of His people
And His princes:
"For you have eaten up [l]the vineyard;
The plunder of the poor is in your houses.
15 What do you mean by [m]crushing My
people
And grinding the faces of the poor?"
Says the Lord GOD of hosts.

16 Moreover the LORD says:

"Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
And walk with outstretched necks
And wanton eyes,
Walking and mincing as they go,
Making a jingling with their feet,
17 Therefore the Lord will strike with [n]a scab
The crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
And the LORD will [o]uncover their secret parts."

18 In that day the Lord will take away the finery:
The jingling anklets, the scarves, and the [p]crescents;
19 The pendants, the bracelets, and the veils;
20 The headdresses, the leg ornaments,
and the headbands;
The perfume boxes, the charms, 21 and the rings;
The nose jewels,
22 the festal apparel, and the mantles;
The outer garments, the purses,
23 and the mirrors;
The fine linen, the turbans, and the robes.

24 And so it shall be:

Instead of a sweet smell there will be a stench;
Instead of a sash, a rope;
Instead of well-set hair, [q]baldness;
Instead of a rich robe, a girding of
sackcloth;
And branding instead of beauty.
25 Your men shall fall by the sword,
And your mighty in the war.

26 [r]Her gates shall lament and mourn,
And she being desolate [s]shall sit on the ground.

4 And [a]in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying,
"We will [b]eat our own food and wear
our own apparel;
Only let us be called by your name,
To take away [c]our reproach."

The Renewal of Zion

2 In that day [d]the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious;
And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing
For those of Israel who have escaped.

3 And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem [e]will be called holy—everyone who is [f]recorded among the living in Jerusalem. 4 When [g]the Lord has washed away the filth of the a historical perspective, it is easy to be appalled at the people's heedlessness. They ignored specific and direct commands, apparently knowing well that they were courting disaster. But, if we as believers examine ourselves carefully, we might be appalled at our own unfaithfulness in certain areas. God's directives are always there for a reason, and unfaithfulness, even in little things, causes a rift in our relationship with God.

3:16 daughters of Zion. The plural "daughters" suggests the women of the city as well as a personification of Jerusalem. The list of finery (vv. 18–23), whether applied figuratively to the city of Jerusalem or to specific women, indicated a preoccupation with frivolity and wealth.

4:1 take away our reproach. It was considered a sign of inadequacy to have no children.

4:2 In that day. Isaiah is speaking of the future revelation of the glory of the Lord on earth (2:2–4). the Branch of the LORD. Jesus Christ is the fruitful Branch (Jer. 23:5; Zech. 3:8). The reign of Jesus, the King of Creation, will be marked by plenty. The earth will be released from its curse, producing all that God intended it to produce in the beginning.

Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, 5then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, [h]a cloud and smoke by day and [i]the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering. 6And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, [j]for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

God's Disappointing Vineyard

5 Now let me sing to my Well-beloved
A song of my Beloved [a]regarding His vineyard:

My Well-beloved has a vineyard
On a very fruitful hill.
2 He dug it up and cleared out its stones,
And planted it with the choicest vine.
He built a tower in its midst,
And also made a winepress in it;
[b]So He expected it to bring forth good grapes,
But it brought forth wild grapes.

3 "And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
[c]Judge, please, between Me and My vineyard.
4 What more could have been done to My vineyard
That I have not done in [d]it?
Why then, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes,
Did it bring forth wild grapes?
5 And now, please let Me tell you what I will do to My vineyard:
[e]I will take away its hedge, and it shall be burned;
And break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.
6 I will lay it [f]waste;
It shall not be pruned or dug,
But there shall come up briers and [g]thorns.
I will also command the clouds
That they rain no rain on it."

7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
And the men of Judah are His pleasant plant.
He looked for justice, but behold, oppression;
For righteousness, but behold, a cry for help.

Impending Judgment on Excesses

8 Woe to those who join [h]house to house;
They add field to field,
Till there is no place
Where they may dwell alone in the midst of the land!
9 [i]In my hearing the LORD of hosts said,
"Truly, many houses shall be desolate,
Great and beautiful ones, without inhabitant.
10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one [j]bath,
And a homer of seed shall yield one ephah."

11 [k]Woe to those who rise early in the morning,
That they may follow intoxicating drink;
Who continue until night, till wine inflames them!
12 [l]The harp and the strings,
The tambourine and flute,
And wine are in their feasts;
But [m]they do not regard the work of the LORD,
Nor consider the operation of His hands.

13 [n]Therefore my people have gone into captivity,
Because they have no [o]knowledge;
Their honorable men are famished,
And their multitude dried up with thirst.
14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged itself
And opened its mouth beyond measure;
Their glory and their multitude and their pomp,
And he who is jubilant, shall descend into it.
15 People shall be brought down,
[p]Each man shall be humbled,
And the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.
16 But the LORD of hosts shall be [q]exalted in judgment,
And God who is holy shall be hallowed in righteousness.
17 Then the lambs shall feed in their pasture,
And in the waste places of [r]the fat ones strangers shall eat.

5:4 What more could have been done to My vineyard. This is a rhetorical question. There was nothing more that God could or should have done to bring forth good fruit from His vineyard. The failure was on the part of the people, not God (John 15:1).

5:6 briers and thorns. Briers and thorns symbolize the anarchy that will take over the land after the exile (3:4–5). no rain. As God promised in His covenant on Mount Sinai, sufficient rainfall would come to the people who were faithful to His commands, but the rain would be withheld if the people were rebellious (Deut. 28:12,23–24).

5:14 Sheol. This word is used for the grave or the place where the body goes after death. Its meaning is not precise, but this word is sometimes translated cords of vanity,

And sin as if with a cart rope;
19 [s]That say, "Let Him make speed and hasten His work,
That we may see it;
And let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
That we may know it."

20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
Who put darkness for light, and light
for darkness;
Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are [t]wise in their own eyes,
And prudent in their own sight!

22 Woe to men mighty at drinking wine,
Woe to men valiant for mixing intoxicating drink,
23 Who [u]justify the wicked for a bribe,
And take away justice from the righteous man!

24 Therefore, [v]as the fire devours the stubble,
And the flame consumes the chaff,
So [w]their root will be as rottenness,
And their blossom will ascend like
dust;
Because they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts,
And despised the word of the Holy
One of Israel.
25 [x]Therefore the anger of the LORD is aroused against His people;
He has stretched out His hand against
them
And stricken them,
And [y]the hills trembled.
Their carcasses were as refuse in the midst of the streets.
[z]For all this His anger is not turned
away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

26 [a]He will lift up a banner to the nations from afar,
And will [b]whistle to them from [c]the end of the earth;
Surely [d]they shall come with speed,
swiftly.
27 No one will be weary or stumble
among them,
No one will slumber or sleep;
Nor [e]will the belt on their loins be loosed,
Nor the strap of their sandals be
broken;
28 [f]Whose arrows are sharp,
And all their bows bent;
Their horses' hooves will seem like flint,
And their wheels like a whirlwind.
29 Their roaring will be like a lion,
They will roar like young lions;
Yes, they will roar
And lay hold of the prey;
They will carry it away safely,
And no one will deliver.
30 In that day they will roar against them
Like the roaring of the sea.
And if one [g]looks to the land,
Behold, darkness and sorrow;
And the light is darkened by the clouds.

Isaiah Called to Be a Prophet

6 In the year that [a]King Uzziah died, I [b]saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. 2Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, [c]with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3And one cried to another and said:

"hell" where the context considers the "grave" in a negative sense.

5:18 vanity. A falsehood is a lie. Those who "draw iniquity with cords of vanity" are those who are dragging sin behind them with ropes of lies. Essentially, these lies are the various ways people have of justifying sin. They are not ashamed of their sin, but are quite openly attached to it, carrying it wherever they go. Of course, the big lie is the lie that sin does not matter, that judgment will not come. The truth is that the fruits of sin always catch up with us, and, unless we make peace with God through Christ, the judgment for sin will follow.

6:1 King Uzziah died. King Uzziah died in 740 B.C., signaling the end of an age. He is described as a good king (2 Chr. 26:1–15), but in his pride he was unfaithful to God (2 Chr. 26:16–23), and he died a leper. He was succeeded by his son Jotham, who did right, and then by wicked Ahaz (7:1). The relative prosperity of the first half of the eighth century was replaced by the Syro-Ephraimite wars and the Assyrian campaigns into Israel.

6:3 Holy, holy, holy. To say the word "holy" twice in Hebrew is to describe someone as "most holy." To say the word three times intensifies the idea to the highest level. The whole earth is full of His glory. We know that the glory of God transcends the universe, yet this phrase emphasizes God's closeness to His creation—His involvement with the earth and its people.

We know that our greatest failing is not realizing who God is nor what His character is like. This is particularly true in the case of God's holiness. To be holy means "to be set apart." God is set apart from the power, practice, and presence of sin, and is set apart to absolute righteousness and goodness. There is no sin in God and God can have nothing to do with sin. If we are to approach God, we must do so on God's terms. We must be made holy by God's action in Christ.

Most of our lives are so caught up in the mundane

[e]The whole earth is full of His glory!"

4 And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.
5 So I said:

"Woe is me, for I am undone!
Because I am a man of [f]unclean lips,
And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips;
For my eyes have seen the King,
The LORD of hosts."

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from [g]the altar. 7 And he [h]touched my mouth with it, and said:

"Behold, this has touched your lips;
Your iniquity is taken away,
And your sin purged."

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying:

"Whom shall I send,
And who will go for [i]Us?"

Then I said, "Here am I! Send me."
9 And He said, "Go, and [j]tell this people:

'Keep on hearing, but do not
understand;
Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.'

10 "Make [k]the heart of this people dull,
And their ears heavy,
And shut their eyes;
[l]Lest they see with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And return and be healed."

11 Then I said, "Lord, how long?"
And He answered:

[m]"Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant,
The houses are without a man,
The land is utterly desolate,
12 [n]The LORD has removed men far
away,
And the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.
13 But yet a tenth will be in it,
And will return and be for consuming,
As a terebinth tree or as an oak,
Whose stump remains when it is cut
down.
So [o]the holy seed shall be its stump."

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

7 Now it came to pass in the days of [a]Ahaz
the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to make war against [b]it, but could not prevail against it. 2 And it was told to the house of David, saying,
"Syria's forces are deployed in Ephraim."
So his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the woods are moved with the wind.

3 Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-Jashub* your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, on the highway to the Fuller's Field, 4 and say to him: 'Take heed, and be [c]quiet; do not fear or be fainthearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for that we don't understand and experience God's holiness as we should. There is little appreciation or understanding of the sacred "otherness" of God. We have too often reduced Him to only friend and advisor. We do so at our own peril; for it is that sacred "otherness" that brings us to our knees. That is where the relationship needs to begin. Isaiah received God's call in that position. He recognized God's holiness and his own uncleanness and the need for God to purify him before he would be fit to serve as a prophet.

The experience of coming to understand God's holiness is simultaneously humbling, challenging, and exhilarating. We touch the fullness of our potential as we are touched and purified by God in Christ's sacrifice for us.

6:6 live coal . . . from the altar. Brought face to face with the holiness of the Lord, Isaiah was stunned by his own uncleanness. Without taking any action on his own, Isaiah was offered forgiveness and cleansing. This was a unique event, especially for Isaiah, but not the last time that the Lord reached out to man to offer forgiveness and cleansing. Salvation through Christ is a gift, not received through works (Eph. 2:8–9).

6:10 heart . . . dull. Isaiah's call was to a very discouraging ministry. People with "fat" hearts were insensitive. They were "padded" with self-satisfaction so they could not feel the prick of the Lord's words. The more Isaiah proclaimed the Word of God, the less response he received from the people. In truth, the call of God was for faithfulness to God, to His word, and to the call itself.

6:13 tenth. A "tenth" is one of Isaiah's expressions for the "remnant."

7:1 it came to pass. The next five chapters contain a series of prophecies related specifically to the Syro-Ephraimite wars—the invasion of Judah by Rezin and Pekah (2 Kin. 16). These prophecies aimed to call Judah back to faith in God.

7:2 house of David. The king was descended from David and was referred to as "from the house of David." Ephraim. The word Ephraim represents the northern kingdom of Israel.

7:3 Shear-Jashub. The name of Isaiah's son meant "a remnant will return." This name referred to a coming exile and the salvation of the remaining faithful, although all of those events occurred long after Isaiah's lifetime.

7:4 son of Remaliah. The son of Remaliah is Pekah, king of Israel.

the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and the son of Remaliah. 5Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have plotted evil against you, saying, 6"Let us go up against Judah and trouble it, and let us make a gap in its wall for ourselves, and set a king over them, the son of Tabel"— 7thus says the Lord GOD:

[d]"It shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.
8 [e]For the head of Syria is Damascus,
And the head of Damascus is Rezin.
Within sixty-five years Ephraim will be broken,
So that it will not be a people.
9 The head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

Surely you shall not be established."'"

The Immanuel Prophecy

10Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, 11[g]"Ask a sign for yourself from the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth or in the height above."

12But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, nor will I test the LORD!"

13Then he said, "Hear now, O house of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? 14Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: [h]Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear [i]a Son, and shall call His name [j]Immanuel.* 15Curds and honey He shall eat, that He may know to refuse the evil and choose the good. 16[k]For before the Child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread will be forsaken by [l]both her kings. 17[m]The LORD will bring the king of Assyria upon you and your people and your father's house—days that have not come since the day that [n]Ephraim departed from Judah."

18 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD [o]will whistle for the fly
That is in the farthest part of the rivers of Egypt,
And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
19 They will come, and all of them will rest
In the desolate valleys and in [p]the clefts of the rocks,
And on all thorns and in all pastures.

20 In the same day the Lord will shave with a [q]hired [r]razor,
With those from beyond the River,* with the king of Assyria,
The head and the hair of the legs,
And will also remove the beard.

21 It shall be in that day
That a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep;
22 So it shall be, from the abundance of milk they give,
That he will eat curds;
For curds and honey everyone will eat who is left in the land.

23 It shall happen in that day,
That wherever there could be a thousand vines
Worth a thousand shekels of silver,
[s]It will be for briers and thorns.
24 With arrows and bows men will come there,
Because all the land will become briers and thorns.

25 And to any hill which could be dug with the hoe,
You will not go there for fear of briers and thorns;
But it will become a range for oxen
And a place for sheep to roam.

* 7:14 Literally God-With-Us * 7:20 That is, the Euphrates

7:6 son of Tabel. Tabel means "good for nothing." Syria and Israel wanted to place an incompetent puppet king over Judah.

7:12 not ask, nor will I test. In the mouth of the wicked Ahaz, these words rang hollow. Ahaz was continually testing the Lord's patience by his disobedience.

7:14 Immanuel. The Christian church traditionally has seen this verse as a prophecy of the Christ child, in whose incarnation God became present in physical form with mankind. The name "Immanuel" means "God with us." Christ, as a descendant of the house of David, fulfills the requirements of the sign and reinforces Isaiah's message that the nation's destiny does not rest with a foreign people, but with the God of Sinai.

7:15 Curds and honey. Curds and honey contrast with "bread and wine" from cultivated lands and symbolically represent the Judean's simple diet after the Assyrian invasion. Thus, the Child, similar to Isaiah's son Shear-Jashub (v. 3), would be identified with the remnant.

7:16 For before. Similar prophecies were spoken of the child's birth and Isaiah's other son, Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz (8:3). Israel and Syria would be destroyed before the child and Isaiah's son would reach maturity (see 8:4, where Syria is referred to as Damascus and Israel as Samaria). It is not uncommon for biblical prophecies to have one level of fulfillment in the immediate future and a final fulfillment many years later in the person and work of the Savior, Jesus. Thus, the birth of Isaiah's son could have been a sign to King Ahaz. However, this would have been an early fulfillment, not the ultimate fulfillment. It was the coming of Jesus, God's only Son, which was the complete fulfillment.

7:20 shave . . . beard. This was a symbol of humiliation.

Assyria Will Invade the Land

8 Moreover the LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll, and [a]write on it with a man's pen concerning Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.* 2And I will take for Myself faithful witnesses to record, [b]Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

3Then I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz; 4[c]for before the child shall have knowledge to cry 'My father' and 'My mother,' [d]the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be taken away before the king of Assyria."

5The LORD also spoke to me again, saying:

6 "Inasmuch as these people refused
The waters of [e]Shiloah that flow softly,
And rejoice [f]in Rezin and in Remaliah's son;
7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up over them
The waters of the River,* strong and mighty—
The king of Assyria and all his glory;
He will go up over all his channels
And go over all his banks.
8 He will pass through Judah,
He will overflow and pass over,
[g]He will reach up to the neck;
And the stretching out of his
wings
Will fill the breadth of Your land,
O [h]Immanuel.*

9 "Be[i] shattered, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces!
Give ear, all you from far countries.
Gird yourselves, but be broken in
pieces;
Gird yourselves, but be broken in
pieces.
10 [j]Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing;
Speak the word, [k]but it will not stand,
[l]For God is with us."*

Fear God, Heed His Word

11For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying:

12 "Do not say, 'A conspiracy,' Concerning all that this people call a conspiracy,
Nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.
13 The LORD of hosts, Him you shall hallow;
Let Him be your fear,
And let Him be your dread.
14 [m]He will be as a sanctuary,
But [n]a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense
To both the houses of Israel,
As a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
15 And many among them shall [o]stumble;
They shall fall and be broken,
Be snared and taken."

16 Bind up the testimony,
Seal the law among my disciples.
17 And I will wait on the LORD,
Who [p]hides His face from the house
of Jacob;
And I [q]will hope in Him.
18 [r]Here am I and the children whom the LORD has given me!
We [s]are for signs and wonders in Israel
From the LORD of hosts,
Who dwells in Mount Zion.

19And when they say to you, [t]"Seek those who are mediums and wizards, [u]who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek their God? Should they [v]seek the dead on behalf of the living? 20[w]To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because [x]there is no light in them.

8:2 Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. This was not the Zechariah who wrote the Book of Zechariah.

8:4 spoil of Samaria . . . king of Assyria. This was a specific prediction of the fall of Samaria to the Assyrians in 722 B.C. This prophecy must have been written shortly before that time, as the fulfillment would come before the new child would be able to speak.
8:8 O Immanuel. Isaiah bestowed on Judah the name of the promised Child, Immanuel, which means "God with us" (7:14), because it would be preserved only because God was with that nation.
8:14 a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense. God is a stone of stumbling for unbelievers (Ps. 118:22; Luke 20:17–18; Rom. 9:33; 1 Pet. 2:6–8).
8:16 testimony . . . law. The testimony refers to a legal transaction. The law refers to God's instruction revealed through Isaiah. Isaiah's disciples put his prophecies in the form of a legal transaction, probably to prove their authenticity when they were fulfilled (see vv. 1–2; compare Jer. 28:9; 32:12–14).

The Government of the Promised Son

In Galilee of the Gentiles.

Have seen a great light;
Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death,
Upon them a light has shined.
3 You have multiplied the nation
And increased its joy;*
They rejoice before You
According to the joy of harvest,
As men rejoice [e]when they divide the

And the staff of his shoulder,
The rod of his oppressor,
As in the day of [f]Midian.

the dead in order to influence events. This practice, as well as the use of any mediums or spiritists, was strictly forbidden (Deut. 18:9–14).

9:1 lightly esteemed. The ancient tribal allotments of Zebulun and Naphtali (Josh. 19:10–16,32–39), which included Galilee, were the first to feel the brunt of the Assyrian invasions (2 Kin. 15:29). the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, in Galilee of the Gentiles. These three phrases indicate administrative districts of the Assyrian conqueror Tiglath-Pileser III as a result of the three campaigns he waged in the west around 733 B.C. The city of Capernaum is "by the way of the sea," (Galilee) in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. This is where Jesus began His ministry, in fulfillment of the prophecy of Isaiah 9:1–2 (Matt. 4:15–16).

9:2 Have seen a great light. The light stands for God's blessings, presence, and revelation, fulfilled in Jesus who came in the flesh (Matt. 4:15–16). The coming of Jesus revealed the mercy and grace of God in the same way that the rising sun reveals the nature of the land it shines upon. All history is labeled from that definitive moment: before the Light, or after the Light (John 1:9).

9:6–7 a Child. In this triumphant song Isaiah rejoices as though the promised Child of the house of David has already been born. The Child's birthright involves authority and rule, while His character is depicted with descriptive names. As "Wonderful" and "Counselor," He represents the sum of wisdom and knowledge, and His divinity is established clearly by the title "Mighty God." The Fatherhood of the Messiah is eternal, which again demonstrates His identity with God (John 10:30). Finally, as the "Prince of Peace" He brings peace into the world by His atoning death on the cross, paying the price of human sin and reconciling us to God. The line of David will be the human line for the source of these blessings (2 Sam. 7:8–16; Luke 1:32–33), and the divine nature of the Messiah will guarantee their permanence.

9:7 The Son of God— In Luke 24:25–27 Jesus goes to great lengths to help two of His disciples understand what the Jewish Scriptures (the Old Testament) said about Him. Throughout the Old Testament there are numerous passages that point towards Jesus Christ in several ways. This prophecy in Isaiah is one of the most important of these passages. Here He is spoken of as a son before He became a man (see also Gal. 4:4). Micah prophesies His birth, but also states that His "goings forth are from of old, from everlasting" (Mic. 5:2). John says that He existed "in the beginning" before anything was created (John 1:1–3).

Even before He was born of Mary, He appeared to men in the Old Testament as the "Angel of the LORD." It is clear that this is no ordinary angel because He is identified as God (Ex. 3:2). He pardons sin (Ex. 23:20–21), and He is worshiped (Josh. 5:13–15). While these passages do not say that this member of the Godhead was the preincarnate Christ, we may conclude that they are the same person since their work is the same.

While Christ occasionally appeared to men in the Old Testament, He took on a physical, human body when He was conceived in Mary's womb. This incomparable event of God's becoming man in Jesus Christ

The Punishment of Samaria

8 The Lord sent a word against [p]Jacob,
And it has fallen on Israel.
9 All the people will know—
Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria—
Who say in pride and arrogance of
heart:
10 "The bricks have fallen down,
But we will rebuild with hewn stones;
The sycamores are cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars."
11 Therefore the LORD shall set up
The adversaries of Rezin against him,
And spur his enemies on,
12 The Syrians before and the Philistines behind;
And they shall devour Israel with an open mouth.

For all this His anger is not turned
away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

13 For the people do not turn to Him who strikes them,
Nor do they seek the LORD of hosts.
14 Therefore the LORD will cut off head and tail from Israel,
Palm branch and bulrush [q]in one day.
15 The elder and honorable, he is the head;
The prophet who teaches lies, he is the tail.
16 For [r]the leaders of this people cause them to err,
And those who are led by them are destroyed.
17 Therefore the Lord [s]will have no joy in their young men,
Nor have mercy on their fatherless and widows;
For everyone is a hypocrite and an evildoer,
And every mouth speaks folly.

[t]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness [u]burns as the fire;
It shall devour the briers and thorns,
And kindle in the thickets of the forest;
They shall mount up like rising smoke.
19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts
[v]The land is burned up,
And the people shall be as fuel for the fire;
[w]No man shall spare his brother.
20 And he shall snatch on the right
hand
And be hungry;
He shall devour on the left hand
[x]And not be satisfied;
[y]Every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.
21 Manasseh shall devour Ephraim, and Ephraim Manasseh;
Together they shall be [z]against Judah.

[a]For all this His anger is not turned away,
But His hand is stretched out still.

10 "Woe to those who [a]decree unrighteous decrees,
Who write misfortune,
Which they have prescribed
2 To rob the needy of justice,
And to take what is right from the poor of My people,
That widows may be their prey,
And that they may rob the fatherless.
3 [b]What will you do in [c]the day of punishment,
And in the desolation which will come from [d]afar?
To whom will you flee for help?
And where will you leave your glory?

is called the incarnation. This miracle was prophesied hundreds of years previously (7:14) and was fulfilled historically when Christ was born (Luke 2:7). Thus Christ, the sinless God-man, was qualified to become our Redeemer (2 Cor. 5:21).

As a man, Christ experienced normal physical, mental, social, and spiritual growth as others did (Luke 2:52). He had pain, hunger, thirst, fatigue, temptation, pleasure, rest, and even lack of knowledge (Mark 13:32). Because of His complete humanity He can be sympathetic and compassionate toward us (Heb. 4:15).

While Christ was fully man He was also fully God, as these facts indicate: He is called God (John 1:1; Heb. 1:8); He did works that only God could do, such as forgive sins (Mark 2:7) and create (Col. 1:16); He had attributes that only God could have, such as truth (John 14:6) and omniscience (John 2:24–25); and He claimed equality with God (John 10:30).

The question may be raised as to whether Christ lost anything of deity when He became a man (Phil. 2:6–8). While there is an inscrutable mystery involved in this unparalleled act of condescension, one can be certain that He lost none of God's attributes, because He was still God (John 20:28). He is fully God and fully man united in one person forever. Even now, at the right hand of God, He is the God-man (1 Tim. 2:5). The great condescension of the Son of God in becoming a man serves eternally as a perfect model of humility and self-giving love (Phil. 2:8).

9:8 word against Jacob. The message was a judgment against the northern kingdom. The Lord would destroy it and its capital, Samaria.

10:1 Woe. Woe is a chilling word when spoken by God (5:8–23; 10:5). The leaders who make laws that affect a community for good or evil bear a fearful responsibility before God, whether they acknowledge it or not.

10:3 from afar. The Assyrians were the devastation that came from afar.

Arrogant Assyria Also Judged

5 "Woe to Assyria, [g]the rod of My anger
And the staff in whose hand is My indignation.
6 I will send him against [h]an ungodly
nation,
And against the people of My wrath
I will [i]give him charge,
To seize the spoil, to take the prey,
And to tread them down like the mire
of the streets.
7 [j]Yet he does not mean so,
Nor does his heart think so;
But it is in his heart to destroy,
And cut off not a few nations.
8 [k]For he says,
'Are not my princes altogether kings?
9 Is not [l]Calno [m]like Carchemish?
Is not Hamath like Arpad?
Is not Samaria [n]like Damascus?
10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols,
Whose carved images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria, 11 As I have done to Samaria and her
idols,
Shall I not do also to Jerusalem and her idols?'"

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Lord has performed all His work [o]on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, that He will say, [p]"I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his haughty looks."

13 [q]For he says:

"By the strength of my hand I have done it,
And by my wisdom, for I am prudent;
Also I have removed the boundaries of
the people,
And have robbed their treasuries;
So I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.
14 [r]My hand has found like a nest the riches of the people,
And as one gathers eggs that are left,
I have gathered all the earth;
And there was no one who moved his wing,
Nor opened his mouth with even a peep."

15 Shall [s]the ax boast itself against him who chops with it?
Or shall the saw exalt itself against him who saws with it?
As if a rod could wield itself against those who lift it up,
Or as if a staff could lift up, as if it were not wood!
16 Therefore the Lord, the Lord* of hosts,
Will send leanness among his fat ones;
And under his glory
He will kindle a burning
Like the burning of a fire.
17 So the Light of Israel will be for a fire,
And his Holy One for a flame;
[t]It will burn and devour
His thorns and his briers in one day.
18 And it will consume the glory of his forest and of [u]his fruitful field,
Both soul and body;
And they will be as when a sick man wastes away.
19 Then the rest of the trees of his forest
Will be so few in number
That a child may write them.

The Returning Remnant of Israel

20 And it shall come to pass in that day
That the remnant of Israel,
And such as have escaped of the house
of Jacob,
[v]Will never again depend on him who defeated them,
But will depend on the LORD, the Holy
One of Israel, in truth.
21 The remnant will return, the remnant
of Jacob,
To the [w]Mighty God.

10:5 Assyria. Though God uses sinners as instruments of His will (7:17; 13:5), they will still be held accountable for their own wickedness. In this, God shows that He is just in all His ways (Hab. 1–3).
10:6 an ungodly nation. The ungodly nation is Judah (vv. 11–12).
10:9 Calno . . . Damascus. This is a list of cities that had already fallen to Assyria.
10:10 idols . . . images. The Assyrians had conquered the nations who had false gods. Surely, they believed, they would also have an easy time against "Jerusalem and her idols." Only the living God was to be worshiped by the Israelites, but they had repeatedly broken that command (Ex. 20:4–6; Judg. 2:19).
10:15 Shall the ax boast. The ax that boasted was the Assyrian army. They were an instrument in the hands of God.
10:16 his fat ones. The fat warriors who come under judgment are the Assyrians.
10:20 remnant. The Hebrew word used here for "remnant" is different than the word used in 1:9. The difference may be considered slight; it is the difference between those who were left, or remained (10:20,22), and those who survived (1:9).

23 [z]For the Lord GOD of hosts
Will make a determined end
In the midst of all the land.

24Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O My people, who dwell in Zion, [a]do not be afraid of the Assyrian. He shall strike you with a rod and lift up his staff against you, in the manner of [b]Egypt. 25For yet a very little while [c]and the indignation will cease, as will My anger in their destruction." 26And the LORD of hosts will stir up [d]a scourge for him like the slaughter of [e]Midian at the rock of Oreb; [f]as His rod was on the sea, so will He lift it up in the manner of Egypt.

33 Behold, the Lord,
The LORD of hosts,
Will lop off the bough with terror;

the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of
the earth;

10:22 A remnant. Most of the people of the northern kingdom were carried off into captivity. But some Israelites made their way to Judah and became part of the southern kingdom. These people and their descendants would act as a remnant by preserving the names of the northern tribes among the people of God.

10:28–32 Aiath . . . Jerusalem. These verses depict Isaiah's vision of the king of Assyria's relentless march south over difficult terrain from Aiath (or Ai), which was ten miles north of Jerusalem on a point overlooking the city. The cities as listed in these verses are closer and closer to the capital at Jerusalem.

10:32 he. "He" refers to Assyria, the enemy.

10:33–34 bough . . . thickets. The bough and the thickets are the Assyrian leaders and the Assyrian army. The point is that God will bring judgment on the instruments He used to judge Israel.

11:1 a Rod from the stem of Jesse. Jesse was King David's father (1 Sam. 16:10–13). As David inaugurated a kingdom of righteousness and peace, the new David—the "rod" or "root" (53:2) from David's line—will establish an incomparably greater kingdom. The words "rod" and "root" are messianic terms. They are figurative words for the great descendant of the household of David, the Seed of the woman promised in Genesis 3:15, Jesus Christ Himself (Matt. 1:17).

11:2 Spirit. As in the case of David (1 Sam. 16:13), the Messiah would be empowered by the Holy Spirit (4:4; 42:1; 48:16; 59:21; 61:1; Luke 3:22), who was the Agent for establishing God's kingdom (Gen. 1:1–2; Judg. 3:10; 6:34; 1 Sam. 10:6). wisdom and understanding. The Messiah will be the ideal king. He will embody the administrative skill to govern with righteousness and justice far more than even Solomon (1 Kin. 3:9), who asked for those gifts when he became king. counsel. The Holy Spirit's "counsel" is not advice, but authoritative plans and decisions. fear of the LORD. The Messiah would demonstrate in all His life the correct response to God; He would honor and obey Him (Ex. 20:20).

11:4 judge. In this context, judge does not mean to

A Hymn of Praise

12 And [a]in that day you will say:

Though You were angry with me,
Your anger is turned away, and You comfort me.

bring people to account, but to act on their behalf. As the Judge of His people, God sentences the wicked and offers protection and defense for the innocent and oppressed. rod of His mouth . . . breath of His lips. This concept is repeated in Revelation 19:15, when the Lord Jesus returns with power and great glory.

11:6–9 wolf also shall dwell with the lamb . . . shall not hurt nor destroy. This picture of cruel beasts regenerated with a new nature that makes them protect their natural prey portrays a reign of peace and security. This can only be realized in the return of the Messiah to establish the kingdom of God (65:17–25; Rev. 21:1–8).

11:10 the Gentiles. The revelation of the Messiah is for people of all nations.

11:11 the second time. The "second time" may refer to the remnant coming back to the land in 538 B.C., in contrast to the first exodus from Egypt. Beyond that, it could also refer to the remnant's coming to Christ in the present age (Rom. 11:5) or to its future return to Christ (Rom. 11:11–27; Rev. 7:4–8).

12:1 in that day. The day refers to the day that the Lord rescues His people, whether it was the return of the remnant or the future return of Christ as portrayed in the Book of Revelation.

12:2 my strength and song. This psalm of redemption is based on the first psalm of redemption in Exodus (Ex. 15:2; Ps. 118:14).

From the wells of salvation.

[e]"Praise the LORD, call upon His name;
[f]Declare His deeds among the peoples,
Make mention that His [g]name is exalted.
5 [h]Sing to the LORD,
For He has done excellent things;
This is known in all the earth.

For great is [j]the Holy One of Israel in your midst!"

Proclamation Against Babylon

13 The [a]burden against Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.

2 "Lift[b] up a banner [c]on the high mountain,
Raise your voice to them;
[d]Wave your hand, that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
3 I have commanded My sanctified ones;
I have also called [e]My mighty ones for My anger—
Those who [f]rejoice in My exaltation."

4 The [g]noise of a multitude in the mountains,
Like that of many people!
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together!
The LORD of hosts musters
The army for battle.
5 They come from a far country,
From the end of heaven—
The [h]LORD and His weapons of indignation,
To destroy the whole [i]land.

6 Wail, [j]for the day of the LORD is at hand!
[k]It will come as destruction from the Almighty.
7 Therefore all hands will be limp,
Every man's heart will melt,
8 And they will be afraid.
[l]Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them;
They will be in pain as a woman in childbirth;
They will be amazed at one another;
Their faces will be like flames.

9 Behold, [m]the day of the LORD comes,
Cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger,
To lay the land desolate;
And He will destroy [n]its sinners from it.
10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations
Will not give their light;
The sun will be [o]darkened in its going forth,
And the moon will not cause its light to shine.

11 "I will [p]punish the world for its evil,
And the wicked for their iniquity;
[q]I will halt the arrogance of the proud,
And will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
12 I will make a mortal more rare than fine gold,
A man more than the golden wedge of Ophir.
13 [r]Therefore I will shake the heavens,
And the earth will move out of her place,
In the wrath of the LORD of hosts
And in [s]the day of His fierce anger.
14 It shall be as the hunted gazelle,
And as a sheep that no man takes up;
[t]Every man will turn to his own people,
And everyone will flee to his own land.
15 Everyone who is found will be thrust through,
And everyone who is captured will fall by the sword.
16 Their children also will be [u]dashed to pieces before their eyes;
Their houses will be plundered
And their wives [v]ravished.

12:3 wells of salvation. In an arid land, the provision of wells and springs was regarded as a divine gift. Hebrew poets often associate water with salvation (Ex. 17:1–7).

13:1 burden . . . which Isaiah . . . saw. The Book of Isaiah takes a major turn at chapter 13, which continues through chapter 27. The focus in this extended section is first on the Lord's judgments against the nations, through chapter 23, followed by an end-time prophecy in chapters 24–27. Babylon. Babylon was the crown jewel of the Assyrian Empire. This burden may refer to its destruction around 689 B.C. when Sennacherib quelled a rebellion there. Yet the Lord's overthrow of Babylon, the "glory of kingdoms" (v. 19), symbolizes His triumph over the world (v. 11). Babylon is the epitome of religion and culture in the ancient Middle East. Thus the burden is indirectly against all nations, especially Assyria (14:24–27). Peter uses the term Babylon symbolically in the New Testament (1 Pet. 5:13), as does John (Rev. 14:8; 18:2,10–21).

13:6 the day of the LORD. This designated "day" refers to a time of unusual activity of God in the lives of people, for judgment or for mercy. is at hand. The basic idea of this term is not that of approaching a fixed date, but that the day of the Lord is about to burst into one's world. The day of the Lord is imminent—able to happen at any time—not because people have almost reached it as a destination, but because it may burst in upon people without further warning.

And as for gold, they will not delight
in it.
18 Also their bows will dash the young men to pieces,
And they will have no pity on the fruit
of the womb;
Their eye will not spare children.
19 [x]And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
The beauty of the Chaldeans' pride,
Will be as when God overthrew
[y]Sodom and Gomorrah.
20 [z]It will never be inhabited,
Nor will it be settled from generation to generation;
Nor will the Arabian pitch tents there, Nor will the shepherds make their sheepfolds there.
21 [a]But wild beasts of the desert will lie
there,
And their houses will be full of owls;
Ostriches will dwell there,
And wild goats will caper there.
22 The hyenas will howl in their citadels,
And jackals in their pleasant palaces.
[b]Her time is near to come,
And her days will not be prolonged."

Mercy on Jacob

14 For the LORD [a]will have mercy on Jacob, and [b]will still choose Israel, and settle them in their own land. [c]The strangers will be joined with them, and they will cling to the house of Jacob. 2Then people will take them [d]and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them for servants and maids in the land of the LORD; they will take them captive whose captives they were, [e]and rule over their oppressors.

Fall of the King of Babylon

3It shall come to pass in the day the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear and the hard bondage in which you were made to serve, 4that you [f]will take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say:

"How the oppressor has ceased,
The [g]golden* city ceased!
5 The LORD has broken [h]the staff of the wicked,
The scepter of the rulers;
6 He who struck the people in wrath
with a continual stroke,
He who ruled the nations in anger,
Is persecuted and no one hinders.
7 The whole earth is at rest and quiet;
They break forth into singing.
8 [i]Indeed the cypress trees rejoice over
you,
And the cedars of Lebanon,
Saying, 'Since you were cut down,
No woodsman has come up against us.'
9 "Hell[j] from beneath is excited about you,
To meet you at your coming;
It stirs up the dead for you,
All the chief ones of the earth;
It has raised up from their thrones
All the kings of the nations.
10 They all shall [k]speak and say to you:
'Have you also become as weak as we?
Have you become like us?
11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol,
And the sound of your stringed instruments;
The maggot is spread under you,
And worms cover you.'

The Fall of Lucifer

12 "How[l] you are fallen from heaven,
O Lucifer,* son of the morning!
How you are cut down to the ground,
You who weakened the nations!
13 For you have said in your heart:
[m]'I will ascend into heaven,
[n]I will exalt my throne above the stars of God;

* 14:4 Or insolent * 14:12 Literally Day Star

13:21–22 owls . . . jackals. With the exception of the goat, all of the animals mentioned in these verses are unclean. This image created a clear message to the people of Israel of a place that was desolate and unfit to inhabit.

14:4 Babylon. Babylon is often used in Scripture for Satan's kingdom. This passage can be read with a double point of view. One, as if it were talking about an unnamed political king; and two, as a reference to and description of Satan's career. Both views are sobering and worth taking note of.

14:8 the cypress trees rejoice. The trees will no longer be cut down to construct machines of war.

14:9 Hell from beneath is excited. The commotion in the "grave" when the king of Babylon (or Satan; see Rev. 20:1–3) arrives contrasts sharply with the rest on earth when he is gone (v. 7).

14:12 fallen from heaven. This is a figure of speech meaning cast down from an exalted political position. Jesus said, "And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades" (Luke 10:15); and, apparently with the same meaning, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven" (Luke 10:18). The "son of the morning," called Lucifer or Day Star in Hebrew, is the planet Venus. The poetic language of this verse describes the aspiration of this brightest star to climb to the zenith of the heavens and its extinction before the rising sun. This is an apt summary of the failed goal of Satan (or the king of Babylon, v. 4), who wanted to grasp universal and eternal domination (Ezek. 28:14–16; Rev. 12:12–13; 20:2).

15 Yet you [r]shall be brought down to Sheol,
To the lowest depths of the Pit.

16 "Those who see you will gaze at you,
And consider you, saying:
'Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
Who shook kingdoms,
17 Who made the world as a wilderness
And destroyed its cities,
Who did not open the house of his prisoners?'

18 "All the kings of the nations,
All of them, sleep in glory,
Everyone in his own house;
19 But you are cast out of your grave
Like an abominable branch,
Like the garment of those who are slain,
Thrust through with a sword,
Who go down to the stones of the pit,
Like a corpse trodden underfoot.
20 You will not be joined with them in burial,
Because you have destroyed your land
And slain your people.
[s]The brood of evildoers shall never be named.
21 Prepare slaughter for his children
[t]Because of the iniquity of their fathers,
Lest they rise up and possess the land,
And fill the face of the world with cities."

Babylon Destroyed

22 "For I will rise up against them," says the LORD of hosts,
"And cut off from Babylon [u]the name and [v]remnant,
[w]And offspring and posterity," says the LORD.
23 "I will also make it a possession for the [x]porcupine,
And marshes of muddy water;
I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of hosts.

Assyria Destroyed

24 The LORD of hosts has sworn, saying,
"Surely, as I have thought, so it shall come to pass,
And as I have purposed, so it shall [y]stand:
25 That I will break the [z]Assyrian in My land,
And on My mountains tread him underfoot.
Then [a]his yoke shall be removed from them,
And his burden removed from their shoulders.
26 This is the [b]purpose that is purposed against the whole earth,
And this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
27 For the LORD of hosts has [c]purposed,
And who will annul it?
His hand is stretched out,
And who will turn it back?"

Philistia Destroyed

28 This is the burden which came in the year that [d]King Ahaz died.

29 "Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia,
[e]Because the rod that struck you is broken;
For out of the serpent's roots will come forth a viper,
[f]And its offspring will be a fiery flying serpent.
30 The firstborn of the poor will feed,
And the needy will lie down in safety;
I will kill your roots with famine,
And it will slay your remnant.
31 Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
All you of Philistia are dissolved;
For smoke will come from the north,
And no one will be alone in his appointed times."

32 What will they answer the messengers of the nation?
That [g]the LORD has founded Zion,
And [h]the poor of His people shall take refuge in it.

14:14 I will be like the Most High. This is the most outrageous of the arrogant desires of Satan (or of this unnamed king). He wanted to surpass the Most High, a term for the Lord that is often used in connection with the nations of the world (Ps. 87:5; 91:1; 92:1). This statement strongly speaks of Satan (v. 12), who purposes to work against God in every possible way. Satan's sin is centered in pride, the desire to be in submission to no one, not even God (1 Tim. 3:6). Ezekiel saw Satan's work in the king of Tyre (Ezek. 28), and Isaiah sees the parallel between the character and goals of Satan and this unnamed Babylonian king.

14:28 Ahaz. King Ahaz died in 720 B.C.

14:29 rod. The rod is probably a metaphor for the Assyrian king (10:5).

14:31 gate. The gate of a walled city was its weakest point. When the gate fell, the city could be taken.

Proclamation Against Moab

15 The [a]burden against Moab.
Because in the night [b]Ar of [c]Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
Because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste
And destroyed,
2 He has gone up to the temple* and Dibon,
To the high places to weep.
Moab will wail over Nebo and over Medeba;
[d]On all their heads will be baldness,
And every beard cut off.
3 In their streets they will clothe themselves with sackcloth;
On the tops of their houses
And in their streets
Everyone will wail, [e]weeping bitterly.
4 Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out,
Their voice shall be heard as far as [f]Jahaz;
Therefore the armed soldiers* of Moab
will cry out;
His life will be burdensome to him.

5 "My[g] heart will cry out for Moab;
His fugitives shall flee to Zoar,
Like a three-year-old heifer.*
For [h]by the Ascent of Luhith
They will go up with weeping;
For in the way of Horonaim
They will raise up a cry of destruction, 6 For the waters [i]of Nimrim will be desolate,
For the green grass has withered away;
The grass fails, there is nothing green.
7 Therefore the abundance they have gained,
And what they have laid up,
They will carry away to the Brook of the Willows.
8 For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab,
Its wailing to Eglaim
And its wailing to Beer Elim.
9 For the waters of Dimon* will be full of blood;
Because I will bring more upon Dimon,*
[j]Lions upon him who escapes from Moab,
And on the remnant of the land."

Moab Destroyed

16 Send [a]the lamb to the ruler of the land,
[b]From Sela to the wilderness,
To the mount of the daughter of Zion.
2 For it shall be as a [c]wandering bird thrown out of the nest;
So shall be the daughters of Moab at the fords of the [d]Arnon.

3 "Take counsel, execute judgment;
Make your shadow like the night in the middle of the day;
Hide the outcasts,
Do not betray him who escapes.
4 Let My outcasts dwell with you,
O Moab;
Be a shelter to them from the face of the spoiler.
For the extortioner is at an end,
Devastation ceases,
The oppressors are consumed out of the land.
5 In mercy [e]the throne will be established;
And One will sit on it in truth, in the tabernacle of David, [f]Judging and seeking justice and hastening [g]righteousness."

6 We have heard of the [h]pride of Moab—
He is very proud—
Of his haughtiness and his pride and
his wrath;
[i]But his lies shall not be so.
7 Therefore Moab shall [j]wail for Moab;
Everyone shall wail.
For the foundations [k]of Kir Hareseth
you shall mourn;
Surely they are stricken.

15:1 Moab. For the origin of the people of Moab, see the story of Lot and his daughters in Genesis 19:30–38 (also Num. 22–25; Deut. 1:5).
15:2 high places. High places were sites of pagan worship (16:12).
15:5 heart will cry out. Isaiah does not rejoice in the downfall of Moab. He knew that the judgment from God was righteous, and he remembered that Moab had been a treacherous enemy to his nation, yet his heart cried out in pity. It is the mark of God's people that they do not rejoice in the downfall of the wicked, even though they may be glad to be free from oppression.
15:9 Dimon. The term Dimon sounds like "blood" in Hebrew. Lions. Fleeing from one tragedy after another in their flight southward, the refugees turned to Judah in the west for asylum (16:1–5). A remnant would survive in Moab, as would be the case with Israel (1:9; 6:13; 10:20; 11:16)—but not with Assyria (14:22) and Philistia (14:30).
16:5 the throne will be established. Moab's salvation ultimately lies in the coming one, Jesus the Messiah, whose throne will be established (9:1–7; 11:1–5; Amos 9:11–12; Acts 15:16–17).
16:6 pride. In the end, it was the pride and the

8 For [l]the fields of Heshbon languish,
And [m]the vine of Sibmah;
The lords of the nations have broken down its choice plants,
Which have reached to Jazer
And wandered through the wilderness.
Her branches are stretched out,
They are gone over the [n]sea.
9 Therefore I will bewail the vine of Sibmah,
With the weeping of Jazer;
I will drench you with my tears,
[o]O Heshbon and Elealeh;
For battle cries have fallen Over your summer fruits and your harvest.
10 [p]Gladness is taken away,
And joy from the plentiful field;
In the vineyards there will be no
singing,
Nor will there be shouting;
No treaders will tread out wine in the presses;
I have made their shouting
cease.
11 Therefore [q]my heart shall resound like a harp for Moab,
And my inner being for Kir Heres.
12 And it shall come to pass,
When it is seen that Moab is weary on [r]the high place,
That he will come to his sanctuary to pray;
But he will not prevail.
13 This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning Moab since that time.
14 But now the LORD has spoken, saying,
"Within three years, [s]as the years of a hired man, the glory of Moab will be despised with all that great multitude, and the remnant will be very small and feeble."

Proclamation Against Syria and Israel

17 The [a]burden against Damascus.
"Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city,
And it will be a ruinous heap.
2 The cities of [b]Aroer are forsaken;*
They will be for flocks Which lie down, and [c]no one will make them afraid.
3 [d]The fortress also will cease from Ephraim,
The kingdom from Damascus,
And the remnant of Syria;
They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,"
Says the LORD of hosts.
4 "In that day it shall come to pass
That the glory of Jacob will wane,
And [e]the fatness of his flesh grow
lean.
5 [f]It shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain,
And reaps the heads with his arm;
It shall be as he who gathers heads of grain
In the Valley of Rephaim.
6 [g]Yet gleaning grapes will be left
in it,
Like the shaking of an olive tree,
Two or three olives at the top of the uppermost bough,
Four or five in its most fruitful branches,"
Says the LORD God of Israel.
7 In that day a man will [h]look to his Maker,
And his eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel.

* 17:2 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Septuagint reads It shall be forsaken forever; Targum reads Its cities shall be forsaken and desolate.

haughtiness and the wrath of Moab that brought the nation into judgment. The pride of Moab is not the honest pride in a difficult task well done, but the pride of a haughty, disdainful people who considered themselves above remonstrance. The third element of Moab's downfall, wrath, is closely linked with pride. A people who consider themselves the center of interest and importance lose their natural inhibition. They feel free to indulge in wrath because they are convinced that whatever they do is right.

16:8 vine. The vine refers to Moab.

16:9 Heshbon and Elealeh. These cities were among the principal settlements in ancient Moab (15:4).

16:12 high place . . . sanctuary. As long as people worship false gods, they will be doomed to pain, judgment, and recurring trouble (15:2–4). Even when the people weary of the false gods and try to pray to the one true God, they will not be able to communicate with Him because they have not repented and renounced the false gods.

16:14 Within three years. A former prophecy against Moab (15:2) would be realized within three years, perhaps referring to the quelling of a rebellion against Sargon in 715 B.C. However, a remnant would remain (15:9). Moab had far more hope for salvation than did either Babylon or Philistia.

17:3 fortress. This city may be Samaria, the capital city. Ephraim. Ephraim designates northern Israel.

17:5 Rephaim. The word "Rephaim" is the Hebrew word for "shades" or "ghosts." The "Valley of Rephaim" is the valley of death.

17:6 left. A remnant would be left (10:20) even though it would be pitifully small.

8 He will not look to the altars,
The work of his hands;
He will not respect what his [i]fingers have made,
Nor the wooden images* nor the incense altars.

9 In that day his strong cities will be as a forsaken bough*
And an uppermost branch,*
Which they left because of the children of Israel;
And there will be desolation.

10 Because you have forgotten [j]the God of your salvation,
And have not been mindful of the Rock of your stronghold,
Therefore you will plant pleasant plants
And set out foreign seedlings;
11 In the day you will make your plant to grow,
And in the morning you will make your seed to flourish;
But the harvest will be a heap of ruins
In the day of grief and desperate sorrow.

12 Woe to the multitude of many people
Who make a noise [k]like the roar of the seas,
And to the rushing of nations
That make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!
13 The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters;
But God will [l]rebuke them and they will flee far away,
And [m]be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
Like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.
14 Then behold, at eventide, trouble!
And before the morning, he is no more.
This is the portion of those who plunder us,
And the lot of those who rob us.

Proclamation Against Ethiopia

18 Woe [a]to the land shadowed with buzzing wings,
Which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
2 Which sends ambassadors by sea,
Even in vessels of reed on the waters, saying,
"Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth of skin,
To a people terrible from their beginning onward,
A nation powerful and treading down,
Whose land the rivers divide."

3 All inhabitants of the world and dwellers on the earth:
[b]When he lifts up a banner on the mountains, you see it;
And when he blows a trumpet, you hear it.
4 For so the LORD said to me,
"I will take My rest,
And I will look from My dwelling place
Like clear heat in sunshine,
Like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."
5 For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect
And the sour grape is ripening in the flower,
He will both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks
And take away and cut down the branches.
6 They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey
And for the beasts of the earth;
The birds of prey will summer on them,
And all the beasts of the earth will winter on them.

7 In that time [c]a present will be brought to the LORD of hosts
From* a people tall and smooth of skin,

* 17:8 Hebrew Asherim, Canaanite deities
* 17:9 Septuagint reads Hivites; Targum reads laid waste; Vulgate reads as the plows. • Septuagint reads Amorites; Targum reads in ruins; Vulgate reads corn. * 18:7 Following Dead Sea Scrolls, Septuagint, and Vulgate; Masoretic Text omits From; Targum reads To.

17:10 forgotten. Forgetting God is letting the truth of God fade by ignoring Him. In the end, such neglect is unbelief, refusing to believe in God and refusing to believe His Word. The safe caring place, the Refuge from storms, is forgotten. God becomes like a friend whom you never visit any more or think much about and finally do not remember at all. This slippery slope takes us far from the Rock of our refuge, the God of our Salvation.
17:11 make your seed to flourish. This phrase may allude to the ancient practice of force-blooming potted plants and allowing them to die. Pagans believed that this reenactment of the life cycle would secure fertile fields. But even after performing this rite, the harvest would be in ruin. Just as the choice vines of the Lord's vineyard disappointed Him (5:1–7), so His errant people would find their harvest hopes shattered.
17:12 many people. The many people are the nations that plunder Israel (v. 14).
17:14 before the morning. Sennacherib's army would be destroyed between evening time and morning (37:36–38). us. Isaiah identified himself with his plundered people.
18:1 Ethiopia. Also called Cush in the Bible, Ethiopia was at the southern end of Isaiah's world. A Cushite dynasty took over Egypt in 715 B.C. and probably sent ambassadors to Jerusalem.
18:5 before the harvest . . . cut off. This is another example of a bad harvest (17:10–11).
18:7 place of the name. Note how closely the Lord identifies with Mount Zion. This was the one place for the true worship of God.

17:8 [i] Is. 2:8; 31:7 17:10 [j] Ps. 68:19 17:12 [k] Jer. 6:23 of hosts,

To Mount Zion.

Proclamation Against Egypt

19 The [a]burden against Egypt.

Behold, the LORD [b]rides on a swift
cloud,
And will come into Egypt;
[c]The idols of Egypt will totter at His
presence,
And the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst.

2 "I will [d]set Egyptians against Egyptians;
Everyone will fight against his brother,
And everyone against his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.

3 The spirit of Egypt will fail in its
midst;
I will destroy their counsel,
And they will [e]consult the idols and
the charmers,
The mediums and the sorcerers.

4 And the Egyptians I will give [f]Into the hand of a cruel master,
And a fierce king will rule over them,"
Says the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

5 [g]The waters will fail from the sea,
And the river will be wasted and
dried up.

6 The rivers will turn foul;
The brooks [h]of defense will be emptied
and dried up;
The reeds and rushes will wither.

7 The papyrus reeds by the River,* by the mouth of the River,
And everything sown by the River,
Will wither, be driven away, and be no
more.

8 The fishermen also will mourn;
All those will lament who cast hooks into the River,
And they will languish who spread nets on the waters.

9 Moreover those who work in [i]fine flax
And those who weave fine fabric will be ashamed;

10 And its foundations will be broken.
All who make wages will be troubled of soul.

11 Surely the princes of [j]Zoan are fools; Pharaoh's wise counselors give foolish counsel.
[k]How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise,
The son of ancient kings?"

12 [l]Where are they?
Where are your wise men?
Let them tell you now,
And let them know what the LORD of hosts has [m]purposed against Egypt.

13 The princes of Zoan have become fools;
[n]The princes of Noph* are deceived;
They have also deluded Egypt,
Those who are the mainstay of its tribes.

14 The LORD has mingled [o]a perverse spirit in her midst;
And they have caused Egypt to err in all her work,
As a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

15 Neither will there be any work for Egypt,
Which [p]the head or tail,
Palm branch or bulrush, may do.*

16 In that day Egypt will [q]be like women, and will be afraid and fear because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts, [r]which He waves over it. 17 And the land of Judah will be a terror to Egypt; everyone who makes mention of it will be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts which He has [s]determined against it.

Egypt, Assyria, and Israel Blessed

18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will [t]speak the language of Canaan and [u]swear by the LORD of hosts; one will be called the City of Destruction.*

19 In that day [v]there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the [w]LORD at its border. 20 And 19:2 Egyptians against Egyptians. The political anarchy of the Egyptians has religious roots: their many gods failed them.

19:3 spirit of Egypt. The principal key for understanding the world of ancient Egypt is the concept of order, or ma'at. When the spirit of the Egyptians was demoralized, they lost their sense of order and purpose. This would completely confuse and disarm any aggression and would cause economic and political upheaval.

19:13 Noph. This was Memphis, Egypt's ancient capital.

23In that day [c]there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian will come into Egypt and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians will [d]serve with the Assyrians.

24In that day Israel will be one of three with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing in the midst of the land, 25whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, "Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria [e]the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance."

The Sign Against Egypt and Ethiopia

20 In the year that [a]Tartan* came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it, 2at the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and remove [b]the sackcloth from your body, and take your sandals off your feet." And he did so, [c]walking naked and barefoot.

3Then the LORD said, "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years [d]for a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, 4so shall the [e]king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians as prisoners and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, [f]with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. 5[g]Then they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation and Egypt their glory. 6And the inhabitant of this territory will say in that day, 'Surely such is our expectation, wherever we flee for [h]help to be delivered from the king of Assyria; and how shall we escape?'"

The Fall of Babylon Proclaimed

21 The burden against the Wilderness of the Sea.

As [a]whirlwinds in the South pass through,
So it comes from the desert, from a terrible land.

2 A distressing vision is declared to me;
[b]The treacherous dealer deals treacherously,
And the plunderer plunders.
[c]Go up, O Elam!
Besiege, O Media!
All its sighing I have made to cease.

3 Therefore [d]my loins are filled with pain;
[e]Pangs have taken hold of me, like the pangs of a woman in labor.
I was distressed when I heard it;
I was dismayed when I saw it.

4 My heart wavered, fearfulness frightened me;
[f]The night for which I longed He turned into fear for me.

5 [g]Prepare the table,
Set a watchman in the tower,
Eat and drink.
Arise, you princes,
Anoint the shield!

6 For thus has the Lord said to me:
"Go, set a watchman,
Let him declare what he sees."

7 And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen,
A chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels,
And he listened earnestly with great care.

8 Then he cried, "A lion,* my Lord!

for which there is a future mercy. The Egyptians will swear allegiance to the true God, institute extensive public worship of God, and become equal partners in the community of believers. This is a remarkable promise from our God, and one that is worth remembering in troubling political times.

19:25 My people . . . the work of My hands. Historically, Egypt and Assyria were enemies. When they change and turn to the Lord (symbolic of all converted Gentiles), they will be healed (v. 22) and blessed by God.

20:2 sackcloth. Isaiah replaced the garb of spiritual mourning with the signs of being exiled into captivity.

20:3 three years. Three years means "involving three years," a minimum of 14 months, but possibly more.

20:6 inhabitant of this territory. This probably refers to the nations, including Judah, bordering on the eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea, who looked to Egypt to save them from Assyria.

21:2 Elam . . . Media. Elam, a major part of Persia, and Media were allied in 700 B.C. Perhaps as a part of the Assyrian army (5:26), they helped to bring about the fall of Babylon in 689 B.C., since they certainly did so in 539 B.C. (11:11; 13:17).

21:4 heart wavered. Isaiah saw that even a longed-for event can have terrible consequences in its wake. The judgment of God on Babylon would not be easy to look at.

21:7 donkeys . . . camels. The Persians, who overthrew Babylon in 539 B.C., used donkeys and camels in their army.

[i]"Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And [j]all the carved images of her gods
He has broken to the ground."

10 [k]Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor!
That which I have heard from the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,
I have declared to you.

Proclamation Against Edom

11 [l]The burden against Dumah.

He calls to me out of [m]Seir,
"Watchman, what of the night?
Watchman, what of the night?"
12 The watchman said,
"The morning comes, and also the
night.
If you will inquire, inquire;
Return! Come back!"

Proclamation Against Arabia

13 [n]The burden against Arabia.

In the forest in Arabia you will lodge,
O you traveling companies [o]of Dedanites.
14 O inhabitants of the land of Tema,
Bring water to him who is thirsty;
With their bread they met him who fled.
15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword,
From the bent bow, and from the distress of war.

16 For thus the LORD has said to me: "Within a year, [p]according to the year of a hired man, all the glory of [q]Kedar will fail; 17 and the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Kedar, will be diminished; for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it."

Proclamation Against Jerusalem

22 The burden against the Valley of Vision.

What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops,
2 You who are full of noise,
A tumultuous city, [a]a joyous city?
Your slain men are not slain with the
sword,
Nor dead in battle.
3 All your rulers have fled together;
They are captured by the archers.
All who are found in you are bound together;
They have fled from afar.
4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me,
[b]I will weep bitterly;
Do not labor to comfort me Because of the plundering of the daughter of my people."

5 [c]For it is a day of trouble and treading down and perplexity
[d]By the Lord GOD of hosts
In the Valley of Vision—
Breaking down the walls
And of crying to the mountain.
6 [e]Elam bore the quiver
With chariots of men and horsemen,
And [f]Kir uncovered the shield.
7 It shall come to pass that your choicest valleys
Shall be full of chariots,
And the horsemen shall set themselves
in array at the gate.

8 [g]He removed the protection of Judah.
You looked in that day to the armor [h]of the House of the Forest;
9 [i]You also saw the damage to the city of David,
That it was great;
And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
10 You numbered the houses of Jerusalem,
And the houses you broke down
To fortify the wall.
11 [j]You also made a reservoir between the two walls
For the water of the old [k]pool.
But you did not look to its Maker, Nor did you have respect for Him who fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts
[l]Called for weeping and for mourning, [m]For baldness and for girding with
sackcloth.

21:11 Watchman. The watchman was the night patrol who kept watch on the city. The metaphor refers to the prophet Isaiah, who, as a guard on the walls, could see the dawn—the light of salvation—in the east before the others.

21:13 companies of Dedanites. The Dedanites may refer to the refugees (v. 15) from Dedan, which was about 90 miles southeast of Tema (v. 14).

22:11 reservoir between the two walls. The defense of the city depended upon the availability of water within its walls. Hezekiah addressed this need by digging a tunnel beneath the city, connecting the lower pool in Jerusalem's southwestern valley with the old pool, the source of water in the eastern valley.

13 But instead, joy and gladness,
Slaying oxen and killing sheep,
Eating meat and [n]drinking wine:
[o]"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

14 [p]Then it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts,
"Surely for this iniquity there [q]will be no atonement for you, Even to your death," says the Lord GOD of hosts.

The Judgment on Shebna

15 Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts:

"Go, proceed to this steward,
To [r]Shebna, who is over the house, and say:
16 'What have you here, and whom have you here,
That you have hewn a sepulcher here,
As he [s]who hews himself a sepulcher on high,
Who carves a tomb for himself in a rock?
17 Indeed, the LORD will throw you away violently,
O mighty man,
[t]And will surely seize you.
18 He will surely turn violently and toss you like a ball
Into a large country;
There you shall die, and there [u]your glorious chariots
Shall be the shame of your master's house.
19 So I will drive you out of your office,
And from your position he will pull you down.*

20 'Then it shall be in that day,
That I will call My servant [v]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah;
21 I will clothe him with your robe
And strengthen him with your belt;
I will commit your responsibility into his hand.
He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
And to the house of Judah.
22 The key of the house of David
I will lay on his [w]shoulder;
So he shall [x]open, and no one shall shut;
And he shall shut, and no one shall open.
23 I will fasten him as [y]a peg in a secure place,
And he will become a glorious throne to his father's house.
24 'They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the posterity, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the pitchers. 25 In that day,' says the LORD of hosts, 'the peg that is fastened in the secure place will be removed and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was on it will be cut off; for the LORD has spoken.'"

Proclamation Against Tyre

23 The [a]burden against Tyre.

Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For it is laid waste,
So that there is no house, no harbor;
From the land of Cyprus* it is revealed to them.

2 Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland,
You merchants of Sidon,
Whom those who cross the sea have filled.*
3 And on great waters the grain of Shihor,
The harvest of the River,* is her revenue;
And [b]she is a marketplace for the nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Sidon;
For the sea has spoken,
The strength of the sea, saying,
"I do not labor, nor bring forth children;
Neither do I rear young men,
Nor bring up virgins."
5 [c]When the report reaches Egypt,
They also will be in agony at the report of Tyre.

6 Cross over to Tarshish;
Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!
7 Is this your [d]joyous city,
Whose antiquity is from ancient days,
Whose feet carried her far off to dwell?
8 Who has taken this counsel against Tyre, [e]the crowning city,
Whose merchants are princes,
Whose traders are the honorable of the earth?

22:25 peg . . . be cut off. Even the firmly reliable Eliakim could not sustain the burden of government. Only Immanuel could do that (9:6–7).
23:1 Tyre. Tyre was besieged several times over a period of about 400 years before it was finally laid waste by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C.
23:6 Tarshish. Tarshish is Tartessus in Spain and represents the most distant place to the ancient Israelites.

This people which was not;
Assyria founded it for [k]wild beasts of the desert.
They set up its towers,
They raised up its palaces,
And brought it to ruin.

14 [l]Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
For your strength is laid waste.

15 Now it shall come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. At the end of seventy years it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the harlot:

16 "Take a harp, go about the city,
You forgotten harlot;
Make sweet melody, sing many songs,
That you may be remembered."

17 And it shall be, at the end of seventy years, that the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire, and [m]commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. 18 Her gain and her pay [n]will be set apart for the LORD; it will not be treasured nor laid up, for her gain will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for fine clothing.

Impending Judgment on the Earth

24 Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty and makes it waste, Distorts its surface
And scatters abroad its inhabitants.

2 And it shall be:
As with the people, so with the [a]priest;
As with the servant, so with his master;
As with the maid, so with her mistress;
[b]As with the buyer, so with the seller;
As with the lender, so with the borrower;
As with the creditor, so with the debtor.

3 The land shall be entirely emptied and utterly plundered,
For the LORD has spoken this word.

4 The earth mourns and fades away,
The world languishes and fades away;
The [c]haughty people of the earth languish.

5 [d]The earth is also defiled under its inhabitants,
Because they have [e]transgressed the laws,
Changed the ordinance,
Broken the [f]everlasting covenant.

6 Therefore [g]the curse has devoured the earth,
And those who dwell in it are desolate.
Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are [h]burned,
And few men are left.

7 [i]The new wine fails, the vine languishes,
All the merry-hearted sigh.

8 The mirth [j]of the tambourine ceases,
The noise of the jubilant ends,
The joy of the harp ceases.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song;
Strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

10 The city of confusion is broken down;
Every house is shut up, so that none may go in.

11 There is a cry for wine in the streets,
All joy is darkened,
The mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city desolation is left,
And the gate is stricken with destruction.

* 23:10 That is, the Nile

23:15 seventy years. Seventy years symbolizes a full measure of time, a lifetime.

23:18 Her gain . . . set apart for the LORD. This was not a violation of God's command (Deut. 23:18) which forbade bringing a harlot's pay (v. 17) to the temple. Tyre's destruction was part of the Lord's war against the unrighteous. The spoils would belong to Him as the Victor (Deut. 2:35; Josh. 6:17,19).

24:1—27:12 Behold, the LORD. The section describing the Lord's "burdens" against particular nations (chs. 13–23) is now placed in a larger framework that shows God's triumph over the entire earth for His elect. Chapter 24 focuses on God's overthrow of the corrupted earth; chapter 25 focuses on the responsive praise to His actions. Chapters 26 and 27 focus on God's efforts for His people.

24:4 The earth mourns. For a similar idea, see Romans 8:22.

24:5 laws . . . ordinance . . . covenant. The usual language concerning a breach of the covenant is applied more generally to the wicked nations. Perhaps these words speak of that innate sense of right and wrong—the conscience—that God has given to all mankind, but which everyone violates (Acts 24:16; Rom. 1:18–32).

13 When it shall be thus in the midst of the land among the people,
[k]It shall be like the shaking of an olive tree,
Like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing;
For the majesty of the LORD
They shall cry aloud from the sea.
15 Therefore [l]glorify the LORD in the dawning light,
[m]The name of the LORD God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea.
16 From the ends of the earth we have heard songs:
"Glory to the righteous!"
But I said, "I am ruined, ruined!
Woe to me!
[n]The treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously,
Indeed, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously."

17 [o]Fear and the pit and the snare
Are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.
18 And it shall be
That he who flees from the noise of the fear
Shall fall into the pit,
And he who comes up from the midst of the pit
Shall be caught in the snare;
For [p]the windows from on high are open,
And [q]the foundations of the earth are shaken.

19 [r]The earth is violently broken,
The earth is split open,
The earth is shaken exceedingly.
20 The earth shall [s]reel to and fro like a drunkard,
And shall totter like a hut;
Its transgression shall be heavy upon it,
And it will fall, and not rise again.

21 It shall come to pass in that day
That the LORD will punish on high the host of exalted ones,
And on the earth [t]the kings of the earth.

22 They will be gathered together,
As prisoners are gathered in the pit,
And will be shut up in the prison;
After many days they will be punished.
23 Then the [u]moon will be disgraced
And the sun ashamed;
For the LORD of hosts will [v]reign
On [w]Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
And before His elders, gloriously.

Praise to God

25 O LORD, You are my God.
[a]I will exalt You,
I will praise Your name,
[b]For You have done wonderful things;
[c]Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.
2 For You have made [d]a city a ruin,
A fortified city a ruin,
A palace of foreigners to be a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.
3 Therefore the strong people will [e]glorify You;
The city of the terrible nations will fear You.
4 For You have been a strength to the poor,
A strength to the needy in his distress,
[f]A refuge from the storm,
A shade from the heat;
For the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
5 You will reduce the noise of aliens,
As heat in a dry place;
As heat in the shadow of a cloud,
The song of the terrible ones will be diminished.

6 And in [g]this mountain
[h]The LORD of hosts will make for [i]all people
A feast of choice pieces,
A feast of wines on the lees,
Of fat things full of marrow,
Of well-refined wines on the lees.
7 And He will destroy on this mountain
The surface of the covering cast over all people,
And [j]the veil that is spread over all nations.

24:14–16 lift up their voice. Isaiah cannot join in the chorus of praise, because he, like Daniel (Dan. 7:28; 8:27), was too overwhelmed by the tragedy that was to come. It is impossible to tell whether the people who praised the Lord were faithful followers who had been oppressed by the treacherous leaders, or whether those who praised were the unfaithful leaders who were beginning to remember the Lord. There comes a time when the Lord does not wait any more, but He carries out the promised punishment for sinful behavior. Those who have trusted in Him will always find their souls secure, but that does not mean that they will not see dreadful sights or perhaps even be martyred for their faith.

24:21 that day. "That day" is the day that the Lord will finally judge the whole world (Rev. 20:11–15).

25:5 terrible ones. The use of the term "terrible" three times in verses 3–5 emphasizes divine judgment on the nations represented.

8 He will [k]swallow up death forever,
And the Lord GOD will [l]wipe away
tears from all faces;
The rebuke of His people
He will take away from all the earth;
For the LORD has spoken.

9 And it will be said in that day:
"Behold, this is our God;
[m]We have waited for Him, and He will save us.
This is the LORD;
We have waited for Him;
[n]We will be glad and rejoice in His
salvation."

10 For on this mountain the hand of the LORD will rest,
And [o]Moab shall be trampled down
under Him,
As straw is trampled down for the refuse heap.
11 And He will spread out His hands in their midst
As a swimmer reaches out to swim,
And He will bring down their [p]pride Together with the trickery of their hands.
12 The [q]fortress of the high fort of your walls
He will bring down, lay low,
And bring to the ground, down to the dust.

A Song of Salvation

26 In [a]that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city;
[b]God will appoint salvation for walls and bulwarks.
2 [c]Open the gates,
That the righteous nation which keeps the truth may enter in.
3 You will keep him in perfect [d]peace,
Whose mind is stayed on You,
Because he trusts in You.
4 Trust in the LORD forever,
[e]For in YAH, the LORD, is everlasting strength.*
5 For He brings down those who dwell on high,
[f]The lofty city;
He lays it low,
He lays it low to the ground,
He brings it down to the dust.
6 The foot shall tread it down—
The feet of the poor
And the steps of the needy."

7 The way of the just is uprightness;
[g]O Most Upright,
You weigh the path of the just.
8 Yes, [h]in the way of Your judgments,
O LORD, we have [i]waited for You;
The desire of our soul is for Your name
And for the remembrance of You.
9 [j]With my soul I have desired You in the
night,
Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek
You early;
For when Your judgments are in the
earth,
The inhabitants of the world will learn
righteousness.

10 [k]Let grace be shown to the wicked,
Yet he will not learn righteousness;
In [l]the land of uprightness he will deal
unjustly,
And will not behold the majesty of the LORD.
11 LORD, when Your hand is lifted up,
[m]they will not see.
But they will see and be ashamed
For their envy of people;
Yes, the fire of Your enemies shall devour them.

12 LORD, You will establish peace for us,
For You have also done all our works in us.
13 O LORD our God, [n]masters besides You
Have had dominion over us;
But by You only we make mention of Your name.
14 They are dead, they will not live;
They are deceased, they will not rise.
Therefore You have punished and destroyed them,
And made all their memory to [o]perish.
15 You have increased the nation, O LORD,
You have [p]increased the nation;
You are glorified;
You have expanded all the borders of the land.

* 26:4 Or Rock of Ages

25:8 wipe away tears. When the first earth passes away and the tabernacle of God is among men, finally the whole creation will be as it should be, and God will tenderly wipe away the tears of His people (Rev. 7:17; 21:4).

26:3 peace. The result of a settled faith in God is "perfect peace." Faith in God is the only thing that brings inner peace to man. One must come to the point of recognizing his own utter sinfulness and his deep need of a redeemer before he can find peace. Only when one is at peace with God can he have peace with others. Only a mind settled in God can tolerate the changing circumstances of life.

26:8 waited. Waiting for—or on—the Lord is a waiting with expectation. Perhaps one could describe it as the difference between waiting for the arrival of an airplane with a loved one arriving, and the waiting one does at a traffic light. (For a similar idea, see 40:31.)

16 LORD, [q]in trouble they have visited
You,
They poured out a prayer when Your chastening was upon them.
17 As [r]a woman with child
Is in pain and cries out in her pangs,
When she draws near the time of her delivery,
So have we been in Your sight,
O LORD.
18 We have been with child, we have been in pain;
We have, as it were, brought forth
wind;
We have not accomplished any deliverance in the earth,
Nor have [s]the inhabitants of the world
fallen.
19 [t]Your dead shall live; Together with my dead body* they shall arise.
[u]Awake and sing, you who dwell in
dust;
For your dew is like the dew of herbs,
And the earth shall cast out the dead.

Take Refuge from the Coming Judgment

20 Come, my people, [v]enter your chambers,
And shut your doors behind you;
Hide yourself, as it were, [w]for a little moment,
Until the indignation is past.
21 For behold, the LORD [x]comes out of
His place
To punish the inhabitants of the earth
for their iniquity;
The earth will also disclose her blood,
And will no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with His severe sword, great and strong,
Will punish Leviathan the fleeing
serpent,
[a]Leviathan that twisted serpent;
And He will slay [b]the reptile that is in the sea.

The Restoration of Israel

2 In that day [c]sing to her,
[d]"A vineyard of red wine!*
3 [e]I, the LORD, keep it,
I water it every moment;
Lest any hurt it,
I keep it night and day.
4 Fury is not in Me.
Who would set [f]briers and thorns
Against Me in battle?
I would go through them,
I would burn them together.
5 Or let him take hold [g]of My strength,
That he may [h]make peace with Me;
And he shall make peace with Me." 6 Those who come He shall cause [i]to take root in Jacob;
Israel shall blossom and bud,
And fill the face of the world with fruit.
7 [j]Has He struck Israel as He struck those who struck him?
Or has He been slain according to the slaughter of those who were slain
by Him?
8 [k]In measure, by sending it away,
You contended with it.
[l]He removes it by His rough wind
In the day of the east wind.
9 Therefore by this the iniquity of Jacob will be covered;
And this is all the fruit of taking away
his sin:
When he makes all the stones of the altar
Like chalkstones that are beaten to
dust,
Wooden images* and incense altars shall not stand.

* 26:19 Following Masoretic Text and Vulgate; Syriac and Targum read their dead bodies; Septuagint reads those in the tombs. * 27:2 Following Masoretic Text (Kittel's Biblia Hebraica), Bomberg, and Vulgate; Masoretic Text (Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia), some Hebrew manuscripts, and Septuagint read delight; Targum reads choice vineyard. * 27:9 Hebrew Asherim, Canaanite deities

26:18 brought forth wind. Even the faithful followers of the Lord cannot bring new life to the earth. Only God can regenerate the world and its inhabitants. The new life can come only through Jesus Christ, whose coming was still in the future at the time of Isaiah's writing.

26:21 The earth will also disclose her blood. In that day of judgment, there will be no unsolved murders, no injustice that is unrevealed.
